The Story of the Nativity

St. Luke Version . . . Chapter II

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenus was governor of Syria.)

And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David);

To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Baskets, Clothing, Toys Will Be Distributed

With many local organizations devoting much time and effort to the work of filling baskets and packages to be delivered to the less fortunate of the community, Christmas promises to be a happy event for many who would otherwise not have the pleasure of partaking of extra delicacies of food or having new clothing and toys for the smaller children.

In addition to the Christmas baskets and clothing which will be delivered by the Red Cross, various church groups and other clubs and organizations have been making surveys to determine which families may be the most deserving, and as the result of this effort scores of baskets of food, articles of clothing, and toys will brighten many homes on Christmas.

Bringing of Christmas cheer to unfortunate and needy families by these groups is a very commendable work and should be encouraged and aided by those who are financially able to do so.

FARMERS' CLUB MEETS

The Western Washtenaw Farmers' club held their December meeting on Friday evening in the Methodist church dining room, where a cooperative supper was served at 6:30. A Christmas program was given as follows:

Walter was employed in Los Angeles, and was enroute to his work in a truck when the accident occurred. He is well known in Chelsea and is a graduate of the local high school.

WARNING TO TEACHERS!

Teachers in this vicinity are again reminded that the deadline for teachers' oath cards to be filed is Dec. 27. All teachers holding life certificates must fill out one of these cards to keep their certificates valid. Cards can be secured at the office of the superintendent at the public schools.

FIRE DAMAGES CASSIDY SHOP

The Chelsea fire department was called about 10:40 Friday night to extinguish a blaze in the Crafts shop at the NYA camp, Cassidy Lake, which is believed to have started from spontaneous combustion. The damage to the building and materials was about $200.00.

At St. Paul's church, beginning at 7:00 o'clock, a pageant, "Christmas Treasures", will be given by the Primary and Junior classes of the Sunday school.

GREETINGS!

The Board of the Chelsea Public Library wishes to extend to its patrons and friends, greetings for Christmas and the New Year.

Legion Will Entertain Kiddies At Gym Tonite

The annual Kiddies' Christmas party, sponsored by the American Legion, will be held tonight (Thursday) in the public school gym, starting promptly at 8 o'clock.

Community singing will be led by Jerry Niehaus, with Mrs. Niehaus at the piano, and entertainment will be provided by Curly and His Cassidy Ramblers, popular WIBM radio stars, with Hill-Billy music.

Santa Claus is coming all the way from the North Pole for this event, and will arrive in time to distribute gifts to the children.

All children from Chelsea and the surrounding community, under 12 years of age, are invited to attend.

STUDY CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Christmas party of the Chelsea Child Study club was held Wednesday evening, December 13, at the home of Mrs. A. A. Palmer. Christmas decorations surrounded by pine branches and burning tapers were arranged about the fireplace, a lovely setting for the program.

The theme of the evening was "In Another Way", planned and developed by Mrs. Warren Daniels. Following the introduction, carols were played by Mrs. Bruce Plankell, accompanied by her daughter, Janet, on the triangle. Two piano solos, "A Little Shepherd", and "Arabesque No. 2", by Claude De Bussy, were played by Miss Florence Eddy. A charming Christmas story, "Tranquil Beast", by Temple Bailey, was read by Mrs. John Hale. Singing of carols by the group was a fitting close for a very inspiring program.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, followed by the picking of Christmas boxes for the shut-ins—a lovely task which has become an annual one, this year in charge of Mesdames Leigh Palmer, George Walworth and Edwin Eaton.

ENTERTAINS S. S. TEACHERS

Mrs. Fred Seitz was hostess to the teachers of St. Paul's Sunday school at a Christmas party last week Wednesday night. A chicken dinner was served, the table being centered with a Santa Claus, sleigh and reindeer, and lighted with tapers. The favors were chocolate Christmas trees. Games were played and prizes awarded the winning side. Gifts were exchanged. A business meeting preceded the social hour.

HONORED AT SHOWER

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nicolai were honor guests at a miscellaneous shower given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bahnmiller. ## But the Melody Lingers On---

We may give our Christmas greetings in different words and in different ways. Each year we seek to express our love and appreciation for family and friends in a different way than we have in Christmases past. It is a thrill to us to do something new and unusual at Christmas. Yet no matter how different our expressions of love and friendship may be, the feeling behind the gift and in the heart of the receiver is as it has always been since that first Christmas so long ago when the wise men brought gifts of love to a babe in a manger.

Will you as patrons and friends accept our sincere wish at this season for a Christmas and a New Year of good cheer and happiness?

Your patronage has given us the happy privilege of serving you and we solicit your good-will during 1940.

Policht led the scoring for Chelsea by picking up 14 points while Schneider scored 4, Riemenschneider 2, and Junior Miller 1. Chelsea used a zone defense which kept the opposition baffled throughout the game.
