Tower Creamery Company Announces Opening For Receipt of Milk and Cream On June 25; Expect 25,000 Pounds

Village Officials Plan Hard Surface Streets As Economy Measure

With the idea in mind of ultimately saving the village of Chelsea
thousands of dollars each year
through the elimination of street maintenance, the common council is considering the proposition of commencing a program of hard-surfacing streets of Chelsea with tar or other black-top material.

Considerable pressure has been brought to bear upon village administration during the past few years by citizens who believe this plan should be started and that money which is spent in maintaining each year in hazardous condition the streets of the village would be a more permanent benefit.

During the past year the present administration accumulated an additional surplus of approximately $5,000.00 in spite of a reduction in the tax rate last summer. Figures which have been compiled by the council show that with the expenditure of about $4,500.00 one mile of streets could be hard surfaced. In the event that a $100,000 would be available each year for such work it would be a matter of only a few years until all the streets in the village could be improved in this manner.

The annual upkeep of the streets,
up to last year, has included the expenditure of about $1,200.00 for calcium chloride dust layers. This sum was halved last year and has been eliminated entirely this year, which makes more funds available for the permanent improvement work.

A committee from the council has made an investigation of hard-surfaced streets in other towns and they have found that pavements similar to the anticipated improvement here are giving good satisfaction.

It is planned by the council to commence work on the project within the next month. The work will be done without any increase in tax rates, and will provide employment for a number of local men.

State Senate Votes To

Keep Cement Plant

The much debated question in the past two years whether the Chelsea cement plant will operate after June 1, 1934, was settled Saturday so far as the state senate is concerned.

By unanimous vote, the upper chamber passed the Niechyzski bill voiding the date which had been set by the 1931 legislature. The measure was immediately transmitted to the house where it is expected to pass this week. Unless approval is given it there and the governor signs the measure, the plant will be dismantled
under present law.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

A number of relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. John Schanz Thursday evening as a surprise to her, to

were awarded Mrs. Conrad Schanz, consolation to Mrs. Herman Schanz.

McKune Says Speeding In Village Must Stop

A warning is issued to motorists who use the streets of Chelsea for a race track, by J. B. McKune, village president. Mr. McKune says that many life warnings have been issued and published at frequent intervals
but that insufficient effort has been made to carry out the threats of arrest for traffic violations.

Mr. McKune has now instructed local officers that speeding and reckless driving must be stopped in Chelsea, and has also asked state police to assist in patrolling local streets in order to help with the enforcement of his orders.

Traffic violations are not only dangerous to the public safety but also cause some of the worst cases of recklessness on the side streets and that is where some of the efforts will be centered to perfect the plan up. Mc-Kune says, which has been used as a race track on public streets when games are played, will be watched carefully, and no doubt some arrests
will result.

Contrary to the opinion of many,
the violators are not confined to the young of the village, but include many adults who will be among those to be prosecuted if violations are not stopped.

It is to be hoped that Mr. McKune will carry out his intention of exercising the reckless driving problem,
so that motorists will learn to use the proper amount of judgment in their operation of automobiles before fatalities result.

Commencement Week Was Full of Activities

activities were given the past week
for the graduating class of Chelsea High, beginning with the vesper service on Sunday evening, June 4 in the Methodist church and the sermon

furnished by the Methodist choir.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings
the seniors presented their class play,
"The Thirteenth Chair" at the school auditorium.

versity of Michigan. A solo was rendered by Mrs. A. A. Palmer.

Thirty-six graduates received diplomas, which were presented by Supt. E. Y. Poore.

The Alumni banquet on Friday evening was attended by 125 Alumni and friends, out of town guests including Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Taylor, Ola B. Taylor, Claire S. Durand, Mr.
and Mrs. George Leonard and Mr.
and Mrs. Deane Rogers of Detroit,
Mr. and Mrs. Austin Palmer of Houtings, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Staffan, Mrs. John Schanz, Miss Ruth Vogel
and Jack Dunn of Ann Arbor, Miss Nell Congdon of Saline and Clayton anniversary of the Class of '83, of which the townmaster A. W. Wilkinson is a member. The speaker of the evening was Ora H. Taylor of Detroit, formerly of Chelsea. A toast

CARD OF THANKS

I wish in this way to express my heartfelt thanks to all my neighbors and friends for the many kindnesses shown me during my recent bereavement.

