Support Is Asked For Red Cross Activities

The annual membership roll call drive was started by the local chapter of the American Red Cross on Armistice Day and will be continued until Thanksgiving. On Saturday of this week young ladies will be stationed in the Chelsea State Bank and the postoffice for the convenience of those who desire to make a contribution to this worthy cause.

In five years of depression, the helping hand of the American Red Cross in Washtenaw County has reached into the homes of more than 2,400 persons. Through the generosity of the public, this agency has been able to succor many distressed neighbors. Now it is asking the whole-hearted support of the citizens of the county: The relief fund, according to Mrs. Nellie E. Ball, executive secretary, is heavier than it has ever been before.

Basic needs within the limitations of public funds within the limitations defined by Federal authorities, and in a great many cases this is quite inadequate for family needs. The American Red Cross is taxed to the limit of its resources in helping to supply the demands made upon it.

A special effort is being made by the local chapter to collect used clothing for needy of the community, especially for children. Many calls are being received daily as winter approaches and anyone who can contribute garments of any kind will be doing a kind deed by helping to alleviate the suffering of unfortunate children of the community. Contributions of clothing may be taken to Mrs. A. L. Steger, Mrs. D. H. Wurster or Mrs. J. E. McKune.

Football Season To Close Here Friday

The popular Chelsea Hi football squad, which has had a very successful year in spite of their poor showing at the beginning of the season, will play the last game of their schedule at Holmes field on Friday afternoon of this week, with the Van Dyke squad of Detroit as their opponents.

Van Dyke has a powerful team this year, at present being tied for first place in the Detroit Suburban League. When they played here several years ago they were defeated by Chelsea but it will take real playing Friday if the local lads carry off the honors. Under the coaching of John Bacon, former Chelsea resident, the Van Dyke team has made steady progress and have been showing a real leadership in the sport among their class of teams.

Attendance has not been what it should be at the local football games this season. The boys have been doing some real playing, losing only one league game and finishing the season in second place in the Huron Valley League. Chelsea fans are urged to support the team in their last game of the season on Friday at 3:30, Holmes field. A real battle is assured.

Many Books Added To Rural Library

With the addition of many books to the rural school library of Washtenaw county during the past week, residents of Chelsea are doing their part in the building of a better collection for the country schools.

These books are being gathered between now and the end of the month for the benefit of rural school children of the county, whose limited reading material has long been a source of anxiety to teachers, parents and school officials. The books will be repaired, classified and catalogued during the Christmas holidays, and will be ready for children in the one-room schools when classes are resumed in January.

The Washtenaw county rural school library has been assembled without cost to the school districts, through the free will contribution of second hand books, given by county residents. The first books were given to Miss Cora Hans, county school commissioner, by friends in Ann Arbor and members of the Ann Arbor Business and Professional Women's Club. In 1931 the Business and Professional Women's Club of Ypsilanti undertook to found a library for the country schools and secured 2,800 second hand volumes. Books have been replaced and additions made since that time, also without cost to the tax payers, and this month residents of Chelsea are doing their part to enlarge the library and replace volumes which have been worn out through constant usage.

Anyone who has a book which he can spare, is asked to bring it to the office of the Standard. Books of all descriptions can be utilized and will be appreciated.

Impressive Service At Armistice Event

About 50 couples were in attendance at the annual Legion Armistice dance which was held Saturday evening at the public school auditorium. Music for the occasion was furnished by Jerry Strong and his Serenaders of Jackson.

At 11 o'clock the lights were turned off and a tableau was glimpsed through the darkness in the "moment of silence" in honor of the departed heroes. As the music stopped and a bugler sounded taps, Legionnaires and their guests stopped dancing and looked into the darkness. Immediately a ray of light shined upon the grave of the Unknown Soldier, at the head of which was a white cross and a helmet with the motto "Lest We Forget", typifying the spirit of Armistice Day.

W. R. C. TO MEET TUESDAY

The W. R. C. will serve a dinner Tuesday, November 20, at Odd Fellows hall. A regular meeting of the corps will be held at 2:30, and Mrs. Wright, inspecting officer of Jackson, will be present. Mrs. Charlotte Mohr-tock, delegate to the district convention at Now Haven, will give a report of the meetings. All members are urged to be present.

CHAPTER I.—Prudence Schuyler comes from New York to Prosperity Farm inherited from her uncle, to make a new life for herself and her brother, David, whose health has been broken by tragedy.

"Put 'em up! There's blood on your forehead, Prue. Who hurt you?" Prue's body felt curiously light. Her voice seemed to trickle from a great empty space behind her eyes.

