December 7th Sale of War Bonds Totals $6375

Chelsea remembered Pearl Harbor! On Monday, December 7, the first anniversary of the Japs' sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, sales of War Bonds at the local post office and Chelsea State Bank totaled $6375.00; in addition to more than $500 in War Stamps sold at the post office and $476.35 worth of War Stamps sold at the Chelsea public schools. Local stores also report a brisk sale of stamps on Monday.

Much credit for the success of bond and stamp sales on this anniversary goes to the seventh grade of the public schools. As a special project to help the war effort locally the thirty-one pupils of this grade, under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Mabel Fox, made a canvass of the village to obtain pledges for the purchase of bonds on December 7. They also made a large number of posters for distribution about town.

As a result of their efforts, these youngsters obtained a total of $2625 in bond pledges, with Lyle Christwell, Jr. topping the list with $775.00 in pledges. In addition to this activity the seventh grade also had charge of stamp sales at school on Monday, with the result as stated above.

These children and their teacher are to be complimented for their patriotic efforts and upon the results obtained. The people of this vicinity are also to be congratulated for their wholehearted support of the nation's war effort.

War Ration Book No. 1 Registration Fri. - Sat.

The local rationing board office will be open at the high school on Friday, December 11, from 8:30 until 5:15 o'clock and on Saturday evening, December 12, from 7:00 until 9:00 o'clock to issue War Ration Book No. 1. No one will be able to obtain War Ration Book No. 1 unless he has War Ration Book No. 1. Be sure to register on Friday or Saturday as these are the last times the office will be open before Dec. 15, the dead line.

Babies must be registered within a month after birth. Anyone who has lost War Ration Book No. 1, whether or not he has reported the loss, should contact his local board.

Men in the armed forces of the U. S. may obtain both sugar and coffee certificates if their furlough is for one week or longer and if they present their leave papers to the local board.

Anyone wishing additional sugar for baking products in small quantities in home kitchens for charitable institutions, needy individuals, men in the armed forces of the U. S. or personal friends may apply at these same times. We are open for your convenience. It is very important that you have War Ration Book No. 1.

Christmas Party For Kiddies December 19

The annual Kiddies' Christmas party sponsored by the American Legion will be held on Saturday afternoon, December 19, at the Sylvan Theatre. A good program is being arranged by the theatre management, and complete details will be announced next week. The party will be limited to children up to 12 years of age. There will be a treat for everyone, according to the Legion committee in charge of the event.

The Blood Donor Unit, which is to be set up in Chelsea on December 15, from 12 to 5 o'clock p. m., will be located in the Methodist church.

The volunteers who have offered a blood donation for this date will be assigned a definite time between these hours when they may report. If you have not already been informed as to your specific time, you will receive your assignment in a few days. When reporting, please use the east door.

You who have volunteered from defense plants will find a schedule of assignments on your various bulletin boards. Do not report for your blood donation at any hour other than that for which you are called.

It is essential that blood donors eliminate all fats and oils from their diet four hours previous to blood donation.

ENTERS ARMY SERVICE

Peter Malcolm Kinney was inducted into army service on December 2 at Kalamazoo and was sent to Camp Grant, Ill. He is the son of Peter Kinney and was born May 12, 1908, in Montreal, Canada. He has been a resident of Chelsea since 1921 and for 12 years was employed as a sheet metal worker at the Muehlberg Lamp-ear Hardware Co. of Ann Arbor.

ENLISTS IN NAVY

Kenneth Slocum, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Slocum of Cavanaugh Lake, who enlisted for service in the U. S. Navy, reported to Detroit on Friday. He was born Dec. 16, 1924, in Chelsea and was a junior in Chelsea high school.

Registration Of Youths Will Start Friday

18-Year-Olds To Sign Up Between December 11 and 31

Lansing.—More than 25,000 Michigan youths will be registered in the sixth and probably the last general Selective Service registration to be conducted by local boards during the period beginning next Friday, December 11, and continuing through December 31. It has been announced by Col. E. M. Rosecrans, state director.

Men who became 18 during July and August this year will be registered on any day during the week beginning next Friday. Men who became 18 during September and October will be registered during the week commencing Friday, December 18; and those who became 18 during November or December will be registered during the period beginning December 28 and ending December 31.

Hereafter men born on or after January 1, 1925, will register on the day they become 18. If their birthday falls on Sunday or a legal holiday, they will register on the following day.

Men of this age group may register locally at Sylvan town hall. The first group may register on Friday, Dec. 11; the second group on Friday, Dec. 18; and the last group on Saturday, Dec. 26—the time will be from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Registration will take place generally in the offices of the 192 local boards in Michigan. In certain instances the local boards may designate other places of registration in the community.

Men subject to registration should register at the local board having jurisdiction over their residence address. Persons away from home at the time of registration may register at the office of the nearest local board. In every instance the residence address given by the registrant will determine the local board that will always have jurisdiction over him. Persons outside the United States will register immediately upon their return. Inmates of state institutions will register at the time they are released.

More than 1,800,000 men have already been registered by the Michigan Selective Service System, Colonel Rosecrans indicated, in one of the most complete inventories of manpower ever accomplished. This includes all men in Michigan between the ages of 18 and 45. All men between the ages of 18 and 45 have been declared by Congress to be liable for military service, if not otherwise deferred by their local boards. It is expected that the bulk of the manpower calls for the Armed Forces from Michigan will be made from registrants in the teen age group during the next few months.

Village Buys Smoke Masks For Firemen

At their regular meeting on Monday night the village council voted to purchase two smoke masks for use by the fire department, at a cost of $40 each. Use of the type of mask purchased will make it possible for firemen to enter burning buildings at times when it would otherwise be impossible.

The masks are equipped with an accessory which permits communication with firemen outside the building and a dial which indicates when the oxygen supply is exhausted, giving the fireman warning to get out of the building at once.

The council also voted to close West Summit street from Garfield street west, for use of children for coasting during the winter when conditions are favorable. East street from Washington to Van Buren will also be closed for use by children when the hill is in condition to be used.

