The buildings will be moved back 150 feet and Mr. Burkhart has let the contract for moving his brick house and garage to the Ann Arbor Construction Co. and Chris. Koch will move the other buildings. Mr. Koch will start his work this week and the digging of a basement for the house will be started next week.

Rev. Mumby Writes of Recent Trip to England

By Rev. F. D. Mumby

The journey from Dieppe to Paris is through beautiful rolling country enhanced by the afternoon sunshine and we arrived at the Gare St. Lazare about six o'clock in the evening.

According to the arrangements I had made in London I was supposed to stay at the Hotel Touraine, near the Opera House. This hotel was filled to capacity and four of us were taken to Hotel de l'Observatoire on the Boulevard St. Michel on the other side of the city. At first I was inclined to resent the change but later found out that I preferred the hotel where I was staying because it was a Pension Hotel patronized most of the year by students and professors of the nearby University of Paris. The original hotel was filled with tourists, English and American, and English was used regularly by the staff. I had English, American, Dutch, German, Spanish, and French table companions; some of whom did not speak more than a word or two of either French or English.

The beautiful Luxembourg Gardens were only one block from the Hotel, the Observatory is at one end of these gardens and the Senate building, which was once the Palace of Catherine de Medici, stand at the other.

The Sorbonne and the ornate buildings of the University, the Pantheon, St. Jacques, Musee de Cluny, and the Jardin des Plantes were all nearby and I visited these between times. Historic shrines are scattered all over the city which contains some of the finest public buildings in the world, many of which have great signs in letters two feet high "Defense d'Archer," meaning "Post no Bills." Usually the state of the law prohibiting

Michigan Mirror

Michigan Press Association

Lansing—Michigan's czar of state finances, Governor Frank Murphy, is demonstrating that he means business in trying to balance the budget.

Faced with the prospect of a $18,000,000 deficit due to legislative generosity in granting requests of home pressure groups, Murphy asked for and received extraordinary power from legislators before they adjourned, to trim appropriations as he saw fit.

In the matter of finances, the legislature abdicated.

Invested with all the authority of a financial dictator, the governor has reduced an estimated deficit from $18,000,000 to $3,000,000. President Roosevelt announced last week that the federal government would balance its budget beginning July 1, 1938. Governor Murphy is determined, so he professes, to maintain the financial integrity of the state in 1937.

Budget Director Is Republican

President Roosevelt's appointment of two Republicans—Locke and Wallace—to his cabinet has an equal, in spirit at least, to Governor Murphy's appointment of Republican Harold Smith to be budget director. The selection of Smith was particularly disappointing to expectant Democrats, and it has not been altogether "one happy family" to have a Republican in the position of slashing legislative appropriations and then receiving the governor's public praise for doing it.

Speaker George Schroeder has been touchy about this situation, claiming that legislative prerogatives were being usurped by a state appointee.

It has been a bitter pill for some legislators to have Smith, a Republican, become the recipient of commendation by the governor for doing something which the democratic-controlled legislature failed to do.

Labor Trouble Grows

The nomination in Detroit of the C. I. O. candidate for mayor has given fresh impetus to the growing labor movement in Michigan. It presages new and determined efforts of the C. I. O. to organize workers in industries throughout the state. It increases the likelihood that Governor Murphy may

Injunction Refused In US-12 Highway Case

A temporary injunction sought by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lindauer to restrain the state highway department from taking possession of their land and beginning construction of the unfinished portion of US-12 between Ann Arbor and Jackson, was denied Saturday in circuit court. The Lindauers, with four other farm owners have refused to accept the state's offer for land for the relocated highway.

Community Fair Will Be Held November 13

This leaves the Lindauers with three alternative courses to pursue: They may end the litigation by accepting the offer of $4,175 made by the highway department for the strip of land across their farm. They may seek a hearing on the merits of their bill of complaint in an effort to obtain a permanent injunction. They may continue to refuse the amount offered, thereby forcing the highway department to petition the probate court to appoint a three-member commission to decide whether the amount offered is sufficient compensation.

It is undecided as to what course of action will be taken.

LARGE CROWD AT DANCE

Probably one of the largest crowds ever assembled for a dance in Chelsea gathered at the school auditorium last Friday evening to dance to the music of "Mountain Pete and His Mountaineers" as presented by Herbert J. McKune Post No. 81 of The American Legion. This popular radio orchestra may be heard daily over the Michigan Broadcasting Network, on radio stations WXYZ, WJBK and WJIM. Nearly four hundred dancers reported a very enjoyable evening.

