First Anniversary Is Celebrated By Glick's

Announcement is made by John A. Glick, of Glick's Department Store, that this week marks the first anniversary of this firm in Chelsea.

Mr. Glick purchased the store from the W. P. Schenk Estate one year ago, and has steadily increased the stock of merchandise until at the present time is one of the most completely stocked stores in southern Michigan.

Major departments in the store include women's and children's ready-to-wear, men's and women's shoes, work clothing, dry goods, infants' wear, notions, etc. Mr. Glick states that he is making every effort to keep a stock of merchandise that will meet public demands, and greater quantities of merchandise will be added as it is available.

During the past two weeks Mr. Glick has replaced all old fixtures in the store with new modern and convenient display counters and fixtures which makes shopping much easier, as merchandise displays are more accessible to the customer in their neat arrangements throughout the store.

Further additions and improvements are planned by Mr. Glick as soon as wartime restrictions are removed.

Preliminary War Loan Work Started By Doe

Although the Seventh War Loan Drive doesn't start until May 14, the Payroll Savings Plan, which emphasizes additional purchases of bonds through payroll deductions, has already started, according to George Doe, Chelsea War Bond chairman.

Mr. Doe states that material has been distributed to all local factories for this campaign among workers. All payroll buying during the months of April, May and June will be credited to the Seventh War Loan quota, which has been increased from the 6th War Loan quota of $75,000 in E bonds to $120,000 for the forthcoming drive, according to Doe.

The "Mighty Seventh," which officially opens on May 14, will continue until June 30, with special emphasis on the sale of E bonds to individuals.

With Our Men In Service

Mr. and Mrs. Tibor Kiss recently received the certificate of "Award of the Bronze Star Medal Citation" received by their son, Pfc. Adrian T. Kiss. The citation reads: Pfc. Kiss, "Private First Class Adrian T. Kiss, 36177228, 117th Infantry Regiment, United States Army, is awarded the Bronze Star for heroic achievement and service from 18 June 1944 to 31 December 1944, in France, Belgium, Holland, and Germany. Private Kiss distinguished himself by outstanding performance of duty as a cannoneer. In the face of all handicaps and in spite of extremely heavy enemy fire, he has successfully accomplished an outstanding mission many hazardous missions. His coolness under fire and devotion to duty have earned him the confidence and admiration of his associates and have contributed to the combat achievements of his unit. Entered military service from Michigan."

(Signed)

L. S. Hobbs,
Major General, U. S. Army,
Commanding.

With the American Division in the Philippines—Pfc. John Davison, 7760 32nd street, Dexter, Mich., and fellow members of one veteran infantry regiment, now in positions facing possible Jap night attacks, have worked out a mutually profitable agreement with Filipinos living in huts that stand in the line of fire.

At the first sign of trouble, a gunner opens with a burst in the air. All the natives roll out of their bunks, fall through trap doors in the floors into silt trenches under the shafts.

In order to protect their prized carabao, the Filipinos have dug deep one-cow silt trenches into which the beasts are lead each night.

This is the first time in three campaigns that Pfc. Davison's outfit, a service company composed almost entirely of specialized personnel, has manned front-line positions. Everybody takes his turn standing guard on the perimeter at night while carrying on with his regular job in the daytime.

Mrs. Monty Davison of Chelsea recently received the following letter from her son, Pfc. Davison:

Some Where in the Philippines. March 11, 1945.

Dear Mom:

I guess it is about time for me to write to you again, I try to write every week, but sometimes it is a little longer, the days seem to go so fast.

County Medical Society Will Sponsor Clinics

The Washtenaw County Medical Society will sponsor another series of immunization clinics throughout the county starting April 9. Vaccinations for smallpox, immunization for diphtheria and schick tests for diphtheria will be given free of charge as another contribution of the local physicians to the war effort and the health of this county. The County Health Department will assist in the program.

Health authorities are concerned about a sharp increase in the number of cases of diphtheria in the state in the past year. This increase has been particularly evident in children of school age. There were 499 cases of diphtheria reported in Michigan in 1944. In the first two months of 1945, there have been almost twice as many cases as were reported in the first two months of 1944. Local physicians feel that epidemics of serious proportions can be avoided in this county if enough of the children can be immunized or tested.

