Supervisors Ask for Local Relief Agency

Believing that the handling of relief can be more economically administered by local authorities who are acquainted with local conditions and are more closely in touch with relief clients, a resolution was adopted by the Washtenaw county board of supervisors at their annual meeting, petitioning the legislature to abolish the state emergency relief organization and return direct relief administration to county officials.

Supervisor T. H. Bannmiller of Sylvan township, chairman of the committee, presented the resolution and it was signed by all five members of the committee. The state legislature does not convene until January, so provision must be made to continue under the present arrangement for several months at least.

Purchase of a truck and a set of heavy weights for the county sealers of weights and measures was recommended by the sealers' committee, but the board expressed opposition to the purchase of any truck and asked the committee to make some arrangement to use a truck belonging to the road commission.

The drain committee was asked to consider the matter of recalling $50,000 to $70,000 in outstanding drain bonds, bearing high rates of interest, and paying them off with funds now lying idle in the general fund and drawing no interest.

An appropriation of $1000 was asked by the Michigan Children's Aid Society to be used in caring for children in the county outside of Ann Arbor. In recent years the appropriation has been $500 annually.

Three county officials were re-elected by the board of supervisors. Miss Pearl M. Haist, county nurse for the past six years, was named to the position for another year. Fred C. Haist was re-elected for three years as full-time member of the county poor commission, and Clark E. Ferguson was re-elected as road commissioner, a position he has held for six years.

Operetta, "In Arcady", To Be Given Friday

Three weeks of rehearsals in preparation of the Senior-High Operetta, "In Arcady", will be climaxed by a single night public performance in the high school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock p. m. on October 28.

The diligent efforts of Miss Luelle Boongaard, musical director and accompanist, the unstinted assistance of Miss Josephine Gibson in the dramatic phases, and the unexampled cooperation of the cast and chorus have succeeded in producing a work of such conspicuous quality and finish as to insure a record-smashing audience.

Quotations of directors and leading characters bear out all claims for the excellence of an obviously outstanding production. Miss Boongaard says: "With such a splendid cooperation cast and producing staff, I am expecting an outstanding performance."

In Miss Gibson's opinion: "This show has snappy dialogue, and good chorus work with lots of youth, pep, and vitality. It's bound to go over big."

According to Cecilia Birch, the Senior-High operetta has "peppy music, good chorus, catchy lines, snappy dancing, talented and well trained principals, capable directors. Probable results: A darned good show."

Harley Prudden opines that "If hard work means anything this show ought to be a wow."

In addition to the Friday evening performance a Thursday afternoon matinee is to be presented exclusively for school children.

J. NELSON DANCER

James Nelson Dancer, life-long resident of this vicinity, died suddenly Monday evening, October 19, of heart trouble, at his home, 207 West Middle St.

He was born July 18, 1860 in Lima township, the son of Jacob A. and Phoebe (Coy) Dancer. He had resided in Chelsea for many years, had served on the village council and was at the present time a member of the Board of Education. He was a member of First Congregational church, and one of the board of trustees.

He was married December 6, 1887 and is survived by the widow, Lola; three brothers, Ernest R. and Herman J., of Chelsea, and Emmett H., of Lima; and two sisters, Mrs. Lillie Cooper and Mrs. Herman Pierce, both of Lima.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence and at 2:30 at the Congregational church. Rev. Charles F. Wolf of Ypsilanti will officiate and burial will take place in Vermont cemetery, Sylvan township.

The Amendments

Following is the third amendment to the constitution which will be submitted to the voters of Michigan at the general election on November 8:

(Proposal No. 8)
Amendment providing for exempting certain articles of food and prepared meals from the Sales Tax. Adding Section 22 to Article X of the State Constitution:

Sec. 22. No tax shall be levied upon the sale of the following articles of food: Bread, milk, dairy and cereal products, meat, lard, vegetable shortening, fish, eggs, sugar, salt, spices, vegetables, and fruit, whether such foods be sold in sealed containers or otherwise. Nor shall taxes be levied upon the sale of prepared meals.

This amendment, if adopted, will add a new section exempting food stuffs mentioned in the section from the state sales tax. Also provides there shall be no tax levied upon the sale of prepared meals.

