Two Local Men Killed When Autos Collide

Duane Winans, 25, and Norris E. Stinehelfer, 19, both of Chelsea, and Albert Doerr, 18, of Chicago, died early Monday morning in St. Joseph's Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor following a head-on collision of two cars on US-12, near the F. E. Reichert farm, three miles east of Chelsea. Each suffered skull fractures and brain injuries.

The accident occurred about midnight when a car owned by Stinehelfer collided head-on with one being driven by Joseph Toth, 41, commander of the Ferndale Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Sheriff's officers said the Stinehelfer car, traveling west, apparently swerved off the pavement and then swerved back across the highway, colliding with Toth's car, which was traveling east.

Doerr was one of the occupants of the Toth machine, who were enroute from a V. F. W. convention in Benton Harbor. The others, all injured, were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Emanaker, Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. George Schlenk. Both machines were demolished.

Norris Stinehelfer had resided in Chelsea for the past eight months. He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shutes and had recently been employed by Leon Shutes in the carpenter business. The body was taken Monday to the home of his parents in North Robinson, Ohio.

Duane Winans, son of Elmer and Cora (Burkhart) Winans, was born February 15, 1915, in Chelsea and was a graduate of Chelsea high school. He assisted his father in the latter's jewelry store. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias.

Surviving are his parents; five brothers, Robert, David, Charles, George and Jack, all of Chelsea; and two sisters, Mrs. Howard Park of Orionville and Mrs. Donald Gesterle of Chelsea; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Winans and Mrs. O. C. Burkhardt, all of Chelsea.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon at the Staffan funeral home, with Rev. F. D. Mumby officiating. Interment will take place in Oak Grove cemetery.

Forger Cashes Checks In Chelsea Saturday

Verl Whitaker of Manchester was arrested on Saturday and charged with passing several worthless checks in Chelsea and Manchester on that day. Although he tried to cash checks in several stores in Chelsea he succeeded in passing only three of the worthless checks here, totaling $57.50. In Manchester he cashed two checks totaling $27.50.

When it was discovered here that the checks were worthless Deputy Sheriff W. Grossman was called, and he traced Whitaker to Manchester where it was learned that he had been apprehended there and taken to the State Police post at Clinton. Whitaker had obtained the money here and in Manchester, then went to Clinton and purchased a used car, returning to Manchester with the intention of cashing more checks when he was placed under arrest.

Whitaker was arraigned before Justice Harry Reading in Ann Arbor on Monday and was later placed on five years' probation by Judge George W. Sample, who ordered him to pay $100 fine and costs.

The car which Whitaker had purchased in Clinton was taken back by the dealer who refunded the purchase price to officers and all those who had been swindled received their money in full.

AMERICAN LEGION WILL HAVE FIREWORKS DISPLAY JULY 4TH

Herbert J. McKune Post No. 31 of The American Legion will have a fireworks display at the Legion home, Cavanaugh lake, on July 4th at about 9:00 o'clock p. m.

They have a much larger and more varied display this year than last, and the public is invited to enjoy this celebration.

Members of the Post and Auxiliary will gather at the Legion home during the afternoon for a social time, followed by a pot-luck dinner to be served at 6:30. All members are urged to come early and bring baskets.

Grain Loan Rates for This Year Announced

The Washtenaw county basic wheat loan rate for farm storage of the 1940 crop will be 72 cents per bushel on red winter, hard winter, and soft white winter, grading No. 2, with a maximum moisture content of 14 per cent. Wheat loans will be available to wheat producers who are in compliance with their 1940 wheat acreage allotments under the AAA farm program.

This is the report made this week by Harry M. Cole, secretary of the Washtenaw County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

The loan value on mixed wheat or wheat with a moisture content of between 14 and 14 1/2 per cent will be 2 cents per bushel below the established rate, while the rate on smutty and garlicky wheat will range from 3 to 6 cents less than the 72 cent basic rate.

Rye and barley producers will be eligible for commodity loans on these crops, if they have planted within their 1940 total soil-depleting allotments under the AAA farm program. The rye loan will be available on farm-stored rye grading No. 2 or better, or grading No. 3, solely on the basis of test weight. The loan rate, as was the case last year, will vary with the 1940 loan rate for 1940 soft winter wheat. Similarly, the rye loan rate will be 22 cents less than the applicable 1940 wheat loan rate, but not more than 38 cents per bushel.

On barley, loan rates made on the basis of farm storage will be: No. 1 at 35 cents a bushel; No. 2 at 29 cents; No. 3 at 32 cents; No. 4 at 29 cents; and No. 5 at 25 cents. A discount of 2 cents a bushel will be made for mixed barley. Tough, stained, blighted, smutty, garlicky, weevil, or rotten or bleached barley will not be eligible for loans.

Loans on all three commodities, if in farm storage, will mature 10 months from their respective dates, or may be called on a demand basis, if the Commodity Credit Corporation decides world conditions warrant their being called before maturity. Loans on wheat stored in approved warehouses mature in 8 months, or on April 30, 1941, whichever is earlier. These loans are also on a demand basis.

Two Balloon Ascensions At Am. Legion Carnival

Through the courtesy of local merchants whose contributions make it possible, two balloon ascensions will be a special feature of the annual American Legion carnival which will open tonight (Thursday) and continue on Friday and Saturday evenings on the lot at the intersection of West Middle and Wilkinson sts. The balloon ascensions will be held tonight and Saturday night.

Another free attraction at the carnival will be a performance each night by a troupe with a novel act called "Los Aeros", the performing to be done on airplane swings. This act comes highly recommended and is expected to add much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

In addition to the free features there will be the usual number of rides, including ferris wheel, merry-go-round, kiddies' ride, and concessions.

RED CROSS RAISES QUOTA

The quota of $200.00 for Chelsea in the Red Cross drive for contributions for war sufferers in Europe has been exceeded, and $215.00 has been sent to headquarters by the local chapter. Contributions were received during the past week from Anna T. Miller, Mrs. Fred Broesamle, Nellie E. Culver, Otto Hinderer, benefit bridge party at Miller sisters. Those in charge of the local drive wish to thank all who have contributed in any way for this worthwhile cause.

LOCAL PASTORS RETURN

Rev. Fred D. Mumby and Rev. H. W. Lenz were reappointed pastors of the local Methodist church and Salem Grove church respectively at the annual Detroit Conference held in Pontiac. Rev. Herbert Brubaker, who has been pastor of the North Lake and Dexter churches for several years, was transferred to Blissfield. Rev. Donald Brunger of the Dixboro church has been appointed to the North Lake and Dexter churches.