Parents with children from nine months of age to school age who have not been immunized by their physicians, should take their children to the most convenient of the clinics listed in the schedule below. School age children will be handled through the schools as follows: Those up to and including 10 years of age, will be given toxoid for diphtheria if they haven't had any in the last three years. Children over 10 years, will either be tested or will get the serum, depending upon their individual needs. Children of all ages who have not been successfully vaccinated for smallpox in the last five years will be vaccinated. Local physicians will do the work in the clinics.

The clinic schedule for Chelsea and surrounding territory is as follows: Tuesday, April 10, Manchester, 9:00 a. m.; Wednesday, April 18, Dexter, 9:00 a. m.; Thursday, April 19, Chelsea, 9:00 a. m.

This year fewer clinics are being held. Parents may be asked to transport township school children to the village or larger schools where clinics are scheduled.

All times are Eastern War Time.

Employment Office To Change Hours Here

Starting April 12, the Chelsea Branch of the U. S. Employment Service will be open on Thursday morning from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, offering full service to residents in this vicinity. For the past two weeks the office has been operating on Thursday afternoons, but because of the business establishments being closed, Mr. Hamberg, manager of the USES, believes that the new office hours will be more convenient for the residents of Chelsea and Dexter and vicinity.

The office is located in the Chelsea police station on N. Main St. and telephone service will be available by calling 4191.

MEMORIAL FOR PFC. WOOLLEY

Memorial services for Pfc. Wm. J. Woolley, who died in France on March 10, will be held at the 2nd U. B. Church, Waterloo, on Sunday afternoon, April 8, at 2:30, slow time.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"That's news to me, Judge. From the way some people talk you would think it was at least 50%."

"No, Clem, there's the statement right here in the paper...from authorities who have made an exhaustive study of the subject. Only about 5% of the people who drink occasionally abuse the privilege... 95% drink sensibly."

"No wonder you say it wouldn't be fair to take the privilege away from the other 95%, Judge. I agree with you."

"I can't see it any other way, Clem. No more than I could see taking automobiles away from everybody because a few drive recklessly and have accidents. Or preventing the making or sale of cake or doughnuts because some folks eat too much and get indigestion."

"In the case of spirit beverages, the answer is one of education and better control."

"As a matter of fact, the responsible members of that industry are working constantly toward that end. They don't want folks to abuse the use of their product any more than we do."

Men In Service

and two letters was all I had time for after eating and taking a shower, we don't have any lights at night yet, but will have as soon as we can get our plant in working order.

For the past week I have wanted to go to see one of the fellows I met that is in the hospital, but I just don't get started.

Tonight I am on guard duty for four hours so I won't be going any place, only to bed and get a little sleep before my shift. That is one job I sure don't like, but it has to be done. I just take it and like it.

I suppose you will be glad when the weather warms up a little, but it doesn't have to warm up here. It is that way all the time, has been very warm the last few days, but we don't get so much rain where we are now and it is always cool at night.

The people here are now putting in their crops of corn and rice. I had a talk with a fellow the other day and asked some questions about things like that. He told me they could harvest the same crops three times a year, if necessary, so after they get started again they should not have to go hungry.

Our eats were not very good at first but have improved considerably, but we should not complain after seeing how the people here have to live. I wish the folks in the States could see things as they really are, maybe they would realize there is a war on.

We are getting cigarettes again and I just bought some bananas from a native girl. They sure taste good when they ripen on the tree, they are not too plentiful yet, but will be a little later on.

I have noticed the folks dress better than they did when we first came here. I think they had clothes hidden and are starting to bring them out now that they feel a little safer. I guess they had rather a tough time of it before the Army came in. We have a boy that stays around the tent all the time. He is only 11 years old, but he sure likes to work. Every morning while we are at breakfast he makes our beds, polishes our shoes and rifles and keeps our tent clean all the time. He talks English quite well so comes in handy to interpret for us. The natives do our laundry real cheap and are always around trying to sell or trade us something.

By the news we hear from Germany it should not be long before that part of the war is over, but I think it is a long way from being the end here.

We are very busy keeping these trucks on the road, but the harder I work the faster the time seems to go.

