Women Needed to Work On Surgical Dressings

The Surgical Dressings Station at the Homemaker Room at the high school has been open for work more than 100 times during the past year. Until September, Chelsea's quota has been met by the faithful cooperation of a very few women. Following is a list of the women who have come at least one-fourth of the time. We wish in this way to thank and honor them for their efforts.

70 times or over—Lydia Bohner, Virginia Brock, Mary Burg, Emma Clayton, Jean Eaton, Jane Freeman, May Luick, Cora Wright.
40 times or over—Margaret Dietz, Alma Elisele, Florence Fox, Luise Geddes, Catherine Hafner, Matilda Hinderer, Mildred Hinderer, Esther Lucht, Lynn Skentelbury.
25 times or over—Kathleen Bernhart, Gertrude Daniels, Grace Davison, Hilma Eiseman, Edith Hoffman, Ellen Keusch, Elizabeth Klingler, Katherine Kusterer, Helen Lindeman, Hilda McClure, Mattie Miller, Katherine Olin, Lenore Schmidt, Mary Titus, Anna Werner, Nina Belle Wurster.

Without these and others who have come occasionally the quota cannot be met. September saw a new low in attendance, as only 18 came one Monday night and only seven one Wednesday afternoon. For the first time since a quota was set did we fail to make the required number. We must have at least 45 women out each week to make the quota.

Won't you come—not once in a while—but regularly to Red Cross and help with this Home Front work? Make Monday night or Wednesday afternoon a date and don't let other things interfere.

—Surgical Dressings Committee

Will Give Program On Music Appreciation

Glenn D. McGeoch, A.M., who was made Associate Professor of Music in the U. of M. School of Music in 1927, will give a program on Music Appreciation for the Chelsea Study club at their meeting at the home of Mrs. Kent Walworth on Tuesday evening, October 24 at 8 o'clock. Members of the club may bring a guest.

Prof. McGeoch was born in Bay City. He has made a study of the literature and criticism of music. He has taken graduate work in Munich, Germany, Cambridge, England, and New York City.

Enrollment In Junior Red Cross Starts Nov. 1

Enrollment in the American Junior Red Cross will be held in all schools in the county between November 1 and 15, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Raleigh Schorling, Washtenaw county chairman.

Each school will have a teacher sponsor and inter-school council meetings will be held each month, when delegates from all elementary schools of the county meet in North Hall, Mrs. Schorling said. This year the council meetings will be held on the second Monday of each month.

"Washtenaw County Junior Red Cross members will have a quota of gift boxes to fill, as part of their Red Cross activity this year," Mrs. Schorling said. Last year through this international good-will program, 100,000 such boxes reached children in Europe, United States territorial possessions, Greenland, Iceland and the South American countries. The boxes contain small toys and games, books, samples of handwork, clothing, toilet articles and personal ornaments.

Production quotas for the armed forces have already been received, the chairman said. These include articles made in manual training and domestic science classes, and range from small holiday favors used in hospitals to smoking tables and clothing.

Toys Will Be Collected On Thursday, Oct. 26

As a part of their project for the aid of underprivileged children the Kiwanis club will collect old and unused toys which will be repaired for distribution as Christmas gifts to unfortunate children.

A house-to-house canvass of the village will be made next Thursday afternoon, and the toys collected will be taken to the Cassidy Lake Honor Camp where students will repair them in time for Christmas distribution. Lieut. Geo. F. Parish, director of the camp, states that their shop is in shape to handle the repair of all kinds of toys, either metal or wood, and that the students are eager to do the work.

After the toys are repaired they will be given to crippled children at the University hospital and to children in other institutions to provide them with a happier Christmas.

Boy Scouts will assist Kiwanians in the canvass next Thursday afternoon. If you have toys of any kind that are not beyond repair and are not used by your own children, please have them ready and they will be called for—and be on their way toward making underprivileged children happy this Christmas.

HONORED AT DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. William Atkinson, who on Saturday passed the 60th milestone of their wedded life, were honored with a dinner on Sunday at the Tower Cafe, at which covers were laid for 17 members of their immediate family. Flowers and white tapers formed the table decorations. The "bride" wore a dress of black lace, with a corsage of gardenias.

SERVICE CHAPTER MEETS

Mrs. D. L. Rogers was hostess to Service chapter of the Congregational church on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 12 at her home on East St. The meeting was opened with devotionals led by Miss Nina Crowell. A business meeting followed and plans were discussed for the coming meetings. The remainder of the time was spent working on knitted blocks for a Red Cross afghan. Refreshments were served, with Miss Nina Belle Wurster and Mrs. L. T. Freeman assisting the hostess.

ARRIVES IN BELGIUM

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rogers have received word from their son, 2nd Lt. Paul Rogers, notifying them of his safe arrival in Belgium.

FARM GUILD DANCE

The Farm Guild is sponsoring a dance Friday night, Oct. 20 at St. Mary's hall. Music by O. E. Greene's orchestra. Modern and old-time dancing.

ATTENTION!

Don't forget the Legion Auxiliary card party at the public school gymnasium tonight.

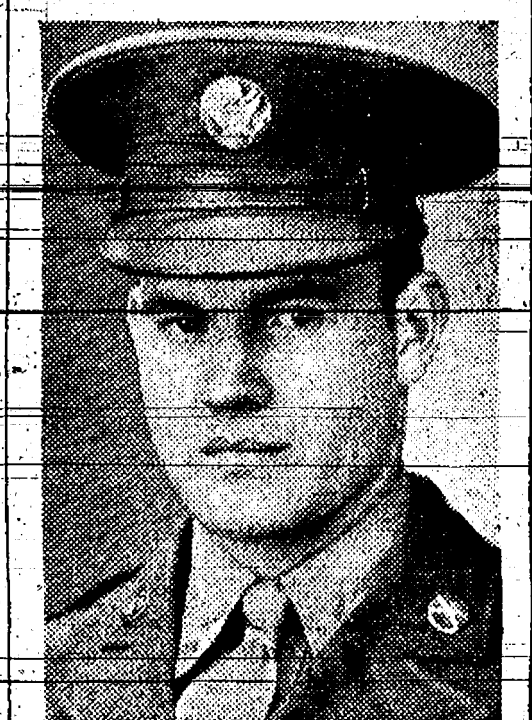

BAKE SALE

The Moma club will hold a bake sale at the Chelsea Hardware on Saturday, Oct. 21 at 2 o'clock.

*Lima Township Man Was Local Community's First Casualty In European War Area; Died 5 Days After Being Wounded

Chelsea's first casualty in the European theater of war came as a shock to the community on Tuesday when news of the death of Pfc. Earl C. Koch was received by his father, Chris. Koch.

