Parade Will Feature Armistice Program

Herbert J. McKune Post No. 81 and its Auxiliary of The American Legion of Chelsea expect to stage the most outstanding Armistice Day on November 11 since that eventful day exactly twenty years ago when the fathers, mothers, wives, sweethearts and friends went into a mad frenzy of joy over the fact that the World War had ceased, and the sons, husbands or friends who had answered the call of their country would soon return, or at least a large percentage would return to take up their place as citizens, rather than soldiers of the country.

Since that eventful day twenty years in the past a new generation has nearly grown into manhood, a generation that knows nothing of the horrors and the tragedy of war, a generation who only look to the soldiers of twenty years ago as a good natured, fun loving group of middle aged men, and why not? Did not these soldiers of twenty years ago leave everything that was near and dear to them, some of them never to return?

The American Legion today feels a certain responsibility not only in taking an active part in preserving peace, law and order but also in keeping the minds of the younger generation on the fact the United States is the greatest of all nations—and above all the land of the most privileges of any country in the world, and so, while Spain, China and Japan even today are at war, a war that may even threaten the peace of our country, these soldiers of twenty years ago will celebrate Armistice Day with a parade on the local streets at 8:30 p. m.

Assurance has been given the Legion by the local business men that they shall do their part to make this Armistice Day a memorable one. Numerous floats are expected to enter the parade, the school band will march in the ranks, as well as the public and parochial school children, then too will come the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Sea Scouts and it is hoped and expected that those in and around Chelsea will be on hand to witness this big event. Dr. Faye Palmer is in charge of the parade.

Following the parade a dinner will be served by the Legion and the Auxiliary at the public school auditorium. The menu will consist of roast beef, mashed potatoes, buttered beets, salad, rolls, coffee and pie. Dinner will be served from 5:30 until 8:00 p. m. and plans are being made to serve four hundred people.

Later in the evening the Legion hope to fill the auditorium to overflowing with both young and old to dance to the music of Jerry Beissel's orchestra. It is reported that this former local boy has an exceptionally fine group of musicians and the Legion trust that the dance may be well attended.

The net proceeds from the dinner and dance are to be used to give the youngsters of this community a bigger and better Christmas party than ever before.

General Information for Those Participating in the Parade
The concentration area will be Harrison St. Park as far as junction with East St. All elements, except certain special units, must enter the parade via Harrison St., via Madison, via Park St. The time is 3:30 p. m. Route of march will be Park, South, Congdon, Summit, Main, Middle, East to ad-infinitum.
By Order of Chef Du Gare.

BROADCAST OVER WIBM
In connection with the forthcoming Prairie Farmer-WLS show, which is to be held in Chelsea on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, three local amateurs broadcast over the facilities of WIBM, Jackson on Sunday at 1 p. m. A solo, "Sleepy Hollow Tune", was rendered by Angeline Burg, and "Where Are You?" was sung by Cecelia Birch. They were accompanied by Paul Pielesmeyer. Adolph Duerr rendered a violin solo, "Orientale", by Cpl. with Mrs. P. M. Broesamle as accompanist.
This marked the first appearance over the air for members of the group and proved to be a stimulating experience. These members of the cast of the show will be eligible with all other members of the cast for the opportunity of broadcasting over WLS, Chicago, which opportunity is to be given to the best performers in the local show.

Lansing—Hopes of Michigan C. I. O. leaders for a political alliance with the farmers—an objective hinted only by John Lewis in a recent address—have gone glimmering as the result of an open revolt among members of the Michigan State Grange and the Michigan Farm Bureau federation.

In fact, with results of the Detroit election this week confronting them, labor chieftans of the C. I. O. realize that their first task is to repair their own fences before they begin angling for additional conquest.

Illustration of the temper which exists in farmer circles was revealed by C. H. Bramble of Lansing, master of the Michigan State Grange, who declared that the United States should adopt the English labor policy of requiring labor unions to incorporate and assume financial liability. Thus can irresponsible and reckless radical leadership be eliminated from labor ranks, he said.

Furthermore, the Grange leader deplored the lack of a labor relations act in Michigan due to Governor Murphy's veto of his own endorsed bill.

Again hitting hard, Bramble deplored spending of millions of dollars in Michigan by the Rural Electrification administration, pointing out that figures of the Edison Electric Institute as of July showed that 74,232 out of 191,125 farms in Michigan now have electricity and that Michigan has led the nation in rural extensions for six years, offering farm rates lower than the rates in any other state.

As for the federal administration's proposal to regulate hours and wages for all industry, the Grange leader warned that this regulation would inevitably lead to higher prices, increased imports of cheaply-made foreign products, and finally increased unemployment of American labor.

All in all, the farm organization reaffirmed a belief held by politicians of both parties for a long time—namely, that Michigan farmers are a hard-headed thrifty lot, traditionally conservative when it comes to governmental experiments. Albert C. Johnson New President of Kiwanis Officers for the coming year were chosen by the Kiwanis club at their meeting on Monday evening. Albert C. Johnson was chosen president; P. G. Schaible, vice-president; John L. Fletcher, Wesley Smith, Harold Evrey and James Hendley, directors. Secretary and treasurer will be named by the board of directors. Directors whose terms do not expire are Bruce Plankell, Wilbur Hinderer and Henry Fenn. The newly elected officers will assume their duties the first Monday in January.

Following the business meeting Rev. F. D. Mumby gave an interesting account of his recent trip to England and France, showing moving pictures of some of the most outstanding highlights of the sea journey as well as attractive points in the countries visited.

4-H CLUB STEER BRINGS $31.25
A recent issue of the Archbold (Ohio) Buckeye, tells of an auction sale of 42 project prize beef raised by Liberty Center 4-H club boys, which drew a record crowd and was the first auction broadcast over a radio station ever made in that community. The grand champion steer raised by Weldon Frynsinger, was bought by Armour and Co. for $31.25 per hundred, weighed 1,040 pounds and brought the young owner a check for $315.92. Armour and Company bought most of the prize steers for the New York market.