Mrs. P. Osterle.

For the present only the first and second floors of the building will be in use. These two floors provide floor space of 18,000 square feet.

Bulk, ice machine, milk storage and receiving room will be located on the first floor. The second floor will contain the refrigeration room, pasteurizers, separators, vacuum pan, milk
cooling machine, butter making room, brine circulating system for cooling milk and cream, equipment for making cottage cheese, bulk condensed milk for bakeries and ice cream manufacturers. The office and laboratory will also be located on the second floor.

Manufactured products of the plant
will include butter, cottage cheese, ice cream mix and preparation of sweet cream and milk for the market. A ready market awaits the increased output in Detroit and as volume increases the company's products will be shipped to New Jersey where a market has also been developed by company officials.

It is expected that 25,000 pounds of milk will be received each day when the creamery opens for business, and within 30 days it is hoped this volume will increase to 40,000 pounds per day. The capacity of the plant, which is 100,000 pounds per day, will not be reached for perhaps a year, according to those in charge.

Approximately 100 farmers will send milk here at the opening, and it is planned to increase the number materially each week until the capacity of the plant is reached. The price to be paid farmers will be higher than they are now receiving for their products from other sources.

The milk will be paid for on a flat basis, there being no surplus, which is now an annoying problem with dairymen as well as very unprofitable.

The creamery will be operated on a cooperative basis, and memberships are being distributed among farmers of the community and business men of Chelsea who welcome the enterprise into the community, knowing that benefits to be derived by dairymen will bring the milk and cream producing business to a more profitable basis.

Chas. MacKinnon, formerly of Adrian, heads the company. Two members of the board of directors will be chosen from the farmer membership
and one director will be a Chelsea business man.

Michigan Department of State

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

Frank D. Fitzgerald
Secretary of State

Lansing—Financial responsibility of automobile drivers is to be one of the main subjects of discussion at the meeting of the Eastern Conference of Motor Vehicle Administrators to be held in Detroit June 27, 28 and 29. The Michigan Department of State participates in these meetings under authority of a resolution of the 1931 legislature directing the department to cooperate with other states in securing uniform motor vehicle and traffic laws.

The three topics of discussion at the Detroit meeting will be the financial responsibility of motor vehicle operators to other users of the highways; uniformity of laws regarding licensing of vehicle operators; and reciprocity between states with regard to enforcement of traffic laws. Michigan will be represented at the meeting by Orville E. Atwood, chief of the motor-vehicle division of the department.

More new automobiles will be sold in Michigan during the present month than were sold during June, 1932. This prediction is based upon a study of records of the Department of State. Sale of new cars in Michigan reached a low ebb in February, 1933, when approximately 175 automobiles a day were registered. Since then there has been a steady increase. During the first week of June, 3,729 new automobiles were registered as compared with 2,891 for the same period in 1932.

Improved business conditions also are credited with the increase in the number of motor vehicle operators' licenses that are being issued daily from the department. In the past two months the average number of licenses issued daily has increased from 900 to 1,500.

Michigan will not lose one dollar of its gasoline tax because of the bank holiday, according to executives of the Department of State. The January gas tax amounting to $1,350,000 was due February 20, six days after the holiday was declared. Dealers at once were asked to mail checks as usual as evidence of indebtedness even though the checks could not be cleared. In the intervening months all of these checks have been paid except $87,850 and arrangements have been made for the complete liquidation of this unpaid balance within the next 90 days. Dealers are to be commended for taking up these checks under adverse business conditions.

Summer Outing of Publishers Next Week

For three days, June 22, 23 and 24, Michigan weekly publishers and their families are going to enjoy their annual summer outing at Frankfort, one of the beautiful little northern Michigan communities that lies on the shore of Lake Michigan. Not only are they going to enjoy the hospitality of this ideal little community but the Leelanau peninsula and its interesting places are to be visited by the editors.

