Golden Anniversary Observed on Thursday

An anniversary dinner, served at 2:30 on Thanksgiving day at Westwood Inn, Jackson, honored Mr. and Mrs. John Kalmbach of Chelsea, in celebration of their golden wedding. The wedding cake centering the table bore decorations of gold and white and on either side were yellow tapers tied with gold ribbon. To the place cards were attached bebe chrysanthemums bowed with gold.

Guests at the dinner included Dr. and Mrs. Roland Kalmbach and children of Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Rutan and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wolf of Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Freeman and son of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Kalmbach of Fort Wayne, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lutz of Waterloo, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Notten, Miss Ricka Kalmbach, Mrs. Tina Riemenschneider, Mrs. Mary Kalmbach and Mrs. Adam Kalmbach, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Alber of Chelsea.

Following the dinner a social afternoon was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rutan.

Mr. Kalmbach has been a lifelong resident of this vicinity, and was born in Sylvan township. Following his graduation from the Detroit College of Law, he was admitted to the Bar, and opened a law office in Chelsea, which he discontinued in March, 1934, on account of failing health.

A lifelong Republican, Mr. Kalmbach served as representative in the State Legislature in the year 1911. He is a director of the Chelsea State Bank, and a former member of the Board of Education.

Mrs. Kalmbach was formerly Cora Lutz, a resident of Waterloo township.

For 36 years Mr. and Mrs. Kalmbach have made their home in Chelsea. They have three sons and two daughters: Dr. Roland Kalmbach of Lansing, Lloyd Kalmbach of West Englewood, N. J., Leland Kalmbach of Fort Wayne, Ind., Mrs. Minola Rutan of Jackson, and Mrs. Ethel Freeman of Ann Arbor. There are six grandchildren.

Curriculum Revision Advised By Elliott

Lansing—Curriculum revision in secondary schools is highly essential because of changing economic and social conditions, Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, announced here following a conference of the state curriculum revision committee. Dr. Elliott plans to submit a preliminary curriculum revision program to Michigan secondary school principals at a gathering here Dec. 9-10.

"Life is so complex today that secondary schools must of necessity alter their courses of study to cope with the situation," Dr. Elliott declared. "Schools have been too far away from life itself. We find that high school enrollments contain thousands of boys and girls who have no desire to go on to college but intend to start out in life as soon as they complete their high school course. To meet the situation squarely, we must alter the secondary program so as to turn out useful citizens. We must offer them greater opportunity to develop themselves in high schools. Years ago most high school students were preparing for college work. Today we find 70 per cent of the boys and girls of high school age, attending high school. This is much higher than it was 20 years ago, and is an indication of what educators are confronted with in regard to curriculum revision work."

The state curriculum revision committee is busy at the task of formulating a program under which the revision may be undertaken. It is being assisted financially by the General Education Board of New York City.

Red Cross Drive Will Close Next Tuesday

Officers of the local Red Cross chapter announce that the house to house membership drive has been completed. They state, however, that many persons were not at home when the canvass was made and did not have the opportunity to contribute to this worthy cause.

Those who were not solicited, either in the village or in the surrounding territory, who wish to contribute to the fund, may leave money at the Chelsea State Bank anytime until Tuesday, December 7, when the drive will come to a close.

The response so far has been very generous and it is hoped there will be many other contributions during the next few days.

