Supervisors To Fight Relocation of US-12

The county board of supervisors, at their closing session on Friday, approved a resolution urging the state highway department to abandon the proposed relocation of US-12 between Lima Center and Sylvan Center, which would run the new Ann Arbor - Jackson pavement south of its present route and would by-pass Chelsea at a greater distance. The resolution was signed by the members of the road commission and of the road committee of the board of supervisors. Members of the county road committee were directed to go in person to Lansing, to take the matter up with the state department.

A regular budget of $277,550 for the county was adopted with only slight alterations from the report of the finance committee.

An item of $200 for the work of the Soldiers' Relief Commission was raised to $1200 with the provision that no funds could be drawn without the certification of the supervisor of the district. The budget of the sealer of weights and measures was raised from $700 to $1200, putting that officer on a full-time salary basis, but leaving him to pay his own expenses. The salary of the payroll clerk was raised from $1100 to $1200 while that of the deputy county treasurer was lowered from $1500 to $1200 to conform with the salaries of other deputies. An item of $278.92 was added to the budget to pay premiums of 4-H clubs at the county fair, and the state will pay a like amount.

The county tax levy for the coming year will be $280,012.04, the county poor tax $19,328.25 and the county drain debt service $85,000.44.

The problem of raising welfare relief funds for the coming year was discussed at length by the board, but action on the matter was postponed until a later date, as the supervisors believed that neither the welfare committee nor the board as a whole was sufficiently well informed about the situation to take action at this time.

Supervisors Gilbert Madden of Dexter township and George Gaudy of Ypsilanti were added to the welfare committee. Supervisor John Thompson of Ypsilanti was elected to succeed George B. Seaver as superintendent of the poor.

Recommendation will be made to Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald for the appointment of Carl H. Sturberg of Ann Arbor to fill vacancy on the county welfare commission due to the recent resignation of Harold D. Smith.

Large Barn Destroyed By Fire On Tuesday

An 80 x 100 ft. barn on the farm of August Lesser in Dexter township burned to the ground about 8:30 on Tuesday afternoon, together with hay and grain stored therein, a silo and a straw stack. The cause of the fire is not known, as the men were hunting and first discovered the smoke coming from the roof. The local fire department responded to the call, but the fire had already gained too much headway for them to be of assistance.

The fire department was called late Tuesday afternoon to extinguish a blaze at the home of Mrs. William Scripser on West Middle St. The damage was slight.

Bar Examination Is Passed By Sidwell

George R. Sidwell of Chelsea, who in August completed a course in the law department of the University of Michigan, has passed his examination for admission to the State Bar, and has accepted a position on the staff of the Michigan Municipal League, a corporation organized for exchange of ideas between cities and villages of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Sidwell and family moved to Chelsea from Kenmore, N. Y. in 1933, and expect to continue their residence here.

DEER IN THIS VICINITY

Two deer, a buck and a doe, are living in the big swamp in Sharon and Freedom townships. Several residents of the vicinity have seen them and some of the farmers have reported seeing them in the fields grazing with their livestock. Louis Kuhl reports that the buck came within a few rods of his house and was very tame. He said it is about two years old, and would weigh about 100 lbs.

Safety Campaign In State Outlined By Publicity Director

Henry T. Ewald, president of the Campbell-Ewald Company, Detroit, appointed by Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald the past week as publicity director of the State of Michigan Safety Campaign, has issued the following statement:

Millions have been spent to mark, pave and light Michigan roads to make them safe.

Millions have been spent on traffic devices, men to man them, and on traffic enforcement.

The automobile industry has given its best brains to the job of making the motor car itself safe and has added annually to its product new and numerous features which have reduced the mechanical hazard near to zero.

The industry can make the car—but it cannot manufacture the man who goes behind the wheel. To those

LET'S HAVE ACTION!

Although no serious accidents have resulted from careless driving in Chelsea during the past few months, it might be well to take some precautionary measures before there are fatalities.

Past and reckless driving can be witnessed on our streets every day, and such driving on streets adjacent to the schools is especially dangerous. Cars are seen speeding past the school buildings while children are going to and from school, and at times it is difficult for them to get across the street.

