Appointments Made By Village President

At the regular meeting of the common council held Monday evening President Roy Harris made the appointments for the coming year, which are as follows:

President Pro Tem—J. E. Weber.
Finance Committee—J. E. Weber, chairman; F. W. Merkel, Wilbur Hinderer.

Street Committee—Conrad Lehman, chairman; Ernest Adam, Wilbur Hinderer.

Sidewalk Committee—Ernest Adam, chairman; F. W. Merkel, Charles Williams.

E. L. & W. W. Commission—Entire Council.

Health Officer—Dr. A. A. Palmer.

Marshal—Wm. Atkinson.

Deputy Marshal—Otto Schanz.

Fire Chief—Howard Brooks.

Deputy Clerk—Georgia Munro.

It was voted at the Monday evening meeting to omit construction of the chlorine reaction chamber at the sewage disposal plant, thereby reducing the contract price $1068. This saving was deemed advisable because of difficulty experienced in the construction work when a flowing well was encountered, which makes necessary the installation of sheet steel piling around the wet and dry wells if the foundation of the plant is to be permanent. This work will cost approximately $1400, and the funds for the village share of the cost were voted Monday evening. The omission of the chlorine reaction chamber and addition of the piling was recommended by the engineers and is awaiting approval of the PWA.

About forty men are now employed on the construction work at the plant and it is hoped another shift can be added to speed the work. The foundation and walls for sludge beds have been poured and the digestion tank has been started.

Petitions were presented to the council asking for curb and gutter on Jefferson and Pierce streets. Approval was voted by the council and the work will be started as soon as possible.

Plans for street surfacing are being discussed by the village officials and work will be started after the spring rainy season is past. All streets in the village which have not been surfaced will be given a surface treatment and some will be black-topped with oil aggregate.

Theo. H. Bahnmler Died on Wednesday

Theodore H. Bahnmler, lifelong resident of this vicinity, and supervisor of Sylvan township since 1930, passed away at 3:30 Wednesday morning, May 5, 1937, at his home on East Summit St. He had been in failing health for several months.

Mr. Bahnmler was born in Chelsea, July 19, 1888, the son of Veit and Catherine (Wellhoff) Bahnmler, and was married September 7, 1910 to Lula Hayes.

He had held the office of Sylvan township supervisor for six successive terms, being re-elected again in April, and previously served as township treasurer. He was chairman of the County Fair Committee, chairman of the Sheriff's Committee, and a member of the Printing Committee of the County Board of Supervisors.

He was a member of Methodist Episcopal church, and of the official board of the church, a member of the Western Washtenaw Farmers' club, the K. of P. and Odd Fellows.

He is survived by the widow; a daughter, Mrs. Elwin Hulce, and a grandson, Larry G. Hulce of Chelsea; three brothers, Oscar of Manchester, Albert of Sharon, and Emanuel of Chelsea; and three sisters, Mrs. Julia Marshall of Manchester, Mrs. Margaret Weinberg of Chelsea, and Mrs. Augusta Harris of Dearborn.

Funeral services will be held at the M. E. church on Friday at 2 o'clock p. m. Rev. F. D. Mumby will officiate and burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery. The body will lie in state from 12:30 to 1:00 o'clock at the church.

PAINTING WATER TOWER

A crew of workmen from an Indiana contracting concern have been engaged the past week in painting the village water tower, which will include two coats of aluminum paint. The words "Chelsea" on the tank will be painted black and will be larger than before. In order to paint the tank it was necessary to drain the water from it and some difficulty was experienced in changing the water supply directly to the mains, but the water service was interrupted for only a short time.

HONORED AT CONVOCATION

At the 14th annual Honors convocation program of the U. of M. held at Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor on Friday, Frederick P. Strieter of this place and a freshman in the College of Engineering, received honors.

Forestry

Previous articles in this series have dealt with general information, landscape, architectural, engineering and wildlife development work and a discussion of the geology of the area. This article will outline the forestry work and other related subjects.

Forestry practices may be divided into two general phases—that which has the production of wood as the primary aim and that which is given to the production of trees and other vegetative growth as necessary factors in our environment. These are so closely related that usually both phases are applied with little or no distinction between them. The forestry work of the Waterloo Project is principally concerned with the second phase. In other words, we are endeavoring to return this region to its natural and native cover of trees and allied vegetation.