Announcing TWO NEW FORD V-8 CARS FOR 1938

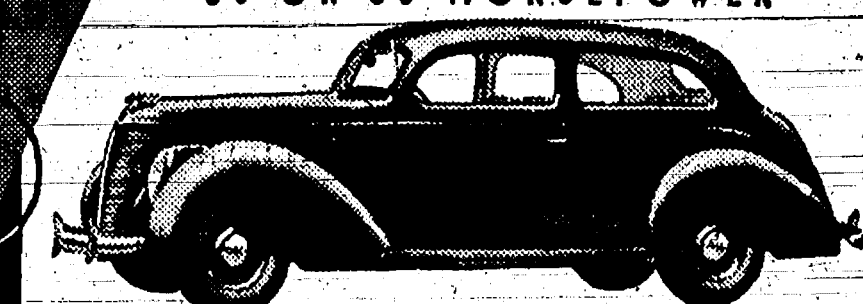

THE DE LUXE
65 HORSEPOWER

DE LUXE FORD V-8 . . . 112" wheelbase; 85-horsepower engine; Improved Easy-Action Safety Brakes; Center-Poise Ride; All-steel body; Mohair or Broadcloth upholstery; Walnut-finished trim; Twin horns, tail lights, sun visors; Clock; 600" black tires, white side-walls are extra; 8 body types; 6 colors.

THE STANDARD
60 OR 85 HORSEPOWER

STANDARD FORD V-8 . . . 112" wheelbase; 85 or 60 horsepower engine; Improved Easy-Action Safety Brakes; Center-Poise Ride; All-steel body; Broadcloth or Mohair upholstery; Mohair extra in "60"; Mahogany-finished trim; One tail light, sun visor; Twin horns; 3 body types; 3 colors.

FORD offers two new cars for 1938 — the Standard Ford V-8 and the De Luxe Ford V-8. They are different in appearance — but built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence — on the same chassis.

Because people liked our 1937 car so well, they bought more than of any other make. They liked its looks, its smooth performance, and the way it handled. We have improved on that car in the newly styled Standard Ford V-8.

But some folks wanted still more size and style, with the same Ford advantages. For them, we designed a new De Luxe line. The De Luxe Ford V-8 Sedans are longer with more room, larger luggage space, and finer appointments all around.

De Luxe cars are equipped with the 85-horsepower engine only.

The Standard is even lower-priced than the De Luxe. It has graceful new lines and well-tailored interiors — with a choice of engine sizes — 85 or 60 horsepower.

Before Ford made V-type 8-cylinder engines available to every one, they were used only in expensive cars. Since then, four million Ford owners have learned the genuine enjoyment of driving an eight-cylinder car with all-around economy. The thrifty "60" engine, especially, makes possible in Standard models a very low first cost and equally low operating cost. With two distinct designs, two engine sizes and two price ranges, you'll find a 1938 Ford car to fit your needs exactly.

PRICES FOR CARS DELIVERED IN DETROIT—TAXES EXTRA

Assemblies

During the past two weeks the student body has witnessed some very entertaining assemblies.

Mr. Johnson has arranged with the University of Michigan to have various foreign students come and speak to us for our assemblies.

Our first representative was Emilio Gallo, formerly from Spain, who gave a very interesting and educational resume of the present situation in Spain and also answered questions concerning Spain. From this speech we obtained much information which previously we did not feel sure of concerning the Spanish war.

This week we heard Walter Galsen, a young man from Germany. His talk on "German Youth" was especially interesting to all of us. We were given very good descriptions of the German schools and social life.

Last but not least was an assembly entirely different from the two previous ones. We were shown movies warning us against tuberculosis and showing the importance of the test and X-rays which the students of the Chelsea school will be given.

An Open Letter

Mr. Stu. Body,
Chelsea High School,
Chelsea, Mich.

Dear Stu:

It was very interesting going through your school last week and I would surely like to go there all the time.

But there is one criticism I have. It's about those class meetings. I noticed that when anyone had anything to say they stood up and said it. Consequently there was a lot of noise all the time and no one got anywhere. It seems to me that you could cooperate a little more. And I also noticed that that thing you called a teacher wasn't much more than an ornament. (I could think of things I would rather have). She stood up there and put her two cents worth in just as much as anyone but from what you told me she was supposed to. At least she was amusing. Does she do it all the time?

