A Symbol of Faith

O Grave! Where is thy victory?
O Death! Where is thy sting?

Pope

A steadfast faith removes much of the sorrow of parting, by teaching that death is only a transition to a better existence. It is our task to make the last rites symbolic of this faith, a leave-taking made serene by the assurance of a future reunion.

Project CCC Camps Will Be Abandoned

According to unofficial information received at the local administration offices of the Waterloo project from the regional office of the National Park Service in Indianapolis, it is planned to abandon the plan to station a CCC camp at Mill Lake, and to transfer the Portage Lake camp from the project.

If this information proves to be authentic, work on the project will be carried on as planned, with the use of local labor as a WPA project, which would provide employment for hundreds of local men rather than having practically all the work done by CCC men. In this way communities surrounding the project would benefit to a greater extent than would have been the case with establishment of camps there.

Information coming from Washington is to the effect that funds for completion of the project will be made available in the near future. When these funds are provided, final plans will be made for the development of picnic grounds, recreation halls, play fields, improved beaches, etc. on the project, and work will progress rapidly.

The government has accepted options on approximately 10,000 acres of land in Jackson and Washtenaw counties and holds options on about 4,000 acres more, much of which will no doubt be accepted, according to project officials.

Law Forbids Pheasant Hunting Until Sunrise

One of the changes in the small game hunting laws effective this fall forbids the pheasant hunter to begin hunting before the hour of sunrise.
Since this might lead to confusion and error if left to private interpretation, the Department of Conservation has announced a definite schedule of the official hours of sunrise for each day of the open pheasant season,
Oct. 15 to Oct. 27, inclusive, as a guide for conservation officers in enforcing the law.

The table follows:
Oct. 15 to Oct. 16, inclusive—6:50
a. m., E. S. T.
Oct. 17 to Oct. 21, inclusive—7:00
a. m., E. S. T.
Oct. 22 to Oct. 27, inclusive—7:10
a. m., E. S. T.
By use of the above table and his watch, the pheasant hunter may easily conform to the law even though weather conditions are cloudy and the true time of sunrise questionable.

The duck hunting season will open on October 21 and continue to November 10.

O. R. S. WILL MEET IN G. R.

The 60th session of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, Order of Eastern Star, will be held in the Civic Auditorium, Grand Rapids, on Tuesday,
Wednesday and Thursday, October 8, 9 and 10. The program will begin Tuesday evening, when the annual banquet will be served at the Pan-tlin hotel, and it is expected this will be the largest banquet ever held. The Grand Chapter will be formally opened at 8 o'clock by Mrs. Georgina Bauer, Worthy Grand Matron of Hastings, and Glenn A. Tupper, Worthy
Grand Patron of St. Johns. Mrs.
Bauer will use throughout the sessions the gavel which her mother used while presiding as national president of the W. R. C. at its convention in San Francisco in August, 1908. Gov. and Mrs. Frank D. Fitzgerald, both of whom are members of Grand Lodge Chapter, will be present at the banquet and will speak at the opening of the Grand Chapter.

In addition to the officers of the Grand Chapter, the entrance processional will include the pages, guards and guardians appointed for the session and a drill by over 100 members of the Orient and Decedent clubs of Wayne county. A memorial service will be held Wednesday evening,
which will be followed by a pageant depicting the life of Robert Morris, founder of the Order, and the early history of the organization which will be presented by the five Grand Rapids chapters. The installation service will take place Thursday afternoon.
The banquet, grand chapter opening,
memorial and installation will be open to friends of Eastern Stars. The Michigan Grand Chapter is the oldest in the world, having been organized in 1867.

Mrs. Marie Shaver, Worthy Matron,
Mrs. Lenore Schmidt, Associate Matron, and Mrs. Ruth Waltrous will attend the sessions as representatives of Olive Chapter, No. 108, Chelsea.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. James Runniman was pleasantly surprised on Sunday when her children and their families arrived to help her celebrate her birthday. A delicious dinner was served at one o'clock. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Miller of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Runniman of Lowell, Mr.
and Mrs. H. D. Runniman and daughter Nancy of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs.
H. F. Marty and son James of Flint.
Mrs. Runniman received several lovely gifts.

Robbers Get $400 From Local Office On Sunday Night

Robbers entered the office of the Chelsea Lumber, Grain & Coal Co.
Sunday night, broke into the safe and escaped with more than $400.00 in cash and some postage stamps.

Entrance to the building was made by breaking a panel in the side door of the building as the lock on the inside of the door could be reached. The large doors which enclose the scales room were locked, which made it necessary for the thieves to enter the lumber building and go over the scales to the side door.

Using a large stone hammer belonging to the lumber company, the combination was broken and a rod was used in driving the mechanism into the safe, and with the aid of a wire they moved the lock on the outer door of the safe could be opened. It was then necessary to break open the inner door to secure the money.

It is believed the robbery took place about 11 o'clock, as a passerby heard a crash in the direction of the office at that time, although he did not stop to investigate. That crash was perhaps caused when the side door was broken, for at that time they would not have had a lookout stationed.

Sheriff's officers were called and with the assistance of local deputies are investigating the crime and have obtained some very good clues. Although no arrests have been made it is expected that the suspected burglars will be taken into custody within a few days. It is believed the talent for the robbery was provided locally, with some outside assistance.

LINDSEY RESIGNS

E. B. Lindsey, who for more than four years has been local distributor
for the Sinclair Refining Co., has resigned his position with the company and with his family moved to their home in Jackson on Tuesday. Mr.
Lindsey states that he has no plans for the immediate future, but that he expects to enjoy a vacation for some time. D. W. Cutler of Jackson, who has been with the Sinclair company for many years, will take up the duties of local distributor for the company. Mr. and Mrs. Cutler have moved to the residence on West Middle street vacated by the Lindseys.

OCT. 14 FINAL TAX DATE

Notice is given by Chester Miller, village treasurer, in an advertisement
in this issue, that Monday, October 14 is the last day on which village taxes for 1935 may be paid. Soon after that date the unpaid list will be turned over to the county treasurer for collection. Mr. Miller states that approximately one-half of the taxes
have been paid at the present time.
Official action for extending the date for the payment of taxes was taken at a special meeting of the council held Monday evening.