A telegram received by Mr. Koch from the War Department stated: "The Secretary of War asks that I assure you of his deep sympathy in the loss of your son, Pfc. Earl C. Koch. Report received states he died 27th of September in Italy as result of wounds received in action. Letter follows. Signed: The Adjutant General." The first news that Earl had been injured came in a letter written by a chaplain on Sept. 23, stating that Earl had been injured in action on Sept. 22 and that he was coming alright. A telegram was received by Mr. Koch on Oct. 10 from the Adjutant General stating that Earl was seriously injured in action on Sept. 22. No further news had been received until the telegram came on Tuesday. No details as to the nature of the injuries had been received.

PFC. EARL C. KOCH

Pfc. Koch was inducted into the army on November 9, 1942 and trained in a number of camps before leaving for overseas duty on June 1, 1944. He had been serving with the Fifth Army in Italy.

Earl Christian Koch was born in Lima township on August 25, 1920, the son of Chris. and the late Bertha (Seitz) Koch. He was a graduate of Chelsea high school, Class of 1938, following which he worked with his father in the contracting business, and at the time of his induction was an employee of Federal Screw Works. He was a member of St. Paul's church.

He is survived by his father, two brothers, Roy and Raymond Koch, of Lima township; and one sister, Mrs. Edwin Knapp of Iron Creek.

Fire Destroys Buildings On Sharon Twp. Farm

The farm residence and contents, the barn and nearly all of the outbuildings of Leon Springer on Lehman Rd. in Sharon township were destroyed by fire which started about 6:15 Saturday evening and is believed to have originated from the chimney. The barn and straw stack which were across the road ignited from burning shingles which were carried by the high wind for a long distance.

Fortunately, no stock was included in the loss, which is partly covered by insurance. The local fire department was called but the blaze was beyond control when they arrived.

Formerly owned by Lewis Haselwerdt, the farm was purchased by Mr. Springer of Detroit about 10 years ago.

FARMERS' CLUB OPENS SEASON

The October meeting of the Western Washtenaw Farmers' club, opening the season's activities, was held at the home of Mrs. P. H. Riemenschneider on Friday evening. About 35 partook of the cooperative supper and this was followed by a business meeting.

Group singing, "Battle Hymn of the Republic" opened the program; a talk was given by Rev. Lewis Green, followed by singing of "Grandfather's Clock" by the assembly; "Vacation Experiences" were given in response to roll call; S. P. Foster gave a humorous reading, "Rejected," and "Hom on the Range" was sung in closing.

"The war stories I like best, Judge, are the ones by the special writers overseas who live right with our troops. They give us a better idea of how our men react to things going on over there and back here at home."

"I agree with you, Sam. I never miss one of those stories in the papers or magazines. And there's one thing those writers seem to agree on no matter where they are stationed with our men... and that is that the men who have left their homes and families to go away and fight this war don't want to come back and find that prohibition has been put over on them while they were away... either nationally or locally. They have heard about the attempts being made and they resent it bitterly."

"I agree with them, Judge, even though I don't happen to drink myself. Furthermore, I don't think it's fair for us at home to be making any major changes while 10,000,000 of our fighting men are away and have no chance to express their opinions."

Baffling Origin

Origin of the Mayan Indians of Mexico is still further baffling to students in that they are the only Indians practicing baptism, confession, and atonement; that while they had a pantheon of gods, they believed in one supreme being for whom they made no image.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

By GENE ALLEMAN

At the western edge of Michigan's copper country—that once fabulous land of overnight mining booms, fantastic profits and expanding settlements—is a dot on the map known as Silver City.

It was at Silver City, just a few miles west of Ontonagon on Lake Superior, that a group of newspaper writers began a two day "exploration" of Michigan's Porcupine mountain area. A few tourist cabins and a tavern are all that is left to Silver City where miners in 1875 extracted silver from veins in rock along the Iron River, leading to real estate speculation and the subdividing of land for a town.

Silver City is headed for new prominence. It is the entrance to the largest unbroken tract of virgin hardwood timber left in the United States. And what is more important, it is gateway to a recreational area and timber museum comprising 42,000 acres, soon to be owned by the State of Michigan through action of the 1944 state legislature.

Unique from any other tract in Michigan, here is a true wilderness.

In your easy chair, try imagining a vast forest of maple, birch, basswood, hemlock, and white pine—just to mention a few—through which you tramp for hours without once seeing or crossing a public road.

Imagine that you are hiking to Mirror lake in the heart of this forest. You follow an old wagon trail for five miles from Quigley's lumber camp to the abandoned White Pine extension mine. It has rained recently. The trail is soggy.

You pause to inspect a ghost mining tunnel of rotting logs and stumps. Then you pick up a new trail going northerly. When the lug marks of a tractor-bulldozer appear on the ground, the guide recalls how an army bomber crashed near Mirror lake last March. All passengers had parachuted to safety.

Was this a temporary path to the bomber? If so, where was the Mirror lake trail? Nobody knows.

No one has a map. You are relying entirely on the knowledge of the guide, who informs you that he had never been in that territory before and was relying solely upon second-hand information.

Discovery of a trail, just a rod away, prompts you to conclude that the bulldozer was slashing a new path into the woods. But strangely enough, your newly discovered path is an old trail. Impression of wagon wheels can be traced here and there. Logs have fallen. They were decaying with age.

Then someone detects a blaze mark on a tree. The blaze recurs at intervals, and you have the comforting thought that someone had left signs along the path which falling leaves and logs could not readily obscure.

Following an old blazed trail through a virgin forest is adventure with capital A. But it is also hard work. At times you must literally climb over the trunk of a huge tree that had been uprooted by a storm and which lay untouched after it had crashed to the ground.

Twice the winding trail seemed to vanish. Other members of your party fan out until someone locates it.

Yes, it is a trail all right. But you notice something odd—your compass indicates clearly you are traveling southwest. You had set the arrow on your paratrooper's wrist-watch compass at 830 degrees, a few points west of north.

Finally about 2:30 p.m., after more than four hours on the trail, your party stops for consultation. Rays of golden sunlight filter through the dense foliage. Hours of daylight are limited. And not carrying a pack with food and a sleeping bag or blankets, you realize that you cannot reach Mirror lake and also return before sundown to the station wagon left at Quigley's lumber camp a good seven miles away.

Yes, you have been beaten by the wilderness!

The above incident really DID happen.

While we waited for the guide to rejoin us, four newspapermen built a fire in a hollow near the trail. Frank furters wrapped in bacon soon became steaming, appetizing "pigs in blankets." That cheese sandwich prepared by the restaurant girl at Ewen suddenly became a delectable "tub." And cold water dipped from a nearby stream, was like sweet nectar itself.

Was lounged on the ground, joking about how we had been "lost" in the Porcupines—at least to the extent of having missed Mirror lake. At that moment it was a keen disappointment, for cameras were loaded with natural color film and we were anticipating scenic delights to record at Mirror lake, our destination.