A great proportion of this work on the Waterloo Project is concentrated on the planting of trees, shrubs, and vines as a process of reforestation. Before the planting is begun cognizance must be taken of two fundamental guiding principles, that we have adopted; first, that only native species of plant materials may be used; and second, that the natural associations and successions of plants must be observed. Both of these principles are necessary if we are to fulfill our objective—to return the area to its natural native condition.

In the practice of forestry, trees are grouped into types of forest cover according to their natural associations and classified or named after the predominant species. Thus, the wood lots of the Waterloo Project are of three distinctive types: the White Oak, Black Oak, and Red Oak types in which these species are the most numerous. Associated with these, but in a lesser quantity, are the jack, scarlet and bur oaks, shagbark and hickories, white and green ash, sugar maple, and occasionally a few black cherry, butternut and large toothed aspen. This type is found usually on the loamy, well-drained soils or on the gravelly moraine slopes.

On those low sites of moist to wet muck or shallow peat soils, in swamps, gullies, and small depressions of slow drainage, and occasionally covering extensive swamps, the timber growth is the Black Ash, American Elm, and Red Maple type. Other associated species found here are yellow birch, tamarack, northern white cedar, basswood, bur oak, swamp white oak, sycamore and cottonwood. In those swamps where tamarack is found in pure stands or with greatly subordinated species including red maple, black ash and aspen, the association is referred to as the Tamarack type.

Ordinarily the term "reforestation" refers to a form of block or plantation planting in which trees, usually conifers, are spaced at regular intervals of six feet or eight feet or ten feet in straight rows six feet or eight feet apart.

ENTERTAIN FOR PAST PRES.

In honor of their retiring president, Mrs. A. A. Palmer, members of the Child Study Club entertained the State officers of the Child Study Club Association at a beautifully appointed one o'clock luncheon on Saturday at the home of Mrs. P. G. Schaible. Mrs. Palmer also is vice president of the state association and is chairman of the state program committee.

State officers who were unable to attend sent regrets and congratulatory letters which were read at the luncheon. Mrs. Lewis Hopper of Grosse Ile, state president, presented some splendid thoughts and ideas to her audience for their consideration. Mrs. H. E. Macomber, corresponding secretary, of Wyandotte, also spoke, touching on the splendid work Mrs. Palmer has done with the state program material.

Mrs. W. R. Daniels had charge of the program and introduced Miss Lucille Boonsgaard, who presented the High School Girls' Quintet. They sang "The Holy Hour," "Indian Dawn" and "The Sweet Mystery of Life" in their usual lovely manner.

Mrs. Palmer thanked the club for their support and loyalty these last two years and past presidents Mrs. S. W. Schenk and Mrs. Schaible made brief remarks. The new president, Mrs. E. W. Eaton, was also introduced.

For the closing number on the program, Mrs. Bruce Plankell rendered a piano solo, "Song of April," by Lock.

The committee in charge of the luncheon were Mrs. L. G. Palmer, Mrs. C. D. Platt, Mrs. M. R. Longworth and Mrs. Schaible.

NEWLY-WEDS HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winans were honor guests at a family party given Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Goodell. Spring flowers decorated the tables which were lighted with pink tapers. Lunch was served to 20 guests, including Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Peck of Detroit.

Ladies' Aid Observes Fiftieth Anniversary

On May 11, 1887, the women of St. Paul's church assembled at the home of their pastor, Rev. G. Roberts, for the purpose of organizing a "Framen Verein," or Woman's Society, which was perfected with 11 charter members. This society, since known as the "Ladies' Aid," was honored with a special service on Sunday morning, in celebration of their 50th anniversary. Rev. Albert A. Schoen of Dexter, a former pastor, preached the sermon on "Christian Service," and the choir rendered special music.

A song "Jesu Geh Voran" was sung by 40 members of the Ladies' Aid, who attended in a body. A history of the organization was read by Mrs. John Oesterle and by request, Paul F. Niehaus rendered a solo, "This is My Task." The service was followed by communion.