News of Debate Club

Two more practice debates have been staged. Last Tuesday the negative team debated with the Ypsilanti affirmative team at Ypsilanti. It was too informal and our debaters resolved to do a better job of entertaining than did the Ypsi team.

Wednesday the debaters of the negative team spoke against the affirmative team of Jackson here. Nicholas Panarites was the chairman and gave an introductory speech, welcoming the Jackson team. The members of the negative were Walter Balmer, Wilbur Tisch, Richard Sowers. The affirmative team of Jackson was composed of Mr. Horn, Miss Helmsman and Mr. Dowell. The debate was extremely interesting, both teams taking the subject seriously.

Our first contest debate is to be held next week, November 22, at Chelsea. The affirmative team of Chelsea will oppose the negative team of Ypsilanti.

Old Rival Defeated By Chelsea High

Chelsea won a long drawn out gridiron battle Friday. The game was played without any snow flakes being on the ground. You know when old rivals meet there is found to be a tough scrappy fight. Two boys were forced to leave the game on account of injuries. The final score was 24-0 in favor of the boys in "Purple and Gold."

Editorial

Nothing is more delightful than listening to a good conversationalist and, conversely, nothing is more disgusting than keeping company with one who is surly or ill-mannered in conversation.

Conversation is dependent for its effectiveness upon the quality of the voice, the topic of the conversation, and the manner in which that topic is treated. The most ordinary words make a pleasant impression on the ear if they are spoken in a low clear voice with an upward inflection. Look directly at the person to whom you are speaking. A half open mouth, a vacant stare, restlessness, and a wandering eye indicate ill-breeding.

Distinct and intelligent replies to questions constitute a definite part of good conversation. Don't say "uh-huh" in answer to a question. Say "Yes, Mr. Brown," or "Surely, Mrs. Thomson," "Yes sir," and "No ma'am" are always good manners, although they are somewhat out of fashion. If you wish to have something repeated, say "Pardon" or "I beg your pardon, Mr. Jones," "Please," "Thank you," and "Pardon me" cannot be too freely sprinkled throughout the conversation. They are to good conversation as yeast is to bread. They make it rise above the level of ordinary talk.

You didn't know we had a girl at the age of 70 in our room did you? Well, that's what she said she was. When Mrs. Steiner asked Pearl how old she was she answered promptly "seventy." This is how it happened. She was so intent on looking a paper over on which she had just received a grade of 70, that she gave that as an answer. Instead of her real age, we all had a good laugh anyhow, much to Pearl's embarrassment.

We erected a voting booth, and voted for Fitzgerald too. According to our returns Fitzgerald was elected.

Mrs. Gaunt visited us on Tuesday forenoon and again on Thursday.

We received a lovely fern for our room this winter from Mrs. Starns. Thank you, Mrs. Starns!

Mr. Ahmendinger tuned our piano on Monday. We all enjoyed the little talk he gave us on "How to Tune a Piano." Also his explanation of the action of the tuning fork. He tells us our piano is 46 years old, but it is still in fine shape.

PRAY, ONE FOR ANOTHER

I cannot tell why there should come to me
A thought of someone miles and miles away!
In swift insistence on the memory,
Unless there be a need that I should pray.
Too hurried oft are we to spare a thought.
For days together of some friend
away!
Perhaps God does it for us,
And we ought to read the Signal as a call to pray.

Perhaps just then, my friend has fiercer fight.
Some overwhelming sorrow or decay
of courage, darkness.
Some lost sense of right.
And so in case he need my prayer,
I pray—
Friend, do the same for me.
If I unwitting intrude upon you on some clouded day.
Give me a moment's thought,
Be very sure I need it.
Therefore, pray.

To The Standard Family:
These beautiful verses I received in a letter from a friend. They are well worth passing on.

All Woods Warp

The Forest Products Laboratory says that there is no wood that will not warp somewhat if conditions are favorable to warping. With some woods the warp under the most extreme conditions will be so slight as to be scarcely noticeable; other woods under similar conditions will warp very badly.

So marvelled is the atmosphere at the world's highest golf course in Changchun, N. M. (alt. 5,500 feet), and the air will not sustain a golf ball in flight for the normal distance and a 175-180 yard drive is considered good distance.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS
If You Are Over 40
If so, nature is warning you of danger ahead. Get rid of your trouble early. Make this 25c test. Get Jun-per oil, Buchu leaves, etc., in green tablets. Ask for BUKETS, the bladder laxative. Take 12 of them in four days; if not pleased go back and get your money. BUKETS work on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Flushes out excess acids and other impurities which cause getting up nights, frequent desire, scanty flow, burning, backache or leg pains. You are bound to feel better after this flushing and you get your regular sleep. Guaranteed by J. V.
