Fiftieth Anniversary Is Observed By Ladies' Aid

In observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the Ladies' Aid Society of Zion Lutheran church, Rogers Corners, appropriate services were held Sunday at the church during the regular morning services, with special music by the choir, and a sermon delivered by Rev. M. Schleicher, superintendent of Mercy Home, Williston, Ohio.

At noon a chicken dinner was served in the Chelsea high school auditorium to 210, including members and their families. Former members from Blissfield, Riggs, Ann Arbor, Toledo and Chelsea were also guests at the occasion.

At the afternoon program, Rev. Schleicher was again the guest speaker. Special music included a duet by Arlene and Wilma Koenigster and a solo by Erna Brueckner. Rev. M. W. Brueckner, pastor of the church, read a history of the organization.

The society was founded during the winter of 1895, under the leadership of Rev. H. Lemster, pastor, and began with a membership of 53, six of whom are still living. These charter members are Magdalene Schneider, Maria Eisemann Kaufman, Christine Schiller, Amelia Eisemann Horning, Adeline Eschelbach and Emma Kline. The latter three attended the Sunday celebration.

First officers chosen were: President, Salome Grieb; secretary, Magdalene Schneider; treasurer, Maria Kaufman.

Present membership of the group is 60, with the following ladies acting as officers: President, Mrs. Harold Eschelbach; secretary, Mrs. Alton Gray; treasurer, Laura Koenigster.

Walter Haab, president of the Brotherhood of the church, presented the Ladies' Aid with a gift of $50.00 in commemoration of the occasion, which was accepted by Mrs. Harold Eschelbach, president.

The Ladies' Aid has always been a very active organization of the church and is to be commended for its fine spirit of cooperation in all church activities.

Increase 2nd Quarter Dairy Feed Payments

Dairy farmers in Washtenaw county will receive increased dairy production payments beginning July 1, when the summer schedule of rates becomes effective. These government payments, designed to encourage production of milk and butterfat, are adjusted quarterly.

The new rates for this county for production in July, August, and September will be 45 cents per hundredweight for milk, and 13 cents a pound for butterfat, according to Harry M. Cole, secretary of Washtenaw county A. A. committee. The rates for May and June are 25 cents for milk and 10 cents for butterfat and the rates for April are 40 cents for milk and 17 cents for butterfat.

"Dairy farmers here are making every effort to increase milk production. Higher payments during the next three months will help offset the extra feed bills when pastures brown off during the summer and more commercial feed and hay have to be fed to keep up milk yield," Mr. Cole says.

The dairy production payments, initiated in the fall of 1943, have helped farmers to push milk output to a record-breaking height to meet wartime need without breaking the barriers against inflation.

Applications for payments on milk and butterfat production during April, May and June should be filed at the county AAA office as soon as possible after June 30, and not later than August 15, 1945. Checks are issued shortly after applications are filed.

With Our Men In Service

"Jerry" Dorer, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Dorer, sent the following communication to The Standard, July 10, 1945, Pacific.

Dear Sirs: Here are some news clippings that have been released by the Navy. They are items of my ship, of which I am very proud.

The "Standard" is sent to me out here, but as it comes second class, I receive it just now and then; but I enjoy it very much—read it from cover to cover, including the ads.

You may add that the "Murray" was the first ship (Navy) to sight the home islands of Japan in World War II, and it was quite a thrill too. We also had a time with the weather there.

So long for now, and keep the Standard coming!

Jerry Dorer.
Contents of the clippings follow, in part:

Aboard the Destroyer U.S.S. Murray, in the Pacific—When this destroyer observed her second "birthday" recently she already had taken part in more than a dozen major naval engagements in Pacific waters.

The most recent Japanese plane shot down by the Murray marked the ninth enemy aircraft which the gallant ship has brought down since she entered the Naval war in the Pacific. In addition, the Murray has rescued eight American pilots forced down at sea.

Campaigns participated in by the Murray included Wake Island, Bougainville, Tarawa, Kwajalein, Guam, Iwo Jima, etc.