GASOLINE APPLICATIONS MUST GO TO ANN ARBOR

The local gas rationing board will not receive any new applications for gasoline. They will have to be mailed or taken to Ann Arbor board. However, the local board is finishing and will hand out all applications that are in process of completion and completed at this time. Those who have made application with the Chelsea board and have not yet received their books may get them at the office of the public school superintendent on any school day.

Raise Sufficient Funds For Chelsea Day Room

The local Red Cross announces that the drive for funds for the Chelsea Day Room to be opened at Fort Custer has gone over the top.

Due to the very generous contributions of the people, the factories and various organizations and clubs, $444.03 was raised—$300.00 which is the cost of the standard furnishings, has already been forwarded to the Fort Custer Camp and Hospital Service Council, which is the unit of the Red Cross for which the drive was made. With part of the remaining money the committee has purchased a combination radio and victrola, and a supply of records in a suitable record box.

It is planned to have a ping pong table, decks of cards, checkers and dominoes and other games and plenty of magazine subscriptions purchased with the balance of the money, so that the room will be nicely furnished and will have some of the little extras which help to make it a real living room.

In a letter received from Walter Stubbs, field director of the Red Cross at Fort Custer and secretary of the Camp and Hospital Service Council, he wrote acknowledging the gift, "I am sure you could not have chosen any better plan than the one you and your group pursued. These day rooms are nicely equipped and make available to the soldier a home within the camp where they can relax and enjoy their leisure hours. These men have given up many outside connections in order to meet our national emergency and the pleasure they derive through the use of these splendidly equipped day rooms gives them that much needed touch of home life. I am sure these men will, if given an opportunity, express their appreciation to the home folks. However, if the occasion does not arise wherein it will be possible for them to do so, please accept their appreciation for your thoughtfulness through this field director as secretary of the Council."

And again, "The military has expressed their appreciation for the many splendid items the Council has provided for the men in uniform. The hospital patients, along with the able-bodied men who use these company day rooms, have many times expressed their thanks for the thoughtfulness of the home folks in contributing to their comfort and welfare. The fact that they are not forgotten means much to these men. While I know you are not seeking praise, yet a pat on the shoulder rarely does permanent damage."

The local chapter of the Red Cross wants to thank everyone who contributed to this project. Your generosity is so much appreciated and it is a great satisfaction to know that this community sponsored such a worthwhile undertaking.

Gas Stations-Garages Under New Schedule

Because of present conditions which are beyond their control, local service stations and garage owners announce that their business hours will be shortened considerably, starting on Sunday, December 13.

The hours will be as follows:
Sundays and holidays—Open 8:30 a. m. to 12 noon.
Saturdays—Open 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.
All other days—Open 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

The operators of the service stations and garages will appreciate the cooperation of the public when these new hours go into effect.

NAVAL GRADUATE

Charles H. Rycraft, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rycraft, 421 McKinley street, graduated December 4, from the naval training school for aviation machinists' mates at the Navy Pier in Chicago.

Maintaining one of the highest records of his class, the Bluejacket completed a comprehensive 24-week course, which included instruction in assembling, servicing and repairing airplanes and airplane engines, and the principle and theory of flying.

He has been promoted to the petty officer's rating of aviation machinists' mate, third class. He awaits assignment to the fleet or to a naval shore station.

The Navy Pier has training facilities for approximately 8,500 men. Bluejackets are selected for the course on basis of their scores on a series of aptitude tests given them while in recruit training.

ENLISTS IN SIGNAL CORPS

Robert Gillette, who enlisted in the signal corps of the U. S. Army, reported to Detroit on Friday and was sent to Fort Custer. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gillette of Middleville, he was born in July, 1922, graduating from Middleville high school in 1939. For the past three and one-half years he had been employed at the Sylvan Theatre.

OUR OWN CHRISTMAS MIRACLE

By Kathleen Norris

A small hot crowded kitchen. A woman busy with cooking and washing and the care of noisy small boys. And in a pillowed arm-chair, in the midst of the confusion, in the close air, a little girl, coughing her life away. The mother looks at her anxiously—from time to time; a bottle of medicine is there, but it doesn't seem to help much.

Into this kitchen comes a strange woman. Smiling at them all, she explains that the doctor has arranged for Mary to go to a sanatorium to rest in bed, in the fresh air, to eat good wholesome food. Help has come in time. She can be cured.

The overworked mother, the hard-working father love that child as you and I love ours. They would give their lives to save her. But they can't do this for her. They can't choose the right food, the perfect conditions. It would cost them thousands, and even if they had those thousands they wouldn't know how to manage it.

What do you think their bursting hearts feel toward the National Tuberculosis Association, and to you, who through that association, do that for them? And for thousands like them. Tuberculosis, the hideous "white death" that has stalked unchecked for so many generations, is actually on the wane, and only the God of suffering humanity knows how great a share in that miracle is due to the unseen, untiring, unceasing work of the Christmas seals.

For thirty-five years our Christmas rejoicings have been made all the happier because this note of truly divine charity has been a part of them. Your dollar and mine may seem insignificant, but nothing that America does when her heart is in it can be small. Last year those dollars of ours amounted to seven and a half millions.

Seven and a half millions; and most of it in one dollar and two dollar contributions. Well, I'm going to double mine this year, and persuade one or two other regular buyers of Seals to double theirs, too. If we all do that, the crusade against consumption will be able to reach every case in the Union and build up walls of prevention and safeguarding that will save thousands from infection—perhaps the children you love, the grandchildren who are my world.

Cut down on something else this year: Christmas tree trimmings, chestnuts in the dressing, fancy wrappings and ribbons. But double your purchase of Christmas Seals, and win your rightful share of the Christmas miracle.

Conservation Dept. Plans For Fishermen

Lansing—After careful consideration of the probable effect of gasoline rationing next summer, the conservation department has scaled down its printing of 1943 fishing licenses by only 105,000. A total of 1,100,000 blanks have been ordered.