Youthful Hunters Must be Accompanied

Lansing—All young persons of the ages 13, 14, 15 and 16 years who hold a small-game hunting license must be accompanied by a parent, legal or authorized guardian while hunting or trapping on lands not tenanted by their parents, declared Director P. J. Hoffmaster of the department of conservation this week.

When found in the woods with guns, and unaccompanied by an older person, juveniles between the ages of 12 and 17 usually plead ignorance of the law when interrogated by a conservation officer.

"Because of his age the boy may not always be held accountable for his violation, but his parent or legal guardian should be informed, and whether he is or not he is subject to prosecution for permitting his charge to hunt or trap in violation of the law."

Director Hoffmaster calls attention to the varying numbers of gun accidents involving boys between the ages of 12 and 17 years of age each year. "More youngsters who should not be allowed to have a gun are among those wounded or killed each fall and winter by shooting accidents," the Director said. "The presence of an older person might have prevented a mishap and saved the life of the boy."

When hunting or trapping on lands on which their parents are not regularly domiciled, juveniles of the ages of 13, 14, 15 and 16 years must have a small-game license issued on application and oath of the parent or legal guardian and must be accompanied by the parent, guardian or an adult representative authorized by them.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY SATURDAY

A Democratic rally will be held at Sylvan town hall Saturday, October 24, at 8 p. m. Chas. Mr. Downing is a farmer from the southeast part of Washtenaw county, and will give an interesting talk on farm problems.

ENTERTAINS CHAPTER

The Mayflower chapter of the Congregational church was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. W. Eaton on Thursday afternoon. A business meeting was held. Dainty refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Ed. Frymuth and Mrs. Kent Walworth.

It's amusing to ride with some people and hear the present-day automobilist criticize the construction of highways.

He wants highway engineers not only to build roads straight and wide, but mark them so that all problems confronting him in driving will be called to his attention. Then he proceeds to violate all the laws of decency and safety, and pays absolutely no attention to the markings on the highway.

If we want wide roads, sloping ditches, wide shoulders, and all the other safety measures on our highways, we ought to be sporting enough to use them correctly.

You and I can help by setting the right example.

Pretty Home Wedding Unites Young Couple

Palms and tall baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums banked the fireplace at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Kantielner, for the wedding at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon, uniting in marriage their daughter, Frances Marie, and Kenneth C. Runciman, son of Mrs. R. C. Brown of Stockbridge. Rev. Albert A. Schoen, pastor of St. Andrew's church, Dexter, read the marriage services in the presence of about 40 guests.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Paul F. Niehaus sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Oscar Lindauer, who also played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin.

Marine blue velvet fashioned the simple frock worn by Miss Kantielner, who was given in marriage by her father. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias. The couple were unattended.

A luncheon was served after the ceremony, the table being centered with autumn flowers, flanked with silver candelabra bearing lighted tapers. Mr. and Mrs. Runciman left on a motor trip. A wine red costume suit with wolf trimming and brown accessories was chosen for traveling by the bride.

Mrs. Runciman is a graduate of Chelsea high school, attended Albion college and completed a course at Michigan State college. She affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta and Phi Kappa Phi. For several months she has been associated with the Rural Re-settlement Administration, with headquarters at East Lansing.

Mr. Runciman, a graduate of Stockbridge high school and Michigan State College, is landscape gardener at Ypsilanti State hospital.

They will make their home at 709 South Adams St., Ypsilanti.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brown and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lantia, Miss Dell Jacox and Paul Ramsdall of Stockbridge, Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Zinke and Mr. and Mrs. Damon Lindus of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Miller of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zinke of Manchester, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McLaughlin and Miss Ettie Bowditch of Ann Arbor and Miss Mary Louise Hallman of East Lansing.

Among the pre-nuptial parties honoring Miss Kantielner was a linen shower given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Russell McLaughlin at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. R. Dancer. The afternoon was spent in completing recipe books for the bride-to-be. A large white cake surmounted by a miniature bride and groom centered the table, where lunch was served, with covers for 12, and individual cakes in pastel shades marked the places for the guests. Those from away were Miss Barbara Reeves of Stockbridge and Miss Pauline Hardy of Howell.