By the looks of things I will spend my 35th birthday in the Philippines, but sure hope I can be at home for the next one.

I have not had any letters for a few days now but hope there will be some tomorrow. Will have to close now for this time.

Love, John.

With U. S. Supply Forces in France. An Engineer soldier is one of the Army's most versatile men, as was proven recently by Pfc. Norman Niehaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Niehaus of Chelsea.

When a French farmer was plowing his field for the spring planting, an ant-tank mine was detonated, killing the horses and wrecking the plow.

Although he is listed as a mason and construction worker on the organizational chart of the 872nd Engineer General Service Regiment, Pfc. Niehaus had received thorough training in mine detection and clearance.

Volunteering with another man, he cleared a path through the mine field, enabling the farmer to remove the dead horses and the wrecked plow.

Pfc. Niehaus was employed by the Chelsea Spring Company before his induction at Camp Grant, Illinois, on January 7, 1943. He received his basic training at Camp Claiborne, La., and has been overseas since August 21, 1943.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hale received the following letter from their son, PFC Joe Hale, who fought in the battle of Iwo Jima:

Iwo Jima, March 26, 1945.

Dear Hales,
Well, good people, I came through the battle with no more than a cut finger which I inflicted upon myself with my own knife. I did manage to get hit in the back with a hot piece of shrapnel, but all its power was gone and it just bounced off, leaving no more than a slight bruise. It's about six inches long. It hit flat. I'm saving it for a souvenir. I display it to the boys and brag that it would have killed an ordinary man.

Being a runner I spent most of my time at the front with the infantry (28th Marines). They and the 13th Marines took Mt. Suribachi. The first few days it was all mortars and snipers, with a rocket thrown in now and then. We sure took a pounding.

My chief occupation during the last few weeks has been saying prayers and digging holes. I have mastered the art of digging with my hands and feet, and if only my teeth were longer! You can dig a hole that cramps you to death, until the mortars start falling and then you and your buddy find that it's bigger than a barn.

The mortars were my greatest fear and don't let anyone tell you that the Japs don't know how to use them. They can drop them right into your back pocket.

A lot of things that happened to us seem funny now. We all sat around a fire the other night and really let our "hair down." We talked it all out and boy I laughed and laughed for about an hour. About the funniest thing I heard was about a colored army "duck" driver. He was in a hole on the beach and the mortars were hitting everywhere and when a Marine jumped into his hole he said, "Get outa here, boy, them Japs ain't after us—they're after you Marines."

I guess the funniest thing I did happened on the third or fourth night up by Mobyama airfield No. 1. I was carrying a box of ammunition when a sniper opened up. I dived for the nearest hole. The sniper missed a mile but I almost broke my neck when the hole turned out to be a bomb crater about 15 feet deep.

The rest of the stuff isn't funny but I guess you know all about that from the newspapers. The nights were filled with snipers and mortar and they dragged by like years. I heard one boy say, "When this is over and if I'm still here I think I'll just sit down and bawl." The morning after our first air raid I opened a letter from Gertrude and the first paper I pulled out was instructions on "What to do in an Air Raid."

I picked up a few souvenirs—rifle, flag, knife, bayonet, money, canteen, etc.

Well, good people, you don't have to worry anymore.

Love—Bud.

First Lt. Eugene Czaplak and friend, Capt. Robert Lipscomb of Marana Field, Tucson, Ariz., arrived last week Tuesday to spend 10 days leave with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Czaplak, of Sylvan township. En route home they visited T-Sgt. Glenn Harshbarger at Scott Field, St. Louis, Mo. Following the furlough Lt. Czaplak and Capt. Lipscomb will report to Napier Field, Dothan, Ala., from where Lt. Czaplak received his wings. These two young flyers have both been in active service overseas. The former was a pilot on the Mustang, while Capt. Lipscomb flew a Thunderbolt.

Heavy Winter Kill of Game Fish Is Reported

Lansing—Heavy winter kill of fish is known to have occurred in from 60 to 70 shallow-bottomed downstate lakes, according to the conservation department whose institute for fisheries research is checking losses of game species.

Lakes where largest losses of fish are reported are the same lakes that suffered heaviest losses in the winter of 1935-36 when similar ice and snow conditions resulted in severe winter kill of fish.