Fishing license sales in the current season surprised many observers by approaching sales in the boom season of the year before. At the latest count, the 1942 resident license sales, at $79,110, were down only about two per cent, and non-resident sales, at $201,600, were down just 13 per cent. Easy access to fishing waters in all parts of the state is credited with maintaining the sport in spite of travel difficulties.

The 1943 licenses will be required of all persons fishing on inland waters after January 1. The 750,000 $1 resident licenses (each with identification slip for wife) are 50,000 fewer than were prepared a year ago. Non-resident 1943 licenses on order are 150,000 temporary (10-day) at $1; 100,000 annual at $2; and 100,000 for wives at 50 cents.

THE END OF THE BEGINNING

By Ruth Taylor

Watch out! Don't slacken! Don't let the dazzling rainbow of victories won blind us to the fact that the storm is not yet over, that the clouds are still dark above us. The end is not yet.

Winston Churchill warned us of that when he said this was the end of the beginning—not the beginning of the end. And we must take heed.

It is the end of the beginning—the period of indecision, of the hour in which we woke from dreams of peace to the reality of war, of the days and nights in which we had to reorganize not only our lives but our manner of thought, to recast ourselves to a world ruled by the exigencies of war.

But the end is not yet. We cannot win the war by over-confidence, we cannot assume the game is over when the play begins to run our way. The decision will come at the end of the game when the last play has been made and the last battle fought. We cannot leave the field until the final second of the game.

We want to win this war that we may return to what we had. We do not want anything from any other nation. We want only for other peoples that freedom which we claim for ourselves—the freedom of speech, expression and religion, the freedom from want and fear.

We cannot win this war by wishing. We have to win it by work. The quickest way to win the war is the best way to win it, and this means discarding everything that won't help in the all out effort. To win the war we must have neither idle hours nor idle dollars. But money is not enough. Production is not enough. Men are not enough. We must add to these that extra effort, that all essential will to win. We must accept restrictions—willingly. We must do all we can—gladly.

We must not allow ourselves to be caught by Axis inspired propaganda. We must not be spreaders of rumor. We must not be "disseminators" of hatred toward any of our own people, regardless of class, race, creed or color. We must not be selfish hoarders. Conversely, we must work, we must sacrifice, we must fight for the common good. And we must have faith in the ultimate victory, while putting forth all our strength to win.

The beginning is ended. Now the road lies ahead. It will be rough in many places—it will go through valleys of depression, skirt dangerous precipices, descend perhaps into quagmires of temporary defeat—but at the end it will lead, we are confident, to victory and to ultimate peace for all the peoples of all the earth.

days but the program will be geared to the war production problems. More than a score of state farm and breed organizations have indicated their desire to hold their annual meetings again on the campus as part of the Farmers' Week program. Less variety in entertainment may be necessary. Attendance will likely fall far below the level of previous years when the totals of 50,000 to 60,000 led the attendance records of all other similar events in the nation. Those who do attend will return to all sections of the state vested with information which they can pass along to neighbors unable to travel to the East Lansing campus. Details of the program, exhibits, departmental schedules and contents and demonstrations are being worked out by committees within the agricultural and other divisions of the college.

Rationing Decreases Traffic On Highways

Lansing—With the advent of gasoline rationing on December 1, state trunkline traffic dropped 32.7 per cent in one day according to a state highway department report compiled this week.

State Highway Commissioner G. Donald Kennedy said that the results were averaged from 27 automatic traffic counting stations throughout the state and the metropolitan Detroit area on December 1 and 2.

The sharpest decline was noted on US-27 near Cheboygan where traffic on Tuesday, December 2, was 66.6 per cent below that on Monday. In the Thumb on M-58 north of Marlette a decrease of 63 per cent was recorded. Between Lansing and Detroit near Fowlerville traffic slumped 60.7 per cent on US-16. East of Marshall on US-12 a 39.2 per cent drop was recorded and traffic on US-10 northwest of Pontiac fell off 49.9 per cent.

From county road stations southeast of Lansing and near Ithaca an average drop of 60.5 per cent was noted.

Three representative stations in the metropolitan Detroit area showed an average decrease of 21.5 per cent the first day.

"Essential war work was responsible for fewer cars being laid up in that area," said Commissioner Kennedy.

Traffic throughout the state on December 1 averaged 43.8 per cent lower than the corresponding day last year.

Reports from St. Ignace reveal that the state operated ferries at the Straits of Mackinac carried less than 200 vehicles on December 1, as compared to 806 on December 1, 1941. Traffic carried across the Straits dropped from 36,692 vehicles in November 1941 to 29,065 during the past month.

M. S. C. Farmers' Week Set For February 2-4

Streamlined for war service to Michigan agriculture, the 28th annual Farmers' Week at Michigan State College has been dated for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, February 2 to 4.

To sound the keynote, E. I. Anthony, dean of agriculture and general chairman for the event, explains that "farmers of Michigan will be in greater need than ever before for the best available information."

"Their superhuman effort to supply food required in 1942 must be aided with the information resources which the college can provide in suggesting labor saving devices, short cuts in production and the control of diseases and insect pests."

"Michigan State College has served farmers for nearly a century. Farmers' Week will be streamlined to three

MEAT STRETCHER

Potato-Salt Pork Casserole

No. 10 of the Nutrition Series

With the government asking for voluntary meat rationing, it becomes more important every day for the homemaker to learn ways of stretching the meat to make extra servings. Last week we published the recipe for Potatoburgers, which makes a tasty meat stretcher, and here is another.

This casserole requires only one fourth pound of salt pork for six servings. The dish is wholesome and inexpensive. Potatoes, of course, supply energy and the important elements needed to build and maintain strong bones and teeth. Milk as we all know is one of the most complete foods that nature provides. Onions are used for flavor, and salt pork provides both fat and flavor, and makes a dish that "sticks to the ribs."

