

The Chelsea Standard

Published Every Thursday
M. W. McCLURE, Publisher
Entered in the postoffice at Chelsea, Mich. as second class matter.
Subscription price: $1.50 per year; six months, 75 cents; four months, 50 cents.

24 YEARS AGO

Thursday, October 1, 1914
Charles Merker died on Saturday, September 26, 1914.
G. H. Whitney will be the new minister at the local M. E. church this year. The appointments were made on Monday morning.
The Sunday schools of the Ann Arbor district of the Evangelical church society held their annual convention in St. Paul's church on Saturday and Sunday.
LaRue Shaver left last Thursday for the West, where he will spend some time.
Miss Mary Galardi and Ignatius Toderio, both of this place, were married this morning at St. Mary church.

34 YEARS AGO

Thursday, September 29, 1904
S. Parkes Cadman will be in Chelsea on Wednesday, October 19 to open the Popular Entertainment course for the 1904-05 season.
Sunday night's thunder storm was about the hardest we have had this year. Considerable damage was done to the telephones in this neighborhood.
Gerald Dealy died at his home in Lyndon on Monday, September 26, 1904.
Walz & Loomis started cider making at the Doyd Mill in North Sharon on Wednesday.
The U. of M. opened on Tuesday and it is estimated that 4,000 will be registered this year.
Ruled Game Belongs to State
In 1896 the United States Supreme court recognized the principle that the game of the country belongs not to the landowner, but to the state, held in trust for its citizens.

Wheat Situation and Wheat Allotments

The largest official estimates of this year's domestic wheat crop is 956,000,000 bushels, according to Harry M. Cole, Secretary of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Conservation Association. This will be the second largest wheat crop in the history of the country. The carry-over from last year's production is approximately 154,000,000 bushels, which, added to the 1938 production would total 1,110,000,000 bushels.
As consumption of wheat has been about 690 to 700,000,000 bushels during the past several years, there will be a supply of about 400 to 450,000,000 bushels of wheat in excess of the domestic demands. The crop insurance will take some of this excess from the market.
It is doubtful, however, whether more than 25 to 30,000,000 bushels will be used for the payment of wheat insurance payments.
The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation will buy wheat for relief distribution; that is, wheat will be purchased in the open market and made into flour for distribution to needy persons on relief rolls.
Just how many bushels will be eliminated from the market for this emergency relief program is difficult to estimate. Undoubtedly, the amount will depend on a number of factors such as resumption of business and increased employment.
If two-thirds to one-half of the wheat growers keep within their wheat allotments in 1939, and other growers plant their usual acreage, seeded acreage would be about 60 to 65,000,000 acres. Average yields on such acreages would result in production of 720 to 780,000,000 bushels or 40 to 100,000,000 bushels more than the average domestic disappearance.
Wheat farmers who comply with the allotments for their farms will be eligible for several very potent advantages offered by the Farm Program, Mr. Cole stated.
In the first place they will be eligible for conservation and price adjustment payments which will total from 26 to 30 cents a bushel on the farm's normal yield per acre for each acre in the wheat allotment.
Also, eligibility for wheat insurance in 1940 and wheat crop loans next year, if the loan program is offered, is dependent on compliance with the 1939 wheat acreage allotments.

Mr. Cole is urgently requesting farm operators to turn in or mail to the County Office their seed certifications or receipts for red clover, alfalfa, sweet clover, lime, etc., planted in 1938.

COMMUNITIES TO ELECT 1939 AAA OFFICIALS OCTOBER 7

Meetings to elect members to community committees, which will assist in the administration of the 1939 Agricultural Conservation Program, will be held Friday evening, October 7, Harry M. Cole, secretary of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Conservation Committee, announced this week.
"At these meetings", Mr. Cole said, "the three members and two alternate members of the community committees, and the delegate and alternate to the county convention will be elected."
Any person who is participating, or cooperating on a farm in the community programs developed under Sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, the Federal Crop Insurance Act, and the Sugar Act of 1937, and who signs an application for membership in the association, or any person who has an interest in a farm in the community and who signs an application for membership, indicating that he intends to cooperate in a program administered by the association in 1939, shall be eligible to vote in the community election meeting.
Any member of the association otherwise qualified shall be eligible to serve as a community or county committeeman, delegate, or alternate, only if such member:
1. Is engaged in farming in the county and derives a substantial share of his income during the year from farming.
2. Is a resident of the community or county for which the committeeman, delegate, or alternate is elected.
3. Has, during the current year, qualified for a payment of grant of aid in connection with the program administered by the association in the county for which the committeeman, delegate, or alternate is elected, or in the county in which he was engaged in farming during such year.
4. Has not held during the current year, is not holding now, and does not intend to become a candidate for any Federal, State or major county office filed by an election held pursuant to law.
5. Is not an officer, or employee, of any political party or organization.
6. Has not been removed for cause from office as committeeman, delegate, officer, alternate, or employee, of any association or like association, or from public office, or convicted of fraud, larceny, or embezzlement, or any felony.
Delegates elected at all of the community elections will meet the following day and elect the county committee for Washtenaw county. The delegate to the county convention can be a member of the community committee, but it is not required.
"We hope to have large turn-outs for the meetings," Mr. Cole said, "so that the officers and delegates elected will be truly representative of the whole membership of the association."
Schedule of meetings in Sylvan and nearby townships on Friday evening, October 7, at 7:30 p. m. will be as follows:
Sylvan—Sylvan town hall; Sharon—Sharon town hall; Lyndon—Lyndon town hall; Lima—Lima town hall; Freedom—Freedom town hall; Dexter—Dexter town hall.

Michigan Mirror

(Continued from page one)
Education Next
If federal aid is needed for old age pensions, unemployment compensation, medical service and so on, how about federal help for our public schools?
Well, if the National Education association had its way, Washington would be rolling out funds for education, too.
Pending in the last session of Congress was the Harrison-Thomas bill for Federal aid to education. Government subsidy for the public schools is favored by such organizations as the American Federation of Teachers, American Association for Adult Education, Progressive Education association, American Federation of Labor, Committee for Industrial Organization (C. I. O.) and the railroad brotherhoods.
Washington would release funds to states only if the latter fulfilled certain requirements. Among the bill's opponents is J. B. Edmonson, dean of the school of education, University of Michigan. He states:
"If we desire to defend the traditional freedom of state and local responsibility and initiative, the Harrison-Thomas bill should be amended so as to provide a grant of funds without so many strings attached."
$30 Every Week
By this time it looks like "state rights" will be soon as extinct as the dodo-bird.
Government aid has no limits.
Take the newest panacea for national recovery, old age pensions, and what not—the $30-a-week-for-life plan, sponsored in Michigan by the Rev. O. James Crews, pastor of the Detroit Temple of Light, and John H. Maroff, former newspaper publisher at Midland and Iron Mountain.
Like the California "30 Every Thursday" scheme, which proved to be the bait of Senator McAdoo, the Michigan plan calls for $1 warrants on which a 2-cent stamp would be affixed each week during an entire year.
Merely by declaring officially that the warrants would be accepted anywhere in Michigan as legal tender, the Reverend Mr. Crews is confident that millions of dollars could be raised for pensions, and nobody would lose a dime.
But before you get too excited, consider these additional points: (1) Dues of 1 cent a day, $3.65 a year, are sought by Mr. Crews; (2) In 1932 Mr. Crews ran afoul of the law in Detroit where he served a prison sentence of six months.
Month-Long Fair
Having staged the biggest state fair in national history, at least in point of paid attendance, Frank N. Isbey, Detroit's $1-a-year manager of the Michigan State Fair, is out to set a new record in 1939 with a month-long exhibition.
In 1936 the fair attendance was 204,146.
Last year, using Hollywood and radio stars as a lure for young people and insisting that everyone should pay a quarter to get in, Isbey boosted the attendance to 421,398.
This year, with a 16-day event at which the emphasis was high class entertainment for little or nothing, Isbey ran up the total of 728,947. It was a national achievement, topping

Wisconsin's 624,401 and Minnesota's 548,534.
WPA funds are being sought to provide 45 per cent of the $5,000,000 cost of an automotive building, a 4-H club building, women's building, new horse barn, sheep and swine barn, general exhibits building, and beef cattle exhibition hall.
All of this is quite an undertaking, but in Detroit they say that Isbey can do it—if anybody can.

CHILDREN IN COURT

Judge Malcolm Hatfield
Parents are Responsible for Abnormal Behavior in Their Children
A psychiatrist was given the job of assisting the parents of a delinquent girl by determining how the parents themselves were responsible for the development of a certain abnormal behavior in their child. This was the first time that these parents had ever tried to trace the source of such manifestations.
After the second interview, the psychiatrist was able to point out certain conditions prevailing within the family which were responsible for the child's behavior. He emphasized the fact that these parents placed greater emphasis on physical hygiene, and not enough significance on mental hygiene, symptoms of which were indicated by their daughter's tendencies toward day dreaming, jealousy and self-consciousness.
Parental attitudes are exceedingly important, because the average child unconsciously adopts views which the parents hold. Consequently, parents frequently require assistance from a psychiatrist in working out their own goals of achievement, and also their own attitudes and relationships to each other, as well as towards the other members of the family.
"Uglies," Breakfast Fruit
They call them "uglies," Jamaica's contribution to breakfasts and desserts. Uglies are a cross between a grapefruit and a tangerine, are sweeter than the juiciest orange, and look like a half-deflated basketball. When the fruit was first produced near Kingston, a Jamaican took a look at its wrinkled skin and remarked, "It's ugly." So "ugly" it's called, although swanky restaurants, loath to include such an "ugly" name on their menus, are fervently wishing that someone would think of a better one. The ugly is larger than a grapefruit and has a skin about half an inch thick. Cut in two it looks like a grapefruit but is colored like an orange. One ugly has been known to produce over half a pint of juice, not so tart as that from the grapefruit. Many of the fruit measure nearly six inches in diameter.

Last of the Bastille
In the cellars of some houses on the Rue Saint-Antoine, in Paris, can be seen the basements of what were once the towers of the Bastille, the famous prison of the French revolution.
The Bookman's Paradise
The bookman's paradise is Leipzig, Germany, where there are over a thousand publishers and shops devoted to the trade, and where books have been the chief manufacture for 200 years.

See ED. FRYMUTH FOR MONUMENTS AND MARKERS Both Granite and Georgia Marble Representing A. J. BURRELL & SONS YPSILANTI, MICH.

Farmers! We Want Your Wheat Call Us for Prices! Chelsea Milling Company CHELSEA, MICH.

"I gotta line on '39"

Buick's the Beauty! N. B.—KEEP IN TOUCH WITH YOUR BUICK DEALER!

NOTICE! Chelsea Village Taxes are Due Taxes for the Village of Chelsea are Due and Payable at the office of the Village Treasurer at my place of business, North Main Street. Payments may be made on any day of the week. The time has been extended to October 1 - - final date for payment. M. J. BAXTER Village Treasurer

Autumn Paints the Forest

Autumn's official arrival September 23 has already been forecast in the northern woods where Jack Frost's paint brushes have tipped the leaves with brilliant browns, reds and yellows. While men of the northern hemisphere prepare for the winter to come, September 23 marks the arrival of spring in the southern hemisphere.

ROPER Annual OLD STOVE ROUND-UP Find Out About The New Gas Range With Cooking Perfection Save TIME FOOD MONEY Enjoy SPEED ECONOMY CLEANLINESS with GAS COOKING $20 Allowance for Your Old Stove Any New Cabinet Type Range Included in This Sale Easy Terms MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS CO. 211 East Huron St. Ann Arbor

The Hi-Light

Edited By The PUPILS OF THE CHELSEA PUBLIC SCHOOL

Defeat Belleville

Last Friday Chelsea took the field in their opening Huron League game against a big rangy, and powerful, Belleville eleven.

The first half of the game was uneventful as neither team scored a point, although Chelsea did a better job of gaining yardage. Continually throughout the first two quarters, Chelsea gained ground on off-tackle plants, end-around sweeps and on passes, but they failed to have that final punch when they approached that "too far away" goal line.

During the half Coach Cameron lost no time in patching up some of the important faults in the team. They went into the game refreshed and ready to march down the field. Not only did they feel like this, but they promptly showed the crowd that it was no fake. Chelsea flashed that power it will need to win the Huron League championship, in the third quarter, and marched down the field for the only points scored in the game. Bahmiller made the touchdown on an end run. Schneider kicked the point.

The fourth quarter consisted of nothing but the marching of either team up the field to a good position on the goal line where both seemed to lack the final push to put it over.

The score stood at the end of the game—Chelsea 7, Belleville 0. Chelsea made 10 first downs, while Belleville made but 8.

The line-ups were as follows:

Chelsea	Belleville
N. Haselswerdt LE	Pullen
B. Rabley LT	Akwas
Schiller LG	Taft
Dingle C	Petraskoy
P. Atkinson RG	Sohoza
D. Rowe RT	Vandecar
A. Policht RE	Koema
Schneider QB	Timoshok
Bahmiller FB	Dolph
F. Novess LB	Ross
Strietter RB	O'Neill

Substitutions were—Slocum and Wiggins for Chelsea; Goble, Seinko and Horton for Belleville.

Calendar of Events

- Sept. 30—Clinton-Chelsea game.
- Sept. 30—All-High party.
- Oct. 7—Chelsea-Dundee game.
- Oct. 7—American Legion dance.
- Oct. 14—Chelsea-Tecumseh game.
- Oct. 19—Saline-Chelsea game.

Editorial

Last Friday an obviously well trained Chelsea team overcame the loss of one of its ablest members and defeated Belleville 7 to 0 in our first Huron League encounter.

In spite of this victory Chelsea left another unfavorable impression in Belleville. Don't misunderstand me! It wasn't our football team that was responsible; the boys were all in there fighting and they did a good job. It was the spectator group from Chelsea that can be blamed for the disgrace. It is unnecessary to go into detail about the incidents occurring at last Friday's game; but let us look into the future. Shall we go on having things like this happening?

How about everyone pulling as hard as the team, and making Chelsea as fair on the sidelines as on the field? The only way this can be done is for everyone to do his part. We are asking this of you for the sake of our community and our school, in the name of real sportsmanship.

Class Elections

This year, as all preceding years, began with class elections. Advisors were named for the purpose of keeping the various groups peaceable.

Seniors who enjoyed a good year as juniors under the leadership of Betty Seitz, re-elected her as president of the Class of '39. Other class officers chosen were: Stuart Dingle, vice-president; Howard Haselswerdt, secretary; Duane Rowe, treasurer. Class advisor, Miss Nelson.

Juniors, who anticipate a big year, believe they have a capable president in Maynard Osterle. Clarence Woods was chosen vice-president. Mary Sulivan, secretary, and Eunice Hart, treasurer. Advisor, Miss Eddy.

Sophomore president is William Rademacher; vice-president, H. Miller; secretary, Lois Palmer, and treasurer, D. Ashfal. Advisor, Mr. Wallis. Freshmen elected John Hale, president; incidentally, John is a new comer; M. Eisele will take office as vice-president; McAlter as secretary, and Jean Meseriva as treasurer. Advisor, Miss Allen.

Effect of Age on Sight
The effect of old age on sight is to lessen the ability of the eye to change its focus.

SCOUTS WILL USHER

1,000 Scouts and leaders from every corner of Michigan will gather at the University of Michigan stadium on Saturday, October 1, to render a distinctive bit of community service in the ushering at the Michigan State-University of Michigan football game. This service has been carried on for a considerable number of years under the chairmanship of George Paul of Ann Arbor and a committee of Scout leaders. Approximately 400 Scouts will be furnished by the Washtenaw-Livingston Council and will operate under the supervision of their neighborhood and district commissioners.

OUR NEIGHBORS

GRASS LAKE—The Sam Hill family will move in the H. A. Services house Saturday. Mrs. Hill is agent at the M. C. R. R. station and Mr. Hill is employed by the railroad at Cavanaugh Lake. Mrs. Hill is a resident of Cass City. Mr. Hill is a resident of Grass Lake. Mrs. Hill is a resident of Grass Lake. Mrs. Hill is a resident of Grass Lake.

HOWELL—In a one-room log cabin near Rose Center, Artie McWithy lives as his forefathers did nearly 100 years ago. He grinds his own flour, hunts and fishes and raises a few vegetables. The log cabin, on Parker road, was built more than 100 years ago. McWithy lives alone, cooking his food on a wood stove and eating from a rustic table. The only anachronism is the single electric light which hangs from the ceiling. Alongside the cabin is a saw mill and grain mill, built 60 years ago which he still operates. The mill building needs repairs, but McWithy has taken care of the machinery and still saws wood and grinds grain on the same tools used a half-century ago. County Press.

