Taxes Lowest In 35 Years

Rate in School District No. 3 Fr. Decreases

According to figures compiled by Supervisor Fred G. Broesamle, the tax rate in School District No. 3 Fr., Sylvan and Lima, is lower this year than it has been for at least 35 years. This will be welcome news to property owners in the district, especially when it happens in the face of steadily increasing taxes nationally.

Reduction in the county and township rate accounts for the low tax rate, the rate levied for school purposes being the same as last year. Rates in other school districts in Sylvan township vary, with some of the total levies being higher and some lower than last year, depending on the amount to be raised for school purposes.

Taxpayers in School District No. 3 should consider themselves extremely fortunate, as the total tax rate here is lower than the school tax alone in many districts of comparable size.

The highest rate here during the past 35 years was in 1927 when the total levy in School District No. 3 Fr. was $23.85 per $1,000 valuation. This year's total levy is only $10.82 per $1,000 valuation, a decrease of $13.03 from last year.

The county tax rate in Sylvan township is $2.10, and the township rate is $7.72. School tax rate, and total levy in each district in the township is as follows:

School District No. 1 Fr., Lyndon and Sylvan—School tax $5.00, total rate $7.82.

School District No. 2, Sylvan—School tax $4.00, total rate $6.82.

Attention, Kiddies!

Do you remember what a lot of fun you had at The Chelsea Standard Christmas party last year at the Sylvan Theatre? Well, we're going to have another party this year and we want you to reserve Saturday afternoon, December 20 for the big event at the Sylvan. A fine program is being arranged for the enjoyment of all kiddies and "grown-ups" who have not reached the ripe old age of sweet sixteen. Watch for further details and plan to be our guests on Saturday, December 20. (We almost forgot to tell you—there will be a treat for each youngster, too!)

Chelsea Water Supply Undergoing Treatment

Rumors have been circulating in Chelsea during the past few days to the effect that the local water supply had become contaminated and that its use was to be prohibited by the State Department of Health.

In order that an authentic report on the water situation could be given, The Standard, through the cooperation of the County Health Department, has obtained a statement from John Hepler, State Sanitary Engineer for the Michigan Department of Health, to the effect that there is nothing to fear so far as contamination of the local water supply is concerned.

During the years 1935 to October, 1941 all samples of the local water supply tested by the state were found to be alright. However, after operation of the filtration plant was started, a slight amount of contamination was discovered. This condition is termed "construction contamination" and is usually experienced following the installation of new equipment, according to Mr. Hepler. It is caused by the appearance of bacteria in new pipes, pumps, grease in pipe fittings, etc., and is a condition which is no cause for alarm and which usually can be easily remedied.

In an effort to correct the small amount of contamination here, a chlorination treatment was given the water supply on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. Samples of the water were taken again on Monday but reports have not been received here. If necessary another treatment will be instituted, and if contamination is not eliminated the chlorinating process will of necessity be continued. Large cities chlorinate continuously as an extra precaution against contamination, so if such a measure should be necessary here it would not be a serious matter.

According to state and county health departments, routine samples of the Chelsea water supply will be tested to assure local residents of an approved water supply at all times.

Modern Fire Truck Purchased By Village

A new modern fire truck has been ordered by the village from the American Fire Apparatus Co., Battle Creek. This company's bid was $600.00 lower than their nearest competitor, and the order was given to the company's representative at the council meeting on Monday evening.

The new fire truck will be of latest design and carries a 400-gallon booster tank which is a great advantage in fighting rural fires. Although no agreement has been reached between village and township officials, it is hoped a deal can be worked out whereby the new equipment will be available for use on rural calls.

Total cost of the truck will be approximately $2200. It was specified by the council that the chassis be purchased through a local agency, and the company will ask for bids from local car dealers. Delivery is promised in about three months.

The purchase of new fire fighting equipment was deemed necessary because of the antiquated condition of the present trucks which are of little value as protection to property owners of the village.

Christmas Trees Will Be Placed Here Soon

Seventy Christmas trees have been purchased by the village and will be delivered for placing in front of the business places within the next few days. As has been the custom in the past, merchants will furnish the lights for the trees. Wires have been strung by electricians and the trees will be placed as soon as they arrive.