Apology In Order from M. C. R. R.

Does Chelsea look like a skelton?
Such a conclusion might be drawn from the actions of the mail clerk on Michigan Central train No. 45 which passes through Chelsea westbound about 11:40 p. m.

On Monday evening the train was not scheduled for a stop here and the mail clerk was prepared to throw local mail from his coach as the train passed through the village. Whether or not the clerk was sleepy cannot be ascertained, but as he signed the skeleton of the comment plant which is being wrecked by the state at Four Mile Lake he threw the sack of mail, taking a chance on the bright lights he saw being in the village of Chelsea.

However, as old No. 45 bore down upon the village the clerk discovered his mistake and when he arrived in Jackson wrote Postmaster Withers, informing him of the mistake, and the mail was located by the M. C.
work crew on Tuesday morning.

It goes without saying that some action should be taken by the residents of our fair city in demanding an apology from the Michigan Central powers-that-
be. Politicians have caused the cement plant to be reduced to a mere skeleton, and now a mail clerk adds insult to injury by mistaking this skeleton for Chelsea, which fact cannot be easily forgotten.

For better mail service in Chelsea, turn out the lights at the old cement plant!

Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers

Herbert J. McKune Auxiliary, Unit
No. 81 installed their new officers on Tuesday evening, October 1, in the Legion hall. A delicious $3.00 dinner was served to about 50 members and guests, the guests being members of the Earl Glesfelter Auxiliary, Unit
No. 208 of Milan.

Community singing was enjoyed and there was keen competition in hay-mow and volume between the Milan
and Chelsea units.

Mrs. Ray Syster, President of the Milan Unit, acted as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. J. Biele of Chelsea.
The following are the officers for the new year:

President—Mrs. Paul Maroney.
1st Vice Pres.—Mrs. Wm. Kolb.
2nd Vice Pres.—Mrs. Elmer Mayar.
Secretary—Mrs. Chester Miller.
Treasurer—Mrs. Alex. Fisher.
Chaplain—Mrs. Harry Knickerbocker.

Sergeant at Arms—Mrs. O. Bahnmiller.
Historian—Mrs. Sidney Schenk.
Executive Board—Mrs. O. W. Ma-
ronney, Mrs. Faye Palmer, Mrs. B. W.
Haton.

Mrs. Paul Maroney presented Mrs.
Syster with a gift from the Chelsea Unit, expressing appreciation for the gracious manner with which she installed the new officers. Mrs. A. B.
Brink, a past president of Chelsea
Unit, presented a lovely gold-leaf President pin to Mrs. John O'Hara, residing president in appreciation of her untiring efforts in this past year. Mrs.
O'Hara then presented a lovely corsage to Mrs. Maroney, wishing her success in the new year.

A joint social gathering between the Milan Post of the Legion and Auxiliary and the Chelsea Post and Auxiliary has been planned by the Commanders of the two posts.

All members of the Chelsea Unit are invited to attend this affair, which will be held at Sully's hall at Pleasant Lake, south of Burger's Corner, on Tuesday evening, October 22, at 8:00.
A good dinner will be served, which will be followed by dancing.

Seek Meeting With Hwy. Commissioner

Roy Harris, village president, received a letter this week from State Representative Raymond M. Burr of Ann Arbor, stating that he is making an effort to have Murray D. Van Wagoner, state highway commissioner
come to Chelsea and meet with representatives of the community who are interested in the matter of keeping M-19 in the present location past the village.

Mr. Burr stated that this action was prompted by contact with Chelsea residents, and by a letter he received from John Lentz, State President of the Farmers' Union, who is interested from the standpoint of the damage which a new right-of-way would do to many farms in the community.

If such a meeting can be arranged due notice will be given and it is hoped a large number of local citizens will attend the gathering to discuss the matter with Mr. Van Wagoner.

TRANSIENT GETS 10 DAYS

Fred Lester, 68, a begging transient, entered the Penn drug store Saturday evening and asked for money. When this request was refused he asked for some pills and while Mr. Penn was getting the medicine Miss Guthrie, clerk in the store, noticed the man put something in his pocket and start for the door. Mr.
Penn called to him but he reached the sidewalk in front of the store before Mr. Penn could overtake him. Searching his pockets Mr. Penn found a box of face powder which he had taken, and at that time Marshal Wm. Atkinson appeared on the scene and arrested Mr. Lester. He was taken before Justice Howard Brooks and sentenced to serve 10 days in the county jail, where he was taken the same evening by Deputy Geo. Atkinson.

OBSERVE 30th ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett H. Dancer were guests of honor at a party given Saturday evening at their home in Lima township, the affair being arranged by their children in celebration of their 30th wedding anniversary. About 40 guests were present and an enjoyable evening was spent with games. An original poem by Mrs. Carrie Schweinfurth of Jackson and a reading by Mrs. J. Nelson Dancer contributed to the entertainment.
Refreshments were served and Mr.
and Mrs. Dancer were presented with gifts and flowers.

Notice to Graduates

All high school graduates who would be interested in attending a Freshman College at Chelsea high school, either during the regular school day or from 8:30 p. m. to 9:30
p. m. please communicate with Mr.
Bleeker at once, stating your preference of hours and subjects.

Watch for the Bull Ad.

Robert Honkeman has moved back to Cass City but we still have the same total.

The gladioli which Edward Gaunt bought us have been very pretty, they have lasted all week. Thank you, Edward.

This week, for the first time since April started we haven't a name in our dispatch for utility desks.
Hon. Eaton brought us a Buck Rogers map showing the planets and their distance from the sun. It has been used in connection with our geography study.

Philip Vogt brought us a discovery
map showing the eastern hemisphere.

Sixth Grade

(By Marian Elsie and June Crawford)

Marian Elsie had a caterpillar. It was a caterpillar and she brought it to school.

We are sorry that Roberta Lindsey moved away.

We have been watching Lillian Allahouse's parrot worms the past week.
We watched them crawl off their pupa-skin and change into a chrysalis. Miss Yager let us take her larva and watch it spin a cocoon.

Donald Wals brought a booklet of butterflies and moths.

Edwin Gaunt brought us a big bou-quet of gladioli.

We are looking forward to getting our weight and comparing it with last year's.