Farmers living near lakes where winter kill occurred have hurried to salvage dead fish washed up on shores for use as fertilizer and in some instances have hauled fish away before institute crews could check game species that were destroyed.

The department's fish division has announced that it will replace game species in lakes where winter kill was excessive. The fish died when heavy snow on top of ice shut off the sun's rays and stopped nature's processes of oxygen production in lake waters.

Here are some late available statistics on the traffic toll for 1944.

Accidents killed 94,000 persons in the United States in 1944, the National Safety Council reports—a reduction of 5 per cent from the official 1943 total of 99,038. The 1944 motor vehicle death toll was 23,800. This total is estimated from preliminary reports by state traffic authorities. It is practically identical with the official 1943 total of 23,826 recently announced by the U. S. Bureau of the Census.

Workers going to and from work who were killed in automobile accidents last year reached a total of 12,700. We plead again that workers be careful in getting to and from the job, that they guard their health, not only as life "preservers," but also because their help is vitally needed during these war days.

OFFICE NEWS

School will be closed tomorrow at 3:30 and will be closed until April 16, for spring vacation.

The juniors are sponsoring an All-Hi party tomorrow night.
The Young People's League of St. Paul's church will present a play in the gym on Friday, April 13.

ASSEMBLY

On March 12, the students of Chelsea High were assembled together to hear Mr. Donald Campbell, who gave a talk on sight conservation.

Mr. Campbell was born blind and did not see until he was 18, when his eyes were operated on.

During his blindness Mr. Campbell never studied Braille, but went to a public school. He got his lessons by memorizing them after they had been read aloud by someone. Since that time, he has spoken in many schools and defense plants.

After his very interesting talk was over the students asked questions.

SPRING ELECTION

Young people and their organizations are frequently criticized for irresponsible behavior, lack of forethought, lack of responsibility. The brutal truth is that in these attitudes and activities they often emulate their older associates and relatives.

A case in point was last Monday's election. Because of issues involved, and because spring election is particularly free from partisan politics as generally understood, the local high school undertook the project of stimulating some interest in an otherwise "dull" election.

Information regarding it was almost impossible to obtain. Sample ballots, though requested well in advance, were unobtainable, even on Thursday, the last full school day preceding election. Jackson, Ann Arbor, Detroit dailies carried neither sample ballots, lists of offices to be filled, candidates or platforms, nor discussions of issues to be referred to the people. The Chelsea Standard carried as much election information as the metropolitan dailies, and should be congratulated for that.

How are young people expected to interest themselves in current affairs when adult interest is so low that responsible agencies fail to perform their civic responsibilities?

FINALS

As the breeze slides in through the open window, it whips the pages of my history book back. Ah, yes, all this I could have learned, but did I? Well, perhaps at the time, but now I don't recognize some of the names or dates. Could this failing of my memory be true in all my studies? Picking up my other books I began to look through them. Yes, I had forgotten nearly everything.

Much to my surprise it didn't bother me in the least; there is always last minute cramming. Besides, it is "Spring" now. Plans for last minute cramming brought back memories of last year's finals, memories of the unnecessary headaches, worries, and sleepless nights.

Thinking back on this I decided my attention must be put on my studies instead of on spring, on the reception and the many events coming up. These events will not be improved by my worrying, but the finals will be made easier by my studying.

BASEBALL

Lard and Giggy Baseball practice opened Monday with a large turnout of boys seeking positions on the varsity nine. Coach Cameron has five lettermen returning from last year's squad. They are Bob Daniels, Ray Kniekerbocker, Jim Gaken, Bug Slane, and Tom Smith. Other candidates are Stanley Weir, Loren Munro, Doug Vogel, Jim Miller, Jim Carragher, John Wellnitz, Don Baldwin, Milton Stoffer, Dale Collins, Bob Shanahan, Jerome Burg, Bob Breitenwischer, Eldean Eisele, Milton French and Don Eder. The season will open April 19, but the opposition is uncertain. The boys are hoping for a successful season, and to "beat" Milan is their goal.

ATHLETIC BOARD

The Athletic Board has decided to build a refreshment stand on the athletic field. The Board also discussed several bills.

