Municipalities Must Enforce Liquor Laws

Believing that municipalities should assume their full share of responsibility in regard to enforcement of the state liquor laws, Frank A. Picard, chairman of the liquor control commission, has sent a letter to all prosecuting attorneys, sheriffs and police chiefs, calling their attention to the fact that they are expected to do their duty.

The letter, in its entirety, follows: Gentlemen:

The Liquor Control Commission desires to direct your attention to Section 1, Act No. 6, P. A. 1933, Extra Session, popularly known as the "Liquor Act", which provides as follows:

"The sheriffs of the several counties and their deputies and the village marshals, constables, officers or members of the village or city police and members of the department of state police, and inspectors of the commission, are hereby empowered and it is hereby made their duty to see that the provisions of the act and the rules and regulations made or authorized by said commission are enforced within their respective jurisdictions. It shall be their special duty to use their utmost efforts to repress and prevent crime and the violation of any of the provisions of this act. Any officer within the above enumeration who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform the duties imposed upon him by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than ninety days in the county jail or both."

So that there may be no question in your mind, the Commission restates its position that municipalities have full control over the enforcement of our licenses within their jurisdiction, 85 per cent of the money which we receive for licenses is returned to the municipality. We believe that every municipality ought to have to have a special force to see that the provisions, rules and regulations of the Liquor Act are enforced. The Liquor Control Commission will cooperate with you 100 per cent, but the enforcement is as much a part of the duties of your police force as the detection and prevention of other crimes.

We are furnishing, under separate cover, to be used by the enforcing departments, reports which should be made direct to this office upon which the Commission will not hesitate to act. It is apparent that it was the intention of the Legislature that municipalities were to assume a burden in this enforcement. Some municipalities have not taken this provision of the law seriously. Some enforcing officers have not. The Commission expects to hold to strict accountability all the enforcing officers of this state.

If there is some place in your community that you feel is a menace or a nuisance, and can advance possible reasons to this Commission why the license should be revoked, this Commission will not hesitate to revoke that license. In other words, if you will aid us by performing your part of this responsibility, we certainly will perform ours.

Yours very truly,
Frank A. Picard.

Lacy Speaks Here

ARTHUR J. LACY

Arthur J. Lacy, Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial nomination at the primaries on September 11, spoke in Chelsea following the band concert last Wednesday evening. Mr. Lacy's talk was along the lines of bringing the Roosevelt "New Deal" to the government of Michigan.

NORTH SYLVAN GRANGE

North Sylvan Grange will hold a local baking contest in the Chelsea Hardware store Saturday afternoon, Sept. 1, after which the baked goods will be sold. The winners of this contest will enter in the state baking contest to be held at Midland on October 31st.

One Hundredth Birthday Plans To Start Friday

The American Legion, who are financing the 100th Birthday Party of Pierceville, later Chelsea village, are inviting all business and professional men of the district to meet with them Friday night at 7:30 at Kolb's hall, to go over plans for the celebration to be held October 5 and 6.

From the tentative plans already made there will not be a dull moment from the time the Party starts until the finish, and it is hoped that the ideas and suggestions which will be brought out at the meeting Friday night will make the program contain entertainment for all who are our guests at the party.

Finances of the local Legion post are in such good shape that they can easily put the party on without any financial assistance, but in order to make it a real success they want the cooperation and good will of the professional and business men, and also they realize that many heads are better than one, and that many unique ideas can be brought out at a meeting of all which can add to the enjoyment of guests.

Records of Washtenaw county are being searched for authentic information regarding local history, which will be compiled for the event and the help of early settlers and their families is being sought. Just as a starter—who can answer as to the oldest house in Chelsea, and why was the village called Chelsea?

The success of the party is up to all, and a good start can be made if every professional and business man and every Legionnaire comes to the meeting Friday at 7:30 p. m., at Kolb's hall.

Labor Day Event Is of Major Importance

With the observance of Labor Day with a picnic and homecoming for the past 50 years, tradition will again be followed on Monday, Sept. 3, at Dexter, when the annual celebration will be a major entertainment of the day in Washtenaw County. All the events will be under the auspices of the members of St. Joseph's church, and their friends.

This week a large group of volunteer workers transformed the village grove into a spacious picnic grounds, erecting the necessary booths and stands and the many dinner tables. With the ladies of the dinner committee prepared to accommodate 102 diners at each sitting, prompt service is assured the guests who will partake of the famous chicken dinner.

The program for the day is an attractive one, with reunions, booths, stands, games and addresses by public figures. All roads will lead to Dexter next Monday to bring the many hundreds who will take part in the annual Labor Day picnic and homecoming.

FALL TRAINING CAMP

On September 7, 8 and 9, the Ann Arbor District Epworth League officers of the Methodist church are gathering at a Fall Training Camp or Conference at Camp Birkett on Silver Lake. Rev. V. D. Longfield of Dexter was elected president of the district last May and has been active this summer in arranging for this Fall training camp of the Epworth League officers.

An attractive program has been planned. Friday evening after the get-acquainted period a popular entertainment will be given followed by a campfire devotion by Rev. F. D. Mumby of Chelsea. Saturday will be devoted to classes of instruction, while in the evening will be a forum discussion on Pacifism, Preparedness, and Peace, led by Rev. D. C. Stubbs of South Lyon. The Saturday night devotion period around the campfire will be conducted by Rev. W. B. Hoyer of Wayne.

Sunday morning the state president of the Epworth League, Rev. Gordon Phillips of Trenton, will address the young folks. The Dexter and North Lake churches are uniting at the camp at 10:45 for this worship service. It will be a real treat to hear Rev. Phillips, for he has been an outstanding worker with the young people. Dr. J. A. Halmhuber will conduct a consecration service, and close the session. We are preparing for 100 young people at this training camp, and there is a strong likelihood that this will develop into an annual camp of a week.

AUXILIARY OFFICERS MEET

The last meeting of the year for presidents and secretaries of the American Legion Auxiliary was a luncheon held last week Wednesday at the Lenawee Hotel. Those attending from Chelsea were Mrs. Loraine Azdell, Mrs. Virginia Brock, Mrs. Gladys Kolb, Mrs. Eleanor Lamberton and Mrs. Roxie Marney.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Weber were Detroit visitors on Tuesday.

Local Sea Scouts Hosts To Ypsilanti Group

The Chelsea Sea Scouts were hosts to the Ypsilanti Sea Scouts on Wednesday evening, the activities beginning with a parade at 7:30 o'clock, led by Commander Schrader, U. S. N., of Ypsilanti. Skipper Riemenschneider, First Mate Schrader and Cooper and Second Mate Eaton. A portion of Main street was roped off for the occasion, and about 50 Sea Scouts took part in the exhibition drill following the parade. Music was furnished by the Chelsea Band.