On the previous day we had climbed the Porcupine mountain near the Lake of the Clouds. Actually the mountain consists of a long escarpment with black rocky peaks.

The views were inspiring. To the south lay Lake of the Clouds, catching a blue reflection of the sky. The foliage of millions of trees was turning to reds and yellows. The air was exhilarating. You liked it.

You gazed west and east towards a series of peaks. Here was the setting for a five-mile scenic highway which, like the roller-coaster Brockway drive on Keweenaw, would afford a sensational vista to touring motorists.

And here on the mountain top fairly level for a block, was the site for a log chalet and a cluster of family cabins. Let the State of Michigan build them. Let a competent hotel operator lease them. Yes, you conclude, here was the opportunity for someone who possessed courage and skill to create one of the great wonder attractions in the Middle West.

Let the forest before you remain what it is today—a wilderness of mountain ranges, timber and streams. Provide access into it by foot trails and bridle paths. But don't destroy the greatest virtue it now possesses—the virgin forest wilderness which can beat man, as it did us, when he tries to penetrate its many secrets.

Who blazed that old trail to the southwest?

Was it made by a mining prospector whose claim and lonely cabin are now hidden by forest decay?

Yes, we're going back someday to try again. Such is the lure of the Porcupines.

With Our Men In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Barr received the following letter from their son, Lt. Merle S. Barr:

"France," Sept. 6, 1944.

Dear Lucile and all:

What do you think of this paper? One of the other Lts. went into a town today and came back with it. So with the thought of readily available paper, the cab of a truck to keep me out of the rain and the generosity of the 1st Sgt. with his pen I decided it was about time for me to let you know how things are going. Things are going swell!

I'm planning on having Kraut hanging out of my ears in just a few days. It's very possible that I'll get my wish in the not too distant future. Guess there won't be much left of Berlin when we get there though.

Our mail has been delayed for several days but finally arrived today. Guess I shouldn't say "delayed." It just had a little trouble catching us. Anyway I managed to get three letters from you and I do have time to read them. It's apparent that everyone else figures they won't write unless they hear from me but there isn't a great deal I can do about that these days.

We have been having more or less of a rest today and I guess we're not much good at this resting business anymore. We are about crazy for lack of something to keep us busy. I've been occupying myself making some handles for my Luger so I'm a little more sane than the rest—which isn't saying much.

Yes I still have my camera with me and I've been taking a lot of pictures of our work, etc. The Bn. photographer is taking care of the developing but we never stay in one place long enough for him to get them enlarged and printed. I have four rolls developed and waiting to be printed, another roll ready to be developed and three new rolls to take. Imagine that, Lt. Haberman bought three rolls for me in Paris. It seems to be plentiful and inexpensive there. He bought the three 26-exposure rolls for me, two rolls for his Brownie and it only cost about 150 Francs ($3.00). That is as cheap as not cheaper than you could get them in the States (if you could get them). I wish I had thought while I was there I'll bet I could have purchased a nice movie camera. That is the thing to have over here. As for buying things in Paris, or any part of France, for that matter, film is about the only thing we can think of getting. It seems the Germans had a good time printing their own money and doing a lot of buying, consequently prices are a bit above our means. We still can't understand how we got the film so cheaply. Maybe someone made a mistake, anyway the Lt. wouldn't take anything for it. He said I would be taking pictures of things that would interest him and he would just have some copies made when we have them finished. Another officer just received word from his wife that she has sent the film for my camera that he requested so I guess I'll be taking pictures for a while.

Ask Aunt Nellie if she was in Paris when she was over here. I presume she was and I wonder if she enjoyed it as much as I have. I've never seen such a place in all my life after what we have been through it was as near Utopia as anything ever could be. I used to think "How You Gonna Keep 'em Down on the Farm" was a rather silly song but now I know why it was written. It's way beyond anything England can show and some of the buildings look like they might have come out of that magazine "I sent home—only much nicer. I HAVE NEVER SEEN SO MANY BEAUTIFUL WOMEN IN ALL MY LIFE!" Nice clothes, silk stockings, make-up, beautiful hair-do's—I guess most of us just stood and stared in amazement. A surprising number of French people speak English but it's fun to find a beautiful girl who doesn't. I don't speak French and they don't speak English so we start teaching each other and before long we're carrying on a pretty unintelligent conversation. I've only had the opportunity to talk to two or three but naturally I pick on the best looking ones. When I get home I'll tell you some interesting stories about a couple of them. I hope you make at least a mental note of all these stories I promise to tell when I get there.

Yes, the news is really good these days. The only trouble we have is keeping up with the enemy. The other day we passed a German car that had been turned over and the gasoline was still running out of it. The Captain said he went into a nearby town the other day to look over a bridge that was reported out and found it still smoldering and the people all pointing the way the Germans had gone ten minutes before. Did you think you were kidding about us building the roads for them to retreat on? We are having trouble building them fast enough!

September 7—

I expected to finish this last night but the mess Sgt. decided we should have something to eat. We make out pretty good along those lines. That was just a late snack but it consisted of tucua, bacon, fried tomatoes, crackers and jam, etc. We have even been getting peanuts in our ration lately—boy, do they ever taste good!

Sept. 22—"Belgium."

Do you think I'll ever finish this—at this rate I'll probably be able to deliver it personally.

Guess I should have headed this chapter "Germany" as I'm close enough and I have done a lot of work quite a ways on their side of the line. I'm afraid the work was more destructive than constructive but it was nevertheless work. I can tell you all about that when I get home. That's a familiar sentence isn't it?

You were asking in one of your letters how I was treated in Paris. Wow! Guess we were all treated just about as Ernie Pyle wrote it up. Of course I did make one exception—I didn't get kissed by any "Dirtiest, ugliest woman" but I have a very vivid memory of one I was kissed by. She looked almost exactly like Hedy Lamarr and was just about the prettiest thing I have ever seen. Needless to say I saw her more than once.

Our chase through Belgium was a pretty fast one but that little country gave me quite a surprise. I can remember reading about Belgium in school and always connected with it little or no importance plus a lot of dirty peasants with pigs and chickens in their living rooms. I certainly know better now. It's one of the cleanest countries I've been in yet. There are very few areas which are not under cultivation and their main crops seem to be wheat and pine trees. I guess I spent the first few days staring open-mouthed at the pine forests. Every tree has been planted by hand in perfect straight rows and they stretch as far as you can see from any place you happen to be. The people made waffles and passed them out as we passed through many towns. They were really good and if I can ever get the recipe I'll send it home. They taste like the sugar cookies we have at home. We sure took care of a lot of them.

Speaking of cookies—if you can get the ingredients and have the time I'd like a whole barrel full of oatmeal cookies.