POTATO-SALT PORK CASSEROLE (6 Servings)

2 1/2 pounds potatoes (6-8 medium size) 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
2 medium size onions 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 pound salt pork, sliced 1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons shortening 2 cups milk

1. Wash, peel and slice potatoes and onions.
2. Arrange alternate layers of sliced potatoes and onions in a greased 2-quart casserole.
3. Cook salt pork slightly over a low flame for about 5 minutes.
4. Melt shortening in a saucepan over a low flame.
5. Add flour, salt and pepper and blend thoroughly.
6. Add milk gradually and stir until smooth. Cook mixture until it thickens, stirring constantly.
7. Pour white sauce over potatoes and onions; mix lightly. Sprinkle salt pork over top.
8. Bake, uncovered, in an oven that has not been preheated, at 350° F. about 1 1/2 hours.

JOHN W. HASELSWERDT

137 Park St.

Chelsea, Mich.

Here's one thing your Uncle Sam wants you to hoard!

YOUR FAVORITE UNCLE wants you to pamper your money. He wants you to put it aside in War Bonds—all of it you can—it will come in mighty handy later on. In fact, he is so anxious for you to do this he will give you $4 for every $5 you lay aside!

He wants you to do it in a particular sort of way.

He wants you to do it by converting at least 10 percent of your salary into War Bonds every pay day through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Uncle Sam has some "darned" good reasons for wanting you to be this kind of hoarder—reasons you just can't quarrel with. Here are some of them:

1. We must equip and arm the greatest army of all time if we are to win the war. The more War Bonds you buy the better we can do that.

2. We must not let prices get out of hand. Peacetime things are scarce. By putting your money into War Bonds instead of spending it for the scarce things you will help keep the cost of living down.

3. Uncle Sam wants you to have a "cushion" when the war is over—a reserve of money that will help you during the readjustment to peace. By buying War Bonds you'll be putting aside money for that period of readjustment.

Your Uncle Sam is pretty sure that you've bought some War Bonds—there isn't a patriotic American who hasn't bought some. But he wants to make certain that you are buying enough.

Twenty million American workers have joined the Payroll Plan. They are putting $265,000,000 into War Bonds every month by having their employer deduct it from their pay checks.

Lots of these people are investing at least 10 percent of their pay in War Bonds, some of them more.

War Bonds make such good sense—for patriotic and selfish reasons—that nobody should skip on them. Nobody should be putting less than 10 percent into War Bonds unless it is literally impossible to do so.

See your employer today and tell him you want not 6 percent, or 7 percent, or 8 percent, but a full 10 percent put into War Bonds every pay day—and more, if you can see your way clear!

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO

- If you are—
1. Already setting aside 10 percent of your pay into War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—boost that 10 percent if you can.
 2. Working in a plant where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet—sign up tomorrow.
 3. Working in a plant where the Payroll Savings Plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman, or plant manager—and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help.
 4. Unable to get in on the Payroll Savings Plan for any reason, go to your local bank or other issuing agent. They will be glad to help you start a Plan of your own.

One or two mornings the thermometer hovered around the zero mark.

Standings	W	L
Fibre	1	0
Cassidy	1	0
Federal	1	0
Spring	0	1
Kimunity	0	1
Dexter	0	1

Last Thursday evening a crowd of excited people witnessed two very interesting games of ball. The first game between Fibre and Kimunity was a hard and fast struggle with Fibre taking the lead and winning with a score of 20-14.

Cassidy Lake and Chelsea Spring fought for the second game. Although the Spring players were right in the game the Cassidy team seemed to find that rim a little more often and won with a score of 26-23.

The final game of the evening was won by a forfeit to Federal Screw from Dexter.

This year's season certainly opened with a bang! Every player was in there fighting and as the season progresses the teams will naturally develop and become better organized. Watch these ball teams progress and be at the high school gym again tonight to see three more interesting and exciting games.

Kitchen linoleum that has been waxed can be kept clean by wiping it daily with a cloth wrung out in cool soapy water. Dry the floor with a clean scrub cloth or other soft material. Scrubbing should be reserved for the times when it is necessary to apply a fresh coat of wax. Frequency of re-waxing depends upon the amount of traffic that crosses the floor and the between-care given the linoleum.

Homemaking News

The homemaking girls are inviting the public to attend their first style show of the year. Garments made at home and in school will be displayed in the gymnasium on Dec. 16 at 7:30 p. m. Admission is FREE.

Children's garments, wool and rayon dresses and make-over garments will be modeled by homemaking II and III classes.

Resides making garments in class the girls have been making a garment at home. These projects are beneficial to the girls by increasing their wardrobe, assisting their mothers, and practicing what they have learned in school.

Models for the show are: Pat Burg, Doris Collins, Dorothy Knickerbocker, Rose Marie Clark, Mary Jane Eder, Catherine Fausser, Eva Harris, Joyce Hoffman, Rose Kiss, Pauline Klink, Ruth Senechal, Phyllis Weber, Marjorie Umstead, Bernadine West, Anna Marie Armstrong, Virgiline Bell, Mary Forner, Gertrude Honeck, Margaret Knapp, Evelyn Lehman, Ruth McDonald, Madelyn Rowe, Betty Ridd, Mildred Schable, Virginia Sullivan, Jean Schroeder, Frances Whendon, Mary Wood and Helen Riddle.

The playlet, written by Rosemary Lyons and Evelyn Lehman, supports the following cast: Margaret Knapp, Dorothy Knickerbocker, Joanne Moore and Joyce Lantz. Mary Catherine Weber is the pianist.

Immediately after the style show the Homemaking Club will put on a candlelight initiation. Madelyn Rowe, president, assisted by Phyllis Weber, will introduce the aims of the club. Courtesies, Pat Burg, Health, Anna Marie, Armstrong, Friendship, Virginia Sullivan, and Service, Jean Dexter.

Mary Jane Eder will be pianist throughout the initiation.

