New V. F. W. Post Is Planned for Chelsea

Following conferences with local veterans and civic leaders in Chelsea, it was announced by George H. Gee, Deputy Chief of Staff at Large for the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, that plans are under way for the formation of a new post of the Order in Chelsea.

An organization meeting has been arranged for Friday, March 23 at 8 p.m. in Sylvan town hall. Overseas veterans of all wars, campaigns and expeditions under the American flag are urged to attend this meeting and bring their discharges. A special invitation is extended to the wives and parents of boys now overseas with the armed forces.

Mr. Gee explains that the plan for a V.F.W. post in Chelsea was inspired by several men from this area now overseas, who have already affiliated with the organization. "When these men return, they will expect to find a local chapter of the V.F.W. functioning in their home town. Following their discharge they will need the advice and assistance that an active V.F.W. post will be able to render," Mr. Gee explains, pointing out that the establishment of a local chapter will make available to the veterans of this community the services of state and national rehabilitation agencies of the organization.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. was founded in 1899, following the Spanish-American War. Its ranks include veterans of that war, as well as the Boxer Rebellion, Vera Cruz expedition, Nicaraguan and Haitian campaigns, Dominican expedition and many others, in addition to veterans of World Wars I and II. More than 500,000 veterans of the present war, from Guadalcanal to the Rhine and beyond, have already joined the V.F.W. since Pearl Harbor.

Mr. Gee, who represents the state headquarters of the organization, emphasizes that the new post will cooperate with all other local civic, fraternal and veteran organizations in the interest of the community and its veterans.

"If a sufficient number of applications for charter membership are forthcoming at this meeting," Mr. Gee stated, "it is possible that the local group may immediately convene for the election of its officers, and the selection of a suitable name for the post. It may be named for some lad from this community who has paid the supreme sacrifice. All interested citizens are invited to submit their suggestions on this subject."

Geo. Doe Is Chairman of April Clothing Drive

United National Clothing Collection will be conducted throughout the United States during the month of April, according to George Doe, who has been appointed local chairman for the drive. The goal has been set at 150 million pounds of wearable clothing of all kinds, to be sent to the needy and destitute peoples of war-devastated countries. The drive is being sponsored by United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration and various voluntary agencies for war relief overseas. Henry J. Kaiser, ship-builder and engineer, is national chairman.

Mr. Doe asks that churches, schools, clubs and other organizations assist locally in the drive. The collection center will be the police station on North Main street, where clothing may be taken any Friday afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock, starting this week and continuing through April. All kinds of clothing for adults and children is needed, including low-heeled shoes which are tied in pairs. Housecleaning time is at hand — an ideal time to sort out wearable clothing which you can spare as a contribution to this great humanitarian project.

Employment Office To Open Here This Week

Lawrence Hamberg, manager of the United States Employment Service in Ann Arbor, announces that he plans to establish an Employment Service Office in Chelsea for the benefit of the Dexter-Chelsea Area. The office will be located in the Chelsea Police Station on North Main St., and will be open Thursday of each week from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., beginning this week. "The staff assigned to this work," says Mr. Hamberg, "will be prepared to: (1) Have job openings on file and will accept new employer orders for workers; (2) Accept applications for employment; (3) Take claims for Unemployment Insurance; (4) Operate a Veterans' Placement and Counseling Service."

It is felt that employers and workers in the area have not been properly serviced, and it is hoped that the response from the employers and workers will be great enough to warrant this step. "Now that all males, age 17 and over, and some females, can be hired only upon referral by the USES, this expanded service appears necessary," says Mr. Hamberg. Telephone service will be available by calling the Police Station, 4221.

With Our Men In Service

Mrs. Theo. W. Hart received word on Saturday that her husband, Lieut. Hart, was killed in action in Germany on February 26. A message had been received a few days earlier that Lt. Hart was missing in action. Mrs. Hart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rogers, and her twin daughters have been residing in Detroit with Lt. Hart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Hart.

Pfc. Eldon Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris of Chelsea, arrived in the States on Monday, March 13, and is now in Schick General hospital, Clinton, Iowa.

Inducted into the Army on Nov. 15, 1943, Pfc. Harris received his training at Camp Wolters, Texas and at Camp Rucker, Ala. He spent two weeks at Fort George Meade, Md. before going overseas on Aug. 1, 1944, and was with Gen. Patton's Third Army in France and Belgium, where he suffered an injury to his back on October 28. Since that time he has been in several hospitals in Paris and in England.

H. D. Witherell received word Tuesday that his son, Major L. D. Witherell, had arrived at Hamilton Field, Calif. and would be sent to a hospital in the United States for treatment of wounds.

Mrs. Alwin Jedele of Saline and Mrs. Albert Fink each received a bracket from their brother, Lt. Leon E. Butler, USNR, which he made from part of a Jap Zero. Lt. Butler has been on active duty in the Pacific for 17 months.

Richard Wahl, McMM-1C, who has been aboard the YMS 406 for the past fifteen months, has been transferred to the General Motors Institute, in Flint, for instructor's training.