FIRE DAMAGES HOUSE

Sparks from the chimney set fire to the roof of the Gates residence on Washington St. last Thursday forenoon, and a large hole was burned in the roof. The fire was discovered by men working near by, and they had the blaze partly under control before the arrival of the fire department. Considerable damage resulted from smoke and water. The residence is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barbour.

Lima Man Killed By Train On Thursday

Alton Duible, 26 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Duible of 9970 West Liberty Road, Lima township, was killed Thursday afternoon when the truck he was driving was hit by an Ann Arbor railroad passenger train on the Gleaner hall crossing, north of Ann Arbor on the Pontiac road. He suffered a fractured skull and died enroute to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital without regaining consciousness. His cousin, Elmer Duible, who was riding with him, escaped with minor injuries.

Deputy sheriffs who investigated the accident said Mr. Duible was driving south on Pontiac Rd. while the two-coach passenger train was traveling southeast. The crossing has a fixed standard, but no flasher signal to warn motorists, and the view for a south-bound motorist is partly obscured by an embankment.

Duible did not see the approaching train until almost on the crossing. He apparently swerved sharply to his left, but the truck was hit by the left end of the pilot crossbeam and whipped around in front of the engine. It was then dragged backwards for about 25 feet, dropping in a deep gully about 100 feet and the driver was thrown from the cab. In some manner Elmer managed to cling to the front of the locomotive when thrown from the truck cab, and held on while the train traveled 500 feet before releasing his grip and rolling harmlessly down an embankment.

Mr. Duible was born Dec. 19, 1913 in Lima township and was a member of Salems Lutheran church of Scio. He is survived by his parents; two brothers, Norman and Paul Duible of Lima; and four sisters, Mrs. Earl Layton and Mrs. Russell Downing, Jr. of Ann Arbor, and Louise and Della Duible of Lima township.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 Sunday afternoon at the residence and at 2 o'clock at Salems Lutheran church, Rev. A. C. Wacker officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Schneider & Kusterer Add New Equipment

Extensive improvements have been made in the Schneider & Kusterer store during the past week with the addition of three new McGraw refrigeration units.

A refrigerated vegetable display case has been placed at the front of the store. In addition to the trays for vegetable display on the refrigerated part of the case there are bins beneath the case for dry vegetables and fruit.

Another new unit is a 10-ft. refrigerated double-duty display case for meats, beverages and dairy products, with concealed storage space for additional beverages and other supplies. At the rear of the store a 6x8 ft. walk-in cooler unit has been installed, for storage of surplus beverages, fruits, vegetables, etc.

Installation of these units makes the Schneider & Kusterer store very modern and convenient in every way.

SPRAGUE-TYSON WEDDING

On Saturday afternoon, June 22, Miss Evelyn Eleanor Sprague, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sprague of Englewood, New Jersey, became the bride of Leo Wells Tyson of Midland, Mich., son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Tyson of Olivet.

The double ring ceremony took place in the east room of the First Presbyterian church in Englewood, with Rev. Carl H. Elmore officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown of white satin, princess style, with tight fitting bodice and a collar of rose-point lace. Her fingertip tulle veil was held in place by a coronet of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and baby's breath tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride was attended by her two sisters, Misses Elizabeth and Virginia Sprague, who were attired in contrasting formal gowns of silk or gandy, in yellow and Vienna blue, fashioned in princess style with short puffed sleeves. They carried small colonial bouquets.

Carlton Tyson, brother of the groom, assisted as best man, and the ushers were Lloyd Tyson of Greenville, also the groom's brother, and William H. Clark of Palsade, N. J.

Following the ceremony a reception for friends of the family was held at the Sprague home.

On their return from a motor trip through New England the couple will reside in Midland, where Mr. Tyson is connected with the Chemical State Savings Bank.

For the past two years Mrs. Tyson was a member of the Chelsea public school faculty, as teacher of music and kindergarten.

ENTERTAINS WOMEN'S UNION

Mrs. S. J. Bohner was hostess to the Women's Union of St. Paul's church at their monthly meeting on Thursday, with Mrs. Paul Barbour assisting. Repeating of the Collect was followed by devotionals, led by Mrs. Otto Lucht, which included readings, "Fathers of Children in Many Lands," by Mrs. Arthur Schaefer and "Concerning the Children," by Mrs. Oscar Sterle. The scripture lesson and prayer were given by Mrs. Lucht. The topic for the month, "For of Such is the Kingdom of Heaven" was presented by Mrs. Wilbur Hinderer and an article on the J. L. Stroigh Memorial was read by Mrs. Julius Ensel.

At the business meeting Mesdames H. L. Paul, Leroy Satterthwaite and Paul Barbour were chosen as a committee to arrange for the July picnic. A poem, "Respect to the Flag," was given by Mrs. C. F. Dietler. The next meeting will be a towel shower for the new kitchen. Refreshments were served to 41.

Appeal for Cooperation In Reducing Accidents

An appeal for cooperation in reduction of accidents during the July 4th holiday period and throughout the vacation season was addressed to Michigan citizens this week by the Michigan State Safety Committee. The committee, formed earlier this year, is composed of State Police Commissioner Oscar G. Olander, Superintendent of Public Instruction Eugene B. Elliott, Secretary of State Harry F. Kelly, and State Highway Commissioner Murray D. Van Wageningen. Its purpose is the coordination of official efforts to promote safety in the state.

The committee pointed out that accident tolls take a sharp upward turn during Fourth of July celebrations and continue at a high level during the vacation season. Michigan's toll of accidental deaths for the month of July last year was 423. Automobile accidents accounted for 163 of these fatalities, 90 persons lost their lives in falls, 79 in drownings, 18 by heat prostration, and seven as a result of burns.

While marshalling the official forces of the departments represented, the committee members asked local authorities and citizens in general to take special measures to avoid holiday accidents.

First attention is being directed at traffic accidents. Highways throughout the state have been placed in the best possible condition with new applications of dust-layers, general checking over of signs and signals, and other measures. Construction activity will be halted on July 4 and 7 and extra flagmen will be stationed at all construction projects on July 5 and 6.