A short talk was given by Commander Schrader. At 8 o'clock the band rendered their final concert of the season, which was much enjoyed. Following this, a Scout program was given at the public school gymnasium, where a Court of Honor was conducted with the following program:

Reveille.
Assembly.
Roll call.
Colors.
Orders of the Day.
Turn to.
Mess call.
Retreat.
Taps.

At mess, ice cream and cake were served, the cake being furnished by the Sea Scouts' mothers, and the ice cream by Herbert J. McKune Post, American Legion, who are sponsors of the Sea Scouts. An interesting talk was given by the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Ypsilanti.

After the program, dancing was enjoyed, with music by the Sea Scout orchestra.

Teachers' Institute To Be Held Sept. 8

Following the usual custom in Washtenaw county, the opening institute for rural teachers will be held on the Saturday following the first week of school. This year the date will be Saturday, September 8. Teachers who have been teaching in the county may plan to leave at noon. All beginning teachers and all others who have not taught in the county during the past two or three years are expected to attend the afternoon session.

The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Jones school, one of the grade schools of Ann Arbor, located on N. Division street, between Kingale and Ann. The north entrance to the building will be used, which may be approached either from Division street or Detroit street by sidewalk. There will be ample accommodation on the Detroit street side for parking cars on the playground.

Supplies for the year will be distributed and important announcements made by various members of the staff. Teachers are requested to bring notebooks and pencils. The notes will be helpful throughout the entire year.

The regular session will begin at 9:30 and close at 12:00.

FORM FITZGERALD CLUB

A group of young men interested in the candidacy of Frank D. Fitzgerald for governor gathered at the Chamber of Commerce Building, Ann Arbor on Friday evening, August 24. The meeting was well represented by the different wards of the city and a great deal of interest was shown from the surrounding communities of the county.

The featured speaker of the evening was Wm. H. Wise, a prominent attorney of Lansing. The officers of the club were elected as follows:

President—J. Fred Barels, Ann Arbor.
Sec. and Treas.—Daniel A. Shirliff, Ann Arbor.
A chairman for each ward in the city of Ann Arbor and for each community was named as follows:
Ann Arbor—Russell J. Vanderbilt, Ray Johnson, Wm. Angell, Herman Folske, A. W. Dorow, Kirby Gillette, Ray Collins, Fred Cartler.
Ypsilanti—Owen P. Cleary.
Manchester—Dr. Lee Davidson.
Chelsea—Gerald O. Luick.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—Can a person see the Pacific ocean and the Atlantic ocean at the same time from any given point in the United States?

Ans.—Waters of the Pacific ocean and those of the Caribbean sea (considered part of the Atlantic) can be seen from the summit of Mt. Isara, Costa Rica. This is believed to be the only point on the American continent where one may look upon the waters of both oceans.

Ques.—Can you tell me in your Questions and Answers why frost is more likely to occur on a clear night than it will on a cloudy night?

Ans.—This is because clear air allows more heat to be lost from the ground. Clouds act as a sort of blanket and keep the heat in so that the temperature does not fall quite so low.

Ques.—I am writing to ask you if Col. Charles Lindbergh's nationality is a German, or Jew, or what? Your answer this week will decide an argument.

Ans.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's grandfather was born in Sweden, was christened Ola Manson and became a member of Parliament and later a secretary of the king. He left the royal service and came to America in 1880 where he changed his surname to Lindbergh, believing the latter to be more in keeping with the new country. This was a custom not unusual among immigrants of that time.

Ques.—Our hygiene club would like to know in what way vaccination helps prevent smallpox or other diseases.

Ans.—Whenever a disease germ invades us, our bodies take steps to repel it. Among other things the body produces certain chemicals which poison the germ. Vaccination consists in introducing into our body a very feeble kind of germ which will not cause real smallpox, but which will start off the defensive preparations of the body. The defensive chemicals get produced ahead of time and the body is prepared to repel a smallpox or other germ if one happens to be picked up.

Ques.—I want to ask you who was the person that designed the Confederate flag in the American Civil War? Also when and where was it adopted?

Ans.—The Confederate flag of the Civil war known as the Confederate bars and stars, was designed by Maj. Orron Randolph Smith, Louisville,

N. C., and adopted by the Congress of the Confederate States on March 3, 1861. When the Confederate Congress advertised for designs Maj. Wilson, N. C., made the flag under his direction and the completed banner was submitted to the Confederate Congress at Montgomery, Ala. The original flag consisted of three bars and a field of seven stars, one for each of the Confederate states at that time. A star was added for each seceding state.

Ques.—To settle an argument will you kindly answer which is the largest city in the world in population?

Ans.—According to the official 1930 census New York, with a population of 10,901,000 (which includes its suburbs) is the largest city in the world. London, Eng., with 9,610,000 is second. This also includes its suburbs. London had the distinction of being the largest city up to 1930.

Ques.—Is Admiral Dewey in the Hall of Fame? If not, why?

Ans.—No. A candidate for the Hall of Fame must have been dead 25 years or more before he may be eligible. Admiral Dewey died in 1917, and therefore will not be eligible until 1942, when in all probability his name will take a place along with other noted Americans in the Hall of Fame.

Ques.—I am told that a person should not eat when they are frightened, angry or afflicted with anxiety. Is that true?

Ans.—It is true. Anger, fright or undue anxiety draws the blood away from the digestive organs into the muscles, lungs and brain. If you eat when you are very angry, intensely frightened or prolonged anxiety, the blood supply of the stomach, at the time, will be so poor that your meal will not properly digest.

Ques.—Are rubber boots a protection against rattlesnake bites? If so, why?

Ans.—Ordinarily they are a protection against rattlesnake bites. While the "strike" of the rattler can penetrate rubber, the fact that a rubber boot is loose-fitting, makes it extremely doubtful if the rattler's fang can go through the fabric. It is seldom that a rattlesnake can strike above the knee, hence rubber boots is a very good protection.

Ques.—What is the population of Vatican City in Italy?

Ans.—Vatican City in Italy has a population of 528.

History of Rogers Corners School

The following history of Rogers Corners school, the 100th anniversary of which was observed on Sunday, August 19, was prepared by Miss Irene Huehl, present teacher of the school.