EXTRA! EXTRA!
Saturday, July 7, 1945.
Guam: In an act of mercy unique in the Pacific war the U.S. Navy permitted a Japanese hospital ship to remove nine hundred seventy four sick and wounded Japanese sailors from Wake Island on Independence Day. Fleet Admiral Nimitz disclosed the incident Friday. It was another chapter in the drama which has surrounded Wake Island since it fell to the Japs Dec. 24, 1941 after a gallant little Marine garrison had exacted a high cost from the overwhelming enemy force that

Judges Are Named For Victory Garden Contest

The Victory Garden Contest judges this summer will again be Miss Nina Greening and Miss Margaret Grant. Both are teachers in the Detroit public schools, who spend their summers at their lake cottages near Chelsea.

The first garden inspections will be made during the week of July 23. Factors to be noted at this time are:

1. Garden plan.
2. Varieties.
3. Soil preparations and culture.
4. Weed, insect and disease control.

This year more of the prize money will be awarded to the younger gardeners. There are many more entries this year, including most of those who took part last summer.

Marshall Richards, Chairman Chelsea Victory Garden Committee.

DON'T FORGET
Jerry Edwards and his orchestra will be at the Chelsea high school this Friday, July 20. Admission 70c.

We want to thank Rev. Major and T. Lyons, R. Lyons, A. Merkel, and Pat Burg for chaperoning the dance and entertainment last Friday. adv.

Tin Shortage May Hit Reconversion Program

Lansing—Disclosing that the nation's stockpile of tin has been depleted 70 per cent since Pearl Harbor and that not only current war demands for the metal are greater than in 1944, but reconversion will be seriously handicapped unless its requirements are met, the War Production Board has called upon the Michigan Office of Civilian Defense for immediate intensification of tin can salvage.

"The problem is two-fold," said Everett C. Swanson, Regional Manager of the Conservation and Salvage Division of WPB. "First, we must provide adequate amounts of tin for war needs, and second, we must provide tin to assure prompt reconversion of the automotive and other industries in order to facilitate re-employment."

Upon receiving the urgent request of WPB, E. J. Anderson, chairman of the State Salvage Committee of MOCD, said:

"This is the first time the Civilian Defense volunteer salvage workers of the State and our citizens can contribute both to war purposes and their future civilian economy. I know that our citizens will also consider tin salvage to expedite reconversion as a patriotic duty, just as has been and is our obligation to save tin cans for war purposes. With tin requirements for war having priority and with the necessity for providing additional amounts of this metal in order not to delay reconversion, Michigan citizens have every reason to save all the tin cans possible."

The WPB revealed for the first time that only 30 per cent remains of the stockpile of tin that had been accumulated for a period of 18 months previous to Pearl Harbor. Swanson also indicated that the tin crisis will continue for some time even if the Japs surrender this year. If the war ends in 1945, he said, imports from territory now controlled by the Japanese and which formerly yielded 50 per cent of our tin supply, will be only 6,000 tons by the spring of 1947, and only 12,000 tons in the following year.

Icenogles Observe 50th Wedding Anniversary

A joint celebration was held on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Icenogle at their farm home west of Chelsea, commemorating their fiftieth wedding anniversary, also Mrs. Icenogle's birthday.

Their three sons, Ray, William and Albert, and families, and two daughters, Mrs. A. Williamson and Mrs. Clifford Mize, with their families, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carl Icenogle, all of Detroit, were present. A son, S. Sgt. Carl Icenogle, was killed in France on June 15, 1944.

In addition to the immediate relatives, sixty-eight friends and neighbors called during the afternoon to offer their congratulations and enjoy a social time of visiting and reminiscing.

Refreshments were served, with the three daughters pouring and serving. The honor guests were the recipients of many lovely gifts, presented them in memory of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Icenogle were married at Mexico, Missouri, July 14, 1895. After living in Missouri and Illinois for some time, they moved to Detroit, residing there until five years ago, when they moved to their present home, on the Saunders farm, Cavanaugh Lake Road.

Juvenile Delinquency Discussed By Speaker

A most interesting talk on "Juvenile Delinquency" was given at the Kiwanis club meeting Monday night by John Martin of Ann Arbor. Mr. Martin has just returned from a nationwide tour as Director of Public Service for the MacFadden Publications.

Mr. Martin stated that everywhere he went he found civic leaders intensely interested in the problem. The crime situation has achieved alarming proportions and after the war the country is facing the bloodiest and costliest crime wave ever seen. One out of every 22 persons in the country have been fingerprinted because of felony and every hour of every day 158 serious crimes are committed, making the national cost of crime alone $17 billion dollars.