State police patrols will be in operation continuously during the period from Wednesday afternoon, July 3, to Monday morning, July 8. Local sheriff's offices are being requested to coordinate holiday patrols with those of state officers to obtain maximum coverage. Special watch will be maintained near roadside picnic areas and other places where cars will accumulate along the roadsides.

In addition to urging observance of all traffic laws, the State Safety Committee listed other precautions not required by law for the protection of motorists. During periods of heavy traffic, there is a tendency to seek secondary roads to get away from heavy traffic. The committee commends this action but warns motorists that secondary roads, though they may be hard-surfaced are not designed in most cases for high-speed traffic as are the trunklines.

Leisurely joy-riding on main highways should not be attempted during the holiday week-end or on Sundays during the vacation season.

Never stop an automobile on the traveled portion of the highway. This should be remembered at roadside picnic sites or in case of tire or motor trouble.

Wyoming's Devils Tower
Devils Tower is a national monument situated on Belle Fourche river about 20 miles northwest of Sundance in Crook county, Wyoming. This remarkable rock tower is of volcanic origin, and is 1,200 feet high. It was venerated by the Sioux Indians as the "Bad God's Tower."

Parkway-Playground Act No. 147

(By Henry S. Curtis, Executive Secretary, Detroit-Huron-Clinton Park and Parkway Association)

The mechanization of industry, which enables one farmer to do the work of two or three farmers of 50 years ago and one man in industry to do the work of four or five of that period, has made an enormous amount of leisure. This leisure will be spent somewhere and in some activity.

There has grown up in America a more or less ideal standard that there should be an acre of park for each hundred people. The average of our larger cities is probably about one acre for two hundred people. The average for this area is about one acre for 500 people.

As a result of this shortage, many private parks have grown up, probably 60 or more. Many of these are mainly beer gardens, some with unregulated dancing. All public facilities are overcrowded.

To bring more tourists into this area under present conditions would either overcrowd present facilities or drive out the present users.

Public Act 147, the Parkway-Playground Bill, would provide attractive drives and a great increase in parks, athletic fields, camping and picnic places and bathing beaches.

The tourist trade of Michigan from outside the state has recently been estimated at $370,000,000. Probably 90 per cent of it comes in private cars, of which very likely one million may go through here from the east and southeast.

The average tourist car contains about four people and spends around ten dollars per day. If we could stop a million cars, going to the north in this area for one day either in going or coming, in order to enjoy the drives, picnicking, camping or bathing, this would mean a return of about $10,000,000 a year.

But the people of this area also have vacations at week-ends and at other times. If the facilities were adequate and more attractive more of this vacation time and money would be spent here. It might easily equal the return from outside tourists.

If the area has attractive drives and opportunities for all sorts of recreation, it is logical to suppose that some of those passing through the area will be led to build summer homes here.

Dr. Furstenburg estimates the medical bill of this area at $70,000,000 a year and that an adequate system to provide attractive activities out of doors might save ten per cent from this. An adequate playground system properly conducted according to the statistics of many cities saves about 50 per cent from juvenile arrests and nearly as much from juvenile accidents. The proposed system should surely save us something from our crime bill. We are preparing to spend many billions for defense, but about half of all preparedness lies in the physical stamina of a people. Consequently the military movement in Germany, Russia and Italy was begun by building great playgrounds, athletic fields and bathing beaches and organizing long hikes.

The development of the facilities proposed would make much work for the unemployed. It is in line with WPA activities elsewhere.

The facts I have mentioned would seem to me adequate reasons why the Boards of Commerce should give their active support to the Parkway-Playground bill which we are to vote on in November.

U. S. Plants Fish In Michigan Inland Lakes

Lansing—Supplementing the fish plantings of the state department of conservation, the U. S. bureau of fisheries last year released 1,237,390 fry and fingerlings in Michigan's inland waters. Detailed accounts of these plantings appear in the 1939 fish planting record, just published.

About 140,000,000 of the 180,000,000 fish stocked by the conservation department were walleye pike fry. Federal bureau plantings for the species which make up the other 40,000,000 set out by the state include: 779,775 brook trout, 29,600 brown trout, 76,815 rainbow trout, 213,295 black bass, 5,280 perch, 75,270 bluegills, 56,000 lake trout, 220 calico bass, 600 sunfish and 195 rock bass.

Fish planted by the bureau in Michigan inland lakes and streams are produced at hatcheries at Northville, Mich., and LeCrosse, Wis., and at the trout rearing station on Sullivan creek, near River, and the Clare county cooperative station near Harrison. At the bureau's station in Charlevoix, experiments in rearing lake trout to fingerling size are underway.

The bureau cooperates with the department to avoid confusion in fish management programs, as would result from planting bass in pike lakes or brown trout in brook trout waters.

U. S. Railroad Mileage The United States has one mile of railroad for every 542 citizens.

Lansing—A national defense conference, designed to present a coordinated factual picture of Michigan present-day needs, will convene next Friday (July 6) at Port Huron under auspices of the Michigan Press association, state group of daily and weekly newspapers.

It will precede a visit by newspapermen and their guests on Saturday to the Canadian city of Sarnia for dinner address by W. A. Buchanan, member of Parliament at Ottawa and a Canadian newspaper publisher.

As European events unfold at a rapid tempo and the White House reveals plans for military conscription of youth, the Michigan state capital is concentrating more attention on our needs of national defense.

"We are at war" was the cryptic judgment voiced by Thomas Read, attorney general, at a special session of the state administrative board.

On Wednesday, July 3, the "little legislature," officially known as the Michigan emergency appropriations commission, will meet here to provide funds to construct an anti-aircraft armory in Detroit and possibly to enlarge the state police force.

However, state officials cautioned the public against hysteria.

Thus the blitzkrieg triumphs of Herr Hitler are having reactions on the every-day life of Michigan people. Once again our citizens find that it's a small world.

Leaders to Speak National defense needs in Michigan will be outlined by the following speakers at the Port Huron conference to be held at the Gratiot Inn:

Army—Col. John S. Bersey, the adjutant general of Michigan.

Navy—Commander Broadhead, Michigan naval reserves.

Aviation—Col. Floyd Evans, director, state aeronautics board.

Highways—Murray D. Van Wagener, commissioner, state highway department.

State police—Lieut. Harold Mulbar, deputy chief of detectives and in charge of a state police division for "fifth column" subversive vigilance.