BROOKLYN—Fifteen more men added to the number of Ford employees here last week brings the total to 70, nearly all being local men and with dependent families. The Brooklyn power development project is making increased progress and the deep foundations are being excavated and poured. A cement chimney stack for auxiliary steam power has been started, and the steel reinforced concrete flume or tube to conduct the water from the water wheels is being extended towards the point where it will cross under the highway just east of the cut stone bridge. Exponent.

PLYMOUTH—A search of several weeks by officers and officials of the Northville-Wayne County Fair association has failed to reveal a clue to the theft of a hand crocheted lace tablecloth owned by Mrs. Ernest Wickstrom, 127 Amelia street, who prized the article very highly. It was taken some time during the last night of the fair and was immediately reported, but not the slightest trace has been secured as to who stole it or how it was stolen. Mrs. Wickstrom had spent over 300 hours in making the tablecloth and those who had seen it declared that it was a beautiful piece of work. Officers are still hopeful that some trace of it can be found so it can be returned to its rightful owner.—Mail.

Shape of Bottles

Did you ever pause to wonder how bottles reached their present shape? There's not much news of them prior to A. D. 1700. In fact they were so scarce and valuable that they were regarded as works of art, and had the date of manufacture stamped on them. In the eighteenth century the shapes changed, necks became shorter, and the bottom pushed upwards, bell-shaped. Later, says Pearson's London Weekly, the sides became straighter, the necks shorter, and the bottom came up even further. The first clear, or fancy-colored bottles were made by the Dutch, and later copied by Baron Siegel, in America. In 1765 appeared smelling-salt bottles—with stoppers, not corks. And in 1826 came the round and octagon liquor flasks.

Age of New York City

The lower portion of Manhattan Island was incorporated as a city under the original Dutch regime in 1625. Charles II of England, claiming all the country from the French possessions south of Florida and west to the Pacific as belonging to the English crown, granted a charter covering New York to his brother, the duke of York, who suddenly appeared before New Amsterdam and took unopposed possession in August, 1664. The name of the city was changed to New York. The Dutch recovered the place in August, 1673, and changed its name to New Orange. The next year it was restored by treaty to the English, and ever since it has kept the name of the city of New York.

The Name Moira

The name Moira is a form of the Celtic Moragh and means "the great." It is also used in Ireland as a variant of Mary. There is another Moira which is of Greek origin and means "destiny." In classic legend it may refer to any one of the three fates.

Life Range of Bees

Bees have a life ranging from three weeks to eight months.

Question And Answer Dept.

Problem—In a 'hop, step and jump' contest, one contestant hopped 12 feet, the step 8 feet and the jump 16 feet, but he threw his feet just before landing and was penalized 3 1/2 feet. Now then, what was the distance he jumped? (Answer elsewhere in this column).

Ques.—How far is New Zealand from Australia?

Ans.—New Zealand is exactly 1,000 miles southeast of Australia.

Ques.—Was there ever an Englishman elected as Pope of Rome?

Ans.—Yes. Pope Adrian IV, who was Nicholas Cardinal Breakepear, was elected Pope in A. D. 1154.

Ques.—You have said that "journalism" is called the "Fourth Estate." Now I wish to ask you what are the other three estates?

Ans.—The other three estates are: The Lords, the clergy and the commons.

Ques.—I have an Egyptian coin which has a "T" on it with a loop at the top. Will you please answer what it means, if you know?

Ans.—That "T", with a loop at the top is the Egyptian symbol of enduring life.

Ques.—What does "e. g." stand for?

Ans.—Those two letters are the abbreviations or initials for the Latin exempli gratia, which means in English "for example."

Ques.—Which side does the military experts think will win in the Japanese and Chinese war?

Ans.—Technically they think that neither side will win. The experts figure that China's overwhelming man-power cannot be subdued by the highly trained soldiers and the modern war equipment of the Japanese; that the Japanese will eventually abandon the war after both sides suffer tremendously from its effects unless the World Powers intervene beforehand.

Answer to problem—The contestant, as stated, jumped 16 feet.

Ques.—I would like to ask you if a Passover cake, which is made by the Jewish people, have yeast in it?

Ans.—No. A Passover cake is unleavened.

Ques.—Why is a sirloin steak sometimes called Porterhouse?

Ans.—This originated in London in older times. A certain portion of the sirloin is the tenderest of all steaks and was always reserved for a famous hotel known as the Porter House. As a result, that tender portion of the sirloin became known as a Porterhouse.

Ques.—Can you tell me what a yak is?

Ans.—A yak is a beast of burden and related to the ox family.

Ques.—Do the lungs act as a pair on the right-hand side of the body?

Ans.—No. There are two lungs—one on each side of the body, with the heart in the middle.

Big Massacre Blamed on

Smell of Baking Bread

An Indian who wouldn't take no for an answer when he wanted bread—and could smell it baking, precipitated one of the bloodiest Indian massacres in Michigan's history, says a Byron (Mich.) correspondent in the Detroit Free Press. As a result the little town of Byron, settled in 1825, was wiped out and every family—except one—slaughtered. The one family was that headed by a miller named Smith.

The Indians refused to harm Smith because he had taken one of their chiefs who was severely injured into his home and cared for him until he recovered.

The massacre resulted when the husband of the woman who refused to give bread to the Indian walked into the house and shot him dead. The Indians demanded immediately that the killer be turned over to them for punishment. They threatened to kill and scalp every settler and burn their homes unless this were done.

In general the settlers felt that the killing had not been justified, but they stubbornly refused to submit one of their members to the Indians for torture. They sent a runner to get a company of soldiers from the fort at Detroit.

That night, Smith, who had been confined to bed because of an illness, heard guns fired, piercing cries of agony and the roar of flames consuming his neighbors' log cabins. He rushed from bed to the door. A blanketed Indian told him to go back to bed.

Smith attempted to go to the help of his friends through a back window. Another Indian barred his way. Imprisoned in his cabin he watched the destruction of the village.

The next day a squad of soldiers arrived. They found the village reduced to piles of charred logs and heaps of hot ashes covered by the bodies of the victims, with Smith's family the only living beings.

Try Standard Liners for Results—25c

MARY'S LAMB

(Revised Version)

"Mary had a little lamb" (I've heard the people say); And it was just the nicest lamb, And never ran away.

I'm sure you will be glad to know, This lamb with fleece so curly, Was never late at breakfast time—He always got up early.

And in the field with other lambs He cut such funny capers—Do you suppose that's why it was His name got in the papers?

No! It was when he went to school—Which was for lambs unlawful, And when the teacher put him out He acted "Sumpin' awful.

His fall from grace we do deplore, Indeed it makes us sad, But records bare the sorry tale That what he did was Bah-a-a-d.

—Marion J. Carley
(Written for little kids)

SLATS' DIARY

Sunday—I no now that our churches preacher are 1 of the best in the whole world. In the summer he preached and sed B. B. is the greatest game they is and this a. m. he preached and sed ft. ball are the greatest game they is. So now I no he is the greatest preacher eney whairs.

Monday—Well I have finely dissided what I am going to be when I are grown up. It are a Califormeyer if you no what they are. If you dumo it are I who gets 30 $ 3 free of chg. evry Thursday a. m. at 9 a. m. All so I dont haft to work to get it. Wich helped me arrive at the decision. It even beats the WPA whiche workers works about a hr. evry few days.

Tuesday—Unkel Hen sed to. Ant Emmy he herd a roomer she were a going to get married and were she. My Ant replide and sed No she isent but she were thanke for the roomer. I dont no why and Ant only smiled and sed no thing when I ast her why was she thanke.

Wednesday—The famby went out for a evening drive in the otto and Ant Emmy sed for Pa to show her how and she wood drive as she wanted to lern. Pa sed Well if you want to lern eney thing I am in favor of it and then he sed to her release the klutch and she sed How can I when I havent got a noit of it. Don't be silly. She are ignerrest about otos I xpect.

Thursday—The teacher of are class ast Jake a queschen this a. m. and his anser was so dum that she sed she thot if he got a lag broke the Society for the Prevension of Croolty of Animals wood want to have him shot. For dumness Jake runs Blisters a ded heet.

Friday—Mistress Gillem and her littel boy went to the sirkes and the littel fello sed to her That monkey looks like Papa dossent he. Dont get close to him as he might bite you. Mistress Gillem sed and her son replide and sed Aw he cant understand what I say. I suppose Mistress Gillem thot the monk might be ensulted.

Saturday—A. M. Well, no school today or tomorro. And as they isent much work to do about are home I think I will enjoy life libbertie and the persoot of happyness. Unlest Ma can think up sum thing out of seesen and order same done. And witch she are good at. P. M. She thot of plenty. Even pullen weeds out of next yrs. garden. Can you beet that.

Early Names for Boston
Boston was called Shawmut by the Indians, and Trimontaine by the early colonists at Charlestown.

Parking at an angle to the curb has caused many difficulties from an accident prevention standpoint.

Whenever you park a car at an angle, be sure you park so that the cars on either side of you can get in and out of the parking location.

Whenever you back out, be sure you drive slowly. I have seen automobile drivers come out of an angle parking position next to the curb as though they were answering a fire call. No warning is received by the automobile driver who is traveling on the street, although he may be using every precaution.

The usual results of careless backing out of the angle parking lot are minor collisions, but serious accidents have resulted.

Statue of William Penn
The statue of William Penn on the city hall in Philadelphia is 37 feet high and weighs 53,523 pounds. It was modeled by Alexander Milne Calder.

Many Earthquakes Each Year
Fully 200 earthquakes are reported in the United States each year.

Does Bladder Irritation Wake You
It's not normal. Its nature warning "DANGER AHEAD." Make this test. Use buchu leaves, juniper oil, and 6 other drugs made into green tablets. Help the kidneys flush out excess acids and other wastes which can cause the irritation resulting in getting up nights, frequent urination, slow, burning, or backache. Ask any druggist for Buxete. Your 25c back if not pleased in 4 days.

J. V. Burg, Druggist

WEST SIDE DAIRY
Pasteurized Milk and Cream
Try our Dari-Rich Chocolate—Delicious Hot or Cold
Sold at HINDERER BROS. RED & WHITE STORE
West Side Dairy

Mr. "Watts-His-Name" says

"Every Fall Housecleaning Cloud Has An Electric Lining . . ."

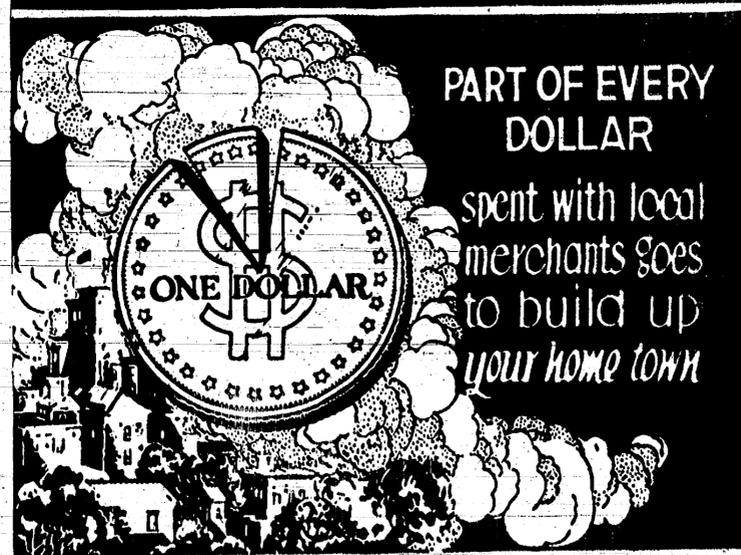

Upstairs the electric sweeper is beating the daylight and dust out of the living room rug. In the basement the electric washer is at work on the bed room curtains, while at its elbow the dining room drapes are being smoothed back into smiles on the electric ironer.

And while all this is going on, a grand meal is being cooked on the electric range and when 7 P. M. comes, this wife won't be ready to be tied—she'll be ready for the movies! What a difference electricity makes this time of year! Are you using its fullest possibilities?

Maybe a few minutes spent at your appliance dealer's will mean extra hours spent in leisure—or as your husband might say, "loafing".

Chelsea Electric & Water Dept.

CIVIC LOYALTY PAYS YOU BIG DIVIDENDS

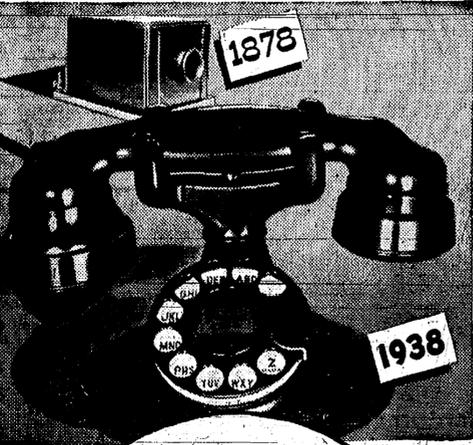

PART OF EVERY DOLLAR spent with local merchants goes to build up your home town

Try Your Home Town First

Our Deposits Are Insured According to Federal Regulations.

CHELSEA STATE BANK

1878
Sixty Years of Telephone Progress in Michigan
1938

Sixty years ago two crude box telephones were brought to Michigan. Today 660,000 telephones are operated by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Since the beginning, never-ceasing research, engineering, and development of equipment and operating methods have steadily improved Michigan's telephone service. There is none better in the world.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

PERSONALS

The Dessert Bridge club was entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. L. Steger.

Mrs. Maude Noon of Jackson was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson on Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. Earl F. Collins of St. Johns were Sunday visitors at the Congregational parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schmidt and children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Shaver, Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jolly were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schumacher, Detroit.

Misses Helen and Evelyn Miller of Detroit spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Liebeck.

Mr. and Mrs. August Dorer and children spent Sunday with his brother, William Dorer and family of Jackson.

E. J. Kaufman of Bellaire spent the week-end at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall.

A. H. Schumacher spent Sunday at Lakeland at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schumacher.

Ross Munro, who submitted to a major operation on Thursday at Chelsea Private hospital, is reported as recovering nicely.

Mrs. James C. Hendley entertained at a dinner on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Mabel Lennon of Ann Arbor, who recently returned from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Luick and family spent Sunday in Battle Creek at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Blackmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kinsey visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kanouse, Jackson. They also motored to Albion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stettler of Dansville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ehler Notten, entertained her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mack of Battle Creek, as guests over the week-end.

Charles Erickson of Racine, Wis. is making his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schneider and is attending the U. of M.

Miss Margaret Hayes and Albert Hayes and daughter Edith of Jackson spent Sunday afternoon with their sister, Mrs. T. H. Bahmiller.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brettschneider spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Daiger and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brettschneider, Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kent Walworth and Mrs. Fred Grover spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Miss Margaret Templeton of Pleasant Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Easterle, who have been spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Storms, left on Monday for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schairer and family of Scio and Mrs. Martha Weinmann spent Sunday in Plymouth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Peabody.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Gilbert, daughter Shirley and son Dale, of Pontiac spent Saturday afternoon with his mother, Mrs. Josephine E. Hatley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gurney of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. M. Sweet of Grosse Pointe were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lantis.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wenk and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Bahmiller and Mrs. Bertha Eiseeman were entertained Sunday in Ann Arbor, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Green.

Mrs. Ida Damon returned Thursday from a five-week visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. K. Havice and family of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Havice accompanied her to Chelsea, remaining until Saturday.

Mrs. A. E. Wilson left Tuesday for Twinsburg, Ohio to attend the funeral of a friend, Mrs. Hattie Chamberlain. She also will visit her daughter, Mrs. Walter Drake and family at University Heights, Ohio.

Mrs. F. A. Johnson and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Roell of Greenville spent several days of the past week at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, Mrs. C. D. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Watts of North Lake.

Mrs. George Wagner and daughter, Elizabeth of Ann Arbor, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wagner and family of Janesville, Wis., called at the home of Mrs. David Schneider and other Chelsea friends and relatives on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Faulkner, daughter Donna Jean, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kenney of Detroit spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ahnemiller. Mrs. Angelina Ahnemiller of Chicago was a guest the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dehnstrel and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Drewes of Ridgeville Corners, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wolf of Toledo were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Claire at their summer home at Grand River Lake on Sunday.

