Kuhl Barn Destroyed By Fire Tuesday Night

A fire caused by spontaneous combustion destroyed the large barn on the Arthur Kuhl farm, located in Lima and Freedom townships, about 9:30 on Tuesday evening.

The barn was 112 feet long by 56 and 40 feet in width, built with a hip-roof and full basement. It was filled to capacity with baled hay, the exact amount being hard to estimate, but there was approximately 200 tons, in addition to farm tools and grain.

At the time the fire started Mr. and Mrs. Kuhl were in the barn, where they had been treating grain in the granary for weevils. The granary contained 2000 bushels of oats and 1200 bushels of wheat, all of which had been combined and stored for some time.

A corncrib containing about 700 bushels of old corn, located near the barn, and a hog house attached to the barn, and also some chickens, were burned.

The Chelsea fire department was called and together with the help of neighbors, saved other outbuildings, including a large barn adjacent to the one burned.

Asbestos shingle siding on the house is credited with helping to save that structure.

The exact loss has not been determined, and although the building and contents were insured it is doubtful whether the insurance will cover the loss, because of the unusual amount of contents stored.

Red Cross Seeks Blood Donors October 8 to 12

The American Red Cross, located at 1601 Washenaw Ave., Ann Arbor, is urgently requesting that 600 blood donors contribute blood to the State Blood Bank to be held from Oct. 8 through Oct. 12, at their headquarters.

As many donors as possible from Chelsea are urged to attend. It is expected that the blood of each individual will be typed and the donor informed of the blood type, in case of future need for this information. This blood plasma will remain in this county and will be available free of cost to doctors and hospitals in the county.

Donors between the ages of 21 through 54 will be accepted, while those from 18 to 21 must have their parents' or guardian's consent.

Hours for donations will be as follows: 1 to 3 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 8, and from 9 to 11 a.m. and 1 to 3 p.m. daily through Oct. 12.

Donors are asked to register at their local factory or to contact Mrs. A. L. Stegor, local chairman, at their earliest convenience.

Parents Seek Solution Of Children's Problems

A small but enthusiastic group of parents of teen-age school children met at the school on September 12 to discuss problems relating to the recreation and social activities of their children. No parent present expressed himself as being "without problems," and nearly everyone had something to offer in the way of either problem or suggested solution.

The conclusions reached were valuable. No parent present expressed any desire to regulate, even remotely, any children except his own; i.e., there was no attempt to set standards for any but themselves to follow. A clear majority was plainly attempting to place the welfare of the child, as to social and health standards, above all else. A vast majority thought it might be easier to maintain healthy social standards if a large number of parents would reach an agreement as to exactly what those standards were. Tentative standards were set, but because the number present was small, it was decided to call a later meeting.

All parents of children 12 to 20 who are attending public schools in this community are invited to attend a general discussion meeting at the high school on Wednesday, September 26, at 8 o'clock p.m. There will be no speaker, no program; it is a meeting for the people of this area to discuss local social-teen-age problems.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED
Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Turnbull of Tecumseh have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Jean Crocker, to Paul Conlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Conlan, of Chelsea. After September 24 they will be at home to their friends at 311 Garfield St., Chelsea.

CHANGE IN BANKING HOURS
Officials of Chelsea State Bank announce a change in banking hours, effective October 1. Hours will be the same as heretofore, with the exception of Saturday night, when the bank will be closed. Opening from 6:30 to 8:00 on Saturday nights was an extra wartime service of the bank, for the convenience of those who were working long hours, which is no longer deemed necessary.

ENTERTAINS AT SHOWER
Miss Edna Steinaway was hostess at a miscellaneous shower on Friday evening honoring Miss Ruth Walz, whose marriage to Kenneth Leader of Ann Arbor will be an event of the month. Miss Walz was winner in rummy, the pastime of the evening, while the second prize was won by Miss Lillian Honeck. A two-course luncheon was served to eight guests.

Tower Cafe Will Move To Dexter Next Week

Chas. R. Mundhenk, who has operated the Tower Cafe in the Hendley building, Park St., for the past five years, will move his equipment to Dexter next week, where he will open a restaurant, also to be known as the Tower Cafe.

The Haner building in Dexter, which has been leased by Mr. Mundhenk, will provide a dining room 24x50, with a kitchen 24x30. The upstairs is being fitted for living quarters and a dance hall which will be operated by Mr. Mundhenk.

"Charlie," as he is known to all his friends, opened his cafe here five years ago in the small room which now contains his kitchen and lunch counter. He later acquired the room which had been used by A. B. Clark for storage, and when Mr. Clark discontinued business he added to his space by renting the large room which has been used by the Kiwanis club and for special parties.