Andrew Peterson, publisher of the Benzie County Patriot, the Rotary club of Frankfort and other citizens of that community, have made plans for a most interesting time for their visitors.

The editors and their families will be guests at a banquet Thursday evening, June 22. Village President E. R. Ludtke of Frankfort, also a member of the Democratic state central committee, will welcome the visitors. M. W. McCure, publisher of The Chelsea Standard and chairman of the summer outing committee, will make the response at the banquet in behalf of the editors.

Schuyler Marshall, publisher of the St. Johns Republican-News, will be toastmaster. The rest of the program promises to be a real thriller. Senator Leon Case, publisher of the Waterliet Record and Democratic floor leader of the state senate, will tell of the work of the present session of the state legislature from a Democratic standpoint. Vernon J. Brown, publisher of the Ingham County News, president of the Michigan Press Association and Republican leader in the house, will discuss the work of the present legislature from a Republican standpoint.

The toastmaster has announced that there will be no draw to this battle and that the speakers will have all the time they desire and can say anything they desire, providing, of course, it is all within the law.

The next day there will be golf tournaments, fishing, boating, swimming and a trip through the beautiful Leelanau peninsula. A lake trip on one of the big Pere Marquette car ferries with the Frankfort school band providing the music, is also scheduled.

The three days is so filled with interesting affairs that the prospects are the attendance this year will be one of the largest during the many years that weekly newspaper editors have joined in one big gala event sometime during the summer months.

JACKSON—Sunday, June 25, has been designated as Rose Sunday in Jackson, at which time the gardens in Ella Sharp park will be in full bloom. —Saturday Evening Star.

Why Does the Housewife Want to Cook With ELECTRICITY?

1. It is CLEAN. No smoke, no soot, no blackened pots and pans, no soiled walls and curtains.
2. It is COOL. The heat is used to cook the food, not to cook the cook.
3. It is HEALTHFUL. No fumes, no products of combustion in the kitchen atmosphere. Tastier, better cooked meats and vegetables.
4. It is ECONOMICAL. Not only is the cost of operation reasonable in comparison to other methods, but there are many other savings such as less shrinkage of roasts.
5. It is MODERN. Nearly every housewife would like to have an All-Electric Kitchen.
6. It is SAFE. No matches, no flame, no chance for tragic burns or asphyxiation.
7. It is FAST. Modern electric ranges will cook as quickly as any other type of range—for some operations they are faster.
8. It is TIME SAVING. Less bother, less watching and with the timer control meals can be cooked while the housewife is away from home.
9. It is ACCURATE. The electric range accurate temperature control makes possible absolutely uniform results.
10. It is SIMPLE. Electric Cooking is now the easiest and simplest way to cook.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

"I WANT MY TELEPHONE PUT IN AGAIN"

In our business offices throughout Michigan that statement has been heard frequently during the past few weeks. Many of our former subscribers say that it has been hard to get along without a telephone—that they never realized how much they needed it until they were without one.

A telephone in the home has become almost a necessity. Just one telephone call in case of sickness, fire or accident may be worth more than the cost of the service for a lifetime. Order a telephone today. Installation will be made promptly.

You are cordially invited to visit the Bell System exhibit in the Communications Building, Century of Progress Exposition, Chicago, June 1 to October 31.

Banks that stand higher now than ever

Good bank management was not as generally appreciated three years ago as it is now!

Then, the banker who kept a firm grip on the money he was holding in trust for his depositors, was not always popular. Promoters, and borrowers of a certain class, did not like him.

However, today depositors trust him, and know that he has kept faith with them under difficulties. This is his reward.

The real test of a good banker is not popularity, but fidelity!

HIS BEER was good back in those pre-war days—but nothing like your glass of foaming beer today! For prohibition taught us lots of things. How to make, for instance, a brew that would be as rich and tasty as the old-time beer, even after the alcohol was removed!