The Legion, with the assistance of the Auxiliary Unit plan an active program for the late fall and early winter months which will include their returning to the former custom of holding a public dinner and dance at the school auditorium on Armistice Day: a home talent musical comedy on December 9 and 10, and the usual Thanksgiving party at the old Firemen's hall on November 22, this being a feature known to the locality for a number of years.

Plans are also underway to stage the annual "Kiddies' Christmas Party" which through the support of the activities of the Legion during the coming weeks should result in being the largest and best in the history of Chelsea.

Further announcements will be made through The Standard as to dates of other Legion activities.

ARMISTICE DAY will be observed by the American Legion, with a dinner and dance—Nov. 11.

Local People Injured When Cars Collide

Raymond W. Barber, Jr. and Kathryn Barber, son and daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Barber of Chelsea, are in St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, as the result of injuries received Friday night in a head-on collision on the Saline Road near the intersection with Pleasant Lake Road.

Involved in the collision were Edwin Schmidt of Saline, who was on his way home from Ann Arbor, and Ray Barber, who with his sister was returning to Chelsea after attending the football game at Saline. Schmidt was accompanied by his sister, Lucille, and Miss Mona Milhan, also of Saline.

Miss Schmidt, who was the most seriously injured, suffered a fractured skull and three other bone fractures and has undergone several blood transfusions. She was taken to Saline hospital, where her condition was described as critical.

Ray Barber suffered a concussion of the brain, a broken nose and severe cuts and bruises. His sister, Kathryn, sustained a broken pelvic bone, also cuts and bruises. The driver of the Saline car suffered a broken left leg and chest injuries and Miss Milhan, head abrasions and lacerations.

Deputy Sheriff F. A. Mattis investigated the accident, but was unable to determine the cause.

Both cars were wrecked in the collision.

Note: Ray Barber was brought home Tuesday afternoon, and it is expected that Kathryn will be able to return home the latter part of the week.

Chelsea's Last Civil War Veteran Dies

Alonzo P. White, Chelsea's last Civil War Veteran, died Sunday morning at Chelsea Private hospital, after a brief illness. In 20 days he would have celebrated his 95th birthday.

Mr. White was born October 30, 1842 in Cardington, Ohio and in 1850 he moved with his parents to Joliet, Ill. In June, 1861, at the age of 18, he enlisted in Co. K, 20th Illinois Infantry. He participated in the battle of Pittsburg Landing and Fort Donelson and was in Sherman's March to the Sea. He received his honorable discharge in 1865.

In 1866 he married Ella Brown of Buffalo, N. Y., and they lived in Essex, Ill., later moving to Saunemin, Ill. Mrs. White died in 1928. Mr. White came to Chelsea about 10 years ago to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Edward Grabbill.

He also leaves another daughter, Mrs. Clara Scroggins of Essex, Ill., and a son, Bert A. White of Chelsea. The body was taken to Kankakee, Ill. for services and interment.

Paul F. Niehaus Heads Division of Kiwanis

Paul F. Niehaus, secretary of the Chelsea Kiwanis club, was elected Lieutenant-Governor of the Sixth Division, Michigan District of Kiwanis International, at the state convention which was held in Battle Creek on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. This Division is comprised of Kiwanis clubs in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Plymouth, Wayne, South Lyon, Dexter and Chelsea.

Mr. Niehaus has been an enthusiastic Kiwanian for many years, being a charter member of the local club, and has been secretary for the past six years. He was given the unanimous support of all clubs in the Division for the position of Lieut.-Governor, and a banner year is anticipated under his leadership.

TIRES STOLEN FROM CARS

Five thieves were busy in Chelsea Monday night. On Tuesday morning when I. H. Weiss went to the garage, got into his automobile, started the engine and started to back out of the building, he received a severe jolt. Upon investigating he discovered that all four tires had been taken from his car and the car had been resting on 2x4's.

The four casings were taken from A. E. Johnson's car just a few doors away from the Weiss residence, but the inner tubes were left on the car. The thief or thieves also left their auto jack, wrench and another tool.

Deputy Sheriff David Mohrlock was called and the tools were taken to Ann Arbor to be examined for finger prints.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Mrs. Vivian Park and Mrs. A. L. Brock, as delegates from Olive Chapter, 108, O. E. S., are attending a meeting of the Grand Chapter, O. E. S., held October 13-15 in Grand Rapids. They were accompanied by Mrs. Leora Grove of the local Chapter and Mrs. Hill of Manchester.

call the next special session of the state legislature sooner than next January for the primary purpose of passing a labor relations act.