Sunday will be the last day that food will be served at the Tower, and moving operations will be started on Monday. Charlie expects to open for business in Dexter by Oct. 1. Charlie's many friends in Chelsea wish him success in his new venture.

School Attendance To Age 16 Is Compulsory

School attendance laws provide for compulsory attendance until 16 in high school activities.

Attention of parents living in the school district of the Chelsea public schools is called to the fact that boys and girls living in a high school district must attend school regularly until they reach the age of 16 unless excused by either the County School Commissioner or the Superintendent of Schools. In rural schools, where transportation to a high school district is not provided, the Michigan law provides that boys and girls may drop out of school either upon completing the eighth grade or upon reaching their 16th birthday.

The law also provides that the parents or guardians of children of school age are legally responsible for the school attendance of these children.

Local officers at 2:00 o'clock Wednesday morning secured a search warrant and at 3 o'clock raided the residence of John Greiza on West Middle street. When the officers were refused admittance they were obliged to force a door open to gain admittance. Mrs. Greiza and Andrew Holdwick were engaged in operating a still. Mrs. Greiza threw the outfit on the stove and threw the boiling hot mash on the floor, cast the worm out of the door and tipped over a gallon of the home brew. However, the officers succeeded in saving enough of it for evidence to convict the parties concerned. Two kinds of illicit liquor were on hand, one made from corn and rye and the other from hops, lemons and other concoctions.

Mrs. Jennie Allyn was born in New York on Nov. 18, 1849 and died at her home on Railroad street Wednesday morning, Sept. 21, 1921. She was united in marriage with Chas. D. Allyn in 1891. Her only surviving relative in Chelsea is Miss Minnie Allyn.

James Geddes won premiums on nineteen breeds of pigeons and many kinds of bantams at the Jackson fair. Henry Ahnemiller won six premiums on pigeons.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Lane received an announcement from the Michigan State Fair manager that their fifteen month old son, Wilfred, had been awarded the second premium in the better baby contest that was held at the recent fair. There were 265 entries in this contest.

Chancey P. Clark was born in New York State on Aug. 13, 1832 and died Sept. 15, 1911. He was the eldest son of Orman and Amanda Clark, pioneer residents of Lyndon township. When four years old his family came to Michigan, traveling with oxen. They lived with a relative near Dexter for several months while the father constructed a log cabin on the farm now owned by Dick Clark. The cabin had a fireplace, a stick chimney and a dirt floor. A blanket was used in place of a door. At that time the wolves could often be heard howling, and many a time his mother fed hungry Indians as they came to the door. On Nov. 26, 1868 he was married to Ellen J. Tichenor, to whom were born four children, two of them surviving. They are W. T. Clark of River Rouge and Mrs. Elvira Clark-Viel of Chelsea. Mr. Clark was ever a man of progress, being the first farmer in this section of the country to introduce the raising of beans and rye.

S. A. Mapes will move his undertaking rooms from his present location on West Middle street to his new quarters at his residence property on East Middle St.

The merchants' general delivery in the future will make but three trips daily instead of four. Two trips will be made in the forenoon and one in the afternoon.

World's First Subway

Budapest built the world's first subway. Those accustomed to the size, speed and noise of American subways would smile at their Hungarian grandparent, a group of tiny white cars, each provided with cushions for its patrons. The cars pushed gently along the two and a quarter-mile route from the city center to Szechenyi Baths in the city park.

Detroit—This Michigan metropolis of more than 1,500,000 inhabitants is still the world's automobile center and is still having labor troubles.

A vocal minority in the newly-organized automobile industry is chiefly responsible for the current plague of strikes. Oddly enough, the labor conflict is occurring just at a time when labor leaders are yelling the loudest at Washington about the rise of unemployment during reconversion and the resultant need of more unemployment compensation for jobless workers.

Governor Kelly is asked to call a special session of the state legislature. Michigan unemployment benefits, among the highest in the nation, would be boosted to $80 per week.

Dynamic Detroit astounded the world with its output of munitions. Perhaps it is inevitable that labor should try to hold onto its war-time boom earnings.

Overtime beyond the 40-hour week, plus double time for Sundays, and holidays, fattened the Detroit war workers' purses to a degree unknown in pre-war days.