Mrs. Christian Grau, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haab and daughter and Elmer Haab spent Sunday in Flint at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Laros. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Jacob Hinderer, who has been a guest at the Laros home.

Sometime Friday night the lamp post at the northeast corner of Main and Park street was struck by a motor vehicle, heaving up a block of the sidewalk and a section of the curbing. The curbing and sidewalk were repaired the first of the week.

WATERLOO

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beeman, Peggy Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harr, Donald, and Marie Harr motored to Greenfield Village on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Carty and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Beeman spent the past week at Coleman and Houghton Lake. Norman came from Detroit for part of the week.

The Ever Ready circle held their annual election at the church and their September meeting with Mrs. Jessie Schultz. The new officers are: President, Mary Boyce; vice-president, Jessie Schultz; secretary, Ruth Wahl; treasurer, Daisy Beeman; mite box treasurer, Nellie Artz.

Honoring the first birthday of Orson III his mother arranged a lovely party September 15. A chicken dinner was served, with the following relatives present: Mr. and Mrs. Weston Smith, DeEtta, Varne, Claud and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Carty, all of Jackson; Weston Smith, Jr. and Eladora Cushman of Michigan Center; Norman Beeman of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Beeman and Luella.

Mary Boyce has been called to her sister's home at Layton's Corners by her serious illness.

Rev. Uhrig and Mrs. W. Vicary, the delegate, attended Conference in Detroit last week. Rev. Uhrig will move to Lake Odessa as pastor there, and Rev. Wasson was stationed here and will conduct services on Sunday, Oct. 2. The delegate will give her report.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schlosser and Thelma of New Baltimore and Mrs. Marquardt of Detroit were guests on Sunday at the W. Vicary home. In the afternoon they motored to Argente to visit Mrs. Bert Austin, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Durkee and Elinore of near Stockbridge and the Kenneth Stanfield family were Sunday visitors at the Arthur Walz home.

Lucille Adams spent from Friday to Sunday at the Runciman home and Mrs. Jane Cooper and Edna were Monday callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wahl spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green. Miss Isabelle Hitchcock of Detroit spent the week-end with her parents. Mrs. Hitchcock returned to Detroit with her for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hess and daughter spent Sunday at Treasure Island, near Unadilla.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra J. Moeckel and Mrs. Mary Barber spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Seitz, Lima.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Lehmann and family spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, at Michigan Center.

Mrs. Ella Monroe of Chelsea is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. L. L. Gorton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Barber and family of Stockbridge spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Claire and daughter, Miss Sandra, Schenk of Lake Orion were Saturday and Sunday guests of Mrs. Claire's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gorton.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor F. Moeckel spent Saturday night with Mrs. Mary Lamborn and Lubin, and on Sunday motored to Belle Isle and Grosse Pointe.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Marsh and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marsh and sons of Jackson spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Marsh.

Mrs. Nichol of Jackson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alva Nichol.

Mrs. Elmer Bradley returned to her home Friday after being a patient in the Hillsdale hospital. Sunday guests were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pierce of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bradley and son of Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Riethmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Riethmiller and son spent Sunday at Belle Isle.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Moger and Miss Harbaugh of Montgomery called on friends in the vicinity, Thursday.

Prof. and Mrs. George Ross, Peter Ruthven, Prof. R. Ettinghouse, Prof. K. C. McMurry and John, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Roszell and S. J. Ware of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gleason and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams and family of Detroit, Mrs. O. Taylor, Mrs. G. Roszell of Royal Oak, Will Sauer and Theodore Koelz of Jackson, Will Cameron of Lansing, Mrs. Robert Hatt, Dr. Theo. Boardman of Bloomfield Hills, Miss Maud Hagle of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Leeke of Manchester, Rev. and Mrs. C. Moger of Montgomery were recent callers at the Koelz home.

Mrs. G. Behle and daughter—Eli-frieda returned to their home in Cincinnati, Ohio after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Riethmiller.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Aue of Cincinnati spent from Friday until Monday with their brothers, Gottlieb and Herman Rothman, and also their sister, Mrs. Paulina Harr.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillman Wahl and daughter, Lewis Wahl and lady friend spent Friday evening with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wahl.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bosteder of Grass Lake spent Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Verd Seigrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baldwin and son were Sunday guests of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Wolf and family.

Miss Velma Lantis spent the week-end in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ashmore of Stockbridge spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Lantis and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Lutz and family of Jackson spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lutz.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Seigrist and sons spent Thursday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Seigrist.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Drees, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Drees and daughter Nancy and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Moeckel and sons, all of Jackson spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moeckel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Horning and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Walker and family, all of Jackson came Sunday with well filled baskets and gave their mother, Mrs. Chris. Katz, a birthday surprise. Mr. and Mrs. John Wahl were also guests.

Daniel and Miss Ida Emmons were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Mrs. Paulina Harr home.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Aue, Gottlieb Rothman and H. S. Rothman spent Sunday forenoon in Stockbridge with their aunt, Mrs. Kate Walz.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Lantis and sons spent Sunday afternoon in Jackson, calling on friends.

Mrs. Mildred Lantis attended a shower for Mrs. Edna Mollenkoph at the home of Mrs. Myrna Miller, Friday afternoon.

NORTH LAKE

Charlotte Schilling of Detroit and Edmond-Drew of Lyndon were married September 21 at North Lake M. E. church, by Rev. H. Brubaker of Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watts and daughter Dorothy spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart of Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Widmayer and family of Howell spent Sunday at the L. E. Noah home.

Mrs. Emma Hudson and daughter Geraldine spent Sunday visiting in Detroit.

Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Pearce are conducting revival services at the M. E. church at Iron Mountain, of which their son Edwin is pastor.

Rev. Nagle and daughter are now occupying the Rev. Pearce home.

Irene Stoffer and Beatrice Hawkins attended a farewell party on Tuesday evening at the Steinbach home in Dexter in honor of Mable Mops, who is returning to her home in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. P. E. Noah and Mrs. L. E. Noah and children spent Tuesday afternoon in Jackson.

There will be a Junior Farm Bureau organization meeting at the church annex Thursday evening, Sept. 29, at 8 o'clock. Ben Hennick, State director of Junior Farm Bureau, will be the speaker. All young people over 18 interested in this program are urged to attend. Pot-luck lunch.

The Ladies' Aid meets at Mrs. P. E. Noah's on Thursday afternoon. Come prepared to sew.

Rally Day Program

Rally Day will be observed Sunday morning at North Lake church with the following program:

Bible reading—23rd Psalm.

Illustrated talk on this Psalm by Marilyn Glenn.

The meaning of Rally Day—Beatrice Hawkins.

Reading—"It is the Dawn"—Geraldine Carr.

Offering—Robert Gilbert.

Our Pledge—The Young People's class.

Dismissal—Charles McDaniel.

Everyone is welcome to these services. Sunday school at 10:30; preaching service at 11:30.

SOUTH WATERLOO

Mrs. Dr. Alter, Mrs. Gee and Mrs. Clara Vandelynn spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Paulina Harr and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rothman and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rothman of Leslie spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Rothman and family.

Lawrence Hunt, who has spent the last month with his daughters, Lorena and Wilma, and his sister, Miss Louise Hunt, returned to his home in Florida on Tuesday.

Mrs. Chris. Fry and daughter Adelia spent Sunday evening with her brother, Guy Baldwin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Miller spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Verd Seigrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Moeckel and sons of Jackson spent Friday evening with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moeckel.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Aue of Cin-

HERE'S TO THE FARMER!

The farmer is the greatest friend of wildlife. He provides shelter; he provides protection; and he feeds them by thoughtfully leaving a few shocks of corn near some secluded marsh or wood lot for their winter food supply and grit when all the land is covered with ice and snow.

So here's to the kind farmer—the State's No. 1 conservationist. A real friend of wild life for he knows best the ways of nature.

To have we must conserve.

—Jasper

Try Standard Liners for Results—25c

WILL HOLD ROUND TABLE

Scoutmasters of all troops in Wash-tenaw and Livingston counties have been invited to attend a Scout leaders' round table meeting at Camp Newkirk on Monday, October 10, at 6:00 p. m. as the guests of the council.

If weather permits, the group will eat outside or in case of bad weather, the dinner will be held around the huge fireplace in the main lodge.

Plans of coming events, troop problems, and other matters will be discussed. The round table will adjourn at 8:00 p. m.

NOT TOO LATE!

Students may enter now for Secretarial and Accounting Training. Personal help will enable beginners to advance surprisingly fast.

Why not plan to start Monday, October 3? Others will be starting then, too.

JACKSON BUSINESS UNIVERSITY
234 So. Mechanic Street at Washington Avenue
JACKSON, MICHIGAN

Apples - Twelve Varieties
(BRING CONTAINERS)

If you want good apples, see me at once.
Cider apples now ready.

3 miles east of Manchester, 1/2 mile south of No. 11 on Keyes Road.

Frank L. Woodward

Meadows Washer SPECIAL!

$39.95

Economy marks this thoroughly practical Washer! Has capacity of six pounds dry clothes. Meadows long life mechanism and 1/4 h. p. motor.

Do Your Washing Easier - Better and Faster

E. J. Claire & Son, Inc.
Phone 128-W Chelsea, Mich.

Here They Come---The Smartest Suits and California Weight Overcoats for Fall

Made from sturdy all wool fabrics by Hart Schaffner & Marx and other good makers.

See Our New Top Coats $14.50 up

Suits In Double or Single Breasted Models—$19.50 up

High School Suits 35 to 37 only—$16.50 and $17.50

New Leather and Cloth Jackets
Many styles for your selection.
See our Special Suede at $5.00

FALL HATS
Newest shapes and colors—$1.95 to $3.50

New Arrow Shirts $1.95
New Mack Shirts $1.50

VOGEL & WURSTER

North Lake

Charlotte Schilling of Detroit and Edmond-Drew of Lyndon were married September 21 at North Lake M. E. church, by Rev. H. Brubaker of Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watts and daughter Dorothy spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart of Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Widmayer and family of Howell spent Sunday at the L. E. Noah home.

Mrs. Emma Hudson and daughter Geraldine spent Sunday visiting in Detroit.

Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Pearce are conducting revival services at the M. E. church at Iron Mountain, of which their son Edwin is pastor.

Rev. Nagle and daughter are now occupying the Rev. Pearce home.

Irene Stoffer and Beatrice Hawkins attended a farewell party on Tuesday evening at the Steinbach home in Dexter in honor of Mable Mops, who is returning to her home in Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. P. E. Noah and Mrs. L. E. Noah and children spent Tuesday afternoon in Jackson.

There will be a Junior Farm Bureau organization meeting at the church annex Thursday evening, Sept. 29, at 8 o'clock. Ben Hennick, State director of Junior Farm Bureau, will be the speaker. All young people over 18 interested in this program are urged to attend. Pot-luck lunch.

The Ladies' Aid meets at Mrs. P. E. Noah's on Thursday afternoon. Come prepared to sew.

Rally Day Program

Rally Day will be observed Sunday morning at North Lake church with the following program:

Bible reading—23rd Psalm.

Illustrated talk on this Psalm by Marilyn Glenn.

The meaning of Rally Day—Beatrice Hawkins.

Reading—"It is the Dawn"—Geraldine Carr.

Offering—Robert Gilbert.

Our Pledge—The Young People's class.

Dismissal—Charles McDaniel.

Everyone is welcome to these services. Sunday school at 10:30; preaching service at 11:30.

SOUTH WATERLOO

Mrs. Dr. Alter, Mrs. Gee and Mrs. Clara Vandelynn spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Paulina Harr and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rothman and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rothman of Leslie spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Rothman and family.

Lawrence Hunt, who has spent the last month with his daughters, Lorena and Wilma, and his sister, Miss Louise Hunt, returned to his home in Florida on Tuesday.

Mrs. Chris. Fry and daughter Adelia spent Sunday evening with her brother, Guy Baldwin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Miller spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Verd Seigrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Moeckel and sons of Jackson spent Friday evening with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moeckel.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Aue of Cin-

KROGER

You'll be ashamed if YOU PAY MORE FOR THESE ITEMS ELSEWHERE

FALL value CARNIVAL

sale now in progress!

KROGER BRAND BUYS
There are dozens of them you don't risk a penny. Buy on the quantity!

SENSATIONAL CARNIVAL SPECIALS

COOKIES FRESH FROM THE OVENS	lb. 10c
GRAPE JAM PURE FRUIT FLAVOR	2 lb. jar 19c
FRENCH COFFEE HOT-DATED—AT THE ROASTING OVENS	lb. 19c
FRESH BREAD PURE, WHOLESOME BIG BLEN	2 lb. loaf 10c
PILLSBURY'S FLOUR	2 1/2 lb. sack 77c

Solid-Pack, Red-Ripe TOMATOES No. 2 can	Avondale SIFTED PEAS No. 2 can
Tender Cut GREEN BEANS No. 2 can	Silver Flows SAUERKRAUT No. 2 1/2 can
Country Club, Healthful APPLESAUCE No. 2 can	Country Club PORK & BEANS No. 2 can
Avondale, Red KIDNEY BEANS No. 2 can	Country Club PUMPKIN No. 2 1/2 can

4 cans 25c 3 cans 25c

12 cans 73c 24 cans 1.45 12 cans 95c 24 cans 1.85

BROWN SUGAR IN BULK 5 lb. 27c

APPLEBUTTER SPICY FLAVOR 3 lb. 25c

EATMORE OLEO GUARANTEED FRESH lb. 10c

Country Club GRAPEFRUIT No. 2 can	Betty Blue KIEFFER PEARS No. 2 can
Solid-Pack TOMATOES No. 2 1/2 can	Avondale, Red PIE CHERRIES No. 2 can
Country Club SPINACH No. 2 can	Deluxe, Light Meat TUNA-FISH No. 2 can
Country Club PINEAPPLE No. 1 flat	Butter Kernel GORN No. 2 flat

can 10c 2 cans 25c

12 cans 1.10 24 cans 2.15 12 cans 1.45 24 cans 2.85

PANCAKE FLOUR COUNTRY CLUB 5 lb. sack 19c

EGG MASH WESPO TESTED 100 lb. 1.89

MAJESTIC DOUBLE PURPOSE Griddle-Broiler ONLY 1.69 with fully punched credit card	TWINKLE BUTTERSCOTCH PUDDING PKG. 1c with purchase of TWINKLE Dessert 3 pkgs. 12c
---	--

PRODUCE

GRAPES lb. 5c
GRAPEFRUIT each 5c
Candy Kind SWEET POTATOES 3 lbs. 10c
CRANBERRIES lb. 15c

MEATS

Smoked Picnics lb. 21c
Sliced Bacon---1 lb. pkg. . . . 27c
PAN FISH 2 lbs. 15c
Bologna [ring or large] . . lb. 15c

WE PAY HIGHEST MARKET PRICES FOR FRESH EGGS!

KROGER GUARANTEED BRAND

CRUCIBLE

By BEN AMES WILLIAMS

© Ben Ames Williams—WNU Service

(Continued from last week)

"Of course," she assented. "I don't blame him for testifying. But Mac, I do blame you for telling me."

"Oh, Barbara, you can't fool yourself, pretend to ignore what has happened."

Barbara faced him for a moment; then suddenly without a word she turned, turned and ran, ran into the house and away. He called her name, but he did not pursue her.

Dan said disgustedly, "You may be a professor, but you're the darnedest fool I ever saw!"

"She will see I'm right, in the end!" Bruce insisted.

But he was wrong in this prediction. Barbara thereafter avoided him, and when he came to the house she was quick to disappear. Yet Barbara began to wish to know all that had happened at the trial.

She asked her first questions on the Sunday following. Dan came, after dinner, and Barbara, ready for tennis, met him with a bright challenge; and Phil and Mrs. Sentry followed them out to the court to watch the game. Dan and Barbara had played together before, and at first Dan had been able to win at will; but as Barbara's strength returned, she had easily the better of their matches, opposing her graceful swiftness and disciplined strokes to Dan's furious energy and awkward force.

This day Dan, running back for a perfect job, piled headlong into the backstop and rebounded and sat down hard; and Barbara laughed aloud, and then called in quick solicitude:

"Hurt, Dan?"

"No, not a bit!" he retorted, and scrambled to his feet. "Hit 'em in my reach, you big bully! Come on!"