Michigan's present labor prohibits picketings. Under the labor relations bill passed by the state legislature but vetoed by the governor, picketing would have been legalized although restricted to employees who were on strike. It would have been illegal to block the entrance or exit of any building.

Saginaw was one of the many cities in Michigan to experience labor trouble. At the Fame Laundry company plant, 50 members of an A. F. of L. union were prevented from entering their place of work by striking employees of a competing laundry, all of whom were members of the C. I. O. A court injunction was ignored by the C. I. O. workers.

C. I. O. organizers are busy in Grand Rapids. At Port Huron the police attempted to enforce an injunction writ against pickets. Many picketers were injured.

At Eaton Rapids a woolen mill has been idle for many months, due to labor demands for higher wages.

Thus the labor movement grows in Michigan. Results of the Detroit primary demonstrate that the C. I. O. is still a powerful factor—one not to be lightly ignored.

Farm Prices Dropping

Industrial workers are getting $70,000,000 more weekly in their pay checks, and prices have been climbing steadily. For automobiles alone, consumers will pay more.

But while commodity prices have been going up, farm prices have been going down.

Farmers must pay out more, yet receive less.

The state cooperative crop reporting service, for example, points out that on Sept. 15 the price of wheat was 10 cents lower than on a corresponding date a year ago; dry beans were $1.50 less a hundredweight; potatoes, down 70 cents a bushel; apples, off 25 cents a bushel.

The industrial worker will pay less for food, but the farmer will have to pay more for industrial products.

Newspapers Take a Bow

In these days of increased government spending, it is news when someone voluntarily returns unexpended money.

Newspapers of Michigan received $10,000 from the state last year for the purpose of advertising the state through a four-day tour this summer of newspaper editors, members of the National Editorial Association.

A special train was chartered. Nearly 300 editors were taken from Detroit to Mackinac Island.

Michigan editors who took the tour paid a higher rate than the visitors. Members of the tour committee paid their own expenses, rather than use state money.

The net result was the presentation to Secretary of State Leon D. Case at a Lansing luncheon last Friday, Oct. 8, of a check for $2,623.87. Newspapers voluntarily refunded more than 26 per cent of the state appropriation, much to the surprise of politicians. Again the sanity of newspaper editors is being questioned.

Low-Priced Homes

Michigan's booming automobile factories, setting a pace for general improved economic conditions, have created a widespread housing shortage. In fact, the National Lumber Manufacturers' association is authority for a statement that Michigan leads all other states "by a wide margin" in home-building interest.

Construction is centered mostly in low-priced homes.

The shortage has been acute in many cities, leading to mushroom trailer camps and inducing a trailer concern to build "trailer cottages".

Muskegon's success in stimulating building of homes has brought inquiries from a number of Mid-West cities. Holland rates high, also. One lumber dealer in Holland has built 35 houses priced from $2,700 to $4,000—all since Jan. 1.

Editor's Note: Michigan home-town newspapers present a 15-minute review of the news each Thursday at 1 p. m. over Radio Station WKAR (850 kilocycles), East Lansing.

Sweet Unselfishness

Sweeter than the perfume of roses is the possession of a kind charitable, unselfish nature; a ready disposition to do for others any good turn in one's power.

this practice is added, I hope these signs may also be removed in the near future.

After a pleasant Sunday morning in the Luxembourg gardens and luncheon at the hotel we visited the Louvre and saw paintings and statuary enough to last us a long time. This was a conducted group and after tea and cakes were served we were driven around the city as a sort of get acquainted tour.

The next day a young American who was staying with his mother at the Tokyo hotel and whom I had met in the Louvre, left his mother with some of her friends and went with me to the Exposition. We started out with a trip on a Vidette which gave us an opportunity to see the exhibit building from the Seine. This gave us some idea of the arrangements but convinced us that it was not in the same class as the Chicago exhibition.

After dinner we were taken to the Bal Tabarin, Cafe Savarin, Moulin Rouge, Folies Bergeres, and other night spots which were all thronged with gay crowds of habitués and visitors like ourselves. I wondered what the natives thought of all these parties of curious foreigners who came in and stayed half an hour or so and then fled out again.