Tim Doolittle and His Gang Here Wednesday

Tim Doolittle and His Pine Center Gang will appear in Chelsea at a Halloween dance at the public school auditorium on Wednesday evening, October 28. The event is sponsored by the Kiwanis club and an evening of mirth provoking entertainment is promised by these popular WJR radio entertainers.

The program will consist of modern and old time dancing, as well as a special floor show and entertainment put on by the Gang that cut down the Old Pine Tree! The whole Gang will be in costume and some of the features, including Tim Doolittle, will be the "New Sweetheart" of Pine Center, who sings and tap dances; Bob Witt, the one man band; the world's smallest harmonica; Bill Hurley, the Rambling Cowboy dance caller and his mellow bass voice, and several other stellar features.

The high school gym is to be dolled up in real Halloween style, with pumpkins, goblins, cornstalks, witches and autumn leaves, black cats, and perhaps an owl or two.

Boy Scouts will serve light refreshments and soft drinks.

Dancing will be from 9 to 1. Tickets will be available for those who desire to dance, and for spectators. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this full evening of outstanding entertainment.

ENTERTAIN FARMERS' CLUB

The Western Washtenaw Farmers' club was entertained Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Broesamle. Following the dinner at 6:30 the meeting opened with a song by the club, after which two violin solos were rendered by Adolph Duerr, Jr. Forty-five members responded to roll call, which was answered by miscellaneous quotations. The speaker of the evening was E. P. Townsend, who gave an interesting talk on "What Foreign Trade Means to America."

THE GARLANDS OF AUTUMN

As I walked in my garden this morning
I was charmed by an October Sun,
Trying hard to glimmer its brightness,
Thru fog and thru mists which had come.

The days all so mild and so golden,
With harvests abundant in store,
And now with the joy of thanks-giving
The Giver of blessings adore.

The leaves and petals of Autumn,
Have rusted to yellow and brown,
The rose and hyacinth faded,
And lily stalk bent to the ground,
A sense of sadness and sorrow,
At times, may be wafted on air,
But look! there's harvest and fruitage,
Abundant for all—everywhere.

The flowers and fragrance of Spring-time
With foliage and beauty so rare,
The summer, its birds and perfumes
We've seen and inhaled everywhere,
The season's perfection and beauty,
Rejoicing our hearts as we sing,
But the climax of all is accomplished,
With the Garlands that God's Autumn brings.

Chelsea Defeated

Chelsea was defeated by last quarter drive of Roosevelt, 12-0. On Friday, Chelsea's footballers suffered their third defeat of the season at the hands of Roosevelt High. Both teams made several goal-line stands, and each team failed to score during the first three quarters. Wilde, Roosevelt quarterback, tallied both touchdowns for the Purple and White of Roosevelt.

Roosevelt's tallies were made by a wide end run, circling Chelsea's right end (Blecker) and cutting down the remainder of the defense which included Rowe and Grove, defensive backs. The other touchdown was made through the center of the line, which was weakened due to the absence of Capt. Frinzing, who was injured in a play previous to the touchdown play. A high-light of the game was Grove's return of the ball on the second kick-off by Roosevelt.

Our next game is to be played on Holmes field tomorrow. The game will begin at 3:30. Last year, Milan defeated Chelsea 47-6 and C. H. S. is looking forward to revenge by defeating the Milan team on Friday. A large group of Chelsea fans would be greatly appreciated by the team and by the coaches.

Chelsea has not lost any home games this year and hopes to keep that record clean! Turn out and give your welcome support!

ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY

Ladies and gentlemen — you are about to witness one of the greatest, most colossal productions ever staged in the Chelsea high school gym. Stop right that way folks, on Friday, Oct. 23 at 8 p. m. — You won't be disappointed, I assure you. Fun for young and old. Bring the ladies, gents, they'll howl!

Brother, come see those gorgeous, graceful dancing girls with their tricky routines.

You come, sister, and get a gander at such dashing Don Juans as Harry Blecker, Ted Brueckner, John Fletcher, and Harley Prudden.