Called To The Colors

Willard Perry, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Perry, Lyndon township, enlisted in the Marines and left for Paris Island, South Carolina, on Tuesday, March 20.

He attended the Chelsea public school, but for the past year had been employed at Plant 2 of the Federal Screw Works. On January 27 he was married to Miss Esther Marshall of Gregory.

A Share In Kindness

From all indications Chelsea will again attain the goal set for it during this current Red Cross drive. The quota this year is $6500, which is $2000 more than last year.

Up to the present time, Mrs. A. L. Steger, local chairman, reports receipts amounting to $4056, which amount does not include $1400 in cash and pledges from the Federal Screw Works employees.

Reports have not been received from all block and institutional solicitors and several checks from factories are still outstanding, so it is hoped that these will again put Chelsea over the top.

The American Red Cross was created to ease the suffering of the wounded, to lighten the burdens of sorrowing families, and to still the homesickness of those at the front who must fight on. It is also sending blood plasma and surgical dressings to save the lives of American youth, while here at home it aids and assists families in distress.

This is YOUR Red Cross and through it you can do your share in human kindness. If you have not been solicited and wish to contribute you may do so by contacting Mrs. A. L. Steger.

Proclamation

Mohrlock, President of the Village of Chelsea, request that on Friday, March 30, in the year of Our Lord, 1945, all commercial enterprises discontinue business from twelve o'clock noon until three o'clock.

By Order of Village President,

Tax Limitation Proposal Ready for Spring Ballot

Michigan voters will decide the fate of a proposed amendment to the State Constitution, which would change the method of increasing the 15-mill tax limitation, at the regular spring election, April 2. Legislators agreed to refer the proposal to the people of the state on February 20, just in time to include the referendum on the April ballot.

The question seeks to amend the State Constitution to provide for an increase in the 15-mill limitation by a majority vote of qualified electors who own property assessed for taxes in a school district affected by such vote. A maximum of 80 mills could be levied for financing public buildings or making other capital permanent improvements. A majority vote of the taxpayers could vote to bond or create a sinking fund for a period not to exceed 15 years. The proposal, however, would not change the provision for increasing the millage for operating costs. This action would require a majority of two-thirds of the electors.

At the present time if a county, township, school district or 15-mill city wanted to raise money for the erection of buildings or public works or make capital improvements, an election within the unit for the purpose of increasing the millage above the 15-mill limitation is necessary. At this election a two-thirds majority of the voters voting in favor of the increase is necessary for increasing the limitation. The increase can be made for a five year period which limits the bonds to that period and necessitates a high tax rate during the five-year period. Under the proposal, the same procedure is necessary except the bonding period would be lengthened to 15 years, thus spreading the cost for capital improvements over a longer period of time. Also, the limitation could be raised by a majority of voting taxpayers instead of the present two-thirds majority of voters.

Resident of China Will Speak at Meth. Home

Mrs. Geraldine Townsend-Fitch, of New York and China, will be in Chelsea next week, visiting her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Fred H. Townsend, who are residents of the Methodist Home, and while here Mrs. Fitch will give an address at the Home on Friday evening, March 30, starting at seven o'clock.

Mrs. Fitch went to China in the fall of 1919 as secretary of the Epworth League, serving five years in that capacity, then marrying Dr. George A. Fitch, a secretary of the Y.M.C.A., who was born in China and is now serving at Lanchow, a thousand miles north of Chungking.

Mrs. Fitch is just concluding a six months' lecture tour under the auspices of Rotary International, taking her from Ohio through the Middle West to Texas and Arkansas, discussing the theme of "Post-War Understanding." Mrs. Fitch is an Alumna of Albion College, Phi Beta Kappa.

Dr. and Mrs. Fitch are personal friends of Generalissimo and Madame Chiang Kai-Shek and other leaders of China, and Mrs. Fitch is the only lady who has spoken before both Foreign Relations Committees of the United States Congress.

The citizens of Chelsea will be welcome to hear Mrs. Fitch, and the gathering will be thrown open for questions at the close of her address.

Local Canteen Serves Red Cross Luncheon

The regular monthly Red Cross luncheon held at the Women's Athletic Field House, Ann Arbor, on Friday, March 16, was served by the local canteen under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paul Maroney.

The purpose of these monthly meetings is to give workers an opportunity to become acquainted and to present the Red Cross program as a whole to volunteer workers. Committee chairmen are present to give reports and to answer questions regarding their services.

Local canteen workers assisting Mrs. Maroney were Mesdames Norman Schmidt, Albert Ashfal, E. W. Eaton, L. D. Fox and Wilbur Hinderer.

Services uniting in marriage Miss Donna Jean Pickell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory-Pickell of Unadilla neighborhood and Wilbur Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee, southeast of Stockbridge, were held at a candle-light ceremony in the Presbyterian church at Unadilla on Saturday evening, March 10, at 8 o'clock.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Adding another War Bond to your collection, eh, Judge?"

"Yes, Josh, I've always looked upon buying Bonds as one of the best ways older folks like me here at home can help our fighting men overseas. For the past couple of years I've put every extra cent I had into them... not only during the War Bond drives... but on a regular basis. Of course, when there's a drive on I always try to buy an extra one or two."