FAMILY STYLE SUPPER

Roast beef, mashed potatoes, squash, cinnamon apples, cabbage salad, beet pickles, rolls, mince and apple pie, coffee, served family style at the Methodist church on Thursday, Dec. 11, at 6:30 until all are served. Adults 60c, children 30c. You will find good fishing on the pond near the Country Store too.

DANCE

The Farmers' Guild is sponsoring a dance at Chelsea public school on Friday evening, Dec. 5. All members and friends are invited. Music by O. E. Green and orchestra.

LOCAL LODGE DEFEATED

Manchester K. of L. Lodge defeated the local K. of L.'s in the second game of the season's euchre tournament, played here on Tuesday night. The Chelsea boys won the first game of the tournament.

Coach Speaks At Banquet

Letters Given Football Squad On Monday

About one hundred people were in attendance at the annual football banquet which was sponsored by the Kiwanis club and held Monday evening in the public school auditorium. A delicious chicken dinner was prepared and served by the seniors and their mothers. During the dinner hour music was furnished by the High School Swing Band, and group singing was led by Jerry Niehaus, with Mrs. Niehaus at the piano.

A. D. Mayer, president of the Kiwanis club, presided as toastmaster. Two selections were rendered by the boys' quartet consisting of Duane LeVan, Tom Lyons, Luther Kusterer and Robert Strieter, with Miss Marie McNeil accompanist. Mr. Mayer introduced Lawrence Dietle, captain of the 1941 football squad, who in turn introduced Robert Strieter, who has been elected captain of the 1942 team. Both the retiring and newly-elected captains spoke briefly.

Coach Chas. Cameron gave a short talk, and presented letters to the following members of the football squad: Varsity—L. Dietle, C. Lange, J. Miller, C. Dunner, D. Gadd, R. Kern, T. Lyons, J. Merkel, S. Policht, R. Strieter, D. Foor, Jr. Gross, M. Schiller; Reserve awards—J. Gaken, H. Orbring, J. Weir, R. Walz, A. Modak. Managers' awards were presented to L. Policht and C. Slane.

The principal address of the evening was given by Ernie McCoy, assistant football coach at the University of Michigan, who related many interesting happenings in the life of a football coach. Mr. McCoy also showed moving pictures of the Michigan-Northwestern football game.

Local Boy Scout Troop Will Serve Community

The chairman of the current Boy Scout drive announced that the Kiwanians have almost completed their work in collecting funds to aid the Boy Scout Troop of Chelsea for the coming year. He urges all who have not contributed a small sum to this endeavor to contact a Kiwanis club member at once, so that the drive may be completed this week.

Frank Edgar, Jr., Scoutmaster of the local troop, states that the Boy Scouts have voted to render this community a distinct service during the coming winter. He asserted that the rapid expansion and increased employment in the Chelsea plants has created a shortage of available young men to perform certain odd jobs in town. The Boy Scouts will be glad to play their part in the Home Defense Program by carrying out these projects during the coming year, according to Mr. Edgar, and he urges all who have need for boys to run errands, shovel snow, carry out ashes, and to perform other similar jobs, to leave the message at the Chelsea high school during the day and at the home of M. L. Knickerbocker during the early evening hours. The patrol leaders will then contact available Scouts who will perform these duties as soon as possible. It is believed that not only will this service aid the community by providing available boys to complete these assignments, but it will also enable the boys to earn their own money and be a means of raising money for the Scouts to carry on other activities in Chelsea.

The Scouts have recently collected a substantial amount of paper and bled it at the old Hepler plant, and Mr. Edgar asks cooperation on the part of residents of this vicinity in order that the Scouts may make further progress and complete many worthwhile activities during the coming year.

Grades Will Present Christmas Program

Chelsea public school grades will present the annual Christmas program on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 18 in the gymnasium. This year it is planned to have a different type of program than has been given previously. It will consist of Christmas music and a play, the entire performance being given by the children in the grades.