Report Cards

The second report cards of the year were given out Wednesday afternoon, December 9. These report cards are very important and should be looked over carefully by the parents because they show not only the grades the pupil receives but also the number of times he was tardy or absent. The report, which is also kept by the school, is a record for the student's entire year's work and is accepted as an official record if the pupil moves to another school. If the school records happen to burn, or as reference if the pupil is applying for a job.

The report cards are to be returned within one week after they are given out. They are to be signed by the parents, indicating that they have been carefully examined. A ten cent fine must be paid by all those who do not return their card within a week.

Matinee Dance

Last Friday there was a matinee dance at 3:30 in the kindergarten room for those who could not dance and wanted to learn how, and those students who knew how to dance could also attend.

Mr. Richards and Mr. Cameron were the dancing instructors until about four. The girls outnumbered the boys by about 2 to 1. Everyone that attended the dance was made to dance and they were not allowed to sit around the sidelines.

The radio-phonograph was used and very successfully. The dance was over at 4:30.

This matinee dance was not as successful as several of the others were but with a little more cooperation from the student body the dances could be made successful.

This award is given to the Senior girl who best fulfills the following requirements as formulated by the D. A. R.: scholarship, dependability, service, leadership, patriotism and athletics.

Helen was born in Ann Arbor on October 24, 1925 and has had all of her schooling in the Chelsea public schools. In high school she is a member of G. A. A., Latin Club, and secretary of the Senior class.

Juniors

The date of the party to be sponsored by the Juniors has been changed to December 18.

Kennv. Slocum, a well-known Junior who enlisted in the Navy, left Friday. The Junior play staff has not been completed as yet.

Maria Winter, Jim Gaken and Jim Gant are on a committee for the Sophomores' Christmas party. Robert Trinkle has charge of the Christmas tree.

SEVENTH GRADE SELLS WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

Have you happened to notice the busy knitters around the school? They are probably seventh and eighth graders, and boys as well as girls, partake in this project. The seventh grade has completed one afghan and the second one is almost finished. Several other projects have been finished, including ambulance pillows and a combination checker and writing board. All of these articles are now on display in Loeffler's window and much interest has been taken in the display.

The seventh grade has taken upon themselves an even greater task of trying to put over the sale of war bonds on December 7. They have been taking pledges for the buying of bonds on December 7 and so far the result is that $2350 worth of bonds have been pledged. The aim of the class was to sell $500 worth of stamps to school children and that means that everyone in both grade and high school had to cooperate and buy at least one dollar's worth of stamps. The high school defense council is trying to buy a jeep and the seventh graders are helping to meet their quota. On Monday, December 7 all during the day there was a stamp booth where stamps could be bought. In all a lot of credit is due to Miss Fox and her seventh graders for their contributions to the war effort.

Through the Keyhole

Mumps! Mumps and more mumps. It seems as though everyone had them. If you asked where anyone was the answer was "Oh, they've gone home with the mumps."

If anyone has wandered into speech class lately they probably thought it was a class for the deaf and dumb. The class is studying pantomime—that's all.

The Juniors had play tryouts last Wednesday and it was really funny to see some of them trying to discourage others from taking certain parts. It couldn't be that they wanted those parts themselves, could it? That was a nice wire that was in the bushes at the rear entrance of the theatre last Tuesday night, wasn't it? Ask the band members—more than one of them landed head first in the snow.

Band News

The second annual concert of the Chelsea Band was held at the Sylvan Theatre on Tuesday, December 1. They played the following numbers: Star Spangled Banner; Monahan Post; Down South; Notre Dame Victory March; Princess of India; American Eagle.

The Band held its election of officers. They are as follows:

President—Wilma Schweinfurth. Vice-President—Dick Umstead. Secretary—June Vail. Treasurer—Bob Perkins. Business Manager—Dwight Gadd. Student Conductors—Dick Richards. Librarian—Mary Chriswell. Stage Managers—Bob Perkins and Dick Umstead.

Graduates of '43 (?)

A laughing, happy-go-lucky boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gadd in Jackson on June 12, 1925. Dwight, although he has grown a little since then, is still quite small. He only towers 5 ft. 3½ in. in his stocky feet; this is why he has acquired the nickname of "Shorty". Dwight weighs 138 pounds and has blue eyes and blonde hair. Dwight gets all his strength for playing football, not from vegetables containing vitamin B, but from pie, which is his favorite dish. Shorty goes to the theatre quite often and decided that "Smiling Through" was his favorite movie. Incidentally, "Smiling Through" describes Dwight very well.

Band News

The Senior High School Band presented a concert in the Sylvan Theatre on Tuesday night. Although the program was difficult for any band to attempt, the Chelsea Band handled it very well.

The next appearance of the band will be in the high school Christmas program on December 23 at the high school, playing various Christmas pieces.

The High School Pep Band will be present at the first basketball game of the season this Friday to furnish music and cheers for Chelsea High.

Assembly

On November 30, at 8:30, Dr. Goebels, a noted scientist, gave a very interesting talk on radium.

He had samples of rock where radium is found, a lamp which is used to find radium, and some radium. He told us that radium was very expensive, costing thousands of dollars for one ounce. He also explained that radium was very dangerous and if it isn't used by experts in medicine death may be the result of using it.

Office News

Copeland District Boy Scout Court of Honor was held last night in Study Hall at 7:30.

Pinekey plays basketball here Friday night at 7:30. This is the first game of the season.

The style show sponsored by the Home Making Club will be held Wednesday evening, December 16 at 8:00.

Girls' Noon Sports

Every Monday and Wednesday noon the girls who eat their lunches at school play basketball. They started to play last Wednesday. We hope more girls will be out to play this week than there were last week.

Maria Winter has been elected to take care of it.

Student Council

Last Friday the Student Council had a dance for the students who did not know how to dance. Mr. Richards and Mr. Cameron were the teachers.

Elementary News

Seventh Grade

Grade seven spent most of its spare time last week in preparing for Pearl Harbor Day. Seventy posters were made and distributed, several hundred bond pledges were printed, several hundred red, white and blue "Dec. 7" tags were made, bond pledges were secured.