The first settler in Freedom township, James W. Hill, came in the summer of 1831. In the spring and summer of the following year many other immigrants came. Among those that settled in this district were Mr. Scott, who settled on what is now the Christian Haas farm, George Peckens on the George Loeffler farm, Prestons on the farm now owned by Mrs. Christian Graub and Clarence Biss, Judah McLean on the William Eisenman farm, Mr. Tucker on Jacob Schneider's farm, Mr. Wellman on Mrs. Charles Russ farm, another Mr. Wellman on the John Graub farm, M. B. Wellman on the Schiller farm, and Ruben Wellman on the Feldkamp farm. Edward Litchfield settled on the Herbert Schenk farm, Joseph Sternberg on the George Hinderer farm, David C. Raymond on the Edwin Kuhl farm, Mr. Rogers on John Wenk's farm, another Mr. Rogers on the place now owned by William Beuerle, and Levi Rogers on the Jacob Koengeter farm. It was after the Roger families that the corner received the name Rogers Corners. As may be seen, the first settlers were in a majority Americans, whereas now the larger portion of the landholders are German.

The first task of these pioneers was that of building for themselves a home. This was made of logs. They then set about to clear and improve the land which was largely timber. The children of these first settlers grew up in the wilds where wolves were more plentiful than domestic animals.

Even though there was but a handful of people, and the wilderness a handicap, these pioneers did not forget about education. They were determined that their children should have a knowledge of the three R's—reading, writing and arithmetic.

During the years of 1834-5 school was held in the homes of the various members. One of these was the Sternberg home—now the Hinderer home.

Later the settlement was of sufficient numbers to insure the building of a schoolhouse. This was authorized at the first meeting recorded and dated November 18, 1836. At this time the taxable inhabitants of the district convened, agreeable to previous notice and proceeded to business by electing Lyman Williams, chairman, and Levi Rogers, clerk. It was voted to raise one hundred dollars or under as the case may be, for the purpose of providing a convenient schoolhouse and stove for the use of the district. The school was to be built of logs. The meeting adjourned and was recorded in the district book by Daniel Rouse, director.

The second meeting recorded was held May 27, 1837. Thirty dollars was allowed for the use of the summer school which was to be continued five months. New officers elected were as follows: Moderator, Alexander Peckens; director, Daniel Rouse; and assessor, Manassah Wellman. The officers received 75 cents per day for their services.

The same year in October, ninety dollars was voted for the use of the school the ensuing year. The school year was to consist of four months of winter school to begin about the first of November, and five months of summer school, if there was money enough. New officers were again elected, the election of which resulted as follows: David C. Raymond, moderator; S. S. Peckens, director, and Levi Rogers, assessor.

In the year of 1838 the district voted to put a tax on each scholar. How much do you think that was? Well, here it is—sixty four feet of wood, two feet long to be furnished by the parent or guardian within ten days from the time that each scholar entered school. If the wood was not furnished, the deficiency was furnished by the director within ten days thereafter at the rate of three dollars per cord to be paid by the delinquent. Edward Litchfield was elected moderator, Richard Ayers, director, and Jacob Preston, assessor.

During the next four years, no special business was transacted. The by-laws of 1838, concerning the furnishing of fuel and having nine months of school, were continually adopted. The officers were changed each year, however, the only new names listed were Frederick Lee, moderator and S. Woods, director in 1839, and William Preston assessor in 1840.

The officers elected in 1842 were Levi Rogers, moderator, Frederick Lee, assessor, and William Preston, director. On June 5, 1843 a petition was presented to the officers to call a special meeting June 17 of the district "for the purpose of raising such sum as the district shall think best, also to establish a site for the schoolhouse, and to choose a committee to draft a plan for the house." This petition was signed by Ruben Williams, S. S. Peckens, Nelson Wells, G. Raymond, G. H. McLean, Solomon McArthur, Robert Triggs, G. S. Peckens, Edward Moon, and Seth Chase.

At the special meeting it was voted to raise two hundred dollars for the purpose of building a schoolhouse to replace the log school. The committee appointed consisted of S. C. Barber, Seth Chase, and Levi Rogers. At the regular meeting of the district of this year new officers elected were Seth Chase, moderator; Jeremiah Hoyer, assessor, and L. R. McLean, director.

A special meeting was held the eleventh day of December 1843 for the purpose of selling the log school and the stove to the highest bidder. The house was sold to Mr. Gerald's for four dollars and fifty cents. The stove went to Frederick Lee for four dollars and fifty cents. The money thus realized was paid toward the purchase of a new stove.

Now names appearing in the list of officers from 1843 to 1875 are: James Raymond, Matthew Butler, Horace Rogers, Samuel Gressor, Alexander Peckens, Stephen Tucker, John Essig, H. J. Davider, William Pitzemaler, John Huehl, Sr., Frederick Eisenman, John Schenk and John Messner. All officers were changed each year until 1860 when the present method was adopted.

In 1875 the district again decided that a new school building was needed. A building fund was started with two hundred fifty dollars raised by tax. It was also stated in the minutes of this meeting that the four months of winter school were to begin the first of October and the summer term after the closing of the German school.

At the regular meeting in 1878 the district voted to build a new school the coming year, 1877. Three hundred dollars was added to the building fund. Joseph Davider was elected director. The other two officers holders were, moderator, John Messner, and assessor, Frederick Eisenman. January 5, 1877 a special meeting was held. At this meeting it was resolved that the district build a brick schoolhouse 20x40x16 feet. This is the school in use at present.

The electing of officers, deciding the length of the school terms, and the letting of contracts for furnishing and sawing wood were the important items of business transacted during the next few years. New names appearing in the list of officers from 1877 to 1900 are: Gottfried Graub, Henry Kuhl, Barney Berke, Dan Stricker, Herman Niehaus, Christian Graub and Lewis Geyer.

In 1890 the plaster of the ceiling was removed and the ceiling sealed with lumber. The interior was then painted.

In 1891 the district voted to have the teacher board himself.

In 1904 the board fence was removed and replaced by a chain fence in front of the school.

In 1902 the building was painted both on the exterior and interior. The following year it was rodied.

In 1908 the school was equipped with a slate blackboard. It was also voted to keep the children in the school yard.

A platform was built on the steps, and a new floor put in during 1909. About 1911 the winter, spring and fall terms of school were dropped, and a continuous term of nine months was adopted. A cement porch with a roof was built in 1912.

October 13, 1913 a special meeting was held for the purpose of deciding about a new heating plant. A furnace was installed.

After 1913 there were no further changes until 1934 when the CWA made extensive alterations on the building, making it a nearly standard school.

