Alex C. Fisher, Local Shoe Merchant, Dies

News of the death, on Sunday, of Alex C. Fisher, shoe merchant in Chelsea for nearly 11 years, came as a shock to the community. He was taken ill on Wednesday of last week with a cold which developed into pneumonia, and he passed away Sunday evening, February 10, at his home on Washington St.

Alex Earl Clayton Fisher was the youngest of a family of eight children born to Albert and Sarah Fisher.

A. C. FISHER

He was born April 15, 1890 in Brown City and was married October 12, 1922 to Florence Alma Newell of Plymouth, who, with their two children, Robert, 10 and Kathleen, 7 are left to mourn the untimely death of husband and father. The Fishers moved to Chelsea in March, 1924 and Mr. Fisher opened a shoe store and repair shop, where he has since done business continuously.

Mr. Fisher was a graduate of Brown City high school, class of 1918, and later attended Cleary College, Ypsilanti, being a member of S. A. P. C. stationed there.

He was a member of the American Legion and of the official board of the Methodist church, of which he was a lifelong member.

Also surviving Mr. Fisher are his sister, Mrs. Alex Smith of Bridgdon, Ontario, and six brothers, Alonzo and John of Brown City, Blake and Guy of Plymouth, Berle of Detroit, and James of Sylvania, Ohio.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. F. D. Mumby officiating. Interment was in the family lot in the cemetery at Yale, Michigan.

Village Candidates To Be Named Tuesday

Chelsea politics will again come into the limelight next week when activities leading up to the village election on March 11 will begin with caucuses of both the People's and Independent parties, called for Tuesday evening. The People's party will meet in caucus at 7:30 and the Independent party caucus is called for 8 o'clock.

It is expected that two complete tickets will be named Tuesday evening and it is hoped a larger attendance than usual will show their interest in local affairs by attending the caucus of their respective party and aiding in the selection of suitable candidates.

Both parties have active party committees and they are making an effort to arouse interest in the political affairs of the village. Jacob Hummel, C. O. Bahnmiller and H. D. Withers represent the People's party and C. Lehman, Roy Harris and O. D. Schneider comprise the Independent party committee.

The complete official body of the village now consists of J. E. McKune, president; C. O. Bahnmiller, clerk; Chester Miller, treasurer; Jacob Hummel, John Frymuth, H. B. Murphy, B. B. Turnbull, J. D. McManus and John Schenk, trustees; Geo. Seitz, assessor. Turnbull, McManus and Schenk are the three trustees whose terms do not expire this year, all other positions to be filled at the coming election.

UNEMPLOYED HAVE ONE MORE CHANCE TO REGISTER

Unemployed men of the community who have not availed themselves of the opportunity to register will be given one more chance to do so, according to J. E. McKune, village president. H. E. Spangler, in charge of the National Reemployment Service office in Ann Arbor, will again be in Chelsea at the town hall on Friday of this week to receive applications for employment on the US-12 highway relocation project. A large list of applicants registered last week, but Mr. McKune believes there are others whose names should be listed with Mr. Spangler.

Fisher's Shoe Store will be open for business as usual today. Adv.

Federal Playground Project Explained At Kiwanians' Meeting

A better understanding of the magnitude of the Waterloo Federal Park Project was obtained by members of the Kiwanis club and several guests at the Monday evening meeting of the club, when C. DeForest Platt, Project Manager, and P. S. Lovejoy of the State Conservation Department addressed the gathering.

Mr. Platt stated that of the 10,000 acres under option, approximately 7,000 acres have been accepted as a part of the project. He stated that at the present time no limit has been placed on the acreage of the park development, and that it is planned to extend land options as far as North Lake. Practically all the land under option is classified as submarginal and, according to the speaker, the project is planned so as to enable lovers of nature to have access to the great open spaces without the unpleasant features of trespassing on private property. He estimated that only 10 per cent of the area would be utilized for camps and recreational facilities, the remainder to be reforested, providing refuge for game and birds.