Lt. Haberman is at me again. We have more fun than a couple little kids. No. 1 he wants his pen back and No. 2 he wants me to finish this so we can eat early and go to the theater tent and see the movie. This is the first time we have been able to have any for ages so guess I'd better go.

This time I think I'll get this sent off—finished or not.

See you soon—Merle.

Mrs. Stephen Slane received the following letter from her brother, Cpl. Eldon C. Jones, who is in the Ordnance Depot branch of the Infantry in France. He has been overseas the past fourteen months. Cpl. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones, former Chelsea residents.

Somewhere in France,

September 20, 1944.

Dear Sister and Nieces:

Your letter came last night and to my surprise it turned out to be pictures. Thanks, Sis, I sure am glad to have them. But, my dear lady, why tease me with the bottles of beer? I think you're pretty mean to do that. I get plenty of good wine here though, yes, and champagne too. Well sister mine, I can tell you now a little of my travels, etc. since over here. I won't go into detail as the newspapers can tell you better. I'm in the Third Army under General George S. Patton. I reckon I need not explain anything on that. I want to mention that I'd back him to and through hell and high water, so would all his boys.

I have seen a lot of evidence of battles of World War I, even to some old rusted American tanks, lots of old entrenchments and fortifications. It is quite fascinating to see these things.

I sent a captured trophy to Mom a while back. It's a Jerry fur cap. I also got myself a nice revolver, taken from a Jerry. I'm wearing it now, since I made a scratch and Mom sent my belt. It's pretty handy around the neck. I got it while up to the front a few days ago. I found out what a Jerry 88 mm. sounds like too.

Some time ago and back in Western France near a city called Avenches I witnessed several air raids by Jerry. I must say Sis, it was a bit noisy. I got caught on a highway by flares and old Jerry was out to make things hot for me, but he wasn't so sure, anyway I'm still here, thanks to a nice deep ditch, and I was in it believe me, and wishing it was deeper. It wasn't so bad. The roads are safer now, even to using lights in lots of places.

Well, I reckon that's enough of that stuff. I'll write some of the other things, if I can think of anything.

By the way, it may interest the Standard that a home boy is over here and under General Patton.

Oh yes, I was given the "Good Conduct Ribbon" and I got the "Bronze Star" on my "E.T.O." ribbon for the "Major Battle of Western Europe."

It doesn't seem right that I have been in this man's army for nearly four years, does it? I'm ready to come home too.

I'm expecting my absentee ballot any day now. I received the notice of its acknowledgment.

Sis, I'll try to send some kind of souvenirs soon, perhaps some genuine French perfume and face powder—say a nice big box of "Bourjoir," made in Paris? I sent Betty a box and a bottle of perfume and a nice scarf.

Bob Foster was glad to see those pictures, and he sends a Hello and regards.

Soldier of the Soil

VICTORY begins with the American farmer, working from long before sunset until long after nightfall. Upon him falls the burden of feeding the fighting forces... the civilian population... and hungry mouths in war-torn countries.

To the challenge of producing more food than ever, American soldiers of the soil have responded with heroic effort. Despite shortages of help and equipment, they have established records. They have contributed mightily towards winning the war.

Now you are asked to help your fellow-men in another way... to contribute money to give men in the armed forces needed recreation, to give books and sports equipment to prisoners of war, to give nerve-shattered men in the merchant marine a chance to recuperate. To give unfortunate people abroad and at home a chance to have life, liberty, and happiness.

The dollars you can give are needed more than ever this year. Please give generously.

GUEST EDITORIAL

Many students attach so much importance to "having fun" that they are missing some of the bigger satisfaction and pleasures. While play is natural for children, the high school boy or girl should become interested in such activities as boat-building, stamp collecting, music, dress-making, photography, wood and metal work, and many other fascinating things.

Some boys carry the "having fun" or "fooling around" idea thru their entire day, including classes and jobs. I wonder if they have ever paused at the end of the day and inquired if they have really enjoyed themselves!

Each person must choose his own life interest or hobby. As his knowledge increases and as he experiences the deep satisfaction of real accomplishment, his whole outlook on life changes. He is unwilling to devote more than a few minutes a day to the shallow pleasures of "having fun" and "fooling around."

DR. RECTOR TO SPEAK HERE

Dr. Frank L. Rector, Cancer Consultant for the Michigan Department of Health, who is conducting a general educational program in the control of cancer, will speak to the student body here on Friday, October 20.

For many years Dr. Rector has been engaged in public health work, much of which is directly connected with cancer control.

This assembly will prove of vital interest to all of us, since cancer continues to take untold lives each year.

CHORUS SPONSORS ALL-HI

Flash! C.H.S. — On the night of Wednesday, October 11, 1944, the high school gym was the scene of a very neat little party (Well it was a party at least). Seriously speaking, tho, it was a very sharp affair. In fact, it's been classified 1-A by the local draft board.

All thanks go to the chorus group, who were anxious enough to have an All-Hi to flash around at a late date and sponsor one (we use the term "flash" literally too! Just ask Cameron Colquhoun).

For tickets, the girls were given little orange paper pumpkins and the boys received little "black" witches' hats. It had been rumored around that the girls were to get the witches' hats and some of the girls even brought their broomsticks! (Tough luck you know.)

By nine o'clock the gym was really packed. There was an unusually long, but apparently unmoved (or unmoving) stag line, because two-thirds of the couples on the floor were girls. (What's the matter fellows?)

Miss Betterly and Mr. Chandler were chaperons for the party. Mr. Cameron dropped in but only stayed a few minutes.

Bob Daniels played the piano later in the evening, and Threse Lyons, Angeline Merkel and Rosemary Lyons sang "Is You Is Or Is You Ain't?" Both performances were very good too.

As usual there was a mad rush for the Home-Ec door when someone casually (?) mentioned refreshments. If you were lucky you survived the stampede with only one perfectly good foot ruined, a slightly black eye and part of a glass of some soft drink. You might even have a few crushed potato chips left in your hand too. For the most part, tho, you could probably find about half of your refreshments either spilled down the front of you, or if you were lucky (and a good shot) down somebody's neck. That's just part of the fun and nobody really minds.

About ten minutes to eleven, the chairman of the Social committee, Cameron Colquhoun, could be seen sneaking up on unsuspecting victims and grabbing them by the collar; they were then carried off to the Home-Ec room, where anything from a dishcloth to a mop was thrown at them. Yes! these poor creatures were on the clean-up committee.

By a few minutes after eleven, everyone had left for home. On, pardon me! That should read: By a few minutes after eleven, everyone had left. ! ?