E. J. Claire of Chelsea was sponsor of the original Liberty Center 4-H club and his son, D. J. Claire, was a member of the club at that time.

HART GETS LOCAL POSITION
Watson Hart, who has been the day operator at the Michigan Central depot in Grass Lake for the past five years, has been appointed third trick man at the local depot, and began his work on Friday night. For six years, prior to going to Grass Lake, Mr. Hart was second trick man at the local depot.

C. H. S. Member of Forensic Association

Chelsea high school has become a member of the Michigan High School Forensic Association and will compete in the various state-wide speech contests to be sponsored by the association this season. Miss Josephine Gibson, of the high school faculty, will coach the contestants.

Over 300 high schools throughout the state have enrolled to date, and additional enrollments are coming to the association's office in Ann Arbor daily.

The major activities directed by the Michigan High School Forensic Association consist of state-wide interscholastic contests in debate, oratory, declamation, and extempore speech. The earlier part of the season is devoted to debate, the other speech contests opening in the early spring.

The debates will be conducted in two series again this year, a preliminary series and an elimination series. The preliminary series will open on November 5 for the great majority of schools. Three succeeding preliminary debates will follow on November 19, December 10, and January 14. Each member competing in the association's regular preliminary schedule will debate twice on the affirmative and twice on the negative of the subject to be discussed. Also, each will debate two times at home and two away.

The topic to be argued in all debates sponsored by the Forensic Association will be that of "Uncameral Legislature". Much interest has already been aroused because of the timeliness of the subject.

Those schools attaining the highest number of points in the preliminary series will enter the elimination series which opens on February 4, and which terminates in the 21st Annual State Championship Debate to be held in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, on the evening of Friday, April 29.

Red Cross Roll Call to Start Next Week

The annual roll call of the local chapter of the American Red Cross will start on Armistice Day and continue until Thanksgiving. A house-to-house canvass will be conducted during that period as that method proved to be very satisfactory last year. Workers will be named to conduct the solicitation for funds to carry on the fine work of the chapter and it is hoped there will be generous support from everyone in the village and surrounding territory.

With cold weather approaching, Red Cross workers anticipate an increased need for articles of clothing and shoes, and residents of the community who have discarded clothing and shoes can help alleviate the suffering of many unfortunate families if they will make donations of this wearing apparel to the Red Cross. According to those in charge of activities of the local chapter there are many deserving families who will appreciate any help they may receive.

St. Mary's Fair Will Be Held Nov. 23-24

Arrangements are nearing completion for St. Mary's Annual Fair, which will be held Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, November 23 and 24. Wm. G. Kolb and John J. Sullivan have been named as general chairmen of the event, with Mrs. Frances Alber as chairman of the women's activities.

The fair will open on Tuesday evening with a dinner, which will be served by the ladies of the parish. Many new and interesting features will be provided by the committee to follow the dinner and the fair will be continued on Wednesday evening.

JACKSON CHOIR SINGS HERE

The Rockwell Memorial Choir of Jackson, under the direction of Francis Hodgebloom, gave a fine program at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday evening. The chorus is composed of forty men, thirty of whom were present, and gave excellent renditions of sacred and classical music, baritone and tenor solos, organ solos by Mr. Harrison and an organ and piano duet with Mr. Lincoln, the accompanist, at the piano. The concert was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended and it is hoped that they will appear here again at some future date.

Extension Work Aids In Health Protection

Better methods of feeding families and better usage of Michigan grown foods are results counted in thousands of farm homes in the state as a result of home economics extension work in the past year.

As a new year starts with additional rural women enrolled in extension projects for communities, a summary of last year's results in food facts alone indicates the scope of the work.

More than 3,500 women report that they now know better vegetable cooking methods. Men often frown upon salads. Yet Michigan vegetables and fruits can supply many combinations for salads that help protect health. In this part of the campaign the summary shows 1,616 families have learned to like raw foods. Carrot sticks, cabbage, apples and tomatoes are the favorites.

Even that scoffed-at vegetable, spinach, was included in one lesson. An uncovered kettleful was cooked for a short time without water other than the drops that cling after washing. The proof of this lesson was in the attractive green color and in the tenderness.

Undernourished children or grown-ups without good health often can blame improper food selection rather than lack of sufficient quantity of food. Better use of Michigan-grown foods including fruits, vegetables, milk and meat, can add to better health.

Roberta Hershby, nutritionist at Michigan State College, which is the center of the state-federal extension work in the state, advocates the use of Michigan-grown foods. Variety leads to good appetites, she says. Another reason is that most farm families in this state can grow nearly all foods necessary for a well-balanced diet.

JERUSALEM SCHOOL NEWS

The school month of October closed Friday, Oct. 29 for the Jerusalem school. The following pupils were neither absent nor tardy during the month: Arlene and Wilma Koengster, Arthur Schiller, Jane and Lois Schlosser, Robert and Doris Trinkle, Joyce Hoffman and Joyce Eisenman.

We were sorry to lose two of our schoolmates, Donald and Dan McLean, who moved to Saline. Our enrollment is now 18.

The president of our Civic Health Club for October was Lois Schlosser, and secretary was Robert Trinkle. The girls are leading in the inspection race. We have much material for our health scrapbook. We have had the water tested and it was all right.

We have waxed some leaves and decorated our schoolroom.

The arithmetic charts are creating much interest in Arithmetic work. There are more gold stars each week. Everyone is working hard.

We have learned all the songs which have been assigned to us. We have started the folk dances and our music appreciation work.

The children have made gains in their penmanship test which they took last week.

This month we learned how to cut good letters and used this knowledge in making several booklets and posters. We have also drawn fall scenes and Halloween posters.

In our sand-table we have a scene showing the landing of Columbus, and another portraying Indian life. We made a new booklet of Columbus work, containing pictures, clippings, stories, and poems. We are also adding to our Indian booklet. We have not finished the Indian study.