Mr. Lovejoy gave an interesting talk on the complications arising from the negotiations between the State and Federal governments on the matter of handling projects of this nature. He told of the method used in determining which submarginal lands were to be utilized, and stated that the local project was taken under advisement about a year ago. Mr. Lovejoy urged that each community adjacent to the project name committees to work with park officials and to make recommendations, in an effort to best utilize facilities at hand.

It is expected that two CCC camps will be established in the park area during the coming spring or summer, and that at least one children's camp and one adults' camp will be completed this year. Twenty men from the adjacent communities will be employed for each CCC camp, in addition to the young men accepted for the camps.

According to Mr. Platt it is expected that payment for accepted tracts of land will be forthcoming as soon as clear titles are provided the government. However, this no doubt will be a matter of several months' time. Payments will be made from the National Park Service funds.

Preceding the talks on the park project, Rev. F. D. Mumby gave an inspiring address on the life of Abraham Lincoln, and P. F. Niehaus led group singing.

PACKER-STAPISH WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Grace Packer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Packer, and Clarence Edward Stapish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stapish, both of Dexter township, was solemnized at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Mary church. The nuptial mass was read by Rev. Henry van Dyke, and music was rendered by Burg's choir. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coyle of Pinckney, uncle and aunt of the groom.

The bride was gown in navy blue mellembuch crepe, with white hat and accessories, and she carried an arm bouquet of premier roses, pink and white carnations. Mrs. Coyle wore a dress of navy blue crepe with hat to match and a corsage of premier roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast for immediate relatives was served at the home of the groom's parents.

The bride attended high school in Dansville and Stockbridge, the groom graduating from St. Mary's parochial school, Chelsea, in 1928.

Mr. and Mrs. Stapish left on a motor trip to Toledo and southern points. For the present they will reside at the Stapish home in Dexter township.

LOWERY - KEMMERLING

The marriage of Miss Louise A. Lowery of Chelsea and Bliss A. Kemmerling of Jackson took place at noon on Tuesday, February 12, at the home of the bride, 137 South St. Ray Chas. F. Wolf performed the ceremony and the attendants were Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobson of Jackson. A wedding dinner was served to twenty-three guests at Hayes hotel, Jackson. On their return from a motor tour to southern points, Mr. and Mrs. Kemmerling will reside in Chelsea.

Community Asks for $11,670 Federal Funds

In an effort to secure Chelsea's share of the huge relief funds which will no doubt be available from the federal government, local officials, both village and township, have listed and presented to the Michigan State Planning Commission definite projects for community betterment.

At a meeting of the common council last week the questionnaire furnished by the Planning Commission was filled out with a request for $9170.00 for village-public works projects, as follows:

Storm sewer extensions—$3630.00.

Cleaning Mill Creek from where storm sewers empty, east to the township line—$1500.00.

Dump clearances—$1040.00.

Public playground—$3000.00.

In addition to the village projects, township officials have presented their request for $2500.00 for interior repairs, remodeling, redecorating and a new heating plant for Sylvan town hall.

If all or a part of the above listed projects are approved it will provide employment for a great many men, and at very little expense to the community.

Murderer Confesses Theft of Pistol Here

Armed with extradition papers signed by Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald for the return to Michigan of Clarence Frechette, Kalamazoo truck driver, who is being held in California in connection with the murder of his employer, Robert Brown of Kalamazoo, Prosecutor Stanley Derriman and Sheriff Claude H. M. Fawcett of Livingston county left Saturday for the west.

Frechette was taken into custody February 7 near Truckee, Calif., after a 2500-mile car ride with the body of his victim. He later confessed that he shot Brown near Howell, Mich. on January 29, while the two were en route from Kalamazoo to Pontiac, and he carried the body in the trunk of the machine for nine days. The trouble started in an argument over a girl, according to Frechette.