Edwin Gaunt brought his microscope set to school.

We are glad Norman Nishaus is back with us again.

Donald Knoll heard over the radio
that Ethiopia was all ready for war.
Mr. Bleeker brought a new first kit for the school. It is in the sixth grade room.

Margaret Blane was in a Kroger contest. She won a girl's bicycle. At a Jack Miller and Donald Knoll each won a pair of roller skates.

Mr. Bleeker bought us sixteen new reference books. Bessie Shinnahery bought a caterpillar.

Seventh Grade

(By Margaret Harper)

Barbara Carpenter has moved to Detroit. We hope she enjoys it there to make her home.

The rest of the third period
Chelsea show more of its fine art and defense as Linamen and blue opened giving holes in the Cheldefense. No score, however.

Midway in the fourth quarter started another touchdown galloping it to the Clinton thirteen. Bruner took it over from that point Clinton's star watched him in side four would-be tacklers. Bruner kicked the extra point. Chel-20, Clinton 0.

There the score stayed and game ended with Clinton posses-ing the ball on their own twenty-yard line.

OVER THE TOP

Over the top we come again, With mind and spirit, and with pen, To grapple with the hosts of strife, That they shall not control our life.

Over the top of doubtings drear, Of discontent, and morbid fear, Over the top of swelling words, Wrath, strife, seditions which disturb.

Over the top we come again, With mind and spirit, voice and pen, "Over the Top!" With clarion call, Peace and good will for each and all.

—Arthur Carlton.

OUR NEIGHBORS

GRASS LAKE—George L. Staffan, who has been associated with his father at Chelsea, is now on the staff of the E. J. Foster Company funeral directors. He is a graduate of the Chelsea high school and holds an embalmer's license and will assist Clarence and E. J. Foster with funerals in this community. —News.

TECUMSEH—Miss Carol Abbott, 19-year-old high school senior, who disappeared from her home here September 10, was located in Bowling Green, O., on Monday, and returned to Tecumseh that evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abbott. Mr. Abbott has relatives in Bowling Green. —Herald.

PINCKNEY—The county blackout road from Pinckney to Chubb's Corners was completed last week by the county road commission and is now open to traffic. It will be allowed to pack and settle for one year. Then it will be given a surface coat of oil and fine sand and rolled with a steam roller. This makes a fine road and it is a pleasure to drive on it. —Dispatch.

BROOKLYN—Three cottages at Oakhedge, east of Gentner & Lapham's store on the south shore of Wampora Lake were destroyed by fire last Thursday about 5:00 p. m. The loss is estimated at $5,000. —Exponent.

JACKSON—The decision to include the roadways through Sparks Foundation as a part of the municipal black-topping program is in every way justified. Moreover, to make the foundation roadways the first part of the surfacing program is to show excellent judgment. For two years the dust nuisance has detracted from the enjoyment of the thousands who each summer visited the cascades for the nightly illumination. That the dust was so intense as to deter many other thousands from visiting the park goes without saying. It was no idle threat that unless something was done immediately to curb this nuisance, the illumination no longer would be sponsored by the donors of the unique cascades. With the decision to start the blacktopping at the cascades this fall this danger is nicely eliminated. —Evening Star.

STOCKBRIDGE—The old Gaylord building, which was built some fifty years ago, located in the first block of North Clinton street, and formerly owned by Harry Beathem, has been undergoing remodeling for the past few days by O. N. Hile, who will make it into a modern storage for onions. It is estimated that when complete, the building will house about 85 cars of onions. The doors will be of the refrigerator type. It will contain two air cells, have a furnace room in the rear compartment, proof as is possible with a frame building, Mr. Hile has ten men rushing the work, and expects to be ready for onions within the next two weeks. In talking to Mr. Hile, we thought the readers of the Brief-Sun would be interested in the money end of this new and growing onion industry. We found that there was about 850 acres of onions in what we will call the Stockbridge area, and about 650 acres around our neighboring village of Munith. The above mentioned acres mean that about 450 cars of onions are grown in the Stockbridge vicinity and about 450 cars around Munith. —Brief-Sun.

"Obviously, the only sound policy that will meet these obligations is to continue to furnish the best possible telephone service at the lowest cost consistent with financial safety."

A Statement of Policy of the Bell System, made in 1927 by Walter S. Gifford, President American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The Unseen Factor

AMERICA's world supremacy in telephone service is an achievement of the Bell System. And no factor contributed more to the winning of that leadership than the unseen factor of policy.

The fundamental policy of the Bell System is to supply the best possible telephone service at the least possible cost; and the status of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company as a part of that System has a definite, practical meaning for the people of this State.

It means that the telephones and other equipment used in Michigan are of the finest modern make, produced for us—more economically than they can be bought elsewhere—by the Western Electric Company, manufacturing division of the Bell System.

It means that this Company gets the benefit of the work constantly going forward in the famous Bell Laboratories, where more than 4000 scientists devote their entire time to the improvement of the service.

It means that we receive assistance in financing; the use of thousands of important patents; advisory counsel on methods of operation. In short, it means that we can utilize the many benefits that have grown out of a half-century's progress in telephonic communication—a progress which has brought to the modern telephone, despite the vast and intricate physical equipment involved, such efficient simplicity that its use presents no difficulty even to a child.

That progress could not have been achieved under a dollar-chasing policy, but only under a policy honestly dedicated to genuine public service. And that policy, though invisible, is as real and as important as the poles and wires and cables which link the Michigan subscriber with thirty million telephones distributed throughout the world.

Editorial

Our library has been rearranged. All books in the library have been classified according to their subjects so that they may be found according to content and author. The students did the accessioning, pasted in the pockets, and also typed the cards. Books that were of no value were discarded. Miss Hass, who with Miss Georg has been supervising the work, gave a demonstration on the process of mending a book. All librarians attended this meeting. This work, completed last Monday, has been going on for two weeks. Miss Georg will be the director of the library this year.

Do You Know --

That Chelsea had almost as many rosters present at the Clinton game as Clinton had? We're getting pretty good, aren't we?

That the Seniors fared well at the last dance and have bright ideas for future dances? Watch for dates!

The library is once again in good condition? Let's all help to keep it that way.