FOOTBALL

By John Wellnitz

Chelsea 13—Dundee 0

First Quarter—Chelsea kicked off to Dundee who was unable to take the ball ten yards for a first down. M. Dietle took the ball on a run around the right end to give us a first down on Dundee's seven yard line. R. Knickerbocker took the ball over for the score. J. Carraher's kick for the extra point was wide. The ball was passed back and forth, fumbled, and recovered; neither team was allowed to score. Chelsea 6, Dundee 0.

Second Quarter—L. Vogel intercepted a pass to give us the ball but we lost the ball on downs. R. Knickerbocker and L. May both intercepted passes, though we did not advance far. In this quarter, T. Smith rushed Dundee's backfield and after several fumbles and recoveries, he recovered the ball. M. Dietle caught a 35 yard pass.

Earl C. Michener

When you go to the polls Nov. 7 to select national, state and county officers, your ballot takes on an immense importance that cannot be over-estimated. How you use it will determine:

Whether this country continues as a democracy;

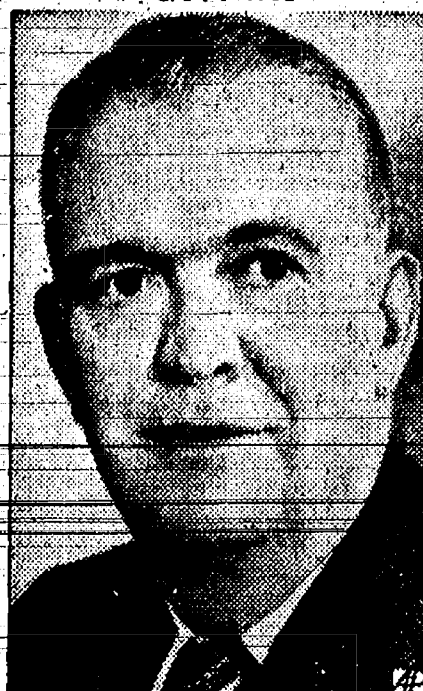

Whether more sacred traditions are to be broken;

Whether you and your children retain that priceless heritage of freedom;

Whether this country takes another step down toward absolute dictatorship.

You have an opportunity to protect America from the vicious assaults made on the very foundations upon which this great country was built. Use that opportunity by voting for Thomas E. Dewey for president and for all other Republicans seeking national, state and county offices. Protect America and save democracy.

Lost in Cooking
Minerals—phosphorus, calcium, iron, copper, magnesium, sulphur, etc., are largely lost by cooking. Canned foods, cooked in the sealed cans, are high in these elements—and the liquor must not be thrown away, but should be consumed. The liquid portion of a can of peas or beans, for example, will contain 30 to 70 per cent of the total mineral content of the can.

College Enrollment
Civilian enrollment in land grant colleges and universities—comprising the large state schools—totalled 239,430 in 1943, compared to 254,808 in 1942 and 272,394 in 1941.

DEATHS

Mrs. Emma M. Parker
Mrs. Emma M. Parker, 72 years old, died at her home in Lima township on Monday, October 18.
Mrs. Parker was the daughter of Martin and Helena Noll, and was born in Ann Arbor on May 8, 1872, where she resided until her marriage April 14, 1897 to Edward Parker, since which time she has lived in Lima.
Surviving are the husband, and two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Collier of Chelsea and Mrs. Edna VanderVoort of Detroit; two sisters, Miss Bertha C. Noll, Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Helen M. Benz, Bedford, Ohio; one brother, Martin C. Noll of Ann Arbor, and two grandchildren.
Funeral services will be held from the Muehling funeral chapel, Ann Arbor at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. Edward Drews of Dexter, officiating. Interment will be in Clements cemetery, Jackson Road.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guinot of Detroit were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Miller.

MOMS HOLD MEETING

The MOMS of Chelsea held their monthly meeting Oct. 12 at the American Legion Home, with 40 members in attendance. The boxes for sons and daughters overseas were on display and members were gratified at the section of contents. A committee was appointed for packing the boxes for service men and women in this country. Also, the Ways and Means committee was enlarged, now having six members. Plans were made for attending the state convention of MOMS at Dearborn on Tuesday, Oct. 17. The president instructed the corresponding secretary to write to the family of Mrs. Ida Palmer, honorary member of MOMS, whose death we very much regret. The MOMS gratefully accepted the offer of the use of a room in the St. Paul's church house for their meetings.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish in this way to thank my many friends and relatives for the beautiful flowers and cards, and candy, fruit and magazines sent me while in the hospital and since my return home. I appreciated them all very much.

With Our Men In Service

The following letter was written by Pfc. Earl Heim to his sister, Florence, of Chelsea. Earl is now stationed in France, having served in the North African campaign and Italy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heim, France—Sept. 25, 1944.

Dear Sister:
This morning I received three letters from home, one from our sister and your air mail of Aug. 21. Was indeed glad to hear from you.
Talking of winter, boy, was it cold here this morning. Right now it is three o'clock in the afternoon and I am sitting here in this shack of ours with my jacket on. We do have windows but no glass in any of them. I don't know what I will do this winter for they tell us it snows here, which I don't doubt at all and by the way, could you send me a good army sweater?

We bought a radio the other day and have hooked it up to the high line. In that way it is better than using our power plant. We also can play the radio at any time of day or night. We get lots of stations on it. Some from England, Italy, North Africa, and the good old U.S.A. The news just came on from B.O.W. Boston. I don't think we can get WWJ or WJR. Ha!
Boy, is this French ever hard to get onto. I have forgotten all I had learned when I was in Africa and I never knew before that I could speak Italian as well as I do until one day I ran into a Frenchman here that could speak Italian and I made out very good with him.

Guess you won't have to send me any more film now for we can buy all we need over here. Am enclosing a snapshot of Strem, Wilson, Stewart and myself. It was taken here the day I caught up with the boys. They have lots of good pictures which they took on D-Day (Southern France) when they landed.
Well, will close for this time, and will write more next time.
Your brother—Earl.

A letter to Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Brock from Sgt. Charles Panarites, follows:
Somewhere in France, September 28, 1944.

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Brock:
Received your lovely letter and enclosed card last week but inasmuch as we have been terribly busy of late, I have been unable to write and thank you for same. May I take this opportunity to express, from the bottom of my heart, how much I enjoyed your letter and to know that we fellows who are far away from our homes, have not been forgotten.

So very much has happened since my last letter to you that I hardly know where to begin in bringing forth the high-lights. First of all, it has been my privilege to see many of the battle grounds made famous by World War I, and to know that many of those brave lads who were given their final resting place would look upon this war with a very repugnant glare, is indeed a thought that needs no explanation. In reviewing these battle-scarred territories, one cannot but think that were it not for that unscrupulous, stratotic, arrogant beast the Nazis call their supreme leader of the "Master-Race," we here at this writing would not be suffering unprecedented penalties. On the other hand, you at home have made it possible for us to carry on with your undying efforts, in the factories, and in the offices, may rest assured that through the combined efforts of all our Allies, we will bring this Madman to his knees with all his associates. Perhaps that day may not be long in coming; if so, it will mean but one thing, a termination of a very crimson war, and an end to the atrocities which only a war of this type could bring about.