The .32 caliber automatic pistol with which Brown was shot to death was stolen from George F. Raviler at the Dixie service station, corner of South Main street and US-12, according to Frechette's confession. Raviler told officers that Frechette, who for several months had been in the habit of stopping at intervals for tires and gas, called at the station on January 18, the night before the pistol was missing. On January 30, the day after Brown was killed, Frechette stopped at the gas station with Brown's car and had the tank filled with gasoline. He had the gasoline charged to Brown, who at the time was lying dead in the trunk on the rear of the machine.

The Livingston county authorities planned to make the trip to California by train, returning in the automobile with which Frechette was captured.

Regional Groups Spur State's Works Program

Detroit—The State Planning Commission, welding Michigan's varied units into a single powerful force to the end that the State may get its just portion of the new $4,880,000,000 asked by President Roosevelt for relief purposes, has called officials throughout the state to a series of regional meetings.

Meetings have already been held at Detroit, Lansing, Battle Creek and Ishpeming. Others to come are:

Manistique and Dowagiac, Feb. 15; Marquette, Feb. 18; Bay City, Feb. 19; Traverse City, Feb. 20; Grand Rapids, Feb. 21; and Ann Arbor, Feb. 23.

Invitations have been sent to every county school and road commissioner, county clerk and mayor or president of the 475 cities and villages in the state urging their attendance at the particular meeting in their district. Architects, engineers, and other representatives of Planning Commission, together with heads of state departments at Lansing will be present to advise on projects submitted or in preparation.

Five engineers have been named as field representatives of the Commission to aid the 3,500 county, township, municipal and school administrative units represented at the regional meetings in drawing up their questionnaires in accordance with National Resources Board requirements. Washtenaw and Monroe counties will send representatives to the Ann Arbor meeting.

OUR NEIGHBORS

NORTHVILLE—The lives of more than 300 grade pupils were endangered Monday afternoon when they were driven from their rooms by poisonous coal gas fumes that overcame two teachers and made several children ill.

Although pupils returned Tuesday morning, the gas was still strongly in evidence and school had to be again dismissed. On Wednesday and again on Thursday, the fumes were still escaping, and as teachers and students were made ill each time by the gas, school was dismissed. The mysterious source of the gas that nearly suffocated 300 pupils and teachers Monday has not been located, and, together with other experts,

Prof. A. H. White of the University of Michigan college of engineering may be called in to investigate, latest reports stated.—Record.

TECUMSEH—If you don't believe that strange accidents can happen, just ask Mrs. Kathryn Righter, who resides in Holloway. Last Friday afternoon, while Mrs. Righter was sitting in her home, she heard a terrible crash, a window snapped and then the plaster in one of the rooms started to fall. She investigated and discovered that a wheel had come off from a passing car, was thrown several feet into the air and crashed into the side of her dwelling. Her children were playing outside near where the wheel struck the building but were uninjured.—Herald.

PINCKNEY—The numbering of houses and the installing of signboards on all the roads in the territory served by the Detroit Edison Company is about completed, according to reports from Herbert Silvester, District Agent of that company. The work was done entirely at the expense of the Detroit Edison Company. Although the designation of houses by means of number and road name will primarily be a convenience to the electric company, the individual resident will greatly benefit.—Dispatch.

PLYMOUTH—Plymouth is one of eighteen stations in Wayne county that has been placed upon the teletypewriter network that the Detroit police and sheriff's office has set up in Wayne county in an effort to better cope with crime conditions. The new machine, which will record police information direct from the police headquarters in Detroit as well as the sheriff's office, is being placed in the office of Chief of Police Vaughn Smith in the city hall, and it will be in constant operation during the 24 hours of the day. Information that the Detroit officers wish to get to the outlying communities is given to all eighteen stations at one time, and will be recorded on the machine whether there is anyone there to operate it or not.—Mail.