Today, the brewer no longer tampers with the natural, wholesome 3.2 content of the product. Result: The beer is by taste a better, fuller-flavored brew than the finest of pre-war beverages. Try a bottle or a shupper tonight!

THE BREAD CROCK ON THE STAIR
Of the old Iron Kettle
We once wrote a rhyme,
Its glories and tributes
Were true, every line.

The old Sugar Bucket
I have scraped 'till I'm tired;
The Jugs and Flat Irons
Are every one fired.

I've scratched my old pate 'till
My scalp's getting sore,
In typing old friendships
And glad days of yore.

Now listen! Best mother
A boy ever had,
Know how to make bread that
Would make one's heart glad.

An old fashioned stone crock,
That stood on the stair,
Covered over with cloth
To keep out the air.

This was the crock,
And this was the bread,
On which a thick plaster
Of butter was spread.

Coming home from the school
With laughter and shout,
Our mouth and our stomach
Was soon filled, there's no doubt.

Dear Mother is gone,
The crock and the bread,
And what we get now
Is an Oleo spread.

But the old fashioned Pantry,
The crock on the stair,
The bread and the butter,
The boy that was there,

Fill memories' casket,
With only one sigh, and that's
For a lunch such as this Before we die.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—My mother was born on July 1, 1894, and she would like to know what day of the week that was. Will you please answer as soon as you can?

Ans.—Your mother was born on Sunday, which was the day of the week on which July 1, 1894, fell.

Ques.—Will you kindly answer if you can, just how many muscles there are in the human body. Or is it not known?

Ans.—There are about 620 muscles that have to do with the moving of the human body. In addition to these, there are various muscular structures in the internal organs, but these are not usually considered muscles.

Ques.—I would like to ask you if bumps on the head and the irregular shapes of the head will determine character of a person?

Ans.—No. The shape of the head seems to have no relation at all to the character of the brain inside it, except in cases of actual and obvious deformity—and frequently not then.

Ques.—Can you answer in your good paper why it is hard to run up hill and easy to run down?

Ans.—When you go up hill you are lifting your weight against the force of gravity. This takes power. For instance, if a person weighs 150 pounds and will run up hill in one minute to a vertical distance of ten feet, they will use about one-twentieth of a horse power merely in lifting their weight. Going down hill, the problem would be reversed.

Ques.—To settle an argument, will you please answer what baseball pitcher holds the record for winning the greatest number of games in succession? Also in what year? Where is he now?

Ans.—Rube Marquess, pitcher for the New York Giants in 1912, won 30 consecutive games. This is a record which has not as yet been equaled. Marquess retired from baseball many years ago, and is now employed as checker at the Laurel, Md. race track.

Ques.—What should I do when my husband has broken all the promises he made me?

Ans.—Don't worry. Just have him make you some more.

Ques.—What is the population of the earth? And how many of them belong to the white race?

Ans.—The population of the earth to date is closely estimated to be two billion people. Of this number, about one billion belong to the white race, and the other billion are divided as follows: Mongolian, 600,000,000; Negro, 200,000,000; Semite, 100,000,000; Malayan, 70,000,000; Red Indian, 30,000,000.

Ques.—I am submitting this question to settle an argument. Which is the longest river in the United States?

Ans.—The Missouri river is the longest in the United States. The Mississippi is second. The former is 91 miles longer than the latter.

Ques.—Who laid the cornerstone of the Capitol building in Washington? What was the date?

Ans.—The cornerstone of the Capitol building in Washington was laid by President George Washington on September 18, 1793.

Ques.—How does Czechoslovakia have a merchant marine when they have no seacoast?

Ans.—According to the peace treaty following the World War, Czechoslovakia was given the right to certain wharves at Hamburg and Stettin. It also has 800 miles of navigable rivers, which includes the Danube and the Elbe.

Ques.—In the days when Indians scalped the white people, were any of their victims ever known to survive? If so, who were they?

Ans.—It seems to be a popular tradition that Indians scalped their victims alive. This is not true. The Indians took the scalp after their victims had been killed, and not before.