Why there have been so many absentees from classes occasionally the past week? Can't we all work in the library?

The Seniors are having a dance the twenty-fifth of October?

Our seven Senior football boys aren't doing a bad job of taking the place of the ten Senior football boys of last year?

We have a popular staff of teachers this year? Keep your eyes open.

Why more people don't come to local football games? Come and support your team.

That the Seniors have a food stand at games? They wish you would drop by and buy (not by and-by).

Faculty Entertained

The Riker ranch was the scene of much merriment on Tuesday, Sept. 24 when the Child Study Club entertained their husbands and the faculty with a country style dinner. Dinner was served at seven o'clock with sixty present.

The main features of the evening were white elephant, cards, and the Baer-Louis fight for which many had brought seats. For further information about the prizes ask Miss Yager.

The members of the faculty wish to thank the Chelsea Child Study Club for the pleasant evening they had at the Riker ranch.

Elementary NewsFirst Grade

We are making a town of boxes. We have made pictures of our town. Now we are learning to write and spell our names.

Second Grade

Mrs. Hill, Thora's mother, visited our room recently and took a picture of the second grade. We are hoping the results are quite satisfactory.

James brought us a beautiful bouquet of gladioli. Thanks. They certainly add much to the beauty of our room.

Our attendance report for these first four marks is 97.5 per cent. We would like to keep it as high all year.

Ino Townsend entered our grade last Tuesday morning. Last year she attended Perry county public school in Ohio. We are glad to enroll her in our group.

Friday we finished our transportation books and took them home. We found many pictures to illustrate the different ways to travel.

John Wals brought us a splendid picture of Lindbergh's plane "We" and another picture of ship.

Arthur Paul's grandmother sent to our room a beautiful fern which adds a great deal of beauty. Thank you, Mrs. Paul.

Fifth Grade

The Girls' and Boys' Council held their election of officers last Tuesday, the 24th. The election, which was by ballot, resulted as follows:

President—Charles Downer
Vice President—James Collings.
Secretary—Doris Parsons.
Treasurer—Helen Grabowski.

The two captains for our Arithmetic game this week are Donna May McKune and James Collings—as the seniors stand today James' team is ahead.

Every seat in our room is full now. We have 31 pupils and one boy has to sit at the table.

We have a fine current event period every morning.

Our girls and boys are becoming interested in the worthwhile events in our newspapers.

We have another new boy, William McInerney from Detroit.

During music period on Thursday Robert Eaton favored us with several selections on his ukulele.

We enjoyed the lovely bouquet which Pearl Alexander brought us, and also the big armful of flowers from Mrs. Schenk.

We have some guppy in our room. They were given to us by Rev. von Rague of Manchester. They are very active tropical fish. Some are spotted and others are plain color. Philip Vogel said they look like shiners in the creek. They are very interesting to watch.

We have some gold fish in our aquarium too. They were very small but have been in Wilson's outdoor pool and have grown quite large. Doris Collins has drawn a good picture of our new gold fish.

Our flowers this week have been especially pretty. They were brought by Jane and Jean Chriswell, Mary Chriswell, Walter Oesterlo, Dick Foot and Dorothy Knickerbocker.

We were so sorry to hear that Eleanor Harper has been in an Ann Arbor hospital. We hope she will be well and strong again soon so she will be back with us.

Our new Arithmetic books are fun for us. We are working hard trying to improve our speed and accuracy and get good scores.

We have a new pupil. His name is Eugene Townsend.

Robert Benkleman has moved back to Cass City but we still have the same total.

The gladioli which Edward Gaunt brought us have been very pretty. They have lasted all week. Thank you, Edward.

This week, for the first time since school started we haven't a name in our dustpan for untidy desks.

Bob Eaton brought us a Buck Rogers map showing the planets and their distance from the sun. It has been used in connection with our geography study.

Philip Vogel brought us a discovery map showing the eastern hemisphere.

Sixth Grade

(By Marian Elisele and June Crawford)

Marian Elisele had a caterpillar. It spun a cocoon and she brought it to school.

We are sorry that Roberta Lindsey moved away.

We have been watching Lillian Allhouse's carrot worms the past week. We watched them crawl off their pupa-skin and change into a chrysalis. Miss Yager let us take her larva and watch it spin a cocoon.

Donald Walz brought a booklet of butterflies and moths.

Edwin Gaunt brought us a big bouquet of gladioli.

We are looking forward to getting our weight and comparing it with last year's.

Edwin Gaunt brought his microscope set to school.

We are glad Norman Niehaus is back with us again.

Donald Knoll heard over the radio that Ethiopia was all ready for war.

Mr. Bleeker bought a new first aid kit for the school. It is in the sixth grade room.

Margaret Slane was in a Kroger contest. She won a girl's bicycle. Also, Jack Miller and Donald Knoll each won a pair of roller skates.

Mr. Bleeker bought us sixteen new reference books. Beatie Shinnaberry brought a caterpillar.

Seventh Grade

(By Margaret Harper)

Barbara Carpenter has moved to Detroit. We hope she enjoys it there. We miss her very much.

We are working on an Indian project in History. We are making villages, museums, posters, carving soap, and whitening wooden figures.

We have finished posters for the seventh and eighth grade operetta. We hope you'll be there.

(By Mary Myrtle May)

We have started a series of talks about hobbies. Last week three of the students talked about their particular ones. George Knickerbocker told us about stamps; Betty Fletcher brought her collection of bugs and showed them to the class. Lois Palmer's shells were closely inspected by all. This week we are going to have some more different ones.

Chelsea Hi Defeats Clinton, Score 20-0

The league leading Chelsea footballers defeated Clinton at Clinton last Friday, 20-0. A line plunge by Olsen Hart provided the winning point.

For the second time this year Chelsea lost the toss and were forced to kick off. Capt. Brueckner kicked off to Clinton, who took the ball to their own thirty yard stripe. Then followed what proved to be a rather hectic period. Fumbles and penalties held Chelsea scoreless because fine gains by Brueckner, Phil Novess, and Fletcher made yardage. A Chelsea punt was blocked but five or six Clinton forwards couldn't fall on the pill, so Prinzing recovered heroically. The quarter ended with the ball Chelsea's on Clinton's forty-one yard line.

