University Men Aid In H. S. Band Concerts

For the fourth concert of the series of six, the Chelsea High School Band, under the conductorship of Henry E. Busche, will present the following numbers on Saturday night:

"America, the Beautiful," "Ironclad," "March," "Overture—Sincerity," "Officer of the Day"—March, "Overture—Merry Men," "WMB"—March, "The Glow-worm," "Overture—Saskatchewan," "Hosts of Freedom"—March.

Again, men from the University of Michigan graduate school will help by playing in the band. It is interesting to note that all of these men direct high school bands of their own. For instance, George Lowe, baritone, is supervisor of music at Rutland, Vermont; Vincent De Matales is a supervisor near Youngstown, Ohio; Miss Lois Parker is conducting the band at Dexter this summer; Mr. Fitch, clarinetist, is supervisor of music at DeKalb, Illinois, and instructor of reed instruments at the University this summer.

Michigan should be proud of its contribution to the music world and it is communities like Chelsea that make her proud. A community without a good high school concert band is like a community without pride. Music creates a community pride which cannot be measured tangibly. So, as citizens of Chelsea, let's show our support to the band by attending the concerts.

Farm Safety Week Is Set for July 23 to 29

Even a minor accident is a serious threat to any farm. Farmers should take extra care to keep themselves and other farm workers from getting knocked out of the production line by accident. This extra care will not only safeguard the operations of each farm, but it will result in a larger supply of food and fiber for the nation, says E. G. McKibben, head of the Michigan State college department of agricultural engineering and state chairman of the National Farm Safety week, July 23-29.

There is a special problem in farm safety education at this time, declares Professor McKibben. Thousands of persons who have had little or no safety instruction are helping out on the farm front. Unless skillful help is given these persons in accident prevention, the accident rate will be much higher than that of experienced farm workers.

About 14,500,000 people worked more than 20,000,000,000 hours on American farms last year and of that number 3,500,000 were volunteer crop farm workers. National requirement this year for emergency workers to produce food for victory is 4,000,000. McKibben states many of these emergency workers in Michigan would be inexperienced. Consequently, extra attention for their safety is required. Machinery appears to be the chief source of farm accidents, with livestock close behind, in the opinion of the agricultural engineering specialist. Falls are in third place. For the home, falls rank first, with burns second. Safety of farmers and farm workers is vital to victory now. But safety is important all the time—in peace or war—for the well being and happiness of farm people.

As safety measures McKibben urges farmers to avoid excessive haste and over-fatigue.

Conflicting Reports Continue In Case Of Private Neil Foster

Reports concerning the fate of Pvt. Neil J. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terrance Foster, continue to be of a conflicting nature.

As stated in The Standard last week, a letter had been received, without dateline, from Pvt. Foster, stating that he was a patient in a hospital. A telegram, and later a letter, came from the Adjutant General stating that he had been wounded. Then came a telegram from the War Department notifying Mr. and Mrs. Foster of the death of their son in France on invasion day, June 6. A letter confirming this telegram was received last Thursday.

In spite of these messages and confirmations, two letters have been received by relatives from Pvt. Foster during the past few days. His aunt, Miss Mary Dealy of Detroit, received a letter, dated June 29, supposedly written by Neil, stating that he was in a hospital. Then on Tuesday of this week his cousin, Mrs. Jos. Trune of Ypsilanti, received a letter from him, dated July 9, which stated that he was in France one day, was wounded, and since that time had been a patient in a hospital in England. Mrs. Trune states that the handwriting unquestionably is Neil's.

So with this information it is believed and hoped that the War Department is in error and that Pvt. Foster is well on the road to recovery.

Mills Bros. Circus To Be Here Next Wednesday

Mills Bros. three-ring circus, which is booked to appear in Chelsea on Wednesday, July 26, comes here after careful investigation, presenting a clean, educational and entertaining performance. Under auspices of the Kiwanis club, the circus will appear for two performances, at 2 and 8 p.m. on the grounds opposite the Chelsea Spring Co.

They will arrive shortly after sun-up on a fleet of bright and beautifully painted trucks loaded with a world of circus features including many of the finest acts in the world—two mammoth and gorgeous patriotic spectacles dressed in new and sparkling wardrobe and properties; two whole hours of brilliant summer entertainment with acts that include the Mexican in their daring "Spanish Bull Fight," a thrill you will never forget—"Manual Vitoria" on his Mexican tight wire; the aerialists, acrobats, high perch artists, contortionists and tumblers; Jake Mills and his circus concert band will be heard one-half hour before each performance; "Big Burma," the largest trained elephant in America, who carries her trainer around the big hippodrome track with the trainer's head in the elephant's mouth and body dangling in mid-air—and many other big features.