VICTORY GARDENS

Again this year the government is asking every American family that can do so, to raise a victory garden. There are some very good reasons for raising them, too.

This year, Europe alone will need 50 per cent of the U. S. food supply because: (1) European armies are fighting in food-producing areas, thus making it impossible to grow food, and (2) the wrecked transportation facilities create areas of pitiful need. Also, the worst drought in years is now in progress in Australia, South Africa and South America, so we will have to help support them, too. In Asia, Japan holds almost all of the food producing sections. If we don't supply the different countries with food, they will not be so friendly to U. S. after they get back on their feet.

The Chelsea Victory Garden Committee is again offering prizes for Victory Gardens this year, and if you have no land, the F.F.A. is offering plots of ground for rent for this use. Remember, France ate better under Nazi occupation than it is under ours. Let's not keep it that way!

G.A.A.

The final game of the class tournaments was played after school Tuesday, March 27. The Juniors and the Seniors played a very hard-fought game. At the end of the first quarter it was 4-0 in favor of the Seniors. By half-time the Juniors gained a little ground and the score stood 6-4 for the Seniors. But the last half was clearly the Juniors' game, as they held the Seniors scoreless and collected 9 points for themselves. The final score was 13-6.

The final order of the class-tournaments is this:
1st place—Juniors
2nd place—Seniors
3rd place—Sophes
4th place—Freshmen
The members of the G.A.A. will start playing softball next meeting day, if the weather permits.

The girls in the 8th grade played a challenge game with the 8th graders the 26th of March. It was a very spirited game, with the 8th grade out on top by a score of 19-7.

ONE ALONE

By Charles Slane

The stars above are shining bright,
As I lie here this lonely night;
All night long I think of you—
Remembering what we used to do.

Walking down the lane together,
Seldom talking 'bout the weather;
Now I wander there alone,
Praying that you'll soon be home.

In my dreams our strolls I keep,
Watching waves as they would creep
Along the shore, then disappear—
Just as you have left me here.

My thoughts now turn to that time
When we shall gaze up at the moon;
When we shall walk the lonely lane,
When I shall see you once again.

THE LILY

By Neil Beach

The dark brown bulb was planted in fall.

Deep in the earth, beside the wall;
And in the time before the snow,
The roots of the bulb began to grow.

Then through the dark long winter days,
Those little roots lay in a haze;

Across the drifts, when the wind did blow,
There formed what would seem like
Tongues—of snow.

In the very early spring,
When the robins began to sing,
The roots began to grow once more
And the green peeked up through Nature's floor.

That little plant, it did augment
And grew so tall and never bent;
Then in the middle there did appear
A tiny bud so green and clear.

The tiny bud began to expand,
And taller and taller did it stand;
Until along about Easter time
That bud blossomed forth in panto-

mine.
While that blossom came forth so very white,
Across the world the boys did fight
For the soil on which that lily grew,
And in grave times they could see its hue.

HOW WE DID IN '44

MICHIGAN BELL REPORTS MORE BUSINESS—LESS PROFIT

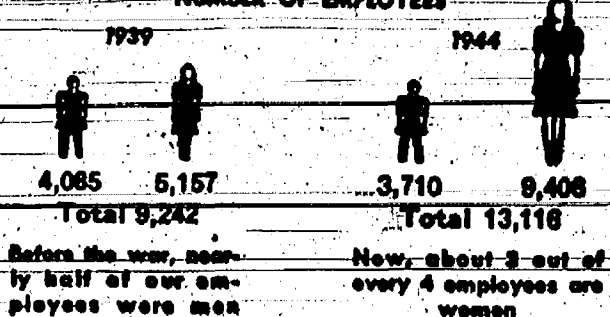

With Michigan's mines and farms, factories and shipyards, delivering more and more war goods, the use of our services in 1944 was greater than ever. All essential telephone needs were met. We served more people than ever, and generally we served them well.

However, despite our best efforts, an increasing number of applicants waited for telephones to be installed. And some long distance calls were delayed. On the financial side, earnings continued to be lower than before the war. Our primary aim was, and is, to do everything possible to hasten victory.