A march to the Clinton goal line opened the second quarter. A long pass from Brueckner to Hart took it to the seventeen yard line. Novess to the eleven, triple reverse to the five, and Hart plunging through the line for the touchdown. Brueckner kicked the extra point. Chelsea 7, Clinton 0.

Chelsea picked off to Clinton, who finally kicked out of bounds on the Chelsea thirty. A Chelsea fumble followed with Clinton recovering. Chelsea's ball on downs on their own twenty-eight. A fifteen yard penalty against Chelsea set the stage for our ace punter, Ozie Hart. Standing on his own goal line he kicked an eighty yard punt, sixty feet in the air. The half soon ended, then with the pill Clinton's on their forty-nine yard marker.

Oz Hart eluded Clinton tacklers when he received the kickoff but had to lateral it to Brueckner, who took it to midfield. After Clinton took over the ball on their twenty-five, they kicked out of bounds on their thirty. Another touchdown by Chelsea: Brueckner passed to Bycraft for nine yards and then Hart showed some well-open field running to score. The attempt for extra point failed. Chelsea 13, Clinton 0.

The rest of the third period saw Chelsea show more of its fine attack and defense as linemen and blockers opened gaping holes in the Clinton defense. No score, however.

Midway in the fourth quarter Hart started another touchdown gallop, taking it to the Clinton thirteen. Brueckner took it over from that point as Clinton's star watched him brush aside four would-be tacklers. Brueckner kicked the extra point. Chelsea 20, Clinton 0.

There the score stayed and the game ended with Clinton possessing the ball on their own twenty-three yard stripe.

This Chelsea team is a well balanced group with great blockers, pass combinations, and running plays. Come out to Vogel's field on M-92 and see them demonstrate their wares against Belleville next Friday, October 4.

Helpful Corner Notice

Watch this column each week for new recipes given personally to our reporters.

This week we start off by having a grand recipe for Brownies. We call them George's Brownies in honor of the originator, Miss Georg. Here they are—hope you like 'em!

George's Brownies
1/4 cup butter.
1/4 cup sugar.
2 squares chocolate.
1/2 cup milk.
1 teaspoonful vanilla.
1/2 cup flour.
1 cup nuts.
Melt butter and chocolate, add sugar, milk, flour, and flavoring. Mix well, then add nuts. Put in pan, oven at 275 degrees, raise oven 325 degrees, bake 35 minutes or until toothpick comes out moist.

Behind the Scenes

Let's take a look behind the scenes of the Operetta, which is going to be given in October. We see several of the faculty very busy doing their parts in helping the Operetta to be a great success.

There is Miss Boongaard hurrying here and there to see that the musical part is correct. Miss Fowlkes is kept busy with the dramatics and overseeing the costuming. We see the members of the Dramatics Club sewing the costumes, Miss Georg is in charge of the scenery in the Operetta, and finds it quite a task. And finally we see Miss Fauver with the aid of the seventh grade selling tickets and attending to the advertising. With the assistance of all these fine teachers and pupils the Operetta is sure to be a great success.

LAKEVIEW SCHOOL NEWS

The girls and boys of our school have learned all of "Wee! May the Keel Row," two verses and the chorus of "John Peel". We have also learned the "Bunuel" Schottische.

The seventh grade girls of our school had a test in arithmetic covering division of decimals. In hygiene they are studying alcohol and other harmful drugs.

The sixth grade in history is studying "The Dark Ages."

This week the fifth grade is studying Roman numerals in arithmetic.

Fourth grade this week in English are studying letter writing and are reading the poem called "The Pasture."

We had our picture taken at school by a man who comes around taking pictures. They cost 25c each.

Our one beginner and the first grade are having fun making apples, grapes and pears out of clay which our teacher brought us.

We are sorry Philip Atkinson fell from some willows and hurt his wrist and we hope it will soon be better.

MAGIC CHEF WILL COOK YOUR DINNER WHILE YOU ARE AWAY

No woman wants to be tied down at home with "cooking troubles." Indeed not, and why should she? Today's housewife can cook entire meals while she is miles away from home, and return to find them ready to serve.

Magic Chef is the answer. The Red Wheel Oven Regulator does the oven-watching. Thick insulation holds the heat in, keeps the kitchen cooler.

Magic Chef saves time and work in many other ways. Non-clog top burners light themselves, give sizzling hot fire or gentle heat. High burner tray catches boil-overs. Grid-pan broiler drains away fat, prevents smoking. Numerous other features.

And Magic Chef beauty of design and lustrous porcelain finish bring new style and charm into sleepy, drab kitchens.

Modernize your kitchen—begin with the gas range. See the many models of Magic Chef gas ranges in all sizes and prices on display in our showroom.

The leaves of Turkish tobacco are strung one by one like beads (see how it is done in the picture). After the leaves are strung they are packed in bales (see picture)—sometimes as many as 80,000 leaves to the bale.

We have on hand at all times for CHESTERFIELD cigarettes upwards of 350,000 bales of Turkish tobacco...

The pleasing aroma and flavor of Turkish tobacco is almost necessary if you want a good cigarette.

Turkish tobacco is more costly when you take into account that you have to pay 35c a pound duty, but we have to have it to blend with our mild ripe home-grown tobaccos.

It helps make Chesterfields milder, it helps give them better taste. Just try them.

Conservation Ass'n To Meet Thursday

The regular monthly meeting of the Washtenaw County Conservation Association will be held at the Chamber of Commerce building, Ann Arbor, on Thursday evening, October 10. According to officials of the association this meeting will be devoted principally to a discussion of the use of badges which members will wear during the hunting season this fall.

At the September meeting of the association it was decided to follow the so-called Williamson Plan of farmer-hunter cooperation, the large conspicuous badges to be worn by members being a guarantee to farmers on whose land they are permitted to hunt that they will leave their car in the yard while on the property, and exercise care in closing gates, crossing fences, etc.

Thousands Without Their Auto Titles

There are at the present time, and at nearly all times for that matter, some 4,000 car owners in Michigan who do not know where the titles to their cars are. Officials of the Department of State have the titles, but don't know where their owners are. The owners could not sell, trade in, or even give away their cars, without these titles, at least not in Michigan.