Phil thought their words, their happy voices, were eloquent. He looked at his mother a little anxiously, but he saw that her eyes were curiously serene.

"Did you hear her tone when she asked Dan whether he was hurt?" she asked softly.

He pretended surprise. "Her tone? No, why?"

"She's growing fond of him."

Phil watched Barbara, flushed and happy, moving easily about the court, and he thought, astonished: Mother doesn't seem to mind! She seems glad!

He said guardedly, "You think so?"

"Of course! And Dan's a fine young man."

"Well, I like him," Phil agreed. She smiled a little, wisely.

"You're surprised at my—at the way I take it, aren't you, Phil?"

"Why, I know what you think of newspapers and reporters. And I know you think marrying the right people is pretty important."

She nodded. "I've spoken my mind often enough, Phil," she assented. "But I'm not at all sure my mind was right. You remember, Phil, I discovered something during your father's trial. He looked at her and she said: 'I realized that I loved him.'"

"Of course, mother."

"Not at all, Phil. There's no 'of course' about it." She said half to herself. "I didn't love him when we were married. I lived down on the Cape, and his father had cottage there. He was rather splendid figure. I thought I was marrying well, marrying money, and family and position. But almost at once after we were married I fell—passionately in love with him. Brides often do, you know. If their husbands are wise."

"And I loved him till seven weeks before Barbara was born," she said explicitly. "And I haven't loved him since, till—" After a moment she said steadily, "Till I knew they would convict him and kill him, Phil."

He could not move or speak. He had only the vaguest understanding. He stammered something, and she said:

"It's curious, too, that there's no desperation in my love for him now. At first the thought of what was to happen was terrible. And then it became unimportant. I have him now, and he has me; and no one, nothing, can separate us."

Phil said automatically, "Yes, mother!"

And she smiled like sun after rain. "So now nothing matters except that," she said. "But, I think when he is gone I shall join him pretty soon."

"So I want Barbara to marry whom she loves," she said. "If it is Dan, it is Dan." She added, in a moment's weakness, "Only I shall need you both terribly for a little while."

"Gosh, mother—" He said that and no more; but suddenly he was afraid, thinking: She's lost weight lately. She looks—frail. Not tired. Strong—inside, but frail outside. He started to speak again, then saw her smile as she ended and Dan and Barbara, laughing together, came toward them here. They went into the house and Linda arrived, and Mrs. Sentry left the four young people alone downstairs. They had tea; and talked idly for a while, and Barbara was more and more silent till Dan spoke to her.

"What's on your mind, Barb? Penny for your thoughts?"

"I was thinking about Mac," she confessed. "No one, for a moment, found anything to say; and she went on: 'And about father. You all think he's guilty, don't you?' She smiled a little, at their quick protestations. 'All right, but I don't, you know,' she said; and she confessed: 'Oh, at first I did. I saw him come home that night, and I went into a sort of panic. We all did, I guess. I mean when he was arrested, and everything. We all lost our heads, believed all sorts of things.'"

"But I don't, now. I don't believe father would kill anybody! Not on purpose, anyway."

"Neither do I," Phil assured her, and she said:

"I don't see how the jury could think he did. But of course I wasn't at the trial." And she asked directly: "What happened? Tell me about it."

Dan urged, "You'd better forget it, Barb."

But Phil said besely: "Father admitted he killed her, Barbara. He said it was an accident, but the jury didn't believe him." And he urged: "But—there's no use talking about it. You'll just get yourself sick again."

Barbara half smiled. "You're both awful cowards," she told them. "Like ostriches." And she appealed to Linda: "Linda, you tell me about it."

Linda shook her head. "I didn't even read the papers, most of the time, Barb. I just stayed here with you, or stood by in case Phil wanted me."

Barbara nodded. "I know." She smiled in affectionate derision. "You and your Phil!" She appealed to Dan. "You were there in court every day," she remembered, and she began, persistently, to question him, and Dan perforce to answer, till little by little she drew from him the whole dark tale. Except that he did not speak of the uglier part of Mr. Sentry's testimony.

She urged at last, acutely, "But Dan, if father did shoot her, and the revolver was touching her, he would have felt it, wouldn't he?"

"He said he didn't feel anything," she said.

"Then if he didn't, someone else shot her. She must have been already dead, before he got upstairs there."

Phil said unhappily: "Barb, father shot her all right. He said it was an accident, and I think it was. I believe him; but the jury didn't, and they were the ones to decide. That's what juries are for."

"But suppose they found another bullet?" she argued. "Then everyone would have to believe him!"

Phil caught Linda's eye. "Linda and I have already looked," he said. "We went over the place with a fine-tooth comb; but we didn't find a thing."

And suddenly it was June. In May, July had seemed far away, but now it was just around the corner.

On the third of June, Mr. Falkran telephoned to ask whether he could see Phil and Mrs. Sentry that evening. Mrs. Sentry bade him come. Mr. Hare had suggested to Phil long ago that a commutation might save Mr. Sentry's life. Phil had not mentioned the possibility to his mother; but when she told him, on his return from the office that day, that Mr. Falkran was coming in the evening, and wondered why, Phil remembered Mr. Hare's remark months before.

"I expect," he said, "he wants to discuss asking the Governor to commute the sentence to life imprisonment."

Her pupils dilated; her eyes widened. "Oh!" she murmured.

He reflected: "We don't want Barbara here when he comes. I'll ask Linda to take her away somewhere, on some excuse." And at his mother's assenting nod he went to the telephone.

Linda was quick to do what he asked. So when at a little after eight Falkran rang the bell, Phil and his mother were alone; and Phil himself went to the door.

"During the trial, I did my full duty as I saw it," Falkran said, "and used every means I could discover to secure at least a disagreement. Regardless of a client's guilt or innocence, he is entitled to every legal protection. If his fate is in a jury's hands, then he has a right to expect that every possible means shall be used to create a doubt of his guilt in the jury's mind. I did all I could."

Mrs. Sentry nodded. "I know," she smiled. "I did all I could, too, Mr. Falkran."

"Yes," he agreed. "We all did. Barring the possibility that higher courts might have found some error by the State, Mr. Sentry had every protection. But he didn't want to appeal on technicalities. And the jury believed him guilty."

He hesitated, then went on: "Yet there are grounds for asking mercy for him too. Not a pardon. We cannot hope for that. But a commutation is possible. District Attorney Flood will not oppose it. Of course, he cannot support our petition; but he will stand neutral. Mr. Sentry's character, his long and honorable life, all count in his favor. And it is always possible that the tragedy might have been an accident," as Mr. Sentry testified.

Mrs. Sentry considered for a while, sitting very quietly, so that Phil came to her side and she held his hand while she faced the lawyer.

"What would we do?" she asked then. "What is the procedure?"

"I want you to understand," Falkran explained, "that Mr. Hare agrees with me that an appeal to the Governor is justified. Mr. Flood, as I said, will not oppose it; and I have consulted a number of Mr. Sentry's friends."

And he went on, "The first step would be to have a hearing before the Governor and Council; to present evidence as to Mr. Sentry's life and character, and to call attention to some points in the evidence at the trial—the possibility of accident."

"A public hearing?"

"Yes," he added quickly. "But you would not need to attend that. Only afterward, you would want to make a personal appeal to the Governor."

She passed her hand across her eyes. "When?" she asked, in a whisper.

He said thoughtfully: "I should first lay the groundwork. Perhaps in two or three weeks. Say the third week in June."

Mrs. Sentry rose, clinging for a moment to the arms of her chair, then standing erect. She caught Phil's arm, supporting herself so, "very well," she promised. "If you advise it, I will do it."

But when Falkran was gone—she had held fast to Phil, so that the lawyer went alone to the door—she said in a low tone, "Don't leave me, Phil."

"Of course not. I won't."

"I'm all right," she whispered, "as long as I have you and Barbara." She added, smiling weakly: "At least I think I am. But it will seem strange to me to beg!"

"Father wouldn't want you to mother!"

"I think I shall be proud to do it," she replied.

They had another letter from Mary, this time from Paris, brief, dear. She wrote:

Dear Mother?

This is just to keep you all in touch with my progressing career. Of course I have occasional news of you, viva voce, and in the well-known public prints; but I haven't broken into the newspapers yet.

I ran into Jimmy Endle the other day. He's not a bad chap unless you're married to him. Also Gus Loren is here. Mrs. Loren is treating herself to a Paris divorce. I seem to fascinate Gus. My fatal beauty, no doubt. But of course, Argentine, my pretty little beef-horn—did I tell you we were married—is terribly jealous. Maybe he'll take me home and make me eat parsnips and tangos and things. I don't even know whether you fry them or boil them. Having a fine time. Wish you were here.

Mrs. Sentry read the letter and handed it to Phil; and this time she did not protest when he threw it into the fire.

The days were gone like the fanned pages of a book, so swiftly that it was scarce possible to name them as they passed. Twice or thrice Falkran came to report that the foundations for the appeal to the Governor were being laid. Phil could see his mother muster strength for that ordeal.

Till at last the lawyer telephoned, late one afternoon, spoke to Phil. "Can Mrs. Sentry see the Governor tomorrow?" he inquired. "If she can, I will make the appointment, come to fetch her."

Phil asked dumbly: "What time?"

Falkran said: "At two, if that is convenient for both of them. Will that suit her?"

Barbara at the moment was upstairs; but Mrs. Sentry was in the living-room and Phil went to ask her decision. He saw her quiver at his words, as though staggered by a physical blow; but then she nodded. "Will you go with me, Phil?"

"Of course," he assured her, returned to tell Falkran her answer. While he was at the phone, he heard the doorbell ring, wondered who was there, heard Nellie go to open the door.

When he came again to his mother, Mrs. Sentry said: "But I don't want Barbara to go with us. She need not even know. She must stay here. I will want to come home to her, afterward."

Phil had time to nod, and then he saw Dan striding toward them through the hall. "Hullo!" Dan cried, and his eyes were shining. "Where's Barbara?" He snatched a telegram from his pocket, thrust it into Phil's hands. "Read that, old man!" he cried. "I've been working on it for two months, trying for that or something like it."

The message had been sent, Phil dropped the telegram, had bent to pick it up; and he saw that she seemed unable to do so. Her arm hung straight down from her shoulder; and her fingers lay with their backs on the floor, two or three inches away from the telegram, her knuckles touching the rug. Her hand was white and bloodless.

He stooped for the yellow paper; and she said, laughing uncertainly: "That's funny, Phil! I was trying to pick up the telegram and I couldn't seem to reach down far enough and then I saw my hand was touching the floor, but I couldn't feel it at all."

Her utterance was hurried; she mumbled the words as though her tongue were thick. One side of her face, Phil saw, was lifeless; sagging as though the flesh were dead upon her bones.

They could hear Dan's voice, swift and eager, in Barbara's room upstairs.

Read That, Old Man!

read that, old man!" he said. "I've been working on it for two months, trying for that or something like it."

Barbara caught her mother rapturously, kissed her hard, whirled away toward the house like a dancer. "I've got to telephone Dan this minute!" she cried, and was gone.

Mrs. Sentry looked after her; and Phil put his arm across his mother's shoulders. "That was great, mother!" he said. "You've made her so darned happy! And I know what it meant to you to let her go."

She said, half to herself: "I've built my life, Phil, on—pride. And I've been selfish too. But we've nothing of pride left, and I'll be happier if Barbara is happy. I'll have to start rebuilding my life on—some other foundation besides pride and selfishness now."

So Dan and Barbara were married, in the big living-room, with Phil, Linda and Mrs. Sentry as only witnesses. Mrs. Sentry during the intervening days and on that wedding day sometimes clung secretly to Phil's arm; but she managed to do nothing to alarm Barbara or distress her. They were married just after noon; then Dan took train for Cleveland and was gone.

This was Friday, the twenty-eighth of June. After Dan's departure, Phil proposed to his mother that they all drive away to York. "Just for the week-end?" he suggested.

She hesitated, asked then, "Phil, when will it be?" She added firmly: "What day? What hour?"

He spoke in a low tone. "Why, usually just after midnight," he told her.

"The first day?"

"Yes, Monday."

"I wanted to know," she explained, apologetically, "I'm—much better here than in York, till then."

He urged: "But Doctor Main-

tenor? Certainly not to Barbara. She is so young, such a child. Dan will love her; and she will forget... Then she heard their voices, their steps on the stairs; and they were here, their eyes shining, yet with a sober gravity. Barbara came to her mother; and Mrs. Sentry waited, and Barbara asked slowly, "Dan has told you, mother?"

"Yes, Barbara."

"We've been hoping and hoping he could find something!"

Mrs. Sentry smiled almost teasingly. "Oh, you had it all decided, already planned?"

"If he could—find the job he wanted, yes," Barbara confessed. "And I hoped it would be soon."

Mrs. Sentry's eyes fell, so that Barbara might not read them. Dan said quickly, "I have to be ready to start work out there on Monday, Mrs. Sentry."

"That is—July first?"

"Yes."

Phil thought her voice was miraculously steady. "You will come back for Barbara later?"

"I thought we'd be married at once, go to Cleveland together!"

Mrs. Sentry nodded gently. "I used to think hurried weddings lacked dignity," she confessed. "But I expect they are sweeter than dignity." Nellie came to announce dinner, and she said, "Stay, Dan?"

But he could not. "I've still a job here," he reminded them. "I'll have to run." Barbara went with him to the door; and Phil asked his mother in a low tone, "All right now?"

"Of course, Phil."

"If Barbara knew about you, she'd wait!"

She shook her head, smiling. "I won't cry-baby, spoil Barbara's happiness. She loves him, Phil. Only—it will be hard to have her go."

They heard Dan depart, heard the door close. Then Barbara, as they moved toward the dining-room, met them in the hall; and for a moment she held her mother close.

"Thank you, mother," she said. "You're wonderful to me. Dan wants to take me with him; and I want terribly to be a coward and go." She looked at Phil, reading his thoughts. "He says—even if we get married this week—he can fix it so there wouldn't be anything in the papers."

Mrs. Sentry said, "I'm sure he can!" Barbara looked at her keenly; and after a moment the girl cried: "But I'm not going! I'll stay with you till—till afterward, mother. I'll go to Dan then."

Mrs. Sentry spoke carefully. "It's for you to decide," she said. "But I should be glad to have you stay."

"Oh, mother, I shall." She was suddenly mature, a woman; and yet, Phil thought at dinner, she seemed conscious of this, and faintly diffident, so that beneath the cloak of maturity which she put on he saw still the child, terrified yet brave and bold.

He thought with a deep affection and solicitude: I wish she could marry Dan and go. She could if mother did not need her so. But mother will need her, tomorrow, after we see the Governor.

Barbara was still asleep in the morning when he took Mrs. Sentry to Doctor Mainton's office. The doctor heard their story, and then with that callous insensibility characteristic of physicians, left Phil to wait alone for two hours while he applied to Mrs. Sentry every test known to scientific medicine.

But his report in the end was reassuring. He said, to them both: "Well, Mrs. Sentry, I've checked up in every possible way; and there is nothing organically wrong with you. I am satisfied there has been no cerebral accident. Your nerves are worn out, and just before this happened you had your arms tight folded with your clenched fist under your left arm. That shut off the blood supply, perhaps; and a cramped position, and fatigue did the rest. That is all, I am sure."

Phil asked, "Ought we to do anything about it?"

Doctor Mainton hesitated. "Take your mother away somewhere," he said then. "To your summer home at York Harbor, perhaps. Can you go today?"

Mrs. Sentry said, "I am to see the Governor at two this afternoon." She thought Doctor Mainton might forbid this, tell her not to go; and she prepared to resist him. But he did not.

"Then afterward?" he urged. "Later in the afternoon. Go up there and get plenty of rest and sleep. Those are the only drugs you need."

At home they found Barbara awake, and wondering where they had been, and surprised to find Phil not gone to his office; but she was too much absorbed in her own happiness to be diligent with questions, and they put her off. Then she remembered that Mr. Falkran had telephoned, to speak to Phil.

"I told him he could catch you in town," she said. "Maybe you'd better call him up."

Phil met his mother's eye, and he went into the library to phone. Falkran said, "I've had news, Mr. Sentry."

Phil felt the blood pound in his ears against the receiver. "Yes?"

"I saw the Governor," Falkran explained. "He is willing to see Mrs. Sentry if she insists, but only as a matter of courtesy. His decision is already taken."