(COMPARISONS BELOW ARE FOR 1939, EUROPE'S FIRST WAR YEAR, AND 1944, OUR THIRD WAR YEAR)

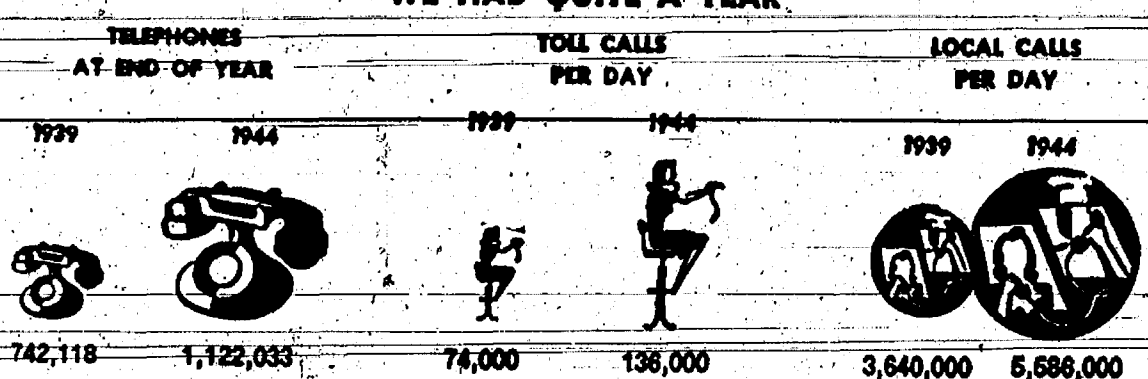

WE THE PEOPLE OF MICHIGAN BELL

NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES

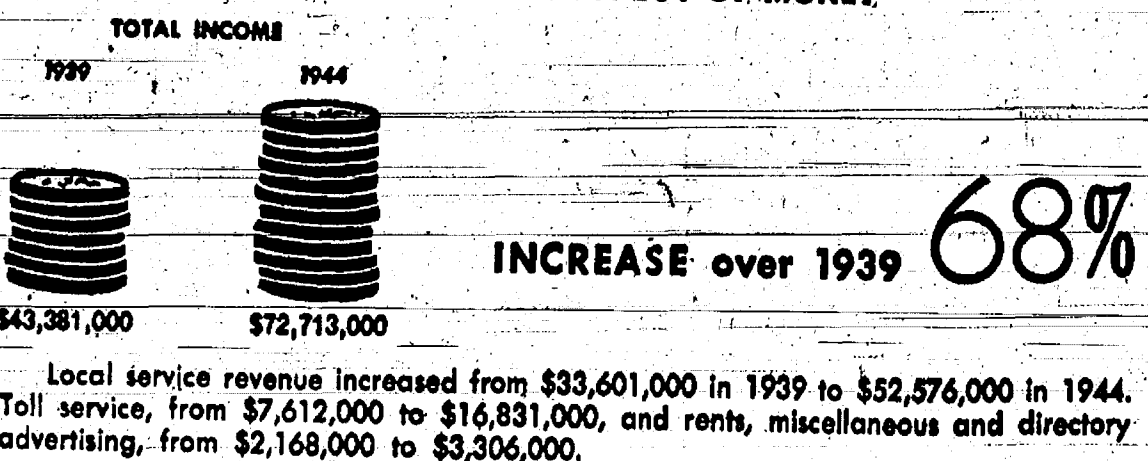

At the end of 1944 we had more than 7 men in uniform for every 10 still on company jobs. In 1941, there were 278 Michigan Bell men in uniform, in 1942—1,757, in 1943—2,595 and in 1944—2,715. And 97 women were in the Services at the end of 1944.