The 5th and 6th grade have made some books containing various kinds of work done in the world in connection with their Geography and Language.

We had a Halloween party at school Friday. At morning recess we roasted marshmallows and had a peanut hunt. At noon we had our lunch of hot dogs, fruit salad, pumpkin pie and sweet cider. We played several games. Prizes were won by Stella Valant and Wilma Koengster. In the afternoon for Art work we made a Halloween basket which was later filled with candy. Some of the games we played gave us practice in reading, Art and Language.

Later in the afternoon we had doughnuts and sweet cider and we received candy and a Halloween toy.

We are now planning for our Fair and Dance, which will be held Nov. 9 at Annie Sod's.

Visitors during the month were Mrs. Arthur Barth and Shirley, Mrs. Frances Alber, and James Tamplin. James was an 8th grade pupil in the school 13 years ago, the first year our teacher taught the school.

SPIEGELBERG SCHOOL NEWS

We have nineteen pupils in our school.

We have a spelling ladder for the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. We have five rungs. The A, B, C, D and E are the names of the rungs. There are little stickmen with the names of each pupil on their clothes. The little stickmen were all on the E rung when we started. When the pupils received their marks on the first and second tests they would be moved up or down. When a pupil is put on the D or E rung he should stand on the dunce chair with a dunce cap.

For our art work we are making comical cats for Halloween decorations. We are entering into a Book Week Poster contest. We hope to win one of the 25 prizes.

We have a Tree of Knowledge. This Tree of Knowledge has leaf booklets for each person except the beginners. Every time a person reads a book he writes the name in his little leaflet.

We have a language wheel for the school. Between the spokes there are words printed, which are used with have, has, and had.

The sixth grade made a frieze which consisted of the life in a medieval castle. Original poems were also made about Alfred the Great.

For science the eighth grade is identifying nests and stones. Various experiments were performed by the eighth grade for the benefit of the school.

We chose a clock to represent our school code. There are hands on the clock to point to the characteristics of good citizenship that we are working on. We are working on Perseverance now. The other characteristics are Honesty, Courtesy, Cooperation, Politeness, Neatness, Loyalty, Posture, Kindness, and Cleanliness.

During morning exercises we march, do exercises, or sing. We have learned three new exercises this year. Now we can do the first six exercises which are recorded on a record.

The fourth grade have made some "good manners" books. These have what a young man should and should not do. The fifth and sixth grades have made a language notebook. These notebooks have a poem which we like; an original poem, a story of travel, and a letter to the teacher telling her what we like to do in school.

The second grade is making a notebook for Reading class. This book illustrates the life of the Pilgrims. Alice Ruhlig.

Public Acts of 1937
Will Be Huge Books

Laws cost money; the more a legislature passes, the greater the cost to print the volumes of Public Acts at the end of each session.

There are indications that copies of the 1937 Public Acts may break several records. Each of the 18,500 volumes will contain approximately 1000 pages, almost twice the size of the Public Acts of 1935. The 1937 book will include the four statutes passed at the special session of the legislature which followed the regular session immediately.

Paper for the 1937 volumes cost the state $2,439; printing and binding came to $9,985. The books for years have sold within Michigan for $1.50; postage paid. According to Leon D. Case, Secretary of State, the size of the 1937 volume may involve an increase in the customary price because of the greater costs of paper, binding and postage.

The books will be available about December 1.

WILL HOLD COURT OF HONOR
During the month of November, Courts of Honor will be held according to the following schedule:

Northern District (Livingston Co.)—Howell high school, 7:30 p. m. on Thursday, Nov. 4.

Western District (western half of Washtenaw county)—Dexter high school, 7:30 p. m., Monday, Nov. 8.

Middle District (northeast quarter of Washtenaw county)—Ann Arbor, Slauson school, Thursday, Nov. 18, at 7:30 p. m.

The Southern District Court of Honor was held in Ypsilanti on Tuesday, October 19.

At each of these Courts of Honor each Troop in that District may qualify for an award of recognition for meeting certain standards. Troops will be graded on percentage of members present, percentage of members appearing before Court for advancement, number of adult guests present, and percentage of members in uniform. There is a possible score of 400 points and any troop scoring 150 points will be given an award.

Try This Stuffing
To each cup of broken stale bread add 1/2 tablespoon chopped fat from the bird. Be sure to have the market man send the fat with the bird. If there is insufficient fat use butter, not substitutes. Add also to each cup: 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 2 teaspoons chopped celery, 1 teaspoon chopped sweet pepper pulp and 1/2 teaspoon minced parsley. To each four cups of this mixture add herbs, sage, thyme and sweet marjoram—2 teaspoons of the first and 1 teaspoon of the other if powdered and a little more if you are so fortunate as to have dried herbs. Also add one teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. This blend is recommended. Sew up stuffed cavity, bringing skin together. Fill small cavity at neck and sew the stuffing in as described.

TELEPHONE EMPLOYEES GET GOLD SERVICE EMBLEMS

Contradicting a somewhat popular belief to the effect that "people over 40 are shelved", 1023 present employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company throughout the state, whose average age is well over 40 years and most of whom anticipate several years more in the business, are receiving gold service emblems indicating their long service. They are part of 6,585 employees with two or more years' service, each, to whom a new service emblem is being distributed. One hundred and seven retired employees also receive the buttons. The presentations are being made at employee social functions.

The 1023 employees with 20 years or more service include workers in all the telephone crafts, such as clerks, cable splicers, installers, operators, linemen, accountants and so on, as well as several in high supervisory positions. In the aggregate their employment totals 27,500 years.

The Michigan Bell Company at present has in its employ 9,315 men and women, the latter being in the majority. The average length of service of all employees is 10 years, that of the 4,074 men being 12 years and that of the 5,241 women being more than eight. A total of 6,189 have served more than five years each, the company's records show. Employees in every exchange of the company are included in the latter group.

Mrs. Gladys Klumpp of Chelsea office has had 20 years of service.