MORENCI—A. C. LaRowe, manager of the local plant of The Parker Rust Proof Company, states that the production of rust proofing compounds at the plant here was the largest of any month since the plant was established in 1927. A total of 682,750 pounds of finished products was produced the past month compared with a total of 498,288 pounds in January, 1934. Figuring 80,000 pounds for a carload this makes a total of 23 carloads of material that was shipped out of the plant besides 14 carloads of raw material received, or a total of 37 carloads inbound and outbound.—Observer.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—Why were slits put into many men's coats (coat tails), as they don't seem to be pleasing or useful?

Ans.—There was a time in our history when horseback riding was the chief mode of travel. In those days coats were much longer than they are now, and the slits were made for convenience in straddling the horse's back. A coat cut that way now is simply a survival of those times. Overcoats, however, are cut with a slit to give more freedom to the act of walking.

Ques.—Was the unknown soldier that is buried in Arlington cemetery an American? Also how was he selected?

Ans.—The nationality of the unknown soldier is not known for a certainty. It is probable that he was an American, as his body was taken from a cemetery in France where most Americans were buried. The body was selected by Sergt. Edward Younger, who was blindfolded, placing a rose on a casket as designating the unknown soldier.

Ques.—I want to ask you if Daniel Webster and Noah Webster were related? If so, what was the relationship?

Ans.—They were distantly related, but their connection was so remote that their particular relationship cannot be expressed other than to say both were descendants of the same ancestral New England stock, whose ancestors came from England.

Ques.—During the Revolutionary War was George Washington commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy? I am told he was not.

Ans.—During the Revolutionary War George Washington was made a general by the Continental Congress. When the colonies were having trouble with France during John Adams' administration Washington was then made commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy.

Ques.—Can you tell me why a certain kind of bees are called "bumblebees"?

Ans.—This is because of the low, humming noise they make. Webster's International Dictionary defines "bumble" (the verb) as "to make a hollow, humming noise," and from this the bumblebee was so named.

Ques.—To settle an argument will you please answer in your Questions and Answers why the President's mansion is called the White House?

Ans.—When the British fired the President's mansion in 1814 all that was left of the building were the walls, which were built of freestones. When the mansion was rebuilt, the same walls were used just as they stood. They were painted white to abbreviate the marks of the fire. After this, outside of official usage, the mansion was called the White House.

Ques.—How can a woman ever become President of the United States when the Constitution definitely refers to the President as "he"? Can you explain?

Ans.—There is no personal pronoun in the third person singular that can be applied to both sexes. Therefore the word "he" in the Constitution has been interpreted as meaning man or woman.

Ques.—Will you answer in the Question Department of your excellent paper how hot can a person heat water? You know, a pan of cold water put on a fire will continue to get hotter and hotter.

Ans.—Of course, a vessel of cold water set over a fire will continue to get hotter, but will not exceed 212 degrees above zero, which is the boiling point. The water may boil faster, but will not get hotter.

Ques.—Why are certain kinds of grapes called "Tokay"?

Ans.—Tokay is a small town in Hungary, where the so-called Cal-

This trial, involving large numbers of animals, religious processions and other expensive ceremonies, lasted 12 years.—Collins' Weekly.

"Isle of Little Dogs"

On the Seine about five miles from the heart of Paris is the "Isle of Little Dogs," where thoughtful Parisians have buried, to tree-lined streets that are named after noted personages who loved animals, more than 25,000 "friends of man." One street is known as the "Cradle of Cats." A bronze tablet marking the resting place of a "very brave girl" further gives the details of the feline's bravery in the trenches. Sentative antepast-like whisks, catching the scent of approaching gas, caused her to meow loudly, awakening the police in time to save themselves. She was a brave girl.

Ancient Rome's Marriage Ceremony

"Social Life at Rome in the Age of Cicero" says: "The sacramental ceremony called confarreatio, the giving of a sacred cake, made of the old Italian grain called far and offered to Jupiter Farreus, was practiced in the bride and groom in the presence of the Pontifex Maximus, the Flamen Martialis and ten other witnesses. At such a ceremony the alliance had, of course, been taken and apparently a victim was also slain and probably offered to the gods, the skin of which was stretched over two seats (solae) on which the bride and bridegroom had to sit."