The speaker suggested a four-point program for committees to meet the need: Improve the influences that are around all children—homes, schools, churches and playgrounds; regulate and control all harmful places; for those who have already become delinquent, special institutions or services should be devised.

A number of Dexter Kiwanians were guests and after the meeting they crossed bats with the local club with the resulting score of 13 to 2 in favor of the visitors.

YOUNGSTER BREAKS WRIST
Lyle Wenk, son of Mrs. Roland Wenk, broke his right wrist on Thursday when he fell off a hay stack at the home of Donovan Sweeney in Sharon township. A local physician reduced the fracture.

Preference for Veterans in the Purchase of Federal Surplus Property

Preference to veterans for the purchase of federal surplus property has been established. A veteran desiring to exercise this preference may file an application for such property as he desires to purchase with the district office of the Smaller War Plants Corporation for the locality within which he maintains or intends to establish an enterprise.

Surplus property consists of any property which has been determined to be surplus to the needs and responsibilities of the owning government agency.

The Smaller War Plants Corporation will exercise its priority right in the manner and to the extent provided to purchase from the appropriate disposal agency for resale to the veteran such property as he may apply for which in its judgment is required to preserve or strengthen the competitive position of small enterprises.

In forming such judgment the Smaller War Plants Corporation will take into account whether the property will be useful in and will aid the veteran to establish or maintain his own small enterprise and whether business conditions and other economic factors affecting the locality within which the veteran maintains or desires to establish such enterprise render the success thereof reasonably probable. Smaller War Plants Corporation will report to the Surplus Property Board all instances in which the veteran's application is rejected in whole or in part and the reasons for such rejection.

Scope of Activities

The veteran's own small business or professional enterprise shall include any commercial, industrial, manufacturing, financial, service, legal, medical, dental or other lawful enterprise (other than agricultural) having an invested capital not in excess of $50,000 which a veteran maintains or desires to establish; Provided, That he is or will be, directly or indirectly, the sole proprietor thereof or that no person or persons, other than other veterans, have or will have any proprietary interest in the enterprise, singly or together, directly or indirectly, in excess of 50 per cent of either the capital invested in such enterprise or of the gross profits or income thereof.

