Pomona Grange Meets At Methodist Church

Approximately 100 were in attendance at the meeting of Pomona Grange, held Tuesday evening at the Methodist church. At 6:30, a cafeteria lunch was served, after which the business meeting was called to order by Fred W. Notten, Master. On account of the shortage of funds, no prizes will be awarded by the Grange to the 4-H clubs the coming year.

It was decided to hold an officers' training school in the near future, probably at Pleasant Lake, and Geo. T. English, August Lindemann and R. T. Brokaw were appointed a committee to have charge of the work.

Moving pictures of animal life and different scenes on Isle Royale were shown by the Conservation Department, of Lansing, also a demonstration of the prevention and fighting of forest fires.

Miss Cora Haas, County School Commissioner, gave a comparison of the old rural schools with three modern schools that have adopted the new system of teaching. Her talk was illustrated with lantern slides. It was decided to attend the Grange picnic to be held June 4 at Judge Horton's grove, Foot Ridge.

The program was interspersed with music by Mrs. P. M. Broesamle's orchestra.

State Cement Plant To Shut Down On Friday

It has been definitely decided to close the Michigan State cement plant at Four Mile Lake on Friday of this week, according to a statement issued by M. H. McGaffigan, superintendent of the plant, on Wednesday. The plant will remain closed until cement prices are stabilized so that the State can compete with independent company prices, according to Mr. McGaffigan.

A cement price war is now being staged by independent companies throughout the country, which will no doubt result in closing of many plants which are unable to take the loss incurred in such a slashing of prices.

Mr. McGaffigan stated that everything will be in readiness to start operations at the plant within 24 hours at any time, and that the period of the shut-down will be governed entirely by existing prices.

Several free men will be retained at the plant, and the entire force of convicts will be taken to Jackson within the next few weeks.

4-H Club Members Attend Special Tour

Eight Washtenaw county 4-H crops club members attended the special tour, and meeting for Michigan potato growers at the Detroit Union Produce Terminal on Fort and Green streets, Detroit, on Monday, May 11.

Approximately 200 to 250 farmers, mostly from the northern part of the state, attended this event. The object of the tour was to determine the reason for Michigan potatoes being in disfavor with the consuming public, and to devise ways of overcoming the consumer's prejudice against home state potatoes.

The 4-H club members who attended were either leaders or presidents of their respective clubs, and they will take the information that they learned back to their own clubs.

They were: Junior Colby of the Industrial Two in One club, Dexter township; George Tanner, of the same club; Floyd Balmer and George Stemen of the Lyndon 4-H club, Lyndon township; Olney Outwater, Lima 4-H club, Lima township; Bernard Hearl, of the Lincoln 4-H club, Augusta township, and Tracy Windrin and Edwin Patrick of the Salem Junior Farmers club, Salem township.

Ninety percent of the potatoes that were on the Terminal Market were out of the state potatoes. Practically all of the late potatoes of last year were from Idaho or Maine. The boys found that the few Michigan potatoes that were on the market were of poor quality due to being planted so late that they were not mature when harvested, and had not been properly graded. It was also conceded that probably if the growers are to put Michigan potatoes on top again, they will have to grow a white-skinned potato.

Michigan State College is conducting two potato experimental plots with 4-H potato club members in each potato club in Washtenaw county. This is the only county in which club members are carrying on these experiments. J. J. Bird, extension specialist in potatoes, Michigan State College reports that Washtenaw has the largest number of these experiments of any county in the state.

One of these experiments in each club is a "rate of planting test" in order to determine which are the right dates on which to plant potatoes in this section in order for them to grow a quality crop that will be mature. Dates on which plantings will be made are from May 5 to 15, about May 25, and from June 10 to 15.

The other test is designed to show the difference between the yield on a fertilized crop, and also to show the difference in grade, and yield, between potatoes spaced closely in the rows, and those spaced far apart in the rows.

A special day will be set apart at harvesting time for the crops—members and other interested people in their communities, to harvest these potato plots cooperatively so that they can actually see the results.