Operators' Licenses Show Big Increase

Evidence that automobile operators of the state realize the necessity that they carry operators' licenses, is given by figures in the office of the secretary of State. These show that operators' and chauffeurs' licenses issued for the first six months of 1935 totaled 628,582, as contrasted with a total of 279,510 for the same period of 1934. The number of drivers has not increased materially; the explanation lying in the fact that at times in the past there have been as many as 200,000 unlicensed operators on the highways.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish with deep gratitude to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement.

Frank Glecke, Clifford Glecke and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foster, Albert Forner and family, Arthur Forner and family, Leo Forner and family.

ONE LOOK AT THESE PHENOMENAL FOUR AND YOU'LL SAY "BUICK'S THE BUY!"

TWO years ago Buick deliberately leveled its sights on 1936. It coolly set its aim on bringing to market for that year a line of motor cars that would startle the world. It purposed to do that, not by freak or super-social design, not by skimping quality to make a price, but by sheer merit as expressed in automobile beauty, value, ability. It submits to you now the eminently satisfying results of that fruitful two years of concentrated endeavor. Here are four separate series of sensational new Buick cars - cars called phenomenal by experts in the trade who previewed them. Each is a feast to the eye schooled in mature modern styling, as you can see. Each has under the smooth flowing planes and surfaces of its smart exterior, the solid, tough, durable, beautifully engineered chassis that underwrites Buick dependability. And each offers you from the stepped-up power of its big thrifty valve-in-head eight-cylinder engine such safe, thrilling performance as you have never known. These cars are big cars every one - built to almost lavish dimensions of body room and head clearance - yet they handle with the fingertip lightness of small cars. They are literally breath-taking in power and speed and take-off, yet under their new tip-top hydraulics and easy-steering knee-action they are almost as manageable as a telephone. They are thew and sinewed by that quality which springs from Buick's third-of-a-century of manufacturing experience, advantaged by $14,500,000 worth of new tools, dies and factory re-equipment devised for these cars alone. These things are so true and so obvious that everywhere you will soon hear the motor-wise saying, "BUICK'S THE BUY!"

Ques.—Can you tell me something about Ethiopia? Where is it? Does Italy own it? If not, why are they about to go to war with them? What race of people are the Ethiopians?

Ans.—Ethiopia is one of the oldest empires in the world. It is located on the eastern side of northern Africa, but has no seaport. It has an area of 350,000 square miles, which is approximately seven times larger than the commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It has a population of 10,000,000. The Italian government owns Somaliland on its southeast boundary line, and this is the dispute between Italy and Ethiopia. They are of the black race, but not the savage type. They are civilized and educated. The country is ruled by an emperor.

Ques.—Is there any newspaper north of the Arctic Circle that belongs to the United States?

Ans.—No. The farthest north any newspaper is published is at Nome, Alaska, which is about 100 miles south of the Arctic Circle. The paper is an independent weekly and is called the Nugget.

Ques.—What was the time of Post and Gatty in their airplane flight around the world?

Ans.—Post and Gatty left the United States on July 1, 1931, in an airplane and completed their flight around the world in 8 days, 15 hours and 41 minutes. The actual flying time was 4 days, 10 hours and 8 minutes.

Ques.—What member of the United States Supreme Court has the record for holding the office the longest?

Ans.—Oliver Wendell Holmes was a member of the United States Supreme Court for 29 years when he retired at the age of 91 years.

Ques.—Can you tell me what sodium chloride is? And where it may be purchased?

Ans.—Sodium chloride is common salt, and may be purchased at any grocery store.

Ques.—Can you tell me when false teeth were first used?

Ans.—False teeth were first made and used in the year 500 B. C. However, they were very crudely made in that era of time.

Ques.—In a baseball game if a batter deliberately allows a pitched ball to hit him or any part of his uniform is he entitled to first base?

Ans.—It depends upon the circumstances. If he is so hit while standing in the batter's box then he is entitled to a pass to first base. If he is not in the batter's box when so hit, then it is "no pitch."

Ques.—To settle a dispute with you please answer what was the date and day of the week that Stonewall Jackson was killed? How did he get the name of "Stonewall," and what was his real name?

Ans.—"Stonewall" Jackson was shot on Saturday, May 2, 1863, mistakenly by one of his own men while reconnoitering after the Battle of Chancellorsville. He would have recovered, but a severe attack of pneumonia set in and he died eight days later, Sunday, May 10, 1863.

Ques.—What is meant by the word "litany," as in the case of litany of the saints, etc.?

Ans.—Litany is a solemn prayer or supplication addressed to God with a Ques.—What causes a machine gun to keep firing all the time if a person holds the trigger back? In other words what causes it to operate?

Ans.—There are six classes of machine guns that will fire from 400 to 800 rounds a minute while the trigger is being held back. They differ only in size and efficiency. The recoils of the force of powder gasses operates the hammer as long as there are cartridges to be fired.

Ques.—Is Latin the prevailing language of Italy?

Ans.—No. The Italian language is the prevailing language of Italy. When Rome was founded, about the sixth century B. C. Latin was adopted by the State, and continued to be spoken for about eleven hundred years until the fall of the Roman Empire. It then began to die slowly and was replaced by the present Italian language.

Ques.—When and where was President McKinley assassinated?

Ans.—President McKinley was shot on September 6, 1901, at the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo, N. Y. He was shot while reaching to shake hands with the assassin.

SOUTH LYON—Flames reaching skyward at the big barn fire on the Lemuel Clement farm near Leland cemetery (just off the Territorial road) at about 7:00 o'clock Tuesday night attracted persons from miles around who came and watched as the barn and contents burned to the ground. The barn, which was about 100 feet long, was an old land mark in that locality. The blaze is thought to have originated from either defective wiring or spontaneous combustion in an old straw. Loss is said to be heavy.—Herald.

THE STORY

CHAPTER I.—Kentucky Jones, veteran cowboy, attends the inquest in the town of Wagonwheel and the death of John Mason, banker and financial manager of the district, which is supposed to have been accidental. Jean, daughter of Campo Ragland, owner of the Bar Hook ranch, where Mason met his death, is present.