Electric Catfish

The electric catfish, which lives in Nigerian waters, possesses powerful electric organs in its body which it uses in a strange way. When it is hungry it swims around until it comes a larger fish having a meal. It causes usually by, as if seeking any stray crumbs from the big fellow's feast, and as it does so it brushes its victim with its tusk. A powerful shock is transmitted—startled, the big fish takes to flight, and the catfish calmly helps itself to the meal.

Plenty at That

The remarkable English language contains approximately 700,000 words. Possibly 200,000 more terms may be attributed as names, obsolete, vulgar, low, etc., and therefore seldom or never caught in dictionaries designed for general use. Although the war added many words to the English language, the number is less than 10,000.

St. Paul's Beginners Will Give Pageant

A pageant, "Of Such is the Kingdom" will be presented at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at St. Paul's church by the Beginners' and Primary classes of the Sunday school.

The plot of the pageant follows:

Scene One—Eight primary girls and boys meet in a lovely garden and long to see a Fairy. To their surprise, a Rose Fairy comes to the garden and tells the children that she is really Joy and Happiness. She informs them that she is going to send them out to find what they think is the loveliest thing in the world, and in one week she will be waiting for them in the garden to get their answer.

Scene Two—A short intermission denotes the lapse of time and Rose Fairy is waiting for them in the garden.

The first brings the birds with their cheery song; the second, the silver raindrops, the third, the bright sunbeams, the fourth, the beautiful rainbow.

The fifth brings the flowers, including Jack-in-the-Pulpit and his wife. The sixth brings the beautiful shady trees, the seventh, the sparkling jewels. The eighth brings a group of little children as the loveliest thing in the world because Jesus said "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Jesus also said "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a little child, and unless you try to be like one, you can never enter therein. All the children then decided that a little child is the loveliest thing in the world.

LEGISLATURE ON FINAL LAP

This Week Will See End of Longest Session Ever Held

By Elton R. Eaton

Lansing, Mich.—One more week—probably Saturday, June 17—and the members of the Michigan legislature will go home to tell the folks that voted for them what they have done for the people of Michigan during the longest legislative session in the history of the state.

They will go home to answer questions about legislative inquiries, grand jury investigations, rumors and charges of graft and a score and one other interrogations that really should be directed to only a scattering few. Possibly the few might not be entitled to the suspicion that now seems to hang over a fairly group.

In these closing days of a legislative session that should have written into Michigan history one of its most interesting chapters, it seems that members of both the house and senate are devoting the greater portion of their time either denying some of these ugly rumors or trying to find out the truth about them.

Michigan should not misunderstand—there are many senators and many representatives who are sincerely trying to find out the facts about these rumors. They are trying to find out if money has really been used to buy legislative votes. It is difficult for old time legislative observers to believe that there is a man in the house or senate who would permit himself to be sold for a mess of pottage. There are many, many high type men in the legislature, men that the districts that elected them can be proud of.

But in a legislature that was so completely over-run by the voters as was done last fall, it is true that possibly some came into the legislature not schooled in the high ethics that have and should prevail in that body. Some point out that possibly they did not have the real conception of the responsibility the voters had placed upon them.

This is true in some cases, without question. A member of the legislature sat at his desk the other day reading letters and telegrams that had come in. One happened to be from a high official of one of the great municipalities of the state. It pertained to important legislation. He barely scanned it before dropping it into his waste basket. To a friend standing close by, he commented that he didn't care to take time to read letters about pending bills.

There are many senators and many representatives who have really and sincerely tried to do something for the good of Michigan—but seemingly it has been impossible for them to get anywhere.

A sales tax bill, the one method left by the state to raise revenue that the state must have, seems satisfactory to no one.

Governor Comstock has let it be known that he is utterly opposed to the action of the senate in having made as a part of the sales tax bill the measure that sets aside $15,000,000 for the education of the boys and girls of Michigan. Originally it was a house bill that provided funds to take place of the primary school fund. The senate thought it best to incorporate it in the revenue producing bill. But the Governor thinks welfare is much more important just now than education and he is fearful that the setting aside of so much money for education might not leave as much as he thinks necessary for welfare.