The following are the boys who will carry out these experiments: Date of planting experiment: Orson Beaman, Lyndon 4-H club; Helen Windrin, Salem Junior Farmers club; Lloyd Wheeler, Industrial Three in One club, Lyndon township; Albert Ruhlig and George Tanner of the Busy Two in One club, Dexter township; Willard Warner, Bridgewater 4-H club; Walter Seitz and Kenneth Outwater, Lima 4-H club; Stanley Helsenman, Lincoln 4-H club.

Fertilizer and spacing test: Bernard Hearl, Lincoln 4-H club, Augusta township; Olney Outwater, Lima 4-H club; Elmer Blumhardt, Bridgewater 4-H club; Junior Colby, Busy Two in One club, Dexter township; Wesley Hadley, Industrial Three in One club, Lyndon township; Retha M. Robert and Charles Smith, Salem Junior Farmers club; Floyd Balmer, Lyndon 4-H club.

Legion Picture Will Be Shown This Week

"Out of the Maelstrom" is a graphic picture of life at the Children's Billet, with liberal sprinklings of pathos, humor, tragedy, and drama. It shows the lives and activities of the children at the Otter Lake Billet. This two-reel picture will be shown along with the regular show at the Princess on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Scout Leaders Meet For Training Course

The first week-end of the sixth session of the four-council training course, held jointly by Jackson, Lansing, Wolverine and Washtenaw councils, was a success, according to reports from the more than 150 Scout leaders and older Scouts who were in attendance at Camp Newkirk, near Dexter.

One of the outstanding features of the session was the address by Dr. H. W. Hurt of national headquarters, who talked on "The Cub Movement." Dr. Hurt is the author of the Scout handbook and of all the official literature dealing with the cub movement in America.

Specialization courses were offered in elementary and advanced first aid, cubbing, camp museums and taxidermy, map making and surveying, forestry and conservation, Indian lore, sea scouting and nature trails and wilderness camps.

The next session of the course will be held the week-end of May 16th and 17th. There is no registration charge this year, the only expense being for meals.

Motorists Should Pay Only $1 For License

A letter in regard to a notary charge of 25 cents being made by some officials was received by the Standard from Frank D. Fitzgerald on Wednesday. The letter follows:

"Word has reached this office that in some communities of the state motorists obtaining new drivers' licenses, under the terms of the new drivers' license law, are being obliged to pay a notary fee in addition to the statutory license fee of $1. In Detroit and elsewhere, this notary fee is 25 cents, bringing the total cost of the license to $1.25.

"This extra charge has been added by local officials without any consultation with the Secretary of State's office. The notary fee goes to the local governmental unit, not to the State. So far as I know, there is nothing to prevent local officials from adding a notary fee if they wish to do so, but I am sorry that any motorist is being obliged to pay a cent more than the $1 provided by the statute.

"The Legislature directed that 15 cents of each dollar collected for a driver's license be returned to the city or county to recompense it for the work of issuance. I do not think the Legislature contemplated the addition of any notary fee by any local governmental unit. If it had anticipated anything of the kind, I do not think it would have provided that the State should give the city or county part of the dollar. I am making this statement because I want the public to understand that the Secretary of State's office has had nothing to do with the present unjust conditions, under which motorists in some communities get their licenses for $1 each, while those of other communities are obliged to pay $1.25. Our attitude is that $1 should be the total cost to everyone in Michigan."

TWILIGHT-BALL DOPE

The Masonic and St. Paul's Twilight ball teams will play tonight at Holmes field, and the Legion and Masons will play next Tuesday night. St. Paul's and Odd Fellows will play next Thursday night. The game between the Masons and Odd Fellows last Thursday night resulted in a tie score, as did the game Friday when the Legion opposed St. Paul's. Tuesday's scheduled game, Legion vs. Odd Fellows, was postponed on account of rain. Dates for playing the postponed games will be announced later.