CHAPTER II.—The verdict is accidental death. Sheriff Hopper, apparently disinterested, invites Jones, knowing that he is a detective, to investigate the case. Jones has decided to do that "on his own hook," and refuses to work with the sheriff. Bob Elliott, owner of the "88" ranch, adjoining the Bar Hook, apparently saw Jean pass the bullet to Jones, and starts by the right hand, Jones knocks him out.

CHAPTER III.—Bob Elliott, with a shadow of legal right, drives his cattle on the Bar Hook range. Lee Bishop, who is a detective, is sent to investigate. He is unarmed, and a tragedy is therefore averted.

CHAPTER IV.—Reporting Elliott's turning his cattle onto the Bar Hook range, Bishop and Jones are astounded by Ragland's indifference. Bishop urges that they try to induce Jean to arouse her father, Jones, sensing that the girl is for some reason under a severe strain, offers sympathy. But her Elliott knows she purloined the bullet at the inquest, which Jones has just shot. He is a detective, and he is a detective. He is a detective. He is a detective.

CHAPTER V.—Sheriff Hopper, investigating Sanders' death, announces his knowledge that Mason also was murdered. He is a detective, and he is a detective. He is a detective. He is a detective.

CHAPTER VI.—Ragland continues his refusal to take action against Elliott. Jones is a detective, and he is a detective. He is a detective. He is a detective.

CHAPTER VII.—In a gun fight with riders of the "88" ranch Jim Humphreys, young Bar Hook cowboy, is killed. Jones is a detective, and he is a detective. He is a detective. He is a detective.

CHAPTER VIII.—Jones finds proof that Jean has concealed direct evidence connected with Mason's death, and his faith in her is shaken. He is a detective, and he is a detective. He is a detective. He is a detective.

CHAPTER IX.—The cowboy convinces Kentucky he can throw no light on the tragedy, and Jones allows him to leave. He is a detective, and he is a detective. He is a detective. He is a detective.

Then the sound of the walking hoofs suddenly became sharp and close at hand. Three hundred yards away Kentucky made out the movement of a shadow in shadows, and knew that the rider was sitting his horse in the mouth of the notch. Kentucky Jones freed his rifle's safety catch, carefully, without any click of metal.

For nearly five minutes the rider in the notch sat motionless, and Jones knew that this visitor was watching the signal fire, trying to make out figures near it, or other sign of what he builders of the fire intended.

The rider moved out of the mouth of the notch at last, turned uncertainly to the right, and began to skirt the foot of the canyon wall so slowly that for a little while Kentucky Jones was inclined to think that there was no rider there at all, but only an unbidden horse wandering about in search of its lunch. Slowing slow it circled the signal fire, as if trying to pass at the greatest possible distance. Then the pony passed before a drift of gullied snow which stood like a panel of white set into the gray rock; and against this Kentucky Jones saw the unmistakable silhouette of the figure in the saddle.

The rider turned now, cutting back to circle the signal fire more closely; and at last, as if suddenly impatient, turned directly toward the fire itself and rode to the edge of its circle of light. At a distance of no more than fifty feet, Kentucky Jones slid his rifle over the lip of the coulee and brought it to bear upon the mounted figure.

Then the rider turned; and the firelight showed him Jean Ragland's face. "Hello, Jean," he said.

Her horse jerked as if it would shy, but its rider sat steady, leaning down to peer into the shadows.

Jean called out sharply, "Is that you, Kentucky? Are you hurt?"

"They hit Lee Bishop, Jean," she said, "and he's lying on the ground, and he's bleeding. He's bleeding."

"Drop down and I'll take you to him," he said.

"Drop down and I'll take you to him," he said.

"Drop down and I'll take you to him," he said.

him." He held up his arms and she let herself drop into them, but freed herself immediately.

"Is he hit bad?"

He whispered, "He can hear us from here, I think. I don't know but what they've finished him, Jean. He's shot in the side of the back, and Lord knows where the bullet stopped. You shouldn't have come here—don't you know that?"

"Somebody had to come. Campo—my father is back from Waterman; but Harry Wilson quit when Campo wouldn't bring out more riders. You and Campo and I are all that's left. And now poor Lee—poor Lee."

He led her down the cut to where Bishop lay. The range boss opened his eyes and turned his face toward her. "Is that you, Jean?"

She dropped on her knees beside him. "Yes, Lee."

"Didn't know but what I might be hearing things. Where's Campo?"

"He's making a sweep of the upper Bench trail. Lee, you must be plumb frozen?"

"Pretty near," Bishop admitted. Jean slipped off her coat, and carefully wrapped Bishop's legs. Then she scrambled out of the cut, ran to her horse and, loosening the cinch, jerked her blanket from under the saddle. When this was placed to suit her, she made ready to go.

"It's sure a shot-to-pieces outfit you brought into Kentucky."

"That deal is off," he told her. "I own no share in the Bar Hook, nor any part of a share."

Jean looked at him but there was no expression in her face, nor in her voice as she answered, "So you're quitting, too."

"No, not quite yet," Kentucky told her grimly. "I'm just going ahead in a little different way than we figured I was going to; that's all."

Jean dropped beside Lee Bishop again, and for a long time studied the mark of his face, yellow to the freckle. He seemed asleep. Irresistible tears appeared on Jean's cheeks, glistening in the light of the fire. She bent over Lee Bishop and kissed him. "Good-by, Lee," she said softly. "I'll be back pretty quick."

Lee Bishop smiled faintly. "Take your time, kid."

Jean caught Kentucky's wrist and led him a little way down the cut. "Do you think there's any chance of moving him?"

"I don't know as we better try, Jean. When you get back to the house, phone to Waterman for Doc Hopper. Then pack a horse and come back. Get hold of a tent if there's any on the place, and all the bad-rolls that come handy, and grub, and bandages, and stuff. You know what we'll need."

Jean Ragland scaled the side of the cut, re-donned her saddle, and rode off at a sharp trot.

Lee Bishop said, "There goes a great girl, Kentucky. You're lucky, all right."

"She'll ride her horse square off the rim," Lee Bishop said, "if you told her to." He was talking in a queer and somehow childish tone of voice which Kentucky had never heard him use. "Listen, Kentucky. Get this—can you hear me all right?"

"You can hear me, Lee."

"You're worse off than you think, Kentucky. Campo believes you killed Mason."