The conference will be opened officially at a noon luncheon by Governor Luren Dickinson and will be closed at a dinner program by Everett DeRyke, American Legion state commander.

Invasion of Canada? The jittery mental attitude of Canadian citizens—some of them at least—prompted Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario to declare the other day that Nazi forces in Michigan threatened an invasion of Canada!

He said fascists awaited only a word from Hitler to shoulder arms and institute a miniature blitzkrieg across the United States border.

Fantastic was this outright intimation that Canada was in jeopardy from a "fifth column" subversive plot hatched in Michigan. (The domestic politics underlying Hepburn's remarks are that the premier at Toronto differs from the dominion premier at Ottawa on the conduct of the war; Hepburn believes that Ontario needs more home defense units).

"Fifth Column" Two incidents have been reported in the press which tend to bear out the request of Commissioner Oscar Dinnender for 100 more state police officers.

"Fifth column" activity was suspected this month in the blaze of a freight car, loaded with General Motors engines, as a train was entering the St. Clair river tunnel between Port Huron and Sarnia. The train was also carrying munitions, it was said.

During the first World war a small arsenal was uncovered in Detroit in connection with a German plot.

Gov. Luren D. Dickinson, in requesting Washington to add a mobile anti-aircraft regiment in Detroit, said: "The vital necessity of the presence of such troops in Michigan industrial area is most apparent."

While state officials generally were in agreement that Michigan should act to strengthen its national defense lines, they were not in accord as to the effectiveness of any action by the "little legislature" which is limited to unexpended session of the legislature to revise 1940-41 appropriations.

Legionnaires In the rank-and-file of Michigan citizens are thousands of World War veterans of 1917-18, many of whom went overseas in that well-intentioned crusade to "make the world safe for democracy."

Peace-loving in their daily life, the American Legionnaires this week exemplified a devotion to peace through sponsorship of a training school for democracy, the Wolverine Boys' State, at Michigan State college in East Lansing.

Nearly 1,100 Michigan boys, each one 16 or 17 years old, have been studying first-hand the operations of democratic government. They organized a mythical 40th state, electing their own governor and members of the legislature and conducting other functions of state, county and city government.

Without a flash of the bayonet and without the snap of a military command, World War veterans have been devoting their time and talents in an idealistic effort. Training leaders of tomorrow in the cause of making democracy work is a far cry from the battle-field. It offers a refreshing contrast in America to the totalitarian regimentation of youth by Dictators Hitler, Stalin and Mussolini!

Kelly States Views

On Communist Party

Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State, has sought the advice of the attorney general's office relative to an injunction suit filed in Wayne circuit court by the Women's Legion of the Blue Cross seeking to restrain the state department from certifying the Communist party for a place on the ballot in the fall elections.

At the same time Mr. Kelly issued a statement condemning communism and all other forms of subversive "isms" and pointing out, however, that the law does not permit his personal views to interfere with duty.

The injunction suit bill of complaint argues that the Communist party is not entitled to a place on the ballot "because it is dedicated to the overthrow of the present government" because it has "made inroads into our labor unions and is in a position to block, hinder or retard any program of military preparedness" and because "it is against religion."

Is his statement Secretary Kelly said: "A petition to place the Communist Party on the ballot has been filed with my Department."

"For many years, I have joined with servicemen's organizations in condemning Communism and all other forms of 'isms' as un-American."

"As a Constitutional officer of the State of Michigan, however, I have not the right, and will not allow my personal views to interfere with my duty. I am confident that this view expresses not only the wish of the veterans, but all thoughtful Americans."

"I shall seek the advice of the Attorney General's office on this matter in regard to the law, as I have no previous matters involving the ballot. I welcome any opinions from the Courts of our State. The people create the law. It is the duty of all elected officials to follow the law. If the law does not express the will of the people, the law should be changed."

The Women's Legion of the Blue Cross is described as a patriotic organization dedicated to resistance of subversive groups and influences.

Judge Dewitt H. Merriam, in circuit court, denied a temporary injunction and set July 1 for a hearing on an order to show cause.

The law enforcement agencies in a community should be vitally interested in the prevention of automobile or traffic accidents. Traffic accidents cost money. Every community must conclude eventually that more lives are lost, more persons are injured, and more property is destroyed by automobile accidents than by all criminal activities—yes, as a matter of fact, more than by criminal activities and fires combined.

The amount of money our cities pay to prevent accidents is but a fraction of the amount they expend to fight crime or to maintain their fire departments.

Citizens should get behind their police departments to help them prevent traffic accidents and insist that the courts enforce the laws on the statute books. Traffic accidents are the most pressing problem of the police today, and our police departments deserve the support of right-driving and right-thinking people.

Symphony Orchestras

During the past 20 years, symphony orchestras in this country have increased from 17 to about 215, 12 of them being composed of women. Further evidence that symphonic music has gained tremendously in public favor is the fact that the sale of its records has shown an 800 per cent increase during the past decade.

Ventriloquism an Ancient Art
Ventriloquism is an ancient art, known to the Greeks, who ascribed it to demons. They mistakenly assumed that the voice came from the abdominal region, hence the origin of the word, which is from the Latin venter, belly, and loqui, to speak.

Scheduled Games
Thursday, June 27—Chelsea at Ypsilanti.
Tuesday, July 2—Saline at Chelsea.
Tuesday, July 9—Dexter at Chelsea.
Thursday, July 11—Chelsea at Manchester.

Tuesday, July 16—Chelsea at Ann Arbor.

Chelsea Wins First Two Games

Tuesday, June 18 the local lads hung up their first victory at the expense of Dexter. Gene Rossbach and Andy Policht shared the pitching honors by allowing four hits between them. The Chelsea sluggers banged out seven hits, including a lousy triple with the bases loaded by Paul Schneider in the first inning. Other batting stars of the game were A. Policht and Junior Miller, each connecting for base hits, one of Miller's being a double. The final score was: Chelsea, 10 runs and 7 hits; Dexter, 4 runs and 4 hits.

Thursday, June 20, Chelsea opened its home schedule against Manchester, and again the local lads emerged victorious. Rossbach pitching behind steady fielding held the Manchester huskies to three well scattered hits. He issued no walks, and struck out 13 batters in the seven-inning game that is being played. In the Chelsea line-up the batting stars were again Schneider and Miller, the latter hitting a double which came in the fifth to help score three runs. Pitcher Rossbach also connected for two safeties to help fatten his batting average. Final score: Chelsea, 7 runs and 5 hits; Manchester, 1 run and 3 hits.