I really don't see any use for either the president or the teacher if that is the way all class meetings are. In fact I can't see the reason for having them unless your lungs need exercising. If you would try, I think it would be possible to have a meeting that would be more than just a free-for-all.

Well, Stu, I don't imagine your English teacher would call this an ideal letter but it's what I really think. I hope that I may visit you again soon.

I remain, your friend?

Eavesdropping

If you desire any information concerning Percy, ask Janet.

What is this we hear about that tall, dark boy from Ann Arbor who still lingers in Betty Boyce's heart? Can it be that true love never dies?

It seems to be a pastime of Hummel's to pick up certain Senior boys from a certain Model T.

L. Dean Steinaway seems to think he's really getting up in the world since he had the chance to wear a gold bracelet belonging to the Senior girl he considers his ideal.

Can it be somebody in Wayne who is the reason for R. Riemschneider's frequent visit to the post office?

How To Write An Editorial

First you must find a pencil (a pencil is necessary) and a piece of paper. Pick them up carefully and lay them gently on the table. Draw up an easy chair and settle down. Write your name at the top of the page in large letters. Then of course you must have a subject. Choose one that is not too general and that not much may be written about for a good short editorial is better than a bad long one. Or is it? A few such subjects are: The People of the World; A Year in School; Prison, or such. For a very short article you might review a short book, as "Gone With the Wind."

Be sure that your subject will interest men, women and children. Some subjects on this line would be: Why Crooked Pictures Bother Crooks, How Pickles Retain Their Sweet Dispositions, etc.

Of course you would not use any of my titles so you must think up your own. I have found that the best way to think is the Chong Fu Method invented by the Englishman, Rasky Korsopovitch.

This method is to place your elbow upon the table, the arm pointing toward the ceiling. Lay your head upon your extended palm and think.

When you wake up you will probably have forgotten all about writing the editorial which is more than likely best for all concerned. Don't you think so? Or do you?

Girls' Gym Class

It appears that even though there is not going to be a girls' basketball team this year, there is going to be a means by which the girls can get their needed exercise.

Once a week each class troops merrily to the gym for 45 minutes of play. So far we have been chiefly practicing "Soccer". I think it will prove to be a very inspiring game for all of us when we really catch on to the technique.

Kindergarten

We are making a Mother Goose book and we are learning the songs about each rhyme.

We are getting our room ready for Thanksgiving. We have made turkeys, pumpkins, pilgrims and other things for Thanksgiving.

Several of our little people have been absent. Some of them have returned. We will be glad when the others come back.

We have a doll house which we are making. Danny Maroney is our paper hanger and Jean McClure and Phyllis Munro are making curtains for us.

The furniture in our room needs repainting so we are fixing it and putting new cloth on it.

Nonder Morea and Helen Eschelbach have had perfect attendance so far this year.

First Grade

Ruth Bycraft has returned to school today. We have enjoyed the snowflake books this week. The kindergarten and second grade came to see our automobile show. We showed Chrysler, Plymouth, Ford V-8, Hudson, Graham, tractors, Ford and Chevrolet pickups. Our guests returned to their rooms driving cars.

Warren Aldrich ran into Mrs. Robbins. That was the only accident that happened. We went to the library on Wednesday and saw some nice new books, a lovely little play and learned how we should treat books.

Some of us got some books. There is a group of five reading out of the Elson book. Doris Gilson, Mary Jane Jarvis, Helen Jarvis and Mary Kay Palmer read to us some stories from their library books.

Third Grade

We are working on a unit called Cave People and the First Villages. Mr. Gentner found us a sand table in the basement. Murray got us some nice sand for it. We are building a cave in the sand. A Lake Village is going up over the water in the sand table. Paul and Marceline are constructing a cave of cardboard boxes and soaked newspaper stuck on with glue. Marceline drew a fine picture of a mammoth too. Patty brought her doll dressed as a cave child. Bragdon made a hunting spear. Bobby D. made a harpoon, spear, and a knife. Henry brought some arrow heads which are going to be turned into spears. Paul and Marceline each made a clay dish used by the Lake People. Robert O. brought sticks to make the Lake Village with. Mrs. Dancer loaned us two books, "The Cave Twins" by Perkins, and "The Later Cave Men" by Dopp.