South Main street is put into use as a race track altogether too often, as are some of the other main thoroughfares which have been improved.

Threats have been made at regular intervals during the past few years, but convictions for reckless driving have not been recorded. Everyone in the village could name a number of our citizens who are guilty of "smart" and reckless driving, and yet their actions are not curbed in the least.

Let's have action in a Safety Campaign for Chelsea—not just idle threats!

who are stunned by rising fatalities, it may seem a pity that drivers cannot be run off a conveyor line as cars are, and like the cars, give the same uniform performance. But they don't.

Car and highway have been made safe to nearly the maximum of current human ingenuity. The driver must now be made safe to use those facilities.

The rise of automobile accidents has been appalling and Michigan, acting through its State Government, has now set itself to the task of educating the irresponsible minority against whom the increasing death toll may be charged.

Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald has asked me to serve as publicity director of the State of Michigan Safety Campaign and I have accepted the appointment.

Farmers Vote 6 to 1 for Production Control

Farmers in 48 states voted on a farm referendum Saturday, endorsing by a vote of six to one the new corn hog production control program for the year 1936.

Incomplete returns show that 674,711 favored an adjustment program to 100,527 opposed. The vote in Michigan was 3,987 for and 1,090 against, while complete returns from Washtenaw county gave 221 for and 45 against continuing the corn-hog agreement. These include both farmers who signed contracts to control their production in return for government benefit payments and others who did not.

Normal announcement of the corn loan is expected soon, and indications are that it will be 45 cents per bushel. A purpose of the loans is to give producers working capital to tide them over until such a time as they can estimate the amount of corn they will need to feed their hogs.

Corn harvested this year will be placed under bond as security for the advances and cannot be sold until the loans have been repaid. While the aim of the policy will be to increase production, efforts will be made to avoid excessive overproduction in subsequent years.

Chelsea Is Member Of Forensic Ass'n

Chelsea high school has become a member of the Michigan High School Forensic Association, and will compete in the state-wide contests in debating, oratory, declamation, and extemporaneous speaking. Miss Josephine Gibson of the high school faculty will train the local contestants.

The Association is sponsored and directed by the Extension Division of the University of Michigan in co-operation with an Advisory Council representing the Michigan Conference of City Superintendents, the Michigan High School Principals' Association, and the Michigan Association of Teachers of Speech. State-wide interscholastic contests will be conducted in debating, oratory, declamation, and extemporaneous speaking.

The question for discussion in the debates of the State Association this year is the proposal that the nations of the World should establish government monopolies of all combat instruments of war. The current threat of a European war growing out of the Italian-Ethiopian conflict makes this subject extremely timely, for this nationalization of munitions is one of the methods proposed for discouraging and preventing wars.

Debates are conducted in two series: a preliminary one in which all member schools contest at least four times, and an elimination series that terminates in the State Championship debate. The schools with the highest percentage of victories in the preliminary debates are entered in the elimination, and each is awarded the University of Michigan Wall Plaques Trophy, through the co-operation of the Detroit Free Press.

The great majority of the schools will hold their first debates on November 22. Three other state-wide debates on December 13, January 10, and January 24, will complete the preliminaries. A number of sectional debating leagues have been organized again in various parts of the state for the purpose of conducting the preliminary series. The winners of these sectional league contests, together with the other ranking schools in the preliminary series, will take part in the first debate of the elimination series on February 21.

Bardens Are Injured In Automobile Crash

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barden of South Haven were injured Saturday while driving to Onkama, when their automobile was struck by another car coming from a side road. Mr. Barden tried to avoid the collision, but the other machine swung around, striking them head-on. His face hit the steering wheel, breaking several teeth, while Mrs. Barden was thrown against the windshield, cutting a gash above the eye, and sustaining several bruises. They were taken to a Grand Haven hospital, later returning to their home. Their machine was badly damaged. Mrs. Barden was formerly Katharine Fletcher of this place.

We have our citizen code up now. We found a picture of an eagle, Philip Atkinson enlarged it. Then he drew it with orange chalk on a large piece of blue paper. Then Kathleen Grayer and Ruth Embury cut slits in the eagle and put the wings on him. If any of the pupils fail to do the things they are supposed to do that wing must be taken off.