Wednesday, June 19—St. Mary 12, St. Paul 11; Methodist 19, Congregational 7.

Schedule for July 3—St. Paul vs. Congregational (south diamond); St. Mary vs. Methodist (north diamond).

The Methodist-Congregational game was a free-slugging affair, with the Methodists getting the best of it. George Winans was the winning pitcher.

The St. Paul-St. Mary game was also a free-hitting affair, with A. Lindauer, P. Schneider and L. Birch hitting home runs. The game was close all the way.

Both games were good, but the attendance wasn't very good. I believe that these are just as good games as any other.

Moon Pelted by Meteorites

The moon, which has no atmosphere, is constantly pelted by millions of meteorites; but for the atmosphere our earth would also be. When meteorites strike our atmosphere, friction makes them incandescent and they burn to dust before reaching the earth. Occasionally one, such as that known as the "Greenland" meteorite, which weighs 38½ tons, comes all the way through and buries itself in the earth. It is from studying these that man gets some idea of what the stars are composed.

Twilight Ball League

By Roland Spaulding

The big news game of last week was undoubtedly the Thursday night game between Hi-Speed and Cassidy Lake Faculty. Hi-Speed is represented by a team which is considered one of the very best in the league, while the Cassidy Lake Faculty team has been handicapped throughout the season by every tough-break imaginable on the ball field. Nevertheless the teachers took the field Thursday night and played one of the finest games seen this year. They led Hi-Speed by one run until the fourth inning when Hi-Speed drove in one run and tied the score. Gene Fisher pitching for the teachers, showed some exceptional ability and held Hi-Speed until the last of the sixth inning when Hi-Speed crossed the plate for two runs and kept the teachers from scoring in their half of the seventh by a double play with bases loaded. Whew!

Children In Court

By Judge Malcolm Hatfield

Combating the Slot Machine
The problem of the slot machine, which is frequently referred to as the "one-armed bandit," would not be as difficult to cope with, if the public could be made to realize how small a percentage of very doubtful profit the machine actually pays. To estimate the chances one has of winning from the slot machine, a test on the mechanism was once arranged which involved the laws of mathematical probability. A few boys were given fake coins to solve the problem, which resulted in a number of startling discoveries.

For example: A player hits the "jack-pot" only once in four hundred times. In other words, at a nickel a try, it costs a boy twenty dollars in order to win five dollars. The youngsters, who were in court also learned that the next highest pay-off came once in two thousand plays, thus costing one hundred dollars to win one dollar. The court then explained that the machine was so constructed that small "come-on" winnings were possible to keep the player interested and to urge him to continue playing for higher stakes.

The judge who instituted the experiment states that his court officers checked up on the boys whom he used in his test and found that not one of them has since evidenced a desire to play the slot machine.

Those Who Hinder Progress

Many taxpayers are so short-sighted that they cannot understand that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Rather than pay a few additional dollars in an attempt to prevent children from becoming delinquent, they appear to be willing to pay higher taxes in the future in an effort to cure the hardened offender.

Others who stand squarely in the path of those who would prevent delinquency are the individuals who operate questionable dance halls, beer gardens and gambling establishments. These persons are shrewd enough to know that their profits would be lost if the public demanded that they be forced to operate legitimate places of business, or none at all.

The third group which can be counted on to block any decent progressive program of delinquency and crime prevention consists of low type law enforcement officials, who do not hesitate to take "hush money" or tolerate prostitution, soliciting, gambling, etc., for a "consideration."

Rice Waste as Coal

Rice wastes are utilized as fuel in Italy in an effort to save coal, says Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. With four pounds of rice by-products corresponding in heat value to one pound of good coal, it has been estimated that Italy could save 50,000 tons of coal. At present some thousand kilowatt hours of electric energy, obtained through steam engines burning rice by-products in special furnaces with mobile grates, are being produced, it is reported. Since these plants are costly, they are restricted.

The gasification of rice by-products and the use of the resulting gas for driving motors have permitted the installation of 15 plants producing 1,000 horsepower.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning in the Muehlberg chapel, Ann Arbor, with Rev. Howard Buehling officiating. Interment was in Oak Grove cemetery, Chelsea.

Large Number of Corn Plots In M. S. C. Test

Hundreds of test strains of corn on the Michigan State College farms at East Lansing will "get the sack" first literally and then figuratively this summer as research men obtain another year's results in finding the best corn varieties suited to sections of Michigan.

The literal sacking is indicated in an order for 33,000 paper bags needed by A. R. Marston, corn breeding specialist. These paper sacks will be used to cap all the apparently desirable plants to control fertilization and thus to know the breeding represented in the seed crop this coming fall.

Eight thousand paper clips for some pinch bottom sacks useful on some of the plants give an indication of some of the detail the experimentation involves.

Two thousand plots of about 30 plants each of field and popcorn varieties are included. The test work is designed to determine characteristics of various lines of corn breeding. Those strains that appear desirable then are placed out in the state for further tests to determine yields under various climatic conditions.

Corn-borer resistant corn varieties suitable for various parts of the state and suitable hybrids are being found. Over a period of years, in work originally started by J. R. Duncan, retired a year ago, the corn plot tests have uncovered such favorites as Duncan's yellow dent, M. A. C. and polar dent, as well as such hybrids as Michigan 1218, 501, 214 and 714 now in commercial production.

The Fifth Column Worker

By H. I. PHILLIPS

HE TAKES all America has to offer with a smile and awaits a chance to return the favor with a machine gun.

HE COILS in the flag, hides in the quartet singing the national anthem and crouches behind the Bill of Rights.

HE ACCEPTS your invitation to dinner and makes a mental blueprint of your home so he can return and snatch the silver.

HE LETS you help him on with his coat while he plans to steal your shirt.

HE LETS you pay his golf fee while he figures out how much powder it would take to blow up the clubhouse.

HE BECOMES your week-end house guest and spends most of the time estimating how good a target for bombers the children's bedroom would make.

HE APPLAUDS America First programs and laughs himself to sleep over the fact his face didn't betray him.

HE STANDS when "The Star-Spangled Banner" is played, but eases his conscience by assuring himself that he was tired of sitting, anyhow.

HE LOOKS like a man, but performs like a rattle snake. HE SHAKES your hand while his wandering eye measures you for a knife in the back.