Come one, come all. We may not have pink lemonade and a calliope, but we will have clowns and fireworks.

Off the Record

Judge: But why don't you want to marry Miss Butterfield?

Mr. Brown: Because I can't afford it. I have to put my Sidney through college.

Judge: And where is Sidney?

Mr. Brown: I think it's in Australia.

Mr. Blecker: Where does the energy go I use going upstairs?

Duane W.: You gather it up coming back down.

Excited little boy emerging from the wash room of a transport plane: Gee, mummy, you can see in here a lot better than you can out the window.

A flea and an elephant were walking side by side over a little bridge. Said the flea to the elephant after they had crossed: Boy we sure did shake that thing!

The first prize for meanness has been awarded to the man who put a tack on the electric chair at Sing Sing prison.

Mr. Johnson: Eldean, why are you late this morning?

Eldean: I squeezed too much tooth paste out of the tube and I had an awful time getting it back in again.

H. P.: My great-grandpa had an awful time keeping his scalp in shape.

H. B.: Troubled with dandruff?

H. P.: No, Indiana.

We hope you aren't getting gray hairs worrying over who the next president is going to be. Signed: Lemke & Landon.

Editorial

I have often wondered if we, as high school students, appreciate the opportunity of being able to have a high school education.

A high school education is the foundation of success. Without it, we are everlastingly handicapped. At the present time it is almost impossible to secure a position without at least this much education. It is your opportunity for a fair start towards success and why not make use of it? Everyone knows you must learn, if you ever wish to earn.

We all feel that we have plenty of time to pick up this knowledge, but do you realize there is only one chance to obtain this needed information and that is now in our high school?

We will find in later life that this knowledge will serve as a tool in business, citizenship, home life, and practically everything we do.

Let's not look at the task of getting this education as something we are compelled to do but something we want to do for ourselves and that we enjoy doing.

Thank You

The Senior Class wishes to thank the proprietors of the Chelsea Hardware for the use of the building while they were having their bake sale. They also appreciate the fact that so many people bought their baked goods, and last but not least thank the mothers who helped the bake sale to be a success.

COMING MAGAZINE SALE

The Seniors will be selling subscriptions to the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies Home Journal, and Country Gentleman in January. Why not wait and buy or renew your subscription to one or all of these magazines then?

Elementary News

First Grade
Janice Turnbull has left us. She went to Detroit. We are very sorry she is gone. We hope she will write to us.

The boys have nearly finished painting the library shelves. They have wheels like a bookcase.

We are reading in our new Fro-Primers. We enjoy reading in them.

Second Grade
Report cards were passed out Wednesday. We have been working hard and we were glad to show our parents how much we had done.

Those little folks have not been absent or tardy these six weeks: Frances Halo, Marcelin Hinderer, Patricia Hopper, Loren Munro, Richard Osborne, George Leigh Palmer, Robert Schneider, Robert Sidwell, Helen Vall, Leonard Woods.

George Leigh Palmer brought us a wonderful wasp's nest. It is a large one—made of thin paper-like leaves. It has a most perfect comb and it must have been the home of hundreds of wasps.

Last week being Columbus week we learned what a hard time he had in finding our country and why he called the people he found here "Indians."

We are learning about ants, their work and their homes. They are so interesting and some of the pictures we are drawing are good, too.

Third Grade
We gave a play Thursday afternoon. It was called "Cinderella." The first, second, fourth and fifth grades came to see it. Robert Faber, Edward, and Audrey were announcers.

June played Cinderella in the first two acts and Myra in the last two. Bobby Robbins and Marion played the prince. Cinderella's sisters were Anne and Thora. Jean played the mother and Barbara played the fairy godmother. The queen was played by Clara, the king by Robert Breitenwischer. Leroy and Fred were the king's messengers.

June, Audrey, Jane and Myra had a perfect spelling for last week and for this week too. The other people being perfect in spelling for last week were Barbara, Jean, Robert Faber, Clara, and Paul.

Phyllis, Thora, Doris, Bobby Robbins and Shirley Schenk were on our spelling honor roll Thursday.

Fourth Grade

During our art period we have been drawing owls.

Our Weekly Readers are helping us to be better readers. We like to watch our score improve.