The sight of Negro workers flocking into ritzy Detroit style shops and paying inflated prices for every-day garments was commonplace here during the war. In constant need of more workers to fulfill bumper government contracts, manufacturers welcomed the arrival of Negroes and whites from the Middle South and the Deep South. An abundance of labor contributed in part to the success of Detroit industry in meeting Washington's demands for more and more tanks, more and more airplanes and more and more of everything else essential to victory.

Now that the war is over, and with the humanza of overtime earnings has come to an end, labor is fighting to retain its recently-won benefits. Workers are resisting the inevitable adjustment to peace-time production.

The viewpoint of management in the September strikes is expressed by Henry Ford II, executive vice-president of the Ford-Motor company. He said recently:

"They talk about 66,000,000 jobs. How can there be that many jobs when the worker quits before reconversion gets under way? Perhaps the labor unions have no responsibilities—or refuse to accept them. The fact about strikes now, however, is that the average worker fails to realize the consequences of the strike. It not only cuts his own throat, strikes are now a serious impediment in the reconversion effort."

The strike situation is a paradox to the demand of the UAW-CIO for full employment by private enterprise or full employment by government subsidy and deficit financing. Victor G. Reuther, official of the UAW, served notice on Michigan newspaper editors at Ann Arbor, nearly one year ago, that he was willing to scrap the system which has given Americans the highest living standards on earth if private enterprise failed to create 60,000,000 jobs after the war.

Just as the government footed the bill during the war, so the government should make possible a continuance of war prosperity during the peace-time. This, in brief, is the viewpoint of R. J. Thomas, president of the UAW-CIO who recently advocated that the government pay a bonus of $1,000 to each war worker at the time of severance from employment.

Some UAW-CIO union leaders are campaigning for an outright federal subsidy covering peace-time wages. Each worker then would receive 48 hours' pay for 30 hours' work. The economic fact that the taxpayers would be paying for 18 hours of unproductiveness and hence that the workers themselves would ultimately have to help foot the bill, if governmental bankruptcy was to be averted, had apparently not occurred to the labor leaders.

Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach, in his Labor Day address, cautioned organized labor to execute greater responsibility for the public good or risk restrictive action by the federal government. A quotation: "We cannot have full employment unless we have full production of goods and services. And we cannot have full production unless we have full consumption. And we cannot have any of these—full employment, full production, and full consumption—if our productive machine is stalled and our power to consume diminished as a result of chaotic industrial relations."

Detroit's labor relations today are just that—chaotic. Irresponsible labor leadership, such as that of Mr. Thomas, is one of the deplorable handicaps in the path of full employment here.

Upstate at Cassopolis, the county seat of Cass county, is a country newspaper editor who recently observed his 57th anniversary of service to his community. William H. Berkey is his name.

"Bill," as he is called by everyone, possesses typical Yankee traits of old-fashioned sanity, candor and integrity. When he writes an editorial, he calls 'em just as he sees 'em. Recalling Mr. Thomas' demand for the $1,000 war workers' bonus, Editor Berkey presented the following comment in his newspaper: "These labor leaders (CIO) say that the war workers did a 'superlative' job of turning out war equipment and therefore are entitled to a bonus of $1,000 each, and that the money could be paid from the unexpended balance of funds that were appropriated for war with Japan. 'Let's examine this a bit. Every one of those war workers received extra pay during the war effort, with time and one-half for overtime and double pay for Sundays and holidays; and, while we hate to say it, the whole country was full of stories of wasted time in the war plants. 'But, granting that every one of them did a full and honest day's work every day, what claim have they against the millions of soldiers and sailors who fought and suffered on the firing lines, or on the ships, or in the air? These people who stayed at home, worked in warm factories on comfortable jobs and enjoyed the comforts of home were made better off financially by the war. The people of America will not stand for their looting the public treasuries now that the war is over.' To which a lot of weary Michigan taxpayers, just as any patriotic ex-war worker, will add a fervent "Amen!" The road to federal subsidies is also the road to state capitalism and its inevitable consequences: Totalitarian government.

Social Security Board Office On 5-Day Week

Basil V. Morrison, manager of the Jackson, Michigan field office of the Social Security Board, located at Jackson, Michigan, announced today that his office is now operating on a five-day week, Monday through Friday. Hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The new work week has been adopted by the Federal Security Agency of which the Social Security Board is a part. This schedule is in line with the general policy of government departments and agencies to return to the normal number of working hours during a week which prevailed before the war. Return to the pre-war policy was requested by President Truman following the surrender of Japan. The field office will continue to provide its regular services to the public, Mr. Morrison stated. The office accepts claims for monthly retirement and survivors insurance benefits under the Social Security Act, issues social security account numbers and furnishes information to the public.