"We've done the same in our family, too, Judge. We figure the more we buy... the better we equip our men... the quicker they'll finish their big job and come marching home again."

"That's the spirit, Josh. And let's be sure of one more thing. Let's be sure that they come back to the same kind of place they left. While they are away and can't express their opinions, let's not make any decisions on things that are going to concern them in years to come."

PIN CHATTER

(March 14)
By Rena Johnson
R. Honeck had high series this week—she had 524. Her first game was 195. A nice game, and a swell series, Rita.
Believe me, A. Harris was in there doing her best when she started her second game with a triple, and then a spare, and she didn't miss a frame until the last one. 204 is a nice game anytime, Audie.
V. Park and N. Eisenman both had nice series—Viv had 491, and Norma had 490.
Central Fibre won their second game from Fosters by 5 pins. Fosters won the last game by 6 pins.
R. Meehan is leaving us for awhile. Hurry back, Ruth.
J. Crocker is subbing for Tiny Holmes. Hope we see you soon, Tiny.
V. Lucht and M. Hesselshwerdt were the girls jinxed to have the splits—they each had six.
D. McClear had a nice score for her second game—178.
About 28 girls attended the party. Everyone had a swell time. A head-pin bowling contest was played. R. Honeck won first prize. Musical Chairs was also played. The winners were R. Lienhart and E. Tucol. From the reports they really cleaned up a fifteen pound ham.

Bishop Gives Inspiring Address To Methodists

As the closing words of the benediction were pronounced by Bishop Raymond J. Wade at the Sunday service, the Chelsea Methodist Church reached the climax of its recent ten days of services in which the renewed church was rededicated.

Bishop Wade gave an inspiring address in which he forcefully drove home that the difficulties of our present war times afford us a great opportunity for service for Christ. Said he, "The Church will emerge from its present trouble the stronger for having struggled to overcome," and again, "The Church is now coming in the midst of trouble to be power conscious. We can do all things through Christ Jesus."

The church was filled to capacity, and the altar beautifully decorated with flowers given by friends and members of the church.

What's the "slowdown" on the Michigan war production situation?

A small group of Michigan newspaper editors met at Lansing, the other day. They conferred three hours with Detroit officials of government ordinance and war production. They wanted an answer to the above question.

The answer was not clear-cut. Generalizations would be obviously unfair. But here's some of the things the editors learned:

In a minority of cases both management and labor have been at fault. Manufacturers have been guilty of hoarding manpower. They have kept workers standing around when there wasn't enough work to keep them busy. They wanted enough men available to turn out the contracted material. They feared draft losses. So they hoarded manpower and thus invited and condoned labor inefficiency and waste.

Some manufacturers have been guilty of condoning slowdowns in production for the simple reason that their government contracts were on a cost-plus basis. The more the cost, the more the profit. The industrialists closed their eyes to the postwar consequences of labor inefficiency. They excused their do-nothing attitude on the grounds the government knew all about it.

At the same time, a minority of labor workers—both organized and unorganized—have been guilty of imposing restrictions on production.

This point is well established. It seems. In fact, one labor leader testified at Washington for the open record that his organization had been "successful" in reducing industrial productivity 5 to 10 per cent. To labor this was a triumph over management's "speed-up." It reflects the worker's distrust and fear of the machine.

Take the recent Chrysler strike in Detroit, for example. Here the worker was resisting an attempt by management to effect a "speed-up" in production chiefly through a change in the gears of a machine where the machine would produce more. Time studies had shown that increased production could be easily obtained. Workers balked, were fired. Result: A walkout.

In protest over the Detroit strike, a state legislator proposed last week that the state impose a death penalty upon war strikers. That one extreme produces another extreme.

Public indignation mounts at each strike during wartime. The walkout of members of the United Mine Workers of America in the spring of 1943 led to adoption by Congress of the Smith Connally bill over the veto of the President. The act authorized the government to seize and operate a war industry in the event of a strike. It gave the national war labor board additional power to intervene directly. "If in its opinion a labor dispute has become so serious that it may lead to substantial interference with the war effort," the board was empowered "to decide the dispute, to provide for order the wages and hours and all other terms and conditions (customarily included in collective bargaining agreements) governing the relations between the parties."

Here was an instance where public opinion, angry over wartime loss of needed production, forced Congress to extend government controls over labor.

Joe Seidman, a former field examiner for the National War Labor Board, sounds this warning in his book "Union Rights and Union Duties": "Unions cannot expect to abuse their power and still escape government regulation. Government regulation of unions, as of every other factor in economic life, will inevitably come. The labor movement is gaining too much power to hope that it can avoid permanently some degree of supervision for the common good. The danger signal should be apparent to all: Government regulation of unions!

The husband who stays home with his wife and otherwise lives a respectful life 365 days out of the year doesn't get into the newspaper columns. But let him slip, run away with a chorus girl, or something far worse, and bang—organized society intervenes in the form of a law. The result is news.