Phil found himself nodding, with- out speaking; and then Falkran's voice came in his ear. "Hello? Sen-

tr? Did you hear?"

"Yes. Oh, yes."

"He says the interview would be useless, but of course he will see her if she wishes."

Phil's shoulders straightened, he assumed the responsibility of decision. "Thank you, Mr. Falkran," he said. "I should say it will not be necessary."

"She will not come?"

"She will not come," said Phil. He waited a little before returning to the others. They had gone out into the garden together; and he saw them through the window, walking arm-in-arm, his mother with her head bent, Barbara talking in swift eager fashion.

When he came out to them, she was still chattering; and he asked with a wry grin, "Broadcasting, Barb?"

"Oh, what did Mr. Falkran want?" she demanded.

"Nothing," he said. "Business. He spoke to his mother. 'That meeting is off,' he told her in tones which he tried to make casual. 'Falkran is satisfied it would do no good.'"

He saw her instant understanding; but Barbara protested: "What meeting? Don't be so mysterious!"

"Why, I wanted to see Dan's boss," Phil said with mock gravity. "To see if he wouldn't meet that Cleveland offer; try to keep Dan here; but he says Dan isn't worth what they're already paying him, much less more! Says—Dan can go and welcome!"

Barbara laughed. "All right, have secrets if you want to. I can't bother with you. I've too much on my mind."

He strolled with them around the house toward the tennis court, thinking he ought to go to town, but reluctant to leave his mother. Watching her, white Barbara's gay tongue ran, he saw that she in turn was watching Barbara, as though in wonder that the girl because she loved Dan could even in this hour be somehow happy; and he saw a change in his mother's demeanor, a slow dawning resolution in her eyes.

Till at last she spoke, interrupting Barbara's bright chatter. "I've been thinking, Barbara," she said, "about you and Dan. I suppose there's really no reason why you two shouldn't be married at once. Then you can go to Cleveland with him." Barbara's eyes were bright with sudden bliss, and Mrs. Sentry said, "After all, it would be inconvenient and expensive for a struggling young newspaper man to come way back here just to marry you."

Her tone was light, affectionate, full of understanding. The girl stood very still, and her eyes filled and overflowed. She said gratefully: "You're sweet, mother! And I do want to marry Dan right away, before he goes." She hesitated. "But I'm not going to leave you yet. I'll wait with you, go to him by and by."

"There's nothing to wait for here."

The girl spoke bravely. "I think there is. I can't help thinking there will be something. But if you don't mind our getting married first, before Dan goes—"

Mrs. Sentry smiled. "No, I don't mind."

Barbara caught her mother rapturously, kissed her hard, whirled away toward the house like a dancer. "I've got to telephone Dan this minute!" she cried, and was gone.

Mrs. Sentry looked after her; and Phil put his arm across his mother's shoulders. "That was great, mother!" he said. "You've made her so darned happy! And I know what it meant to you to let her go."

She said, half to herself: "I've built my life, Phil, on—pride. And I've been selfish too. But we've nothing of pride left, and I'll be happier if Barbara is happy. I'll have to start rebuilding my life on—some other foundation besides pride and selfishness now."

So Dan and Barbara were married, in the big living-room, with Phil, Linda and Mrs. Sentry as only witnesses. Mrs. Sentry during the intervening days and on that wedding day sometimes clung secretly to Phil's arm; but she managed to do nothing to alarm Barbara or distress her. They were married just after noon; then Dan took train for Cleveland and was gone.

This was Friday, the twenty-eighth of June. After Dan's departure, Phil proposed to his mother that they all drive away to York. "Just for the week-end?" he suggested.

She hesitated, asked then, "Phil, when will it be?" She added firmly: "What day? What hour?"

He spoke in a low tone. "Why, usually just after midnight," he told her.

"The first day?"

"Yes, Monday."

"I wanted to know," she explained, apologetically, "I'm—much better here than in York, till then."

He urged: "But Doctor Main-

tenor? Certainly not to Barbara. She is so young, such a child. Dan will love her; and she will forget... Then she heard their voices, their steps on the stairs; and they were here, their eyes shining, yet with a sober gravity. Barbara came to her mother; and Mrs. Sentry waited, and Barbara asked slowly, "Dan has told you, mother?"

"Yes, Barbara."

"We've been hoping and hoping he could find something!"

Mrs. Sentry smiled almost teasingly. "Oh, you had it all decided, already planned?"

"If he could—find the job he wanted, yes," Barbara confessed. "And I hoped it would be soon."

Mrs. Sentry's eyes fell, so that Barbara might not read them. Dan said quickly, "I have to be ready to start work out there on Monday, Mrs. Sentry."

"That is—July first?"

"Yes."

Phil thought her voice was miraculously steady. "You will come back for Barbara later?"

"I thought we'd be married at once, go to Cleveland together!"

Mrs. Sentry nodded gently. "I used to think hurried weddings lacked dignity," she confessed. "But I expect they are sweeter than dignity." Nellie came to announce dinner, and she said, "Stay, Dan?"

But he could not. "I've still a job here," he reminded them. "I'll have to run." Barbara went with him to the door; and Phil asked his mother in a low tone, "All right now?"

"Of course, Phil."

"If Barbara knew about you, she'd wait!"

She shook her head, smiling. "I won't cry-baby, spoil Barbara's happiness. She loves him, Phil. Only—it will be hard to have her go."

They heard Dan depart, heard the door close. Then Barbara, as they moved toward the dining-room, met them in the hall; and for a moment she held her mother close.

"Thank you, mother," she said. "You're wonderful to me. Dan wants to take me with him; and I want terribly to be a coward and go." She looked at Phil, reading his thoughts. "He says—even if we get married this week—he can fix it so there wouldn't be anything in the papers."

Mrs. Sentry said, "I'm sure he can!" Barbara looked at her keenly; and after a moment the girl cried: "But I'm not going! I'll stay with you till—till afterward, mother. I'll go to Dan then."

Mrs. Sentry spoke carefully. "It's for you to decide," she said. "But I should be glad to have you stay."

"Oh, mother, I shall." She was suddenly mature, a woman; and yet, Phil thought at dinner, she seemed conscious of this, and faintly diffident, so that beneath the cloak of maturity which she put on he saw still the child, terrified yet brave and bold.

He thought with a deep affection and solicitude: I wish she could marry Dan and go. She could if mother did not need her so. But mother will need her, tomorrow, after we see the Governor.

Barbara was still asleep in the morning when he took Mrs. Sentry to Doctor Mainton's office. The doctor heard their story, and then with that callous insensibility characteristic of physicians, left Phil to wait alone for two hours while he applied to Mrs. Sentry every test known to scientific medicine.

But his report in the end was reassuring. He said, to them both: "Well, Mrs. Sentry, I've checked up in every possible way; and there is nothing organically wrong with you. I am satisfied there has been no cerebral accident. Your nerves are worn out, and just before this happened you had your arms tight folded with your clenched fist under your left arm. That shut off the blood supply, perhaps; and a cramped position, and fatigue did the rest. That is all, I am sure."

Phil asked, "Ought we to do anything about it?"

Doctor Mainton hesitated. "Take your mother away somewhere," he said then. "To your summer home at York Harbor, perhaps. Can you go today?"

Mrs. Sentry said, "I am to see the Governor at two this afternoon." She thought Doctor Mainton might forbid this, tell her not to go; and she prepared to resist him. But he did not.

"Then afterward?" he urged. "Later in the afternoon. Go up there and get plenty of rest and sleep. Those are the only drugs you need."

At home they found Barbara awake, and wondering where they had been, and surprised to find Phil not gone to his office; but she was too much absorbed in her own happiness to be diligent with questions, and they put her off. Then she remembered that Mr. Falkran had telephoned, to speak to Phil.

"I told him he could catch you in town," she said. "Maybe you'd better call him up."

Phil met his mother's eye, and he went into the library to phone. Falkran said, "I've had news, Mr. Sentry."

Phil felt the blood pound in his ears against the receiver. "Yes?"

"I saw the Governor," Falkran explained. "He is willing to see Mrs. Sentry if she insists, but only as a matter of courtesy. His decision is already taken."

Phil found himself nodding, with- out speaking; and then Falkran's voice came in his ear. "Hello? Sen-

Phil, Mr. Wines Is Her

tr? Did you hear?"

"Yes. Oh, yes."

"He says the interview would be useless, but of course he will see her if she wishes."

Phil's shoulders straightened, he assumed the responsibility of decision. "Thank you, Mr. Falkran," he said. "I should say it will not be necessary."

"She will not come?"

"She will not come," said Phil. He waited a little before returning to the others. They had gone out into the garden together; and he saw them through the window, walking arm-in-arm, his mother with her head bent, Barbara talking in swift eager fashion.

When he came out to them, she was still chattering; and he asked with a wry grin, "Broadcasting, Barb?"

"Oh, what did Mr. Falkran want?" she demanded.

"Nothing," he said. "Business. He spoke to his mother. 'That meeting is off,' he told her in tones which he tried to make casual. 'Falkran is satisfied it would do no good.'"

He saw her instant understanding; but Barbara protested: "What meeting? Don't be so mysterious!"

"Why, I wanted to see Dan's boss," Phil said with mock gravity. "To see if he wouldn't meet that Cleveland offer; try to keep Dan here; but he says Dan isn't worth what they're already paying him, much less more! Says—Dan can go and welcome!"

Barbara laughed. "All right, have secrets if you want to. I can't bother with you. I've too much on my mind."

He strolled with them around the house toward the tennis court, thinking he ought to go to town, but reluctant to leave his mother. Watching her, white Barbara's gay tongue ran, he saw that she in turn was watching Barbara, as though in wonder that the girl because she loved Dan could even in this hour be somehow happy; and he saw a change in his mother's demeanor, a slow dawning resolution in her eyes.

Till at last she spoke, interrupting Barbara's bright chatter. "I've been thinking, Barbara," she said, "about you and Dan. I suppose there's really no reason why you two shouldn't be married at once. Then you can go to Cleveland with him." Barbara's eyes were bright with sudden bliss, and Mrs. Sentry said, "After all, it would be inconvenient and expensive for a struggling young newspaper man to come way back here just to marry you."

Her tone was light, affectionate, full of understanding. The girl stood very still, and her eyes filled and overflowed. She said gratefully: "You're sweet, mother! And I do want to marry Dan right away, before he goes." She hesitated. "But I'm not going to leave you yet. I'll wait with you, go to him by and by."

"There's nothing to wait for here."

The girl spoke bravely. "I think there is. I can't help thinking there will be something. But if you don't mind our getting married first, before Dan goes—"

Mrs. Sentry smiled. "No, I don't mind."

Barbara caught her mother rapturously, kissed her hard, whirled away toward the house like a dancer. "I've got to telephone Dan this minute!" she cried, and was gone.

Mrs. Sentry looked after her; and Phil put his arm across his mother's shoulders. "That was great, mother!" he said. "You've made her so darned happy! And I know what it meant to you to let her go."

She said, half to herself: "I've built my life, Phil, on—pride. And I've been selfish too. But we've nothing of pride left, and I'll be happier if Barbara is happy. I'll have to start rebuilding my life on—some other foundation besides pride and selfishness now."

So Dan and Barbara were married, in the big living-room, with Phil, Linda and Mrs. Sentry as only witnesses. Mrs. Sentry during the intervening days and on that wedding day sometimes clung secretly to Phil's arm; but she managed to do nothing to alarm Barbara or distress her. They were married just after noon; then Dan took train for Cleveland and was gone.

This was Friday, the twenty-eighth of June. After Dan's departure, Phil proposed to his mother that they all drive away to York. "Just for the week-end?" he suggested.

She hesitated, asked then, "Phil, when will it be?" She added firmly: "What day? What hour?"

He spoke in a low tone. "Why, usually just after midnight," he told her.

"The first day?"

"Yes, Monday."

"I wanted to know," she explained, apologetically, "I'm—much better here than in York, till then."

He urged: "But Doctor Main-

tenor? Certainly not to Barbara. She is so young, such a child. Dan will love her; and she will forget... Then she heard their voices, their steps on the stairs; and they were here, their eyes shining, yet with a sober gravity. Barbara came to her mother; and Mrs. Sentry waited, and Barbara asked slowly, "Dan has told you, mother?"

"Yes, Barbara."

"We've been hoping and hoping he could find something!"

Mrs. Sentry smiled almost teasingly. "Oh, you had it all decided, already planned?"

"If he could—find the job he wanted, yes," Barbara confessed. "And I hoped it would be soon."

Mrs. Sentry's eyes fell, so that Barbara might not read them. Dan said quickly, "I have to be ready to start work out there on Monday, Mrs. Sentry."

"That is—July first?"

"Yes."

Phil thought her voice was miraculously steady. "You will come back for Barbara later?"

"I thought we'd be married at once, go to Cleveland together!"

Mrs. Sentry nodded gently. "I used to think hurried weddings lacked dignity," she confessed. "But I expect they are sweeter than dignity." Nellie came to announce dinner, and she said, "Stay, Dan?"

But he could not. "I've still a job here," he reminded them. "I'll have to run." Barbara went with him to the door; and Phil asked his mother in a low tone, "All right now?"

"Of course, Phil."

"If Barbara knew about you, she'd wait!"

She shook her head, smiling. "I won't cry-baby, spoil Barbara's happiness. She loves him, Phil. Only—it will be hard to have her go."

They heard Dan depart, heard the door close. Then Barbara, as they moved toward the dining-room, met them in the hall; and for a moment she held her mother close.

"Thank you, mother," she said. "You're wonderful to me. Dan wants to take me with him; and I want terribly to be a coward and go." She looked at Phil, reading his thoughts. "He says—even if we get married this week—he can fix it so there wouldn't be anything in the papers."

Mrs. Sentry said, "I'm sure he can!" Barbara looked at her keenly; and after a moment the girl cried: "But I'm not going! I'll stay with you till—till afterward, mother. I'll go to Dan then."

Mrs. Sentry spoke carefully. "It's for you to decide," she said. "But I should be glad to have you stay."

"Oh, mother, I shall." She was suddenly mature, a woman; and yet, Phil thought at dinner, she seemed conscious of this, and faintly diffident, so that beneath the cloak of maturity which she put on he saw still the child, terrified yet brave and bold.

He thought with a deep affection and solicitude: I wish she could marry Dan and go. She could if mother did not need her so. But mother will need her, tomorrow, after we see the Governor.

Barbara was still asleep in the morning when he took Mrs. Sentry to Doctor Mainton's office. The doctor heard their story, and then with that callous insensibility characteristic of physicians, left Phil to wait alone for two hours while he applied to Mrs. Sentry every test known to scientific medicine.

But his report in the end was reassuring. He said, to them both: "Well, Mrs. Sentry, I've checked up in every possible way; and there is nothing organically wrong with you. I am satisfied there has been no cerebral accident. Your nerves are worn out, and just before this happened you had your arms tight folded with your clenched fist under your left arm. That shut off the blood supply, perhaps; and a cramped position, and fatigue did the rest. That is all, I am sure."

Phil asked, "Ought we to do anything about it?"

Doctor Mainton hesitated. "Take your mother away somewhere," he said then. "To your summer home at York Harbor, perhaps. Can you go today?"

Mrs. Sentry said, "I am to see the Governor at two this afternoon." She thought Doctor Mainton might forbid this, tell her not to go; and she prepared to resist him. But he did not.

"Then afterward?" he urged. "Later in the afternoon. Go up there and get plenty of rest and sleep. Those are the only drugs you need."

At home they found Barbara awake, and wondering where they had been, and surprised to find Phil not gone to his office; but she was too much absorbed in her own happiness to be diligent with questions, and they put her off. Then she remembered that Mr. Falkran had telephoned, to speak to Phil.

"I told him he could catch you in town," she said. "Maybe you'd better call him up."

Phil met his mother's eye, and he went into the library to phone. Falkran said, "I've had news, Mr. Sentry."

Phil felt the blood pound in his ears against the receiver. "Yes?"

"I saw the Governor," Falkran explained. "He is willing to see Mrs. Sentry if she insists, but only as a matter of courtesy. His decision is already taken."

Phil found himself nodding, with- out speaking; and then Falkran's voice came in his ear. "Hello? Sen-

tr? Did you hear?"

"Yes. Oh, yes."

"He says the interview would be useless, but of course he will see her if she wishes."

Phil's shoulders straightened, he assumed the responsibility of decision. "Thank you, Mr. Falkran," he said. "I should say it will not be necessary."