Ques.—What is the result of a play in baseball when the batter hits a sharp ball direct at the pitcher who boots the ball which hits the runner and then rolls foul?

Ans.—It is a fair-hit ball, and the pitcher is charged with an error, while the batter is allowed to take as many bases as he can without being put out. If the pitcher had not fielded the ball the batter would have been out provided he was on fair ground when so hit.

Ques.—May I ask you if a naturalized citizen of the United States can be legally deported in the event he commits a capital crime, or for any other reason?

Ans.—No, he cannot be legally deported after he becomes a citizen of this country. He is no longer subject to the United States immigration laws.

Ques.—Can persons who get married in South Carolina, where the State law forbids divorces, and just separate from each other, marry in another State without getting a divorce?

Ans.—No. When South Carolina does not grant divorces, they would have to get a divorce in another State by legally establishing a residence in that State.

Ques.—When a man deserts the United States army or navy does he lose his citizenship after he is caught and punished?

Ans.—A deserter in the army or navy does not lose his citizenship if he deserted in time of peace. He loses his citizenship, however, if he deserts at a time when the United States is at war.

Ques.—To settle an argument will you please answer this question: Is there any animal which lays eggs like a bird?

Ans.—The only specie of animals known to science that lays eggs like birds is the duck-billed platypus. This very curious animal is found only in Australia.

Ques.—Why is it that the late Admiral Dewey is not in the Hall of Fame?

Ans.—There is a law that a candidate for the Hall of Fame must have been dead at least 25 years before he is eligible. Admiral Dewey died in 1917, and therefore his name will not be eligible until 1942. There is no doubt his name will then be placed in the Hall of Fame.

Ques.—Will you kindly tell me in your question department where in the Bible this expression occurs: "Spare the rod and spoil the child"?

Ans.—This quotation does not occur anywhere in the Bible. The nearest thing to it occurs in the 13th chapter of Proverbs and reads as follows: "He that spareth the rod hateth his son."

Ques.—What is the origin of the expression "Red Letter Day"?

Ans.—Hundreds of years ago all prayerbooks, almanacs, church festi-ques.—When we say "It fits to a tee", what is meant by that expression, and why?

Ans.—It is most generally conceded that the expression is an allusion to the "T" square used by mechanics; because it is perfect. The origin of the expression, however, is not known for a certainty.

Ques.—Why is fish not considered meat?

Ans.—In the Book of Acts it says: "Abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled." This passage has been interpreted as referring only to the flesh, blood and marrow of such animals, birds, etc., that constitutes flesh meat. Fish, mollusks, crabs, turtles, frogs and other cold-blooded creatures were not considered as flesh meat.

New Ruling On Eggs Delayed Sixty Days

Egg grading regulations recently promulgated by Commissioner of Agriculture James F. Thomson, to become effective November 1, will not become effective for at least 60 days, the Commissioner has announced.

Meanwhile Thomson is working on a plan whereby he hopes to enforce the egg grading regulations without charging a service fee from those who deal in eggs, a plan recommended to the department by a committee representing producers, wholesalers, consumers and retailers of eggs. Thomson believes the present force in the department of agriculture can possibly enforce the regulations without the service fee charge.

The regulations call for grading, the weight and grade to be stamped on all packages sold to the consumer. The regulations, which were to become effective next month call for a $3 fee for all retailers handling eggs and a $25 fee for all wholesalers.

Eggs may still be sold under the new regulations by the dozen, Commissioner revealed in answer to hundreds of inquiries that are flooding his office, but retail packages of eggs must carry the net weight and grade in letters not less than one-half inch in height. The egg ruling issued some time ago by the Commissioner has been misinterpreted by many throughout the state.

"This is simply an advanced step in the marketing of Michigan farm products and will be a great benefit not only to the producer but to the consumer as well," Commissioner Thomson said. At the same time those who deal in eggs should benefit materially by the rulings, Thomson said.

"The average housewife would not consider buying bananas by the dozen today, knowing well that bananas vary in size to such an extent that purchasing by weight is the only fair method. The same should apply to eggs. No doubt most eggs purchased by the consumer will be in packages containing one dozen, but will be graded with the weight stamped on each package. This is only fair to all concerned."