There will be fun for the children in pleasing acts by groups of tiny trained shetland ponies, dogs, monkeys and goats and the ever-delicious old style clowns who make merry.

Don't forget the big circus date—Wednesday, July 26, at 2 and 8 p.m.

WILL RECEIVE WINGS

"The Lord's Wheat" To Be Threshed Saturday

Tecumseh—The fourth crop of the now famous "Biblical wheat" experiment, known as "Dynamic Kernels," sponsored by Perry Hayden, a local Quaker miller, was harvested last week before a huge crowd of notables, photographers, news-reel men, magazine writers and citizens from many states.

Another great holiday will be observed in the community on July 22, when thousands of people will gather again to witness the threshing of this year's crop of "the Lord's wheat." Henry Ford will be there with some of the interesting old farm equipment borrowed from his museum. Part of the wheat will be flailed, with Ford's historic flails, just as they did back in the Biblical times. The balance will be threshed by two steam outfits, an old Birdsall horse-operated separator and a miniature thresher which Ford built for his grandchildren.

Inspired by a sermon in his local Quaker church four years ago, Perry Hayden set out to illustrate some of the Bible lessons on "Tithing," "Rebirth" and "Returns on what we sow." He started with a cubic inch of wheat, which he planted in a patch 4 ft. by 8 ft. A year later, he harvested the patch; deducted 10 per cent. of it as a tithe for his church, and planted the balance of the crop again the following year. The third year, he again deducted the tithe and replanted the entire crop. This year was the fourth harvest.

The harvesters just cut a field of 14 acres, originating from the small one-inch cube of wheat four years ago, after paying the 10 per cent tithe each year. Some of the crop was cut by cradle and sickle, to illustrate ancient harvesting. Next year, it is estimated that it will make a field of more than 200 acres. The sixth, and last year of the illustration, experts say that it will cover from 1500 to 3000 acres of land, and require hundreds of men and tractors to harvest the final crop.

The tithe to the church will amount to "thousands of dollars," and the value of the total crop may amount to $100,000. The land for the project is being furnished by Henry Ford, and all of the final proceeds will go to Christian work, including possible foreign relief.

Local Factory Opens Branch In Stockbridge

Dexter Machine Products, Inc. has leased a building in Stockbridge and will open a branch factory there within a few weeks, according to an announcement by H. E. Sorensen, president of the company.

The building leased is the W. C. Reeves property formerly occupied by the Ford garage, and contains about 6500 square feet of floor space. New contracts requiring additional floor space for installation of new equipment, and the lack of space in their local plant for this expansion, prompted the company to open a branch factory, according to Mr. Sorensen. The Stockbridge unit will be operated as the Gear Blanking Division of Dexter Machine Products, Inc.

It is planned to have the new plant in operation by August 15 with a force of 30 to 40 people. J. J. Meehan, formerly with the Ranger Aircraft Co., New York, will be general manager of the plant, and Jas. D. Winegarden, who has been with Dexter Machine Products for some time, will be plant superintendent.

Auxiliary Assists In Entertainment for Vets

Four members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit No. 31, of Chelsea were at Ypsilanti State Hospital on Tuesday evening to assist at the monthly entertainment there for the veterans of World Wars I and II. Entertainment for the evening consisted of music, bingo and refreshments.

The Three Jacks and the Keyboard, the four Chelsea boys who have performed during the intermissions at the local Friday night dances, provided the music for the evening. The Three Jacks (Donald Alber, Henry Orbring and Richard Foor) with Robert Eaton at the Keyboard, sang several groups of popular songs, in addition to vocal solos by Dick Foor and piano solos by Bob Eaton.

After bingo for small prizes, and refreshments of ice cream and cookies, the boys sang several request numbers.

FIRE DEPT. GETS TWO CALLS

A grass fire on Friday afternoon on the farm of Mrs. Charles Riemen-schneider in Sylvan township spread through the orchard, threatening the barn and wheat field. With the help of neighbors it was kept under control until the arrival of the local fire department.

A straw stack at the home of Philip Stoll, on old US-12 West, caught fire on Thursday afternoon and was extinguished by the fire department.