The play is entitled "Thirty Minutes With Santa Claus." This program will appeal to adults as well as to children. The traditional Santa Claus is portrayed less as a dispenser of gifts than as the true spirit of Christmas—sharing with others who are less fortunate.

Characters in the play are portrayed by Donald Baldwin, Wilma Paul, Robert Freysinger, Marlene Heydlauff, Deloris Eisemann, Douglas Vogel, Jim Miller, Junior Niehaus, Billy Lyons, Richard Cameron, and Wanda Mc Platt. The fifth and sixth grades sing many favorite Christmas carols.

The boys and girls are working hard to make their Christmas program a success, and invite the public to come and enjoy it.

ADULT HOMEMAKING CLASSES

Adult Homemaking Classes are now meeting every Thursday evening in the Home Economics room at Chelsea high school. The time is from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. The subject to be discussed this week is "How can my choice of floor covering add to the beauty of my home?" Everyone is welcome.

A LETTER TO: Chelsea from SANTIAGO DE CUBA

(Written in the patio of the Casa Michaelson, Sagarra 115, Santiago de Cuba.)

I was almost certain that the following information would interest not only James Hendley, but many others in and around Chelsea.

We arranged our trip down from Havana so that we might spend the night at Camaguey and take a few hours the following day visiting neighboring farms.

One mile of Cuban agriculture is pretty much like the next in other words, the produce of Matanzas Province does not vary particularly from that of Oriente, although they are at opposite ends of the island. Coming down, the countryside seemed a succession of oranges, pineapples, bananas, coffee bushes, cacao, with sugar cane growing everywhere both deliberately and accidentally. We saw quite a bit of corn, but honestly, none of it looked quite as good as the Michigan variety.

The soil of Cuba is extraordinarily fertile, varying in color from a dark brown to a brick red. It is a common occurrence for a farmer to cut twenty crops of sugar cane before replanting is necessary. Frankly, I don't believe they've ever heard of rotating one's crops.

There are no medium-sized farms. They seem to be either twenty to forty acres or at least three hundred. The large farms are all plantations, and are worked principally on shares—very small shares, I might add.

In the stretch of six hundred miles we did not see one tractor, one piece of modern farm machinery. It is quite understandable though, for gasoline is forty cents per gallon and labor very cheap. All plowing is done by oxen, and all transportation in the interior accomplished by the small, wiry Cuban horses. Even the twenty-acre farmer has several horses, and saddles grow wild. Simply cut a few stalks of cane, trim them down, tie them across the horse's back and voila!—one has a comfortable saddle.

The cattle here were all imported originally from India. Evidently they are better able to withstand the rigors of this ever-hot climate.

The great majority of Cuban farmers have a low standard of living. Their houses and buildings are very small, with rectangular holes cut in the whitewashed walls for doors and windows, and thatched roofs. Floors of any material except dirt are unheard of. Barns are merely a heap of thatch set on posts.

On the whole, Cuban farmers are a happy-go-lucky lot. Their philosophy of life compensates for what they lack. If they never see more than a few pesos at one time, then no headaches result from trying to look after their money. In fact, we found very few of them at home. But in the little villages the cafes were crowded, and dice and dominoes flourished.

I could not resist thinking of their wide grins if someone should offer them payment for work not done, crops not planted.

Santiago de Cuba is the most beautiful city I have ever seen by night and the ugliest and dirtiest by day. At night the great purple mountains seem to gather closer, the lights twinkle hospitably from the seven hills on which the city is built, and the trade winds sweep up Santiago Bay. Yes, the nights are extremely conducive to romance, with public officials setting the pace. The present Mayor of Santiago has seventeen children.

During the day the sidewalks are decorated with gaping holes, the streets are narrow and stinking; the shade trees seem to have moved to the country, and streams of sewage run merrily down the gutters.

But the patio of the Casa Michaelson is a place set apart. A beautiful Cuban hodge-podge, it contains tile walks, potted plants, shrubs of all kinds, a summerhouse, an avocado tree, and four great royal palms. I am getting an immense amount of writing done. Katy is doing away with an immense amount of citrus fruit. She has gone the Cubans two better—sleestas after breakfast, and dinner as well as lunch.