HE IS THE SKUNK that walks like a man, the hyena that waltzes like a patriot and the rat that masquerades as a human being.

HE EXPRESSES astonishment at the genius of American industry, but puts in plenty of time reporting back to the enemy on weak spots for attack.

HE NOT ONLY BITES the hand that feeds him, but eats the other hand for dessert.

HE SAYS, "It can't happen here," while planning to help the enemy do it.

HE IS THE KIND of rodent who would accept help from the good Samaritan, ask the Samaritan to wait for him in the corner drug store and then bomb the drug store.

HE HENDERS evil for good, thinks the doublecross is the noblest work of man and eats with his knife because he never wants to have to depend on a fork when the time comes to stab his host.

Question And Answer Dept.

Ques.—During the Civil War was the number of stars in the American flag decreased because of States that seceded?

Ans.—No. Although 11 States declared themselves out of the Union, there is a Federal law that precludes any State from seceding. During the war two more stars were added—West Virginia and Nevada.

Ques.—Does England provide aid to her farmers?

Ans.—Yes. England will loan her farmers up to 75 per cent of the assessed valuation at a low rate of interest and taking a first mortgage. The loan and interest are payable in payments extending over a period of sixty years.

Ques.—Why are so many news papers called "Gazettes"?

Ans.—It is not known definitely. Probably it is because that "Gazette" is about the oldest name for a newspaper since the invention of moveable type. About the year 1653, during the war between the Venetians and Turks, a paper was read aloud publicly in certain places in Venice, and the fee charged for hearing it read was one "gazetta", which was a small Venetian coin worth a fraction of a cent. Hence this paper became known as the "Gazetta", and later was spelled "Gazette".

Ques.—If a woman is elected governor of a State, what is her correct title—governor or governess?

Ans.—Is this case the correct title "governor" or "governess" used to mean a female governor is now obsolete and rare. It is confined to the care, management and instruction of children, especially in a private household.

Ques.—In what years did Babe Ruth make his greatest number of home runs? Were any of them ever broken by any major league player?

Ans.—Babe Ruth's two greatest years were in 1921 and 1927, when he homered 59 and 60 respectively. Neither of these records were ever broken by any other major league player; the nearest to it was by Jimmy Foxx of Boston and Hank Greenberg of Detroit, with 58 circuit blows each.

Ques.—Why do so many flowers have bright colors?

Ans.—Because this helps to attract insects, just as the perfume of the flower does.

Ques.—To settle a dispute please answer whether the Battle of Waterloo was fought on Saturday or Sunday?

Ans.—The battle was fought on Sunday. The order was given to open hostilities on Saturday, but because of heavy rains Saturday and Sunday night the opening of the battle was deferred until daylight on Sunday morning.

It Pays to Advertise
Newspaper advertising certainly brings results. Dr. C. M. Sneed, Columbia, Mo., lost a sow and advertised the fact in the Columbia Tribune. Back came the sow—plus a litter of nine pigs.

Note to Henpecked Husbands
The kitchen, the most functional room of the house, continues to become more and more the product of new ideas and labor-saving devices. Even the handling of soiled dishes has passed through processes of refinement until dishwashing sinks now available relieve the housewife of this unpleasant task. New developments in dishwashing sinks include retractable sprays which fit in the drainage compartment. The dishes, secured in a rubber-sheathed rack, are rinsed by the force of the shower. The sinks can be obtained in standard materials with acid resisting enamel surface.

Precipitation In State May Affect Hunting

Above-normal precipitation recorded in recent weeks by the U. S. Weather Bureau at East Lansing may affect adversely the success of Michigan's more than a half million small game hunters next fall.

Field men of the conservation department's game division are returning to Lansing after tours of most Michigan counties with reports that the 1940 crop of pheasants may have been reduced by excess precipitation which in May was 3.93 inches, 0.74 above normal, and which in June is likely also to exceed the normal for the two peninsulas.

Young rabbits, as well, may fail to survive when nests are subjected to almost constant drainings. In the case of rabbits, however, succeeding litters may lift populations to near-normal levels. Most pheasants are hatched in June.

A battery of tabulating machines these days is grinding out the vital statistics covering 1939 hunter success which will guide the conservation commission in fixing 1940 season and tag limits. The task has been a huge one. Since February 15, deadline for return of reports of hunting success by holders of 1939 licenses, the game division has handled approximately 243,000 cards which the law requires shall be detached from licenses and sent in to the department. This year, on the basis of reports returned, the department has a more complete picture of hunter success than has been available in any preceding like period. About 100,000 report cards were sorted and tabulated in 1939, covering the 1938 open seasons.

During the last open seasons, grouse, prairie chicken and pheasant hunters fared about as well as during the preceding year. Rabbit hunters reported less success. In fact, the cottontail kill was down from 2,496,844 to 1,903,382. Fewer rabbit hunters reported success, 314,991 for 1939 as compared with 340,146 for 1938, and they averaged 6.04 rabbits as compared with the 7.3 rabbit average for the 1938 season.

U. S. Unknown Soldier
The U. S. S. Olympic brought the body of the Unknown Soldier from the port of Havre, France, to the United States. Upon its arrival in Washington the body was taken to the capitol and the catafalque placed in the rotunda, where the Unknown Soldier lay in state on November 10, 1921. Many organizations and individuals brought or sent floral offerings to be placed in the rotunda at that time. The burial took place at Arlington National cemetery on Armistice day, 1921.

Being a Slight Error
The teller of a Mound City, Mo., bank is in the doghouse because he misunderstood. Recently a member of the Ladies' Aid society went to the bank to deposit some of the society's funds. She remarked to the teller that she was "depositing some aid money." The teller understood her to say "egg money," and said, "Remarkable, isn't it, how well the old hens are doing these days?" He couldn't understand why it was the woman grabbed up her pass book and hurried out of the bank.

Women 'Railroaders'
Railroading is not strictly a man's profession in Soviet Russia. A woman, Zinaida Troitskaya, is manager of the Moscow Belt railway. In all, there are half a million women employed on the railroads, including 400 station masters, 1,400 assistant station masters and about 10,000 engineers and technicians.

Solo or Quartet.

How well do you know "The Star Spangled Banner," America's national anthem? Here before you is your opportunity to memorize the thrilling words, to sing the inspiring song, and to play its music. What day more fit than on Independence day to get better acquainted with the deep, inspiring Americanism Francis Scott Key put into his masterpiece as "O'er the ramparts" he watched and saw the flag still proudly waving.