Thursday, July 22, 1920
Mrs. Emelia Hieber announced the marriage of her daughter, Louise Mary Hieber, to Lester L. Winans on Saturday evening, July 17, 1920 at St. Paul's parsonage. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Lehman.
Born, on Friday evening, to Mr. and Mrs. Algernon Richards, a son, James Dann is having a new barn built at his home on Wilkinson St.
Dr. A. L. Brock returned from his vacation Sunday evening and brought with him his bride, formerly Miss Virginia Taylor, of Milroy, Pa. The marriage took place Wednesday, July 15 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, of Milroy.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Beach was broken into some time Tuesday night and clothing and jewelry to the value of $100.00 was stolen. Entrance was gained by prying open the screen door to the kitchen.
John Hieber returned home last

Wednesday from a hospital in Ann Arbor, where he underwent an operation for the removal of a growth in his nose.

34 Years Ago

Thursday, July 21, 1910
Edward Doody of Lyndon died in the Pinckney sanitarium on July 20. He was born in Dexter township in January, 1840 and most of his life has been spent in this vicinity. He is survived by his wife, whom he married in California, and two sons, Charles and George. Funeral services were held at the Catholic church, Rev. Considine officiating.
New Bros. of Freedom received a new Red River Special windstacker separator from Battle Creek, and a large Reeves traction engine from Columbus, Ohio, which they will use in their thrashing business the coming season. They shipped their old traction engine to the factory. This will make three outfits that the firm will operate this season.
B. E. Turnbull and Roland Schenk made the record catch of fish for the season last Friday morning. In three hours from 7:30 to 10:30 they landed fourteen pickerel and three black bass, the largest of which weighed eleven pounds.
James Munro, while at play with some companions Wednesday afternoon, stepped on a rusty nail, lacerating one of his feet quite badly.
Ed. Riemenschneider has started the huckleberry wagon of the Chelsea Elevator Co. on the road for the berry season.

4-H CLUB ENTERTAINS

The Waterloo Victory 4-H club entertained the Stoker club at Clear Lake County Park on July 14. Potluck supper and refreshments were served, the refreshments furnished by Waterloo members. A Better Business Meeting demonstration was given by Ada Ruth Stone, Amelia Hess, Nancy Nichols, Shirley LeVan, Austin Bott, Duane Marsh, Floyd Artz, and Tom Moffatt. A Flag demonstration was given by June LeVan, Mary Walz, Mary Parks and Jeanette Lubick. Both of these demonstrations were given by the Waterloo club. Games were played after the business meeting. Sixty-three were present. A good time was had by all.

SHALLOW CULTIVATION BETTER

Cultivation of your garden to a depth of one inch rather than three or four inches is not only easier, but much better at this season of the year, according to Marshall Richards, Chelsea Victory Garden chairman. By this time weeds should be well under control and should not need the deep cultivation which might result in disturbing the roots of plants. After the garden has dried out following a rain, light cultivation will keep the surface soil from caking and make it possible for succeeding rains to soak in.

Seasons Faster
Split wood seasons twice as fast as round wood, if it is more than six inches in diameter.

prohibition, either local or national, until they get back."
"Too bad there isn't a law or something to be sure their wishes are carried out, Judge."
"There is in one state I know of, Steve. Just recently it passed a law prohibiting the calling of any prohibition election until a year after the peace is declared."
"That really makes sense to me, Judge."

National Farm Safety Week

As a part of the National Farm Safety Week Program, July 23-29, the Department of Agriculture offers some simple safety rules for women and girls doing farm work for the first time. In handling machinery—read and follow instructions; stop machine for all adjustments and repairs; unhitch horses from machine before making adjustments; wear coveralls with no loose parts to catch in machine. Speak quietly to animals when going close to them. Wear gloves for rough work. When sun is hot, wear a broad-brimmed hat, dark glasses when needed and if skin is tender use skin lotion. To be sure you can do heavy work safely, get a medical check-up. Move a ladder often instead of stretching. In lifting, use knees and keep back straight. Cleanse slight cuts and scratches and clove with sterile material. Wear whole, clean stockings and well fitted shoes with low, level heels. Eat three well-planned meals each day. When perspiring freely use one-eighth teaspoonful of salt to each glass of drinking water. When hours are long and the work is hard, eat a mid-morning and mid-afternoon snack.