"She will not come?"

"She will not come," said Phil. He waited a little before returning to the others. They had gone out into the garden together; and he saw them through the window, walking arm-in-arm, his mother with her head bent, Barbara talking in swift eager fashion.

When he came out to them, she was still chattering; and he asked with a wry grin, "Broadcasting, Barb?"

"Oh, what did Mr. Falkran want?" she demanded.

"Nothing," he said. "Business. He spoke to his mother. 'That meeting is off,' he told her in tones which he tried to make casual. 'Falkran is satisfied it would do no good.'"

He saw her instant understanding; but Barbara protested: "What meeting? Don't be so mysterious!"

"Why, I wanted to see Dan's boss," Phil said with mock gravity. "To see if he wouldn't meet that Cleveland offer; try to keep Dan here; but he says Dan isn't worth what they're already paying him, much less more! Says—Dan can go and welcome!"

Barbara laughed. "All right, have secrets if you want to. I can't bother with you. I've too much on my mind."

He strolled with them around the house toward the tennis court, thinking he ought to go to town, but reluctant to leave his mother. Watching her, white Barbara's gay tongue ran, he saw that she in turn was watching Barbara, as though in wonder that the girl because she loved Dan could even in this hour be somehow happy; and he saw a change in his mother's demeanor, a slow dawning resolution in her eyes.

Till at last she spoke, interrupting Barbara's bright chatter. "I've been thinking, Barbara," she said, "about you and Dan. I suppose there's really no reason why you two shouldn't be married at once. Then you can go to Cleveland with him." Barbara's eyes were bright with sudden bliss, and Mrs. Sentry said, "After all, it would be inconvenient and expensive for a struggling young newspaper man to come way back here just to marry you."

Her tone was light, affectionate, full of understanding. The girl stood very still, and her eyes filled and overflowed. She said gratefully: "You're sweet, mother! And I do want to marry Dan right away, before he goes." She hesitated. "But I'm not going to leave you yet. I'll wait with you, go to him by and by."

"There's nothing to wait for here."

The girl spoke bravely. "I think there is. I can't help thinking there will be something. But if you don't mind our getting married first, before Dan goes—"

Mrs. Sentry smiled. "No, I don't mind."

Barbara caught her mother rapturously, kissed her hard, whirled away toward the house like a dancer. "I've got to telephone Dan this minute!" she cried, and was gone.

Mrs. Sentry looked after her; and Phil put his arm across his mother's shoulders. "That was great, mother!" he said. "You've made her so darned happy! And I know what it meant to you to let her go."

She said, half to herself: "I've built my life, Phil, on—pride. And I've been selfish too. But we've nothing of pride left, and I'll be happier if Barbara

MORTGAGE SALE

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of money secured by a mortgage dated the 18th day of June, A. D. 1937, executed by Junius J. Mayer and Maud Mayer, husband and wife, of Ann Arbor, Michigan, to Ann Arbor Savings and Commercial Bank, a Michigan Banking Corporation, which said mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Washtenaw County, Michigan, in Liber 212 of Mortgages, on page 285 at 9:45 A. M. on June 19th, 1937.

And Whereas, by the terms of said mortgage, it is provided that in case of default in the payment of principal or of any installment of principal or of interest, taxes, assessments or insurance, or any part thereof on any day, or when the same remain due and unpaid for the space of thirty days, the principal sum of said mortgage, together with all interest, taxes, assessments and insurance, shall at the option of the mortgagee, become due and payable, and should the same remain due and unpaid for the space of thirty days, the mortgagee shall have the right to foreclose the mortgage, together with all interest, taxes, assessments and insurance, and to sell the premises secured by said mortgage, and to apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the principal sum of said mortgage, together with all interest, taxes, assessments and insurance, and to pay the balance of the proceeds to the mortgagor, or to his heirs, assigns, legatees or assigns, or to the person or persons entitled to the same, and to execute all necessary instruments to carry out the purposes of this mortgage.

And Whereas, the amount claimed due on said mortgage is the sum of $2900.00 principal and interest in the amount of $156.05 and the further sum of thirty-five dollars as a mortgage fee stipulated for in said mortgage, and the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage is the sum of $3,085.05, and no suit or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder at the south front door of the courthouse of the city of Ann Arbor, in the County of Washtenaw, on the 21st day of October, A. D. 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day; which said premises are described in said mortgage as all that certain piece or parcel of land situated and being in the city of Ann Arbor, County of Washtenaw, and State of Michigan, to-wit:

Commencing at a point on the westerly line of Detroit Street sixty-six feet southwestly from the intersection of said westerly line of Detroit Street with the east line of Lot number two in block number four north Huron Street, range number six, and running thence southwesterly along the westerly line of Detroit Street, 73.5 feet; thence northwesterly at right angles with said westerly line of Detroit Street until it intersects a line parallel to and 99 feet east from the east line of North Fifth Avenue; thence north along said parallel line, 73 feet and 6 inches; thence east parallel with the north line of lot two in said block 32 feet and 8 inches; thence on a line at right angles with the westerly line of Detroit Street to the place of beginning, beginning at a point 90 feet east from the northwest corner of lot number two in said block; thence running north along the east line of Martin's street, 49 feet and 6 inches; thence east parallel to the north line of said lot, 2 feet and 2 inches; thence north parallel to the east line of Martin's street, 49 feet and 6 inches to the north line of said lot two; thence west 42 feet and 2 inches to the place of beginning, all being a part of lots number one and two in block number four north of Huron Street, Range number six, according to the Original Plat of the Village (now city) of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan.

Also, Part of the northeast quarter Section 18, Superior Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, which said part may be more particularly described as follows:

That is to say, beginning at the northeast corner of Section 18; thence north 1 degree 30 minutes and 00 seconds west along east line of Section 18, 235.10 feet to the southerly line of highway, T. L. No. 153 and the place of beginning of this description; thence continuing south 1 degree, 30 minutes 00 seconds west along east line of Section 18, 177.40 feet; thence north 88 degrees, 27 minutes 30 seconds west, 995.49 feet; thence north 82 degrees 20 minutes 00 seconds east, 80 feet to the southerly line at highway T. L. No. 153; thence north 82 degrees 52 minutes 30 seconds east, along the southerly line of T. L. highway No. 153, 813.47 feet to the place of beginning, containing 2.88 acres. Also excepting that portion of strip of land fifty feet in width reserved for a channel change located on the above described parcel. Said channel change is described by its bearing and line as follows: Beginning at a point in the north line of Section 18, 40 feet west of the northeast corner of section 18; thence south 2 degrees 15 minutes 00 seconds east 285 feet; thence south 16 degrees 30 minutes east, 120.00 feet to the line of ending. The portion located on the above described parcel contains 2.92 acres as shown on the accompanying plan.

Ann Arbor Savings and Commercial Bank, a Michigan Banking Corporation, Mortgagee.

J. EDGAR DWYER, Attorney for Mortgagee, Business Address: 506 Ann Arbor Trust Building, Ann Arbor, Mich. M-ST-558 July 14-Oct 6

BURKE & BURKE, Attorneys for Mortgagee, Business Address: Ann Arbor, Mich. July 14-Oct 6

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE

Defaults having been made (and such defaults having continued for more than ninety days) in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Charles C. Wise and Blanche E. Wise, husband and wife, of the Township of Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan, to HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION, a Corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America, dated February 28, 1934, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County, Michigan, on March 14, 1934, in Liber 201 of Mortgages, on Page 132, and said mortgage having elected under the terms of said mortgage to declare the entire principal and accrued interest thereon due, which election it does hereby exercise, pursuant to which there is claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice for principal and interest to date hereof the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Eighty-Five and 14/100 Dollars ($1385.14) and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Monday, October 3, 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time, at the south outer door of the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, County of Washtenaw, Michigan (that being the place of holding Circuit Court in said County) said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due as aforesaid, and any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned at or before said sale for taxes and/or insurance on said premises, and all other sums paid by the undersigned, with interest thereon, pursuant to law and to the terms of said mortgage, and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including an attorney's fee, which premises are described as follows:

That certain piece or parcel of land situated in the Township of Ypsilanti, County of Washtenaw, Michigan, more particularly described as: Lot number Six in Huron Home Sites Subdivision according to the recorded plat thereof. Said Subdivision being a part of the northeast quarter of Section Five, Town Three South, Range Seven East, Washtenaw County, Michigan. Said Plat being recorded in Liber 5 of Plats, page 8. Dated: July 7, 1938.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation, Mortgagee.

J. EDGAR DWYER, Attorney for Mortgagee, Business Address: 506 Ann Arbor Trust Building, Ann Arbor, Mich. M-ST-558 July 7-Sept 20

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE Defaults having been made (and such defaults having continued for more than ninety days) in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Walter Rupert and Etta J. Rupert, husband and wife, of the Township of Pittsfield, Washtenaw County, Michigan, to HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION, a Corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America, dated May 25, 1934, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County, Michigan, on June 19, 1934, in Liber 201 of Mortgages, on Page 584, and said mortgage having elected under the terms of said mortgage to declare the entire principal and accrued interest thereon due, which election it does hereby exercise, pursuant to which there is claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice for principal and interest to date hereof the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty-Nine and 91/100 Dollars ($759.91) and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Monday, October 3, 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time at the south outer door to the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, County of Washtenaw, Michigan (that being the place of holding Circuit Court in said County) said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due as aforesaid, and any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned at or before said sale for taxes and/or insurance on said premises, and all other sums paid by the undersigned, with interest thereon, pursuant to law and to the terms of said mortgage, and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including an attorney's fee, which premises are described as follows:

That certain piece or parcel of land situated in the Township of Pittsfield, County of Washtenaw, Michigan, more particularly described as: Lot Sixty-six of Springwater Subdivision northeast quarter of Section 10, Town 3 South, Range 8 East, according to the plat thereof recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds in Liber 4 of Plats, page 46. Dated: August 4, 1938.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation, Mortgagee.

J. EDGAR DWYER, Attorney for Mortgagee, Business Address: 506 Ann Arbor Trust Building, Ann Arbor, Mich. M-ST-558 Aug 4-Oct 27

STATE OF MICHIGAN

In the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw, In Chancery. Waldo H. Rose and Helen N. Rose, Plaintiffs, vs. James Kingsley, Emma J. Loomis, their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, Defendants.

Order for Publication At a session of said Court, held at the Court House, in the City of Ann Arbor, in said County, on the 9th day of August, A. D. 1938.

In this cause it appearing by a Bill of Complaint duly verified, presented and filed and to the satisfaction of the Court, that the above named Defendants and their unknown successors, heirs, devisees, legatees, or assigns, are necessary and proper parties to the above entitled cause, and are interested in the subject matter thereof, and whose names appear in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Washtenaw, as having, at some time, claimed a right, title, interest or estate in the subject matter of said cause or some portion thereof, or as having a lien or charge thereon without having conveyed or released the same, and who might at any time under the provisions of legal effect of certain instruments or record claim or attempt to claim, or be entitled to claim benefits thereunder; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the above named parties are dead or that whereabouts unknown to the said Plaintiffs, and that after diligent search and inquiry, they have been unable to ascertain the same, or where any of them or any of their successors, heirs, devisees, legatees, or assigns, reside or whether any interest as they may or might have therein has been disposed of by will or otherwise, and that such Defendants cannot be personally served with process, therefore, on Motion of John B. Mellett, one of the Attorneys for the Plaintiffs.

It is Ordered, that the appearance of the said Defendants and each and all of them be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order; that in case of their appearance that they cause their answer to the Bill of Complaint to be filed and a copy thereof served upon the Attorneys for the Plaintiffs within fifteen days after service upon them, or their Attorney, of a copy of said Bill, and that in default thereof, said Bill be taken as confessed by each of said Defendants, and it is further Ordered that the said Plaintiffs cause a copy of this Order to be published in The Chelsea Standard, a newspaper printed, published, and circulated in said County of Washtenaw, and that such publication be continued therein in each week for six consecutive weeks, or that the Plaintiffs cause a copy of this Order to be personally served upon the said Defendants, and upon each of them at least twenty days before the time prescribed for their appearance or that the Plaintiffs cause this Order to be otherwise served as provided by law, authorizing the service of orders by Registered Mail.

Geo. W. Sample, Circuit Judge. Countersigned: Luella M. Smith, Deputy Clerk. To the Said Defendants: Take Notice, that the above cause involved the title to the following described premises situated and being in the Township of Pittsfield, County of Washtenaw, and State of Michigan: Beginning at a point on the west line of section four, town three south, range six east, twelve chains and eighty-six and 1/2 links south of the northwest corner thereof; thence east two hundred twenty five feet; thence north parallel to the west line of said section one hundred ten feet; thence west approximately two hundred forty-three feet to the east line of south State Street; thence in a southerly direction on the east line of south State Street to a point due west of the place of beginning; thence east approximately 15 feet to the place of beginning.

PAYNE & MELLOTT, Attorneys for Plaintiffs, Business Address: 312 First National Building, Ann Arbor, Michigan. A true copy: Luella M. Smith, Deputy Clerk. Aug 18-Sept 29

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE Defaults having been made (and such defaults having continued for more than ninety days) in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Francis F. Hoppis and Helen C. Hoppis, husband and wife, of the City of Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan, to HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION, a Corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America, dated June 21, 1934, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County, Michigan, on July 11, 1934, in Liber 203 of Mortgages, on Page 128, and said mortgage having elected under the terms of said mortgage to declare the entire principal and accrued interest thereon due, which election it does hereby exercise, pursuant to which there is claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice for principal and interest to date hereof the sum of Two Thousand Three Hundred Sixty-Five and 24/100 Dollars ($2365.24) and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Monday, November 7, 1938 at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time at the south outer door to the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, County of Washtenaw, Michigan (that being the place of holding Circuit Court in said County) said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due as aforesaid, and any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned at or before said sale for taxes and/or insurance on said premises, and all other sums paid by the undersigned, with interest thereon, pursuant to law and to the terms of said mortgage, and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including an attorney's fee, which premises are described as follows:

That certain piece or parcel of land situated in the Township of Ypsilanti, County of Washtenaw, Michigan, more particularly described as: Lot Sixty-six of Springwater Subdivision northeast quarter of Section 10, Town 3 South, Range 8 East, according to the plat thereof recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds in Liber 4 of Plats, page 46. Dated: August 4, 1938.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation, Mortgagee.

J. EDGAR DWYER, Attorney for Mortgagee, Business Address: 506 Ann Arbor Trust Building, Ann Arbor, Mich. M-ST-558 Aug 4-Oct 27

STATE OF MICHIGAN

In the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw, In Chancery: William Fox, Plaintiff, vs. Anna Rosen, Julius G. Solomon, Samuel B. Solomon, D. I. Gerson and Sons Co., an Ohio Corporation, Defendants.

Bertha Gerson substituted as Cross-Plaintiff for I. Gerson & Sons Company, an Ohio Corporation, by Order of the Court, Cross-Plaintiff, vs. William Fox, Anna Rosen, Julius G. Solomon and Mary Doe, the wife of Julius G. Solomon, Samuel B. Solomon, and Mary Roe, the wife of Samuel B. Solomon, Sol M. Gerson, and Betty B. Gerson, his wife, Cross-Defendants.

In pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw, in Chancery, made and entered on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1938, in the above entitled cause, the undersubscribed, a Circuit Court Commissioner of the County of Washtenaw, shall sell at public auction or vendue to the highest bidder at the southerly or Huron Street entrance to the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, in said County of Washtenaw, that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw is held, on Tuesday, the 11th day of October, A. D. 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time, of that day, all those certain pieces or parcels of land situated in the Township of Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan, described as:

The entire Ypsilanti East Park Subdivision, T. 3 S., R. 7 E., Ypsilanti Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, as laid out and platted, said plat being duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Washtenaw County, Michigan, containing two hundred eighty-four (284) lots, and being further described as: All that parcel of land in the Township of Ypsilanti, County of Washtenaw, Michigan, beginning at a point in the center of the north and south highway between Sections 2 and 3 in the said Township of Ypsilanti, where the said highway intersects the Michigan Avenue Road, running thence easterly along said Michigan Avenue Road to southwest corner of land sold by William Maylay to Fred Epley under said contract and sold by said Epley and wife to Charles Vapor, as is shown by records contained in the office of the Register of Deeds, Washtenaw County, Michigan, in Liber 2 of Miscellaneous Records, page 205; thence north to east and west highway on the quarter-section line; thence west to west line of Section 2; thence south along line of Sections 2 and 11 to place of beginning, intending to convey the west fifty-seven (57) acres lying north of Michigan Avenue Road of what was formerly known as William H. Lay Farm, excepting and reserving therefrom a right of way for electric railway purposes, according to deed in Liber 192 of Deeds, on page 184, excepting, however, lots thirty-three (33) to sixty-six (66), both inclusive, lots one hundred thirteen (113) to one hundred sixteen (116) both inclusive, and lots one hundred twenty-five (125) to one hundred thirty-eight (138) both inclusive. Dated: August 22, 1938.