TODAY, as from the very foundation of our nation, Liberty is the American ideal, come down to us these many years purified by the blood of martyrs. It is this great doctrine of Liberty which distinguishes Americans from any who have not had our long tradition of political and human freedom. And were it preached by tongue most eloquent, the philosophy of repression and oppression, of class against class, of creed against creed, and of human thralldom to a dictatorship, shall ever remain alien under the Stars and Stripes. Never shall Americans exchange Liberty and Democracy for the slavery of authoritarian ideology. "O'er the ramparts we watch," wrote Francis Scott Key. "O'er the ramparts we watch" today, too. And as long as we hold to the American ideals of freedom, we shall continue to see our flag "so gallantly streaming."

Enlistment Quota for Marine Corps Increased

Detroit—Enlistment quotas for all of the State of Michigan have been increased substantially for the month of June, according to Lieutenant Charles Popp, officer in charge of the United States Marine Corps recruiting district of Detroit, with headquarters in Detroit.

An additional 9,000 men are needed for immediate service at this time to fill vacancies now existing in navy yard detachments, special guard details, on board ships and on foreign stations.

Lieutenant Popp announced that recruiting substations would be opened in the near future in Saginaw, Grand Rapids and Lansing. Those eligible for service with the United States Marines are young men between the ages of 18 to 30, between 64 and 74 inches in height, some high school education, physically fit and all applicants must come well recommended from their respective communities. Those under 21 years of age must have the consent of their parents or legal guardians. Not many are aware of the many outstanding advantages now offered by an enlistment in the Marine Corps. The Marine Corps Institute, the service school of the Marines, offers to all enlisted men any course or courses in any of the arts, trades or sciences, free of any cost to the enrollee. Upon completion of these courses, diplomas are granted to those who make the passing grades required, which are recognized by leading educational institutions and business houses. A unique extension course has recently been added to the courses offered by the Institute. Upon completion of the new courses in aviation, if passing grades have been made, Marines are eligible for active aviation duty. The Marine Corps has given a college education to hundreds of young men who have lacked the financial means of continuing in school.

Young men interested in service with the world's outstanding military organization should communicate with the Marine Corps Recruiting Station, Room 250 New Federal Building, Detroit, Michigan. Full particulars will be sent those who make inquiry.

Scientists Claim Ocean Contains 'Barren' Areas

The ocean contains barren areas which correspond to worn-out farms on land. The fish and other living organisms in the water use its nutrient material to the point of exhaustion, and this stage is followed by a depletion of marine life. This observation was made by Dr. Harald U. Sverdrup and Dr. W. E. Allen of the University of California, in extended cruises on the Pacific. The maintenance of marine life depends on the process of big fish eat little fish and at the end of the scale is the "dinosaur," a microscopic marine plant, which extracts its nourishment directly from the water. The scientists discovered that "old" water on the surface of the ocean contained relatively small quantities of diatoms while "new" water contained abundant supplies. Old water has been on the surface a long time, and new water is that which has been drawn up from the bottom, and comes to the surface near shorelines. This cold bottom water comes from a region where marine life is very scarce and its supplies of the salts necessary for marine life are still unused.

A Long Range Prediction

By JOHN ADAMS

On July 2, 1776, the delegates from the 13 colonies, meeting in Philadelphia, voted to separate from Britain. On that day, two days before the Declaration of Independence was signed, John Adams, later to become second President of the United States, wrote to his wife, Abigail:

"I am apt to believe that it (the day) will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward evermore."

"You will think me transported with enthusiasm but I am not. I am well aware of the toll and blood and treasure that it will cost to defend these States. Yet through all the gloom I can see the rays of ravishing light and glory. I can see that the end is more than worth all the means; and that posterity will triumph in that day's transaction, even though we should rue it, which I trust in God we shall not."

Adams predicted pretty well the nature of the celebration, although Abigail Adams, who had the unique distinction of being the wife of one President and the mother of another. John Adams, second President, was her husband. John Quincy Adams, sixth President, was her son.

he did think we would be celebrating the second of July instead of the Fourth.

Elton R. Eaton Will Run for The Senate

Elton R. Eaton, former president of the Michigan Press association, a member of the state legislature and editor of The Plymouth Mail, this week announced that he will become a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

The Plymouth editor, who is 58 years old, has long been interested in public affairs. He has been a strong opponent of "boss" politics, an advocate of proper aid for elderly dependent people, and economy in governmental expenditures. He is regarded as one of the hardest working members who ever served in the legislature. His preliminary statement pertaining to his candidacy, follows:

"Convinced that there are large numbers of Republicans and independent voters in Michigan who will welcome my entrance into the Republican primary for the United States senate, I have decided to enter that contest."

"This decision has been reached after a most careful canvass of the political situation in Michigan and consultation with numerous citizens."

"All of my life I have lived and worked among the rank and file of our people. I know that I am in step with their aims and objects. I know, too, that I can give my state and nation honorable, patriotic public service in Washington."

"I am in complete accord with the proposal to build for our United States the strongest national defense possessed by any nation in the world. But we should not permit our military and foreign relation problems to completely overshadow some of the tremendously important domestic issues that confront our country."

"Outstanding as one of the most vital problems facing the people is the absolute necessity of immediately driving from national, state, and local governmental units every form of graft and corruption. The greatest burden our taxpayers are carrying today is the excess penalty laid upon them by the political plunderbugs who operate in defiance of all public interest."

"Greed, corruption and dishonesty in governmental administration go hand in hand with machine politics and rule by political bosses. The very minute any political party or any political candidate accepts the support of, or compromises with these elements, he becomes a servant to these political masters."

"No political machine ever functioned for the purpose of improving governmental administration or reducing the costs to the taxpayers of conducting public business."

Large Sum Paid for Agricultural Exhibits

Lansing.—In his final report for the present fiscal year, A. C. Carton, Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture in charge of fairs, states that Agricultural organizations holding exhibits in Michigan this year paid out premiums amounting to over $280,000. Of this amount, the department of agriculture supplied $118,805.84 or half.

In addition $40,000 was also given to 4-H clubs to be distributed by their local leaders for achievement projects, and $10,000 was given to Future Farmers clubs for distribution in the same manner. This money is issued direct to these organizations and does not have to be matched by them.

