Since his marriage Feb. 22, 1941 to Genevieve Drayer, they have made their home in Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Harris have a daughter, Linda, 11 months old. ## Chelsea Flockmaster to Compete

From his own flock of 13 ewes, Loren Koenigter, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Koenigter of Chelsea, will compete in the Detroit Junior Livestock Show with these three Shropshire lambs. His seven years of club work have included pig, goat and corn projects, but the biggest project is the wartime partnership with his father in farming 815 acres of land in Washtenaw county.

Record 4-H Show Will Be Held December 7-9

Exceeding the record show of last year, the 14th annual Junior Livestock show scheduled at the Detroit stockyards Dec. 7-9 will place 437 fat lambs and steers before the judges.

Thirty counties are represented in the entries of 4-H club boys and girls who have entered 76 pens of lambs, of three each, and 209 fat steers. The record last year involved 318 animals competing for the thousand dollars in state premium money plus the traditional championship rosettes and other trophies.

Livestock is to be assembled at the yards by 2 o'clock, Tuesday, Dec. 7, according to 4-H headquarters at Michigan State College. Other sponsors of the show include the Detroit Junior Livestock Society, Inc., the Michigan State Department of Agriculture and the Michigan Livestock Exchange. Bishop, Hammond and Company, Detroit Stock Yards Company, and Ridley and Marshall.

Exhibitors, 10 but not more than 20 years of age, must be amateur showmen living on farms in Michigan and members of community 4-H clubs. They feed and train their own animals, keep feed and other cost records. Boys or girls can show either lambs or fat steers, but not both in the same year, although the 1943 show will see 26 exhibiting two steers each instead of one.

Judging begins Wednesday morning on the lambs and at noon for the steer classes, with grand champions to be picked in late afternoon. The annual banquet at the Hotel Statler for exhibitors will be held that evening, with announcement of the winners.

Thursday is reserved for the auction sale of all animals entered in the show, champions first, the sale to be cried by Andy Adams, Litchfield.

Entries from Washtenaw county include:

Lambs—Mary Lesser, Dexter; Jane Downer, Charles Downer, Doris Downer and Loren Koenigter of Chelsea; Norwin Braun and Janet Mulreid of Ann Arbor.

Steers—Armin Huehl and Joe Merkel, Jr. of Chelsea; Carl Lesser, Norwin Lesser and Jay Hopkins of Dexter; James Henning, South Lyon.

Former Local Resident Killed Thursday Night

Duwayne Murray of Michigan Center, a sailor on leave, and his wife, the former Rose Rosenthal of Ann Arbor, were instantly killed Thursday night when the car in which they were riding crashed into a tree on a country road, east of Jackson. Pvt. Burton Richardson, Jackson, who was driving the car, suffered a fractured skull and Miss Dolores Maule, 16, Michigan Center, another occupant, received a broken shoulder. Both were taken to Foote hospital, Jackson, where Richardson's condition was said to be critical. When the accident occurred, the two couples were en route from Miss Maule's home to the American Legion Home in Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray were secretly married on Tuesday night and the bride's mother first learned of the marriage when notified through sheriff's officers of the fatal accident.

Mrs. Murray, daughter of Mrs. Hyman Rosenthal and the late Mr. Rosenthal, was born in Chelsea, residing here until the family moved to Ann Arbor 22 years ago. She was employed at the Kessel Campus Shop and was to return to her work on Monday after a week's vacation.

WEDDINGS

Rashleigh-Ives

On October 2 at St. Clements Church of England at Oxford, England, the wedding took place between Cpl. Raymond L. Ives, U. S. Signal Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Ives of Chelsea, and Miss Patricia Rashleigh, daughter of Mrs. Jean Thornton of "Creighton," 13 Marsh Lane, Headington Oxford.

The bride, who is a member of the Women's Auxiliary Air Force, was given away by Flying Officer Surgeon, R.A.F. She wore a very attractive wedding outfit consisting of frock and matching coat in dusky old rose shade of silk moiré, with burgundy accessories, and with this a little hat of a curled ostrich and tulle veiling in the same shade as the frock. She carried a white prayer book with a single white carnation attached.

Miss Joan Baker, the attendant bridesmaid, was tastefully attired in a frock of smoky blue moiré with navy blue hat and accessories, and wore a spray of bluish pink carnations.

Cpl. Ives, together with his best man, Sgt. Steven Wolfe of Nebraska, wore the uniform of the U. S. Army, the only bit of color being the shoulder insignia of the Army Air Corps.

Mrs. Jean Thornton, mother of the bride, was dressed most becomingly in a smart fur coat and matching hat, beneath which she wore a charming dress of black and green. This ensemble was also completed by a corsage of pink carnations.