The majority of both management and labor are like the dutiful husband. It has been a minority which has gone wrong and got into the news. Actually, the British strike rate was 16 per cent higher than the American strike rate in 1944. Under the British compulsory manpower draft there was a loss of 8,500,000 man-hours last year. American industry—labor and management—has produced in an amazing fashion, and it is continuing to do so.

In January, 1944, employment was only 1 per cent above the average for 1943. And yet production was 14 per cent higher than the average for 1943—more work by fewer workers! The automotive industry, with its famed "know-out," has led all industry in this achievement. For this, Michigan citizens may be justly proud.

While strikes will always make dramatic news for newspapers, and while the stay-on-the-job worker will not get the public's attention, the labor strike isn't the basic problem in Michigan today.

Selective service is taking more war workers into the armed forces. The war production board is asking more and more production of tanks, cannons, shells and thousands of other war items.

The result: Fewer workers must produce more! That's the challenge.

Can this production be effected if labor continues to resist the elimination of wasteful restrictions on production? The army, navy and war production board leaders express doubt. Lack of labor responsibility is partly due to the newness of the labor movement in Michigan automotive centers. It also is due to failure on the part of the worker to see the inevitability of control by the government—regulations for accounting of funds, democratic elections, observance of contracts, and of high dues and closed memberships, raiding of another union's membership, jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts—if the worker does not put labor's house in order.

Conceding the worker's fear of the machine, Eric Johnson, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, recently said: "One of the main causes for work slowdown is the fear that when the job is finished there may be nothing but unemployment ahead. The prospect of continuous employment, the extension of legitimate social security, every sane and sensible scheme for unemployment insurance—these will do more to eliminate 'feather-bedding' than any amount of harsh language."

It is Johnson's observation that "the fault of organized labor in America in the main run parallel to the faults of business. The tendency to reach out for power, to take all that the traffic will bear in a given situation, to forget public interest, to overlook the long view in favor of immediate profit—which of these has not been charged against labor and capital alike, and with about equal justice."

Just as the little man has revolted against capital's concentration of economic power, a by-product of our machine age, so the little man may revolt against labor's abuse and misuse of its new economic power. Unjust and punitive anti-labor laws may be retained as a referee, not glorified to be both judge and jury, labor and management have a responsibility to conduct their own affairs on a basis of mutual respect and consideration. Self-interest then becomes public interest.

That's the "low-down" as we see it.

Girl Scouts' Birthday

(Last week's news)

The National Girl Scout organization celebrated its 33rd birthday on March 12. The first Girl Scout Troop was organized by Juliette Low, March 12, 1912, at her home in Savannah, Georgia. Mrs. Low became interested in Scouting in England, and on returning to her home in Savannah was determined to have her own country share in this movement. The first Troop was composed of eight girls. At present there are over a million Girl Scouts in the United States.

The Chelsea Girl Scout Troop was organized 12 years ago under the sponsorship of the Chelsea Child Study Club, now Chelsea Study Club. At present there are two Girl Scout Troops in Chelsea. The Brownie Troop of 24 girls between the ages of 8 and 10 years, is under the leadership of Mrs. Edmund Kayser, with Barbara Eaton and Jean McClure acting as her assistants. The Girl Scout Troop, composed of 54 girls between the ages of 10 and 18, is under the leadership of Miss Marcia Beam. This Troop is divided into five patrols with Miss Doris Ashley, Miss Marcia Beam, Mrs. Franklin Gee, Mrs. Dean Rogers and Mrs. M. Alperwitz acting as leaders for these patrols.

Every person young and old who belongs to the Girl Scout organization believes in, and tries to live up to, the ideals of the Girl Scout Promise:

On my honor I will try—
To do my duty to God and my country,
To help other people at all times,
To obey the Girl Scout Laws.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the week of March 19 has been designated as Victory Garden week in Michigan,

And Whereas, the stringent national food situation makes it more imperative than ever before that every family have a Victory Garden so that they will not lack for the right kinds of foods and health will be maintained,

And Whereas, Michigan has set a goal of more than one million Victory Gardens in 1945,

Now therefore I, Walter D. Mohrlock, president of the Village of Chelsea, do hereby call upon all of our citizens to take part in the observance of Victory Garden week by planning now to have a Victory Garden, growing sufficient foods in these gardens so that there will be not only fresh produce for the table, but a sufficient quantity to preserve and store for winter use, and by providing our own foods help to achieve Michigan's goal and do our full share in the war effort.

(Signed)

Walter D. Mohrlock.

CHANGES NOTED AT ST. MARY'S

(Parochial School Office Release)
Times have changed since the older generation poured over their school books, and nowhere is this change more apparent than in the geography classrooms of St. Mary's school.

When Mom and Pop learned their world geography, they studied from a flat map which divided the earth into two distinct hemispheres with Europe east of the United States and China to the west. The north and south poles received little attention. Such a map was suitable because we traveled by sea and that was the direction in which ships sailed.

With the advent of the airplane, however, travel changed—and ultimately so did the geography lessons. An airplane flies the shortest distance between two points on the earth's surface, over arctic ice, deserts, and jungle growth. This ability to travel over the poles has meant a great change in world distances. England is only ten hours away from New York by plane. Any place in the world can be reached in six hours.