The 25-year emblems will go to 298 men and women, 30-year buttons to 156, 35-year buttons to 62, eighteen will get 40-year buttons, seven the 45, and two will receive buttons indicating a half century or more of service. Both of the latter have retired.

The new service emblem is of gold and was designed by a committee of telephone employees and approved by the management of the company. It is shaped like a small bell, and bears the name "Michigan", in raised letters, with raised stars denoting each five-year service period. The buttons for the men and pins for the women who have been in service 25 years or longer also bear small diamonds.

WHAT A CARROT!
During the past week Wm. J. Beach, Jr. brought a carrot to The Standard office which weighed one pound and 15 ounces. Mr. Beach stated that he dug his carrots at night and had no trouble finding them as they were all of a large size.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield
A freshman in college was forced to discontinue her education upon her physician's orders.

This young woman was the only daughter of a highly neurotic and self imposed invalid mother. Each day during the present school term the mother had written long letters in which she vividly pictured her imagined inflictions for her daughter. As a result, the daughter worried so much over her mother's condition that she not only failed her courses but had to be placed under the supervision of a psychiatrist for observation and treatment.

Picture this beautiful GAS refrigerator in your kitchen!
YOUR own ears will tell you that Servel Electrolux differs basically from all other refrigerators—it's permanently silent! And this is more than a real advantage in itself. It means bigger savings . . . longer service for you. There is no noise, because there are no moving parts in its freezing system. And for the same reason, there is no wear, no loss of efficiency due to moving, wearing parts. A tiny gas flame does all the work in this remarkable refrigerator. It circulates the refrigerant that, unflinching, produces food-preserving cold and cubes of ice. Come in today and see the beautiful new 1937 models for yourself. Get the whole story. The more you learn about the modern gas refrigerator, the more you'll understand why owners are so enthusiastic about it.

PINCKNEY—Mr. Leobold of the Ford Motor Co. was here last week and left the deeds of the property de- signed here by the Ford Co. with the register of deeds, Frank Bush, to be made out. The Spears, Markos, and Bezek deeds are already finished and those of Mrs. C. L. Sigler, Chas. Skinn- er, Wm. and Iva Gardner, Led- wiges, S. H. Carr, Wm. and Ella Mercer are being gotten into shape. Some property owners have to go in- to court to clear their titles and this is delaying things.—Dispatch.

TECUMSEH — Attention, Frank Buck! Fred Buchelmer of Tecumseh went hunting Tuesday. He didn't see a pheasant. On his way home his dog stopped and Buchelmer looked down. He was standing on a pheasant. Buchelmer captured the bird and brought it home alive.—Herald.

HOWELL—A broken axle is said to have been the cause of a freight train wreck just west of Fowlerville on the Pere Marquette railway when 18 cars left the track about eight o'clock Saturday morning. No one was injured. The main line was blocked until evening, and trains were routed around by way of Holly to Trowbridge Junction.—County Press.

NORTHVILLE—A cool reception met three representatives of the United Automobile Workers who ap- peared in Northville Tuesday after- noon to pass out copies of the union's newspaper. Ford workmen scorned to receive the inflammatory pam- phlets, and the trio left the village early in the afternoon. The distribution was attempted at the entrance of the bank where Ford workers were being paid. Only three of the C. I. O. par- tisans were seen, including a Negro and two of foreign birth, witnesses report.—Record.

DUNDEE—A check, lost in an airplane crash last December, was re- ceived by Fay C. Carney this week. Last December, the tenth to be exact, Mr. Carney wrote a check on the Monroe County Bank and mailed it to the Colonial Dames Company at Hollywood, Calif. The check cleared through the Farmers and Merchants National Bank at Los Angeles on De- cember 16. The check never arrived in Dundee and in consequence was not posted against Mr. Carney's account here. The California firm was un- able to square the account until a duplicate was sent and payment stopped on the original. On Monday the original came to Mr. Carney with a detailed explanation. It left Los Angeles on a T. W. A. Trans-conti- nental Airliner which crashed in the Wasatch Mountains near Salt Lake City, Utah about the 18th of Decem- ber, 1936.—Reporter.

THE MARIGOLD'S FAREWELL (Sequel to My Autumn Flower) The last to bow its tiny head, Beneath the frost and snow, And whisper kind farewells to all its friends, before it go.

The last to feel its chilly breath, And smile a sweet good-bye, While rustling leaves and winter wind Their funeral dirges sigh.

Its resurrection day will come, With Springtime bright with cheer, And thus with sweeter, happier smile, Will bring to all, good cheer.

Thus Life, and Death, and Life again; Seem's God's good will to man; We catch the Resurrection view, And praise Him for His Plan.

to Cook With Electricity! Why the Housewife Wants

It is CLEAN. No smoke, no soot, no blackened pots and pans, no soiled walls and curtains. It is COOL. The heat is used to cook the food, not to cook the cook. It is HEALTHFUL. No fumes, no products of combustion in the kitchen atmosphere. Tastier, better cooked meats and vegetables. It is ECONOMICAL. Not only is the cost of operation reason- able in comparison to other methods, but there are many other savings such as less shrinkage of roasts. It is MODERN. Nearly every housewife would like to have an All-Electric Kitchen. It is SAFE. No matches, no flame, no chance for tragic burns or asphyxiation. It is FAST. Modern electric ranges will cook as quickly as any other type of range—for some operations they are faster. It is TIME SAVING. Less bother, less watching and with the timer control meals can be cooked while the housewife is away from home. It is ACCURATE. The electric range accurate tempera- ture control makes possible absolutely uniform results. It is SIMPLE. Electric Cooking is now the easiest and simplest way to cook.