JOSEPH C. HOOPER, Circuit Court Commissioner, Washtenaw County, Michigan. BURKE & BURKE, Attorneys for Cross-Plaintiff, Ann Arbor, Mich. Aug 25-Oct 6

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE Defaults having been made (and such defaults having continued for more than ninety days) in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Francis F. Hoppis and Helen C. Hoppis, husband and wife, of the City of Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan, to HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION, a Corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America, dated June 21, 1934, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County, Michigan, on July 11, 1934, in Liber 203 of Mortgages, on Page 128, and said mortgage having elected under the terms of said mortgage to declare the entire principal and accrued interest thereon due, which election it does hereby exercise, pursuant to which there is claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice for principal and interest to date hereof the sum of Two Thousand Three Hundred Sixty-Five and 24/100 Dollars ($2365.24) and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Monday, November 7, 1938 at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time at the south outer door to the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, County of Washtenaw, Michigan (that being the place of holding Circuit Court in said County) said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due as aforesaid, and any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned at or before said sale for taxes and/or insurance on said premises, and all other sums paid by the undersigned, with interest thereon, pursuant to law and to the terms of said mortgage, and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including an attorney's fee, which premises are described as follows:

That certain piece or parcel of land situated in the Township of Ypsilanti, County of Washtenaw, Michigan, more particularly described as: Lot Sixty-six of Springwater Subdivision northeast quarter of Section 10, Town 3 South, Range 8 East, according to the plat thereof recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds in Liber 4 of Plats, page 46. Dated: August 4, 1938.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation, Mortgagee.

J. EDGAR DWYER, Attorney for Mortgagee, Business Address: 506 Ann Arbor Trust Building, Ann Arbor, Mich. M-ST-558 Aug 4-Oct 27

BURKE & BURKE, Attorneys for Mortgagee, Business Address: Ann Arbor, Mich. July 14-Oct 6

STATE OF MICHIGAN

In the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw, In Chancery: William Fox, Plaintiff, vs. Anna Rosen, Julius G. Solomon, Samuel B. Solomon, D. I. Gerson and Sons Co., an Ohio Corporation, Defendants.

Bertha Gerson substituted as Cross-Plaintiff for I. Gerson & Sons Company, an Ohio Corporation, by Order of the Court, Cross-Plaintiff, vs. William Fox, Anna Rosen, Julius G. Solomon and Mary Doe, the wife of Julius G. Solomon, Samuel B. Solomon, and Mary Roe, the wife of Samuel B. Solomon, Sol M. Gerson, and Betty B. Gerson, his wife, Cross-Defendants.

In pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw, in Chancery, made and entered on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1938, in the above entitled cause, the undersubscribed, a Circuit Court Commissioner of the County of Washtenaw, shall sell at public auction or vendue to the highest bidder at the southerly or Huron Street entrance to the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, in said County of Washtenaw, that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw is held, on Tuesday, the 11th day of October, A. D. 1938, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time, of that day, all those certain pieces or parcels of land situated in the Township of Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan, described as:

The entire Ypsilanti East Park Subdivision, T. 3 S., R. 7 E., Ypsilanti Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan, as laid out and platted, said plat being duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Washtenaw County, Michigan, containing two hundred eighty-four (284) lots, and being further described as: All that parcel of land in the Township of Ypsilanti, County of Washtenaw, Michigan, beginning at a point in the center of the north and south highway between Sections 2 and 3 in the said Township of Ypsilanti, where the said highway intersects the Michigan Avenue Road, running thence easterly along said Michigan Avenue Road to southwest corner of land sold by William Maylay to Fred Epley under said contract and sold by said Epley and wife to Charles Vapor, as is shown by records contained in the office of the Register of Deeds, Washtenaw County, Michigan, in Liber 2 of Miscellaneous Records, page 205; thence north to east and west highway on the quarter-section line; thence west to west line of Section 2; thence south along line of Sections 2 and 11 to place of beginning, intending to convey the west fifty-seven (57) acres lying north of Michigan Avenue Road of what was formerly known as William H. Lay Farm, excepting and reserving therefrom a right of way for electric railway purposes, according to deed in Liber 192 of Deeds, on page 184, excepting, however, lots thirty-three (33) to sixty-six (66), both inclusive, lots one hundred thirteen (113) to one hundred sixteen (116) both inclusive, and lots one hundred twenty-five (125) to one hundred thirty-eight (138) both inclusive. Dated: August 22, 1938.

JOSEPH C. HOOPER, Circuit Court Commissioner, Washtenaw County, Michigan. BURKE & BURKE, Attorneys for Cross-Plaintiff, Ann Arbor, Mich. Aug 25-Oct 6

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE Defaults having been made (and such defaults having continued for more than ninety days) in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Francis F. Hoppis and Helen C. Hoppis, husband and wife, of the City of Ypsilanti, Washtenaw County, Michigan, to HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPORATION, a Corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America, dated June 21, 1934, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County, Michigan, on July 11, 1934, in Liber 203 of Mortgages, on Page 128, and said mortgage having elected under the terms of said mortgage to declare the entire principal and accrued interest thereon due, which election it does hereby exercise, pursuant to which there is claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice for principal and interest to date hereof the sum of Two Thousand Three Hundred Sixty-Five and 24/100 Dollars ($2365.24) and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and pursuant to the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Monday, November 7, 1938 at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time at the south outer door to the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor, County of Washtenaw, Michigan (that being the place of holding Circuit Court in said County) said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due as aforesaid, and any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned at or before said sale for taxes and/or insurance on said premises, and all other sums paid by the undersigned, with interest thereon, pursuant to law and to the terms of said mortgage, and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including an attorney's fee, which premises are described as follows:

That certain piece or parcel of land situated in the Township of Ypsilanti, County of Washtenaw, Michigan, more particularly described as: Lot Sixty-six of Springwater Subdivision northeast quarter of Section 10, Town 3 South, Range 8 East, according to the plat thereof recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds in Liber 4 of Plats, page 46. Dated: August 4, 1938.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation, Mortgagee.

J. EDGAR DWYER, Attorney for Mortgagee, Business Address: 506 Ann Arbor Trust Building, Ann Arbor, Mich. M-ST-558 Aug 4-Oct 27

BURKE & BURKE, Attorneys for Mortgagee, Business Address: Ann Arbor, Mich. July 14-Oct 6

ORDINANCE NO. 62

An ordinance to prohibit the sale or offering for sale of produce, merchandise, goods, wares, refreshments or other kinds of property from vehicles, stands, or by parties on foot, or offering or crying their wares from the public streets and sidewalks in the Village of Chelsea, known as North and South Main Street, between said North Main Street and the intersection of Michigan Central Railroad right of way and said South Main Street; the intersection of said South Main Street and West Middle Street extending 300 feet westerly from said South Street's intersection with said South Main Street; the portion of Park Street extending 300 feet easterly from said Park Street's intersection with said West Middle Street; the portion of West Middle Street extending 300 feet westerly from said West Middle Street's intersection with said Main Street; and the portion of East Middle Street extending 300 feet easterly from said East Middle Street's intersection with Main Street.

The Village of Chelsea ordains: Section One. No person, firm, or corporation shall engage in the sale, or offering for sale, of produce, merchandise, goods, wares, refreshments or other kinds of property from vehicles, stands or on foot from the public streets and sidewalks in the Village of Chelsea, known as North and South Main Street, between said North Main Street and the intersection of Michigan Central Railroad right of way and said South Main Street; the intersection of said South Main Street and West Middle Street extending 300 feet westerly from said South Street's intersection with said South Main Street; the portion of Park Street extending 300 feet easterly from said Park Street's intersection with said West Middle Street; the portion of West Middle Street extending 300 feet westerly from said West Middle Street's intersection with said Main Street; and the portion of East Middle Street extending 300 feet easterly from said East Middle Street's intersection with Main Street.

Section Two. No person, firm, or corporation shall cry, or offer their wares, merchandise, produce, goods, refreshments or other kinds of property from vehicles, stands or on foot from the public streets and sidewalks in the Village of Chelsea, known as North and South Main Street, between said North Main Street and the intersection of Michigan Central Railroad right of way and said South Main Street; the intersection of said South Main Street and West Middle Street extending 300 feet westerly from said South Street's intersection with said South Main Street; the portion of Park Street extending 300 feet easterly from said Park Street's intersection with said West Middle Street; the portion of West Middle Street extending 300 feet westerly from said West Middle Street's intersection with said Main Street; and the portion of East Middle Street extending 300 feet easterly from said East Middle Street's intersection with Main Street.

Section Three. This ordinance expressly excludes from its operation any person, firm, or corporation selling goods or taking orders from samples, lists of catalogues, when the goods are to be delivered to the purchaser or buyer by being shipped into Michigan from another State.

Section Four. Any person, firm, or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Fifty Dollars and costs of prosecution, or ten days imprisonment in the county jail or both, and upon imposition of such fine the Court shall have the power and authority to make a further order or judgment that such person so convicted shall be imprisoned in the county jail until such fine and costs shall be paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed ten days.

Section Five. All ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section Six. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force after twenty days from passage and legal publication. Dated September 19, 1938.

Roy Harris, Village President. James Munro, Village Clerk. The foregoing ordinance was adopted at a regular meeting of the Village Council held on September 19, 1938 pursuant to a motion by Adam and supported by Williams, and passed by unanimous vote. Adv. James Munro, Village Clerk.

Use of Peppercorns In old-fashioned cook books and in family recipes that are handed down from generation to generation, there are many times when the ingredients call for peppercorns. That is a word which denotes an ingredient with which even the youngest cook is familiar, for it means merely whole pepper, either black or white. Pepper grows in long clusters, and each little pepper is small and round, with a dimpled skin like an orange. It is picked before it is completely ripe and then dried until it is hard and shriveled. It is in this form that it comes to us and is used in our kitchens to favor meats, soups and many other foods. The most common use of pepper is in the ground form which is used at the table as well as in seasoning food during the cooking.

Grave of a Lonely Man Near a highway in Hyde county, North Carolina, is the grave of a man who requested he be buried close to the road. He had been lonely all his life and wanted to be close to passerby.

'Ma' Has Six Meanings In the Annamite language of southern Asia, the term "ma" has six different meanings, depending on the infection used—young rice, but, horse, ghost, tomb and mama.

Reindeers Are Guided by

Cord Attached to Horns Reindeer are trained to be driven at 3 to 5 years of age. They are guided by a leather cord drawn tightly at the base of the horns. The harness consists of a collar and a single trace leading from the collar downward between the animal's legs to the pulka, so far back that it is out of reach of kicks. Bulls are worked until they are 15 or 16 years old, and they are probably at their best at 10 years, writes Mason, Warner in the Chicago Tribune.

To stop a reindeer, throw the rein to the left; to speed him, throw it to the right. The rein hangs loosely but does not touch the snow. The pulka is guided by a stick used as a rudder. In early winter a man will travel a hundred miles in a day with a reindeer, going to or coming from church. The deer slow down in the spring after a hard winter. They become thin and poor weak and puny, after pawing and digging down through snow three to four feet deep for lichen moss for food.

A native family can live comfortably with a herd of 200 reindeer. Some have more, some have less. Reindeer culture is limited to Lapland in Sweden; no Swedes can invest in it. The state is against any ownership except that of the Lapps, and the law prevents anybody except a Lapp from grazing deer on public lands. The mountaineers refuse to tend the herds for anybody not of their race, but it was four Lapps from the Torne Trask region who took the first reindeer into Alaska and taught the Yukon Indians how to care for them.

Name Priscilla Derived From Latin Clan Title The name Priscilla has the curious meaning "the ancient." It is said to be derived from the title of a Latin clan, so-called because of its great antiquity, and indicates long life for its bearer, writes Florence A. Cowles in the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In the eighth chapter of Acts we read that Paul, while in Corinth, made his home with Aquila, a Jew, and his wife Priscilla, who were tentmakers. In II, Tim. 4:19 Paul writes "Salute Prisca and Aquila." My Bible says that the two were the same woman and that Priscilla is a diminutive of Prisca "ancient." It is this is the fact, then Priscilla would mean "little old lady." But from the fact of Paul's using Prisca in this way it would seem that that might be the apostle's affectionately familiar nickname for Priscilla, the true form of the name.

St. Priscilla, wife of a Roman senator, used her wealth to relieve the poor and in the first century caused to be excavated the famous cemetery which bears her name and is on what was once her property.

To us, Priscilla means primarily Priscilla Mullens, Puritan maiden and heroine of Longfellow's "Courtship of Miles Standish," who married John Alden instead of the doughty soldier.

Constitution and By-Laws A constitution is defined as the organic law of any organized body or association of persons. A by-law is defined as a rule or law adopted by an association, corporation or the like, for its government in the conduct of its own affairs subordinate to its constitution or charter.

Robert's Rules of Order says that an incorporated society frequently has no constitution, the charter taking its place, and many others prefer to combine under one head the rules that are more commonly placed under the separate heads of constitution and by-laws. The same authority says that the rules of a society, in a majority of cases, may be conveniently divided into the four classes of constitution, by-laws, rules of order, and standing rules, though in some societies all the rules are found under one of these heads, being called either the constitution, or the by-laws, or the standing rules.

Site of Mexico City Mexico City owes its site to the Aztecs. Like ancient Troy, it was built one city on top of another, and historians believe that Indian temples exist in the subsoil there, having sunk gradually into the earth because of their great weight. The old time city was a watery kingdom. Its valley was made up of a series of large lakes, and the city itself was founded on an island in the lake of Texcoco. It had an elaborate system of canals and dikes. Some of its houses were built on stilts in the water, and waterways connected it with various parts of the valley. When Spaniards conquered Mexico City, they demolished most of the relics of the Aztec civilization.

Reconstructing Skeletons Every museum has a staff of scientists who specialize in reconstructing animal skeletons. Many work only on ancient remains, but all had to learn with bones of modern animals. Often they work for years on a single dinosaur or prehistoric elephant. However, by reconstructing a whole group of plants and animals, says the Washington Post, they can show what kind of land the animals lived in, whether it contained any forests, swamps, hills or oceans.

CHURCH CIRCLES

ST. MARY CHURCH
Father Lawrence Dorr, Pastor
First Mass 8:00 a. m.
Second Mass 10:00 a. m.
Mass on week days 8:00 a. m.

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL
P. H. Grabowski, Pastor
Thursday, Sept. 29th
7:00 o'clock—Teachers' meeting.
Sunday, Oct. 2nd
10:00 o'clock—English service.
11:15 o'clock—Sunday school.

SALEM METHODIST EPISCOPAL
Rev. Henry Lenz, Pastor
Combined Rally Day service at 10:30 on Sunday, Oct. 2.
The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Wednesday, Oct. 5 with Miss Rieka Kalmbach at 2:30.
The Epworth League will meet with Misses Betty and Carolyn Kalmbach on Thursday evening, Oct. 6.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL
Rev. Frederick D. Mumby, Pastor
Rally Day in Church and Sunday school.
Morning worship at 10:00. Anthem. Senior choir. Sermon by the pastor. "Thirty Years in the Ministry." Organist, Mrs. P. M. Broesamle. Sunday school at 11:15. Special Rally Day program. Promotion of pupils who have completed the work of a department, with presentation of diplomas, Bibles, etc.
This program will follow the morning service and all are urged to see and hear it. Special offering for the Board of Sunday Schools. Epworth League at 6:30. Songs. Bible study. Discussion of the problems confronting young people today. Come.
Official Board meeting on Thursday evening, October 6, at 8:00.