To illustrate the change to yourself, take a globe and try to find the shortest distance from New York to Chungking. If the globe is small enough, you can place your thumb on New York and your little finger on Chungking, thereby spanning the north pole. The arc which your hand makes forms what is known as a Great Circle. A Great Circle is the shortest distance between two points on the earth's surface. Notice how much greater the distance would be by sea travel.

In order to incorporate this new concept of distance into world geography lessons, the flat map which showed the arctic regions in a distorted manner was abandoned in the Detroit Archdiocesan Parochial schools two years ago. A new map, showing the world centered around the north pole was introduced.

Looking at the new map, Europe is upward and to the left of the United States, and Tokyo is far up and slightly to the left. This presents a truer picture of distance than the old map.

"Our boy a prisoner of war"

...and the far-reaching arm of the RED CROSS brought him help"

Keep your

THERE isn't much you can do when you hear your boy is a prisoner. Parcels are restricted, mail from him is limited. Like him, you must wait, patiently, until the war is over.

Yet you do have one consolation: The far-reaching arm of the Red Cross gets supplementary food parcels to our prisoners regularly wherever possible. It brings extra clothing, cigarettes and medicines to the lonely boys "out there." It relays emergency messages to and from anxious families.

This is all part of the stupendous job the Red Cross is doing for our fighting men all over the world... and for their families at home. But it cannot be done without your support. Without your help the Red Cross could not continue to collect life-saving blood for the wounded... to send essential supplies to the prisoners of war... or to give the countless other friendly services that make a soldier's life a little easier.

These men have given a lot for you. Won't you give a few extra dollars for them?

OFFICE NEWS

The Juniors will present their annual play, "The Green Light," in the high school auditorium tomorrow evening.

The spring vacation will be from the evening of April 6 to the morning of April 16.

SPRINGTIME

Why do you think the students of CHS are staring into space and looking dreamily out the window? "Spring fever" is the answer. The sun is shining, the trees are budding, and everyone is studying "nature." Spring fever also brings gay things like peasant blouses and broomstick skirts. For the boys, alas! who knows?

Spring is the sign that "Love" is in the air. Now and then you find a couple or two strolling along under the full moon and slowly swaying trees. The warm air caresses their faces and puts a faint blush in their cheeks. That is "love" in a minor form.

Everyone has "spring fever." It's a wonderful feeling and a good sign of things.

OLD SOL THE SUN

At night the air is still and damp, The stars and moon are like a lamp; And down upon the world at night, They rule the skies and show their light.

Across the sky the moon doth stride, To view his army full of pride; Then cross the sky a star with fear, Comes to warm the moon that the sun is near.

Then comes the dawn, the mighty sun, Keeps the darkness on the run; Around the world it seems to go, To chase the dark and mighty foe.

Each dawn he comes with beams so bright, With banner high and lance upright; Each beam of light I seem to feel, His shield so bright and armor of steel.

At morn he hastens young and bright,

At noon he's strong and at his height, At eve he's old and slips away, And comes again another day.

Old Sol is bright, a tireless knight, He's life and light and quite a sight, A busy man, this warrior bold, With all these tasks and yet so old.

He carries on, no rest at all, Through summer, spring, and even fall; He fades away on winter days, And bright he is with summer rays.

Now through the space above the earth, He's traveled daily since his birth; So all these jobs are being done, By that brave knight, Old Sol the Sun.

—Duane Clark.

BATTLEFRONT DRAMA

The rain beats harsh against my cheek, Against my pale and fevered cheek; The mud has filled my sleepless eyes, 'Til war for me is muffled cries.

And yet my hands seek not my face, Nor do I hunt a safer place; My lips they part as if to speak, And then they close—alas too weak.

With one great surge of strength supreme, I raise my head—about to scream, When horror seals my lips shut tight; God grant that I won't live the night!

God grant that I won't meet the dawn With hands, and legs, and arms—all gone!

I beg of God that he will ed, My life on earth has been fulfilled.

The rain beats harsh against my cheek, Against my pale and fevered cheek; But I feel not the stinging rain, For God is here and gone is pain.

—Elaine McClear.

GRADE NEWS

Fourth Grade

By Eleanor Schmidt

Parents' Night we had 52 guests.

Miss Brown came as far as the stairs and we were glad to see her.

Maryellen Moore had the only "A" in arithmetic today.

In geography we are studying about two Chinese children, "Sumai and Loto."

It is fun to learn about their food, clothing, homes, and habits of living.

CHS. SCENES

I would like you to hear some of the funnier things that happen in our school. The other day just for fun I walked around upstairs in study hall, and in the main hall down stairs, even into the basement, into the locker rooms and shower rooms. These are a few of the things I overheard:

Giggy: "The girl I marry must have a sense of humor."

Angeline: "Don't worry, she will have."

Bev.: "You kiss divinely."

Dug.: "I'm a bugler for the Sea Scouts."

Father: "I'm sorry I brought you here, Ileen, this is hardly a place for a girl of your age."

Ileen: "Oh, that's alright, dad. It will probably live up in the last act."

Shutes: "I don't intend to marry until I'm thirty."