Kerosene Has Gone To War

Kerosene use on the home front must be reduced wherever possible this year, the Petroleum Administration for War warns, because of the tremendous and increasing consumption of kerosene in vital war fuels. Diesel engines use a fuel a portion of which has been diverted from the manufacture of kerosene. Diesel fuel, made of approximately one-third kerosene fractions, powers bulldozers, Diesel trucks, caterpillar tractors, construction machinery, dock and yard locomotives, every American submarine and nearly 100,000 invasion barges. PAW calls on users to use sparingly of kerosene—also known as coal oil, range oil, lamp oil, burning oil and stove oil.

More Work Clothing

More civilian work clothing for men and boys is indicated by a War Production Board order requiring manufacturers of work clothing to produce during each quarter beginning July 1 at least 90 per cent of the number of garments manufactured during the third quarter of 1942. Items to be produced are bib overalls, dungarees, work shirts, one-piece work suits, pants, overall jackets and blanket-lined coats. In line with recent national legislation, manufacturers' prices for the basic construction of denim (used widely in manufacture of overalls) have been raised one cent a yard, the Office of Price Administration announced.

More Calls for Nurses

A call for qualified nurses to work in Veterans Administration hospitals to help provide adequate care for disabled veterans has been issued by the Veterans Administration. Hospitals are classified in three groups: General Medical and Surgical, Tuberculosis and Neuro-Psychiatric. Nurses work an eight-hour day, six days per week, with rotating shifts and additional compensation for overtime. Living accommodations may be obtained at the hospitals. ## CORRECTION

In "Called to the Colors" the item published recently concerning Donald K. Schnitz should have read that he enlisted in the Hospital Corps of the Navy Reserves, and that because of 2 1/2 years' experience at the Miller funeral home he received a rating of Ha-2C, and was sent to Great Lakes as a Hospital Corpsman, for training.

Adilene Meadows of Waco, Texas and Russell J. West of Chelsea, were quietly married on July 12 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Welch. They will make their home at 428 West Middle St.

MULCH WILL HELP GARDEN
A mulch of straw or grass clippings applied to your garden at this time of the year will prove very worthwhile, according to Marshall Richards, Chelsea Victory Garden chairman. A three or four inch mulch of straw will help to reduce blossom-end rot on tomatoes and keep such crops as spinach, carrots and other greens free from the sand and dirt normally splashed on them during heavy rains. It will also help to reduce the weeding that otherwise would be necessary.

When they're passing out the medals, they may pass him by.

When they're looking for headline heroes, he may be overlooked.

But on every battlefield of the war, from New Guinea to Normandy, you'll find him up where the shooting is... rolling supply trains in.

He's the G. I. "boomer"—the soldier-railroader of the Military Railway Service. And he risks his neck 24 hours a day to keep fighting equipment on the move.

He builds his own tracks when he has to. He repairs his own rolling stock. He runs ammunition, medicine and food right up under the enemy's guns. It's the toughest railroading in the world... and it gets tougher with every mile he moves toward Tokyo and Berlin.

Our railroading job over here... the job of backing him up... gets tougher every day, too. For now, in addition to moving more men, more guns, more fighting supplies to embarkation ports, we are faced with a new responsibility—that of carrying the wounded from hospital ships to hospitals throughout the country. And these returning heroes are entitled to first priority on every railway line in America.

All this adds up to the biggest job the railroads have ever tackled...

And only by even closer cooperation between the railroads and the shippers and receivers of freight... only by even greater understanding on the part of railway passengers... can this bigger job be done.

Cassidy Lake News

The Cassidyites welcomed Jackson Prison's leading ball club to this camp last Sunday. Even though the Cassidyites were outclassed on the field they did show improvement in team play and will steadily improve under the new management of Stevenson, a recent addition to the personnel staff of Cassidy Lake Camp. Everyone enjoyed the antics of the walled city's outstanding clown who acts as mascot for the Deputy's softball team. None would ever suspect that this remarkable funny-man who is always doing his best to give others a laugh has spent 22 years behind the walls. And it is the wish of all here, that may the future bring this man his share of happiness in return for the good he has done in life.

Cassidy Lake is far out in front of all other institution divisions who were assigned quotas in the War Bond and Stamp drive, for in the final check we found we had over-subscribed our quota 500%. For this Cassidy Lake Camp was presented with a large banner bearing the inscription, "500%" and signed by Mr. Frank N. Isbey, Chairman-Michigan, U. S. Treasury War Finance Committee. This banner is now displayed in the main office building. Much of the credit in winning the honor of being the institution's only assignment to subscribe 100% toward this drive goes to our always pleasing Athletic Director, Army Armstrong.