High Wages, High Dividends Disarmament, Sweet Word The Dole Bogey King George's 21st Year

Gerard Swope, president of the General Electric company, tells the International Chamber of Commerce it is the business of each industry to regularize employment and avoid seasonal or cyclical periods of idleness.

Mr. Swope gave his associates, the other industrial kings, sound advice. Their prosperity depends absolutely on the prosperity of their own and others' employees.

It is the $100,000,000,000 earned and spent every year by American workers, in normal times, that make prosperity.

The few that live on unearned income cannot absorb the nation's automobile, radio, washing machine or vacuum cleaner output.

"Disarmament is vital to the revival of business," said President Hoover to the International Chamber of Commerce, adding: "Of all proposals for the economic rehabilitation of the world I know of none which compares in necessity or importance with the successful results of general disarmament."

General disarmament, if feasible, and if those agreeing to it would act loyally, would save many billions a year.

But who will disarm first? Why not let those begin disarmament who have started all the important international wars of a hundred years past. This country has never started one.

When it was suggested that the death penalty be abolished, a witty Frenchman replied: "Que mesieurs les assassins commencent!" "Let the assassins commence!"

In disarmament, the war-makers might commence.

Great Britain is worried, "stagnated" by the cost of the debt. It runs up now to $500,000,000 of our money a year. That is too much if spent unnecessarily. But it is a small sum if the spending prevents serious revolution.

England preferred sending money to the continent, financing the fights of others in Napoleon's time, to going over and fighting on her own account. When the peace was ripe for picking, she went over and picked it at Waterloo.

With the question of unemployment dangerous in Great Britain, that rich country professes to spend half a billion feeding the people rather than pay the cost of a revolution.

As it is, having the Labor party in power is revolution enough for the Tories. And if a country can afford $50,000,000,000 or an external war, it can afford some money to prevent dangerous dissatisfaction at home.

King George of England is celebrating the end of his twenty-first year as king. Only seventeen English kings and queens have remained longer than twenty-one years on the throne.

King George has now equaled the term of William the Conqueror. He has been a different term. The Conqueror ruled. He suppressed many small kingdoms to make a big one, wiped out villages and farms to create vast deer parks.

Long after his death, as late as the time of Henry II, an English workman moving from one parish to another in search of a job, without permission, was branded on his neck with a red-hot iron.

King George has lived to see a workman, formerly in the coal mines, prime minister of England, and writing the speeches that the king delivers, "the address from the throne."

Bryan Untiedt, Colorado boy, who saved several lives in the March blizzard, is out of the White House, back in his overalls at home, helping his mother with the weekly washing and his father feeding his pigs.

Asked about Washington's wonders, he said he hadn't seen anything as fine as his baby sister. He held her in his arms for a while, before he put away his store clothes and put on his overalls.

Young Untiedt doesn't know it, but he probably is happier than the President, whom he left behind in Washington.

Calvin Coolidge says we have too many lawyers and too many not of the right kind. We need only a few new lawyers each year, and about 10,000 are admitted to the bar. That helps explain several things.

As to the necessary number of lawyers, Calvin Coolidge does not agree with Peter the Great of Russia. When Peter was told that the men in white wigs running in and out of the English law court were his lawyers, he was amazed. "There are only two lawyers in Russia," said he. "And as soon as I get home I'm going to hang one of them."

Marriages in New York state last year were fewer than in any year of this century, excepting 1908. That is more important, and discouraging, than the low prices for stocks.

FIRE-PROOF?

No building is fire-proof—entirely proof against fire. True, there are fire-resistive buildings. But repeated proofs show the necessity of insuring even that type—the safest type—of building.

Don't resist the prudent thought of carrying adequate insurance on fire-resistive buildings and their contents. It's better to have insurance and not need it than to need it and not have it, isn't it?

LOSING HOPE? TEST KONJOLA

Thousands Declare: "This Is The Medicine I Should Have Had In The First Place"

It's what a medicine does that counts. Read the experience of Mrs. Laura Clements, 913 Rock Island Street, Peoria, Ill., who says: "My system became filled with poisons and I was very weak, run-down and listless. I gained in weight, strength and energy from the beginning of the Konjola treatment. I feel better than I have in years."