Earthlight Puzzles Scientists

Earthlight still puzzles scientists. It is a light of greatly varying intensity that sometimes illuminates the nocturnal sky, and is not attributed to sunlight, moonlight or starlight. Some believe it to be a feeble auroral discharge, yet it occurs in the absence of any well-defined aurora and in all parts of the sky.—Collins' Weekly.

I WONDER WHAT JESUS WILL SAY.

When I enter the portals of Heaven.

With hope fruition fulfilled,

When those gone before come to greet me,

When with unfettered glory I'm filled,

When one who outshines all the others,

In love's crystal light, leads the way,

And I stand before Christ the Redeemer,

I wonder what Jesus will say.

Will He reach out both hands to receive me?

Will there be a bright smile on His face?

Will the word "Inasmuch" thrill my spirit?

With the rapture that fills all the place?

Will He say, Your mansion is finished,

I've prepared it especially for you;

Enter in, enter in to my glory,

Because my dear child you've been true.

He has promised all this, my dear Brother,

All this, my dear Sister, and more,

He is pulling today at your heart-strings.

Today, He knocks at your door.

He brings you the blessed assurance,

If your heart is with Him in accord,

You'll someday receive the glad summons,

"Enter into the Joy of your Lord."

Hat-Bands and Baldness

Baldness, says a writer in the Los Angeles Times, is not due to parasites, dandruff, nervousness or brain-work but to the pressure of hat-bands upon the blood vessels in the scalp. Here, therefore, women were loosely fitting hats, and escaped baldness. Narrow-headed men do not feel the pressure of hat-bands as much as do thick-headed, and narrow-headed men are bald.

According to the United States Department of Public Health, it is impossible to restore hair which has vanished. Baldness cannot be cured, but may be prevented.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHPLACE

WASHINGTON was born in a house facing Popes creek, in Westmoreland county, Virginia, but the house burned on December 25, 1780. The old homestead has been included in the George Washington Birthplace National monument, and the house restored between 1880 and 1932 on its original site.

The old family burial ground, containing the bodies of Washington's father, grandfather and great-grandfather, is included on the 400-acre reservation. The George Washington Birthplace National Monument is 90 miles from Washington on United States route 1 and Virginia State route 8.

The Washington family first settled at Wakefield in 1665, a full century before the Revolution. Col. John Washington, great-grandfather of the President, had come to Westmoreland, Va., in 1656. He died and was buried there in 1670. Maj. Lawrence Washington and Maj. John Washington, his sons, succeeded him.

After their marriages the family lived on separate parts of the Wakefield estate until the house in which George Washington was born burned. After that the Washingtons continued in other houses on the same land, and descendants still live on part of the same Wakefield estate—a continuous possession, in whole or in part, for 264 years—eight generations.

Traveling to the Moon

Assuming such a planetary journey possible, the time required would depend upon speed of course, says Pathfinder Magazine. Theoretically, a visitor from the earth traveling at an average of 100 miles per hour should arrive on the moon about the ninth day after leaving the earth. If the trip were timed so as to arrive when the surface of the moon would be closest to that of the earth (216,428 miles).

Barbados Has Clean Record

Of all the land in the western hemisphere, so pure of it has a cleaner early history than Barbados, observes a writer in the Detroit News. The island was uninhabited when the crew of the Olive Blossom took possession of it in 1627; and it was still without inhabitants when it was settled by Englishmen in 1627. Thus no one was disposed in Barbados, and the island has had a peaceful record under the British flag ever since it was first unfolded.

Indiana's Footprint Rock

Footprint Rock, near Richmond, Ind., does not contain human footprints, subjected to the enormous pressure it must have undergone during the long journey from the northward, the scattered material sought its own kind and formed in irregular layers with such substances as mica weathering more readily than others, and thus formed the peculiar-shaped places resembling the prints of a human foot, which is so plain that it would deceive any eye but that of a scientist. There are several imprints in this rock that closely resemble footprints, due to the peculiar weathering of the stone. One of the places is 10 1/2 inches long.