Mrs. George Mast was the first president of the Ladies' Aid and the other officers were Mrs. Michael Lehman and Mrs. George Wackenhut. Mrs. Lehman, the only living charter member, transferred her membership to Ann Arbor when she moved to that city several years ago.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wackenhut, who joined the first year of the society's existence, has retained her membership through the entire 50 years, although at times she resided elsewhere.

Past Presidents of the society in their order of service were Mesdames George Mast, Jacob Schumacher, Israel Vogel, Fred Girbach, Gottlieb Ahnemiller, William Rheinfrank, Matthew Alber, George Wackenhut, Elizabeth Wackenhut, O. L. Hoffman, Catherine Niehaus, Theodore Wackenhut, George Wagner, E. J. Feldkamp, Jacob Klein, Clara Hutzler, Charles Lambrecht, Adam Eppler, Lewis Eppler, W. H. Kusterer, and J. N. Strieter.

At one time the membership totaled 99, but at present there are 64 members.

During its fifty years' existence, the society has raised $20,852.00, nearly all of which has been used for building and remodeling the church, parsonage and school house, paying toward the pastor's salary and for contributions to home and foreign missions.

Present officers of the society are: President, Mrs. John Oesterle; vice-president, Mrs. Alvin Vail; secretary, Mrs. Philip Seitz, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. Lester Winans.

Band and Orchestra Concert Next Tuesday

Climaxing the season's efforts in organization and equipment the Chelsea High School Band and Orchestra will combine in presenting their spring concert at the high school auditorium next Tuesday at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

The orchestra, assisted by the brass quartet, will play the first part of the program. Following a brief intermission the band will finish the program with a varied group of numbers.

Interesting specialties, solos, etc. have been arranged to add zest to a thoroughly worthwhile program which ranges in type from the beloved "Unfinished Symphony" of Franz Schubert to the popular "Sylvia" by Oley Speaks, and in depth from the magnificent "Come Sweet Death" by Bach to the peppy "Military Escort" march.

A nominal admission fee will be charged, the proceeds to assist in paying for uniforms and other equipment needed by the musical organizations.

SEA SCOUTS ENJOY TRIP

The ship was at the disposal of the Chelsea boys and all activities were fully carried out according to regulations, such as watch duty, bell time, galley duty, piping the skipper on board, raising the flag to mast, raising of skipper's flag to mast, leave of absence to go ashore, etc. Dr. A. L. Brock, as skipper of the Chelsea ship, with P. C. Maroney, 1st mate, and Lavern Conk, 2nd mate, were present aboard ship with a crew of 14 boys from the Chelsea ship.

The Waterloo Project

feet or ten feet apart. On the Waterloo Project, however, this is not the plan. Here we are planting in groups, clumps, and irregular strips or scattered through the open fields in an effort to aid nature in reclaiming the thousands of acres of open abandoned farm land. Often an existing wood lot may be enlarged or two nearby wood lots will be connected to make one large timber stand. Previous to the Spring and Fall planting season, plans are prepared and discussed which will insure that vistas of lakes, ponds, streams, or interesting topography will remain open. In preparation for planting, the species and methods selected to be used are guided by the above described factors.

It has been estimated that of the 18,000 acres comprising the Waterloo Project only approximately 20 per cent or 2600 acres are now forested. Thus there remains some 9000 acres to be planted. During the Spring and Fall planting seasons of 1936 some 100,000 trees, shrubs and vines were planted, exclusive of those used in landscaping the organized camp grounds, the public use area and the site of the fish rearing pond.

The planting stock used is small—from 12 in. to 3 feet in height depending upon the species. Some is transplanted from the existing wood lots and some is purchased from nurseries or farmers living close by who have wood lots with a plentiful supply of reproduction.

In the past, uncontrolled fire and unlimited grazing together have largely wiped out the natural reproduction of trees, shrubs, and other vegetation and have greatly retarded nature in her effort to restore the area to a healthy condition. Now that this land is owned by the United States Government, these two evils must be eliminated to protect our reforestation, landscaping, wildlife and other development work.

The simplest and most satisfactory method of doing this is through the freely offered cooperation of adjacent landowners. However, if this is not forthcoming, we will be compelled to ask for police enforcement of State and Federal laws regarding both the burning of brush, marshes, etc., and the free grazing on government land.