Now read the statement of Mr. Geo. N. Smith, 643 South Fairfield Ave., Chicago, who says: "Neuritis attacked my left arm until I was nearly helpless when I tried to raise it. Five bottles of Konjola relieved me of all the pain of this dread ailment and I am my old self again. Now I am having my wife take Konjola. She, too, is having wonderful results and looks forward to complete relief."

Speedway Tests Reveal
FACTS to guide the careful buyer of Motor Oil

The Contest Board of the American Automobile Association certifies to these statements:

- 1 Iso-Vis Motor Oil did not thin out from dilution.
- 2 During the entire test of 9,000 miles, the engines and chassis of all cars were lubricated effectively.
- 3 Oil Added: only 6 1/2 of a quart—average for all cars—in 1,000 mile test at 30 miles per hour, using Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy).
- 4 Effect of speed on oil consumption: Speed is the chief factor affecting oil consumption. All oils tested at 55 miles per hour showed a consumption nearly 7 times that at 30 miles per hour. Iso-Vis gave excellent oil economy at all speeds.
- 5 Carbon: only 6.23 grams per cylinder at 30 m. p. h. using Iso-Vis 50 (Heavy), average for all cars.
- 6 Cylinder Wear: scarcely measurable—less than one-thousandth (1/1000) of an inch in any cylinder in any car for the entire 9,000 miles.

HERE is proof that New Iso-Vis does an outstanding job of lubrication. Try this tested and certified oil in your car. Then at draining time, make the Ball and Bottle Test at any Standard Oil Service Station or dealer with New Iso-Vis you have used. See for yourself that besides many other advantages, New Iso-Vis will not thin out from dilution.

Why Paw Paw children don't go to school worried Mrs. John A. Brennan, the Paw Paw school nurse. She looked into the matter. Of 822 children in school, she found 116 were sadly in need of having their tonsils out, but she also found that few could afford it.

So Mrs. Brennan talked to the county officials, hired a bus, and collected a load of children. And as a result 52 tonsils were removed at the University of Michigan hospital at Ann Arbor, with the expense charged to Van Buren county. Another bus load is to be brought to Ann Arbor soon.

MILAN—Flower thieves. Does it seem possible that such a name could attach to anyone in connection with such beauty as flowers. But it has been noticed brought to our attention that flower thieves are to be found in our little town of Milan. How dreadful this seems when we all know that anyone who loves flowers enough to work and raise them would willingly give them to anyone longing for their beauty if only the request were made. Children should be taught that it is just as much stealing to enter a garden and pick flowers as it would be to go into a store and take candy from the counter.—Leader.

MANCHESTER—The foundation walls of the old cement plant occupy a very commanding position in Manchester and are often the subject of inquiry by visitors. A few days ago, someone from England drove over there and took snapshots of them. They certainly are imposing and he will probably display them as a relic of a once great industry. Oh well, we have other dreams.—Enterprise.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—To settle an argument will you kindly answer in your question department if Hawaiians or Filipinos are eligible to be the president of the United States? Especially when they can't read, write nor speak the English language?

Ans.—Hawaii is a territory of the United States and consequently are natural born citizens of the United States. They are thus eligible to the presidency of the United States, but can't read, write or speak the English language, they would stand a poor show of being elected.

Ques.—Does Portugal or Sweden have capital punishment laws? If so, what is their mode of execution? Are there as many murders there as there are in other countries which have capital punishment?

Ans.—Neither Portugal nor Sweden have capital punishment for criminals. Portugal even goes so far as to refuse extradition of a criminal to a country which enforces capital punishment. Portugal has the smallest percentage of first degree murderers of any country in the world. The Netherlands is second and Sweden is third lowest. Bulgaria, which has capital punishment, has the highest percentage of first-degree murderers.

Ques.—Will you kindly settle this bet by stating in your question column if a horse pulls more with its hind legs than it does with its front legs?