Schenk: "I don't intend to be thirty until I marry."

Pearson: "Do you believe kissing spreads germs?"

Luluck: "I've never been—"

Pearson: "Never been kissed?"

Luluck: "No! Never been—unhealthy."

Gross: "What do you think of bathing girls?"

Gakon: "I don't know, I've never bathed one."

Gaunt: "I say only what I know."

Pierce: "Oh, you're one of those big, strong, silent types."

Jack Wellnitz: "I wonder where all the good-looking girls are tonight?"

Nancy Loose: "Oh! Out with the good-looking boys, I suppose."

Bug: "When Pat wasn't looking, I kissed her."

Leroy: "What did she do afterwards?"

Bug: "She kept looking away the rest of the evening."

Miss Beam: "Lyle, give me a sentence with an object in it."

Lyle G.: "You are pretty."

Miss Beam: "What's the object?"

Lyle: "A good mark."

Caller: "Is your mother engaged?"

B. Barlow: "I think she is married."

Phyllis: "I made these biscuits with my own lily white hands."

Mr. Hopper: "Who helped you lift them out of the oven?"

Dale C.: "What does the word 'asbestos' mean across the top of the curtain?"

Dick S.: "Don't show your ignorance! It's Latin for 'welcome'."

I've heard a certain sophomore boy going around trying to console himself by saying, "It's better to have loved and lost, than to win and be loved." What's the matter, Jack?

In conclusion, Mr. Richards wishes me to announce that Animal Husbandry is not the study of having more than one husband at a time.

This is Flash saying, "Watch for me in coming features."

I. D. sees that the clocks are finally fixed. It's a relief. No more of this "Is it or is it ain't eight-thirty?"

C.S.C. says he's Scottish. Well, no one's perfect.

I. D. advises Mr. Carragher to find a tree to carve his true love's name in.

No one knows what happened to Mary Doats. Fewer care.

Just heard a new song:

"I want a girl just like the girl that married Harry James." My sentiments, precisely.

Rust-Remover

An old cement mixer may be a labor-saver in cleaning rusty bolts, nuts and pins accumulated in tearing up junked machines. Put a quantity of sand into the mixer along with the metal and let the machine turn half hour or more until the metal is cleaned of rust.

Red Cross Saves Many Prisoners from Starving

Without the regular food packages and the capture package furnished by the American Red Cross many American prisoners of war in Germany would have starved to death or suffered from exposure.

In several letters which Lt. Jack Dumond, R.C.A.F., wrote to his parents, Prof. and Mrs. Dwight L. Dumond, of Ann Arbor, he said that the only food they received was from the Red Cross. Lt. Dumond has been a prisoner of war since June 29, 1942, when his plane was shot down during the raid on Bremen.

"When I get back," he wrote, "the Red Cross can have the shirt off my back."

Mrs. Dumond is a member of the Washtenaw County Red Cross prisoner of war committee.

Mrs. Gustavus H. Miller, another member of the committee, has heard from her husband that "the Red Cross is doing wonderful work."

Lt. Miller received a Red Cross capture package when he was taken to his first camp for interrogation and assignment. This provided him with such articles as a heavy sweater, light-weight and heavy underwear, slippers, socks, pajamas, handkerchiefs, cigarettes, a pipe and tobacco, laundry soap, and a supply of necessary toilet articles. The case was used to carry his possessions to his permanent camp. When Lt. Miller was transferred to Staleg Luft 1, he wrote his wife that he was receiving food packages, and that "the Red Cross is doing the same good work here." Lt. Miller was a pilot on a bomber, and has been a prisoner in Germany since last July.

Lt. James T. Alling has written his mother that the quality of the food in the Red Cross prisoner of war packages is excellent, and that the prisoners are also glad to have the tin cans and the cartons in which the food is packed. Cooking utensils are made from the cans, and the cartons furnish theater seats and background for scenery in the camps.

Lt. Alling is the son of Mrs. R. B. Alling, chairman of the prisoner of war committee. He was a navigator on a bomber when forced down in enemy territory on February 8. He made his way from Frankfurt to Paris before he was captured by the Germans. In his first letter from prison camps, Lt. Alling asked his mother to support the Red Cross.

A PLAIN STATEMENT of FACTS ABOUT TIRES

From the Office of Price Administration

According to government agencies, the tire situation has reached the desperate stage. For March, only 769 new tires are available for Washtenaw County, in which 29,670 cars are registered.

Only one tire is available for every 40 cars in use. Clearly the average driver cannot hope to get one of these new tires. Even an essential driver may not be able to secure a new tire.

There is only one salvation—one sure way to keep driving—and that is by taking special care of the tires now on your wheels. Make repairs promptly. And by all means, recap in time.

At the first sign of the tread being worn smooth, recap. Further driving is dangerous and may damage the casing beyond the recapping stage. Recap—unless you want to lay your car up for the duration.

"Check Your Tire Week" is March 19 through

March 24, Recap Now---

Fast Milking

A new system of fast milking based on new knowledge of milk secretion consists of a hot application to the teats and floor of the udder of a dairy cow to prepare her for quick and thorough milking.