The second afghan was finished and a display placed in Mr. Loeffler's window. We thank him for the use of the space.

By evening of December 7, the grade could count $4763½ worth of stamps sold, enough to make a substantial payment on the "jeep," and $2,626.00 in bonds pledged by townspeople.

Chick Sex School Is Planned At M. S. C.

Chick sexing, once a Japanese dominated profession, gets a more American slant with an announcement by Michigan State College officials approving a baby chick sexing school to be conducted on the campus Jan. 18 to Feb. 12, just ahead of the 1943 commercial hatchery season.

A limit of 30 students qualified by eyesight and willing to bear a large share of the cost of conducting the school has been set by the short course and the poultry husbandry department. Dwight Wyngarden, Zeeland, one of the nation's most expert baby chick sexers, will serve as instructor, with the aid of college talent.

Wyngarden took lessons originally from a Japanese woman and for six years has been credited with an average of 98 to 100 per cent accuracy. Commercially, an individual who can be accurate to 95 per cent passes as an expert.

Japanese have been put into army service, into internment camps and some have just disappeared, the hatcherymen using them report. In recent years, of approximately 50 professional Michigan chick sexers, 17 had been Japanese.

Another purpose in the school is to increase efficiency of the poultry industry which is serving an important role in the Food for War program. Sexing has come into demand in the past 10 years, following development of the process by the Japanese. Pullets and cockerels are separated by handling and keen eyes. The sexed chicks then are sold to those poultrymen who demand pullets alone or who purchase the lower priced cockerels just for meat purposes. An increase in the laying flock can be obtained with no increase in brooding equipment if the poultryman buys only pullets.

Possibilities for the profession are found in the fact that an increasing number and percentage of baby chicks are being sold after sexing. Estimates indicate possibly a third of the total of 33 million baby chicks hatched in Michigan in 1942 were sold after determining sex.

Pay for the work is seasonal but exceptionally high. Sexers work at rates that range from a half cent to more than a cent per chick, yet they handle 800 or more an hour and work night and day at times during a 10 weeks to three months season.

Some of the details for the course already have been worked out at the college. The poultry department will obtain 5,000 chicks per student for training purposes and this cost will be one of the principal expenses which the student will be asked to share. Persons interested in taking the instruction can contact hatcheries out in the state or the short course or poultry departments at the college.

Game Kill In Michigan

Adds Huge Meat Stock

Enough game for an estimated 15 million meals in the past 12 months has come out of the woods and farm fields harboring Michigan's wild game as rabbits, deer, pheasants and other legal game birds and animals unintentionally contribute to the war effort.

That is the estimate placed on the 1942 harvest, running parallel to 1941, according to R. G. Hill, extension specialist in game management, employed by Michigan State College and the State Department of Conservation.

With 1941 as a guide, deer alone added some six million pounds of dressed out meat. Rabbits come second, in a season that ends Dec. 31, with 3½ million pounds of meat. Pheasants are third for their addition of 2½ million pounds.

Deer dress out an average of 80 pounds of meat. On 75,000 deer, that gives the six million pounds of meat.

Other game added to deer, says Hill, makes enough meat to equal that produced in a year in the form of pork, beef, lamb and poultry on 5,000 average Michigan farms. Wartime factors that increase the importance of the game meat include the need for variety in the average human diet, the need for recreation and the approach of meat rationing.

Rabbits numbering 2,680,181 were reported killed in 1941. At an average of one and a third pounds, this produced 3,585,554 pounds of meat. Pheasants numbering 1,254,725 dressed out at two pounds to contribute 2,509,450 pounds.

Fox squirrels at a pound each, dressed, made 539,308 pounds of meat. Gray squirrels, a pound each, 29,632; grouse, one pound each, 305,774; prairie chicken, at 1½ pounds, 25,748 pounds; raccoon, at 4½ pounds, 216,745; muskrat sold as marsh rabbit, at 1½ pounds, 800,481; ducks, at a pound each, 510,432; geese, at 4 pounds each, 23,684; and woodcock, at four ounces each, 5,888 pounds. Totaled, this amounts to about 7,000 tons of meat.

Unfortunately, some of this meat never reaches the table due to lack of knowledge of its preparation and misunderstanding of its food value. This is especially true of muskrat and raccoon. Both these animals furnish nutritious meat. It is suggested that trappers after removing the pelts use the carcasses as food. Muskrat may be prepared similar to the cottontail rabbit. However, it is suggested that all fat layers be removed from the outside of the raccoon carcass before cooking.

Farmers Face Good Prospects For 1943

Practical economics instead of a crystal ball leads to a prediction that if Michigan farmers can solve their own labor problems and have the advantage of continued favorable weather, their average farm income may exceed that of 1942 which set a new record.

That prediction comes from R. V. Gunn, Michigan State College agricultural economist.

"Continuation of the war through 1943, further substantial increases in war spending, no serious breakdown in our transportation system and the most stringent governmental regulations over prices, wages and production in the history of our country are assumptions basic to a forecast for 1943," Professor Gunn comments.

Production of livestock and live stock products is expected to continue the upward trend but at a less rapid rate. This is particularly the prospect for meat animals, hogs taking the leading role. Increase in dairy production is threatened by poorer milk-feed price relationships and inadequate labor supplies. Egg production for 1943 may exceed that of 1942. A favorable egg-feed price ratio and greater numbers of layers on farms are possible contributing factors.

Crop production was high in 1942. At prices probably equal to present levels, which are considerably higher than at the beginning of 1942, yields again would have to be higher than average to insure crop income in 1943 equal to 1942. Prices for wheat, beans, potatoes, important cash crops in Michigan, have advanced in the closing months of 1942. Prospects now are that present prices will carry through 1943.