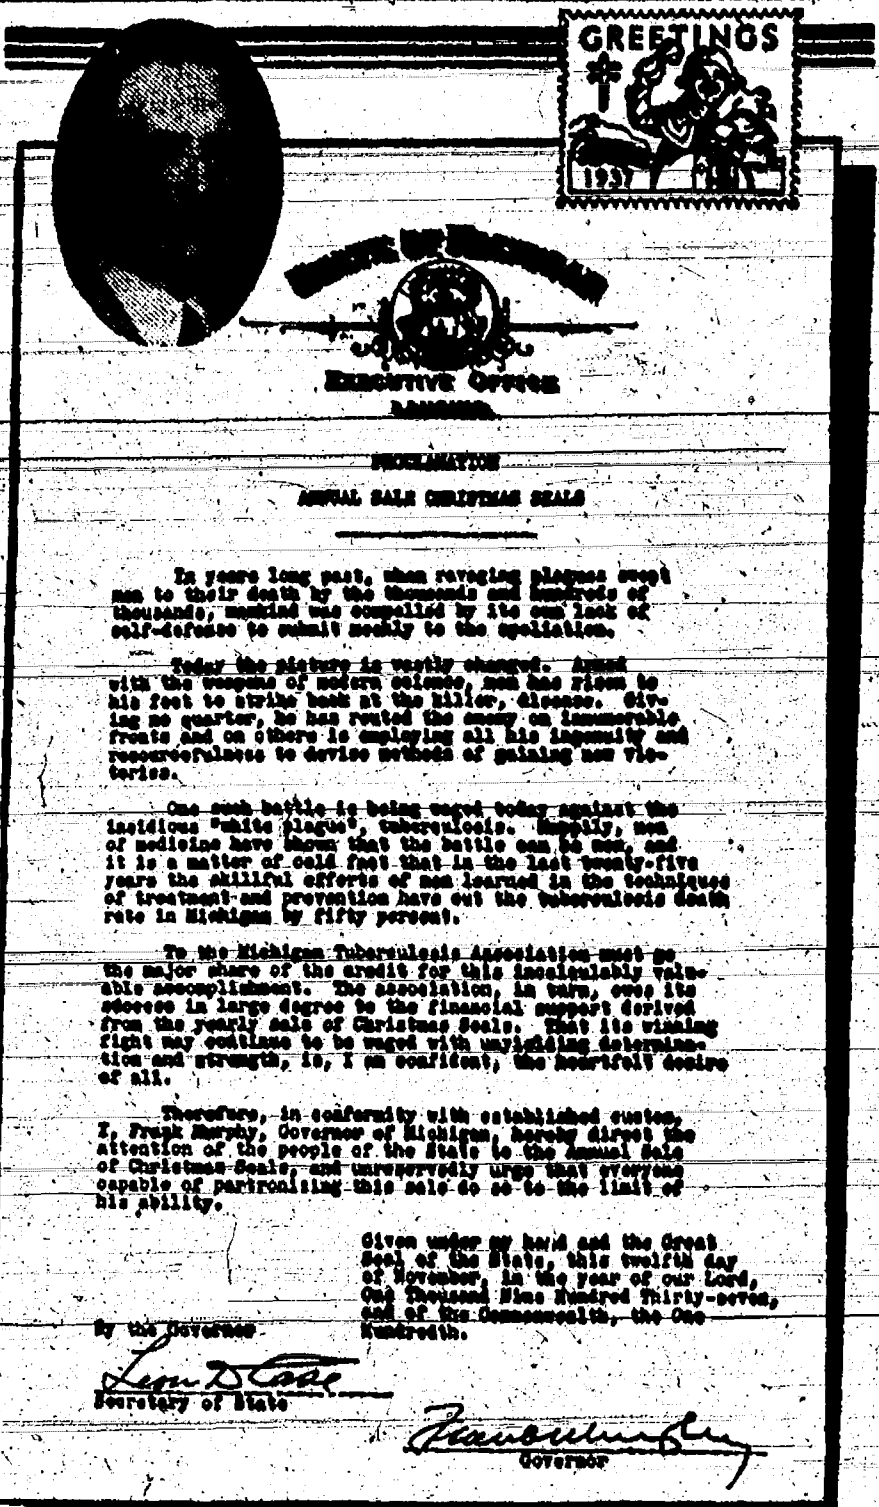

Fourth Grade

Last Friday we elected officers for our Diamond Health club. Barbara E. was re-elected president again; Shirley Jean P. was elected vice-president; and Leroy M. for secretary. Barbara Eaton has four stars on the poem chart. The last poem was "The Wonderful World."

We made book posters last week for Book Week. Some of us had a

Christmas Seal Sale Endorsed by Governor

ABOVE IS A facsimile of a proclamation issued this week by Governor Frank Murphy, urging that Michigan people make a generous purchase of tuberculosis Christmas seals. More than $5,000,000 of the tiny messengers of health are being distributed in the state this year by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association and affiliated agencies. Funds raised will be used to carry the fight against the white plague in 1938. The sale opens on Thanksgiving Day and will continue to Christmas.

DO YOU REMEMBER THE WHIPPOORWILL'S SONG?

(From the old Attic Chest)

O say will you meet me at evening,
When its darkening into the night,
When songbirds are singing their Vespers.

And the day has far vanished from sight,
Of the love I have cherished so long,
If you will but meet me at evening,
When you hear the first Whippoorwill song.

Tis said that whatever sweet music,
May be throbbing within a fond heart,
While listening to Whippoorwill's singing.

For a twelfth month will never depart,
So then we will haste to the woodland,
Far away from the hurrying throng,
And whisper our love for each other,
When we hear the first Whippoorwill song.

And in the long years of the future,
Tho' our duties may part us a while,
And on the return of this evening,
We are parted by many a mile.

Yet fresh in our memories we'll cherish,
The affections, so fervent and strong,