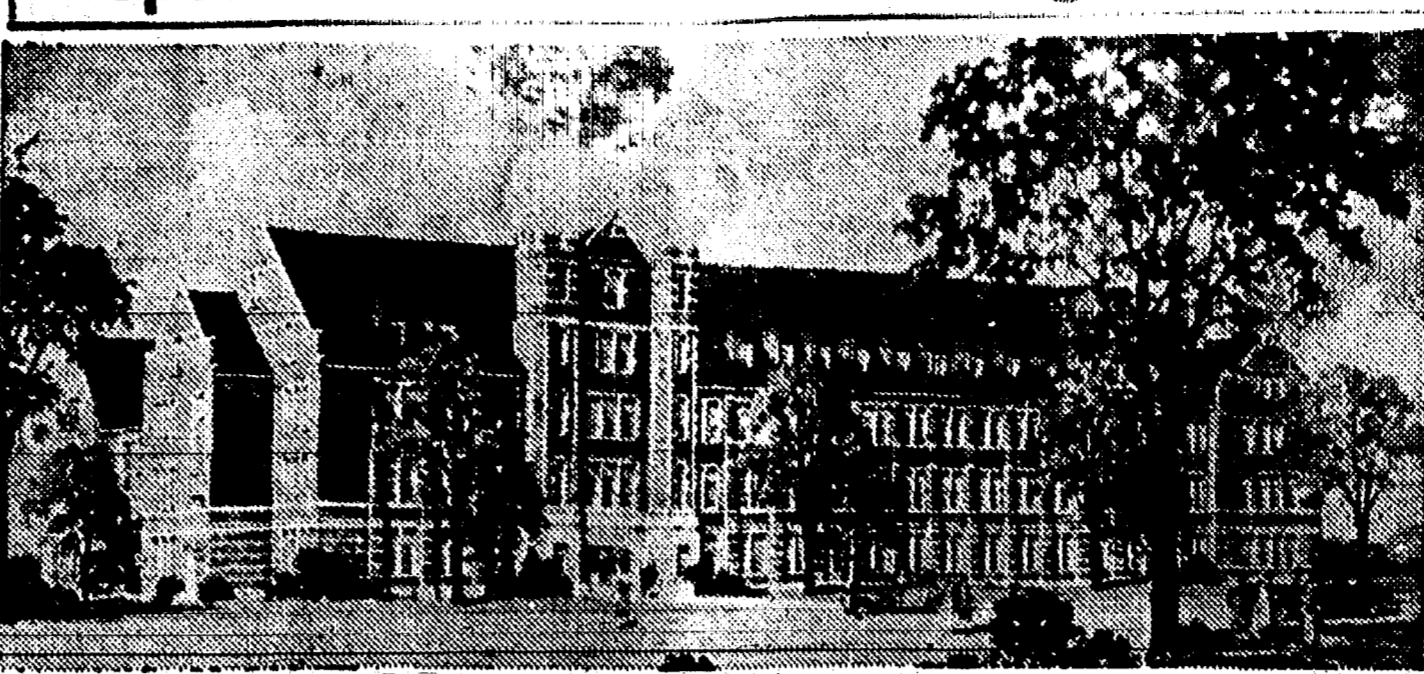

The veteran's own small agricultural enterprise shall include any farming, fisheries, forestry, grazing, fruit-growing, livestock or poultry raising or other lawful enterprise (other than a business or professional enterprise) having an invested capital not in excess of $25,000 which a veteran maintains or desires to establish; Provided, that he is, or will be, directly or indirectly, the sole proprietor thereof or that no person or persons, other than other veterans, have or will have any proprietary interest in the enterprise, singly or together, directly or indirectly, in excess of 50 per cent of either the capital invested in such enterprise or of the gross profits or income thereof.

Surplus property does not include real estate or aircraft and parts peculiar to aircraft. It does not include any property to be resold with or without reprocessing or refabrication.

Proposed New Classroom Building at M.S.C.

Above is the architect's drawing of Michigan State College's proposed new classroom building, work on which will begin as soon as the college is granted a priority on materials. The building will have a seating capacity of 1,500 students and will contain 50 classrooms, washrooms, and an office for the building superintendent. Designed to harmonize with the architecture of neighboring campus buildings, the fireproof brick structure will occupy a site just north of the horticulture building. The interior will be of glass brick and plaster, and heat will be supplied from the central heating plant on the campus. Strictly a classroom building, without laboratories or offices, the large structure will be used by classes from all M. S. C. schools. Construction probably will require from eight months to a year, depending upon the labor situation. Cost will be approximately $700,000.

Martha Yost Speaks Vows In Pretty Ceremony at St. Paul's

MRS. LOWELL DAVISSON

St. Paul's Evangelical church was the setting for the wedding at 8:00 o'clock Saturday evening of Miss Martha Elizabeth Yost, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Yost of Chelsea, and Lowell Alfred Davison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Davison of Warrensburg, Mo.

Palms, white roses and candelabra formed a background for the double-ring ceremony, which was performed by Rev. P. H. Grabowski.

Before the wedding, Mrs. Carl Mayer gave an organ prelude as the guests were being seated, and Mrs. Francis Hafer of Jackson sang "O, Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Leslie Yost, of Cement City, chose for her marriage a white silk organza and lace gown, fashioned with a full skirt and train. Her ruffled veil was held in place with a tiara of small white flowers and her bouquet was of white lilies.

Mrs. Grace Yost, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, while Beverly Mamroe of Detroit and Avis Brothers of Sturgis, sorority sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. All wore gowns with long waisted bodices and bouffant skirts of net sprinkled with bows of taffeta. Their Juliet caps matched their dresses of pastel shades, the former wearing blue and the bridesmaids pink. All carried bouquets of roses and gypsophila. Lyman Davison of Pontiac, brother of the groom, was best man, while John Alber and Richard Ambler, both of Chelsea, acted as groomsmen.

Dawn Marie Yost, niece of the bride, and Judy Davison were flower girls, dressed in pale blue net with matching veils, which were held in place with small pink flowers.

A reception for 75 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony, during which Eugene Schumann of Ann Arbor furnished appropriate accordion selections.

The rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening in the Russian tea room of the Women's League in Ann Arbor.