Kentucky said slowly, "I don't know but what Campo has almighty good reason to know better than that, Lee."

Sherman Hurd, John S. Hurd, Sally Hurd, Samuel Seney, Samuel Loney, Harvey P. Seney, Franklin Cooper, Frances Elmina Chipman, Francis Elmira Cooper, Jacob Slemmer, Jacob Slemmer or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, Defendants.

At a session of said court held at the court house in the City of Ann Arbor on the 5th day of September, 1935.

Present: Honorable George W. Sample, Circuit Judge.

On reading the duly verified bill of complaint of said plaintiffs and the affidavit made and filed in this cause by John P. Keusch, one of their attorneys, it is ordered by this Court that the said defendants cause their appearance to be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order and that in default thereof said bill of complaint will be taken as confessed.

It is further ordered that within forty days, this order shall be published in the Chelsea Standard, a newspaper published and circulated in said county, and that such publication be continued therein at least once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that said plaintiffs cause a copy of this order to be personally served on the said defendants at least twenty days before the time above prescribed for their appearance.

Geo. W. Sample, Circuit Judge.
The lands and premises involved in the above cause are described as follows:

"The west half of the northeast quarter of section number nineteen and the south fifty acres of the east half of the northeast quarter of section nineteen; also the north twenty acres of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter and the south ten acres of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty, containing in all one hundred sixty acres, more or less, subject to a right of way twenty-four feet wide on the west side of the west half of the northwest quarter of section twenty and running from said northwest corner of said section south to the north line of the twenty acres, now or formerly owned by Henry C. Steadman at the south end of the west half of the northwest quarter of said section, to be used as a right of way and for no other purpose, and whenever said right of way shall not be needed by said Henry C. Steadman, his heirs or assigns to get to said twenty acres of land the same shall revert to Hannah M. Taylor, her heirs or assigns, all in town two south, range four east, in the Township of Lima, County of Washtenaw and State of Michigan."

And the above suit and cause involves title to the lands and premises above described and said suit is brought to quiet title thereto.

The Sahara Desert

Geologists are not of the opinion that the Sahara desert was a former sunken sea, and the precise reason that it became a desert has not been determined fully. Some parts of the Sahara are below sea level while the highest point is 8,800 feet. Many sections are 1,000 feet high.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION

Adoption
State of Michigan, The Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw.

At a session of said Court, held at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor in said County, on the eleventh day of September, A. D. 1935.

Present, Hon. Jay G. Pray, Judge of Probate.

In the Matter of the Estates of Anastasia Savas, Victoria Savas and Constantine Savas, Minors.
Lottie Hein, having filed in said Court her Declaration of Adoption, praying that an order be made by said Court finding that Lottie Hein is the sole parent having legal authority to make and execute said consent to adoption, for the reason that Lazaros Savas has in fact abandoned said children for a period of one year last preceding the date of filing of said Declaration, and praying that an order be made by said Court that said Lottie Hein does stand in the place of parents to said children, and that the name of said children be changed to Anne S. Hein, Victoria S. Hein and Gustave S. Hein, respectively.

It is Ordered, That the seventh day of October, A. D. 1935, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition;

It is Further Ordered, That public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Chelsea Standard, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

NEW OLDS ANNOUNCED

"I've seen the 1935 Oldsmobiles. I've heard about the 1936 plans. I've been told of the great production expansion. And so I want to say that I am confident that 1936 will again see all records for production and sales of Oldsmobiles broken."

This was the enthusiastic statement Wednesday of W. R. Daniels, Oldsmobile dealer in Chelsea, after returning here in one of the 1936 model Oldsmobiles from a dealer meeting at Lansing.

"The country knows Oldsmobile as the car that has everything," he said, "and the new 1936 cars have everything plus. There is a definite advance in style, in styling, keeping Oldsmobile far in front in graceful streamline design. There are new advancements in mechanical features, augmenting those which last year resulted in such a tremendous demand for Oldsmobile cars."

"The 1936 cars are big, new automobiles, beautifully designed, roomy and comfortable, and possessing all those features which have made Oldsmobile famous."

Grand and Petit Juries

A grand jury consists of more than 11 and less than 21 persons appointed by the court to investigate and hear evidence in complaints against persons in order to determine if such evidence is sufficient to justify indictment and criminal prosecution. A petit jury is the trial jury and consists of 12 persons or less who sit during a trial and pass on the evidence presented before the court.

Sugar Is Old

Sugar was used back as far as the early part of the seventh century. It did not reach Madeira until 1118 and the Canary Islands in 1503. Portuguese and Spaniards carried plants to the West Indies in 1510. It appeared in Barbados in 1611. Sugar was first cultivated in the United States in 1761. The plantation was situated near New Orleans.

The King's Salary

The annuities paid to the king of England and to members of the royal family are known as the Civil List, granted by parliament upon the recommendation of a select committee. According to Whitaker's Almanac the king's Civil List amounts to 470,000 pounds (about $2,350,000) and the annuities to other members of the royal family 115,000 pounds ($575,000). In the first of these are included 125,000 pounds for salaries of the royal household and 100,000 for expenses of household.

Pennsylvania's Immigrants

During the eighteenth century Pennsylvania was a refuge for European immigrants. No other colony had so many different races and religions—Dutch, Swedes, English, Germans, Welsh and Irish; Quakers, Presbyterians, Catholics, Lutherans, Methodists and Moravians. Many communities have a dialect showing traces of many of these languages, particularly Rheno-Franconian German, which is known as Pennsylvania Dutch.

Hawaii's Cup of Gold

Solantra guttata, or the cup of gold, the glorious flower of the Hawaiian Islands, is a naturalized southern California plant. It not only grows easily, but actually thrives on a certain amount of neglect. The cup of gold is a handsome, but not particularly showy, plant. It is a native of Hawaii, the Philippines, the Moluccas, the East Indies, and the Malay Peninsula.

Seven as Lucky Number

Seven, from its remarkable position in the Bible, was for centuries considered a lucky number and for ages it has exercised its spell over the mental operations of our ancestors. Some people apparently still find this number lucky, just as they find 13 unlucky, though it would be difficult to prove either. Superstitions with regard to the moon and stars are of ancient origin and are just as unrefutable.