SPEED: 15 miles an hour Engineer: $2.50 a day This is a later, Civil War model, one of the first to burn coal. Michigan's first railroad engine, a wood burner, was put into operation 108 years ago next August, on a run between Toledo and Adrian. That was the year, 1837; Michigan was admitted as a state. The track was made of hewn logs faced with strips of iron which often curled, derailing cars or punching holes in the floor. Life was very primitive. There were few wagon roads. Only 174,000 persons lived in the state. It has been a marvelous century for Michigan. We now have 7,000 miles of railroad. Our population has grown to five and a quarter million. Two hundred thousand cultivated farms have replaced the wilderness. Cities have sprung up, great industries emerged. Tourists have discovered the charms of the land of lakes and pine. Michigan is rich in natural resources. Take natural gas, for instance. A million years ago Nature began to store this fuel in great subterranean areas beneath the peninsula. Today natural gas is widely used in homes and in industries. It is doing a giant's job in war plants. The years ahead are years bright with promise for Michigan. New industries will develop, cities will grow, living will be pleasant in this favored state. Natural Gas and Improved gas appliances will add new conveniences to the home. Mrs. Maroney is chair- man of the rehabilitation committee of the local unit and Mrs. Quirk is the newly-elected president.
Juice Found in Small Oranges
If orange buyers ever convince themselves on the facts of quality in orange juice and are willing to pay accordingly, there is likely to be a leveling-off of orange prices. Judged by quality of juice, lower prices for some big oranges that now sell at a premium and higher prices for small oranges now discounted on the mar- ket, would fit the facts. This is the test tube and taste test verdict reached by U. S. department of agri- culture studies. On a quality basis, the juice from small oranges aver- ages better in flavor or taste. It is also richer and sweeter—has more solids.

AGRICULTURE "Come-back"
In 1944, for the eighth year in suc- cession, American farmers made new peak record for food production in this country, despite war's domi- nation of the agricultural scene for almost five years. Simultaneously, American agriculture has suc- ceeded in making an unusual come- back from the low levels reached after the first World war and which lasted for almost two decades. In 1944, gross farm income was well over 22 billion dollars — including government payments — more than twice the amount of the prewar in- come.

OFFICE NEWS

C.H.S. football team plays at Dexter tomorrow and will play at Saline on the 28th.

The Washtenaw District M.E.A. meeting is being held at Dexter tonight.

Mr. Johnson will attend the Superintendent's Conference at Traverse City on Friday and Saturday.

FRESHMAN-SOPH RELATIONS

In a few weeks, the Freshmen will be initiated. By tradition they will wear crazy clothes and do even crazier things at the order of their "brothers," the Sophomores.

These initiations can be fun for both the initiated and the initiators if they are handled correctly.

However, too often there are those who seem to get a great deal of pleasure out of being cruel.

The truly sensitive person who has been bullied and forced to do humiliating things is often left with scars that will never heal.

You Sophomores, who are in charge of the initiation, should use common sense. Have your initiations, have the Freshmen do crazy things but remember that what may be fun to one Freshman may be torture to another.

Then, after they have been duly initiated into the "Exalted Order of the Chelsea High School," it is your duty to help them feel that they belong.

This is their beginning in high school. Let these Freshmen remember all the comical things they had to do during the initiation; but let them be able to laugh at their first days at high school instead of remembering those days with only a deep-lasting hurt.

It would be much more to the credit of C.H.S. upperclassmen to welcome and assist newcomers than to do the opposite.

HOME EC.

Home Ec. 1 is studying "Ugly Duckling, Lend Me Your Ear." This is a study of personal grooming.

Home Ec. 2 is working with wool. They are making suits, dresses, slacks, and skirts.

Home Ec. 3 is studying the first year of high school. This has three main topics (1) further education; (2) business; (3) marriage.

Each girl has some community project such as planning for a banquet, a party, a student-faculty tea or something of that sort. Fashion articles were written and the following was chosen to be printed:

The Suit With Nine Lives

By Clara Miller

This particular suit was the prettiest you would ever hope to see—nice smooth shoulders with a trim tapered waist; and the skirt was a dream. It fit perfectly, no bunchy pockets, sagging hem lines, or curves in the back. It was even 100 per cent wool and the color was a startling lead gray. This was a suit with character.

It was a birthday present from a wealthy aunt. It came in handy the last year of college and now it starts a new life.

With a tailored blouse and comfortable-low-heeled shoes it's just right for the office. A sweater, left over from college, with a belt and maybe a chiffon scarf without the jacket are also suitable. Even the suit with just a pin would do.