The Rev. W. G. Mould officiated at the simple but beautiful ceremony and the full church choir met the bride at the entrance and preceded her and her escort up the aisle to the altar, singing "Love Divine All Love Excelling."

A second hymn, "O Perfect Love," was sung after the ceremony.

At the door of the church the newlyweds were met by a guard of honor consisting of ten American boys, ten R.A.F. boys and ten W.A.A.F. girls in honor of both the services in which they serve. Later the wedding was quietly celebrated in one of Oxford's premier restaurants, just a few chosen friends of bride and groom with the wedding party.

Worth waiting for, as any picture fan will agree, is the priceless moment when Baby strikes that perfect pose which will make a photograph to be cherished for life.

Worth waiting for, too, is the new Certified Performance Gas Range which is to be manufactured after the war when essential materials are again available.

It will be the finest cooking instrument the gas industry is able to develop — speedy, automatic; a compact, streamlined cabinet that will be a decorative asset for the kitchen.

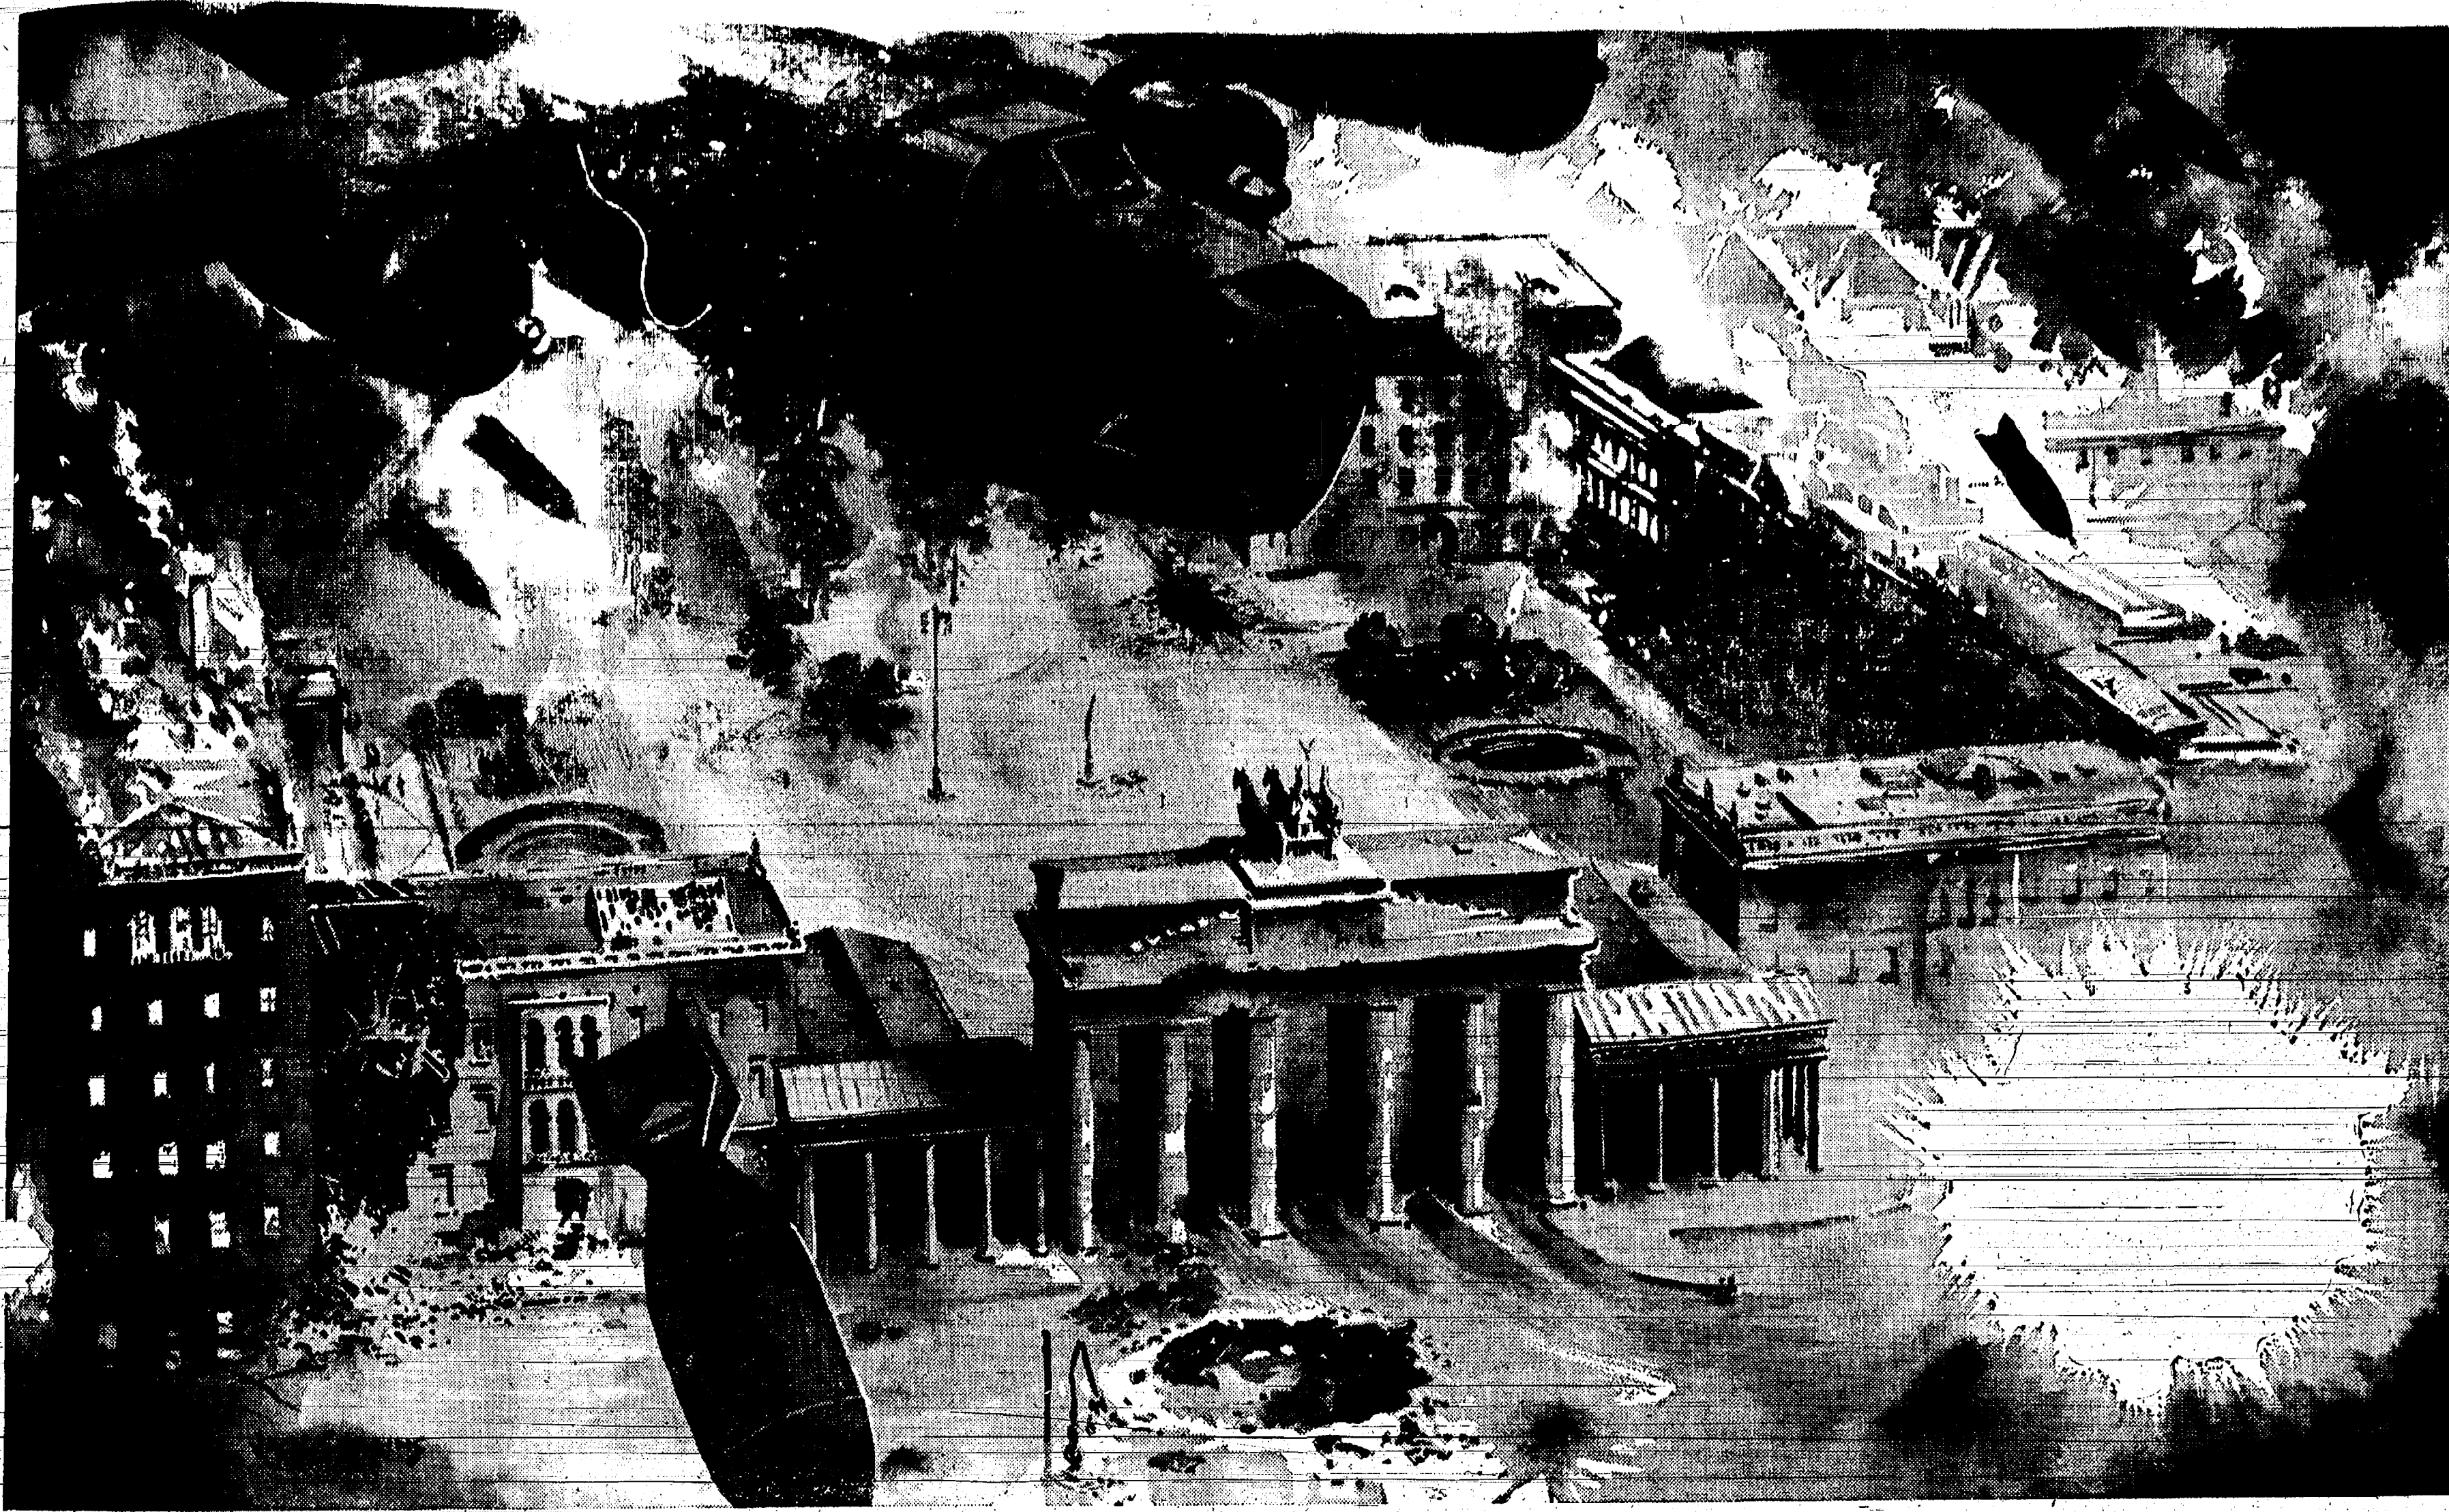

You will want this new Certified Performance Gas Range after the war, and the savings you invest in war bonds now, will enable you to buy it later.

How much does it cost to bomb Berlin?

SUPPOSE, in the dusk of an English evening, 1,000 huge bombers soar over the Channel and head for Berlin.

By the time those planes return to England, their motors will have consumed 2,400,000 gallons of gasoline!

The cost . . . of the gasoline ALONE . . . will be more than $380,000.

To pay for the gasoline used on ONE such raid, 96,000 Americans would have to invest at least 10 percent of their next pay check in War Bonds!

You get a big kick out of reading about those 1,000-plane raids. You know that such raids, if repeated often enough, will soften up the Axis. But . . .