No illness is taken less seriously nor neglected so often as the common cold. It is strange, too, when one considers how often many serious illnesses develop directly from colds. Never overlook the fact that a cold may not only get you down but may also keep you down!

The wisest thing to do, of course, is to follow a few simple rules of health so that the body can build up the resistance necessary to ward off colds entirely. A few of them are:

1. Eat sensibly. Include plenty of milk, fresh fruits, and vegetables in your diet.
2. Get sufficient rest.
3. Keep kidneys and bowels functioning regularly.
4. Drink at least six glasses of water a day.
5. Keep your feet dry.
6. Keep away from persons with colds.

BOOST G. I. MORALE WITH GOOD LETTERS, GIRLS ARE URGED

WRITE the kind of letters that will make your G. I. Joe, service brothers, sisters, cousins, friends say "That sounds just like Jeanie!" is the advice Holly Miller gives "teen age girl readers of her column in Capper's Farmer."

"You'll be lifting morale and at the same time having yourself a good time," she declares in the nationally-circulated farm magazine.

"The trick is to write as if you were talking to the person. If he or she were there, you'd probably tell how you thought you'd die try."

ing not to laugh backstage when the villain's beard dropped off just as he raised his gun in the second act of the Junior Class play. And how he covered it by saying "That was the quickest shave I ever had."

"Put in a little slip. Give your correspondent the low-down on the latest gossip, if you will, but keep a light unmalicious touch. For a good will bonus, tuck in snapshots, clippings, cartoons.

"As to the actual letter, remember it's the only tangible evidence the receiver has of you. You'll want it to look neat and legible. Use nice paper. V-mail it if it's to go overseas. Your special G. I. Joe will probably like the faint scent obtained by sprinkling bath powder or sachet in the bottom of your stationery box."

Trays Are Trip Savers

Trays save trips from kitchen to dining room and from sink to cupboards. At the table stack dishes into glass, silverware and china groups so they can be unloaded in washing order at the sink, suggests the Home Editor of nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer.

Stuffed Baked Potato Teases Family Palate

Stuffed baked potatoes are a la mode—onions have a festive air that adds eye appeal to the dinner table and whets the family's appetite.

This recipe, prepared by Marjorie Griffin, Home Editor of the nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer, pays careful dividends.

Baked Potatoes a la Mayonnaise
4 large baking potatoes 1 egg separated
1/2 c. mayonnaise 1 tsp. salt
1/4 c. mayonnaise 1/4 tsp. pepper

Bake potatoes in hot oven (450° F) 1 hour or until done. Cut a slice from top of each and scoop out potato. Mash, add mayonnaise, egg yolk and seasonings. Refill shells. Beat egg white until stiff and heap lightly on top of each potato. Place in 350° F. oven until brown. Serves 6.

Easy Storing

Since cabbage can be stored at low temperatures for at least three months with very little loss of vitamin "C," it provides this important nutrient when other fresh vegetables are not easily obtained.

for the closing thereof shall be allowed to vote.

THE POLLS of said election will be open at 7 o'clock a. m. and will remain open until 8 o'clock p. m. of said day of election.

Red Cross War Fund Head Enlists Full Public Support

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Urging each American citizen to consider the Red Cross as his personal emissary to the particular serviceman, Colby M. Chester, chairman of the 1945 American Red Cross War Fund campaign, today asked all Americans to give to their fullest ability in support of the 1945 national goal of $200,000,000.

"Those of us who must stay at home and fight by doing our daily tasks as efficiently as possible," he said, "like to feel that though we are not beside John or Jim or Bob on the battle field, we do have a personal ambassador in each of the ten thousand Red Cross workers now serving with the troops overseas."

Opening March 1 and continuing throughout the entire month, the third Red Cross War Fund will not only fill intensified needs on advancing war fronts, but will provide needed services to those who have returned from action, their families, their buddies waiting transportation overseas, and their friends and neighbors at home in time of natural or war-caused emergency.

More than 3,000,000 volunteer solicitors stand ready to aid in local collections in every American community. Each will devote his time and effort toward reaching the goal so that men and women in military service will know the Red Cross "is staying right with them, right up to and beyond the day of peace and victory, Mr. Chester explained.

Without personal gain or remuneration, the 3,000,000 men and women volunteer canvassers will represent 3,750 Red Cross chapters throughout the nation. Seeking from door to door those contributions which will not be made through factory, office, school or theatre, each will carry an official identification card for the protection of the householder. For the most part, however, such identification will be unnecessary because the solicitor will be a neighbor or friend. To each contributor, he will give a red, white and blue window sticker bearing the well-known Red Cross emblem.

Army, Navy Leaders, Others Endorse Red Cross War Fund

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In answer to President Roosevelt's Appeal to the nation on behalf of the American Red Cross to fulfill the $200,000,000 Red Cross War Fund goal for 1945, America's foremost military and naval leaders, the press, and educational, religious, fraternal, industrial and labor groups pledged unstinting support.

Secretary of War Stimson expressed his gratitude to the Red Cross for discharging its responsibilities to the Army "with efficiency and humanity" throughout the war.