Fire Control System

A detailed system for fire control has been set up on the Project to protect Government-owned land and the various developments that have been worked upon. Considerable money has been spent to produce a recreational area for the use of the people and this is just one phase of protecting it for them.

We must rely largely upon the people living in the vicinity of the Project area to report to us any fires that are burning on or near Government property. If any are observed please call the Waterloo Project Office—Chelsea 275-F2—or the National Youth Administration Camp Office—Chelsea 104-F13 and give us a detailed description of the location and size of the fire. It should be remembered that the sooner we get the report the sooner we will get to the fire; also, that the smaller the fire the more easily it may be extinguished. Your earnest cooperation is requested.

Next week the article will discuss the Camp Policies of the Waterloo Project.

GIVE LIGHTING PROGRAM

NORTHVILLE—Chief of Police Loyie M. Gorman, confirmed the information that State police, as well as Federal agents and the county sheriff, are continuing the search for the two men who took a $7,500 loot from the Depositors State bank on April 20, shortly after 12 p. m. And from the bank itself comes word this week of the speedy reimbursement made the bank by its insurance agents, the Fidelity and Casualty company of New York. Within 72 hours after the holdup, the amount taken by the two bandits had been replaced. The loss was fully covered by insurance.—Record.

PINKNEY—The water in the nearby lakes and creeks is the highest now that it has been in some years. The creeks and rivers have overflowed their banks and people owning cottages along the banks have to use boats to get to them. Little Portage Lake is unusually large, the marsh surrounding it being completely flooded. This is said to be not entirely due to the many heavy rains as the dam erected across the outlet to the Huron River is backing up the water.—Dispatch.

BRIGHTON—Karl Lehman, formerly associated with Lawrence Navarre in the Quality Meat Market, has leased the A. & P. meat market. His announcement will be found elsewhere in the Argus. He invites the public to call. He is an experienced meat market man, having engaged in the business in Brighton for a number of years. His many friends will wish him success in his new venture.—Argus. Mr. Lehman is a former well known Chelsea resident and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lehman.

PLYMOUTH—William Vreeland, Sr., head of the Vreeland Fur Company at Walled Lake, reported the sale of a large shipment of furs on the New York market this week. Vreeland, while in Plymouth this week, said that 10,000 muskrats brought an average of $1.86 each, one of the highest prices in several years. He also sold 300 mink at an average price of $10-300 each at $5 each and 1000 weasels at 75 cents each. He said he had shipped 5000 skunk furs and 2000 possums to the London market but had not heard yet whether they had been sold. "Yes, the price on the muskrat skins was exceptionally good," he said, "although we have sold some skins as high as $2.00 this year. But considering the fact that at various times muskrats have only brought as little as 25 cents each we were glad to get this good price."—Mail.

Here's the DRUM-MAJOR of the motor car parade

If you know a leader when you meet one, you'll see the moment you try this sparkling Buick why it's called the out-in-front car of the year.

You'll go for the way it goes for you—serene, steady, gallant as the figurehead on a buoyant ship—you're in for a thrill every time you put it into action.

You handle a wheel that turns as easy as the pages of a book. You press the treadle—and sink inches deep back in the soft cushions with the swoop of its take-off.

You click off miles by the score, the hundred—and no matter how far you range or what gait you travel, you can't get a whine out of that softly whispering engine!

The answer is you've got a car that was born to go places the way you want to go—smoother, safer, steadier than any car you've known.

Power in this flashing Buick is the power of eight straight valve-in-head cylinders. Its gait is the level gait of a car built close to earth with enough bulk to hold it there.

Its maneuverability is the quick mobility of a charger.

Yet the crowning touch of its creators was none of these but the figures they succeeded in writing on its price tag. The hard-to-realize fact is that this great straight eight can be bought for less than some of today's sixes!

There's just one way to get the true picture of Buick's standout value, and that's to drive it yourself. See us soon and get your order in, and you'll enjoy a summer like you've dreamed of!