WE HAD QUITE A YEAR

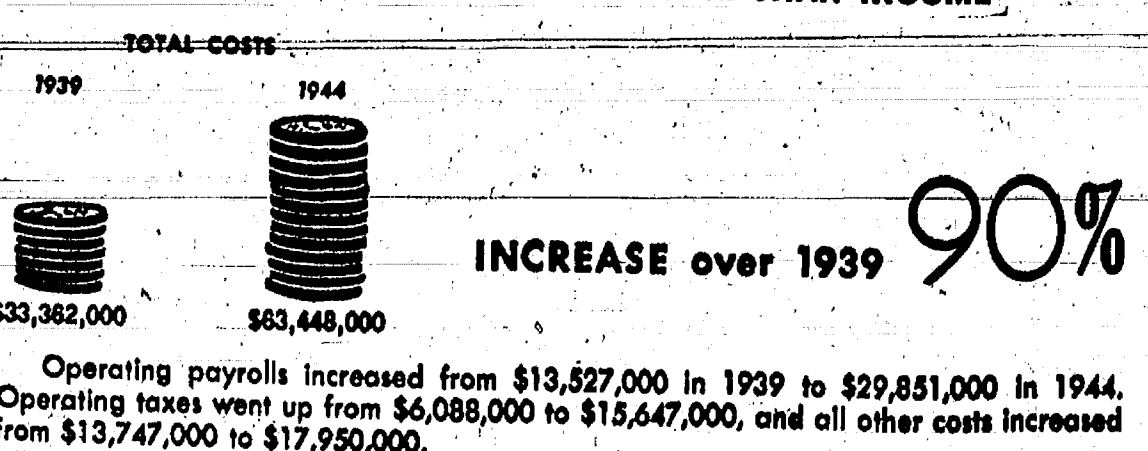

Investment in buildings, wires, central office and other plant equipment was $192,731,000 at the end of 1939. At the end of 1944 it was $243,383,000—an increase of 26%. But the record-breaking volume of business loaded the system to capacity.

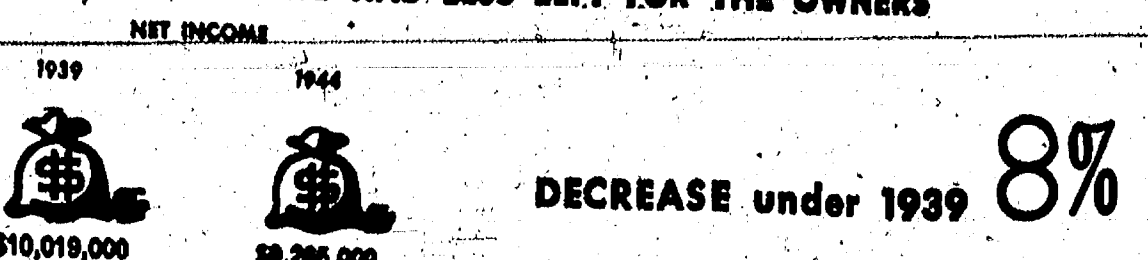

—AND WE TOOK IN A LOT OF MONEY

—BUT OUR COSTS WENT UP FASTER THAN INCOME

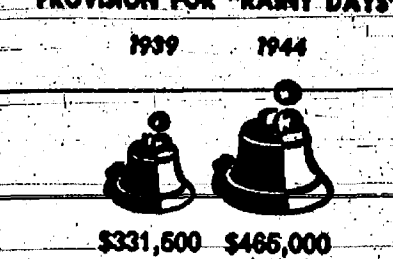

—SO WE HAD LESS LEFT FOR THE OWNERS

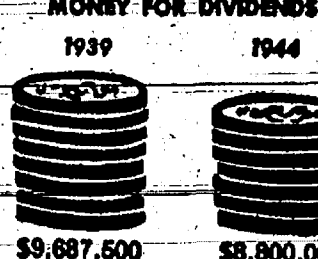

OUT OF NET INCOME CAME

PROVISION FOR "RISKY DAYS"

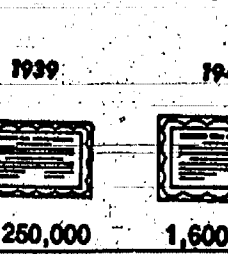

MONEY FOR DIVIDENDS

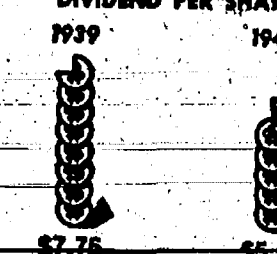

—SO WE PAID LOWER DIVIDENDS TO STOCKHOLDERS

SHARES OF STOCK

DIVIDEND PER SHARE

Money available for dividends had to be divided among 350,000 more shares of stock, sold since 1939 to pay for plant expansion.