What are YOU doing to help pay the cost of those raids? (In addition to the gasoline they use, it costs Uncle Sam TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS to build 1,000 4-motored bombers . . . plus the cost of training the 10,000 men who make up their crews!)

Modern war is expensive business . . . its cost runs into fantastic figures. 30,000,000 American wage earners are now putting an average of 10 percent of each pay check into War Bonds every pay day . . . but still it isn't enough!

Our air raids on the Axis are increasing in frequency and intensity. When land operations really get going, the cost will be staggering.

More and more Americans must join the Pay-Roll Savings Plan . . . more than those already in the Pay-Roll Savings Plan must begin to jack up their War Bond purchases . . . must start to invest more than 10 percent!

Remember . . . War Bonds are the finest investment in the world today. You get back $4 for every $3 you invest. And . . . the more War Bonds you buy now, the quicker the Axis will be licked . . . and the less the war will cost in the long run.

Think it over. And every time you're tempted to put a nickel in something you don't absolutely need—put it in War Bonds instead!

MRS. IVES WRITES TO FRIENDS

2115 E. Speedway, Tucson, Ariz., November 8, 1948.

The Chelsea Standard, Chelsea, Michigan.

Gentlemen:

As we had many friends in Chelsea who asked us to write, it would be a big task to write each one, so I am going to ask for a little space in your paper.

We left Chelsea Sept. 15, with a heavily loaded car and trailer. We by-passed Elkhart, Ind. and drove south to Peru, then to Montecello where we stayed over night.

I think it might interest our friends to know some of the things we heard and saw on our trip.

We passed through a hilly region in northern Indiana that was devoted to chickens and fruit. We saw four buggies on the road there. Farther south we passed a farm named "Seldom Rest Farms."

The second day we arrived at Urbana, Ill., where we spent several days with our son, Roy. He is attending Forecasting school in the Meteorology school at Champaign Field and has a small apartment in Urbana. We found him well and very busy.

We left there Sept. 20. We went south and west until we came to highway 66 which we followed to Amarilla, Texas, passing through the Ozarks.

When we were in Oklahoma we were told that they had been flooded in the spring but when we were there they had had no rain for four months. As you know, one of the industries of that state is cattle raising. They were rushing cattle to market in great trucks until it seemed there would be none left. It was on account of dry pasturage. One man told us he had 100 acres of pasturage that was burned up. Where cotton had averaged five bales to about seven or eight acres in a good season it was averaging about two.

We had a rather strange experience the day we left Elk City, Okla. As we were driving along we heard a noise that startled us. We thought something had gone wrong with our car or trailer. Then we saw the shadow of a plane directly in front of us. The pilot seemed to have selected us for a target and kept circling around and diving at us. When we crossed the Southern Canadian river (the bridge is high and long) this plane dived down over the river bed and beside us so that we could look down onto the top of the plane. That was the last we saw of it.

The rest of the trip was without particular incident. We always enjoy seeing the different country on a long trip. There are many training bases all across the country.

We arrived in Tucson on Sept. 30. In normal times we can make the trip in 4 1/2 or five days, but I was not strong enough to keep traveling without rest and you can't make mileage at 35 miles per hour.

We found Hubert and family and Roy's wife well.

This is a bad place to find a place to live. We did not want to buy as the price on real estate is beyond all reason. We finally found a place to rent and, although it is small, we are comfortable.

Donald Bacon was very nice to us. We were glad to see him. He tried to get Wirt a job in one of the city pumping stations. He had the promise of one as soon as there was a vacancy, but up to date there has been

So far I am free from asthma. I laid down for the first time in nine months the second night after we got here, and have taken no asthma medicine. I hope I never have it again.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Wirt G. Ives.

News and Views of Chelsea Men In The Armed Forces

The following is contributed by Sgt. Paul Frayer, member of a Combat Engineering Battalion at Camp McCain, Miss., who says this explains what the engineers are expected to do and "by the way things are moving over there and down under they are doing it":

Nice Work—And Do They Get It!

(By Berton Bruley)

"The Engineers Have hairy ears"
And hairy, harried faces;
Robust and rough,
They do their stuff
In all the toughest places.

For they're the babes who take the raps,
The books who probe for the booby traps,
The scouts ahead of the scouting lines,
Cutting the wire and hunting mines.

And they are the playboys, gay and bright,
Who crack pillboxes and dynamite,
And they are the fellers who fell the trees,
While the bullets hum like a hive of bees.

The Engineers!
They grease the gears
That army transport runs on,
And foot by foot
Build roads they put
The trucks and tanks and runs on.

They are the bucks who buck a way
Through stubborn granite and sticky clay;
With pick and shovel they break their backs
After (and under) the bomb attacks.