The next day was spent in sight-seeing. Rue de Rivoli, Place de la Concorde, where the guillotine was set up during the revolution and hundreds of people lost their heads, the Madeleine, Expiatory Chapel and its Royal tombs, the Arc de Triomphe with the tomb of France's unknown soldier. About 100 Roumanian Scouts returning from the Jamboree in Holland put on a very impressive series of exercises while we were there and placed a huge wreath upon the grave while thousands of spectators looked on.

Of course we visited the Trocadero Palace, Napoleon's tomb and the Invalides, the Palace of Justice, Notre Dame Cathedral, Sacre Coeur and old Montmartre, the City Hall, House of Deputies, Champs Elysee and residence of the French President, American Embassy, and about ten thousand other things which I have not time to mention now.

I must not close this account without a word about my visit to the famous Palace of Versailles. The drive out through old St. Cloud was beautiful and the Palace itself must be seen to be truly appreciated. The paintings dominated by the egotistical Louis XIV wearing a red cap usually so that no one might make a mistake as to which figure was a portrait of His Majesty are the work of the world's greatest artists. Some of it was destroyed or scattered during the revolution. The Hall of Mirrors where the treaty of Versailles was made and signed at the close of the World War is one of the most interesting historic spots in all France from an American point of view. The gardens and fountains, the Grand and the Petit Trianon, once sacred to the footsteps of royalty and their favorites are now traversed by thousands of tourists from all parts of the world every year.

We returned to Paris along the river, visiting the famous Sevres Porcelain factory, the Peugeot and Renault automobile factories, great warehouses and other evidences of a busy industrial district where thousands of Frenchmen earn their daily bread.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield

A father learned yesterday in Juvenile Court that a definite means of causing a boy to steal is to tell him anything in order to avoid allowing him the means of earning a small amount of spending money.

This particular youngster was interested in a young lady in his class in the local high school and disliked seeing other boys escort her to the soda fountain or movie. Consequently, as he was forced to work at home without an allowance, he quickly took advantage of the first opportunity which presented itself to secure money by an unscrupulous method.

WILL YOU?

Plant a rose in some garden today,
Where a briar grew over the wall?
Have you pulled up the thistles, transplanted a flower,
In reply to an Angelic call?

Have you planted a fir-tree, or myrtle,
Whose boughs

With richest aroma abound?
Have you helped the dear Saviour to answer some prayer,

Whose love searching spirit has found?
O be that disciple of whom it was said—

Inasmuch as ye did it for me,
Your cup running over with blessing I'll give.

If you doubt, prove me now and you'll see—

And there shall be no more pricking briar x x x x

Nor any grieving thorn x x x x
And they shall know that I am the Lord.—Ezekiel 28:24.

Handling firearms, boxing and last but not least an intensive study of criminal law, was given. He has been assigned to the Marquette station in the northern peninsula where he expects to remain at least during the hunting season. —Exponent.

Many Uses for Eggs
Besides their use as human food, eggs are in demand for dog feed, bird feed, fish feed, fox feed, hog feed and other commercial feeds, according to H. H. Alp, extension poultryman, college of agriculture, University of Illinois. Eggs are also used in the leather and fur trade, in lithography, in photo-engraving, in cementing cork to jar and bottle caps, in pharmaceuticals, in textile printing, in paints for artistic work, in printing ink, in photography, in gilding books, leather, cloth, fabric and in egg shampoo.

Conservation Dept. Suggests Hunting Code

Lansing—As a guide to the quarter-million or more hunters who will be afield during the opening days of the upland shooting season in Michigan, conservation authorities here suggest a hunting code, embodying many essential points of sportsmanship.

While it is believed that the great majority of Michigan hunters try to observe both the written and unwritten laws of their sport, it is also thought that few would fail to benefit from occasional reference to the "rules" in printed form. The code follows:

Keep in mind: That hunting was once the sport of kings and princes only and regarded by them as an honorable and chivalrous pastime. That today it is the sport of the common man. Do nothing to degrade it.

Be considerate of others always. Do not use intoxicating beverages while hunting.

Buy a hunting license and carry it at all times afield.

Keep a copy of the Michigan Game Law Digest in your hunting jacket, your car or your suit coat.

Study the game laws. Be firm in your decision to observe them.

Learn to practice to handle and shoot a gun safely—before you go hunting.

Adopt the slogan: "A gun is always loaded." Do not forget it.

Select an experienced hunting companion. Avoid the individual who is careless or dangerously excitable under fire.

Drive reasonably and safely. Respect the speed limits as you drive through towns.

Do not hunt so near towns or villages as to endanger the residents.