After hours try a frilly pink blouse and hat for dinner with the girls, or for church. Add high heels and black accessories for sophistication.

With a jersey blouse and belt this is just the suit for sports.

Why not wear a bright plaid scarf instead of a blouse, with gloves to match on shopping days?

Yes, it was a great suit and served its purpose well but then I guess the people in Europe get cold too.

JOURNALISM CLUB

Once again the Journalism Club is organized and under way, having five old members and fourteen new ones. It is to be hoped that a few more may be recruited.

Plans are under way for a better and more animated Hi-Light, and already the first letter to service personnel has gone out. One hundred sixty letters were on their way last Tuesday, containing news of school, of Chelsea, of the men themselves, of sports activities, as well as a little philosophy and a few jokes. The most difficult feature at the present is the job of keeping abreast of the constantly changing address list. If parents would please notify the club of each address as it changes, the action would be greatly appreciated.

Attention is called to the display poster at the Public Library, which explains the work of the Journalism Club.

BAND

This year, under the direction of Vincent De Matteis, Chelsea High school has organized a military band.

As Captain they elected Tom Smith; 1st Lt., Neil Beach; 2nd Lt., Helen Vail; sergeants, Paul Schable, Jr. Niehaus; Corporals, John Copren, Lyle Christwell, Myrna Robards, Wilma Paul. The remainder are either first class cadets or regular cadets.

Mr. De Matteis expects to have the band ready for an outdoor concert sometime this fall.

ATHLETIC BOARD

Donald Alber was elected the Alumni representative on the Athletic Board. The Board set night prices at 50c, 40c and 25c. The day prices are 40c, 30c and 15c.

Complimentary passes are to be issued to members of the clergy in Chelsea. The Cassidy Lake students and officials are invited to attend the Chelsea high school home games, as guests of the Athletic Board.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Plans for a Freshman hand book are being made.

SPORTS PROSPECTS

On Sept. 4 the Chelsea high school held its first football practice, with thirty-four players. Among these were eight returning lettermen, led by Captain Tom Smith, Cameron Colquhoun, Bragdon Barlow, Don Barth, Ray Knickerbocker, Charles Slane, Doug Vogel and Jack Wellnitz. The ten returning minor letter winners were Don Baldwin, Jerome Burg, Robert Breitenwischer, Richard Carlson, Lyle Christwell, Robert Daniels and Bill Waters. With this group Coach Cameron expects to turn out a winning team.

Scrimmage started Sept. 6 with many changes in positions: Tom Smith being switched from his usual guard spot to tackle; Cameron Colquhoun being moved from center to end; Jerome Burg, a reserve letter winner last year, moving into Colquhoun's position at center. Freshman Dave Slane ("Bugs" little brother) looks very promising at blocking back.

Among the backs showing very good running ability are Doug Vogel at wing back, Ray Knickerbocker at tail back, Bragdon Barlow at his usual blocking back position, and of course Chelsea's star full back, "Bug" Slane. Two promising looking ends are Bob Daniels and Jack Wellnitz, who are fighting it out for the right end position. Bill Waters and Don Barth seem to have their tackle and guard spots cinched respectively.

In spite of the following tough schedule, Chelsea has high hopes of getting its first Huron League championship since 1938:

- Sept. 21—Dexter, there.
- Sept. 29—Saline, there.
- Oct. 5—Dundee, here.
- Oct. 12—Flat Rock, there.
- Oct. 19—Romulus, here.
- Oct. 26—Roosevelt, here.
- Nov. 2—Milan, there.
- Nov. 8—University High, here.
- Nov. 16—Manchester, there.

With this promising team, the tough schedule, and the prospect of having lights at the athletic field, it is hoped that the people of Chelsea will try to support the high school football team this year.

SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors elected their class officers last Wednesday, as follows:

- Joan Shutes—President.
 - Joan Eisenbeiser—Vice President.
 - Rosemary Hummel—Secretary.
 - Joanne Moore—Treasurer.
 - June Vail—Annual Editor.
- The Seniors started their annual fall magazine sales campaign Friday, Sept. 14. It will continue through September 28. Joan Shutes and Joan Eisenbeiser were appointed captains and they chose up sides for teams to work against each other in friendly rivalry.

Last year's Senior class of Chelsea high school has the distinction of being the champion per-capita magazine salesmen of the U. S., according to the representative of the publishing company.