LOWEST BUICK PRICES

EVER! At today's prices, a big Buick valve-in-head straight eight costs little more than the average six outside the lowest price field! Compare delivered prices and learn how little more Buick's better Buick, GENERAL MOTORS TRUCKS TO SUIT YOUR NEEDS

Natural Gas Rates Submitted to Council

Information concerning the change from the use of artificial to natural gas in Chelsea was submitted to the common council at their Monday evening meeting by the Washtenaw Gas Co. When the natural gas is secured, Chelsea and Dexter will enjoy the same rate as will be charged in Ann Arbor, which means a substantial saving to gas consumers here. In the past, rates here have been somewhat higher than in Ann Arbor.

The new schedule of rates for Chelsea will give local consumers using from 1,500 to 4,000 units of gas per month a saving ranging from 17 to 24 per cent for those in the general rate bracket. On the water heating schedule the saving for those using from 2,500 to 4,500 units will be about 20 per cent.

The net general rate to be charged for the natural gas will be as follows:

Unit of Measurement.
The unit of measurement of natural gas is the Washtenaw Gas Unit (WGU). This is the amount of natural gas which when burned will produce 530 British Thermal Units (BTU's). The unit of measurement of manufactured gas was a cubic foot, and as that gas had a heating value of 580 BTU's per cubic foot, the WGU is exactly equivalent to the former unit.

Rate Per Meter Per Month.

First 500 WGU's or less 75 cents.
Next 500 WGU's or less $1.10 per thousand WGU's.
Next 1,000 WGU's or less, $1.00 per thousand WGU's.
Next 3,000 WGU's or less, 93 cents per thousand WGU's.
Next 5,000 WGU's or less, 81 cents per thousand WGU's.
Next 5,000 WGU's or less, 72 cents per thousand WGU's.
Next 10,000 WGU's or less, 64 cents per thousand WGU's.
Next 175,000 WGU's or less, 55 cents per thousand WGU's.
Over 200,000 WGU's or less, 53 cents per thousand WGU's.

Minimum monthly charge—For the consumption of 500 WGU's or less, 75 cents per meter per month.

Contract form—Standard application form, no time limit.

Discount—The above rates are net. Gross rates are 10 cents per 1,000 WGU's higher. Bills will be rendered at gross rates and discounted to net rates if paid on or before the discount day indicated on the face of the bill. In no case will a gross bill be rendered for less than 25 cents or more than $50 above the net rates.

The letter from the Washtenaw Gas Co., which was submitted to the council meeting Monday evening, accompanied by all rate schedules, is as follows:

Village Council,
Chelsea, Michigan.
Gentlemen:

As you have doubtless noticed in the Ann Arbor papers, we are proposing to furnish natural gas in Ann Arbor, and natural gas rate schedules have been filed with the City Council for the use of natural gas.

It is our intention and purpose to give your village, also, this new form of gas service, and to furnish it to our consumers in your village at the same rates that we plan to use in Ann Arbor.

Heretofore the rates for manufactured gas in your village have been somewhat higher than in Ann Arbor, but under this new form of service they will be the same.

Copies of the Ann Arbor rate schedules are attached, together with tables showing comparisons with varying amounts of consumption with new rates for natural gas as compared with the rates for manufactured gas in your village. You will note the comparisons indicate a very substantial saving to all consumers using 2,000 feet of artificial gas per month; the consumer would save under the new rate, using 2,000 units of natural gas, 58 cents, or a reduction equal to 20.13 per cent over his former bill.

These new rates will become effective immediately upon the introduction of natural gas into the communities we serve.

It is our hope that actual construction of the pipe line, from a point approximately 23 miles south of Ann Arbor at the junction of the Texas line, will start about May 15, and that we will have this line completed to the entrance of the city gate of Ann Arbor about July 1, or thereabout.

We are sure that your village will be pleased to receive the benefits from this new service that many other communities are receiving all over the state and country, at less cost to the gas consumers.

Yours truly,
C. R. HENDERSON,
Pres. and Gen. Mgr.

HOME OF THE SOUL

"I will sing you a song of that beautiful land."

Our beloved teacher and brother has asked for this dear old hymn to be sung so many times. I was glad to copy what G. D. Sankey says of it. He copies from "Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress."