Safety Education is a very impor- tant item in our schools today. It should be taught to all classes. Teach- ing or preaching safety, however, is not enough. If the only thing a child gets out of safety education is a bun- dle of facts he can recite to the teach- er or visitors, I don't believe we have taught him a thing. He must "do" what he is being taught—he must do what people preach to him. A fam- ous author once said "I have quit trying to be good, but I have not quit trying to do good." That is the thought. Cultivate safe habits in the children through safety education. Safety education must, of course, be based on intelligence, facts, and ideals, but it must have coupled with that desirable and safe habits. Safety education is a conception of life or a state of mind. It must, how- ever, at the same time create a ma- chine or a thought for building effi- cient and safe conduct.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—We speak of a flock of sheep, a herd of cattle, a gang of boys. Now, what I want to know is what is the term for a number of girls?
Ans.—A bevy of girls.

Ques.—Can you answer why hot water cleans things better than cold water does?
Ans.—One of the principal reasons is that particles of dirt are often stuck fast to your skin or other objects by little films or dabs of grease. Hot water softens this grease so that the dirt is more easily washed off.

Ques.—Why was Kiki Cuyler, one time a Pittsburgh Pirate star, released to Chicago?
Ans.—Kiki Cuyler's release was not an unconditional one. It was a trade deal in which the Chicago Cubs were sorely in need of another outstanding outfielder and Pittsburg had a surplus. Pittsburg was given Earl Adams and Floyd Scott in the exchange. This deal was made in 1927.

Ques.—Is it true that prehistoric man ate horseflesh? How do we know?
Ans.—Yes, it is true. Many thousands of bones in the caves and camp sites of prehistoric man have been found showing teeth marks where they have been gnawed, while others were split open to get at the marrow. The bones were definitely identified as the bones of horses.

Ques.—To settle an argument will you kindly state if there is a county seat in Illinois that has no railroad?
Ans.—Elizabethtown, county seat of Hardin county, and with a population of 488 (1930 census) has no railroad. However, the village is located on the banks of the Ohio river, and a railroad on the Kentucky side serves the county with ferry transportation, as Hardin county has no railroad within its limits.

Ques.—Does light have weight?
Ans.—According to the Einstein theory, light has weight. But it is so small that it would take an ordinary electric lamp about two million years to produce one ounce of light.

Ques.—Are the Nazis of Germany and the Fascists of Italy the same?
Ans.—Not exactly. They are the same in their fundamental principles.

Ques.—I wish to ask you why the Bible is called "bible"?
Ans.—The word "bible" is derived from the mediaeval Latin, in the singular number, and means "book". The Greek form of the word is plural and means "books".

Ques.—At what period of time were foreigners totally excluded from Japan?
Ans.—In Japan the policy of exclusion was rigidly pursued from 1638 A. D. to 1853 A. D., when Commander Perry of the United States navy was the first white man to steam into a Japanese harbor. He succeeded in making a treaty with Japan, and quickly sixteen other nations followed the American example, and free ports were opened.

Ques.—What does "R. S. V. P." mean which we occasionally see on letters?
Ans.—Those are the initials of the French "Repondez s'il vous plait", meaning "Please reply."

Ques.—What is the most popular song of all time? And who wrote it?
Ans.—"Home, Sweet Home," which has been translated into nearly every known language of the civilized world. The song was written by John Howard Payne of New York, who was born in 1792 and died in 1852.

Ques.—Do the Irish, Scotch and Welsh people have their native language? Or do they speak English?
Ans.—They speak English. The native language is spoken to a limited extent in the west of Ireland and in the mountain regions of Scotland and Wales.

TELEPHONE SERVICE HAS INCREASED IN VALUE; RATES HAVE DECREASED

Michigan today is enjoying really remarkable values in telephone service.

The Company's material and labor costs have increased substantially since reductions in rates were made in 1934, 1935 and 1936. In 1934 rates for service to farmers and for long distance service were reduced; in 1935 the long distance night rate was made effective at 7 o'clock every night and was extended to all day every Sunday; in 1936 further reductions were made in the rates for long distance and for various other services and items of equipment, and the charges for installing and moving telephones were drastically cut.

At the same time the average individual's income has improved, and prices asked for many other items and services have gone up.

Yet telephone service is still available at the reduced rates; the quality of the service never was higher; and its value to the community is increasing daily, as indicated by the increasing number of calls made per telephone.

The Hi-Light

Edited By The PUPILS OF THE CHELSEA PUBLIC SCHOOL

Editorial

How many times have you had to sharpen pencils for the girls in study hall within about a ten-foot radius? Possibly you haven't had the very disagreeable pleasure of doing this, but I can well imagine most of you have. How would you like it if a boy started to go sharpen his pencil, and the boy next to him said "Aw why sharpen it yourself? Louise or Ann, or whatever her name is, will sharpen it for you." I don't think it would be very pleasant for you, and it isn't very pleasant for us boys to have a girl ask us to sharpen her pencil for her every five or ten minutes. I think the girls are just as capable of using their own legs to get to the pencil sharpener as the boys. I have heard that the girls would like to be put in a state of equality with the boys, so let them sharpen their own pencils. It may help to put them there. Courtesy may be alright but chivalry can be overdone.

Assembly

On Tuesday the Sophomores gave a play called "Pepping Up the P. T. A." during the activity period. The characters involved:

Abby Applejack—Barbara Schenk.
Bertha Butterball—Arlene Martin.
Cora Chatterbox—Mary Sullivan.
Emma Eatmore—Geraldine Carr.
Dina Dewberry—Peggy Diecker.
Mrs. Guggieberger—Eunice Hart.
Mrs. Hensen—Joan Walworth.
Jane Chatterbox—Gertrude Koch.
Ida Chatterbox—Edna Steinaway.
Felicia Fiddlesticks—Valerie Lehman.

This play took place at one of the meetings of the "P. T. A. Club." At this meeting the members were trying to think up some way to get their husbands to come to their next meeting. They thought of several things but they were all overruled. Finally they decided to give a play.

The play was enjoyed by all and we hope to have the Sophomores in charge of another assembly soon.

Here and There

What was Chet's car doing at M. J. R.'s house most all Saturday night? Chet, the apple season is over.