To be optimistic at this stage of the game would prove extremely dangerous, as many hard battles lie ahead before the United Nations are assured total victory. Too much emphasis cannot be stressed upon the indifferent attitude which many individuals carry in the backs of their minds, now, more than ever before, all on the home-front should give their "all" as the final phase looms on the horizon and the chips are down for the final turn of the wheel—don't you agree?

I consider myself sub-par as a prognosticator and pray to God that my thoughts regarding the outcome, etc., are entirely misconstrued.

Turning our attention to more stupendous and aesthetic thoughts concerns my occasional visits to that very beautiful city of Paris. At this time I would like very much to point out that never-in-my-life as a member of the Armed Forces or as a civilian, have I seen a more compact variety of interesting sights than it was my pleasure to witness while visiting this very wonderful city. A few of the more famous sights were: The Cathedral of Notre-Dame, the Opera House, the Arc de Triomphe, the Eiffel Tower, the Tomb of Napoleon, and many other famous sights which my memory fails to recall at this moment. I only wish it were possible for you, and many more of my friends to visit this famed city—it would certainly be well worth the investment as books cannot convey the true credit rightfully due them. Words are not printed that can reflect the reception and hospitality shown the American Forces within that city—they simply went out of their way to show, and express their gratitude—I shall never forget their kindness and courteous smiles.

Letters reaching me from Chelsea constantly inform me that everyone there is doing more than his, or her share. That is only one of the many reasons I think Chelsea is by far the finest "little city" in the world, and along with any other individual who has made his home there, I wouldn't trade that little metropolis for the finest chateau in all France!

I seem to have kept you away from your more important duties long enough so shall close for the present. Please give my love to Mother and Dad and please extend my most sincere regards to all our many friends. Hoping this letter finds you enjoying all the best this troubled world has to offer, and anxiously awaiting an answer, I remain, with fond regards to you and yours,

Sincerely—"Charlie."

P.S.—The enclosed souvenirs are for your approval. I am terribly sorry I can't do better.

Get Coffee that's... 5 Ways Better!

1. PICK OF PLANTATION
High-flavored coffee are worth getting excited about. To get the best choice of the finest coffee, pick of plantations. A&P buys go right to the plantation. Result: No gett'ing full flavor in every pound!

2. "FLAVOR-SAVER" ROASTED
No flavor lost, thanks to A&P's "Flavor-Saver" Roasting. This exclusive process literally "locks" coffee flavor for you. At flavor peak — off goes the heat, out comes the beans, crammed with flavor.

3. FRESHER... IN THE BEAN
It's still in the freshly roasted bean when you buy it. Naturally mellow flavor tightly locked. In by Mother Nature's own process. Seal for finer, fresher flavor... and more of it... buy your coffee in the bean.

4. "FITS" YOUR COFFEEPOT
Freshly ground the moment you buy... precisely right for your coffee maker. You get the full benefit no matter what type of coffee you use. The fragrant aroma of freshly ground A&P Coffee is your promise of coffee at its best!

5. RICHER IN YOUR CUP
Super quality coffee that is really fresh... and correctly ground... will give you more flavor—richer flavor every time!

pass on the three yard line and ran backwards for the score. J. Carraher kicked the extra point. Chelsea 13, Dundee 0.

Third Quarter—Chelsea made several first downs but was unable to score. Dundee made a first down on an off-side penalty. Fumbles were dropped and recovered but each team was determined not to let the other score. Chelsea 13, Dundee 0.

Fourth Quarter—Not much of interest happened in this quarter. It was two teams—Chelsea, who was determined to score, and Dundee, who was determined to score but not let Chelsea score. Final score: Chelsea 13, Dundee 0.

Other scores last week: Milan 27, Belleville 6; Flat Rock 22, Saline 12; Romulus 19, Roosevelt 0.

Be sure to keep Friday, October 20 open for a very good game with Flat Rock. Come out and give Chelsea's team the support it deserves.

CLASS NEWS

Freshmen—The Freshmen had their first class meeting Wednesday, October 11. The year's officers are: Douglas Vogel, president; Jim Miller, vice-president; and Patsy Mohrlock, secretary.

Sophomores—At the first class meeting, the Sophomores elected Ray Knickerbocker, president; Jack Wellnitz, vice-president; and Marjorie Ferguson, secretary.

Class treasurers are appointed by the faculty advisors.

SENIOR NEWS

At the class meeting last Wednesday a committee of three was appointed to look over several plays and select some that could be used as our Senior presentation.

Our candidate for vice-president of the Student Council, James Carraher, won the election over the Junior candidate, Therese Lyons.

ATHLETIC BOARD

The officers of the Athletic Board are: President, James Gaken; vice-president, Marjorie Ferguson; treasurer, Angeline Merkley; secretary, Jean Eisenbeiser. The board has discussed the numerous bills that have accumulated during the summer and decided upon the payment of them. They have also decided upon the admission prices of athletic events. Certain people have been appointed to make and distribute posters for the football games.

G.A.A.

The girls in G.A.A. have elected officers. They are:

President—June Vail
Vice-President—Don Loeffler
Secretary—Elaine McClear
Treasurer—Ruth Paul

The two representatives for the Student Council are Jean Eisenbeiser, Angeline Merkley.

On Tuesday of last week the girls went for a hike.

CHORUS

The first appearance of the chorus was at the Eastern Star Conference which will be about the last week in October.

The chorus sponsored the All-Hi party Wednesday night, October 11.

BAND

The band expects Mr. Reveille here some time this week. He spoke to the band while they were in Ann Arbor Saturday. Band members visited Morris Hall, where they inspected the U. of M. Band's music library, and discussed the system devised for filing the music. They inspected the uniforms and lockers and in general learned a great deal about the management and maintenance of a large band.

The Chelsea High School Band attended the football game in a body.

ELEMENTARY NEWS

Seventh Grade

By Virginia Walz

Joy Ellen Brandeberry has come to us from a parochial school in Jackson. Three birthdays were celebrated this week: Marlene Schneider, Jim Clark and Virginia Walz played the birthday game.

The sixth grade play, "Columbus at the Court of Spain," was appreciated and enjoyed.

We had to stay after school for talking.

Stamp sale rose to 50 per cent of the room becoming purchasers of $20.65 worth.

Eighth Grade

By Joyce Crawford

On Wednesday of this week we finally found time to have our bond and stamp auction in which we collected $4.75.