Divers in Tropics Fear

Mania Will Devour Them

Divers in the tropics avoid the mania, holding to the traditional story that the giant ray will engulf a man and slowly devour him. Such, however, seems to be mythology. The mania is dangerous when wounded, and can be taken only by harpoon after a hard battle of several hours, says Popular Mechanics Magazine.

The cow fish has a coat of armor consisting of hardened scales which form a bony box from which the jaws, fins and tail can be moved freely. The name is applied because of small horns in front of its eyes. The porcupine fish is one of the most grotesque members of the finny tribe, being of olive color and spotted with black dots. Armed with sharp-pointed spines, it is difficult to handle without being injured. Like blow fish, which also are found in the Gulf, porcupine fish are capable of inflating air or water to form a balloon-like appearance to frighten enemies.

Although a small fish, generally running about six or seven inches in size, the bat-fish looks the least of any like a fish. It appears to be a toad, but has spine-like scales and a spinous dorsal fin.

While the drum fish is not exactly a queer specimen, its powerful jaws hold a set of mill-like teeth with remarkable crushing force. Schools of drums, from three to four feet in length and weighing from 40 to 60 pounds each, can make short work of a small oyster reef. When young they are striped like a zebra. Later they become a dusty color. A large female will lay 6,000,000 eggs.

Roman Emperor Let Month of November Retain Name

If the Roman senate had had its way November would be Tiberius. The senate, in the time he ruled the Roman world, proposed, as his birthday fell in that month, to honor him by giving it his name. Julius and Augustus had had months named for them, and the senate thought Tiberius, who succeeded Augustus, equally deserving. But he declined. Perhaps he had a sense of humor. "No, Conscripse Fathers," he said, "what would you do if we had thirteen Caesars?"

Tiberius evidently was looking ahead, and wisely, too, for the line of Roman emperors lengthened out to more than thirteen. Thus it was that the month retained its old name, "November," the ninth.

Our own Anglo-Saxon ancestors called it the wind month. They knew what they were about, for it is a month of raw, cold winds, although in this latitude, we often have in November stretches of mild, pleasant weather.

Still, it is the month when people batten down the hatches; stop all the chinks and crannies by which the cold might enter; to see that the fuel pile is high; to get out heavy clothes; and to prepare for the winter which November's blasts and its furies of snow announce.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

War Just Pastime With Fighting Men of Epirus

Epirus is the land "where men die young." This territory in southeastern Europe formerly belonged to Turkey. But now is divided between Greece and Albania. In 1912, Albania, including Epirus, broke away from Turkey and became independent. Two years later young Greek patriots went to Epirus to liberate it from the rule of the Albanians, intending to bring about the annexation of Epirus to Greece. The revolution was successful and for two years Epirus was a free country. In 1919 Italy intervened and after a period of military occupation declared that Epirus should be returned to Albania.

In 1914 the revolutionists issued postage stamps illustrating the flag of Epirus with an inscription meaning "self-governing Epirus." This is but a faint record of the country's short-lived independence.

In Epirus a more mountainous country, the women do all the work as the men conserve all their energy for fighting, which is a national passion of all Albanians. There are many curious customs connected with the country. One is that no man shall be killed if he is accompanied by a woman. — Washington Post.

Napoleon Founder of One of Greatest Industries

Napoleon's fame extends beyond that of a military genius; he was the founder of one of the greatest of modern industries—canning, writes Fred James in the Montreal Herald. He is credited with being directly responsible for the discovery that food could be kept in sealed, in airtight containers. The feeding of his armies was one of his first concerns with him. He knew that well-fed troops are vital to success. There's little, if any, courage or zeal in men with empty stomachs.

In 1809 Francois Appert, another Frenchman, evidently inspired by Napoleon's discovery, found that food put in airtight containers required to be sterilized.