The first teacher of which we have a record is D. F. Rockwell. He taught in 1838 during the winter term for fifty-six dollars and seventy-seven cents. The summer term of that year was taught by C. C. Auger for $32.00. The winter term was usually taught by a man, and the summer term by a woman.

24 YEARS AGO

Thursday, September 1, 1910

Carl M. Kalmbach and Miss Doris Estelle Wallace of Detroit were married on Tuesday, August 30.

Archie W. Wilkinson has purchased 40 acres of land on the west side of McKinley street of H. S. Holmes.

Dancer & Downer purchased 500 sheep, two carloads, the past week, which they sold to Geo. Conley of Albion, N. Y.

Geo. Rickman & Sons Co., who erected the new high school building, shipped the engines, scaffolds and surplus material used in the construction of the building away the past week.

Mrs. L. T. Freeman is entertaining the members of the Birthday club and their husbands at her summer home at Cavanaugh Lake today.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wilcox, who have been residents of Chelsea the past two years, have shipped their household goods to Peekskill, N. Y., where they will make their home.

G. Hutzel has purchased the Chas. Stimson place on Railroad street.

While at work threshing on the Easton farm in Lima Tuesday afternoon, Fred Bollinger got his right arm caught in the belt, breaking the large bone.

Ninety-three school teachers were granted certificates at the June and August examinations. Among those granted second grade certificates were Agatha Kelly, Adeline Spinnagle, Irene McIntee. Among those receiving third grade certificates were Mary Koch, Clara Koch, Elizabeth Blach, Rosa Lucht, Kathryn Keelan, Mildred Cook, Cecelia Mullen, Helen Mohrlock, Webb McNeil, Mary Nordman, Evelyn Dancer, Anna Dresselhouse, Rena Roedel, Esther Heatley, Berenice Harris and Harriet Stofer.

34 YEARS AGO

Thursday, August 30, 1900

Mrs. Mary Finch of Waterloo died on Saturday, August 25.

Jay Woods has been appointed night watch in place of George A. Young, who resigned.

A large number of Chelsea's K. of P.'s are spending this week in Detroit attending the biennial convocation of the order.

Geo. P. Glazier will begin shipping celery next week. His celery is very fine this year.

St. Mary's library, which has been closed for two weeks, will reopen next Sunday. This library now contains 1,000 volumes and a new catalog is necessary.

Earl Foster and Ed Keusch leave on Saturday for Big Rapids, where they will attend the Ferris Institute.

Thomas Jewett died at his farm home on Tuesday, August 28, 1900.

J. P. and H. L. Wood are spending this week in Chicago.

PLYMOUTH—There isn't much question but what these are the days of unusual things. Frank Rambo came to town Wednesday morning with a big bouquet of apple blossoms he had picked from a tree on the farm of Russell Roe, next to the Rambo place on Plymouth road. Mr. Rambo states that one side of the tree is in full bloom. He had the blossoms to confirm his story. Unusual things in these unusual days.—Mail.

STOCKBRIDGE—After years of patient waiting, the residents on Main street in the village will at last have a hard-surfaced road past their doors. The work of re-surfacing the road is already under way, and trucks will be hauling gravel in within the next day or two. The black-top surface will run from the west limits of the village to the east limits, with the exception of the two blocks through the business district, which will be a cement road.—Brief-Sun.

DUNDEE—Up to the time of going to press this morning, a definite day has not been set for the reopening of the Monroe County Bank, but the directors have been assured that the opening will take place within a few days. On reopening, fifty per cent of the deposits in the old bank will be available at once to the depositors. Certificates of indebtedness are being issued under the name of the Depositors Corporation for the balance of the fifty per cent of the impounded deposits, which will be paid as rapidly as the assets of the old bank are made available.—Reporter.

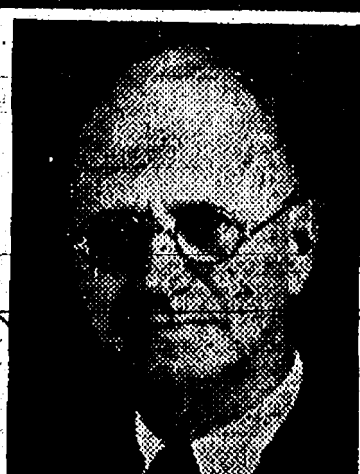

WAYNE—One of Michigan's oldest Civil War veterans, who has been a resident of Wayne county for more than 90 years, celebrated his 96th birthday Tuesday at his home in Wayne. He is Charles Tuttle, once a member of the Second Regiment, United States Sharpshooters.—County Review.

HOWELL—Monday night about 11:30 one of Ford Johnson's trucks loaded with a cargo of sugar was coming in from Detroit. Two miles east of Howell a tire blew out and the truck was found to be all on fire. The fire department at Howell was called and responded. The loss, however, was practically complete. The truck was manned by Harvey Van Buren and Russell Cotter at the time of the accident. The cargo and probably the truck was covered with insurance.—Republican-Press.

Are You a Born Marksman?

Sharpshooters are born—and not made, according to psychological studies at Oregon university, says Pathfinder Magazine. These studies reveal that at least 80 per cent of good marksmen owe their ability to heredity and not rifle practice. As a result, it is claimed a method can be developed by which a good marksman may be picked before he ever touches a gun.

A QUART OF ISO-VIS "D"
COSTS YOU ONLY 26¢

ISO-VIS "D" DOOMS SLUDGE,
THE OIL-EATER!

YET STANDARD'S FAMOUS ANTI-SLUDGE MOTOR
OIL IS "PREMIUM QUALITY" IN EVERY RESPECT

If the price of Iso-Vis "D" were 31c, or even 36c a quart, you'd still be getting the finest motor-oil value on the market. At the price you pay for it today it's a downright bargain!

When you buy Iso-Vis "D" you get the very latest development in fine, sturdy lubrication for automobile engines—a motor oil treated by the patented Propane Dewaxing and Chlorex Extraction process. That gives it a unique quality—it will not sludge even under the hardest, hottest driving! Furthermore, it deposits almost no carbon, and its "body" doesn't thin out dangerously under heat or thicken greatly in cold. All these advantages go to make up the most economical fine lubrication you can buy.

Sludge causes high oil consumption. Piston rings clogged with sludge pump oil—cause needless waste. Put Iso-Vis "D"—in—keep sludge out!

Next time you drive into a Standard Oil Station ask them to show you Iso-Vis "D." It's always ready, in accurately measured glass bottles, so you can see the clear, glistening good oil that you are getting. You'll like its looks. You'll like the way it behaves in your engine. Try it!