Federal land banks find that they have fewer requests for mortgage loans, more prompt payment on outstanding loans, and a decrease in the number of loan applications which fall in the emergency classification. Albert S. Goss, land bank commissioner, reports that in six of the land bank districts 90 per cent of all due installments had been paid by September 1 and that the average for all 12 districts was 82 per cent of installments paid on the due dates.

Mr. Goss says that most of the applications now coming in for loans are made by farmers who wish to rid themselves of the lower interest rates. Emergency requests to the farm credit administration for loans made by farmers facing foreclosure dropped below 100 per week for the first time since the fall of 1933.

The reentrance of insurance companies and banks into the mortgage field is additional evidence of a belief in better times. Private credit agencies made loans of $306,000,000 on farm mortgages during the first six months of 1935 as compared with loans of $241,000,000 in the same period in 1934. This was a greater volume of loans than was handled by the Federal farm mortgage agencies.

The total amount of farm mortgages in the first half of 1935 in the United States was $401,000,000 less than the amount written the first six months of 1934. Life insurance companies showed a larger increase in farm mortgages written than any other loaning agency.

"GOOD MORNING"
I left home early on a summer morning to call on a neighbor who was ill. He lived about four blocks away. Before I had walked a block I passed a man and said "Good morning." No reply came. I walked on, wondering what was the matter with his gloomy mind. On the next block I passed a laboring man, and greeted him with a cheerful "Good morning." With a tenacious voice he grumbled, "I could not tell what, and passed on."

I walked two blocks, meeting no one. Just as I entered the yard of my sick neighbor, a little Robin redbreast perched on the highest branch of the tallest tree was peeling at the top of his voice his summer morning's song.

It thrilled my heart beyond my power to express.
The first verse of Psalm 65 was in my heart: "Praise waiteth for Thee, O God," and from the heart of that little American Robin came the inspiration to bless my sick neighbor and write this poem:

Some time today you'll pass somebody Who some time may prove a friend, If you prove initiative, Importuning as a friend, Meet his eye with cheerful luster With your own and say, Hello! Just as though you'd been his neighbor

For at least a year or so.
I like to meet folks fair and squarely, Everybody, as a friend— Could folks but soften up a little, We might all live to this end. Start out then tomorrow morning, Perchance I'll be the first you'll meet, Say "Good morning" and I'll greet you With the heart throbs that you greet.

MANY NEW SCOUTS ENROLLING
A large number of new members join Scout troops in the autumn months, a survey of growth in troop membership shows, according to a report issued recently by Scout Executive Walter MacPeck.

"Most troops will add from five to ten new members between now and the first of the year," Mr. MacPeck said.

"In some communities an additional troop should be organized to provide a Scouting opportunity for more boys. The organization of additional troops is limited largely by the availability of men who are ready to become Scoutmasters."

Chelsea Holds Twelve Passes To Win Game

Chelsea won her third football game this year from Roosevelt, 26-0, last Friday.

Chelsea won the toss-up and Hart kicked far down the field. Wilde returned the ball 8 yards then Youngs got off a good kick deep into Chelsea's territory. A few more punts were exchanged with very little yardage lost on either side.

In the last few minutes of the first quarter Chelsea chose to pass, which later proved very successful. Two successive passes brought Chelsea's first touchdown with Hart crossing the line. The punt after was wide so the score was 6-0 in Chelsea's favor. Some quick plays plowed and Novess received a pass from M. Brueckner, crossing the line for the second score. The punt after went on the opposite side of the bars as the first. No good. In the second quarter Prinzing recovered a fumble. M. Brueckner called for a pass to Hart which was completed by Hart. Hart again crossed the line for Chelsea's third touchdown. M. Brueckner made the point after. Chelsea 19-0.