We have had to revise our itinerary. The war has disrupted steamship schedules to such an extent that we can go to neither Haiti or Jamaica, but must catch the one boat per month which runs to San Juan, Puerto Rico by way of Santo Domingo. And we sit here in Santiago praying that it won't be taken off the run before then. Even clipper flights are booked full a month in advance. In San Juan luck will doubtless be the principle means of transportation.

We had rather an interesting experience yesterday. Down at the docks watching the screaming winches disemboweling white steamships of their cargo, we fell into conversation with the radio operator of a United Fruit boat out of New Orleans. For a man his age he seemed rather frightened of something or other.

"Yes, my young friends, I'll be plenty glad to get back to New Orleans again. This is the last trip in these waters for me."

We asked the why and wherefore. "Because it's too dangerous, that's why."

When questioned about the presence of U-boats in the Caribbean he was very evasive.

"I can't tell you any more except that it's dangerous. We've already had a government radio message. As a matter of fact, when we left New Orleans, two of the fruit boats had gun mountings on them."

Naturally, both boat and radio operator had best remain anonymous.

On to San Juan! And if we do run into a little excitement, what a story it will make for the Chelsea Standard! "Life-in-a-Lifeboat" by G. S. & K. S.

Take a tip from the Old-Timers

TRAVELING around town here, you'll find Buicks that are still in service after six, eight, ten or even more years.

It's worth noting that these sturdy old Buicks are still serving faithfully and well, for several reasons.

They have the same basic type of engine as the sleek 1942 Buick — a rugged, long-lived, extra-efficient valve-in-head, though it is now made better by FIREBALL combustion.

They have the same dependable drive — a stout torque tube encasing a sturdy steel shaft stretching its unbroken length from transmission to rear axle.

Frames are fundamentally the same now as then; brakes, though hydraulic now, use the same, efficient, self-energizing action.

All the factors that make for strength and long life are still present — plus such further advances as all-coil springs, Domite pistons that squeeze more good from gasoline, Compound Carburetion that spells peak economy with unmatched reserve power.

There's more comfort, more convenience, more beauty, more value in these '42 models.

But what counts is that they're still Buicks — tough, rugged and dependable.

Take a look at what your next car is likely to be up against and ask yourself if that isn't the kind of car it's smart to buy right now.

Cattle Feeders Will Meet at MSC Dec. 6

With fat cattle prices running less than some feeder prices, Michigan cattle feeders will receive some of the answers to beef production when they gather at Michigan State College on Saturday, Dec. 6 for a Cattle Feeders' Day.

F. E. Mollin, Denver, secretary of the American Live Stock association, will discuss the beef cattleman's problems from a national viewpoint. Robert Martin of the Buffalo Producers' association, will present some of his recent experiences in purchasing 1,000 beef calves off the western range.

For the start of the day's program, visitors will gather at the experimental barn and livestock pavilion at 10 a. m. G. A. Brown, head of the college animal husbandry department, is in charge of this part of the schedule. Michigan beef cattle feeders will see calves starting on feeding trials. Registered Herefords, Angus and Shorthorns are included, as well as some white faced calves from good bulls and range heifers and some crossbred calves from Red Danish bulls. The "Beef for Defense" program is to be discussed, and timely feeding suggestions offered.

Noon luncheon will be at the Union. The afternoon discussions are to be adjourned early to permit a meeting of the board of directors and an election of officers of the Michigan Beef Cattle Feeders' association.

"Many Michigan farmers could well handle common grade yearlings this winter," comments G. A. Branaman of the college staff. "The animals could be fed well on good corn silage and one to one and a half pounds of high protein supplement. These animals could be marketed in late winter when ordinary cattle are higher because none would be coming off the grass ranges."

Christmas Seal Pennies Save Millions of Dollars

Through wise sowing of Christmas seal pennies, Michigan is saving millions of dollars in tax money, according to Mary Maier, seal sale manager for the Michigan Tuberculosis Association. The Christmas seal finances an intensive campaign to prevent tuberculosis. In 34 years it has lowered Michigan's tuberculosis death rate 60 per cent. Yet care for victims of the disease costs taxpayers of this state $4,000,000 each year.