Did you also know that Fritz and Wilfred were with Mary Jane Saturday night? Lary, you better change your working hours.

Who were the two Senior boys who vacated a certain "Model T" to ride merrily away in a "37" Plymouth Friday night? This certain Model T is equipped with a cow bell.

We know that Onie will become President of the United States someday, because he's at the "white house" every night.

Who was more interested in that certain East street party Saturday night, Stuart or Ralph? Or was it Jim B.? We wonder.

Speaking of parties, what was the excitement at Jimmy's Saturday night?

Betty F.'s favorite song is "If I Can't Get You I'll Get Your Brother." But what about that certain Senior?

The Second Bell

By Margaret Harper

Bang! Doors fly open! Boys and girls rush out. The locker room is jammed. The second bell has rung and everyone acts as if he had only one-half minute to get home at noon. A girl running bumps into a half dozen people and never looks at them. A teacher gets squashed. Slam! Crash! The locker doors are shut and people go rushing out of the building.

It isn't quite as bad as this in between classes but it is bad enough. You don't have to hurry, especially if you are going to get home within five minutes. Dinner won't be ready anyway. In between classes there is less excuse. Four minutes is plenty of time for you to get from one class to another.

If people would take their time and not crowd or push, they would get home alright and wouldn't feel as though they had been through a pressing machine. The time used for being courteous will save feelings and looks in the ends.

Courtesy, more often than not, pays well.

What Would Happen If

Mr. Cameron didn't pace the 50-yard line during a football game.

John Fletcher's chest sagged.

Chelsea won a football game.

Joan Walworth's "wash" was tucked in.

Larry Tisch didn't boss M. J. R.

Martha Barber didn't tear around.

Duane Weiss didn't "noodle" in the band.

Miss Gibson weren't so considerate.

Anna Schumaker didn't wear brown.

"Pap" didn't wear something new every day.

Eavesdropping

We hear there was a "hot time" in the old town Saturday night on West Middle street.

Why was a certain Junior "woman-hater" pacing round the block all by his lonesome last Wednesday evening?

From all appearances, Bud R. is making rapid progress. Or are we mistaken, Bud?

Why were those five popular girls late for the football game at Milan on Friday afternoon? You guess!

Debate

The Chelsea debate team had the pleasure of going to Detroit on Monday afternoon to hear Wayne University debate on the same subject which local teams have chosen for this year.

Our team has a scheduled debate with Tecumseh some time next week.

Elementary News

First Grade

Our teacher read us a Halloween story last week. The nurse asked us not to have a party so we had Jack-o-Lanterns instead to make us happy.

We are going to have a Thanksgiving party. Jane Merrill wrote two poems about Halloween, but she isn't here just now. Phyllis Stoll is out of school with scarlet fever. We hope you'll be better soon, Phyllis.

Our teacher reads us stories every day and she asks us questions about them. We enjoy having her read them.

Second Grade

Mary Bell Lantis brought us a splendid hornet's nest. Her father had carefully made away with the insects however so that we were not afraid of it.

Junior Niehaus brought us a chrysanthemum worm. He lives on the leaves of the flower.

The nurse came in to look at our throats last week. Second Grade had a good record; no signs of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Paul, Wilma's mother, came in to see us last Thursday.

Thelma Joseph has gone to Manchester to live. She was a good little worker and we'll miss her.

Fourth Grade

Last Thursday we invited the third grade to our room to tell them about the Belgian Congo. Each one of us told about the thing he had made. Barbara Eaton made up a poem about Bombo and gave it at the end of the program.

Leroy's mother visited school last Monday.

Robert Faber brought his brother from Ann Arbor to visit us.

We've started our collection for a museum. Edwin Lantis brought a wasp's nest which we found very interesting.

Thora Hill brought a large rock of quartz which was brought from Washington, D. C.

Barbara Eaton brought some latex, the milk from the rubber tree, and mixed it with vinegar to show us how it changes into a solid ball of rubber.

Last Friday was the first day that everyone had a perfect record on our Clean Hands chart.

Eleven people have an "A" on the poem chart for saying correctly the poem "My Health House."

We've enjoyed having the nurse come into our room each day to check our health.

Sixth Grade

Thomas Aldrich is back with us and Eva Harris was sent home Friday but she is back with us today.

We are having a final test in our study of the British Isles. We are putting names of some of the cities on it.

Eleanor Harper and Doris Collins gave a report on flax in Geography. Doris drew a picture of the plant itself. In Reading we read a story about Bob-Whites. We have learned that the Bob-White is a very useful bird.

In Music we are studying about a composer by the name of Beethoven.

Virginia Spaulding gave a report on the tobacco plant and showed a dried plant. We enjoyed the report very much.

Washington Was First to Proclaim Thanksgiving Day But Thank a Woman for Keeping It Alive.

ARGUMENT about the origin of Thanksgiving day in the United States has been going on, in these many years. There are several answers, and which of them is correct depends entirely upon the point of view.

We think of Thanksgiving usually as an institution begun by the Pilgrims. Without a doubt it was the Pilgrims who were the first group of American people to cease work to observe a day of thanksgiving.

It was George Washington, as President, who proclaimed the first national Thanksgiving day.

It was Sarah Josepha Hale, editor of Godey's Lady's Book, who fought for many years to have the national holiday revived as a regular annual celebration.

It was President Abraham Lincoln who issued the first national Thanksgiving proclamation since Jefferson, reviving a practice that has been observed each year ever since by whatever President who happened to be in office.

America's first official national Thanksgiving day occurred on November 29, 1789; or 168 years after Bradford's call upon the Pilgrims to give thanks. President Washington proclaimed it at the request of a joint committee of both houses of congress who beseeched him to declare a day of thanks for the favors of God bestowed upon the new republic.

