Christmas Seals Go On Sale In County

To provide funds to carry on the war against tuberculosis in Washtenaw county in 1937, 2,000,000 of tuberculosis Christmas seals were sent on their mission of health last week by the Washtenaw County Tuberculosis Association. Residents throughout the county have received the seals, Kathryn Tuomy, general chairman of the committee in charge of the sale, stated this week.

"The question of how adequately the 1937 campaign against tuberculosis in Washtenaw county will be financed, has been placed with the people," Miss Tuomy said. "Each of the thousands of Christmas seals mailed is a potential weapon against disease that still kills more between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other. Whether these seals take part in the fight depends entirely upon the action of those to whom they have been mailed."

"Every death from tuberculosis is absolutely unnecessary today. Through the use of two of the modern weapons of medical science—the tuberculin test and the chest X-ray tuberculosis can now be discovered long before symptoms appear and the development of the disease can be checked.

Provision of these two modern weapons for hundreds of Washtenaw county people who otherwise would never have the benefit of them is just one of the many anti-tuberculosis projects that will be made possible through tuberculosis Christmas seal funds."

Miss Tuomy expressed the hope that the majority of Washtenaw county people would buy all of the seals sent to them so that the present vigorous campaign against the White Plague may be continued. She urged, too, that returns be made as soon as possible so as to avoid the added expense of sending a follow-up letter.

The Christmas Seal Sale is being sponsored in Chelsea by the Kiwanis club, under the direction of Paul F. Niehaus, a member of the board of the Washtenaw county branch of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

JAKE'S TEAM RUNS AWAY

Some of the residents of Chelsea were surprised by a rare sight on Friday afternoon when Jacob Hummel's team of horses ran away. Mr. Hummel had driven the team, hitched to his "Deluxe" wagon, to E. J. Bahnmiller's feed mill. The horses became frightened at a train and ran west on Jackson street. The team skillfully passed the parked cars near the Buick garage and were finally stopped in J. W. Van Riper's coal yard. Aside from the harness being broken in a couple of places and a slight scratch on the leg of one horse no damage resulted. According to Jake this is the first time the team ever ran away.

4-H CLUBS TO HAVE PARTY

Members of 4-H clubs in this area, with their leaders, parents and the Kiwanis club, will hold a get-together party at the public school auditorium on Saturday evening of this week. Games will be played, following which refreshments will be served. The Kiwanis club will furnish ice cream for the group and 4-H members will provide cakes. The Kiwanis club committee in charge of the 4-H show which was held on November 21 announced that the boys and girls who won prizes donated by merchants may get them by calling at the stores.

Christmas Trees Here Next Week

Announcement is made by village authorities that they will again purchase small Christmas trees to be placed in front of each business place for yuletide decoration. This method of decoration was used last year, with the result that the streets were more beautifully decorated than ever before.

About sixty trees will be purchased and it is hoped to have them here by the middle of next week. Special wires will be placed by the Chelsea Electric & Water Department so it will be convenient to hook up lights for the trees, and merchants are again asked to cooperate in the decorating scheme by furnishing lights for the trees.

Local Members Will Compete in 4-H Show

In all sections of Michigan's lower peninsula and even from Dickinson county above the straits more than two hundred of the state's future showmen are putting in final touches in feeding, grooming and training of calves and lambs for the annual 4-H five stock show to be held in Detroit on December 8, 9 and 10.

Entry lists filed with Nevels Pearson in the 4-H club department at Michigan State College indicate that from Washtenaw county the following intend to exhibit:

Elmer Bristle, Chelsea, 3 Shropshire lambs.

Carl Gross, Dexter, 3 Hampshire lambs.

Clara Henning, South Lyon, 3 Shropshire lambs.

Loren Koenigster, Chelsea, 3 Shropshire lambs.

James Henning, South Lyon, 3 Shropshire lambs.

Mary Lesser, Dexter, Angus steer.

Margaret Henning, South Lyon, Angus steer.

Robert Henning, South Lyon, Angus steer.

Out of 109 calves originally entered in the competition, a maximum of 70 will be admitted to the show ring the first day. Out of 246 lambs, the show judges will select winners from the top 175 animals. Steers and lambs are to be at the Detroit stock yards Tuesday morning, Dec. 8. Wednesday morning the boys and girls will participate in an educational trip through the yards. This same day the judges will make their selections. A banquet is scheduled for that evening.

One of the highlights of the show will be the auction Thursday, Dec. 10. All animals are to go on the auction block. In 1935 the top steer brought a return to Exhibitor Lawrence Boyd, Homer, of $1.30 a pound. Louise Porter, Lapeer, received $2.25 a pound for her grand champion lamb.

Judges include Sidney Smith, Lake Orion, Jack Ridley and Harry Hackmer, Detroit, for cattle; and Prof. George A. Brown, East Lansing, Bert Hammond and Charles Culver, Detroit, for sheep.

OBSERVE SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. C. Dreyer entertained a company of friends Saturday evening in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. Euchre was played, high honors going to Mrs. Ben Stapish and William Hafner, and congratulations to Mrs. C. S. Culver and Justin Wheeler. Lunch was served by Ambrose and Genevieve Dreyer, and the remainder of the evening was spent in visiting and singing songs of 25 years ago, with J. P. Cook at the piano. The guests departed in the early hours of the morning, wishing their host and hostess many more happy years together.