"Certainly, pennies for prevention are wisely invested," Miss Maier said. If the seal sale which is now in progress and closes Christmas day, brings in the amount anticipated, the Michigan Tuberculosis Association will conduct the most intensive educational drive in its history during 1942, she stated.

Although not much can be determined this early as to the result of the Christmas seal campaign, Miss Maier considers the number of early returns very encouraging.

Often letters of appreciation come back with the money for the seals, telling of a neighbor or relative who has been helped by the Christmas seal work.

"There are several contributors whom we consider as old friends although we have never met them personally," Miss Maier said. "One always mails us a check for seals before the campaign ends—another returns a dollar for each seal sent him."

Huge Ford Bomber Plant in Michigan Takes Form

THIS AERIAL PHOTO shows the huge $47,000,000 bomber plant the Ford Motor Company is building at Willow Run, near Ypsilanti, Mich. In the foreground is the nearly completed manufacturing section, which forms the lower part of the "L" shaped plant. Only half of the actual length of the assembly building is shown in the photo. Ford will produce giant four-engine Consolidated B-24 bombers in the Willow Run plant. Construction work has advanced so rapidly a tool room already is in production in the new structure.

CAPITAL STOCK INCREASED BY MICHIGAN BELL TEL. CO.

Detroit—Stockholders of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company have authorized an additional $25,000,000 of capital stock of the company.

George M. Welch, president of the company, said the stock was authorized in anticipation of the company's 1942 equipment expansion and construction program and would be issued from time to time as the money is required. He emphasized that the shortage of materials makes impossible a close determination of the capital requirements for future construction, however.

"We cannot closely determine, in times like these, what our future capital requirements will be, because of the uncertainty of securing supplies vital to telephone needs," he said. "The action of the board in increasing our capital structure, however, insures our being financially prepared."

The company is in a period of unprecedented service demand, largely due to the Defense Program and the resulting industrial activity. We feel obligated to meet that demand. The shortage of materials, however, may make it impossible.

At the same time, Welch revealed that estimates of the company's construction program for the present year have climbed to $28,000,000, a $2,000,000 increase over earlier estimates. To help finance the net equipment additions in connection with that program, much of which is going directly into defense activity, the Michigan Bell Company issued $5,000,000 in new stock last December and $10,000,000 this year.

The board's action Thursday increased the authorized capital stock of the company to $175,000,000, of which $150,000,000 has been issued. The new authorization is subject to the approval of state authorities.

BRIGHTON—George Stonex had a very unique experience a few days ago. While driving to the General Motors Proving Ground where he is employed, he and the men riding with him thought they could smell smoke. Investigation revealed nothing, however, but upon reaching the Proving Ground, George left nothing to chance but made a thorough search. Upon opening the trunk, smoke poured out and he discovered that a service coat which had been placed there, was on fire. There wasn't any claw as to how the garment caught fire, unless a match, found on the floor of the trunk, which had burned and gone out, had by rubbing against something been ignited and set fire to the coat.

"Food for Freedom" Clubs To Be Financed

Donald D. Kline, Farm Security Administration supervisor in Washtenaw county, announced this week that his office will help finance livestock purchases by boys and girls who wish to become members of 4-H "Food for Freedom" clubs sponsored by the local agricultural extension office. In these clubs, encouragement is given boys and girls to raise more of the needed foods for which defense goals have been established for 1942.

Mr. Kline said, "We believe that 'Food for Freedom' clubs are a splendid idea and in order to help the children of our borrower families take part, FSA will make loans that will permit these youthful borrowers to buy a pig, calf or baby chicks—for their 4-H projects when funds are not available from other sources. Incidentally, we will encourage the youngsters to invest profits obtained from food increase projects in Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps."

Through this plan, FSA borrower children will not only be helping to place on the market a greater amount of foodstuffs but at the same time they will be investing in their government through Defense Bonds and Stamps, the safest investment a youngster can get.

Mr. Osler, County Agent, said, "I see in this plan an opportunity for youngsters who would otherwise not be able to participate in club work to carry out successful projects and to receive the advantage of club work."