We wrote letters to Doris Downer for an English assignment and gave her the latest reports about school.

In Science we have been giving reports on eclipse, comets, and many other things which are in our universe.

In history we are going to make reports on presidents and other important persons of history. Then we'll make a scrap book of them as we did last year.

Election of officers took place this week. The results follow: President, Joyce Hughes; vice-president, David Slane; secretary, Robert Barlow; treasurer, Mary K. Palmer.

By Monday morning, when we start back to school after four whole days of vacation all pupils will be anxious to start working again. At least that's what our teachers hope.

Last week's news

By Myrna Robards
In science we are studying and drawing pictures of different parts of the solar system. We are making maps for history and are studying the settlement and inventions in the United States up until 1860. We had a test in English which most of us found quite easy.

We have another new pupil in our class whom we are glad to have. Her name is Betty Joseph. Our stamp sale for last week was $4.50.

WEDDINGS

Vogel-Oesterle

Betty Jane Vogel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Vogel, became the bride of Cpl. Ralph M. Oesterle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Oesterle, on Saturday evening. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. H. Skentelbury at 8:30 at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride was attired in a Copenhagen blue suit dress with beaver trim, with which she wore an orchid corsage. Her accessories were brown. Mrs. Frederic Leeman, as matron of honor, wore a rose-colored suit, brown accessories and a corsage of Fallman roses and bronze mums. Maynard Oesterle, attended his brother as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony. The table, laid with an embroidered linen cloth, was centered with a three-tiered, heart-shaped wedding cake. The decorations were of white mums and gladioli.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Oesterle are graduates of Chelsea high school, Class of 1938. The latter also attended Michigan State College and in June graduated from the School of Nursing, University of Michigan. She has accepted a position as nurse at University hospital. Cpl. Oesterle entered the service in 1942 and is home on a 14-day furlough from Camp Thomasville, Ga.

VERNON J. BROWN
for Lt. Governor

Good government requires practical men with executive ability and a strong sense of public responsibility. Michigan has found the right combination in the group of men who, under the leadership of Governor Kelly, will administer our State government during the next two years.

Your Republican administration has increased Government efficiency, brought the State through precarious years in good shape, and has carefully planned for post-war employment, veteran re-employment, care of the dependent aged and children and a multitude of other immediate problems.

Good government has always been hard to get. Now that we, in Michigan, have it, let's keep it!

How about spending the next 5 minutes in hell?

FOR the next few minutes, imagine that you're an American soldier.

You might, for instance, imagine that you're a 20-year-old kid from Indiana, who got hit at Salerno, months ago.

Since then, you've been lying in a base hospital somewhere, with a leg that never stops hurting and a hole in your belly that makes the younger nurses sick when they try to dress it.

Or you might imagine that you're a war prisoner in an enemy hospital. For nearly two years now, you've been ill and weak and hopeless. And ahead of you lies a gray stretch of more sickness and weakness—while you try to keep alive the hope that somehow, sometime, you'll see your home again.

It doesn't make much difference where you let your mind take you—just as long as you put yourself in one of the spots where, at this minute, men are going through as real a hell as this earth ever sees. But do it, won't you?

If your imagination is any good at all, you'll dig down deep this year for your Community War Fund. For your money, through the U.S.O. Camp Shows and the War Prisoners' Aid, will help the boy in the hospital forget, for a little while, his hurt. It will give the man in the hospital new hope to carry him through.

When you give, you give just once, for all. So give all you can—

I heard from "Lefty" Barth, if you remember him—he's in New Guinea. I reckon that's about all the news for this time. I lost Steve's address. I send it again, will you?

Betty is OK and waiting to make her trip to her new home. She will see you before I will. I'll send a picture of her pretty soon.

So long Sis—lots of that old love and I remain as ever, your kid Eldon.

On Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8, over the Army Hour, Pvt. Thomas M. Alexander, formerly of Chelsea, was heard from somewhere in Italy. He told of a parrot escape he had recently.

Tom and his two buddies were lost from their outfit, and they came across a low building. The two buddies went around on one side to see if everything was clear, while Tom was on the other side. Suddenly a shell hit the building where the two buddies were standing, and buried them. Tom was knocked unconscious, and received several bruises. He has been in a hospital in Italy resting from the shock.

The announcer stated that the Germans were just over the hill from where they were broadcasting.

On Saturday, WWJ notified Tom's relatives to listen to the Army Hour, that he would be on it. Many of Tom's friends also heard him.

Fort Benning, Ga. Pvt. Robert Schanz, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schanz of Chelsea, Mich. has won the right to wear Wings and Boots of the United States Army Paratroops. He has completed four weeks of jump training during which time he made five jumps, the last a tactical jump at night involving a combat problem on landing.

Jumping at the Parachute School has been steadily developed to a recognized war science. American paratroops have been recognized throughout the world for their meritorious actions against the enemy.

In addition to producing jumpers, Parachute Specialist Training is given to qualified men in Communications, Demolition, Rigging, and Parachute Maintenance, vital skills for airborne troops.

OPEN FORUM

Chelsea, Mich., Oct. 12, 1944.
The Chelsea Standard,

Gentlemen:
Here is a copy of the new "Village Ordinance" taken from The Standard, issue of October 5.

Today I found the inclosed door hanger on my door, and a man asking me if he could service me by picking up the cleaning and pressing.

Well now let's see the new village ordinance go to work. Let's see how sincere it really is. We have, I believe, four places in the village established ones—who look after this work.

Anyway let's see this new ordinance in locomotion. The ordinance in itself is O.K. Now let's make its enforcement O.K. also.

Another attempt to revive the Peat industry in Chelsea is being tried. A new company has purchased the plant, and will commence operations as soon as the machinery is installed. They have a press that has a capacity from five to six tons of compressed fuel per hour. The company will later install another peat press that will have a capacity of 10 tons an hour, and will work the material up in dry form.

James Wilkinson, colored, age 30 years, was drowned in Cavanaugh Lake on Sunday. He started out in a canoe with a dog. When opposite the Schanz cottage, the canoe overturned. He hung onto the sides for a short time. Messrs. Schanz and Penn were within about 20 ft. of the man when he went down; it is thought he had cramps. His body was recovered by Fred Belser and Herbert Schenk.

Mrs. H. E. Steger died at her home on So. Main St. Saturday evening. She was born in Nevada City, Calif. on Sept. 27, 1858 and was united in marriage to Augustine Steger in 1875. Mr. Steger died several years ago.

She is survived by three sons, Alva Steger and Philip Steger of Detroit, and Dr. A. L. Steger of Chelsea; two daughters, Mrs. H. G. Spiegelberg of Chelsea, and Mrs. Mina Defendorf of Grand Blanc. Interment was in Oak Grove cemetery.