We are checking our hands and fingernails again this week, also neatness of clothes. Jimmy G. has been checking the chart.

Sixth Grade
We didn't have any school Friday because the teachers had to go to the teachers' convention in Detroit.

We got our report cards Wednesday. We do not think we have been doing our best work. Helen was the only person who had A in music.

Mr. Johnson said that he was going to try and have more room in the study hall so the sixth and seventh grades can go to the assembly meetings.

In Geography we are making notebooks.

We enjoy our Weekly Readers very much. The fifth and sixth graders use the same ones because there aren't enough for the sixth graders to have separate readers.

Rosena brought a geranium and some vases also.

Luther and Bobby are the only ones in the room who have joined the band which is just started.

Miss Canfield brought a stuffed goose Thursday afternoon from Mr. Wilson.

We received our Audubon Society bird-leaflet and pins Thursday afternoon. We were very glad to get them.

Miss Boongaard is letting us have a team with the seventh grade, and we are going to see which side can sell the most tickets to the opera.

We have three new issues of the Elton Readers. They look different from the others.

Seventh Grade
We have started to give book reports on language class.

We have started percentage in Arithmetic.

Marian Elisele has been fixing up our flower pots with orange crepe paper.

Our Current Event board is looking much better. It is nearly covered with clipping of the happenings in United States.

Virginia Barr made us a new health chart. Thank you, Virginia.

The 7th grade started making their own history outline Monday.

MORENCI — Thieves boarded a truck, dumped out nearly $3000 worth of cigarettes, and escaped without the driver being aware of the robbery Friday night on the road between Tipton and Cambridge Junction. Harry Ellison of Toledo, the driver, left that city early Friday evening and arrived in Jackson about 10:30 p. m.

The theft was not discovered until after his arrival. Two holes had been cut in the tarpaulin cover and 60 cases of cigarettes dumped along the roadside. The truck was owned by the Heath Delivery Service of Lansing. A mechanic, sent out by the company, discovered 15 cases along the roadside between Tipton and Cambridge Junction, which had been overlooked by the thieves while gathering up their loot.—Observer.

Insist it move by railroad

When there's freight to go, when there's freight to come, insist it move by railroad.

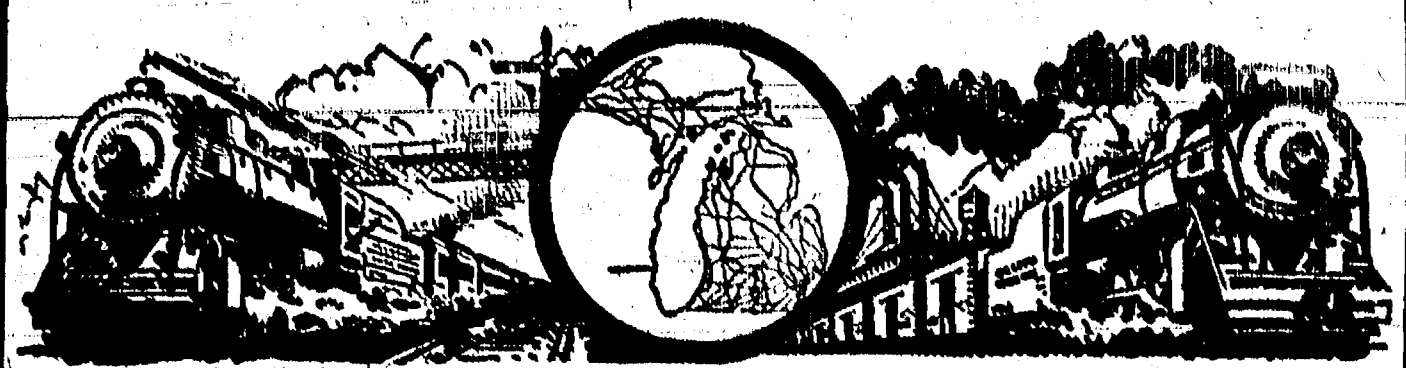

Freight via railroad means efficient handling, speedy movement, on-time arrival.

Freight via railroad means a protected shipper, a protected shipment, a protected delivery.