The bride, who is a graduate of Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo, was a teacher in the Stockbridge schools for three years, and for the past two years has been employed in the office of the Chelsea Spring Co.

The groom is plant superintendent of the Chelsea Spring Co., with which he has been affiliated for several years.

When the couple sped away on their wedding trip the new Mrs. Davison was wearing a cable cloth dress of light green and white, with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Davison will make their home in Chelsea, at 345 Madison St. ern rim of Lake Michigan. Just off the Lelanau peninsula are the North and South Manitou islands. Next are the Foxes—North Fox and South Fox.

At the northern end are the eight Beavers—including Beaver, Garden, High, Hog, Squaw and Whisky.

Secluded and off the beaten path, St. James is an easy-going fishing village, the Michigan capital of Irish fishermen. Until a few years ago, all lamps provided household illumination and a board walk linked the white-painted stores along the curving harbor thoroughfare.

Dan "Turner" Boyle, Irish fisherman, born on Beaver Island in 1872, is a fine specimen of robust health, bright pink cheeks, sparkling eyes, pure-white hair, with an infectious smile and laugh. His voice is soft, colored by a slight Irish brogue.

"My father was Dan Boyle, and so was his father before him," said Dan, who is known to everyone as Turner. "My father had five brothers—all named Dan Boyle after their father. It's an Irish custom, you know."

"We Irish came to Beaver Island from Canada. A sea-faring people, we have always gone to the sea to fish or to sail. Sure, some of the Irish do farming, but not many of them. It's easier to make a living on boats than farming—no reason why you see so many deserted farms on Beaver Island."

St. James with its lazy atmosphere was so named by King Strang.

When John H. Forsberg, a federal surveyor, visited the Bear, a federal island, in 1855, he was struck by the beauty of the island at the height of his bearro career. Along the picturesque harbor was a cluster of log buildings. A log tabernacle dominated the landscape.

Strang, lawyer-editor, visited the Mormon settlement at Nauvoo, Ill., in 1844 and became a convert. When Joseph Smith, Moses of the Mormons, was killed by a mob at Carthage—a chapter of early American intolerance—Strang claimed title as Smith's successor. The Mormon "college of twelve" elected Brigham Young who then led the historic trek to Salt Lake City. Strang established a rival kingdom, first at Spring

Prairie, Wisconsin, and later at St. James on Beaver Island.

His defiance of conventional morality led to his undoing and ultimately his death. The Irish on Mackinac Island and Pine River (Charlevoix) regarded him as an infidel and a pirate. Two jealous Mormon followers, some of whom were characterized by Sweeney as the "lowest kind of white trash—ignorant, superstitious and licentious," were the assassins who waylaid King Strang and escaped on a U. S. mail boat to Mackinac Island.

Today, 32 miles off the prosperous Traverse City-Potosky tourist route, Beaver Island is a haven of peace to its 250 white and 125 Indian inhabitants.

It offers some of the best fishing grounds on the Great Lakes. Its climate is perfect for hay-fever and asthma sufferers. Yet there are few resorts. Little effort has been made to preserve authentic Mormon buildings. But to the traveler, St. James will be remembered as a snug happy haven of the Irish—the Gallaghers, McCanns, Martins, Boyels and McDonoughs.

Fish is not rationed, and prices are soaring.

The Irish on Beaver Island, always inclined to gaiety, are happier than usual.

"Maybe our one-time newspaper friend, George Stephenson, is right. There is only one place like Beaver Island—at least in Michigan."

A very pretty home wedding took place at 5:00 o'clock, Tuesday, July 18, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Steger, when their youngest daughter, Mina F., was united in marriage with Dr. H. E. Defendorf. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Campbell in the presence of the immediate relatives of both families.

July 24-Federal vs. Fibre
July 25-Glick's vs. Spring
July 26-Cassidy vs. Bowser
July 27-Pinckney vs. Glick's at Chelsea, 7:00.

In the wildest game of the year Fibre nosed out Glick's by the large score of 15 to 14. The defeat was the Bulldogs' first league loss of the season.

Fibre picked up two runs in the first and then had a big second inning when they scored 7 times. Going into the last half of the fifth the Fibre boys had scored 14 times, while Glick's could only collect 4 runs.

Just when the spectators were about ready to leave the Bulldogs pushed across 10 big runs to tie the score.