Representative Vernon J. Brown the other day warned the legislature when it was considering the creation of a new commission to handle welfare funds that if they didn't look out they would be setting up an organization with the right to spend $12,000,000 or $15,000,000 without a string of any kind tied to the members or the money.

Seemingly the whole session has been more or less of a hodge-podge affair.

Priceless time has been given to the discussion of a vicious dog racing bill—and around this thing centers some of the graft talk.

Then there has been a bitter fight made by loan sharks and loan companies to kill a bill that would cut the interest rate on short term loans from three per cent a month to one per cent.

Some members of the legislature feel that 35 per cent interest per year for the little fellow to pay is altogether too much. The Democrats had pledged themselves to support a bill cutting the rate to at least one per cent a month. Such a bill passed the house before the lobby could get in its work. In the senate there was a bitter fight made to keep the interest rate high and here it was that graft charges were first hinted.

One senator accused another who was fighting for the loan shark high rate of interest of being a "lobby house."

So bitter and so serious have been some of the charges made in the senate, that the senate itself voted for a grand jury investigation of the entire legislature. The resolution was passed, with the request that Judge Howard West of the supreme bench act as presiding judge and the prosecuting attorney of Ingham county conduct the questioning.

Not only has the senate asked for an investigation of the graft charges made involving the opposition to the cutting of the interest on the small loan bill, but the house has had a committee busy during several days trying to find out if there is any truth to these charges.

Representative Jarvis of Berrien county was a member of the house who had charged that he was sure money had been used in the senate on the small loan bill, but when pinned down to provide any information he said he could not do so.

There was an interesting sidelight during a portion of the Jarvis inquiry. There was supposed to have been made an accurate stenographic report of what he had said during the house debate about graft in the legislature. When this report was read before the committee veteran newspaper men like Gilbert Shilson of the Associated Press, Donald McGowan of the Detroit News and Carl Mueller of the Detroit Times immediately declared that portions of the statements were missing. When these correspondents say something is wrong, you can bet the last penny you have got that they are right. Barely had they made this comment when a member of the committee asked the stenographer to read a question of possibly some 18 or 20 words. He asked Jarvis "If he would now state UNDER OATH that so and so was true."

When the stenographer read the question back the two words "under oath" were missing.

This little incident reflects in a way the entire hurly-burly careless system that has prevailed from the beginning of the session.

Democratic members of the senate and house late last week received from somewhere a list of something like 100 bills that the powers are demanding be passed before adjournment. The vast majority of them are political bills, bills that would create jobs either new jobs or by changing laws so that present office holders could be thrown out and some one else put in. They were told to pass these bills, irrespective of whether they believed they had any merit or not or whether they believed that it would be doing the state any good. They were also told that if they did not pass them that there would be no jobs for anyone from their district. Well, the average legislator has been pestered to death with job seekers. Most of them have told friends back home that they would do all they could to secure jobs for them. So it is pretty probable that this week will see many bills enacted into law that the legislature does not believe should be passed. But jobs are jobs these days.

If taxpayers who have a desire to keep the property they now hold in their name, they should immediately pay their 1932 tax and thereby secure the benefit of the greatly repaired and improved Moore delinquent tax bill that is now law. If the tax for 1932 is paid before July 1, all of the other back taxes are made future obligations. In this way the land owner will have many years to pay his back taxes in, giving him an opportunity to retain his land if he desires to keep it.

A slight cut in the gas tax is on the way, but that may be all that can be said at present. The senate has passed a bill cutting off one-half a cent from the present three cent gas tax. The house has the bill this week. Governor Comstock has indicated that he is not for reduced gas or weight taxes. What he will do with the bill if it gets by the house no one knows.

LOW PRICE CARS VS. CHEAP CARS

We do not build a low-price car: the cost to us of building our car is pretty high.

But we do sell a high quality car at a low price.

Almost every new Ford V-8 car we have built so far this year, has cost more to manufacture than its selling price was. As you buy them at only $490 to $610, we have to depend on increasing volume to make up the difference.