YOU ARE YOU

By Arthur Carlton, for The Standard

You are needed, you are needed, because you are you, You have a work here no other can do, so—

Go fetch the sprinkler and sprinkle some hearth.

Get up in the morning and sing like a lark.

Speak a heart full of cheer to the first one you meet,

And speak from your heart, get a smile on your cheek.

A bright happy smile played all round your mouth,

Will break like a cloudburst in the time of a drouth.

Everywhere you are needed, in your home, in your church,

In the town where you live, Oh, don't be a shirk.

Among all your friends be the ONE always true,

Though your name be forgotten, folks will know—

YOU ARE YOU!

HON. GEORGE W. SAMPLE

Judge of Circuit Court

There are judges and judges, as there is in every phase of human activity. Some men of the bench strike terror into the hearts of the criminal and others are so lenient that the wrong doer escapes lightly when he should be severely punished. Then there are those able jurists whose human sympathies are so broad that they look upon humanity and not alone upon the man before the bar. They see the criminal as a member of society as it is affected by the degradation of the underworld. Such a judge, as the writer is mighty pleased to say, is Judge George W. Sample of our Circuit Court. His interest takes him into the folds of philanthropy and tinge his decisions with a tactful understanding that keeps them above reproach. The criminal who stands before Judge Sample knows that punishment well deserved will be meted out to him. Likewise he knows that he is not being persecuted. And society knows that its institutions are being safeguarded by this man.

JAMES F. WARNER

CANDIDATE FOR

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

One of the names looming large in the political life of Washtenaw County at this time, is that of James F. Warner of Ypsilanti, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Representative in the coming primaries. Mr. Warner owns a farm of 120 acres located just north of Ypsilanti, which he operates in connection with his dairy. He is well known to the rank and file of the county and is always counted a firm friend of the people. He has always been a keen student of government, and out of his knowledge of the present conditions and the people's needs in legislation he has fashioned a platform that is uniformly constructive and successful, winning the plaudits of all concerned and on every side.

James F. Warner, if nominated, will surely prove an able and qualified candidate of the Republican party for the State Legislature.

LEE N. BROWN

Circuit Court Commissioner

The idea that the goal of public office is personal gain and aggrandizement is one that has long since been exploded. Most of the men holding public office today are doing so by virtue of the fact that they have been public spirited citizens and have proved their success in their personal ventures, then, desiring to unselfishly aid their community, they have entered public life. In most cases they have been almost forced to take their office by common desire of their fellow citizens. For example in our group of county officials we have Attorney Lee N. Brown of Ypsilanti ably acquitting himself of his public official duties, who might be using his talents to much better personal advantage, were he to gauge the matter in personal gain; but he is of the type who performs yeoman service to the community rather than personal advantage or gain.

REDMOND M. BURR

CANDIDATE FOR

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Redmond M. Burr, a member of the city council at Ann Arbor, has announced his candidacy and is conducting a spirited campaign for the Republican nomination for State Representative in the coming primaries and he is assured of receiving mighty strong support, as he is held in much popular favor with the people of this county.

Mr. Burr stands for a square deal for the farmer, laboring man and business man. He has shown a fine record and a sympathetic appreciation of the needs of the people, and he is amply qualified for the office to which he aspires.

Redmond M. Burr is a man of enviable reputation and he promises that if nominated and elected he will use his ability and knowledge to the point of always giving to all a fair and square deal. He is thoroughly conversant with the present day conditions and is qualified to readily grasp the different situations that are bound to confront our state and especially Washtenaw County.

GEORGE WALTERHOUSE

CANDIDATE FOR

Republican Nomination for Drain Commissioner

George Walterhouse, a prominently known citizen of Ann Arbor, is a fully qualified and able candidate for the Republican nomination for Drain Commissioner. He is a veteran of 16 months' service in the late World War, of which 8 months was spent overseas. He is a married man and the father of two children. He served as construction engineer with the County Road Commission after leaving the service and has since this time been engaged in the engineering and contracting field. His platform is for an economical program. He advocates saving the taxpayers money by maintaining the present drains by using Federal Welfare labor. None of this has heretofore been done. He is a graduate of the Civil Engineering Class of the University of Michigan.

OWEN A. STEFFE

CANDIDATE FOR

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR COUNTY SHERIFF

Owen A. Steffe, Supervisor of Northfield Township and a prominent resident of Whitmore Lake, has announced and is in the midst of a vigorous campaign for the Democratic nomination for County Sheriff and needless to say his campaign is meeting with favorable comment throughout the entire county.

Mr. Steffe is fully able and qualified for this office. He would be able to fill the office to the full satisfaction of the people and his administration would be one of economy.

He is the possessor of an excellent reputation and counts his friends by the thousands, and carries the endorsement of many prominent citizens of the county.

WARREN W. FLORER

CANDIDATE FOR

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR COUNTY CLERK

Warren W. Florer, a prominent citizen of Ann Arbor, identified in the insurance business, has at the urgent demands of his many friends and acquaintances throughout the county, announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for County Clerk and from reports being heard on all sides he is surely receiving strong support.

Mr. Florer is indeed well qualified and fitted for this office. He could ably discharge the duties of the post and people recognizing this fact urged him to enter the race. He is a worthy citizen and his friends are enthusiastic in their support of his candidacy.

We are pleased to present him in our remarks on this feature page and he has our good wishes in his campaign.

Dr. E. C. Ganzhorn

WASHTENAW COUNTY CORONER

Being on the outside and talking about the man on the inside in a cynical vein is a popular pastime, but were any one of those members of the masses placed in exactly the same position as the man who holds public office he might find himself sorely pressed for ability to know how to meet the thousand and one problems that are placed at his desk. That is the inverse humor of life, but it is not humorous for the man who sits behind the mahogany of some official desk.

We now refer to the problems and not the cynical comments, for Dr. E. C. Ganzhorn of Ann Arbor, County Coroner, who is a candidate for reelection to this office on the Republican ticket, is one man in this little old troublous world who has so acquitted himself of his duties that he has not heard adverse comment.

Hon. Robert Campbell

MAYOR OF ANN ARBOR

Robert Campbell, who serves the city of Ann Arbor as mayor and who is one of the leading men of the community, owes his advancement into the list of notables, to the fact that the pendulum of praise always swings toward those who are backed with rugged honesty of purpose. It is such men who win the confidence of the citizenry. Mr. Campbell's climb to prominence however has not been without its trials. But that is true of all successful public servants. His record of treating one and all alike and his straightforward manner of dealing has been recognized and has pleased the masses.