KINDERGARTEN

By L. Munden

This week has been devoted to beautifying our room. The children brought many lovely bouquets which were placed on each child's table. We especially enjoyed the large bouquet of asters and gladioli. We wish to thank all the parents who contributed so generously of their gardens to help make our room attractive.

From all these flowers developed our art lessons. We have crayed Brown-eyed Susans, filled violet bowls with-out paper flowers and made lovely asters which were arranged on our bulletin board.

The following kindergarten children mounted their work on the bulletin board, when they would much rather have taken it home for their parents' approval: Richard Laban, Terry Gentner, Harriet Johnson, Nancy Mayer, Judy Wagner, Sandra Buchler, Judith Koback, Ronald Clark, Alton Howard, Byron Pearson, Carol Aldrich, Carole Glick, Dianne Scripser.

FIRST GRADE

We have been drawing flowers, fruits and vegetables, and some of our carrots and apples look good enough to eat.

THIRD GRADE

By Sally Vogel and Martha Olin
Geneva O'Dell, Anita Credi and Bobby White were absent this week. Billy Curtis is wearing new gloves. We are collecting pictures of different kinds of neighborhoods for social studies.

We studied about grasshoppers in science. We found out many things about them.

The best ones in spelling this week were Martha Howard, Bobby Keezer, Ruth Ann Oesterle, Connie Steinbach and Sally Vogel.

FOURTH GRADE

The new pupils in the fourth grade this year are Jeannette Bertke, Doris Bird, Judith Davison, and Bruce Franklin.

We are building a cave home in our sand table. We learn about the cave people in our history class.

Gene Miller, Ronald Joseph and Norman Phelps have had birthdays since school began.

It is fun using the fire escape.

FIFTH GRADE

By Karen Chase
We have seven new people in our room. They are: Carolyn Shelly, Donald Proctor, Lloyd Dyer, Robert Credi, Jeannette Osterhout, Robert Bertke and Gene Lake.

We have studied about Columbus and when he landed in America in the year of 1492. In science we studied how the vegetables got ready for winter and how they stored their food.

Donna Hinderes brought a bat to school. We learned how it lives. We drew pictures of safety and autumn.

Donna Hinderer is school librarian this week. Karen Chase is to be the librarian next week.

Most of the boys in the room are patrol boys who have stations on East St. and East Middle St. They are on duty from 10:50 to 11:30 a.m. and again at 12:30-12:45 p.m. to help children cross the street safely. The patrol boys are: John Batsakes, Robert Credi, Kenneth Hale, Robert Bertke, Lloyd Dyer, Richard Keezer, Alfred Knickerbocker, Gene Lake, Wendel Marshall, Roy Petsch and Donald Proctor.

SIXTH GRADE

By Evelyn Ann Woods

Our class had a discussion. The topic in question was, "What should you do or say when someone calls you a sissy if you do not accept a dare?"

Jana Lou Weinberg said that such people probably wouldn't do it themselves.

Shirley Doyle made the suggestion that we chose as the best answer. She said, "If someone calls you a sissy, because you refuse to take a dare that you know may be dangerous or cause you to break a rule, you'd be a sissy if you were afraid to be called a sissy and took the dare."

SEVENTH GRADE

Grade seven elected Deloris Ann Walker as president, Duane Gentner as vice-president, and Buddy Johnson as secretary.

Birthdays were celebrated by Jayne Proctor, who won the birthday game, and by Duane Gentner, who lost. Happy birthday, folks!

EIGHTH GRADE

By Beverly Weatherwax

We have been drawing several different kinds of graphs for arithmetic. In science we had a test on the different planets we have studied this year.

Thursday, Sept. 6, 1945, the seventh and eighth graders had a football game. The score was 18 to 6 in favor of the eighth grade.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS MEET

The Past Noble Grand, with their husbands, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Munro, Ann Arbor, on Wednesday evening of last week, and a delicious supper was served at 7 o'clock, with covers for 20. In progressive auction, J. Munro and Mrs. Inez Lesser held high score, with George Krumm and Mrs. Anna McDonald receiving the consolations. The mystery prize went to Mrs. Lena Jones.

Shine, mister—?

Yep, I'm in business for myself. Not a very good business, I guess.

Funny. That used to be an old dream of mine—way back in 1945. A business of my own.

Never thought it would work out this way...

Shine, mister—?

Those were the days. I was making more money than ever in my life. And buying Victory Bonds on the Payroll plan—setting up the next egg Mabel and I thought would someday go a long way to help me toward independence.

Shine, mister—?