Freight via railroad means using the only transit agency whose average charge is less than a penny a ton a mile.

Make this a habit: Have all freight go—and come—by rail.

HOLD GROUP RALLY

Official members of the following churches met in the Chelsea Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday evening: Ann Arbor West Side, Chelsea, Dexter and North Lake, Grass Lake and Leoni, Manchester and Napoleon, Munnith Circuit, and Salem Grove.

A supper was served by the local ladies at 6:15, to about 70 guests. About 80 more arrived after supper to present their reports and share in the business of the evening. Dr. W. E. Harrison of Ann Arbor, president, Dr. Harold F. Carr, D. D. of Court St. church, Flint, was introduced at 8:15 and inspired his hearers with a stirring address, taking as his theme a quotation from a distinguished church historian: "That That Had Dreamed a Holy Dream, Told On."

Dr. Carr outlined the plan of the Preaching Mission which is being conducted by churches of all denominations throughout America this fall. He pleaded for the active, experimental, "working" type of Christianity such as produced results in other periods of church history. The methods of Fox, who founded the Society of Friends (Quakers) three hundred years ago are still being laughed at and ridiculed, but they are the only effective methods yet devised for the prevention of war. Heroic deeds alone will challenge this generation to adopt and practice the Christian way of Life.

Supt. Harrison closed the meeting with an exhortation and prayer.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—Recently I was criticized for making this remark: "I like to get up at the twilight of morning," saying that twilight was in the evening and not in the morning. I said there was. Who is correct?

Ans.—The sentence you quote is correct. There is twilight in the morning as well as in the evening. The evening twilight is more popular because it seems to be more romantic.

Ques.—Can you tell me if Ben Hur is mentioned anywhere in the Bible?

Ans.—Yes. In first Kings 4:7-8 Ben Hur is mentioned as one of Solomon's officers in Israel.

Ques.—We loosely speak of middle-aged people. Will you kindly tell me in your good paper just what time in life does middle age exist?

Ans.—In a strict sense the period of middle age is the twenty years between 40 and 60. Many people, however, appear to be old at 40 years of age, while others seem to be young at 60 years of age.

Ques.—I wish to ask you what the stars and stripes represent in the United States flag? An early answer will be appreciated.

Ans.—The stripes in the American flag (thirteen) represent the thirteen original States. The stars represent States subsequently admitted to the Union.

Ques.—What percentage of the electoral votes is necessary to elect a President of the United States? And what happens if he does not get that necessary percentage?

Ans.—For a candidate to be elected President of the United States he must receive a majority of all the electoral votes cast—not a plurality. If he fails to get a majority, the election of a President is thrown into the House of Representatives, where one of the candidates is elected.

Ques.—What is Gandhi's first name, and how old is he?

Ans.—The given name of Gandhi, the nationalist leader in India, is Mohandas Karamchand, and he is 69 years of age.

Ques.—What was the day of the week that the Battle of Princeton was fought in the American Revolutionary War?

Ans.—The Battle of Princeton of the Revolutionary War was fought on Sunday, June 3, 1777, with Washington commanding the American forces while Mayhew was in command of the British. It was an American victory.

Ques.—Are the Rumanians descendants of Turks or Arabs? What is the origin of their language?

Ans.—Most of the Rumanians are supposed to be the descendants of the race formed by the Roman colonists with the original inhabitants of Dacia. The Rumanian language is derived chiefly from the Latin, with some Slavonic, Hungarian and other elements.

Ques.—Why is the northern part of Egypt referred to as the "lower part" and the southern part referred to as the "upper part"? It seems to me that according to the directions of the compass it would be the reverse.

Ans.—True it sounds like a paradox. In most cases the "up" and "down" in a given locality is governed by the flow of river streams or brooks and creeks, and not by the points of the compass. The Nile river flows north in the vicinity of Egypt and therefore that direction is called "down" or "lower."

Ques.—When was the first race for the America's cup in the yacht racing between England and the United States? Where was it held and how did it originate?