They drill for water through desert dunes
And over the rivers they toss pontoons;
They slap down runways in fields of mud,
(And some of the ooze is the ooze of blood).

The Engineers
Are cavaliers
Who joust with logs and boulders,
A task that's done
With half a ton
Of junk upon their shoulders.

For they are the lugs who lug the most
Of loads that land on a hostile coast,
And they are the guys, when equipment fails,
Who scratch out a ditch with their finger nails.

You find them up in the mountain crags,
And down in the jungle clearing snags
Where the meecassins coil and the snipers lurk,
Engineers, doing the dirty work!

WHO KILLED Cock Robin?
 No, it wasn't the farmer. No, it wasn't organized labor. No, it wasn't industry. And of course, Congress and the Washington bureaucrats can't be blamed.

If further inflation comes with an inevitable price squeeze which will hurt middle classes the most, history plan whereby surplus earnings could ians will appraise the factors which were responsible. Consider then the current headlines of Michigan newspapers which mirror a new economic setting for another spin of the inflation wheel. Here are the clashing viewpoints:

FARMER. Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau, told bureau delegates at Michigan State College that the cost of food in proportion to the consumer's buying power was the least in 30 years; that the cost of living had increased only 5 per cent since September, 1942, while wages of labor had gone up 15 per cent. "Why not roll back wages instead of food prices?" Albert S. Goss, master, National Grange, in an address before the state grange convention in Grand Rapids warned that the nation was rushing blindly toward disastrous inflation unless Congress curtailed consumer buying power through taxation. Goss urged a combined tax and post-war savings plan whereby surplus earnings could be siphoned from the market. In brief, the farm position: No federal subsidy to stabilize food prices; let the consumer pay higher food prices out of higher earnings; halt labor's preferred status for wage increases; impose more taxes on the middle and lower income brackets.

LABOR. The cost of living has increased faster than wages and has exceeded the ceiling established in the Little Steel stabilization formula of September, 1942; the federal farm bureau of labor statistics' index of living costs is a "phony"; and the National War Labor Board should increase wages accordingly. Corporations are reaping huge war profits, while capitalists conspire to discredit labor in order to foment anti-labor legislation. "Just because a wage earner stayed at his job for years prior to the war without getting much in the way of wages is hardly a sound reason why he should not share in the fruits of profits of his employer today"—Flint labor weekly. In brief, labor's position: We want a share of war profits in form of higher wages; living costs have increased faster than labor earnings.

INDUSTRY. Weekly earnings of Michigan labor have increased 61 per cent since January, 1941; hourly earnings have risen 37 per cent; weekly earnings have mounted twice as fast as have weekly expenses. (General Motors Corp.)... We must build an adequate post-war reserve to defray tremendous cost of reconversion to peace-time production. Net profits, after taxes and dividends, have increased 15 per cent since Pearl Harbor. Automobile companies earned 77 per cent more net profit in 1942 than in 1941. "Labor must recognize that national prosperity will depend upon a prosperous free economy. Management must protect the interests of its stockholders, of whom so many are laboring men, widows and philanthropic enterprises," Eric Johnson, president, U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

OPA. Prentiss M. Brown, as OPA administrator. "Without a subsidy plan, the price structure cannot be held, and wages will be forced upward. Without subsidies butter would sell at 60 cents instead of 50 cents. Add to that the increase in the price of meat, milk and other commodities that would follow the rejection of subsidies, and you encourage, even justify, higher wages. The net income of the farmer is 90 per cent higher than it was before Pearl Harbor. The average weekly wage of the American laborer is 33 per cent higher than it was before Pearl Harbor. Corporation profits, after taxes, are 15 per cent higher than those earned in 1941, while prices are but 12 per cent greater than they were on Dec. 7, 1941, when the Senate took up the subject of price control, resulting in the act of Jan. 20, 1942."

NWLB. William H. Davis, chairman of the National War Labor Board, in a letter to Vice-President Henry A. Wallace on Nov. 6 declared labor had made the heaviest sacrifice in the anti-inflation fight. This statement was interpreted by Washington observers as an indication that the labor board will recommend a general wage revision. President Roosevelt has named a five-man committee of the labor board to examine living costs. Washington business letters forecast an increase in prices will follow any increase in wages.

CONFUSION. The net result of these clashing viewpoints, which we have sought to summarize for purpose of brevity, is just what you might expect. Confusion! If wages of labor must be increased because living costs have out-distanced them, which is the position of labor, then isn't it logical for earnings of labor to be increased still more when prices rise to a higher level? The farmer believes that the consumer should pay higher prices; the laborer wants his earnings increased because of present prices.