Then the Fibre boys managed to get one run in their half of the seventh, which was enough for their victory.

Cassidy 8-Spring 3
In a much more hectic ball game than was played the night before, Cassidy Lake won their fourth straight victory by downing the Spring Co. 8-3.

Too many errors by the factory boys and some timely hitting by the Lakers was enough for the win.

Federal 8-Bowser 4
Federal snapped a four game losing streak to win their first league game of the season by downing Bowser 8-4.

After giving Bowser a four run lead in the first inning, Federal played perfect ball the rest of the way to win.

This round marked the half-way mark in the schedule, so here are a couple of records.

Here are the number of runs each team has scored:
Glick's, 45; Fibre, 42; Spring, 35; Cassidy, 34; Federal, 19; Bowser, 17.

Here are the defensive totals for each team:
Cassidy, 15; Glick's, 22; Spring, 28; Fibre, 30; Bowser, 35; Federal, 59.

Most runs scored in one game: Spring, 20.
Fewest runs scored in one game: Cassidy, 1; Federal, 1, twice.

Be sure you don't miss any more ball games this year. Anything can and most always does happen.

attacked it. Evacuation of such a large number of Japs from Wake Island apparently means that the island could be retaken by the Americans at will although there is no indication this might be attempted. It is 2300 miles directly west of Honolulu. The enemy vessel, the Takasago Maru, was intercepted by the U. S. Destroyer Murray as it approached Wake and again after it departed. American boarding parties searched the ship each time, with the co-operation of the Japanese commander. When first stopped and searched the Jap commander informed the Murray's skipper that he was en route to Wake to evacuate disabled personnel. He was allowed to proceed.

Mrs. Effa A. Dancer
Mrs. Effa Armstrong Dancer, daughter of the late Dr. Rolla S. Armstrong and Eliza (Goodell) Armstrong, and sister of the late Ransom, Howard and Arthur Armstrong, died Monday evening, July 16 at her Cavanaugh Lake home. She was born May 31, 1877 in Chelsea, and was married to Ernest R. Dancer, June 5, 1901.

For 25 years she was a teacher in the Chelsea public schools. Mrs. Dancer was a member of the Congregational church, the American Legion Auxiliary and the Washtenaw Historical Society.

She is survived by her husband; four daughters, Mrs. C. C. Lamberton, Miss Ruth C. Dancer, Mrs. C. L. Trafford and Mrs. R. A. McLaughlin, and four grandchildren, Eleanor Anne Lamberton, James, Jane and David McLaughlin, all of Chelsea.

Prayer services will be held at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon at the home, 142 South St., followed by services at 2:30 at the Congregational church. Rev. W. H. Skentelbury will officiate and interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Miss Jane B. Craig
Miss Jane B. Craig, 90 years old, died Monday at the Chelsea Methodist Home.

She was born Oct. 4, 1854 in English River, Canada, and she had been a member of the Home since Sept. 28, 1940, coming here from Pontiac. A niece, Mrs. Wilfred McCleughan of Dearborn, survives.

The body was sent to River Field, Quebec, on Tuesday, for funeral services and burial.

Ship's Stack
A ship's smokestack is not always what it seems to be. It may house a crew's smoking room; dog kennel or be empty in case the vessel is a motor ship. Dummy funnels are frequently used to add to a ship's appearance. On steam vessels, smokestacks are really much larger than the actual smoke funnels, which is usually only one-third the diameter of the outer funnel.

Diapers, Go to War
Three thousand diapers are used every month in a war plant to clean and polish glass lenses for army binoculars and tank telescopes. Because they are absorbent and leave no lint, diapers are ideal for removing the finest specks that might mar the vision of soldiers using the binoculars and telescopes. In the cleaning operation, one diaper is used to rub the lens after it has been dipped into a soapy solution, a second to dry it.

It's summer—vacation time! School is out and children are out-of-doors playing.

This is your cue to drive carefully, Mr. Motorist. You have a definite obligation to look out for these children. Schools have emphasized in their safety education programs such safety precautions as looking both ways before crossing the street, not crossing the street in the middle of the block and not playing ball or any other game in the street. In spite of these teachings, children, in the excitement of a game, are heedless of danger and may run into the street and into the path of your car.

Drive carefully wherever children are playing. Be on the alert to avoid injury to them.