Now I saw in my dream these two men "Christian and Hopeful." Went in at the gate, and lo, as they entered, they were transfigured, and they had raiment put on them that shone like gold. There were also those that met them with harps and crowns, and gave to them. The harps to praise with all, and the crowns in tokens of honor. Then I heard in my dream that all the bells in the city rang again for joy, and it was said unto them: Enter ye into the Joy of your Lord!

Now, just as the gates were opened to let in the men, I looked in after them, and behold the city shone like the sun. The streets were paved with gold and in them walked many men, with crowns on their heads and palms in their hands. After this, they closed the gate which, when I had seen, I wished myself among them.—Pilgrim's Progress.

The above extract, wrote Philip Phillips "I sent to Mrs. Ellen H. Gates, asking her to write a suitable hymn, when the verses were forwarded to me in 1865. I seated myself in my home with my little boy on my knee, and with Bunyan's immortal dream-book in my hand, and began to read the closing scenes where Christian and Hopeful entered into the city, wondering at Bunyan's rare genius, and like the dreamer of old, wishing myself among them. At this moment of inspiration, I turned to my organ with pencil in hand and wrote the tune. It was sung at the funeral of my own dear boy, who sat on my lap when I wrote the tune, and I sang this hymn at the funeral of my beloved friend, Philip Phillips."

To this union were born three children: Cora Mae, who died at the age of 10; Lee Roy, of Montpelier, Ohio, and Herbert H. of Florida. # The Hi-Light

Edited By The PUPILS OF THE CHELSEA PUBLIC SCHOOL

Poppy Posters

Some of us have begun on our Poppy Posters. They are due May 12. We didn't have any school Friday because of teachers' Schoolmaster's club.

Last Monday was Marian Eisele's birthday. We are very proud of the fact that some of our people played in the Band Festival at Belleville last Tuesday.

We must give Patrick Henry's speech as one of our requirements in our contract in history, to get an A or B.

Strikes

"Less hours, less homework." These are familiar exclamations around certain classes. Wonder if these students realize they are only hurting themselves and not the teachers. The teachers are giving them this work for their benefit and to prepare them for a college, course if they intend to go on. The labor strikers really lost money and gained nothing by striking. If you are so ignorant as to strike, you will probably antagonize the teachers and thereby get more work. We think that you will agree with us that it is better to prepare your assignments as best you can and stop this foolishness.

Schoolmasters' Club

At Schoolmaster's club on Friday, April 30, the faculty of Chelsea public school attended the following section meetings:

Miss Fauver: In the morning she heard Professor Slosson talk at the Michigan League. In the afternoon she attended the Social Studies conference.

Mr. Hargreaves: Attended woodwind and string ensemble clinics. In the afternoon he heard the All-State band rehearsal for about three hours. Miss Allen: Attended Classical Section meeting in the morning and afternoon.

Mr. Wallis: Attended Health and Physical Education sections. Miss Gibson: Attended Speech conferences and the state championship debate.

Miss Nelson: Attended the Commercial Teachers' banquet at Michigan Union. At the Commercial Section meeting in the afternoon she heard Dr. Lessenberry, writer of 20th Typing book.

All High Party

Another All-High party is in the making and is scheduled for Friday, May 7. The party will start at 8 p. m. and end at 1 a. m. This is strictly an All-High party and your admission will simply be your activity ticket.

The following in the charge of the party: Entertainment, Juniors, Refreshments, Sophomores, Decorations, Freshmen, Invitations, Seniors, Clean up, Eighth Grade.

Let's each come and take part in this party and help make it the best of the year.

"Algebre"

(With apologies to Joyce Kilmer). I think that I shall never see A course as dumb as Algebre, A course that makes you rack your brain

And only ends in chronic pain. A course that uses A B C's. And skips the rest to X Y Z's.

A course that makes you shake your head. And wish 't'gosh that you were dead. Upon failure I declare.

I shall collapse in grim despair. Poems are made by fools like me, But only nuts work Algebre! —The Frosh.

Only five more tests and our English work is finished. We have made booklets in which to keep these tests. We are sure they have been a great help to us.

Seventh Grade

Mrs. Eaton was our teacher Monday, because Miss Hannigan was absent.

The seventh grade had two or three days in the study hall because the high school was using our room for a dressing room, for the Junior play.

Some of us went to the Junior Play "Stop Thief," last Thursday. We enjoyed it very much.