POLITICS. Confusion breeds dissatisfaction, and dissatisfaction on the home-front may become a political liability for the national administration, if November ballot trends continue. Here is the reasoning of Republican leaders: The voter is dissatisfied with domestic conditions. Labor will split its political support, AFL leaning to the Republicans and CIO backing the Democrats. The senate resolution pledging American participation in an international peace court or league received Republican support. Hence there is no issue on foreign relations. The European war may be over by November, 1944.

DEMOCRATS. Here is the current line of Democratic leaders: President Roosevelt will seek a fourth term. To stem the current tide against re-election, he is courting conservative support of industry and business. Meanwhile, Vice President Wallace is courting organized labor and farmer, warning them not to enter into "unholy alliances" with capital "to loot the consumer's pocket" and proposing new social reforms through continued spending of public funds. The Roosevelt magic will swing the tide, prevent swapping horses in mid-stream, et al.

CRUCIAL YEAR. With an invasion of northern Europe and an election campaign both likely to coincide in 1944, the nation faces a most crucial year. James A. Farley, Democratic state chairman in New York, has characterized 1944 as being "the most important election year we've had since this great Republic came into being." It looks like Jim was right.

without Newspapers?

Every hour of the day headline news of overwhelming interest to every person in Michigan is being made all over the world. But without our modern communication systems and particularly our newspapers it would be next to impossible to find out what's going on.

Getting even closer to home, we wouldn't know what local boys are back on furlough—who's getting married and when—what's happening in the comic-strip world—what events are taking place all over town.

All of us should feel proud of the fine job newspapers are doing to keep Michigan in touch with the times. It's a strong and free press, serving free people—one of the first things the dictators would suppress if they had the chance! And it would be hard to over-estimate the part played by Michigan's 56 daily newspapers and 366 weekly newspapers in furthering the war effort. More than two-and-a-half million people buy these papers—far greater numbers read them—the whole State relies upon them for information and inspiration.

For this reason Greyhound depends upon such newspapers as this one to carry its information on bus service to those in Michigan who travel. Greyhound, in turn, carries many newspapers to rural areas not served by any other transportation system.

As fellow citizens of this State, the Greyhound Lines take much pleasure in helping to make near neighbors and good neighbors of all the communities we serve in Michigan—linking them to each other and to the rest of the country, as newspapers do.

OFFICE NEWS

The Freshman-Sophomore return party is this Friday night. School will be closed Thursday and Friday of next week due to Thanksgiving vacation.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The meeting was opened by the president. The minutes were read and accepted.

Marjorie Whipple expressed a need for assembly etiquette. Miss Hammond suggested that an announcement asking the students to be polite at assemblies be made before the assemblies. If this doesn't work rules shall have to be made.

There was a discussion on taking over the date of the Latin Club party. The club was going to give up the party, but it was decided to keep the date.

Marjorie stated that the Victrola is being used too much for outside activities. We decided to wait to decide on rules until Mr. Johnson has been consulted.

Mr. Richards suggested that the report card fees be given to the War Council, but we decided not to until a good reason that we should be presented.

Ray Knickerbocker suggested afternoon dances similar to Sadie Hawkins dance. We agreed to have a few this year. Next Wednesday is the day set for one.

The meeting was closed by the president.

Signed:

Marjorie Whipple, Secretary.

BAND NEWS

A committee was chosen by the president, Elaine Schmidt, to figure out a band program. Those on the committee are Marie Winter, chairman, Neil Beach, Paul Schaible, and Gertrude Merkel. They are also working on new band numbers.

Sophomore

The Sophomores are very happy this week as word has been received concerning their class rings. They are expecting the arrival of a salesman soon.

Freshman

The Freshman return party to the Sophomores will take place Friday, November 19.

CLASS OF '44 (?)

Patricia Ann Burg is a hometown girl, having been born in Chelsea. She made her entrance on March 10, 1926. Pat has blond hair, set off with brown or green eyes. Her eyes change according to the light. She tips the scales at 128 pounds and stands 5 ft. 1 inch tall. Pat's favorite color is blue and swimming supplies her favorite sport. Her favorite dish is Johnny Mizzet. Her ambition is to become a musician, and let's hope it is fulfilled.

Mary Ruth Christwell was born on August 15, 1928 in Chelsea. She has light brown hair and blue eyes. Mary stands 5 feet, 7 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds. Baseball is her favorite sport; and blue is her color. Mary says she could eat sweet potatoes all day long if it was necessary. Mary's hobbies are music and the making and collecting of jewelry. Her ambition is to become a successful nurse. Mary is the secretary of our class.