We pledged to each other this evening,
When we heard the first Whippoorwill's song.

Chorus:
Whippoorwill - Whippoorwill - Whippoorwill - Whippoorwill,
Hear the first Whippoorwill's song;
Meet me, O meet me; Meet me, O meet me,
When you hear the first Whippoorwill's song.

—Arthur Carlton.

OUR NEIGHBORS

GRASS LAKE—One hour before dawn Saturday morning five stalwart men riding in a Chevrolet car arrived at the Johnson Sponser home in Leoni. The car was also carrying five large deer, one having been placed atop of the car, one on each fender and two securely fastened at the rear.

The group of five men who were returning from a deer hunting trip of 600 miles to the vicinity of Grand Marais in the Upper Peninsula, were Johnson Sponser, his three sons, Lovell, Russell and James, and Dorr Hewlett, of Leoni. The deer shot by Mr. Sponser was an eight point buck weighing 225 pounds, while Dorr Hewlett had a 13 point 210 pound deer. The total weight of the five deer was 925 pounds. Since their return home scores of people have called on the hunters and viewed the game.

The top cow sold at $155 and the 70 head at $7100 or an average of more than $100 each.—Exponent.

We took our penmanship test on Tuesday. Some of us have to improve a great deal, while others have done well.

We have collected and written up much material for our health scrapbook. We finished our study about tuberculosis Wednesday and are ready for the tuberculosis test. We also are selling Christmas Seals.

Mrs. Robinson visited our school November 3. The first grade had their reading class and the third and eighth grades had their Language classes while she was here. She was pleased with our work and the various reports we gave. She brought us a large picture of the state seal, which we have framed and hung up.