After all, that is a finer tribute than the so called "clever politician" who sometimes forgets the citizenry. Such men as Robert Campbell are indeed well worth while.

Harry H. Atwell

WASHTENAW COUNTY CLERK

What the country needs today is more men in public office who place service to their fellow man above personal gain. Some people perhaps are inclined to be cynical concerning the motives of men in public office as a result of the fact that some of them have taken advantage of the confidence the people have placed in them. Occasionally, however, there is found a man serving in public office whose character and public acts stamp him as above reproach. With this thought we bring before you in these words Harry H. Atwell, our genial County Clerk.

Mr. Atwell is indeed a striking example of the "good and faithful public servant". His conduct of the trust imposed in him has inspired an unusual degree of public confidence in him, which we predict will aid him in successfully continuing in public office.

Dr. David N. Robb

WASHTENAW COUNTY CORONER

To serve in the office of County Coroner and still maintain the friendship of the entire community, is indeed an achievement and reflects highly upon the character and ability of the man serving in that post.

Dr. David N. Robb, a prominent physician of Ypsilanti, is a man who takes his duties seriously and is never satisfied until he has taken care of the most minute detail of every matter that comes before him. Fair minded and just in his every action, he always considers every side of a case and treats one and all alike upon their respective merits. He has always shown the right kind of spirit, being eager to work for any movement that has for its purpose the progress of the community.

AUSTIN S. ROBISON

CANDIDATE FOR

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR COUNTY TREASURER

Austin S. Robison, a prominent and well known citizen of Saline has in answer to the demands of his many friends, announced and begun a real campaign for the Republican nomination for County Treasurer and his political activities are surely going to result in strong support for him.

Austin S. Robison is popularly known in Washtenaw County, and prominently identified in the public life. He enjoys an excellent standing as a citizen and due to his understanding of the duties of this office and the requirements for a business-like administration, he is most able and qualified to satisfactorily fill the office of County Treasurer.

J. MILTON HOVER

CANDIDATE FOR

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR U. S. CONGRESS, 2nd DISTRICT

We take special privilege in calling the attention of the Republican voters of Washtenaw County to the candidacy of J. Milton Hover, Head of the Natural Science Department at Ypsilanti, for Congress.

Mr. Hover comes before the voters not as stranger by any means, being just a neighbor calling upon his neighbors to stress the importance of proper legislation in relation to their personal needs. The people of the 2nd District can count upon his determined efforts in their behalf if nominated and elected.

With a pledge to give service of the highest type to one and all, and with nothing at stake but an honest, upright service to the people, Mr. Hover is coming before the Republican voters, and he asks you to weigh carefully his many qualifications before casting your vote.

HON. JAY G. PRAY

JUDGE OF PROBATE

Many of our citizens do not realize the importance of the work of the Probate Court of Washtenaw County, presided over by Judge Jay G. Pray. The Probate court has many duties and responsibilities, especially in the administration of estates. Whenever any resident of Washtenaw County dies, leaving an estate, such estate must, in practically all cases, be administered in the Probate Court. The heirs at law of such deceased persons, through their attorneys, present petitions, orders, bonds, inventories, etc., to the Probate Court for the consideration of the Judge of that court. The Judge passes on each and every step taken in the process of administering an estate, especially where the deceased leaves real estate.

When real estate is left by a decedent, the title to such real estate becomes involved. If any errors are permitted in the proceedings, the title to the real estate becomes clouded and may result in future expensive litigation to the owners. Judge Pray also takes care of all probate cases, and in these times of trial and want there are many dependent and neglected, and also delinquent children that come under his jurisdiction. Judge Pray gives his entire time and attention to the work of his court. It is one court which operates continuously, there being no vacations.

MARK B. SUGDEN

CANDIDATE FOR

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS

Mark B. Sugden, the Mayor of Saline, is a candidate for Register of Deeds. That concise statement without embellishment is probably all Mr. Sugden would have us say about the matter, if we were to give him his way about it. That is the way with some men who know conscientiously that they have always lived with sincere regard of the interests of their community and fellow citizens and therefore feel that nothing more can be said. But we feel that an appreciation of Mark B. Sugden in these feature columns is not entirely in order but fitting.

It is said that Mr. Sugden will be successful in his campaign by reason of his character, reputation, and ability and by virtue of his strict probity of character. For these reasons Mr. Sugden is a mighty strong contender for the Republican nomination for Register of Deeds, and it may be prophesied that he will receive the votes of many admirers of good government, regardless of partisanship.

Cornelius W. Tuomy

COUNTY DRAIN COMMISSIONER

Experience is what counts, not only to the individual, but as well to the people he serves. In fact experience is necessary to make a success of any vocation and that particularly is true of the office of Drain Commissioner. Mr. Tuomy, who is seeking re-nomination to this office in which he has so well served on the Republican ticket, has proven that he has been a good Drain Commissioner and he submits his experience in this office, coupled with a deep-seated desire to fully protect the rights of all the people involved in the administration of the drain laws, as an indication of his qualifications to faithfully perform this service.

In presenting those leaders in the official life of Washtenaw County we are pleased to thus remark about Cornelius W. Tuomy and wish him success in his coming campaign.

ALFRED RICE

Candidate for

Republican Nomination for

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

If nominated and elected, Alfred Rice's administration as State Representative of the Washtenaw County district, will be one of significant constructive and will decidedly strengthen the tenants and influence of the people in general. In spite of the fact that Mr. Rice will strive strenuously to win his point in any campaign, he has always adopted such means and measures that have been within the boundary lines of courtesy to his opponents. Thus he has gained an enviable regard of the entire populace, regardless of politics. This may in large measure be attributed to the fact that he is imbued to aid the community in its progress and advancement, socially and commercially, for there is nothing in his life that he loves better than the common welfare of the people.

ALBERT J. RAPP

WASHTENAW COUNTY

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY

Washtenaw County is giving a good account of itself in more ways than one, showing a prosperity and good will, one unto the other that is most satisfying. We have good roads, good schools, and good government. That word is all important, for after all, what we have that is good is the direct result of good government. That in turn reflects large credit upon those able people who play such an active part in that government. Take for example our Prosecuting Attorney, Albert J. Rapp. Mr. Rapp fills his office in such manner that he has earned the esteem and praise of the entire community. Regardless of partisanship, he considers his office such a high trust that all personal interests are bracketed aside in the cause of good government.

JOHN S. CUMMINGS

REGISTER OF DEEDS

From the many remarks heard from the people of Washtenaw County, we assume that John S. Cummings of Chelsea, our present Register of Deeds, has made a good official. Everyone has a good word for his courteous manner and pleasing personality.