The reason for this is simple:—a manufacturer who gives good value must expect to lose money on the first cars he sells because he cannot charge all his costs to the people who are first to buy.

But with the purchaser it is different—he cannot afford to lose anything on a car. It must give him full value from the first, and keep on giving him full value for years.

Two things make possible our combination of low prices and high cost quality:

1. Volume Production
2. Taking only one profit

First, we set our price at what would be fair to the public on the basis of economies we enjoy in volume production. Then, in order to justify and maintain our low price we must get volume sales.

Thus it comes that a car which is really high-cost to make, is also low-cost to buy.

There is a difference between a cheap car and a low-priced high quality car.

Ford prices are always fixed at a point which makes it profitable for a customer to buy.

Good and lasting business must produce profit to the buyer as well as to the seller. And of the two, the buyer's profit must be, comparatively, the larger one.

It pays us to sell the Ford V-8 because it pays you to buy it.

Henry Ford

Fishermen Should Use Good Judgment

Lansing, June 14—The hundreds of thousands of Michigan fishermen who go to the lakes and streams this summer can do much to alleviate the antagonism many property holders have against trespassers, by using good judgment in the manner in which they use private property, Geo. R. Hogarth, Director of Conservation, said today.

The trespass problem which has been growing for many years is one of the most difficult that hunters and fishermen in Michigan have to face, Director Hogarth said. More and more sportsmen are finding themselves "posted out" of private land. A good deal of this posting against hunters and fishermen has been brought on by many sportsmen themselves, he stated.

"There are two good sides to the trespass problem," Director Hogarth said, "and the farmer who puts a 'no trespass' sign on his gate generally has a pretty good reason for doing it. The chances are that some fisherman entering a stream by way of the pasture, left the gate open and permitted the cattle to run loose or ran an automobile over the farmer's growing grain."

"The angler who goes to the farmer's home is very rarely turned down. There are few farmers who would refuse him, knowing that if a man were sufficiently considerate to ask permission he would also use consideration in everything else he did."

"If every hunter or fisherman would take the little time and trouble necessary to seek permission to use private property it wouldn't be long before the 'trespass problem' would be a thing of the past and farmers would no longer look with antagonism at everyone carrying a rod or a gun."

Good Posture

Good posture, poise, grace, and ease are gifts which prove more than useful to their possessors. They give power to the presence. They help to express a fine personality. It takes so little of our time and attention and it means so much to us as we grow older. Pay more heed and walk up right, with your chest out and toes straight ahead—Grit.

Conservation Dept. Clears Up Mystery

The mystery of number "41," a 75 pound sturgeon taken from the Manistee River late in April may be solved. Twenty-eight years ago he was caught. It is claimed, in a net in Lake St. Clair and was branded by Charles Trost, now a resident of Mt. Clemens.

In 28 years the fish had added 34 pounds in weight and had moved his home from Lake St. Clair to Lake Michigan.

A crew of men working under the direction of the Department of Conservation at the Manistee River were lifting rainbow trout and pike-perch over the dam that they might continue on up the river to spawn. Five large sturgeons were found among the thousands of fish. One of them wore a distinct brand "41" on his side. He was taken to the Paris Fish Hatchery and held in a pond, the Department of Conservation hoping that someone might be able to identify him.

The Department has now received a letter from Mr. Trost who claims to have branded the fish.

"I put the number '41' on a sturgeon about 28 years ago," Mr. Trost's letter says. "At that time I was working for the Mt. Clemens Carp Fishery at Anchor Bay which is in Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens. We were seining for carp and obnoxious fish and we caught the sturgeon in the seine. The sturgeon at that time weighed 41 pounds; therefore the brand of '41' on the fish. After branding the fish it was thrown back into the water."

Radium Watch Dial

The bureau of standards says the luminous material on a radium dial watch contains phosphorescent zinc sulphide. This substance will glow when exposed to a bright light and continue to glow with decreasing brightness for several hours after such exposure. When the luminous material is freshly prepared the glow observed in the dark is chiefly due to the action of the radio-active material contained in it.