While Frenchmen have the distinction of discovering the art of canning, it was an Englishman who invented the tin can. The most notable development of the canning industry has, however, taken place in North America.

Puritans' Footgear

Shoes were brought to America by the first settlers. The Indians wore moccasins and the white men adopted them until Thomas Board, a London shoemaker, came to Massachusetts in 1620, bringing a supply of leather, as well as a kit of tools, and became the first shoemaker on record in the colony. Puritans wore plain, square-toed shoes with buckles. Cavaliers wore great boots. Men of the Colonial and early Revolutionary periods wore long stockings and low shoes with buckles. Women had one pair of coarse shoes for weekly wear and a pair of the kid shoes for Sunday best. Farmers wore knee-high boots of heavy cowhide leather. Children's shoes were made in some cases the father's old boots were cut apart and made over into shoes for children.

Fishy Facts

Nine hundred thousand tons of cod are used to catch the 200,000 tons of fish landed at Grimsby every year, where the largest ice factory in the world turns out 1,200 tons of ice a day. Brought from the farthest parts of the North Sea, the landings begin at 5 a. m. every weekday morning on the "pouton," which is the name for the capture market. The fish is auctioned from north to south, cleaned and frequently floured, boxed in ice and packed in the vans of express night trains to catch the early morning markets at Billingsgate in London and elsewhere. — Tit Bits Magazine.

Noxious Fish Spearings Season Opens March 1

Noxious fish in certain designated non-trout streams of Michigan will become the legal targets of spear-wielders March 1 when a two and a half-month season opens on carp, suckers, redbreast, mullet and garpike, says the Fisheries Division, Department of Conservation. The season continues open to and including May 15.

It will not be lawful to use spears on Muskegon river or on Pine river from Schaner dam to Alma dam in Gratiot county.

Spearings with artificial light is prohibited except on streams or portions of streams designated by the Director of Conservation. A list of streams open to spearfishing for non-game fish is now being prepared and will be in the hands of conservation officers before the season opens.

Use of dipnets for the taking of suckers, carp, dogfish and garpike in streams designated by the Director of Conservation also becomes legal March 1 and continues legal to and including May 15. Dipnetting in Muskegon river, however, will not be permitted. The list of streams open to dipnetting will not be in the hands of conservation officers before March 1.

PUPPET SHOW

Friday afternoon, February 15, at three o'clock you will find the high school gymnasium the scene of one of the most entertaining shows that you have witnessed in some time.

Miss Klone Mitcoff, famous in her line, will present her Petrowska Puppets in a most charming program. Little Black Sambo will be there in three complete acts worked out as Miss Mitcoff's own original version which keeps to the essential action of the story that the children love so well.

Of course you remember "The Maid was in the Garden" and about the Blackbird who snapped off her nose. It is precisely in the snapping off of the maid's nose where Miss Mitcoff had always felt lay a great drama, and hence, this little farce of the search for the beautiful nose. Included in this production are many more Mother Goose characters, among whom is the "King who was in the Counting House" and who proves to be the hero of the play. And don't forget the 24 Blackbirds.

Aesop is going to be there to introduce you to "The Wolf and the Crane" as well as "The Miller, the Son, and the Donkey."

By all means come and get acquainted with these characters who will take you into their serious moods and then return you to peals of laughter.

They will perform for adults for 15 cents and for children for ten cents. The Child Study Club is bringing them to you.

Famous Horse Travels in Ford V-8 Truck

FAR from becoming skittish at the sight of an automobile, Goldie is shown above in a newly-purchased Ford V-8 stake truck, with her master Goldie, the $10,000 horse which has been featured in motion pictures and in rodeo performances with Buck Owens, stago and screen star, has traveled thousands of miles in the past few years. The photo above was taken in Detroit, where Goldie and her master made a brief stop, prior to continuing their vaudeville tour through Michigan and Ohio, after which they will make a tour of the east.