Courtesy is the first "asset" to the success of the Register of Deeds. Without this asset the holder of this office does not accomplish full success and therefore becomes a man who is "snobbish."

John S. Cummings, who is seeking re-nomination to the office he now holds in the coming primaries on the Republican ticket, does not require to be elected to this office to obtain the "asset" of courtesy as he is known the county over as a man who tries to accommodate all with whom he comes in contact.

JANE FORSHEE

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR COUNTY TREASURER

Closely identified with much that makes this county so well thought of are those who are prominently known in the public and political life. We are thus happy to present in these words in these feature columns, Jane Forshee of Ann Arbor Township, the Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer.

It has been her privilege to come into this world able to guide her own destinies and to make the most of these opportunities that come to every American citizen but which circumstances sometimes cause to wither. In all her career she has been a hard worker and that means that she knew how to keep her sleeves rolled up literally as to sit behind the executive mahogany. Her own efforts and that the people have recognized her ability and character is clearly attested when she was made the Democratic Nominee for County Treasurer.

Jay H. Payne

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

ANN ARBOR

Jay H. Payne is one of the leading figures in the legal and public life of Washtenaw County prominently identified as a lawyer and justice of the peace at the court house in Ann Arbor.

Mr. Payne is a member of Payne, Mellott & Pack, Attorneys with offices at 307-311 First National Bank Building in Ann Arbor. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan Business Administration class of 1921 and the Law School of this University in 1928. He has since that time practiced law in Ann Arbor. He has served in his present office as Justice of the Peace since 1929, in which court he has handled 6,004 criminal cases and 3,683 civil cases. He has lived in Ann Arbor for 22 years and resides at 1105 Packard Avenue.

His career is pointed to as one of significance to the welfare and advancement of the people, and in his present position of honor and trust he commands the esteem and admiration of the profession with which he is associated and of the people.

CORA L. HAAS

COMMISSIONER OF SCHOOLS

Real efficiency and modern methods find their greatest outlets in the conduct of an office having to deal with the efforts of experts, and in no department of civic government is this more apparent than in the office of the County Commissioner of Schools. When a department so manages its affairs as it has done so well under the able guidance of Cora L. Haas and render unto the citizenship the rightful measure of responsibility for community.

the upkeep of the public machinery, it may well be said to accomplish its purpose as an important cog in government machinery. Cora L. Haas, during the time she has occupied this post of public service, well demonstrated her fitness for the duties of the office. She has made it plain that a public servant of high ideals and purposes loyal to their trust can make themselves an invaluable asset to the community.

RELATIONS between Russia and Japan have been further strained by the arrest of 17 Soviet subjects, all officials and employees of the Chinese Eastern railway, by Manchukuo authorities. They are accused of plotting against Manchukuo and Japan and of being in collusion with bandits in recent attacks on the railway. The Russian consul general at Harbin vainly demanded the release of the prisoners. In Moscow the arrests gave rise to rumors that Japan was preparing to declare military law and take over the railway, the sale of which has long been a subject of fruitless negotiation.

Tokio dispatches quoted a foreign office spokesman as saying the government was considering sending a general warning to Moscow.

Beetles Hatch in Water;Have One Breath of Air

Beetles with their anatomy organized for breathing air, yet which live under water, and get air to breathe only once in their lives, have been found in the cold, swift brooklets in the Great Smoky mountains, between Tennessee and North Carolina. They belong to a rare and very little-known group of insects, of which 60 species have been discovered so far in North America, report entomologists of the Smithsonian institute. The beetles hatch under water, and live their larval lives submerged. After they pass through the pupal stage they come out for a little flight into the upper air, which insures their distribution. Then they get under water again, and never come to the surface any more. In spite of their almost totally submerged lives these beetles are not organized, as some insects are, for water breathing. They have no gills or similar apparatus, and although there is a small reservoir of air under their wing-cases, it appears doubtful whether this pocketful would suffice for normal breathing requirements for their months of life. The only suggestion that has been made is that they are naturally so inactive that their oxygen requirement is very low.

Light From Depth of Space

Light from the depths of the heavens, its source so far away that it takes more than seventy million years for it to travel to earth, is just the same kind and travels at exactly the same rate as that shining on the earth every day from the sun, was found by an official at the Mt. Wilson observatory. He feared that the light from those unbelievably distant spaces might not be the same as that from our nearer neighbors, that it might become "tired" on its long journey and not travel so speedily. He measured its speed, however, and found it to tally exactly with measurements conducted on earth. Thus, these aged light beams have lost none of their youthful fire, although they have speeded along at the rate of 186,000 miles a second for countless eons. The tests were made to find whether the universe is expanding.

Unscientific Scienceof the Forgotten Past

That the hoop-snake sticks its tail into its mouth and sticks its tail down into its mouth and sticks its tail down into its mouth, that horse-hair comes alive in water, that the porcupine shoots his quills at his enemies, that toads give people warts, and that the lion works himself into a rage by swallowing his tail—these are a few superstitions which all of us have heard, and which some of us believe, says a writer in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The fact is that the ostrich does not stick its head in the sand to hide when he sees an enemy; that the bald-headed eagle which embellishes the silver coins of the United States is not a very praiseworthy bird, but an ugly scavenger, that the death's head moth is harmless and that monkeys don't pick fleas off their skin, but dabberdoff. Thousands of people still believe that poisonous snakes stab the poison into their victims with their forked tongues, but their tongues are quite incapable of such activities. The countless old stories that a rabbit's foot brings luck, that a peacock's feather is unlucky as is a black cat across one's path, and that a gecko (a kind of tropic lizard) means good fortune in one's house, are among the silliest superstitions with which men have been ridden. These, at any rate, have largely been banished from our thinking. History, as well as science, has been embroidered with fairy tales about cherry trees and Nero's fiddles, but fewer historical than scientific fables seem to have survived modern years.

Stage Coach History

According to the Britannica, the stage coach was a public conveyance known in England from the sixteenth century. The improvement of the roads and putting carriages on springs, in the latter part of the eighteenth century, led to the great development of these stages. The Romans in the days of the Roman empire had a system of public vehicles for hire, which traveled over definite routes and probably at stated times. Sailing vessels and saddle horses have been used almost from the dawn of civilization. Sailing ships were built and used by the ancient Egyptians, Chaldeans, Hindus and Chinese. The oldest paintings and carvings left by the ancient inhabitants of the Euphrates in Asia show that saddle horses were familiar to them; and it is assumed by one authority that the supremacy first gained by the people of that region was largely due to the use of horses in war, giving them an advantage over unmounted tribes. Some Indian tribes used sails with their canoes, this putting them within the term "sailing vessels."—Detroit News.