In his proclamation President Washington said: "Now therefore do I recommend to the people of the United States a Day of Thanksgiving . . . that we then may unite in thanking unto Him our humble thanks for His kind care and protection of this country previous to its becoming a nation . . . for the favorable interposition of His Providence in the course and conclusion of the late war; for the great degree of tranquility, union and plenty which we have since enjoyed; for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government . . . for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed . . . and also that we may then unite and beseech Him . . . to promote virtue, knowledge and the increase of science among us."

Several more Thanksgiving day proclamations were made in the following years; then under Jefferson they were forgotten. But those sentiments of Washington's original proclamation became a creed generations later to Sarah Josepha Hale, editor of the highly influential Godey's Lady's Book, the magazine with the quaint and colorful fashion plates which today decorate lamp shades and hang in picture frames in thousands of homes.

This cultured, energetic little woman devoted a large share of her time to her plan to make Thanksgiving day an annual national holiday. She wrote literally thousands of personal letters to governors urging that their states unite in observing a Thanksgiving day. She foresaw the coming of the Civil war, and she looked upon a national Thanksgiving day, uniformly celebrated by all of the states, as conducive toward peace.

But it was not until after the war had started that she succeeded in obtaining a Presidential proclamation from Abraham Lincoln.

A national proclamation has gone forth in each of the 74 years since that time. If we are happy about it, let us give thanks this Thanksgiving to the far-seeing editor of Godey's Lady's Book.

THANKSGIVING TALKIES

The Inquiring Reporter, armed with pad, pencil and camera, asks famous people of the show world

THE QUESTION

How do you like best to spend Thanksgiving day?

CHARLIE MCCARTHY, the only young man in America who is dummy enough to take wooden nickels: "Ah, Thanksgiving, how I love Thanksgiving! There's so much to be thankful for, too, this year. Last year Bergen was too broke to buy me a dinner and I went to bed awful-hungry, but we're in the money now—thanks to me. I've already asked Dorothy Lamour to dinner. Of course Dot can have whatever she wants. I'll start with a whitewash cocktail to kill some of those termites W. C. Fields has been sacking on me; then I'll have a bowl of shavings in milk and an oak leaf salad with sap-dressing. After that, a slice of oak log well singed over the fireplace, and for dessert—ah! some fresh air and sunshine in Bergen's new car with Miss Lamour at my side! And at eventide home to show Miss Lamour my magic lantern slides of my great ancestor, John Alden McCarthy."

CHARLIE MCCARTHY

Bob Burns, hill-billy comedian of screen and radio, bazooka blower de luxe and philosopher plenipotentiary: "Thanksgivin' dinner is a real institution down in Arkansas, and I only wish I could be down there this year. See in as how I ain't likely to be able to get away from Hollywood, I'm plannin' to invite Aunt Kezzy Moomaw, Uncle Orchie, Uncle Chig, Aunt Poody, Cousin Labe, Uncle Slug, Cousin Hod and Grandpaw and Grandmaw Snelson out here to eat with me. Speakin' of Grandmaw Snelson, she was the first one to teach me the real meanin' of bein' thankful. She figured we all had somethin' to be thankful for. 'Why, I ain't got but two teeth in my head,' she'd say, 'but I'm mighty thankful, especially on Thanksgivin' day, because they meet.'"

BOB BURNS

I know Grandmaw'll enjoy the potflicker I plan to have, whether or not she can get the enjoyment out of the razorback ham.

HELEN JEPSON, beautiful soprano of the Metropolitan and the Chicago City Opera: "My days are ordinarily so carefully planned and faithfully executed that I have no time at all to play cook. But I love to cook, and on Thanksgiving day I dismiss the servants and really do the cooking. It is always turkey, cranberries, sweet potatoes and pumpkin pie. And while I am cooking George (my husband) is busy carving the pumpkin which is our centerpiece. Sally, my little daughter, loves it, and George always carves two faces on the pumpkin. One side is a smiling face which Sally sees while she is eating, and then when the last bite of dinner has been eaten George turns the pumpkin around and there it is—the face that hurts because it ate too much!"

HELEN JEPSON

George (my husband) is busy carving the pumpkin which is our centerpiece. Sally, my little daughter, loves it, and George always carves two faces on the pumpkin. One side is a smiling face which Sally sees while she is eating, and then when the last bite of dinner has been eaten George turns the pumpkin around and there it is—the face that hurts because it ate too much!"

Family Skeleton

The news in pictures up to the minute, that's us! And even before the minute, if possible? For instance, if we're not getting too gruesome, here is a picture of that Thanksgiving turkey as it will look along about November 30. This will be after the family has been surfeited upon turkey hash, turkey croquettes, turkey soup, turkey salad, turkey sandwiches, turkey creamed on toast and turkey heaven-knows-what, until they hope to goodness they never see a turkey again—until Christmas, that is.

NO LABOR PEACE YET

A. F. of L. and C. I. O. Reject Each Other's Proposals . . . Japs Drive Back Chinese . . . Will Not Attend Parley

The news camera man took his life in his hands to secure this excellent photograph of Japanese "mopping up" operations in the Chapel district of Shanghai. "Mopping up" is the military euphemistic term for stamping out whatever life is left after the artillery bombardment has done its work.

Edward W. Pickard SUMMARIZES THE WORLD'S WEEK

Japs Mobbed in Frisco

FIVE eminent Japanese citizens, sent out on a good will mission to the world, arrived at San Francisco and were at once besieged on their steamship by a howling mob which struggled with the police for two hours.

The demonstration was sponsored by the district council of the Maritime Federation of the Pacific, comprised of seagoing unions affiliated with the Committee for Industrial Organization. But about a third of the crowd was comprised of Chinese, who streamed out from the city's vast Chinatown to vent their rage at things and persons Japanese.

Labor Parley Deadlock

LEADERS of the American Federation of Labor and the C. I. O. couldn't get anywhere in their peace conference in Washington. So they adjourned temporarily, and some of them said the parley might not be resumed.

George M. Harrison, head of the federation delegation, said that unless the C. I. O. attitude changed there was no prospect of peace.

Both sides had made offers, but these were scornfully rejected by the opponents.