WE GAVE PRETTY GOOD SERVICE

Except that we could not install telephones for all who applied, we gave reasonably good service. Almost nine out of ten long distance connections were completed while customers remained on the line. Most telephones were trouble-free all year and 95% of all cases of trouble were fixed the day reported.

—AND WE SCRAPED THE BARREL TO SERVE AS MANY AS POSSIBLE

In the 5 years since war broke out in Europe, we added as many telephones as in the previous 18 years. This used up virtually all our spare facilities. Because of war shortages, we could not begin to get all the things we needed. Old switchboards, instruments and wire were pressed back into use to provide service for as many as possible.

—BUT WE DIDN'T HAVE ENOUGH TO GO AROUND

Despite our best efforts, 7 out of every 100 long distance calls were delayed in 1944 by shortage of lines. And at the end of the year, nearly 98,000 applications for service were held for facilities. All essential orders were filled promptly. The other orders we could fill were installed under a government priority plan, as present users gave up service. It takes more than telephones to remedy the situation. We need buildings, wire, cable, switchboards, and time to install them.

—SO WE'RE GOING TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT

The only relief from our present situation is a general enlargement of our telephone system. Assuming good business conditions will prevail for several years following the reconversion period, we foresee a construction program costing as much as $120,000,000 in the first five years after the war.

Such a program would enable us to clear up our backlog of orders . . . to keep pace with increasing needs . . . to resume conversion of manually operated offices to dial operation . . . to resume the extension of rural service . . . and to assure the people of Michigan the benefits of the latest technical developments in communication. This program will mean jobs for our returning veterans and for many others as well.

—AND WE'LL NEED MONEY FROM INVESTORS

In obtaining the large amounts of money needed for expansion, we rely on the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to sell its securities to investors country-wide. Attractiveness of A. T. & T. securities depends on Bell System earnings, so in the Current System's earnings rate is one-third lower than the average of other industries, and Michigan Bell's is still less—about half that of other industries.

The furnishing of good telephone service depends on earnings sufficient to pay a fair return on the money invested in the business. Any whittling of already inadequate earnings would further weaken our ability to meet expected postwar needs of Michigan.

P. Wedemeyer had high series this week. She had an even 500, which is a swell series any old time.

M. Jarvis was next high with 498. That last game was a beauty. It could have easily been over 200, but Millie got a split so she ended with 198.

A. McClell had a swell last game of 202—she had a good series with 471. She also picked up the 5-7 split; high series on her team.

L. Allhouse had a nice last game of 185 and she had high series on her team, with 482.

The Chelsea Milling and Fibre teams had their games postponed.

R. Honeck picked the 5-8-10; D. Eisenman the 5-6-10; A. Harris the 4-5-7. H. Dvorak also picked up a split, but which one, the slip didn't show.

L. Riihimaki, high series, Independents, 456; J. May, Old Maids, 441; D. Leach, CIO, 447; E. Tucci, Five Crown, 462.

Those doomed with splits were K. Karp, 7; H. Sprague, 7; G. Klump, 7. Too bad, girls.

Starting this Friday, April 6, we bowl. Then the 11-13th; the 18-20th; 25-27th; so we will bowl twice a week—Wednesdays and Fridays. We will be all finished the 27th. Look at the new schedule in the bowling alley.

NOTICE

The Freedom Emanuel Cemetery Association annual meeting will be held on Friday evening, April 6 at the home of Theo. Kuhl.

The Hi-Light

Easter greeting on Easter Day! Hope you like the eggs, And by the way—

If you boil mine, boil them true, Try to color them red, white and blue. Sixth Grade!

By Mary Joan Pope

This week we had the same officers as last week. We made chickens and rabbits for Easter.

There was no school Friday afternoon so the girls played the boys at recess in baseball.

Last Monday, April 2, 1945, the Safety Patrol boys had their pictures taken for the annual.

Seventh Grade

Making strenuous efforts, grade seven last week succeeded in getting 80 per cent of its membership to buy $26.15 worth of stamps. The group has been working on percentage of purchases, and is very proud of its achievement.

Our assistant secretary is Phyllis Stoll. We apologize for mistakenly reporting another name last week.