Ans.—The Royal Yacht Club of England offered a cup to the winner of a yacht race around the Isle of Wight. The date of the race was set for Aug. 22, 1851. The course was sixty miles. The race was won by the schooner yacht "America," which was entered by the New York Yacht Club. The time was 10 hours and 34 minutes, defeating the British yacht "Aurora" by 20 minutes. The cup was brought to America, where it has been known as the "America's Cup," and has ever since been successfully defended.

Ques.—I was born Oct. 26, 1895. Will you please tell me what day of the week that was?

Ans.—Oct. 26, 1895, was on Saturday.

Types of Corn

The types of corn grown in garden culture are sweet corn and pop corn, all others being of agricultural value, known as field corn. The pistillate or female flowers are borne on a long stalk, known as "silk." The long styles, known as "silk," are borne at the top or terminus of the stalk, on the "tassel." The pollen falls from the tassel on the silk or flows on to the silk from other stalks and so effects fertilization, without which the cob would have no kernels. The color of the kernels ranges from white, through light and dark shades of yellow, red and purple to nearly black.

CELEBRATE 25th ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barth of Lima entertained sixty guests at dinner in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of their parents. Relatives and friends came from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Stockbridge, Waterloo and Chelsea, all but three of the original wedding guests being present. The house was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. The tables, centered with a wedding cake in white and silver, were lighted with white tapers in silver candelabra.

In the afternoon, much merriment was occasioned by a mock wedding in which Helen Schmidt of Ann Arbor was the bride and Fred Girard of Detroit the groom. Clark Earl of Ann Arbor served as bridesmaid and Carl Barth of Detroit as the best man, while Edward Schmidt and Walter Wilkinson of Ann Arbor took the parts of the bride's father and the clergyman respectively, with Anne Mainville of Detroit at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Barth received many lovely gifts, and the guests departed wishing them many more happy anniversaries.

BROOKLYN—The Brooklyn tomato puree factory of the Lake Odessa Canning Co. shut down operations for the season Saturday after quite a large pack of the product. The novel part of the factory was the bringing of a locomotive to the siding at the factory to furnish steam for the preserving process. The whistle of the locomotive sounded the hours of seven in the morning, noon and night closing. Detached from its unusual duty of steam transference for factory purposes the locomotive in charge of a regular crew instead of stationary firemen gave a few good-bye blasts on the whistle Saturday evening and steamed back to the Jackson roundhouse.—Exponent.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Navy Day will be observed throughout this nation on Tuesday, October 27, for the purpose of honoring the personnel and officers of our country's sea forces who stand ready to defend our land and institutions against invasion and aggression by unfriendly powers and influences, and to pay tribute to the memories of those who, since the establishment of our Navy by Act of Congress in 1775, have ever been ready in the national defense, many of them laying down their lives in the performance of their patriotic duties; and

Whereas, that day also will be nationally observed as the anniversary of the birth of "The Father of our Modern Navy," Theodore Roosevelt, who brought sharply to our people the need for an adequate defense by sea; and

Whereas, this nation always has been foremost in giving of its wise counsel for the preservation of world-wide peace, and today desires nothing more than the continued peace of the entire world; proposing to meddle not in the affairs of other nations and maintaining only its right to protect its own borders, its institutions and its people and their liberties;

Therefore, be it resolved that Roy Harris, President of the City of Chelsea, Michigan, by the virtue of the authority vested in me by law, do designate Tuesday, October 27th, as Navy Day, so to be observed and celebrated in this community by the appropriate display of the national colors, and by means of such programs and patriotic meetings and readings as may be arranged to commemorate the occasion.

Further, I strongly urge that in all of the churches of this community, proper and appropriate note be made of this anniversary on Sunday, October 25th, and that prayers be offered to Almighty God that our country may maintain its peace and dignity toward all other nations, at the same time continuing its splendid efforts and influence for peace among all the peoples of the world.

ROY HARRIS,
Chelsea Village President.

The Power of Persistence
There is genius and power in persistence. It conquers all opposers; it gives confidence; it annihilates obstacles. Everybody believes in the determined man. People know that when he undertakes a thing, the battle is half won, for his rule is to accomplish whatever he sets out to do. People know that it is useless to oppose a man who uses his stumbling blocks as stepping stones, who does not know when he is defeated; who never, because of criticism or opposition, shrinks from his task.