HONORED ON ANNIVERSARY

The Ever Faithful class of St. Paul's Sunday school, of which Mrs. Wilbur M. Hinderer is teacher, gave a party at the church hall on Thursday evening, honoring Mrs. Walter Trinkle, a member of the class, in celebration of her 25th wedding anniversary. Christmas greens and silver candles decorated the tables where dinner was served at 6:30, with covers for 26, including Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Grabowski, who were guests at the party. Games were enjoyed after the dinner with Mesdames Elmer Schairer, Otto Lucht, Paul Niehaus, Charles Meserve and Oscar Stierle as prize winners. Mrs. Trinkle was presented with an anniversary gift.

Offsetting the added hazards of winter driving naturally follows the report of last week on special problems of winter driving. The National Safety Council through its Committee on Winter Driving Hazards has issued the following suggestions:

1. Reduced speeds and the use of tire chains when roads are slippery will help keep traffic delays and accidents at a minimum, particularly on secondary roads. Chains reduce the distance required to stop after brakes are applied on snow or ice by 40 to 50 per cent, as compared with bare tires.
2. Street and highway departments should improve secondary roads to facilitate snow plowing. Shoulders may need widening. Sharp turns, dips and other hazardous spots should be eliminated if possible.
3. New points of accident concentration or traffic congestion should receive effective snow and ice removal or treatment.
4. Drivers should check weather and road conditions before starting trips and postpone or interrupt trips when heavy snow storms or fogs occur.
5. Reduce speed at night. Use proper headlight beam. Lower beam in snow storms and in fog, unless vehicle is equipped with fog lights.

First Settlers in Virginia

Had a Joyous Christmas
Although thousands of miles from their native homes, the first Virginians did what they could to observe Christmas day. But there were no women, no children and no families in those first few years.

Despite this handicap, Captain John Smith writes "that the first Christmas was very merry. The extreme wind, rain, frost and snow caused us to keep Christmas among the savages where we were never more merry, nor fed on more plenty of good oysters, fish, fowl and good bread, nor never had better fires in England."

By Gene Alleman

War or no war, the prerogatives of Michigan state legislators are sanctified by time-honored traditions and are not to be lightly put aside even in an emergency—or are they?

The governor-elect, Harry F. Kelly, has disclosed that efforts will be made to expedite the 1943 legislative session. State revenues are declining, while costs are mounting. Hence, the Kelly program for an annual state budget instead of the customary biennial budget.

Why? Two reasons: The war and a resultant need for economy. However, it involves the breaking of tradition. A lengthy legislative session in 1943 for the state's biennial would be replaced by short sessions in 1943 and 1944. That's where the hitch comes in.

Lengthy legislative sessions have become the rule since 1933 when the New Deal arrived with a bag-full of reforms.

Former members of the legislature counted on adjournment by June so they could go home for summer work. The farm labor shortage in 1943 will be acute. Rural legislators will be needed in their fields in the spring. This war situation should favor the Kelly plan, which calls for a radical change in habits of legislators.

Ohio's Governor Brickner has announced that the Buckeye legislature will be limited, by gentlemen's agreement, to matters pertaining to the war and the state budget.

Law-makers will not convene at Columbus to engage in the traditional low-rolling practice of introducing bills which they know will be killed in the committee, holding hearings "for a lot record," and otherwise spending a lot of time and money just to appease the pressure blocs, large and small, in the district back home and thus fulfill campaign pledges.

At least, so says the Ohio governor who was re-elected for his third consecutive term last month and who has been mentioned prominently for the 1944's Republican presidential nomination.

At a conference of Republican senators, held recently in Kalamazoo, a number of ideas were suggested for speeding up Michigan's war-time session.

One proposal is to eliminate the printing of bills and to substitute for them the use of "short title." This is an abbreviated summary of the measure in a dozen or so words.

The bill would be announced by the clerk for first and second reading by reciting the short title and would be referred to committee. It would not be printed officially until the committee reported out the bill, whereupon it would be recorded in the house or senate journal.

Committees have a habit, now and then, of releasing bills most unexpectedly. It is conceivable that the legislature might unintentionally invoke public wrath by acting on a measure without having provided adequate notice to interested parties. Legislative language also can hide nullifying "jokers."

One thing is fairly certain for the 1943 session.

Legislative results should be conservative.

The Republican landslide in November is hailed as a rebuke to the national administration. And then the field of legislative action has been limited by the war. Washington has already reprimanded our daily lives; labor relations have been jelled for the duration; wages and prices frozen. The day of experimentation has been superseded by war's rigorous demands.

Lobbyists forecast a minimum of "scarce" legislation, some of which was always intended to improve the bank accounts of the sponsors more than the welfare of the "peepul."

We hear biennial talk among partisan stalwarts about the "state highway department machine." Some Republicans would like to abolish the job of G. Donald Kennedy, state highway commissioner. This eventually is not expected to happen in the Republican-dominated legislature, if counsels of party leaders prevail.

The constitutionality of such a convention is questioned by some lawyers.

Senator Elmer R. Porter, Blissfield, has a legal solution. He would create a state highway commission effective July 1, 1945, when the term of Kennedy will expire.

The commission would be appointed by the next governor. It would appoint a full-time director. This, so Senator Porter believes, would eliminate "politics" from the highway department, a bone of contention among Republican critics.

Because of the temper of the public, some legislators are shying away from "C" gasoline rationing cards.

OPA regulations permit "government officials" to use gasoline in excess of "A" and "B" allowances which ordinary folks receive.

It is interesting to note that some lawmakers announce they will travel by bus or train and thus will shun "special favors." What will the folks back home say? They're taking no chances!

Uncle Sam isn't going to requisition the University of Michigan and Michigan State college, and close their doors to other students.

These institutions are apt to become officer training centers for men in the Army, Navy or Air Corps. The men will be under military discipline and pay. Their military training will be subordinate to academic work. Courses would last from nine months to more than two years.

Reason: Preparedness for a long war.

The fate of liberal arts, and hence, small colleges, is uncertain. Military leaders feel that a liberal arts education is not relevant to combat training and hence is a "luxury."