The outstanding achievements this camp has made toward the rehabilitation of young men and the fine records they have made since their release must be partly credited to the efforts of our Camp Superintendent, Lieut. Geo. F. Parish, for with an understanding of long years in handling men, this man acted as Counselor and Father to all, giving time and advice freely to all men who asked for it. His work here in building a training school has been arduous, for the many hours he must give to activities not on the Camp's program completely takes up time that would normally be used for his own benefit. So our thanks goes to our Superintendent for what he has done for us, and may he always be here to give us advice.

Ripe Cherries Make Sweet Jams

(See Recipe Below)

Jelly Season's Here!

Think of the good cheer in a sparkling, quivery dish of jelly to go with your golden brown biscuits or rolls in the cold of winter. Do you need more than that to start you on a spree of jelly-making? My guess is no.

There's a great interest in jelly-making in spite of sugar rationing, for many is the smart homemaker who realizes what a spark and zest those little bits of bright-colored jelly can lend to wartime meals. So, go out into the berry patch, and let's get started on a batch of jelly.

Cherries, plums, and blackberries are coming into season and make splendid jellies. They're all easy to handle and make nice, rich, luscious jellies.

*Ripe Sweet Cherry Jam. (Makes 7 6-ounce glasses)

3 1/2 cups prepared fruit

4 cups sugar

1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, pit about 3 1/2 pounds fully ripe cherries. Crush thoroughly or grind. If a stronger cherry flavor is desired, add a few crushed cherry pits to fruit during cooking.

Measure sugar into dry dish and set aside until needed. Measure fruit into a 5- or 6-quart kettle, filling up last cup with water if necessary.

Place over a hot test fire. Add powdered fruit pectin. Mix well and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. Pour in sugar at once, stirring constantly. Continue stirring, bringing to a full, rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute.

Remove from fire. Skim. Pour at once into sterilized jelly glasses and paraffin at once.

*Ripe Plum Jelly. (Makes 7 medium glasses)

3 cups juice

4 cups sugar

1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, crush about 3 pounds fully ripe plums. Do not peel or pit them. Add 3/4 cup water, bring to a boil and simmer 10 minutes. Place fruit in jelly bag or cloth, and squeeze out juice. Add small amount of water to pulp in jelly cloth and squeeze again, if there is a slight shortage of juice.

Measure sugar into dry dish and set aside. Measure juice into saucepan. Place over hottest fire. Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. Pour in sugar at once, stirring constantly.

Jams and jellies may be kept for various lengths of time, but for best practical purposes it is best not to try to keep them for over a year.

Melt paraffin for jelly in a small pot over boiling water. Paraffin should not be smoking hot because it might lend a disagreeable odor to the jelly or jam.

It's possible to put up fruit juice to be made into jelly later if you do not have enough sugar to do it during the summer. Prepare fruit according to directions given in the jelly recipes but do not add water to the recipe. Squeeze the juice in a jelly bag if it is for jelly. Fill hot sterile jars with juice and process in a boiling water bath for 20 minutes.

Lynn Says:

Jelly Forum: Pectin is the magic ingredient that makes jam "jam" and jelly "jelly." There must be a just right amount of it. Pectin is a natural jelling substance found in fruits and berries, but when the fruit or berry is shy on it, a liquid or powdered form of pectin may be added.

Jams and jellies may be kept for various lengths of time, but for best practical purposes it is best not to try to keep them for over a year.

Melt paraffin for jelly in a small pot over boiling water. Paraffin should not be smoking hot because it might lend a disagreeable odor to the jelly or jam.

*Ripe Cucumber Sweet Pickles
*Peach Nectar
*Recipe Given

Continue stirring, bring to a full, rolling boil, and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, and pour into glasses quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once.

*Blackberry and Sour Cherry Jam. (Makes 8 medium glasses)

3 1/2 cups prepared fruit

4 cups sugar

1 box powdered fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, crush thoroughly about 1 quart fully ripe blackberries. Pit 1 pound fully ripe cherries. Crush thoroughly or grind. Combine fruits. Measure fruit into a kettle, filling last fraction of cup with water if necessary.