O. D. Luick brought to the Standard office on Saturday, a potato weighing two and a quarter pounds.

Dr. G. W. Palmer presented the village with a piece of land on the north side of East Middle St. for a public park; provided the D. J. & C. Railway would give a strip of land along the north side of the Palmer land. This is considered a magnificent gift.

The Chelsea football team went to Jackson on Sunday, where they played the prison team. The score was 31-0 in favor of the prison team.

The banquet given by the men of the Congregational church Friday evening turned out to be a grand success. There were nearly one hundred present. The first part of the evening was spent in a social way, after which all found their places at the table in the dining room, where a most delightful dinner of chicken pot pie was served. The closing number on the program was a quartet by Messrs. T. S. Hughes, E. E. Winans, J. H. Boyd and R. J. Schenk.

The management of the Princess theatre has removed the entire front of the building, and moved the ticket office out, and arched over the front entrance. This will give more seating room, and improve the looks of the place considerably.

Algernon Palmer is attending the Michigan Agricultural College. Jacob Alber expects to open his bowling alley in Milan this coming week.

The Jeffries-Johnson original fight pictures will be shown at the Princess theatre Monday night. This is the first time they have been shown in a place as small as Chelsea. The price is also the lowest ever charged, being twenty cents. It will be your only chance to see these pictures.

Marriages: Miss Elsie Hoppe of Detroit and Lee J. Young of Chelsea. Carlton Runciman of Chelsea was elected president of the senior class of Ypsilanti Normal College, elected captain of the football team, as a track man, and will be manager of the baseball team next year. Last year he was secretary of the Junior class. All in all, Carl is the most popular boy.

Thousands upon thousands of people spend much money every year on preventive medicine. They want to safeguard their health so as to avoid the even greater expense of poor health.

Why not apply the same principles a step further? Of what use is good health to us if we lose our lives in accidents? We should take the same precautions to protect our lives as we do to protect our health.

Safe driving—courteous driving—doesn't cost us anything until we forget it. It can be pleasant recreation when we apply common rules of courtesy toward the other fellow.

And besides, safe driving saves lives.

LIMA CENTER EXTENSION CLUB
The Lima Center Extension club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Stierle on Thursday, Oct. 12 with an attendance of 16. The lesson, "Planning Meals from Abundant Foods," was presented in the form of a luncheon by Mrs. Floyd Fowler and Mrs. Wm. Bahnmiller. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. D. Tinker on Nov. 14 with a pot-luck dinner at noon.

SPEAKER SAYS GREATEST HOPE IS FOR ETERNAL HAPPY HOME

"The greatest hope that has ever been set before the human race is the prospect of an eternal happy home beyond this present life. Any man who has this hope within him simply cannot be a pessimist and will never debate within himself as to whether life is worth living," declared M. E. Munger, Bible lyceum lecturer last Sunday evening at the high school in an address on the subject, "What and Where is Heaven?"

Mr. Munger said in part:

"There is a deep-seated, innate desire in the human heart for a happy unending life beyond this present life, the untutored savage expects his happy hunting ground beyond this life. This present life is very short and full of disappointment and trouble. Job was right when he said, 'Man that is born of woman is of few days, and full of trouble.'"

"The gospel of Jesus Christ meets the needs of humanity by furnishing power to each one to live right in this world, and thus fitting him for an eternal home in that better world beyond this life, where all is perfection and happiness. The heaven that the Bible promises to the righteous is more than a happy condition of the mind. Jesus Christ said, 'I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto Myself, that where I am there ye may be also.'"

"The New Jerusalem as described in the 21st and 22nd chapters of Revelation is the place that Jesus has prepared as the happy home for the righteous," Mr. Munger emphasized. "The Eternal City 376 miles square is to come down to this earth from God out of Heaven and is to be the place where the Redeemed will spend eternity. This place is just as real and definite in location as New York or London," he said.

Mr. Munger will speak again at the high school next Sunday night at 7:45 on the subject, "The World's Supreme Hour—Has It Come?"

Fragmentation Bomb
The dreaded fragmentation bomb is, oddly enough, a spring that does not spring. Made of closely wound steel, it will fly into hundreds of pieces on explosion of the charge.

"But how do you know it's running?--
...I can't hear it..."

It isn't running in the sense that wheels are turning and parts are moving. That's the distinguishing feature of the SILENT SERVEL GAS REFRIGERATOR. It has no moving parts—no machinery to wear out or break down.

But the silent Servel operates steadily night and day without interruption, maintaining wholesome and appetizing temperatures for the preservation of food. The miracle of freezing is performed by the magic flame of natural gas. Householders who enjoy the service of the silent gas refrigerator report long records of continuous and satisfactory service. Even under the trying conditions of sustained hot weather, Servel stays on the job efficiently.

Many families who heard the praises of the silent gas refrigerator sung by their friends, intend to purchase a Servel as one of the first major investments after the war.

FOUR YEARS AGO, Hans WAS IN OUR SHOES

HANS is a German. Four years ago, he felt the way many of us feel today. He thought the war was as good as won.

He had reason to think so. Far more reason than we have. France was his. England was bloody after Dunkerque. The German Army seemed invincible.

But the war wasn't almost over. And now it is our armies that are on the march. It is our bombers blasting German cities. Victory is in our grasp. It's up to us to see that we don't let it slip through our fingers the way Hans did.

Most of us know that this is the military crisis of this war—the time when our fighting men must give everything they have, not once in a while but hour after hour—day after day.

But this alone is not enough. The lives of brave men are not enough. Money is needed too.

For this is the financial crisis of the war just as surely as it is the military crisis. Millions of dollars' worth of equipment is being destroyed in battle. The money to replace it must come from us, and come quickly.

If every last one of us here at home will try to match the constant, day-to-day drive of the men who fight our battles, we'll raise that money.

The way to do it is to put every cent we can possibly invest into U.S. War Bonds. Not some of us. All of us. Not once in a while during a drive, but regularly . . . every pay day.

Can we do the job that Hans couldn't do? Can we—voluntarily—keep making sacrifices when Victory seems just around the corner? The answer is up to you.

And here are 5 more reasons for buying Extra War Bonds!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children; security for you, funds for retirement.

Air in Motion
Wind is air in motion. The atmosphere would be equally dense and in a state of perpetual calm if all parts of the earth were equally heated by the sun's rays. Certain areas are heated by the sun more than others and the air there expands and blows out over cooler areas. The heavy air of the cool areas no longer is held back and rushes in to restore the equilibrium. Thus winds are formed. Their direction is considerably deflected by the rotation of the earth on its axis.

Whitest White
If you have sifted Atlantic beach sand through your fingers you may have noticed particles of jet black mixed among the white grains. They were probably titanium ore. Out of this black substance the chemist makes the whitest white used as pigment for exterior house paint.