Ans.—We do not like to be responsible for either of you losing a bet, and therefore we feel reluctant about giving you an answer, as opinions differ. The most reliable says that approximately 90 per cent of a horse's strength is in its hind legs.

Ques.—Can you tell me who put the words "In God We Trust" on United States silver money?

Ans.—Salmon P. Chase, when he was secretary of the treasury in 1864, is responsible for that motto, although the motto itself originated with Francis Scott Key when he wrote "The Star Spangled Banner." In this immortal song this line appears: "And this be our motto: 'In God is our trust.'"

Ques.—What is it that keeps trees from growing on the great plains and other plains of the world?

Ans.—We find that scientists are not agreed of this question. Insufficient rainfall, according to the Forest Service, is the most commonly accepted explanation of this condition of absence of trees.

Ques.—Why is it that beekeepers do not get stung? Is it because they know their master?

Ans.—Honey-bees do not distinguish their master from any other individual. The average life of a working bee is about six weeks. Two of these weeks are spent inside the hive. A beekeeper does not examine his hives frequently enough for the bees to recognize him even could they distinguish between human beings. A first-class beekeeper is so familiar with the habits of bees that he knows how to handle them and rarely gets stung.

Ques.—I want to ask in your question column who or what are the Copts?

Ans.—In Egypt and Ethiopia, the Copts embrace an orthodox creed which they claim to be direct descendants of the ancient Egyptians. Its head is the patriarch of Alexandria.

Ques.—Does the editor of the question column of your paper have much trouble with his car?

Ans.—Surely. Don't you know that he is married to it?

Ques.—I have a book of select poems in which the following lines appear, but has no author:
"Kind actions are the trees,
Kind thoughts are the roots,
Kind deeds are the blossoms,
Kind words are the fruits."
Can you tell me who wrote them?

Ans.—The author is not known. The lines you quote were published anonymously.

Ques.—What did Molly Pitcher do during the Revolution to merit getting pay from the government for life?

Ans.—While working his cannon at the battle of Mammouth an American gunner was killed. His wife, popularly known as Molly Pitcher, a young Irish woman 22 years old, had been carrying water to him from a near-by spring. When she saw her husband killed, she dropped her bucket, seized a rammer and took her husband's place at the gun. She did her work with such skill and courage that the next morning Gen. Greene presented her to Washington, who was so pleased with her bravery that he gave her a commission as sergeant and had her name placed on the payroll for the balance of her life.

Ques.—Did any president ever die in the White House?

Ans.—Yes. There were two presidents who died in the White House. They were Zachary Taylor and William Henry Harrison.

Thrills of A Lifetime In New Jungle Picture, "Trader Horn"