RALLY DAY PROGRAM
Primary Department
Song—"This is God's House"
Prayer—"I Think of God in Church"
"My Prayer"—Marlene Heydlauff.
Twenty-third Psalm—Graduating Class.
Sunbeam Song—Primary Department.
Two Great Commandments—Graduating Class.
Lord's Prayer—Graduating Class.
Presentation of Bibles—Mrs. Wilkinson.
Presentation of Diplomas—Mrs. Wilkinson.
Junior Department
Offertory—Junior Department.
Presentation of Class and Class Handbook—Mrs. Palmer.
Presentation of Diplomas—Mrs. Daniels.
Song—"I Would Be True"—Sunday school.
Benediction—Rev. Mumby.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Rev. Ray W. Barber, Pastor
We confidently expect everything to be in readiness for the dedicatory services on Sunday next. At the worship service in the morning at 10:00, communion will be held and baptism of children will take place. The minister will speak on the subject: "Newness of Life." The time of the Sunday school is 11:05 and all are invited to stay. Dinner will be served at 12:30, and a freewill offering taken. The dedicatory service will be held at 2:30. Dr. Albert Kaufman will speak on the subject: "The Church in the World", and Rev. Arje Binkhorst will offer the prayer. We hope the whole community will join with us on this day of celebration, attending their own services in the morning, and visiting us for the dinner and afternoon service.

Choir practice tonight at 7:00. Please note change of time for this week.

WATERLOO CIRCUIT
U. B. CHURCH
Rev. R. E. Uhrig, Pastor
Morning worship at 10 a. m. Sunday school at 11 a. m. Everyone welcome to our services.

NORTH LAKE M. E. CHURCH
Rev. Herbert Brubaker
Church school at 10:30.
Worship service at 11:30.
Epworth League at 7:00.

Monument Near Montreal Pays Tribute to Heroine
No episode in Canadian history is more stirring than that of the valiant defense of a fort in the picturesque Canadian village of Vercheres against a marauding band of Iroquois Indians about 250 years ago by a fourteen-year-old girl, recalls a writer in the Boston Herald.
Madeleine de Vercheres is the heroine's name and her epic feat is commemorated by a monument to her honor. It stands, only a short distance from the ruins of the fort she defended, at the edge of the St. Lawrence river, 10 miles below Montreal on the south shore of the river.
The fort and blockhouse at Vercheres were besieged in the summer of 1690 by a band of Iroquois who massacred the "habitants" working in the fields. The Seigneur of Vercheres and his lady were away but their fourteen-year-old daughter, Madeleine, determined to hold the fort. This she did for a week until the fort was relieved, being aided in her courageous stand by a "garde" consisting of an old man of eighty years, her two brothers, aged twelve and ten, and two cowardly soldiers. The Indians supposed that the fort was held by a strong garrison, and dared not make a direct attack. They prowled about until a force from Montreal drove them away.
The following account of the defense of Vercheres given by Madeleine herself appears in standard Canadian history books: "I placed my brothers on two of the bastions, the old man on the third, and I took the fort. All night in spite of wind, snow and hail, the cries of 'All's well' were kept up. One could have thought the place was full of soldiers. I may say with truth that I did not eat or sleep for twice 24 hours but kept always on the bastions. I kept a cheerful and smiling face to encourage my little company with hope of speedy success."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HEAR JERRY BEISSEL and His Band at American Legion Dance—public school gym, on Friday evening, October 7. Admission, 35c per person. Adv.
Special meeting K. of P. on Monday evening, October 3, at 8 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Olive Lodge, 156, F. & A. M., Tuesday, October 4. Moving pictures from General Electric Co. Lunch.
Legion Auxiliary meeting Tuesday evening, October 4, 7:30 p. m., at Legion Home, Cavanaugh Lake. Installation of officers. Second District invited.

Don't forget Booster Night this Friday night at Lima Center Grange hall. Rev. Barber will be the speaker for the evening; also other special numbers. Program will begin at 8:15 p. m. A pot-luck lunch will be served at the close of the program. Bring your own dishes.

Regular meeting Olive Chapter, No. 108, O. E. S., October 5 at 7:30 o'clock. Light refreshments.
Washtenaw County Association O. E. S. convenes in Ann Arbor at the Masonic Temple on October 5 at 2:30 p. m. Local Chapter officers will present the flag.

The Grand Chapter, O. E. S. will be held in Grand Rapids on Oct. 11, 12 and 13, opening with a banquet at the Pantielon Hotel on the 11th. The ranking delegates are Lenore Schmidt, Leora Groves and Lionel Vickers.
The Limerane Sewing club will meet with Mrs. Anna Krumm at her home in Plymouth on Thursday, October 6. All those wishing to go, meet at Mrs. Neva Prudden's at 9:00 o'clock on Thursday morning. All members are requested to go. A pot-luck dinner will be served at noon.

The Pythian Sisters will hold a party at their hall on Thursday evening, Oct. 6 at 8 o'clock. Each member requested to bring one article and two friends.
The Philathea circle of the M. E. church will meet Wednesday, October 5 at the home of Mrs. John Fletcher, at 2 o'clock.
The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's church will meet at the home of Mrs. John Koch on Friday, Oct. 7.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

State of Michigan, In the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw, In Chancery.
Charles Goldman, Plaintiff, vs.
E. W. Morgan, Lucy W. S. Morgan, the unknown wife of Robert Geddes, the unknown wife of Smith Botsford, the unknown wife of William S. Maynard, William S. Maynard, C. H. K. Warren, John Kettner, and James M. Stafford, together with their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, successors and assigns, Defendants.
At a session of said Court held in the Court House in the City of Ann Arbor on the 26th day of September, 1938.
Present: Hon. George W. Sample, Circuit Judge.
In this cause, it appearing from the bill of complaint filed herein that the whereabouts of the said defendants and their each of their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, successors and assigns, are unknown and that the same cannot be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry.
Now, therefore, on motion of William M. Laird, attorney for the plaintiff, it is Ordered that the appearance of the above named defendants and their each of their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order; that in case of their appearance they cause their answer to be filed and a copy thereof served upon attorney for the plaintiff within fifteen days after service upon them of a copy of the bill of complaint, and in default of their appearance that said bill of complaint be taken as confessed by the said defendants, their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.
It is further ordered that the plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be published in the Chelsea Standard, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in said County and that said publication be commenced within forty days from the date of this order and be continued therein once each week for six weeks in succession.
Geo. W. Sample, Circuit Judge.
Countersigned: Emmett M. Gibb, County Clerk.
WILLIAM M. LAIRD, Attorney for Plaintiff.
Business Address: 201-3 Ann Arbor Trust Bldg., Ann Arbor, Michigan.
To the Said Defendants:
Take Notice that the above entitled cause was instituted for the purpose of quieting title to the following described lands and premises, to-wit:
The south sixty three feet of lot number one and the west twenty one feet of the south sixty three feet of lot two, all in block three north, range ten east, in the City of Ann Arbor. Also commencing at the northeast corner of said described parcel of land and running west on the north line thereof, eight feet; thence north parallel with the east line of State Street, three feet; thence east parallel to the north line of Catherine Street, eight feet; thence south three feet to the place of beginning. City of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan.
WILLIAM M. LAIRD, Attorney for Plaintiff.
Business Address: 201-3 Ann Arbor Trust Bldg., Ann Arbor, Michigan Sept 29-Nov 10
Woodchucks Good Chuck
Woodchucks provided much good food for the pioneers, who prized the meat highly, and from the hides of the animals they made the best whip lashes and shoe laces.

LINER COLUMN

WE DO NOT LOSE—Work shoe customers—because they buy WOLVERINE SHELL HORSESHOES—the longest wearing—most comfortable work shoes made. Come in on a pair. Quality Shoe Repair.
HEAR JERRY BEISSEL and His Band at American Legion Dance—public school gym, on Friday evening, October 7. Admission, 35c per person. Adv.

FOR SALE—Several saws with pigs; bred gilts; cheap work horse; farm tools. Will trade for grain or young cattle, or what have you? Harold H. Every.
WANTED—To buy 200 bu. wheat, 50 bu. barley, and 100 bu. oats. Will pay market price.—Wm. Bonnis, R. 1, Dexter, Box 103.

APPLES—Good cooking and eating apples. Order winter apples now. Hardscrabble Fruit Farm, phone 262-F22.

FOR RENT—Modern 3-room furnished downstairs apartment, with garage. Also extra garage. Mrs. N. E. Kelley, 122 Orchard St.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS—We the following land owners, having leased the hunting rights of our farm lands to the Chelsea Rod and Gun Club, will allow no other hunting or trespassing on our premises: Ben Staphis, Otto Goetz, Floyd Walz, Elmer Yocum, A. L. Baldwin Estate, Clara Hutzel and Oleta Harker, Wilbert Trinkle, Chris. McGuire.

PRICED FOR QUICK SALE!

2-1930 Ford Coupes
1-1930 Ford Tudor
1-1931 Ford Coupe
1-1931 Chevrolet Coupe
1-1934 Ford Tudor
1-1934 Ford Pickup
1-1935 Chevrolet 1 1/2 ton stake
2-1936 Chevrolet Tudors
2-1937 Chevrolet Tudors
20 other cars and trucks to choose from.

PALMER MOTOR SALES

HEAR JERRY BEISSEL and His Band at American Legion Dance—public school gym, on Friday evening, October 7. Admission, 35c per person. Adv.
CIDER MAKING at Jerusalem every Friday until further notice. Sweet cider for sale. Fred Koch, phone 144-F21.

FOR SALE—2 sows—one with 7 pigs, one with 8 pigs. Fred Hinderer, phone 147-F12.

E. E. WINANS, Optometrist. Glasses in one day when necessary. Broken lenses duplicated.

FOR SALE—Choice yearling Shropshire rams—ram—lamb—vetch seed. Hardscrabble Fruit Farm, phone 262-F22.

FOR SALE—Black Shepherd pups. Emil Regner, one mile south of Sylvan Center.

FOR RENT—Modern house with garage. Mrs. J. A. Maroney, 512 McKinley St.

FOR SALE—Oak folding bed, springs and mattress, all in good condition; heating stove and Kalamazoo range. J. D. McManus.

WOODWARD FRUIT FARM, 3 miles east of Manchester, have 1000 bu. of apples. Get yours now. Cider apples now ready. F. L. Woodward.

WANTED—To rent farm, from 60 to 120 acres; money rent or 50-50 basis. Address Box 120, care of Chelsea Standard.

WINTER APPLES—King, Greening, Northern Spy, Wagner, Steels Red, and Baldwins. Ezra E. Heingerer, phone 158-F21.

FOR RENT—Furnished apartment. Inquire of Walker Sisters.

FOR SALE—Oak and hickory slab wood. Aaron Marofsky, So. Main St.

WANTED—Arrow heads and Indian relics of any kind. Will pay cash or trade for merchandise. Burg's Corner Drug Store, phone 76, Chelsea.

MOBILGAS, Mobiloil, Greases, Blue Flame Kerosene, fuel oil, tractor fuel. Prompt service. Buy the best! R. F. Wenk, Distributor, phone 195.

CIDER MAKING—I will make cider every Friday until further notice. Sweet cider for sale, keg or barrel lots. Clarence Trinkle.

DEAD or ALIVE! Farm animals collected promptly. Sunday service. Floyd Boyce (Dixie Service Station), Agent. Phone COLLECT, Chelsea 109 or Ann Arbor phone 22244. CENTRAL DEAD STOCK CO.

WHY NEGLECT YOUR EYES? Consult the oculist, Dr. Gibson, Packard at Hill, Ann Arbor. Examination and best glasses made at lowest prices. 47 years in practice. U. of M. graduate.

FOR SALE—Round Oak heating stove, in good condition. Mrs. Wm. Beach, Sr., Dexter. Phone 107-F6, Dexter.

THERE IS A NEW BARBER SHOP doing business at Lima Center now. Hair cut, 25c; shave, 15c. Give us a call.

WELL HEATED APARTMENT for rent. Schonk Apartments. Call 254-F13 for appointment.

A GENERAL ELECTRIC OIL BURNER AND WINTER AIR CONDITIONING SYSTEM offers features you will be unable to find in any other system!

L. R. HEYDLAUFF 52tf

SEE THE NEW LEE TIRES—A real value! We have a large stock of used tires, all sizes. Harker Service Station, So. Main and Van Buren St.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

WANTED! DEAD STOCK Horses, Cows, Hogs, and Sheep Removed Promptly PHONE COLLECT Ann Arbor 6366 MILLENBACH BROS. CO.

FOR SALE—No. 1 second growth oak block wood. Geo. Klink.

SEE THE NEW U. S. TIRE—Popularly priced. Mack's Super Service.

FERTILIZER—I have a fresh supply of Saco-fertilizer on hand at all times. Will deliver. Phone 146-F21. Geo. J. Loeffler.

FOR SALE—White clover and goldenrod honey, in comb and extract; McIntosh apples, also sweet apples; sweet cider for week-ends; vinegar. N. W. Laird, phone 422-F2.

How to Get Invited to Tea—Immediately after the war Ireland found herself under curfew law and those found abroad after the hour were picked up and taken to the station. It is said that at least the Black and Tans, or at the least the auxiliary police, very often raided homes likely to be friendly in the hope of being invited to tea.

Real Bargain Specials!
Pepsodent Antiseptic, 50c size 2 for 51c
Colgate's Tooth Powder, 1 large, 1 small, both for 36c
Listerine Tooth Paste, 25c size 2 for 26c
Tek Tooth Brushes, regular 50c 2 for 51c
Old Fashioned Horehound Stick 15c lb. - 2 lbs. 29c
Olive Oil, full pint 69c
Schick Injector Razor, 8 blades and large Lifebuoy Shaving Cream All for 59c
Chocolate Covered Cherries, lb. box 19c
Brand New Assortment of Alarm Clocks, 98c

GET YOUR NOONDAY LUNCH (Hot or Cold) at Our Fountain
Burg's Corner Drug Store
Phone 76 or 122 The Penslar Store Chelsea, Mich.

WAIT FOR HUDSON!
We've had automatic shift for the past four years - Hudson always leads!
REMEMBER - Mobilgas at a saving! Now cheaper than barrel prices.
JONES' GARAGE
PHONE 133 CHELSEA, MICH.

DUCKS!
We Have the Shells and Guns to Bring Them Down!
Super X, Hi Velocity, Nitro Express, Western Expert, and Remington Sure Shot, in 10-12-16-20 and 410 gauges.
Remington Automatics and Repeaters, Winchester and Ithaca Repeaters, Double Barrels and Single Barrels, in all popular gauges.
Duck Hunting Coats $3.25
Duck Hunting Pants $2.95
Duck Hunting Caps 65c
WE ISSUE HUNTING LICENSES
MERKEL BROS.
HARDWARE

LOOK! READY To Heat and Eat FOODS SAVE!
CORNED BEEF Red & White No. 1 size can each 19c
SPAGHETTI Blue & White Prepared No. 1 size can 2 for 15c
PUMPKIN Red & White No. 2 1-2 size can 2 for 21c
DILL PICKLES Ohio Pride - QUART JARS 2 for 27c
L.G. PKG. COFFEE GOLDEN MAID
OXYDOL Green & White . . lb. 15c
Blue & White . . . lb. 25c
21c Red & White . . . lb. 29c
2 lbs. 23c
OLEO
ROLLED OATS TABLE KING 5 Pound Bag 21c
CORN FLAKES Red and White - Large Box 2 for 17c
WHEAT FLAKES Red & White and Cereal Bowl Free 2 pkgs. 25c
ROLLED OATS Red & White-Quick Cooking 1g. box 17c
TABLE KING PRODUCE PURE GRANULATED
RICE Head Lettuce solid 2 for 15c
BAGAS-Canadian Wax . 3 lbs. 10c
2 lbs. 9c APPLES--McIntosh 6 lbs. 25c
Grapes--Tokays 3 lbs. 25c
10 lbs. 49c
MARSHMALLOWS SEALED FRESH 1b. bag 15c
PEANUT BUTTER Red and White 1b. jar 19c
BINGS SUNSHINE BUTTER CRACKERS 1b. box 17c
TEA Cellophane pkg. Black one-half lb. 35c Cellophane pkg. Green one-half lb. 21c
We Deliver MEAT SPECIALS Phone or Send the Children
Round Bone Tender
Pork Roast 1b. 20c Cube Steak 1b. 25c
Lean Home Rendered
Spare Ribs 2 lbs. 35c Lard 2 lbs. 23c
GROCERY DEPARTMENT MEAT DEPARTMENT
NORM GRIMWADE Phone 226 BILL WHEELER
RED & WHITE RED & WHITE