The A. F. of L. proposed that the fate of the C. I. O. affiliates organized since the split be decided at an immediate conference between representatives of organizations chartered by the A. F. of L. and organizations chartered by the C. I. O. and which may be in conflict with each other, for the purpose of bringing about an adjustment to bring the membership into the A. F. of L. on terms and conditions mutually agreeable.

This clause of the federation proposal brought a denunciation from Philip Murray, chairman of the ten-man C. I. O. peace committee, who asserted that it asked "desertion and betrayal" of these unions.

The C. I. O. proposal was that its unions should return to the federation and that a new autonomous department should be created, to be known as the C. I. O., to have complete and sole jurisdiction over its policies and operations. This plan represented no concessions.

John L. Lewis called Murray and others into a strategy meeting to consider whether a new proposal for a truce should be offered by the C. I. O.

James Dewey, Labor department conciliator, and Senator George L. Berry of Tennessee were busy trying to find a way to peace. The position of President Roosevelt was unknown, but it was believed he would continue his hands-off policy.

Japs Smash Chinese

JAPAN officially declined the invitation to the nine-power treaty conference in Brussels, and her forces went ahead fast in their operations in China. They had been checked by a desperate stand of the Chinese defenders of Shanghai, but launched a new offensive that forced the Chinese to abandon Shanghai, the native section, and fall back to a new line to the west of the international settlement. There they entrenched with their backs to the Soochow creek on the other side of which were the United States Marines. These American troops had orders from Admiral Yarnell to shoot at any planes attacking them or at non-combatants.

The British troops in Shanghai had similar orders, and the international tension was brought nearer to the breaking point when a Japanese tank fired on a British infantry detachment of which Brig. Gen. A. P. D. Telfer-Sollett, British commander in chief, was a member. A few days before a Japanese machine-gunner in a plane had killed a British soldier.

In refusing to send a delegate to Brussels the Japanese government said the conference was inspired by the League of Nations and would "put serious obstacles in the path of the just and proper solution of the conflict."

Steiner to Retire

TWENTY years of public service is enough for Senator Frederick Steiner of Oregon, Republican. He has announced that he will not seek re-election next year, but will return to the practice of law. Steiner was the keynoter of the Republican national convention of 1924.

Mussolini's Bold Talk

NEARLY a million Italians gathered in Rome to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the Fascist march on the Eternal City, and heard Mussolini declare that bolshevism must be driven out of Europe, meaning primarily that the rebels must win the Spanish civil war. Among the invited guests was a delegation from Nazi Germany, and for their benefit Duce asserted vigorously that Germany must obtain colonies, peacefully or otherwise.

"The motto of the sixteenth Fascist year is peace," shouted Mussolini. "There has been much use and abuse of this word by the beating of the so-called reactionary democracies. But when it comes from our lips—the lips of those who have fought and who are ready to fight against this word attains its real, solemn, original, human definition. Because to obtain a durable, lasting peace it is necessary to eliminate bolshevism from Europe. It is necessary that some absurd clauses of the treaties of peace be revised. It is necessary that great peoples like the German people have again the place to which they are entitled, and which they once had, under the African sun. The presence of the official Nazi delegation, led by Rudolph Hess, deputy leader of the party, demonstrated the ever closer political bond uniting the two people," Mussolini said.

Chautemps Gives Warning

IF THE necessity arises, France is prepared and ready to employ force in defense of her vital interests. At the same time she offers peace to all nations.

"That will prove by their acts their desire to keep their engagements loyally." Such was the warning, evidently directed especially to Italy and Germany, which Premier Camille Chautemps uttered before a congress of the central federation of his Radical Socialist party.

"I hope especially in the grievous affair of Spain this pacific, prudent, and courageous action will succeed in cutting short the violations of justice which cannot be renewed without constraining France and Britain to renew their liberty of action," Chautemps said.

The premier's declaration recalled French insistence that unless the nonintervention committee soon pulled foreign troops out of Spain France would open her frontier to aid the Spanish government.

Franco's Progress

GENERALISSIMO FRANCO, having completed his conquest of Gijon and the rest of the loyalist territory in northwest Spain, began moving his insurgent forces eastward to the Aragon front, where his officers said the "decisive offensive of the war" would be begun.

The loyalist government moved from Valencia to Barcelona.

Windsor Talks of Trip

THE duke of Windsor, speaking at a dinner of the Anglo-American Press association in Paris, said that he wanted to make it clear that "in any journey I have undertaken or may plan in the future, I do so as a completely independent observer without political considerations of any sort or kind and entirely on my own initiative."

He added that "I am a very happily married man, but my wife and I are neither content nor willing to lead a purely inactive life of leisure. We hope and feel that in due course the experience we gain from our travels will enable us, if given fair treatment, to make some contributions as private individuals to solving some of the vital problems that beset the world today."

Noted Editor Dead

DEATH chose a shining mark when it removed George Horace Lorimer, retired editor of the Saturday Evening Post. He succumbed to pneumonia at his home in Wycoffe, Pa. Honorary pallbearers at his funeral included former President Herbert Hoover and other men distinguished in public life. Mr. Lorimer became editor in chief of the Saturday Evening Post in 1899 and developed it from an obscure weekly to its high position in its field.

Ecuador Coup de Etat

GEN. ALBERTO ENRIQUEZ, war minister of Ecuador, and officers of the army executed a coup d'etat which forced Provisional President Federico Paez to resign and leave the country. Enriquez at once assumed power as "supreme chief" with a cabinet composed largely of army officers. He decreed the establishment of a popular tribunal to deal with persons accused of tampering with public funds and announced "a national political purge." The people accepted the change of government quietly.

John Roosevelt to Wed

MR. ROOSEVELT HAVEN CLARK of Boston announced that her daughter, Anne Lindsay Clark, and John Roosevelt, youngest son of the President, will be married in Nahant, Mass., next June, shortly after Mr. Roosevelt is graduated from Harvard.