CARD OF THANKS

I wish in this way to extend my sincere appreciation to my neighbors and fellow workers for their cards and flowers during my illness at home and in the hospital.

Chester, high school needs a fine band to promote school spirit and develop a greater unity of effort in the student body.

Although we now have an excellent start, there are many musically talented students in school who are not yet in the band.

Every student wants to contribute to school life and to leave behind when he graduates, a record of achievement. The band offers such an opportunity. Music is often called the universal language. In many cases an interest in music which develops during school days becomes more important as the years go by, until finally it becomes the dominating force.

We are now approaching the concert and contest season. Band members will be busy getting ready for local programs, and state contests in Ann Arbor and East Lansing. Our school has very high standards of scholarship and sportsmanship.

We need a band that can measure up to equally high standards. To develop such an organization we must have the help and moral support of every student in school.

Office News

We wish to thank the Kiwanis club for sponsoring the football banquet on Monday, December 1.

John W. Hall of Michigan State College visited the agriculture department of our school on Tuesday, December 2.

The girls' basketball team will play

Manchester, there, on Friday afternoon, Dec. 5.

The vocal music department has been busily engaged in making plans for their concert, which is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 11 in the gymnasium.

Student Council

The Student Council held a meeting November 27 and discussed whether or not the girls staying at school during the noon hour could have the gymnasium two days a week for basketball. A committee was chosen to find out how many girls are interested in basketball at noon.

Mr. Mead will be present at the next meeting of the Student Council to give advice for a Student Court. Prizes will be given for the best essays written on the subject "Improvements for Our School". The essays will be compulsory to all high school students.

Senior News

The annual football banquet for the 1941 players was held Monday evening, Dec. 1. The Kiwanis club tendered this dinner each year to the boys who have played on the team.

The Senior girls, with the help of their mothers, served the dinner. They wish to express their thanks to all those who helped to make the banquet a success.

Our Seniors

Next Monday, Dec. 8, Mary Birch will celebrate her 18th birthday. Mary is 5 ft. 1 inch tall, weighs 115 pounds, has blue eyes and dark brown hair. She decided her favorite color is red and that her song, "Everything Happens To Me" is "fittin' and proper". For recreation she enjoys bowling, movies, especially Wuthering Heights, and incidentally she likes spaghetti and meat balls. Mary is a brave gal.

She listens to the "Hermite" every Sunday evening. We can't forget that she likes government and sometimes not so long she hopes to become a secretary. Geneva Brown was born way out in Hot Springs, Arkansas, on July 18, 1924. However, she moved from Chicago to Chelsea this year and now is a "Chelseaite". She is 5 ft. 3 inches tall, weighs 116 pounds, has blue eyes and brown hair. Her favorite color is blue and has no connection with "All Alone and Lonely", which she plays 9 out of 10 times on her "Vic". Geneva likes football to watch—and loves to bowl. When she isn't eating, especially chicken, you might find her sitting in Chicago or seeing "Gone With the Wind" again. Geneva's favorite animal is a dog whose name is Eddie. He is quite a comfort when she is listening to the "Hermite". Geneva expects to take a business course next year.

Latin Club Party

On Thursday last the Latin Club held a party at the school. Dinner was served between 6:30 and 7:00 p. m. in the Home Economics room. After filling their tummies the Latin students gathered in the gym for games and finished the evening by dancing. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Miss McDonald, our Latin teacher, besides the Latin club members. The committee did a very nice job of planning the program.

New Evening Ag Class

A new F. F. A. evening class has started in place of the adult class that has been in operation for the last three years. This class is for the purpose of continuing instruction in the agricultural department for boys who have graduated or are not in school.

A committee composed of Richard Wahl, Paul Bristle, N. H. Miles, and Allen Brassamle have worked out a program of twenty meetings. Ten meetings will be held on the feeding of livestock and the other ten meetings will be about the care and repair of farm machinery. These classes are being held every Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the agriculture room.

The discussion is handled in the conference method, which means questions that are of immediate interest to the boys.

This agriculture class will be approved by the "State Board of Control for Vocational Education."