Chief of Staff General Marshall added: "The Red Cross has kept pace with the growth of the Army by enlarging its services to meet soldier needs both in this country and overseas."

Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal, citing Red Cross war contributions of blood plasma, prisoner of war food packages and civilian war aid, said, "In the blackness of war, the Red Cross stands as a beacon of mercy, of which we can all be proud. Never has money been put to better use."

Admiral Ernest J. King, commander-in-chief of the United States fleet, pointed out that "every time the Red Cross assists a man in the armed forces in any way, there can be no doubt that the humanitarian activities of the American Red Cross have a direct bearing on the outcome of the war."

Both the American Newspaper-Publishers Association and the National Editorial Association's presidents promised complete cooperation from the American press.

Among groups endorsing the War Fund are:

AMERICAN LEGION: "The Red Cross has exemplified the true, traditional spirit of American helpfulness. The approach of the postwar reconstruction period will not lessen the calls for Red Cross services."

AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR: "We are determined that the war shall be won. Let us be equally determined that the Red Cross shall be enabled and permitted to measure up to the needs of the situation and the high standard which we have set for it."

CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION: "Each one of our men

bers knows that the Red Cross is constantly at that loved one's or friend's side in his time of need."

AMERICAN FARM BUREAU FEDERATION: "Such vital Red Cross programs as home nursing, nutrition, disaster relief and other helpful activities during recent years have combined closely to identify this national organization with rural life in America. The American Farm Bureau Federation urges every member to give it wholehearted support through the organization's local chapters."

FEDERAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES: "It is obvious that the world situation at the present time will make greater demands upon Red Cross than ever before. We commend to the churches of the various communities in the United States the appeal for the American Red Cross War Fund in 1945."

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS: "American businessmen stand ready to assist in every way possible the American Red Cross in its fund raising efforts."

NATIONAL CATHOLIC WELFARE CONFERENCE: "The great worth of the American Red Cross has become more obvious as the war develops and as our fighting men testify. Gladly, therefore, we recommend every generosity on the part of the American people in the 1945 campaign."

CENTRAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN RABBIS: "The Red Cross is the most appealing philanthropic cause before the American people today. May the outstanding success of the 1945 Red Cross War Fund campaign demonstrate the spiritual calibre of the American people."

Symbolic Red Cross Emblem To Appear In Windows Again

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Once again, next month, the scarlet emblem of the American Red Cross will appear in the windows of American homes, symbolizing the financial support of the nation in supporting the manifold services of that organization to American fighting men overseas.

In every nation of the world, this red cross has long been the symbol of universal humanitarianism, both in peace and in time of war. Today it is worn by medical corpsmen of all armies and navies serving the wounded. It protects hospital tents, ships, planes and trains. Painted on each of the International Red Cross ships bearing food parcels to prisoners of war and exchanged prisoners homeward, it is a guarantee of safety from acts of war.

To the giver doing his part to fulfill the $200,000,000 goal of the American Red Cross in 1945, it represents his personal part in supplying the material things which add to the morale of the American serviceman whether hospitalized or able-bodied.

"The window sticker means more than dollars contributed to the Red Cross," Chairman Basil O'Connor declared. "It means service clubs, canteens, recreation rooms and clubmobiles for the men in war theaters."

To the American Red Cross, each window sticker is a family's request to the Red Cross to continue its responsibilities on behalf of the son in Italy, the neighbor's boy half a turn around the globe in the Philippines, and the brother fighting on the Western Front. It is the expression of faith of the American people that Red Cross will maintain the supplies of surgical dressings, blood plasma and whole blood, kit bags and comfort articles to the battlefronts. It is a vote of gratitude for the millions of food parcels reaching American men in enemy prison camps.

Opening March 1, the third American Red Cross War Fund campaign for $200,000,000—the same as last year—will continue throughout the entire month. More than 3,000,000 volunteers will distribute the familiar window emblems, conducting a house-to-house canvass to fulfill the 1945 quota. Along with the window emblem, each contributor will receive a label tab fashioned after the Red Cross flag—the flag known to all as a sign of aid and comfort.

maneuvered Shell Makers

To make the detonator of a shell, bomb or other explosive projectile, a portion of the explosive material in the center is exposed and protected only by a thin, flexible tin-fol three one-thousandths of an inch in thickness. At this particular spot the detonator is so sensitive that it can be set off with a pointed fingernail. For this reason all employees who handle detonators must have their fingernails rounded by company nurses who regularly inspect fingernails.

Attractive Table

If you have a beautiful white linen damask tablecloth, you won't need hot-house flowers to set an attractive table. Use a pair of Dresden statuettes in pastel colorings or a grouping of small glazed pottery ducks and you will be delighted with the effect. In Blair house, where official Washington entertains visiting diplomats, the handsome eighteenth century table is often set with no other decoration than a row of pewter tankards down the center.

Grows Fast

Bamboo is a rapid growing plant, reaching its full growth and height in the astonishing time of five to seven weeks after the needle-pointed sprouts come through the ground. When the culms have reached full size they begin to take on hardness and strength and continue to improve in these qualities for fully three years.