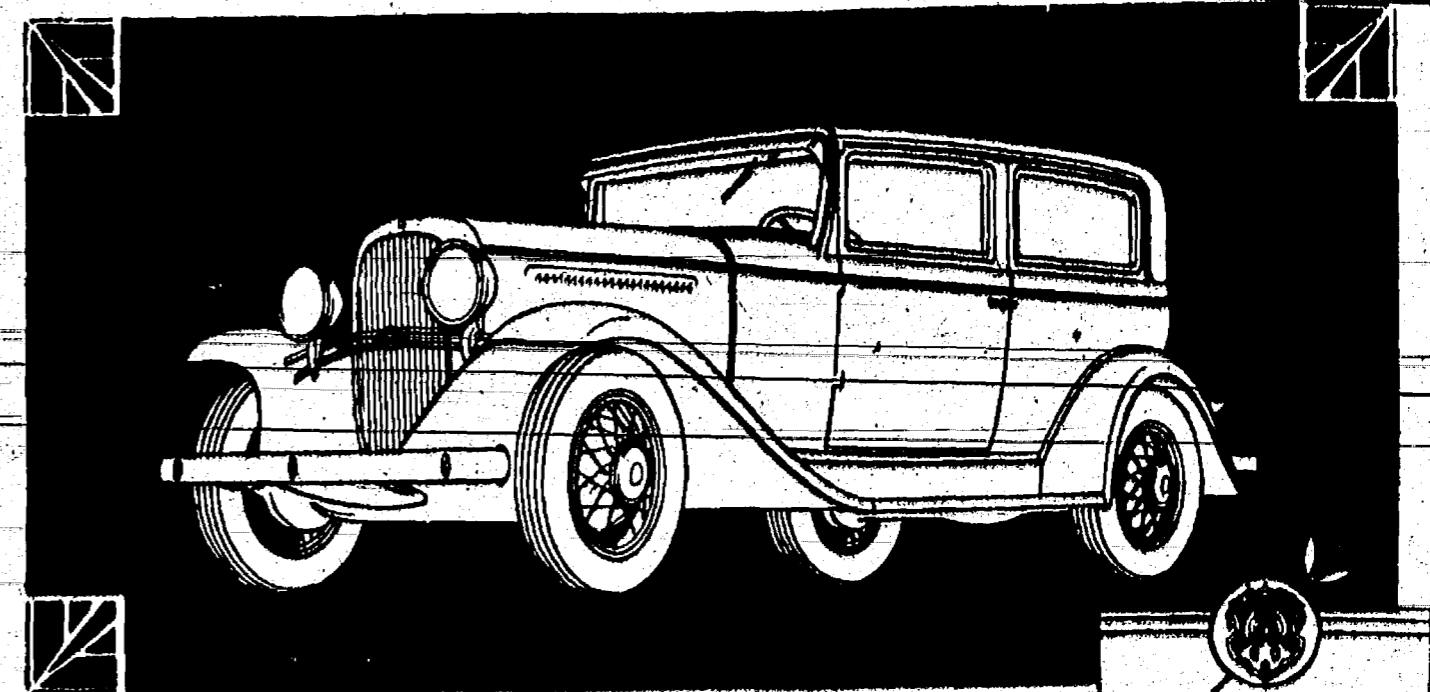

Scenes never before caught by the camera are some of the outstanding achievements of the "Trader Horn" expedition into mysterious Africa.

This Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all-time production, which will be shown at the Michigan Theatre, Ann Arbor, for one week starting Sunday, has been acclaimed during first showings in New York and Los Angeles as a movie masterpiece of travel, adventure, realism and romance.

You will see lions in mortal combat, a rhinoceros stampede, hair-breadth escapes from huge crocodiles, savage tribesmen, weird native rites and a hundred other thrills. Harry Carey, Edwin Booth and Duncan Renaldo are featured in a cast of thousands.

The "Trader Horn" expedition covered over 25,000 miles in its search for unique thrills and the unrecorded. The picture is based on the book of the same name which amazed and startled readers the world over.

McCORMICK-DEERING SERVICE — Always Ready When You Need It

YOUR community is served by a well-established McCormick-Deering dealer, as is practically every farming community in the land. His stocks and service are backed up by this large, permanently established International Harvester branch house right here in your own section. In McCormick-Deering dealers' stores the repair bins are well stocked with genuine IHC repair parts. Thousands of these dealers maintain completely equipped service stations, offering factory-standard service on all International Harvester equipment. Additional service stations are being established as rapidly as they are justified by business in the community.

As a direct result, McCormick-Deering service is better today than it was last year or 10 years ago; our resources and reputation are your guarantee that it will be still better when the tractor or any other machine you buy today is 10 years old.

It is our business to protect you in this way, and we take our obligation seriously. It is your business to buy where you get the greatest value; not just the day you sign the order, but through every day and every year you rely on your purchase for cost-reducing work in your fields.

The lack of a small $1 repair part can easily cost you $10 or $100 in lost labor or delayed work, for time flies in the producing season and Nature waits on no man. Your men cost you money when they are idle, the same as when they are working. When you need service on a farm tractor or any other machine you need it quick. International Harvester knows this out of 100 years of experience with farm operating equipment and maintains complete service to back up every tractor and machine bearing the McCormick-Deering or International name.