No more touchdowns were made until late in the third quarter, when Bycraft, playing dead man, caught a pass on Roosevelt's 15 yard line. After dodging the safety man Bycraft

Fourth Grade
Have you seen our window boxes? Carlton Christwell made the boxes and Richard Poor and Carlton painted them. We put our Michigan holly in them that the Christwells and Eugene Aldrich brought. Bob Eaton brought some evergreen for them.
Esther Riemenschneider brought a cactus in a pretty swan.
William and Felix cleaned our aquarium and it looks very clear again.
The second grade pupils and Mrs. Dancer visited our room last Monday morning. Mrs. Steiner's room and ours sang the morning prayer, American and one verse of The Star Spangled Banner. We showed them our new pictures that Miss Ackerson had made and then we played the story of Rumpelstitskin which we had just finished in our Elson Book IV. We would be glad to have visitors at any time. Robert Eaton is our new host.
In our art class we are making spat work leaves. We use screen, a tooth brush, paint, art paper and leaves of different kinds. Dorothy Knickerbocker has a good collection.
Friday the advanced class in reading read a story in the Study Reader about Mr. Gay's Lion Farm in California. It is here that lions are trained for the movies.
Reynolds Walz and Eugene Aldrich put up orange and black curtains in our north windows. We hope we can have a Halloween party.
Our spelling is improving. Last week seventeen pupils had perfect scores and this week we have had perfect scores.
In music we are learning to sing a Halloween song by notes.
Mary Christwell, Joyce Foster, Ruth Cooper and Esther Riemenschneider called on Eleanor Harper and found her feeling much better and able to be out of bed.
We have made window decorations. We have a black cat guarding a jack-o'-lantern.
Phillip Vogel told us about his visit to the State Hospital. It covers 1200 acres. He told about the stock that he saw.
We have a dustpan on the board for untidy desks but are glad to report today that we have all been good housekeepers.

Fifth Grade
We are all interested in increasing our vocabulary so when we come across an interesting new word we post it on the board to be put in our "Spell Ahead" on Friday of each week. We will place them in our Word Basket which is in our Word Books when we have mastered them completely.
We thank Rowena Frymuth for the beautiful bouquet of American Holly for our piano.
Bernath McBride visited our grade Friday during our Current Event period and gave us many interesting news items. We enjoyed his visit very much, as well as his news items. He is attending school at Hopkins, but says he likes Chelsea school best.
Our Halloween party will be Thursday afternoon. The following chairmen of the committees have been chosen: They are: Entertainment, Donna McKune; refreshments, Carolyn Brettenwischer; decoration, James Collings.
Special reports on Monday are as follows: Straits of Gibraltar, Richard Schenk; Suez Canal, Luther Kusterer; Panama Canal, Robert Strieter.

Sixth Grade
Bernath McBride was here to see Miss Canfield Friday morning. Bernath and the family stayed in Chelsea until Monday.
Winfeld Schenk brought us six little mice in a can. We hope he will let us keep them for a few days. They can bite too.
Our war bulletin-board is almost full of pictures and readings of war. Miss Canfield went to Ann Arbor about a week ago and brought us a hanging vase for plants.
Part of the sixth grade had a very interesting lesson on birds from booklets that we received with pins from the Audubon Bird Club.
We have a bulletin board full of bird pictures and brightly colored leaves.
Leonard S. brought us a very interesting stuffed loon about which we had a lesson on Thursday afternoon.
We have received three new books a few weeks ago that we forgot to tell you about. The names of the books are: My Jungle Art Book, Instruction Tests in Arithmetic, and Practise Units in English.
Margaret Reed brought some Michigan Holly to school Monday morning. She got them from some of her friends that live in the country.
We have a new window monitor this week—Dick Kinsey, whose assistant is Leonard S.

DANCE

Friday night was a big night in the lives of many high school students. Why? The dance, of course! Paul Reed's orchestra played some pretty keen music.
We observed—
That there weren't so many stags. Jane and Oz.
Ruth Marie W. (she's home!) and Jim Birch.
Mr. Lyons, Miss Boogaard, Miss Gibson and Mr. Blecker representing the faculty.
Larry B. and M. J. Riker.
Muriel and Dud.
Ruth Ann and Huff.
Morrie L. and La Rue.
That the orchestra was unusually quiet. Did you?
Our old friend, Shirley C., receiving a grand ruff.
G. Goodell in his "store clothes."
Seads of new dresses.
Harley and Doris.
Jane B. and Harold (naturally).