TALKS ON TUBERCULOSIS

Dr. John W. Trench of the University hospital tuberculosis unit addressed the Kiwanis club Monday evening, speaking on the fight against tuberculosis which has been successfully carried on by health units throughout the country. He stated that the death rate from this disease had diminished from 200 per 100,000 population in 1900 to about 75 per 100,000 annually at this time. He urged support of the Christmas Seal Sale, which provides funds for a continuation of the fight against tuberculosis.

New Portion of US-12 Opened to Traffic

A two-year building program by the state highway department brought the completion last week of a three-lane superhighway on US-12 between Ann Arbor and Jackson.

Traffic was opened on 15.9 miles of the highway east from Jackson to ring down the curtain on an improvement program that cost the state and Federal governments approximately $1,473,650.

Motorists can now drive over a 31-foot pavement all the way from Jackson to Ann Arbor with the exception of a 5-mile section in the vicinity of Chelsea. There, the highway department was unable to proceed with its building program because of right-of-way difficulties. Until these difficulties can be straightened out, the road at this point will be a two-lane bottleneck. State Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Wagoner has said.

The state highway department in 1935 built 9.2 miles of the new superhighway west from Ann Arbor. This year's program embraced 15.9 miles east from Jackson except for a mile to the Jackson city limits which will be constructed next year. Plans call for the construction of a 40-foot highway at that point with sheet asphalt surfacing on a concrete base.

SEWAGE PLANT PLANS FILED

Plans and specifications for Chelsea's new sewage treatment works have been prepared by Champe, Pinkbeiner & Associates, consulting engineers on the project, and are now on file in the office of Jas. Munro, village clerk. The plans and specifications have been approved by the WPA, and may be inspected by anyone interested in the project. The public letting of the construction contract will be held at Sylvan town hall on Friday, Dec. 11, at 12 o'clock noon. The general obligation bonds of the village which are being issued to the extent of the village's share of the construction cost, have been signed by the village president, clerk and treasurer, and were delivered to Stranahan, Harris & Co. in Detroit on Tuesday by Jas. Munro, clerk, in exchange for the funds covering the issue.

M. C. TRAIN STRIKES CAR

James Young of Lyndon had a very narrow escape Wednesday evening of last week while driving into town from his home. Arriving at the Michigan Central crossing, North Main St., he stopped to let a freight train go by, then drove across the tracks in front of the eastbound Wolverine No. 8. The train hit the back of his machine, tearing off the rear seat and floor boards, but Mr. Young held on to the steering wheel and miraculously escaped with a slight scratch on the hand. A chicken which he was bringing to the fair was thrown from the back seat and was unhurt.

Editorial

The reputation of your school is your definite responsibility. Its good name rests entirely with you. Its possible for you as students to build up a good name that you may well be proud of. On the other hand, if you choose to ignore your responsibility, you will quickly tear down what good name your school now has. The conduct of the students is one of the best ways of judging the particular school. Wherever you may be you are being watched and judged. If you do not act properly it is a bad reflection on your school.

The school itself may or may not be to blame, but critics and gossipers seem to think that it is the fault of the school if certain students violate decent rules of conduct.

The honor of your school rests in your hands. If you shirk your responsibility you must take the consequences.

Off the Record

A golf player once took six shots to get out of the sand trap—three mashie shots and three shots of rye.

After you've treated a Scotchman to a drink, he's sure to retreat.

Scotchman—I'm thinking of sending my son to a barber college.
Barber—To learn the business?
Scotchman—No, to get a hair cut.

Farmer's daughter—You can kiss me till the cows come home—Hey! Where are you going?
Farm hand—I'm going to shoot 'em.

If you read a woman like a book it's probably because she's been in circulation a long time.

1st man—My wife can be an angel when she wants to be.
2nd man—Yes, so can mine—any time now.

Mr. Hargreaves—Peggy, can you describe an olive?
Peggy B.—Yes, a green peg with a red tail light.

Girl Scout Assembly

That was three bells wasn't it? Hurrah! another general assembly, and this time it is being given by the Girl Scouts. Only the two older patrols took part because the other were having classes.

The assembly was lead by Mary Jane Riker and the girls first had their official opening which consisted of the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the Girl Scout oath and laws.

Next we had a song by the Junior Hi Sextet after which Miss Allen read Pres. Roosevelt's proclamation of Thanksgiving Day. This was followed by "A Glad Prayer", sung by the Senior Hi Quintet, a reading on the "First Thanksgiving" by Joan Walworth, two of the Scout's camp songs, and everyone joined in singing "Taps" to close the program.

Latin Club Initiation

What was the noise which disturbed the peace Tuesday night? Oh yes! it was just the second year Latin students initiating the first year students.

The guests were met at the door and blindfolded. After a slippery slide down the fire escape, and a few paddlings they were immediately ushered to Pluto and Proserpina. These two important personages shook hands with, and forgave them of their sins. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and the partaking of refreshments by about forty-five.