Keep this superior service in mind when you select new power or equipment with which to reduce your crop production costs. Compare McCormick-Deering tractors and machines with any or all others—weighing one feature against another and one quality against another—then you will be doubly glad to buy your equipment where you can get the absolute assurance of good, quick, convenient service which is offered you by this International Harvester branch and the McCormick-Deering dealer serving your community.

Farmall Savings Investment Plan!

Ask the McCormick-Deering dealer for details of this new plan under which you or any other responsible farmer can purchase a Farmall and Farmall equipment now and meet the first payment this fall with just a part of the savings made possible by the new equipment in the production of your corn crop, with two years in which to pay the balance.

We begin our life with a sensitive body of twenty-odd chemical elements which surrender their original nature in becoming welded into a compact organic system.

Chemical reactions in a chemical body. Of most of them we are not conscious. But the living mind and the living body are inseparable and together make up the individual.

The culture of any people, tribe, race, or nation at any given time is an historical problem. Each age carries its loaded situation to which human beings responded in obedience to the impulse to live.

Tokyo, Peking, Delhi, Cairo, Rome, London, New York, Main Street; random sample words. Into these life comes in small packages called babies, fundamentally all alike, all human, all blood-kin, all of one species.

C. J. Starkey, lawyer of Hollywood and accustomed to big figures, says Queen Isabella got a poor return when she invested $6,000 worth of jewelry in Columbus' trip to America.

Cyrus H. K. Curtis thinks, and says in an editorial: "A man who ran for office in America today with a straight anti-crime record and a convincing threat against it would come nearer to getting votes than many another candidate."

The former knave, now known to Germans as William Hohenzollern, has sued a German recorder of deeds because he refused to record a deed signed "William, I. R." The I. R. stands for Imperator, Rex—"Emperor, King."

Dante, in the Infernal regions, found men that he had left alive in Florence. Virgil explained that some particularly bad individuals walk around the earth thinking they are alive, when their souls really are in hell.

(By George A. Dorsey.)

In this country we bet on the races at least $10 for every one bet in France, and all the profit goes to bookmakers, race-track trusts, etc.

Business men plan a fight to change, in a common-sense way, some of the laws that hamper business, and it is none too soon.

Under the obsolete Sherman act, made in the days of hansom cabs, nearly half a century ago, any group of men that should now "conspire" to stop criminal waste in the oil industry, or to regulate any industrial production to prevent slumps or depression, could be put in jail.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., serves his city by rebuilding and transforming an undeveloped section in the heart of New York at an expense of about $250,000,000.

This undertaking guarantees, over a long period, a very large and permanent income for Columbia college. It shows what can be done with imagination, energy and money, to improve a great city in a short time.

Mary Pickford, in New York on her way to London, says her will will compel the burning of all films of moving pictures in which she has appeared.

Mary Pickford is still very young; her will, probably, will not be read for 60 or 70 years at the earliest, and everybody hopes it will be much nearer 100 years. Perhaps, in that interval, she will realize that to destroy pictures, which are a most important part of a great American industry, and illustrate a forward step in civilization, would be a crime. She made her pictures, she says, to give happiness in her lifetime. She should leave them to give inspiration and information.

These same babies, one, five, twenty, fifty years later show differences more than skin deep, differences burned into the very protoplasm of their bodies. Which means: their habits are different, their tongues are different, their thoughts are different. They doff their hats to different gods and play the game of life in different ways and for different stakes.

Into each home the baby comes as a loaded stimulus. It may be hailed as the "watcher greets the dawn"; or with, "Well, here it is!"; or as another mouth to feed. Its arrival is a complex of stimuli. Out of these the baby is often made or broken the day it is born—a chance that must be taken these days as the price of the opportunity to become civilized.

Most of them do. Some never become adjusted. They die, as Socrates, Savonarola, Lavolsier; or they are fed to the lions by Nero, disappear on St. Bartholomew's day, or work in a factory. They borrow, beg, or steal. There are as many ways and degrees of unadjustment as there are of adjustment, all graduated to the ways and degrees to which adjustment is demanded.