A SURPRISE

To who? Everyone, but especially the boys.

When? Monday morning, Nov. 8. Where? Chelsea high school. About what? The many girls who appeared with no make-up, cotton dresses, no jewelry, and pigtails of big ribbons.

What occasion? Sadie Hawkins day. And what occurred? The weaker sex catered to the so-called stronger sex by opening doors, carrying their books and being very polite to them.

At 3:30 in the gym there was a large gathering of both boys and girls, with the stronger sex walking around with a sucker hanging from their mouths. Incidentally, the suckers were presents from the girls, who escorted them to the dance. At 4:30 the day of fun was ended as our stronger sex had football practice at that time.

Enjoyed by all? Diffidently, but particularly to the girls parking in the gym.

F.F.A. MEETING

An F.F.A. meeting was held Friday, the eleventh, and Henry Orthing was appointed "Watch Dog." Reports were given by the treasurer, the program of work committee and the awards committee. A "fine" system was decided upon. A nickel fine will be collected for disorderly conduct during the meeting. The fine is to be collected by the "Watch Dog," Henry Orthing. A point system is being worked out to give letter awards to those who are able to produce the necessary points.

HI-Y

A Hi-Y meeting will be held Thursday to initiate the new members. The State YMCA meeting is scheduled to meet here on November 23 at noon.

SHOP

The shop students have been working on the backboard for the basketball basket, which is just about completed.

G.A.A.

The secretary of G.A.A. has written to Pinckney and U. High concerning basketball games with them. The girls hope that these games may be scheduled the same days as those of the boys.

The girls have completed over half of their First Aid course. This week they will work on traction splints.

Chelsea 21 - Manchester 0

Chelsea kicked off to Manchester and it looked like the boys from Manchester were going places. But finally the Chelsea line got down to business and stopped the Manchester attack.

After a series of punts Chelsea got their first touchdown on a pass from Gaken to Knickerbocker who went 40 yards and the score, Modack rushed over for the extra point.

Score: Chelsea 7, Manchester 0.

Second Quarter

Neither team scored in this quarter and with Chelsea playing the better ball, kept Manchester on the run. Both teams were playing good hard football and their blocks and tackles were for keeps. Chelsea did threaten when they got down in the Manchester territory and threw some passes, but they failed.

Third Quarter

With Chelsea still playing the better ball they started a 60-yard march that ended by Modack going over from the four yard line for the second touchdown. Gaken ran the extra point over. Score: Chelsea 14, Manchester 0.

After Manchester was stopped cold on four downs, Chelsea started another march that saw Fog go over from the one foot line. Modack placed kicked the extra point.

Score: Chelsea 21, Manchester 0.

Fourth Quarter

Neither team did any more scoring but Manchester got down to the Chelsea six before the line stopped them. Then Coach Cameron sent in the regulars and got to the midfield stripe as the game ended. Capt. Orthing will remember the last play for some time.

Final score: Chelsea 21, Manchester 0.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

Plans are being made for a hot lunch program, which will be started about Dec. 1. It is to be a complete meal with the Homemaking classes sponsoring it and preparing the food. The grades and high school students will be able to take advantage of this program.

C.S.C.

Who is C.S.C.? Well, it might be any one of three of the Camerons. Since Carol Sinclair-Cameron arrived Saturday to spend twenty years or more with Coach Cameron's family, identity by initials only will be difficult.

Too bad, Mr. Cameron, you can't make a football player but she might turn out to be a school teacher.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF—

Phil V. didn't go to sleep in Economics class every other day.

Ruth S. could make up her mind. The teachers would buy a new joke book for pep meetings.

Poems weren't written so students wouldn't have to memorize them.

Rosemary L. had her Speech done before school started.

Miss McDonald's Journalism Club ever got their news in on time.

Rhea C. didn't leave 2nd hour study hall at a certain time every morning.

Windows weren't continually being broken someplace in school.

Someone wasn't seen carrying knitting.

Students weren't late to study hall every morning.

Nancy B. ever brought her Chemistry kit on Monday morning.

Students never chewed gum in classes.

TALKS ON DENTAL HEALTH

Miss Ruth Rogers talked to the high school students last Tuesday in the gym about the importance of dental health. She told what the requirements of the services are in regard to teeth, and that many boys and girls do not have these requirements due to neglect in their early years. She stressed the fact that now was the time for the students to give their teeth close attention. Miss Rogers also told of the work being done by the Washtenaw County Health Service.

After her talk a movie was shown which illustrated the importance of good teeth in our lives and why early care is necessary.

The same talk and movie was given to the grade children later.