Place over hottest fire. Add powdered fruit pectin, mix well and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. Pour sugar in at once, stirring constantly. Continue stirring, bringing to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute.

Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once.

You'll enjoy pickles, too, for your winter menu pickups. I've found some—perfectly delightful recipes for you which will not take too much sugar—just in case you want to use most of the sugar on jams and jellies. Remember that you must use a pure apple cider vinegar and good, firm, fresh cucumbers to get nice, crisp pickles:

*Cucumber-Raisin Pickles. 4 cups sliced cucumbers

1 cup salt

1 cup white vinegar

1 cup sugar

6 tablespoons raisins

1 tablespoon celery seed

1 tablespoon mustard seed

Soak cucumbers overnight in salt solution made of 1 cup salt to 1 gallon water. Drain. Combine remaining ingredients and heat to boiling. Add cucumbers. Boil 10 minutes. Pour into sterilized jars and seal at once.

*Ripe Cucumber Sweet Pickles. 8 large ripe cucumbers

1/2 pound stick cinnamon or oil of cinnamon

1 ounce cloves (or oil of cloves)

1 1/2 pints vinegar

3 pounds sugar

Paraffin the cucumbers, quarter. Take out seeds and cut quarters into medium-sized pieces. Scald in salted water (2 tablespoons salt to 1 quart water). Drain and simmer in clear water until they are tender but firm. Drain well. Tie the spices in a bag and boil them with vinegar and sugar for 5 minutes. Pour this mixture over cucumbers, cover jar and set away. Next day pour off syrup and boil for 10 minutes, then pour over cucumbers again. Flavor is improved by repeating the process several times. With last heating, place pickles in clean, sterilized jars, cover with hot solution and seal at once.

Like fruit drinks for winter? You can make delicious nectars out of fruits easily and use them when fresh fruit juices are no longer available.

*Peach Nectar. Select sound, ripe fruit. Peel and crush. Combine 4 cups fruit with 3 cups water and heat slowly to simmering. Press through colander, then through fine sieve. To each pound of fruit pulp and juice, add 1/2 pound of sugar. Bring to simmering temperature. Stir until sugar is well dissolved. Pour into clean, sterile jars. Put on cap. Process 30 minutes in a water bath at simmering temperature (180 degrees F.).

Measures Given for Control of Mosquitoes

Victims of mosquitoes may derive some degree of comfort in knowing that of the 20 to 25 different species in Michigan, only the females of a few species attack human beings. According to E. I. McDaniel, Michigan State college entomologist, the males do not have piercing mouthparts and are limited in their feeding to the nectar of flowers and plant juices.

This matter of species is important in organizing control measures on a large scale, although the backyard gardener or householder need not worry whether he is being bitten by Culex pipiens or by Aedes vexans. What he wants to know most of all is what he can do about the pests. Here are some suggestions made by Professor McDaniel:

1. All containers holding water should be emptied at least every third day. Dumps or ditches containing pockets of quiet water should be sprayed with oil or dusted with paris green to kill mosquito larvae which should be present. A systematic effort should be made to check all possible places where water may collect around the premises.

2. If one lives near a swamp or a pond, a satisfactory method of killing mosquito larvae is to dust the surface of the water with paris green. By using only 1/4 pound to an acre of water, there is no health menace and vegetation is not harmed. A knapsack-type duster may be used to apply the dust which should be diluted with 10 to 15 parts of talc or other neutral carrier to facilitate distribution. A film of oil on the surface of the water will also kill mosquito larvae. Sometimes, however, oil may injure fish, waterfowl, or vegetation and may be unsightly. A cupful of medicinal oil in a cistern will kill mosquito larvae without affecting the water for household purposes.

3. Adult mosquitoes may be killed on lawns and in the gardens by spraying with nicotine sulfate. This application, if properly made, should provide protection for at least two or three weeks, says Professor McDaniel. Details on the spray application as well as other information on mosquito control are contained in Quarterly Bulletin—Article—26-50, "Mosquito Control in Michigan—1944." A copy will be sent upon request to the Bulletin Office, Michigan State College, East Lansing.

MEMBER OF MARK TWAIN SOC.

The following article concerning Mrs. Nelda Scherer Topolka, a former resident of Francisco and a daughter of Mrs. Geo. Scherer of Chelsea, was taken from "The North Wind," student publication at Northern high school in Flint, where Mrs. Topolka is a teacher.