Caesar Says

Englishman: You sure have clear skies here.
New Yorker: Yes, that's because we have skyscrapers.
Jean: I made these biscuits with my dainty hands.
Mr. Blecker: Who helped you lift them out of the oven?
Drunk (to Fritz in Sea Scout uniform): Shay, call me a cab, will ya?
Fritz: My good man, I am not the door man; I am a naval officer.
Drunk: Awright, then call me a boat.
Boner: Booth Tarkington was the assassin of Lincoln.

THANKS!

The Seniors wish to express their gratitude to football spectators for their patronizing the hot dog stand.

Safety Campaign In State Outlined By Publicity Director

pointment because I recognize the emergency calls for thoughtful, instant and vigorous action.

I believe education will help the situation. Ninety per cent of accidents in the United States are caused by 10 per cent of the drivers and I believe an honest appeal to them can prevent continuance of the damage they already have done.

I do not mean sporadic emotional appeals—slogans that lose their bite with the weeks, and large headlines which diminish in size as the days wear on and finally disappear entirely. I mean a constant flow of printed warnings, a year-round school to drop steadily reminders of the dangers of recklessness in the ears of the heedless, continued analysis of where risks lie, the adoption for our own use of preventive measures which have proved successful elsewhere in the country—in other words, a steady program of education which will allow no driver to forget that the casualty list is entirely of his making and in his hands.

There is no cure-all and no universal panacea. Solution would be easy if there was. Each community has its own peculiar problem, and each knows its own problem best. A campaign which would work in one locality might not work in another. Therefore, we will attempt no uniform plan. It is our hope to interest newspapers in every locality to assume leadership in this safety drive. They will form the backbone of the campaign. The State of Michigan Safety Campaign Committee will co-operate to its utmost with each.

A study is being made of effective safety methods tried in localities outside the state. Insurance, company and police statistics on traffic accidents are being assembled. Views of safety authorities, skilled in various phases of the problem, are being collected. This material will be made available to every newspaper in the state in the hope that some of it may bear on some peculiar section problem.

Graphic posters emphasizing the safety theme will be hung at strategic points in every well-traveled artery in the state. Radio broadcasting stations are donating time for safety speakers, and there probably will be a movie release showing the right and wrong ways of driving.

We can safely assume that no driver wants to maim or kill some other driver or pedestrian. Our purpose must be to fasten his mind intelligently on his driving, so that he will not maim or kill. We are convinced that carelessness can be overcome in many cases by a wider knowledge of what carelessness consists of.

Few persons know that it is not entirely safe to swing in front of another car until you can see the headlights of the car behind in your rear-view mirror. Few persons know that the night's moisture on the bottom of a pile of leaves may produce morning's surface as treacherous as smooth ice. Few know that 65 miles an hour means 100 feet a second, a speed which puts a viciously unjustifiable responsibility on brakes and human reflexes.

These are but small facts in the voluminous book of traffic information but wider knowledge of them and related facts will go a long way to lessen the perils to driver and pedestrian. It is our plan to make them more widely known.

The State of Michigan Safety Committee will be a clearing house for ideas. It is neither a law-making nor law-enforcing body. It cannot and will not use compulsion. But where it receives complaints, for instance, of badly-arranged signs on a highway, of lights that confuse the vision of the motorist, of some road that presents unmarked perils or other handicaps to safe driving, it will see to it that such complaints are filed with the State Highway Department, which has pledged its full co-operation, or with the proper authorities in the locality where the complained of condition exists.

This campaign is one of all the state to preserve human life within the state. No one reasonably can refuse to help in that preservation.

Mrs. Miller visited our school last Thursday. We enjoyed her visit very much.

We have learned two new games.

One is "Looly Loo" and the other "Seat Tag."
We have a new football and a baseball.
We have decorated our school with pumpkins, black cats, and stalk men. We are going to have a Halloween party Thursday.

The fifth grade has made an interesting project in the sandtable. There are nine Indians in a forest advancing toward a log cabin where they are going to capture a little girl. The first grade read the story in their Reading class.