Yep. We had it figured out. We'd keep on buying bonds; keep on saving. And at the maturity of those bonds, we'd have had it all—and more. Four dollars for every three when our "E" bonds matured!

And then—my own radio repair place! Had lots of ideas. It would have been a big success, too...

Not quite enough gumption, I suppose, back in 1945. I sloughed off on my bond buying.

Even began to cash in on the ones I had... Shucks, the war was over and I thought "So what?"

Guess I've been a terrible fool... Shine, Mister—?

The difference between success and failure can be a small difference—the difference between sticking to a resolution or dropping it.

Keep those War Bonds—and buy more and more Victory Bonds! They can mean your own business—your own home—the education of your children. Think of your future—hang on to your bonds!

VICTORY BONDS... to have and to hold!

Plant Full of the Moon
An English scientist reports that in greenhouse tests with tomatoes and corn, 17 sowings were made between April or May and August or September, covering several lunar cycles. The phases of the moon could not be found to exert any consistent effect either on seed germination or young plant growth, although temperature and daylight effects were observed.
Livestock in Alaska
One advantage of interior Alaska is its lack of wind. A 40 or 50 below zero temperature affects livestock less than would 10 below with wind. However, livestock farming has the disadvantage of a long period of cold weather and much snow. Increased labor and feed requirements result from the short pasture season.

Permanent Jobs Still Open On Great Lakes

Permanent jobs, with good wages and every incentive for advancement, are open on the Great Lakes where a shortage of manpower still exists, according to an announcement by Edward L. Cushman, state director of the War Manpower Commission.
"This shortage has been further accentuated by the return of hundreds of young men to schools and colleges, he pointed out, and emergency orders for firemen, oilers, coal passers and also for cooks, mates and engineers have been piling up in lake shipping units of the U. S. Employment Service offices in Detroit, Port Huron, Escanaba, Houghton, Marquette, Menominee, Sault Ste. Marie and other lake ports.
"These jobs offer an attractive future to displaced war workers whose skills can be readily adapted to the tasks that go to make up the jobs," Cushman said. "The employers are anxious to hire men who will stick and will promote such men to key jobs as they qualify."
The present pay rates for firemen, with papers, average $167 per month with room and board and deckhands or ordinary seamen start at $147 and $100. Applications may be made at any USES local office.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS
by Lynn Chambers

Fruit pickles take less time to prepare, vegetable pickles may take several days or even weeks, but both contribute to brightening winter menus.

Pickling Time

Summer has slipped by and with it has passed the time of putting up fruits and vegetables. But canning is not yet over, for fall brings with it many fruits and vegetables which home-makers like to use for pickling and preserving.

Pickles may be of either the fruit or vegetable variety for there are a great many varieties of pickles. Fruit pickles can be made in a short time, but those made from vegetables require a longer time—sometimes as long as several weeks. The best cucumber pickles take several weeks in order to complete the pickling process and make them crisp in texture, dark green in color. Sugar is introduced gradually to the cucumber after it has had a preliminary treatment in brine or vinegar.

Crisp Pickles.
How does one get crisp pickles is the question most frequently asked in pickling. Select fresh, ripe rather than over-ripe vegetables and fruits for pickling. Over-mature and stale vegetables will shrivel during the pickling process.

Old spices and low grade vinegar are other causes of pickle failure. It's important to use vinegar which has a strength of 40-60. Cider vinegar is usually preferred because of its mellow flavor. As a rule onions and cauliflower, which are light, require a white vinegar to make a light-colored pickle. Both types of vinegars serve to modify the taste of the product and also to preserve it.

Salt for Pickling.
Good quality salt is indicated for good pickles. Table salt or dairy salt (used for butter making) are good, but salt of chemical has been added to prevent it from caking is not recommended. Chemicals may interfere with the pickling process.

Equipment.
Pickles may be cured in large stone crocks, if desired. They are usually stored in glass jars—with caps, of the same type that are used for canning fruits and vegetables.

Spiced Cantaloupe.
Peel rind and cut cantaloupe into 1-inch pieces. Soak overnight in vinegar. To each 7 pounds of fruit add 3 pounds of sugar, 8 sticks of cinnamon, and 1 tablespoon whole cloves. Cook about 1 1/2 hours or until fruit becomes transparent. Place in sterile jars and seal.

Apple Chutney.
2 quarts apples, cut in small pieces
2 pounds granulated sugar
2 cups seeded raisins
Rind of 2 oranges, finely chopped
1/2 cup strong vinegar
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1 cup pecan meats, chopped fine
Boil all ingredients together until apples and nuts are tender. Pour into sterile jars and seal at once.