Mrs. Nelda Topolka has recently been accepted as an honorary member into the International Mark Twain Society. This organization inspired by the writings of Samuel Clemens, upon her acceptance, Mrs. Topolka's name will be placed with those of other honorary members such as Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Sr., George Blount, and General John J. Pershing.

Other members of the club are Madam Chiang-Kai-Shek, Chinese representative, and President Avila Comacho, Mexican representative.

We are proud of Mrs. Topolka, but we all know that what she has achieved has been through her own effort. She is the author of a book of radio skits for high schools.

KIWANIS NEWS

The Kiwanis club held their annual picnic on Monday night at the home of R. B. Waltrous. Following the potluck supper, served at tables on the lawn, games were enjoyed by the group, and some remained until a late hour as guests of their genial host.

PROCESSES LOCAL BLOOD

Gerald Cook, laboratory technician for the Parke, Davis Co., Detroit, wrote his parents that he helped in the processing of the blood collected at the Red Cross blood bank held here on July 6, and that he got a "real kick" out of reading the familiar names on the labels of the containers.

His mother, Mrs. J. P. Cook, was one of the donors.

MISSION CLUB HOLDS PICNIC

St. Paul's Mission club enjoyed a picnic lunch on Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. Hazen Lehman, preceding their regular July meeting, after which games were played. Devotional were in charge of Mrs. Louis Eppier and readings were given as follows: "Of Inner Feasting," Mrs. Lehman; "The Sugar Bucket," Mrs. Olga Hilsinger; "Building a House," Mrs. Albert Widmayer.

Hog Feed
Wheat, barley, rye and other such feeds should be ground because the hog does not crush the small grains with his teeth as readily as the larger grains. Also, the animal is unable to use the food values of the whole grain because the hard outer layers protect it from the digestive juices as it passes through the digestive tract.

Tin Standard

Tin regularly made up two-thirds to nine-tenths of Bolivia's exports to the country on a "tin standard" instead of a gold standard, ran export duties to such a figure that they were the government's chief source of income. Bolivia normally produced about one-sixth of the world's tin tonnage.

Retain Feed Value

Forage crops properly ensiled retain 80 to 95 per cent of the original feeding value of the plant.

vs.

Curtis M. Madden, Defendant.

Order for Appearance and Publication

At a session of said Court, held in the Court House, in the City of Ann Arbor, on the 22nd day of June, A. D. 1944.

Present: Hon. George W. Sample, Circuit Judge.

In the above-entitled cause, it appearing that the defendant, Curtis M. Madden, is not residing in the State of Michigan, but is living in Hardin County, Kenton, Ohio, as is shown by the affidavit now on file in said Court and cause, executed by plaintiff; that plaintiff is unable to obtain personal service upon defendant of any writ from said Court, and it cannot be served because of his continued absence from the State of Michigan;

Therefore, on motion of James C. Hendley, attorney for plaintiff, it is hereby ordered that the defendant, Curtis M. Madden, enter his appearance in said cause on or before three months from the date of this order, and that within forty days the plaintiff cause this order to be published in the Chelsea Standard, a newspaper published and circulated within said County. Said publication to be continued once in each week for six weeks in succession, or unless personal service can be obtained on said Defendant.

Sweet Potatoes

Under the brown jackets of sweet potatoes are food values similar to those of their Irish cousin—iron, protein, starch and some vitamin B1 and C. Their golden yellow color reveals a special asset, vitamin A, which is so important in the diet of young and old alike.

Eat Roughages

Sheep are able to use to good advantage such roughages as corn stover, corn fodder, millet hay, bean pods or bean straw, and oat or wheat straw. It is strongly recommended, however, that these inferior roughages be fed with good quality legume hay.

Rat Waste

It takes at least 100 pounds of grain to keep a rat alive for a year, and in that time he can destroy or waste much more food, if he can reach it. A single pair of rats left unmolested could increase to 600 within a year.

FRUIT JUICES FOR YOUR FAMILY'S HEALTH AND PLEASURE

The average person finds it somewhat difficult, except in hot weather, to drink the quantity of water needed for keeping the body in prime condition but there are few who do not welcome a tall glass of cool, home-canned fruit juice at noontime, bedtime—any time! Fruit juices are water with the plus value of color, flavor, vitamins, and sugar. They are also useful for making cocktails, punches, congealed desserts, molded salads, sauces, ice creams, sherberts, etc.