Understand the Horton Trespass Law and its application in farm game areas.

Remember that under provisions of the Horton Law, a farmer may have you arrested for entering his premises to hunt without permission, even though his land is neither fenced nor posted.

Always ask for the privilege of hunting on a farm. If, after investigation, it appears that no one is home leave quietly. Do not hunt on the premises.

Be quiet. Do not sound your horn so as to attract the attention of the landowner or to annoy the occupants of his house.

If the hunting privilege is granted, inquire if there is any place where hunting might be hazardous or where property might be damaged. Avoid that place.

Be polite. Introduce yourself to the owner. Park your car out of the way in the yard.

Invite the landowner to go hunting with you.

Prevent your dog from chasing or otherwise annoying stock. Do not kill cats on a farm.

Do not fire your gun within 200 yards of a highway, farm house or domestic animals, especially animals in harness.

Do not climb fences. Use the gate if possible or crawl under it. Remember to close the gate.

If you have been responsible for any damage or find that damage has been caused by others, report the damage to the land holder.

Do not run when approached by a stranger. Have a clear conscience and you will have no impulse to run.

Observe and follow the spirit and letter of the law and others will respect you and enjoy your companionship.

Do not compromise others or be compromised by a violation of the law.

Remember that rowdiness and vandalism have no place in the sportsman's code.

Cooperate with the conservation officer. The conservation officer is employed to serve you and to protect your rights. The sportsman has nothing to fear from him.

Learn to distinguish readily the legal game species. Always be sure of your target before you shoot.

Be fair. If you find hunting good, remember the other man. Leave some of the game for him.

Do not forget that the law forbids the cleaning or dressing of game in the field so as to destroy identity of sex-species. Wait until you get home.

Show your game to the land holder. Offer him some of it. Thank him for permitting you to hunt on his land.

Leave a clean camp. Be careful in disposing of lighted matches and cigar or cigarette butts.

Do not post land you do not own or hold by lease.

Do not forget, discard or lose the report form attached to your hunting license. Use it to report your game kill before February 15.

Local Couple Married at Church Ceremony

St. Paul's Lutheran church, Ann Arbor was the setting for the wedding at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon of Miss Viola Marian Krumm, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Krumm of Chelsea, and Elmer J. Lindow, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lindow of Lima township.

Palms and ferns banked the altar, flanked by large baskets of autumn flowers. The service was read by Rev. C. Brauer, pastor of the church, and preceding the ceremony, Miss Lydia Greysinger of Ann Arbor sang "Jesus, Still Lead On," and "O, Perfect Love." She was accompanied by Mrs. Hiser, who also played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin.

Miss Krumm chose for her wedding a white lace, made coat style, over ivory tulle. Her tulle veil, edged with lace, was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a semi-shower bouquet of Johanna-Hill roses and swansonia.

Miss Ruth Trapp of Grass Lake, cousin of the groom, as maid of honor, wore a Nile green tulle with peach colored jacket. A bandeau of green leaves and an arm bouquet of Talisman roses and bronze bebe chrysanthemums completed her costume.

Herbert Lindow, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man and the ushers were Arthur Trapp of Farmington and William McFall of Plymouth. Little Lois Trapp of Detroit, attired in an orchid tulle dress, carried a basket of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Krumm chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of Margot crepe, with which she wore a corsage of cream rose buds. Mrs. Lindow, mother of the groom, was attired in dark green crepe and her corsage was composed of bronze flowers, while Mrs. Anna Krumm, grandmother of the bride, wore black crepe with white gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held at the home of the groom's parents and a two course dinner was served. Yellow and white predominated in the house decorations. The bride's table, centered with a tiered wedding cake, surmounted by a miniature bride and groom, was lighted with white tapers. The favors were yellow and white nut cups.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening and violin solos by Melvin Krumm of Plymouth contributed to the entertainment. He was accompanied by Mrs. Norman Klingler of Jackson.

Y. M. STUDY CLUB

The Young Mothers' Child Study club met with Mrs. Walter Zeel on Tuesday evening. The roll call was responded to by each member giving her favorite hobby. Two new members, Mrs. Elwin Hulce and Mrs. Harold Widmayer, were admitted to the club.

Plans are under way for a club scrap book which will be devoted to our children and their interests. The members wish to thank the village council for taking an interest in and forwarding the cause of a playground. The club will be glad to cooperate in any way possible.