Christmas Sing

Volumes—nay libraries—have been penned on the Spirit of Christmas and its various and sundry manifestations; but out of the welter of learned debate we draw the simple conclusion that Christmas music, of all the expressions of the Spirit of Christmas, conveys the most clearly and lucidly the mirth and quiet reverence, the mirth and feeling of kinship with the entire human race. That is the yuletide.

Since music is the very foundation, the life of the Christmas celebration, it befits each and every one of the citizens of Chelsea to attend the Christmas Sing of Dec. 23 at 7:30 p. m. on which occasion the Junior and Senior High School Chorus will combine in offering a program of Christmas songs intended to inspire a more noble and fair holiday season in the Village of Chelsea. Miss Boongaard, musical director, is exerting the fullest of her ability that the Sing may prove to have such an influence. In keeping with this aim no admission will be charged. And may the lines of that grand and well-known hymn be true:

Oh come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant.

"Wallie"

He is short in stature and of medium build. He is very handsome. His deep blue eyes light up and sparkle when he smiles and his fine white teeth would glorify any tooth paste ad. His high white forehead is topped with a curly mass of the blackest hair—the kind one likes to rumple up. He loves nature and his hobbies all connect with the outdoors in some form. He is rather a quiet sort of person but good natured.

METHODIST HOME

On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Monroe went to visit her sister in Waterloo and remained until Saturday.

Miss McCalla went to her brother's home in Ypsilanti on Wednesday evening and returned on Sunday afternoon.

Nurse Koyle celebrated Thanksgiving by going to her son's home in Jackson, where she was met by friends from Flint, and they all had a very happy week-end.

On Thursday, Karl Krug and his sister, Miss Marguerite Krug, came from Detroit to see Mrs. Harriet Williamson and bring her a nice Thanksgiving box.

Miss Emma Leeman's Thanksgiving day callers were her cousin, Mrs. E. B. Kellogg of Ypsilanti, and her nephew, Fletcher Erickson of Detroit. Mrs. Welles was made happy on Thursday by a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Fay Wolfe of Albion.

Our Thanksgiving dinner was in every respect all that could be desired or even hoped for, and we were sincerely sorry for those members of the family who spent the day elsewhere. The turkey was a worthy example for all turkeys in its tender and delicious meat, and the rest of the dinner kept to the same high standard. Mrs. Bennett's guests were her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Zook, and her son Francis, all from Detroit. Supt. and Mrs. Leeson had their son Louis from Flint with them. Mrs. Danson and Miss Casterton rejoiced over the presence at the dinner table of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Casterton of Detroit.

Thursday evening the Leeson and the Bennett families, with their "owns and in-laws", had a union family supper at the Leeson home, which was highly satisfactory. It is reported that Supt. Leeson expressed himself as pleased that he returned from New York on Wednesday.

Our Dr. Clark is not forgotten in his illness. His Sunday callers were Mrs. Myra Allman and daughter Alice and their escort, from Maumee, Ohio. On Tuesday afternoon he was visited by his nephew, A. F. Files, and his grand nephew, Clark Allman, also from Maumee.

Mrs. Filer was remembered by her relatives on Sunday. Her visitors were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Green; her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Green; and her niece, Mrs. Vivian Durham, all from Detroit.

On Sunday afternoon about thirty members of the Berkeley Epworth League, accompanied by their pastor, Rev. E. E. Robinson, came to the home and put on an excellent program with many well known hymns. They brought bountiful supplies, but they took Mr. Carlton away with them.

Miss Switzer's Sunday callers were her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Vasher; and two former neighbors, Mrs. Elder and her son Charles, all from Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Robby's Sunday callers were Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Grace Westcott of North Adams, and Miss Estelle Wright from Ypsilanti.

On Monday, Nov. 30, Mrs. Robby and Miss Beering combined and had a perfectly good birthday party, with tables set for two. There was a generous supply of birthday gifts, and a call from Dr. Munby.

Mrs. Chapin was visited Monday evening by her son and daughter-in-law from Ypsilanti.

Mrs. John Wahl and son Dillman were in Jackson on Tuesday, visiting Mrs. Louise Chase, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Harry Way of Jackson visited Mrs. Florence Moeckel on Sunday afternoon and spent the evening at the A. W. Seigrist home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moeckel visited Miss Justina Lutz on Sunday afternoon, who is a patient at the Mercy hospital, Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Katz entertained their children and their families at a turkey dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moeckel visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lutz, on Wednesday.

A ROMANCE

Our hero was the common sort. When all was said and done, he worked his head off daily, and was out to get the—Mon.

The reason for his diligence was commonplace 'twas true—He tried to swell her salary so 't would suffice for—Tue.

And maybe that's the reason why. One day he lost his head, And falling on his knees he cried, Oh maiden will you—Wed?

He may have thought this sudden, But it seemed not so to her, She lisped a quick acceptance And said forcefully—Yes—Thur.

But when they went to keeping house He feared that he would die, For oh! that modern maiden could neither cook nor—Fri.

She could not run a bungalow, Or even run a flat, So on many sad occasions In a restaurant they—Sat.