Last Saturday night one of the girls in the room received a very nice May basket.

The sixth grade liked our English chart, so made one for their room. We hope it will help them as well as it has helped us.

Miss Canfield told us all about the Goldenrod Galls on Monday.

We are about to begin to study France and its possessions. The French Empire is not as long as the British Empire.

We have three more cocoons in our room. We hope they come out all right. Wilma brought a cocoon. It's a Cecropia moth. We hope it will live.

We don't have our last Grammar test paper but we are going to get the papers in our report card envelope.

Walma and Janet are making our bird clock. Billie and Luther are making our bird calendar.

Miss Canfield went to Ann Arbor to get the book of "The Other Side of the Circus."

We are making Poppy Posters for the American Legion. We will need to do much work before May 12.

Those who have been neither absent or tardy for the last six weeks are: Caroline B., Charles D., Helen G., Donald K., Luther K., Douglas M., Doris P., Stanley P., Dick S., Russell S., Irvin S. and Wilma S.

Miss Allen loaned us a copy of the Christian Science Monitor. It tells all about the Coronation and many things we have been studying about in the British Empire.

METHODIST HOME

Mrs. Harris has not been lonely lately. On Tuesday of last week her brother Fred and wife from Homer called on her; on Thursday a nephew, Frederick Heaton, also from Homer, was here; and her Sunday guests were her sister-in-law and nephew, Mrs. C. A. Harris with her son Jack from Pontiac. Mrs. Harris also called on Mrs. Pool.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Turnbull was visited by a former neighbor, Mrs. Hunter of Detroit.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Filer's company was her sister, Mrs. Mattie Stroud; her niece, Mrs. Durham; her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Green; and the kindly friend with a car who brought them all here from Detroit. Mrs. Stroud and Mrs. Durham also called on Mrs. Robby.

Mrs. Welles and Mrs. Brewer celebrated their birthdays on Friday. Mrs. Welles' daughter, Mrs. Fay Wolfe of Albion, had arranged in advance for a surprise celebration with candles, place cards, cakes and ice cream. The entire home family enjoyed the jubilation and shared the feast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Farnsworth of Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Thorne of Pontiac made a brief call on Mrs. Minor on Saturday. On Sunday she was pleasantly surprised to find at her door her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Holt of Detroit.

Mrs. Snowden's Sunday callers were Mr. and Mrs. George Dingman and their granddaughters, Bettie Lou and Patricia Lee, all of Detroit. They took Mrs. Snowden for a very enjoyable ride.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Robby enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Spiegelberg of Chelsea.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Elliott and son George of Tecumseh called on the Misses McCowan on Sunday afternoon.

On Sunday, Mrs. Danson was visited by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge with their daughter Dorothy, all from Jackson.

Last week Miss Burkhans received a package containing six handsome woven rag rugs. They were sent by her Sunday school class in Owosso with instructions to choose for her own room the one she liked best and turn the rest over to the home. Each one of the six seemed nicer than the others, but somehow she made a choice.

Mrs. Elmer Lehman and son Earle from Sharon called on their cousin, Mrs. Emma Leeman, on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Stetson from Detroit with her aunt, Mrs. Smith from near Ann Arbor, visited Mrs. Gordon on Sunday. Sunday was reunion day for the Park family. Mr. Park was visited by his daughter, Mrs. Beth Moore, and two granddaughters, the Misses Vera May and Doreen Moore, all of Harbor Springs. A grandson, Roland Moore, from Lansing, and another grandson, Darwood Moore, and a great granddaughter, Avis Doreen Moore, from Marshall.

Dr. Leeson, Mr. Carley and George Bernath left here early last Thursday morning and drove to Lake Louise. Dr. Leeson and George returned Sunday night, but Mr. Carley remained as he will have work there through the summer months on some of the buildings of the Lake Louise-Christ Community.

Habits of the Weasel—also called "ermine" by the fur trade when white—can be caught almost anywhere. This small animal stays where there is plenty of food, such as birds, and so on. It likes poultry and will often live under or near chicken coops where it can prey upon the poultry. The weasel is a killer, says Successful Farming, eating little or no flesh, but destroying to satisfy its blood lust.