According to Gladys Kimbrough, authority on home canning and Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company, fruits from which juices are to be extracted should be fresh, sound, ripe, and of good color and flavor. All except citrus fruits and white grapes should be "heated" before the juice is extracted. The cooking should be done below boiling point because intense heat tends to destroy color, flavor and vitamins.

Juices of highest quality can be made easily at home if instructions are carefully followed and a dairy or candy thermometer is used to determine temperature. However, a satisfactory product can be made without the use of a thermometer. The amount of sugar used varies from 1 to 2 cups to 1 gallon juice, depending upon preference. Some fruits do not hold color and flavor well unless a larger quantity of sugar is used and are for this reason made into syrups which may be combined with other juices or with water when served as a beverage. Juices intended to be used for making "jelly" must be canned without sugar. Fruit juices should be processed (cooked in jar) 30 minutes in a hot-water bath at 175-200° F. If no thermometer is available, process at simmering—that is, just below boiling—when bubbles begin to show on the surface of the hot water.

Grape and cherry juices are clearer if left standing 12 or more hours

And this is a good recipe for grape juice. Wash stem, and crush fresh, firm-ripe grapes. Add 1 cup water to each gallon crushed grapes. Heat 10 minutes at simmering. Strain through several layers of cheesecloth. Let stand in a cool place, preferably in refrigerator, 24 hours. Strain again. Add 1 or 2 cups sugar to each gallon juice. Reheat to simmering. Pour into hot jars. Process 30 minutes in hot-water bath at 175-185° F.

MAKE YOUR OWN CANNING EQUIPMENT

Be determined to do your part toward saving food, canning equipment or no canning equipment. Don't glibly use the shortage of equipment as an excuse for not getting busy and filling those pantry shelves with jars of non-rationed food, put up just the way your family likes it best.

You will do well to follow the advice of Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director for Ball Brothers Company. To all who lament the lack of canning conveniences she suggests: "It is true that a skilled workman requires good tools but when he can't buy what he needs, he makes the best use of what he has and makes what he hasn't."

A few of Miss Kimbrough's suggestions for home-made canning equipment are illustrated in the photograph above. They are:

1. A lard can to use as a water-bath canner. A pail, sirup bucket, wash boiler, or any other container in which water can be boiled, will serve, provided it is twelve or more inches deep.
2. Funnel. This was made from a No. 10 tin can.
3. A rack or platform to fit in the bottom of the canner. Make by tacking strips of odorless wood together.
4. Coal tongs (part of fire set) make good jar lifter.
5. Strong string looped (slip hitch) around neck of jar. Use when neither jar lifter nor tongs can be found.
6. Wire basket to hold the jars while they are in the canner. Made from a scrap of wire mesh. (Poultry wire will do.)
7. Wooden paddle for stirring apple butter, chili sauce, etc. Whittled from hard wood. Wooden spoons can be made in same manner.

This year the government is releasing more metal for the manufacture of canning equipment. Production and distribution may make it unnecessary for the housewife to assemble home-made equipment, but it can be done and done easily.

Breathe Off Water

Hens breathe off a minimum of 1½ gallons of water daily to each 100 birds. The moisture moves upward with the warm air and seeks the highest point in the building. If there is an opening at that point and the opening provides an upward course, then the moisture is trapped, condenses and falls to the floor. This makes it necessary that openings be provided which will permit the free movement of the warm air in an upward course and out of the building.

Make Sausage

In the sausage department of a packing plant 17 different jobs are being performed by women, ranging from cutting cords and placing them in position for tying, and lacing cords at regular intervals around the sausage, to mixing the seasonings and stuffing the sausages. In the casing department, where the sausage casings are made, the most colorful job title is that of "gut puller," in which large and small intestines are separated and their surplus tissue removed to prepare them for sausage casings.

Sweet Potatoes

Under the brown jackets of sweet potatoes are food values similar to those of their Irish cousin—iron, protein, starch and some vitamin B1 and C. Their golden yellow color reveals a special asset, vitamin A, which is so important in the diet of young and old alike.

Eat Roughages

Sheep are able to use to good advantage such roughages as corn stover, corn fodder, millet hay, bean pods or bean straw, and oat or wheat straw. It is strongly recommended, however, that these inferior roughages be fed with good quality legume hay.

Rat Waste

It takes at least 100 pounds of grain to keep a rat alive for a year, and in that time he can destroy or waste much more food, if he can reach it. A single pair of rats left unmolested could increase to 600 within a year.