Johnny Appleseed

Johnny Appleseed, who traveled throughout the country in the early days planting apple orchards for the coming settlers, is regarded as the most eccentric figure in American history. He went barefooted, not only in summer but often in winter, wore a coat a coffee sack with holes cut in it for his neck and arms, was frequently seen wearing a pan for a hat, thought it sinful to kill even a rat or a poisonous snake, was never without his Bible, endured pain as the most resolute stoic, and was loved by the settlers and feared by the Indians, the latter of whom would not harm him because they thought his mind was pathetically warped. Still, despite his queerness, by his extensive planting of nurseries he performed a service to humanity not less beneficial than have been performed by many statesmen themselves.

Chrysanthemum Royal Insignia

The chrysanthemum, from its long association with the imperial family, is held in particular esteem by the Japanese who annually hold a fête in its honor. To the many varieties with which we are familiar these master florists have added many strange and beautiful forms. They have produced plants with five or six varieties of size and color on the same stem, plants that will grow only one enormous flower and plants with more than a thousand blossoms.

Nomination News Delayed

Here is an incident illustrative of the important role improved means of communication have played in unifying our nation, cites G. R. Turner in the Kansas City Times. In 1843 the Whigs nominated Gen. Zachary Taylor as their candidate for President. To the general, who at the time was living on a farm in Louisiana, the chairman of the convention immediately dispatched a letter notifying him of his nomination. But in those times postage was paid by the person receiving a letter, and the general, tired of paying postage on fan mail, refused to accept the large bundle in which the chairman's letter was inclosed. Two days later, thinking that the bundle might have contained important information, he asked the post office to return it. But the postmaster in the meantime had marked "undelivered" the chairman's letter and returned it to Washington. Thus it was that a month elapsed before the general was able to gain possession of the letter and learn of his nomination.

METHODIST HOME

Miss Harriett Shankland of Ann Arbor, a niece of Mrs. Robtoy, called on her, Wednesday.

Mrs. Rowe's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Earl of Bloomfield Hills called Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. C. Holmes and Mrs. Nina Bradshaw of Milan were Friday callers of Miss Maggie Smith and her Sunday callers were Mrs. Parker, Ed Casler and family, Pauline Bombenick and Wilhelmina Richardson.

Miss Jennie Allen went to Ypsilanti on Tuesday, the 21st, for a two weeks' visit.

Miss Ruth Dancer called for Mrs. Bailey on Sunday morning and took her to the home of her parents in Chelsea for dinner. After dinner they took a drive around Cavanaugh Lake and called at other places.

Mrs. Monroe spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. L. L. Gorton at Waterloo.

Miss Barnum returned Monday from a week's visit at Lansing, Linden and Olivet.

C. E. Park received a message from his grandson, Durward Moore, that he has a position as teacher in the Marshall school and will move from Harbor Springs to that city this week.

Mrs. Ida Lansing returned Sunday from a three weeks' visit at Lansing, Oakley and Owosso. She was accompanied on the return by friends from Owosso: Mrs. Burwell, Mrs. Lansing, Miss Jeanette Lansing, Mrs. Howe and Mr. Tannahill. It was the first visit of the people from Owosso to Chelsea and the Home. They were very much pleased with the Home and thought it far nicer than they had anticipated.

Mrs. Carrie Gridley, a friend from Jackson, called on Mrs. Filer on last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leeman and granddaughter, Valerie Leeman, called on Miss Emma Leeman on Sunday morning.

J. C. Rouland, Jr. of Detroit called on Mrs. Gorton Wednesday afternoon and again on Monday evening.

UNADILLA

Dr. Atterbury of Detroit visited Mrs. Donald here on Sunday.

Harry Cooper and children attended the Braman reunion at Wampers Lake on Sunday.

Mrs. Kittie Stowe of Jackson spent the week-end with Mrs. Claude Rose. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Marshall attended the Ludlow-Alten reunion at Mason on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Ives and Mrs. Laverock of Chelsea attended church here Sunday.

Wm. Hopkins, a former resident of this place, died at the home of his daughter in Brighton on Friday.

Mrs. Sarah Barnum is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from her work in Howell.

Miss Lou Nyhart of Paterson, N. J. and Walter Vaughn of Detroit are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rose.

Mrs. Josie Cramer, James and Glenadine are visiting Mrs. Dewey Johnson in Pontiac.

WILL ATTEND CONVENTION
At least three members of the Chelsea Kiwanis club are expected to attend the state Kiwanis convention at Traverse City on September 4 and 5. President Harrie L. Bleeker hopes the number will be larger.

Traverse City expects to entertain more than 500 Kiwanians, many of whom will bring their wives, and an unusually active program of business, speech-making and recreation has been prepared. The program starts in reality with several events on Labor Day, the day before the convention opens. It closes with the governor's banquet and ball of the 48-Michigan-Kiwanis clubs on Wednesday evening.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY
Miss Gertrude Young of Ann Arbor spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Young. Sunday she was guest of honor at birthday dinner, with seven or twelve. A birthday cake in pink and white was an attractive feature.

Mrs. Clara Scott and daughter, Miss Alicia Scott and Miss Ruth Joliff, all of Detroit called on Mrs. Winn, Monday afternoon.

Miss Edna Wenk, with several girl friends, accepted of the week-end excursion rates to attend the Century of Progress. We are glad to have our girls "take in" all educational opportunities but we miss them when they are not here.

Let's Be Happy!

BY LAWRENCE HAWTHORNE

I like to turn men's thoughts away
From struggle and from strife,
And have them contemplate with me
The happy things of life.
I like to lead them down the paths
Of Nature's wonderland,
Where beauty, cheer and peace of mind
Are found on every hand.

It seems to me that life should bring
More happiness and fun—
More satisfaction and content
With every setting sun;
It seems to me that we should find
Release from daily care,
And spend more time where friendly joys
Are waiting everywhere.

So many things men think they need,
And slave so long to gain,
Bring only misery and loss
And bitterness and pain!
So many things that fill our lives
With drudgery and toil
Are such a foolish price to pay
For all the fun they spoil!

And so, I like to turn men's thoughts,
As often as I may,
To things that help them to forget
The burdens of the day;
I like to guide their weary steps
Where friendliness and cheer
Will drive discouragement away,
And bring contentment near.

Lawrence Hawthorne