The subject of the evening was "Honesty." Mrs. Frank Coburn and Mrs. Gurney Hopper gave very interesting reports on the subject. An open discussion followed. The most important points to stress in teaching children to be honest are to never permit a lie to get a child what does not belong to him; to know where to draw the line between imagination or politeness and a falsehood; to be extremely careful of the example with which the child comes in contact. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Soph-Skating Party

Our skating party started off with a bang last Wednesday night when nine of us assembled at the gym. Then we found Mr. Wallis had neglected to buy skates. Then to top off our lovely evening slow and leisurely dew drops fell from heaven. Class cooperation and all that, you know, made our party a great success.

Senior Weiner Roast

On Tuesday evening, October 5 the Seniors set out in gay spirits for the Dexter State Park. Once there, forks, fire and weiners having been produced, about thirty partook of the bountiful feast of roasted weiners and buns. Mr. Paine, the Curtis Publishing company's representative, furnished the weiners, and the green team, having sold the least amount of magazines, furnished the buns. Everybody tried to outdo his companions in eating the largest amount of food, but we haven't been able to decide just who ate the most. Everyone, I'm sure, had his share.

Assembly

Thursday when the time came for our weekly assembly, we had with us a representative from the Saginaw Refinery, who gave us a short talk on beet sugar and its uses.

When we were asked how many of us had heard that there was a difference between cane and beet sugar, over half of the pupils raised their hands. The speaker then went on to say that there wasn't a bit of difference between them, but the sugar of the coarse texture was refined differently than that of the fine texture.

In this brief speech we were asked to support the United States refinery companies and use up our supply of beet sugar instead of letting the cane sugar (which most people think is better) be imported to our country.

Football News

To continue an already enviable record of no defeats in three starts, Chelsea's fighting football team trampled on the efforts of a light and inexperienced inline team to amass a total of 24 points to Saline's 6. On a whole the Chelsea team did very well, but considerable improvement is necessary before Friday's engagement with Dundee. Reports of Dundee's strength have been numerous and they boast several victories. However our boys are looking forward to another victory, a victory which would establish Chelsea's leadership of the Huron League.

This "battle of the year" will be played on Chelsea's new athletic field.

Your support, which is a fundamental part of every Chelsea victory, will be appreciated.

Editorial

Have you ever been in a class that groans about an assignment whether it is short or long—or even if there isn't an assignment? If there is assigned a test—everybody starts groaning right away. Why do they do it? I believe that they are so used to groaning that they have formed a habit and they are not conscious of the fact and will always continue to do so, no matter how hard you try to stop them. But I think that if every one could see the teacher's side of the story and be content to take and do what she tells you, everyone would be better off, because she is going to give you the assignment no matter how hard, or how much you grunt and groan.

Where were those two Junior football players who got called down by that little blond 7th grader last week when they asked her to go walking with them? I think they call her "Boots".

Our big flashy freshman football player, namely Royden Watson, is either walking in his sleep or maybe it's love. He certainly casts his eyes on the quiet charms of Lois Palmer, anyway.

Will Attend Show

Raymond Ives, president of the Chelsea chapter of Future Farmers, will join the Michigan Future Farmer special train at Jackson on Saturday, October 16, enroute to the Kansas City Royal Livestock Exposition.

The features included in the trip are safe transportation, a visit to the most interesting commercial experimental farms in the country—The Purina Mills farm near St. Louis, Mo.; a packing house in Chicago; Field Museum and Shedd Aquarium, St. Louis; Adler Planetarium, Chicago; observation tower and the "Pit", National F. F. A. convention and Royal Fat Livestock show, Kansas City.

The trip is made possible through the generous cooperation of the Kiwanis club, F. F. A. chapter, and the representative himself in sharing the expenses of thirty-one dollars, which will cover the entire trip.

Raymond is expected to return with many new ideas and will be most willing to tell anyone about his trip on returning October 22. Reports to his sponsoring club and Kiwanis club of Chelsea have already been engaged.

Miss Canfield sent us a few flowers of the closed gentian. We were so glad to see them for they are seldom found in this part of the state and they are a flower that never opens.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Fox, Ruth's mother, came to see us. We are always glad to have visitors come and see the work we are doing.

Junior Niehaus brought us three flowers of the Indian Pipe. These too, are quite rare. The plant is white and has "scales" instead of leaves. It is a relative of the cranberry family.

Tuesday, Oct. 5 was Clare Knickerbocker's eighth birthday. Much to his surprise a birthday cake with candles on it appeared at the close of school. Mother and small brother Alfred brought it. Suckers also were passed around. Of course we had a nice time.