"Contrary to some opinions that interest in fairs is lagging," Carton said, "is the great increase in exhibitors and the keenness in competition for prizes. Old exhibitors no longer have a monopoly on the premiums since boys and girls clubs are now entering the exhibiting field."

"Boys and girls clubs, such as the 4-H and Future Farmers, are becoming the backbone of our fairs," he continued, "and, with the continuance of their present good work, it is safe to predict that in 10 years we will find that fairs will be managed by the present members of these clubs. When this happens we can be assured that if anything, fairs will be better in the future than they are now."

"The day is past," he said, "when men and women can establish themselves in the modern world unless he can do his work better than someone else. This is the thought that local leaders of these clubs have in mind in instructing the boys and girls in their projects. It is difficult to find words of praise fitting in complimenting these men, most of whom are county agricultural agents, on the wonderful work they are doing."

Origin of 'Allergy'
In 1907 Von Parquet, an Austrian, devised the word "allergy." The term was designed to explain peculiar and unexpected phenomena in animals which had been injected and reinjected with foreign proteins—such as egg albumen or milk. Allergy is of Greek derivation and means "altered reactivity." It is now used synonymously with "hypersensitiveness" and "idiosyncrasy." These terms are applied to humans to denote an altered capacity in certain individuals to react to environmental agents.

'Bird in the Hand'
Harry Harper of Oroville, Calif., now knows that a bird in the hand is not worth two in the bush. Seeing a pheasant's tail protruding from a rice shock, and believing that it had been killed by some other hunter, he seized hold of it. Whereupon the very-much-alive pheasant kicked him in the face and made its getaway minus its tail—before Harper could pick up his gun.

Have a Good Time
This 4th of July,
But, Take It Easy!

Every July 4th all America turns out for one big day of fun. This celebration is, of course, "fitting and proper," but always present is the specter of accident and tragedy. Here are some of the main reasons accidents occur in such large numbers and a hint or two on how to avoid them:

According to the National Safety Council, accidents of all types claimed 8,800 lives last July. Traffic accidents accounted for 2,650 of these. July's accident losses are 22 per cent higher than that of the average month. Be smart and drive carefully. Don't be a road-hog or a show-off.

Public accidents, other than motor vehicles, reach their year's peak in July. This classification includes drownings and one-fifth of all drownings occur in this month. Most of these happen at beaches where there is no supervision.

Geo. W. Sample, Circuit Judge.

Luella M. Smith, Clerk of Circuit Court.

Quiz Questions Used By Michigan State College

This is the second of a series of questions—and answers, typical of those used throughout Michigan in agricultural meetings conducted by Michigan State College extension service specialists.

1. True or false? In selling alfalfa seed, the state seed law requires that it be tagged and contain in addition to other information the month and year the germination test was made.

2. Which of the following, as defined by Michigan law, are noxious weeds? quackgrass, buckhorn, Canada thistle, bindweed, sorrel, wild carrot, perennial saw thistle, dodder, Indian mustard, ragweed, charlock mustard, black mustard?

3. True or false? When cows chew bones, boards, hair or pick up tin, they need more feed and water.

4. True or false? Warble flies are slow fliers but travel great distances.

Answers, according to C. B. Dibble in entomology, C. F. Huffman in animal nutrition, H. C. Rather in farm crops.

1. True.
2. All but buckhorn, bindweed, sorrel, perennial saw thistle and ragweed.
3. False. The cows show depraved appetites indicating a phosphorus deficiency which could be corrected by feeding small amounts of odorless steamed bonemeal.

4. False. Warble flies are fast fliers but apparently seldom leave their own pasture field. One herd separated from another herd by only one field may have many warbles while the other remains free.

Franklin Disliked the Eagle
Benjamin Franklin wrote Sarah Bache on January 26, 1784: "I wish the Bald Eagle had not been chosen as the Representative of our Country; he is a Bird of bad moral Char, acter; like those among Men who live by Sharping and Robbing he is generally poor and often very lousy. The Turkey is a much more respectable Bird and withal a true original Native of America."

80-Year-Old Gunsmith Still Busy at His Trade

Harry Pope of New York, venerable maker of some of the world's finest guns, spends much of his precious time discouraging would-be clients.

Pope is 80 years old, his eyesight is failing and his left hand, because of a torn tendon, has lost much of its cunning. But his right hand still is true and in a littered loft building whose location he refuses to publicize Pope makes guns of such fine quality that, second-hand weapons bearing his mark often sell for more than new guns with fancy, engraved stocks.

Once Pope turned out 50 gun barrels a year. Now his output is nearer 20, but each one is accurate down to the thousandth of an inch. Only a few mills in the country make the high quality steel he requires and he buys it in lengths which are multiples of 31 inches, the size of a gun barrel.

Pope got into the gun business 80 years ago when he wanted a 24-caliber gun, then unheard of. He made it himself and so accurate was it that he shot 98 out of 100 three-inch targets. The best prior record he had heard of was only 89 out of 100. He uses tools which he made by hand and which he considers priceless.

Pope might have been an automobile magnate only he lacked the selling persuasion that wins financial backing. He designed and built a car to sell for a low figure five years before Ford started production. He gave up the idea for lack of capital.

He opened his first gunsmith shop in San Francisco. The day after the opening the earthquake wrecked his shop and he had to begin all over again.

Climate Trends Toward Warmer Temperatures

World-wide evidence that climate is getting warmer has been presented to the temperature symposium of the American Institute of Physics.

"Climatologists," according to J. B. Kincer of the United States weather bureau at Washington, "have considered historic climate as a rather stable thing, with short period variations of considerable magnitude, but without especially significant trends covering long periods."

"However, since the turn of the century there has been such a persistent trend to higher temperatures, world-wide in scope, as to suggest that the orthodox conception of stability of climate needs some revision at least."

He cited weather records. In Portland, Ore., 17 of the last 20 years have been warmer than normal. The warmest was 1921. Every year since 1922 has been above average.

Omaha, in a similar period, has had 15 years warmer than normal with the peak in 1931. In Washington, 17 years have been warmer than normal and every year since 1928 has brought above normal heat in that city. Washington's warmest year was 1921.

Capetown, South Africa, recorded 19 years warmer than normal, with the hottest in 1927.

World-wide monthly records for 23 years show all but four considerably warmer than normal. Two of these years were at normal and two were colder than the average. These records have been completed only up to 1932.