The classes on feeding will be conducted by Mr. Bust and the classes on farm machinery will be held by Mr. Miller.

Two meetings have already been held with an attendance of 20 boys.

Anyone wishing to attend is welcome. There is no charge.

F. F. A.

There are two carloads of boys leaving early Friday morning for the Livestock Show in Chicago. They will be back Sunday evening.

While they are there they hope to visit the Livestock Show, Shedd Aquarium, Field Museum and the Museum of Natural Science.

The boys going are Joe Merkel, Charles Downer, Junior Gross, Henry Orbrine, and Jack Niehaus. They will be accompanied by Martin Merkel and Leroy Bristle.

Assembly

A short assembly on Defense Stamps was held in study hall last Thursday morning. The program started with everyone singing "Ain't Bonds Today". Afterwards Donna Burman introduced Mr. Pierson of Ann Arbor, who gave a short talk on Defense Stamps. When he finished everyone sang "The Star Spangled Banner". Phyllis Hopper, co-leader of the program by explaining how we could buy Defense Stamps and Bonds.

Band News

On Tuesday, Dec. 2 the Chelsea High School Band presented their program at the Sylvan Theatre. The results of the total tickets sold, team selling the most tickets, or the amount made by the band is not yet known but a large crowd attended both shows and the band did their best to provide them with an enjoyable evening of entertainment.

Girls' Athletics

Boxing scores:
Mink Mochers 498
Bridg's Bearcats 459
Tigers' Lions 435
Merkel's Greenhorns 360
This year the girls' basketball team has its schedule completed a bit earlier than last year. Schedule:

December 5—Manchester, there.
Dec. 12—Grass Lake, here.
Jan. 12—Pinckney, here.
Jan. 16—Pinckney, there.
Jan. 23—Manchester, here.
Jan. 30—Grass Lake, there.
Feb. 20—U. High, here.

The squad has a pretty full schedule this year but the girls are practicing hard and faithfully.

Remember, their first game is this Friday at Manchester. Last year our girls were upset by the Manchester squad but this year Chelsea is hoping to turn the tables and come home the victors.

Remember—the girls need a little support from the students.

Commentaries—The seriousness of first hour study hall, and the restlessness of last hour study hall. The lines which inevitably form on each side of the drinking fountains—visitors looking at the pictures of graduates in the hall—and all gathering in S. H. before 8:30—seniors proud of the fact they can sit in the back seats—dim lights at All-Hi parties—the music roaming through the halls during Activity period, the result of much effort from the gym—the librarian busily occupied at her daily tasks in the library—Mr. Cameron's voice drifting into study hall, hindering most the first by close doors—Chemistry students, regarding dubiously their newest experiment, and giving disconnected looks at equipment left up by Physics students who haven't completed their experiment—that deadening pause between announcements and dismissal in the morning—people looking for a place to sit during assemblies, even though there are lots of seats in plain view—all these, and many more, are the things we never seem to see although they are obvious to one unaccustomed to seeing them so much.

Chelsea B. B. League

The various teams in the Chelsea Basketball League played their first games on Wednesday of this week. Cassidy Lake met the Central Fibre team at 7:30. Chelsea Spring defeated Federal Screw at 8:30, while Kimunity and Chelsea All-Stars convened at 9:30. All of the units comprising this league are fairly evenly matched, and Willard Guest, the chairman, feels that league competition will be keen throughout the winter season. The chairman has announced that the new regulation which requires each basketball on each team to play at least ten minutes in each game will be rigidly enforced. He stated that the primary object of the six team league is to give a form of exercise to the participants on the various teams and that he desires each player to have the opportunity to play as much as possible in each game. The chairman added, however, that the winning combination would receive fine prizes at the end of the season and mentioned that this was an incentive to urge all basketballers to play their best during the year.
The schedule of games for Wednesday, Dec. 10 is as follows: Chelsea All-Stars vs. Central Fibre at 7:30; Federal Screw vs. Kimunity at 8:30; and Chelsea Spring Co. vs. Cassidy Lake at 9:30. All the games in this league promise to be close and interesting, so all who are basketball fans are urged to attend the contests.