Green Tomato Pickle.
4 quarts green tomatoes
2 sweet red peppers
2 small onions
2 teaspoons ground cloves
2 teaspoons ground ginger

Lynn Says:
You Can Do It, Too! Readers write that they have hints to pass on to other readers, and I'm sure you'll like them for your own foods.
Careful seasonings make for good cooking—and that means first of all salt and pepper. Mixed poultry seasonings add accent to stuffings and stews. Bay leaf, thyme and sage are also good in stuffings and meats.
Spare the hand when using curry powder, but do use it in any meat or fish dish if you like the curry taste. It's especially good when you're using any of these foods with rice.
A pinch of nutmeg is indicated for spinach, for that occasional scalloped fish or oyster dish.
Clove and cinnamon blend well with smoked meats—use in cooking smoked ham or shoulder cuts.

For Pickling Shelves
•Spiced Cantaloupe
•Apple Chutney
•Green Tomato Pickle
•Bread and Butter Pickles
•Recipe Given

2 teaspoons ground allspice
1 tablespoon ground cinnamon
1 tablespoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
1 quart vinegar
1 pound brown sugar
1/2 cup salt
Grind coarsely the tomatoes, onions, peppers. Put spices in a small bag and boil in the vinegar with salt and sugar, for 10 minutes. Add the ground vegetables and simmer for 1 hour. Remove spice bag. Pack into hot sterile jars and seal.

At summer's end, you can look with pride on your canning shelf if you have been busy putting up fruits and vegetables, jams and jellies, pickles and relishes.

Bread and Butter Pickles.
25 to 30 medium-sized cucumbers
8 large white onions
2 large sweet peppers
1/2 cup salt
5 cups cider vinegar
5 cups sugar
2 tablespoons mustard seed
1 teaspoon tumeric
1/4 teaspoon cloves
Wash cucumbers and slice as thin as possible. Chop onions and peppers and combine with cucumbers and salt. Let this stand 3 hours.
Drain. Combine vinegar, sugar and spices in a large preserving kettle and bring to a boil. Add drained cucumbers. Heat thoroughly but do not boil. Pack while hot into jars and seal.

Ripe Cucumber Sweet Pickles.
8 large ripe cucumbers
1/2 pound stick cinnamon
1 ounce whole cloves
1 1/2 pints vinegar
3 pounds sugar
Pare the cucumbers, take out seeds and cut in quarters. Cut quarters into medium-sized pieces. Scald in salted water (2 tablespoons salt to 1 quart water), then drain and simmer in clear water until tender. Tie spices in a bag and boil them with vinegar and sugar 5 minutes. Pour this mixture over cucumbers, cover jar and set away until the next day. Then, pour off syrup, boil syrup for 10 minutes and pour over cucumbers again. Flavor is improved by repeating this process several times. With last heating, place pickles in cleaned, sterile jars and seal at once.

Dilled Cucumbers or Green Tomatoes.
40 to 50 cucumbers, or green tomatoes
2 ounces mixed pickle spices
Fresh or dried dill
1 pint vinegar
1 pound salt
4 tablespoons sugar
2 gallons water
Use fresh-picked cucumbers or green tomatoes of uniform size and free from blemish. Wash them well and drain. Into a 5-gallon crock place a layer of dill and spices. Fill the jar with the cucumbers or tomatoes to within 4 or 5 inches of the top. Mix the vinegar, salt, sugar, and water, and pour over the vegetable. Place a layer of dill over the top. Cover with a heavy plate and weight it down to hold the vegetable under the brine. Use only enough brine barely to cover, for as the liquid is drawn from the vegetable the jar may overflow. Each day remove the scum that forms over the top and keep the pickles at even room temperature, about 70 degrees or as warm as 88 degrees Fahrenheit if possible. In about 2 weeks the pickles are ready to use—crisp, well-flavored with dill, and clear throughout with no white spots when cut.

For storage, pack the cured pickles in sterilized quart glass jars, and add 1/2 cup of vinegar to each. Fill up the jars with the pickle brine, but first strain it, bring it to a boil, and cool. Seal the jars and store in a cool, dry place.

Sea-Going Mules

The American mule is an important transportation unit for our army. Thousands of them are crossing the oceans, traveling in style, in ships that have been especially and expensively converted for the purpose. Seventeen ships—13 Liberty and 4 cargo ships—have been converted to mule carriers. The ships carry from 320 to 639 mules—with sick bays for 18 to 32 mules. A Missouri mule requires more space than the slightly smaller Texas mule.