Sunday, the 10th of October, was to be Norwood McAllister's birthday so his mother brought up little cup cakes and orange slices for him to share with us on last Friday afternoon. Did we like it? Well, I'll say we did.

By the way, Harry was a sick boy last Thursday because he ate too much at the roast Wednesday afternoon. We had a fine time and no one else got sick.

Bragdon's mother and baby sister Sue visited us on Friday. Sue didn't like our room very much because we were too quiet for her.

Our Pet at Camp (A short story by Marjorie Gilson) When I went to camp in Ohio last summer, a black bear came to visit us. He came to our camp at about 9 o'clock at night. He started tipping the cans over and tearing up papers and at last tipped the stove over. This made such a noise that it woke us all up.

Our daddy threw a rope around his neck and tied him to a tree nearby (you see he was not a really wild bear). He was there until morning and when we saw him we were afraid of him because he growled at us.

Daddy gave him some food and he seemed tame so we could go close to him. Then we let him loose. He went away into the woods, but he came back the next day and every day for us to feed him.

When it came time for us to go home, Daddy said "Little bear, we can't play with you any more because we are going away," and I think he understood because he began to walk into the woods and we did not see him any more.

Sixth Grade

Dorothy Knickerbocker brought a Polyphemus larva and it spun a cocoon. Betty Holderman brought a tree to school and she let it go after everyone had seen it.

Miss Canfield has been putting a small quotation on the board every Monday morning. Some of us have been learning them. The one this week is East or West, Home is best.

Elaine Schmidt brought a cocoon and put it in the can with Dorothy Knickerbocker's. It is black. Hunting season is open and in the cornfield back of Carlton Chiswell's home there were about 10 pheasants.

Most of the people in the sixth grade have taken their tomato worms home and are bringing them back Monday.

In language we are going to give floor talks about a superstitious time.

Last Friday Miss Canfield asked Miss Neil if she might teach us a song about Twenty Little Froglies Going to School, because we have been having a frog in school for a few weeks. Our frog has been taken back. Miss Canfield said it would die over night if we didn't take it back.

In reading we are reading a story written by Mary Hastings Bradley. It's a story about tigers.

In music we are studying composers and at the end of the week Miss Neil plays pieces that they wrote. We are also singing two-part music.

Elaine Schmidt brought a folder from the Michigan insect zoo in Detroit.

This week is fire prevention week. Every home, office, factory, and farm should take immediate steps to formulate a permanent fire prevention program.

15,000 people are burned to death in this country every year. 65 per cent of these victims are women and children.

It costs this nation nearly $300,000,000 each year for the upkeep of fire departments and waterworks for fire extinguishment.

Smoking and the careless use of matches is a common cause of fire. Make arrangements to clean and repair chimneys.

Make an inspection of your establishment today—80 per cent of all the fires that occur in the United States are due to carelessness.

Favor for Anarchists

MERCER G. JOHNSTON, of the Rural Electrification administration, led a delegation that appeared before Secretary of Labor Perkins and received her promise to consider a petition to cancel the deportation of two anarchists, Domenico Saluto and Vincent Ferraro of Oakland, Calif. Madame Perkins already has held up the deportation of more than 3,000 alien criminals and radicals on the ground that separation from their families would work undue hardships.

Blow to the C.I.O.

ENTRY of the C. I. O. into industry in the province of Ontario, Canada, was decidedly negative when the voters returned to power the administration of Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn, increasing its already decisive majority in the legislature. Hepburn, head of the Liberals, is determined to keep Lewis' organization and its organizers out of the province if he can do so legally. The defeated Conservatives, led by W. Earl Rowe, stood for free and open labor affiliation.

Rail Strike Averted

THERE will not be a nationwide strike of railway workers. Such a disaster was averted when the five operating railroad brotherhoods accepted an offer of the companies of a flat raise of 44 cents a day. They and the fifteen "non-operating" unions had demanded a 30 per cent wage increase. The latter already had agreed to a raise of 40 cents a day.

For five weeks Dr. William M. Leiserson, member of the national mediation board, had been holding daily conferences with representatives of both sides.

In announcing the terms of the agreement, Leiserson praised the co-operation of both parties, saying the manner in which they receded from their original positions was the biggest factor in the settlement.

H. A. Enoch of Philadelphia, chairman of the carriers' conference committee, estimated the increase would mean an average raise of 6.6 per cent for the 75,000 workers.