We were all well pleased with the result of our Fair and dance. We cleared about $140. This and the $35 we earned last summer from our exhibit at the Washtenaw County Fair will enable us to get many nice and useful things for our school.

We did not have school Thursday and Friday. We did not have any school Nov. 12, because of a teachers' conference in Ann Arbor.

Vandenberg's Program

SENATOR VANDENBERG of Michigan didn't wait for the leaders of the Republican party to formulate a program on which to battle the Democrats. He broke out with a ten-point program designed to "give honest business a chance to create stable prosperity."

His ten points were:

1. An end to governmental "hymns of hate" and bitter attacks on business men.
2. Progress as rapidly as possible toward a balanced budget.
3. Amendment or repeal of the surplus and capital gains taxes and substitution of "incentive taxation" for "punitive taxation."
4. Amendment of the social security act to eliminate the "needless drain upon the resources of commerce and labor."
5. Revision of the Wagner labor law to make for greater certainty in "long range industrial planning."
6. Abandonment of the so-called wage-hour bill and substitution of legislation to protect states from the importation of goods produced by substandard labor.
7. Repeal of many of the President's emergency powers in order to free business from "executive despotism which is at war with every tenet of the American system."
8. Reasonable and practical farm relief, without bureaucratic controls, processing taxes, or price pegging, but with benefits for soil conservation practices, financing of exportable surpluses, and return of the domestic market to the producer.
9. Foreign policies that will keep America out of war through pursuing "an insulating neutrality" rather than sanctions.
10. "Frank abandonment of all anti-constitutional activities and intrigues which shatter democratic faith."

China-Japanese War

JAPAN'S armies were slowed up by rain and mud in their advance up the Yangtze valley, but as there seemed no likelihood that the Chinese line of defense would hold, the Nationalist government moved out of Nanking, scattering its departments among a number of cities. American Ambassador Johnson and his staff moved to Hankow.

The Japanese commanders in Shanghai took over full control of most of the city and its customs office. They demanded that the international settlement and French concessions officials hand over the city's four leading citizens as hostages. Most prominent of these was T. V. Soong, brother-in-law of Dictator Chiang Kai-Shek.

The Far East conference in Brussels, unable to accomplish anything to end the China-Japanese conflict, was on the point of final adjournment.

After French Throne

A LARM of the French government over the plotting of the Cagouards or "hooded ones" that led to the arrest of many rightists and the raiding of weapons stores of weapons and ammunition was far from baseless. Evidently there was a real conspiracy to overthrow the republic and set up a dictatorship and eventually a restored monarchy. The government announced, however, that the plot had been wrecked.

From his place of exile in Belgium the Duc de Guise, pretender to the throne of France, issued a manifesto announcing he had decided to try to regain the throne.

"Have the moral courage not to abdicate before present difficulties," the manifesto appealed to Frenchmen. "Do not permit, in a moment of abandon, dictatorship of any kind to impose itself."

"Certain of my ability to assure your happiness, I have decided to reconquer the throne of my fathers. France, then again, will resume her mission in the world and again will find peace, unity and prosperity through a union of the people with a titular defender-king."

Windsor Wins Libel Suit

THE duke of Windsor won his libel suit against the author and publisher of the book "Coronation Comments," and in a settlement out of court received a substantial sum, said to be $50,000, from them, which money he gave to charity. Lord Chief Justice Hewart commented that the libels "appeared almost to invite a thorough and efficient horse-whipping."

Green Opposes Labor Bill

WILLIAM GREEN, president of the A. F. of L., practically broke with the administration by denouncing the pending wage and hour bill as unacceptable to labor and demanding that it be sent back to committee for revision.

Green assailed the national labor relations board and declared it no longer is safe to permit a government board of that kind to administer laws governing labor relations with employers.