Definite announcement is expected soon from Washington.

Schools Open To Teach Air Raid Instructors

Lansing—Because of an increase in the number of persons awaiting training as air raid wardens, the Michigan Council of Defense has opened a new series of schools for air raid instructors.

The first was held in Cadillac, and others are to begin in Detroit and Flint on December 10, Jackson and Grand Rapids on December 17, and Kalamazoo and Marquette on December 27. Lt. Col. Owen J. Cleary, State Chief Air Raid Warden, is in charge.

Many of the students are enrolled from small towns, which, according to Col. Cleary, will help achieve the purpose of having qualified instructors more widely distributed throughout the state.

Civilian defense volunteers in the Air Raid Warden Service in Michigan exceeded 100,000 on Oct. 1. Of these, 12,001 are in training and 9,923 are awaiting training as compared with 8,987 awaiting training in September. The new schools are being conducted in order to hasten instruction of the latter group.

Any doubt as to the necessity for the aluminum scrap drive of last fall has been dispelled by receipt of information that all of the metal has gone into war channels.

In a letter to Kenneth M. Burns, chairman of the Salvage Committee of the Michigan Council of Defense, Stephen F. Fitzgerald, director of information of the War Production Board, said: "All of the aluminum produced in the drive has been consumed in the war effort, or specifically allocated, each grade being used where it was most valuable."

Approximately 15,000,000 pounds of material was collected in the drive nationally, of which 6,000,000 pounds was usable aluminum and the remainder steel scrap or other materials.

Members of Neighborhood War Clubs of county and local Councils of Defense have made a house-to-house canvass in Michigan to explain the "share-the-meat-for-victory" program which is intended to conserve the domestic supply of meat pending national rationing the first of the year.

Restricted meats are beef, pork, lamb, mutton and veal. Leaflets were distributed giving details of the plan and suggested main dishes that can be substituted for meat. This information will also be definitely valuable when rationing is in effect.

The Michigan Council of Defense is sponsoring the campaign at the request of the Food Requirements Committee of the War Production Board. According to Mrs. Olga Bird Nickle, chief of the council's Nutrition section, voluntary rationing is especially essential now because of heavy demands for meat for American and allied prisoners of war in the Far East, as well as the armed forces and lend-lease.

Sixty-nine of Michigan's 83 counties have organized or are organizing Neighborhood War Clubs as an activity of local Councils of Defense. It is reported by Mrs. Margaret E. Blaney, Chief of the Volunteer Activities Section, Michigan Council of Defense, who is in charge.

Counties reporting no progress or unable to find leaders will receive special assistance.

Distribution of an attractive new Neighborhood War Club manual issued by the Michigan Council of Defense has given impetus to organization work. The booklet contains a comprehensive explanation of the purpose and methods of operation of the clubs, which are designed to bring all campaigns of the war effort into the sphere of family service.

Damp Cloth Cleaning
Women are too busy nowadays with civilian defense work to wage an endless crusade against perishable homes which get dirty too easily. American women now want beautiful, but work-free homes. Since walls and ceiling space is the largest proportion of the room, decorators urge the adoption of smooth glazed colorlock wall panels that can easily be cleaned with a damp cloth. Use upholstery fabrics like serge, gabardine; leather, leatherette and oiled silk are exceptionally proof against dirt.

Good From Evil
Britain has collected enormous quantities of metal scrap. Sixty thousand tons of railings have been collected—enough to make 600 15-inch naval guns. House to house collections, buildings destroyed by air-raids and other sources have yielded in all 800,000 tons of metal scrap—enough to build 500 destroyers.

Jewett-Stone School
Reporters—Ralph Erke, Kathleen Eschelbach, Donna Lee Chapman. These are the happenings at the Jewett-Stone school during the first three months.

Late in September we took a field trip to Mr. Erke's woods. We found many things to add to our collection in science. All of us helped in the gathering of the garden and roadside flowers, vines and seeds that travel. Donna Lee, Kathleen and Ralph displayed these collections on charts for us.

Donna Lee brought us a piece of alabaster from Alabaster, Mich. We found out by studying our encyclopedia what was made from this material. Lawrence's sister, Ruth, brought us some real tobacco, cotton and red soil from the southern states.

Upon our Code we see the words, "Keep Them Flying." We have ten colorful airplanes to represent the ten points that we wish to live up to in our schoolroom and on our school-ground. Some of these points are: English, good posture, honesty and obedience. Ralph and Jack made this picture for our Civics Health club.

We have also organized a book club. Every month each one of us reports upon at least one book that we have read. We tell why we like the book in hopes that some other child will like to read it. We have borrowed several Indian and science books from the Chelsea library.

The Friday afternoon before Halloween we invited in our mothers. The contests were in keeping with Halloween fun. We had cider, doughnuts, apples and candy for refreshments.

On the Wednesday afternoon before Thanksgiving from two-thirty until four we gave our Indian Day program which we had been preparing for several weeks. We learned how the plain Indians prepared and preserved their foods, how Indian children acquire their names. Rosemary told us how these Indians made their dishes and their dyes. Kathleen told us how their clothing was made. Donna Lee made a baby board and a pair of moccasins. Jerry made a coup. He told us how the Indians use it. Ralph made the map of the U. S., showing just exactly where they lived. He told the story of Spotted Duck, which was written on a deer skin. He also made a peace pipe.

Jerry and Lawrence made a travola. Lawrence and Jack made the tepes. Allan made a big chief's head gear, he told us how he had acquired such a head gear. Miss Spaulding was our guest.

Larry and Shirley have been out several days with the whooping cough. Shirley Jean and Richard Windbigler are our new pupils from near Traverse City.

Our school collected a number of pounds of old iron for the scrap drive. We sold $8.90 worth of Defense Stamps during the month of November.

Mrs. Mary Steele, Mrs. Anita Eschelbach and Mrs. Dorothy Chapman gave us their services during the gasoline rationing period.

We are always glad to see interested visitors.