A. F. of L. May Expel C.I.O.

WHEN President William Green opened the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor in Denver, he was not able to present an optimistic picture of the future of unified labor. The battle with John L. Lewis and his C. I. O. continues unabated, and there are "dogfights" among the unions all over the country, generally concerning jurisdiction disputes or shifting of affiliation.

William Green

If the report of the federation's executive council is adopted, the C. I. O. unions will be finally ousted. The council said in part:

"For two years we have pursued a policy of toleration. All of this has failed. Now the executive council feels that the time has arrived when the American Federation of Labor must meet the issue in a clear-cut and positive way. The issue which created the division in the ranks of labor must be made clear."

"In order to accomplish this purpose, the executive council recommends that the convention confer upon the executive council authority and power to revoke the charters of the international unions holding membership in the Committee for Industrial Organization."

Windsor Coming to U.S.

HIS honeymoon being ended, the duke of Windsor intends to take up the really serious things of life, and before long he will come to the United States for the purpose of studying housing and working conditions in this country. This was announced in Paris by the duke's secretary, who said Edward and his duchess would first go to Germany for a similar survey there.

The duke's interest in such matters is no new development, for as Prince of Wales and during his brief reign as king-emperor Edward was notably concerned with the social welfare of his subjects. On many occasions he assailed housing conditions of British workers.

In London it was said the government had given reluctant permission for the duke's American trip in order to avoid an open rupture with him. He resented the close restrictions placed on his movements and, it was rumored, had threatened to return to England.

American friends of the Windsors think they may make their temporary home at "Wakefield manor," near Front Royal, Va., possibly arriving there in November. The manor is the estate of Mrs. George Barnett, cousin of the duchess.

Ed Howe Dies

WITH the passing of Ed Howe of Atchison, Kan., the country loses one of its best-known and best-liked philosophical commentators on current events. He was eighty-four years old and died as he had wished, in his sleep after a day's work. "Sage of Potato Hill" founded the Atchison Globe in 1887 and retired 37 years later. Thereafter he busied himself with the publication of "Howe's Monthly," which he called a "Journal of indignation and education."

WLS COMMUNITY TALENT SHOW DATES ANNOUNCED
With only three weeks remaining before the presentation of the second time in Chelsea of the Prairie Farmer WLS community talent show, on Nov. 4, 5 and 6, the sponsoring organizations wish to call the attention of prospective members of the cast to the fact that try-outs will be held in the high school study hall at 7:00 p. m. on October 28 and 29.

This year, in addition to being given the privilege of broadcasting over WLS, Chicago, the winning entertainer will be presented with a valuable loving cup. Arrangements are at present under way to provide for a broadcast over a nearby station by the outstanding performers and runners-up.

Aside from instrumentalists, vocalists, dancers, mimics, etc., it is the plan this year that several adults shall play straight leads in a plot to be woven throughout the entertainment.

Anyone wishing further information with regard to musical numbers, etc., is invited to contact Mr. Hargreaves, director of the Chelsea High School Band and Orchestra, who urges all performers, whether or not they appeared in last year's show, to prepare a number or two for the try-outs.

Chinese Check Invaders
REPORTS from neutral observers indicated that the stubborn resistance of the Chinese had brought the Japanese advance to a virtual standstill both in the Shanghai area and on the northern front. Where the Chinese troops have withdrawn they have occupied new and strong systems of defense. The progress of the Japanese in North China has been rapid but is now slowed up, and the Chinese are ready to meet them on the Yellow River.

Japan's plan to set up an autonomous republic comprising the five northern provinces is revealed in the Tokyo press. The capital is to be Peiping under its old name of Peking.

Bread Day Annual Event Bread day is an annual celebration in Italy, with Fascist girls selling small loaves for a lira and pamphlets and posters urging Italians to eat more bread.

Ought—Nought Ought means anything, nought means nothing, or the figure 0. It is wrong to say ought when you refer to the figure 0. Example, "three, five, nought, six"; not "ought, six."

Britain Prods Italy GREAT BRITAIN was determined that Italy should decide promptly whether it would meet with her and France to discuss the withdrawal of volunteers from the civil war in Spain. Mussolini was so informed after Prime Minister Chamberlain and Foreign Minister Eden had conferred with Charles Corbin, French ambassador to London. The Anglo-French attitude was stiffened by President Roosevelt's address and the league action in the case of Japan, and England felt freer to concentrate on the Spanish question. There were hints of "decisive action" unless Mussolini responded satisfactorily.
