Patients at Percy Jones Grateful To Red Cross

The local Red Cross chapter received the following "Thank You" letter and plea sent by Joseph E. Bastion, Brigadier General, U.S.A., commanding, and also the news release regarding the packing of Christmas boxes for patients:

Percy Jones Hospital Center, Fort Custer, Michigan.

American Red Cross, Camp and Hospital Committee.

Dear Members:

I would like to take this opportunity of thanking you for the excellent cooperation and outstanding service which you have rendered to the patients of Percy Jones Hospital Center. I am particularly pleased with the work which the Camp and Hospital committee has done in furnishing collapsible wheel chairs for the double amputees and cord injured patients. I know, of course, that the members of the Council have been more than repaid for their work and effort from the pleasure which the gifts have given the men. I am also certain that you are aware of the continuing need for these wheel chairs and through your continued efforts I know that the present needs will be met.

I have also been very pleased and impressed to learn that the Camp and Hospital Council has recently accepted a quota of 12,000 Christmas gift boxes.

Sincerely yours,
Joseph E. Bastion,
Brigadier General.

Press Release:

Fort Custer, Mich.—Seventeen proposed Christmas gifts placed highest in a poll conducted among 2,000 Percy Jones Hospital Center patients were announced by Brig. Gen. Joseph E. Bastion, Center Commander.

Gifts winning in the poll taken among patients at Percy Jones General Hospital in Battle Creek, which cares for the seriously wounded and a high percentage of those bedridden are listed in the order of their popularity as follows:

Pen and pencil sets, cigarette lighters, billfolds, box cameras, toilet kits, cigarette cases, writing kits, pipes, leather belts, knives, watch straps, tie pin sets, books, key cases.

The poll also revealed that patients, by a ratio of ten to one, prefer a small number of substantial gifts rather than a large number of small ones. Gifts listed in the poll fell in the three to four dollar price bracket.

The poll was conducted for the benefit of organizations contemplating furnishing Christmas gifts for Percy Jones patients and personnel this year. General Bastion indicated that even with a slight decrease expected in the center's population between now and Christmas time, there will still be about 9,000 patients and over 3,000 other enlisted men at Percy Jones installations at that time, compared with about 5,000 last Christmas.

Victory Bond Report

Saturday is supposed to be the last day for bond sales in the current Victory Loan drive. Step right up now, for "E" bonds have reached only 43 per cent of the quota. Are we going to reach 100 per cent?

Here's how we stand: "E" bond sales $21,969.75, and it must be $50,000; "Other Issues" stand at $16,500 and should be $25,000. Let's say the big push is on and let Chelsea finish with a bang. Sure we can do it. Let's go!

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

The ministers who have been helping maintain the vesper services at Cassidy Lake, and the camp staff, together with their wives, were entertained at a turkey dinner Sunday evening by Supt. Miles and the camp. The only religious services at the camp are these Sunday afternoon vespers, made possible by the voluntary services of the neighboring ministers, Supt. Miles and the staff, and members of the camp wished to show their appreciation by this banquet and get-together.

PLATES ON SALE SATURDAY

A. D. Mayer, branch manager of the Secretary of State's office, announces that 1946 full year license plates will go on sale at his office on Saturday, December 1, and that the half year plates will be on sale early in January.

With Our Men In Service

Cpl. Richard White received his honorable discharge from the Marines at Great Lakes, Ill. on Nov. 17, exactly four years to the day from the time of his enlistment on Nov. 17, 1941.

He trained at San Diego, Calif., embarked for overseas with the First Marine Division in January 1942, going first to Honolulu, Hawaii for four months. From there his itinerary included the New Hebrides Islands, New Zealand, Guadalcanal, Melbourne, Australia, and Villa Lavella in the British Solomon Islands.

At the latter place Dick was hospitalized for nine weeks from injuries received when a gasoline dump blew up during an enemy air raid. Upon recovery he was again assigned to duty at Guadalcanal, spending 31 months in active overseas duty before being returned to New River, North Carolina.

After seven months in the States he embarked from Norfolk, Va. in April 1944 for duty in the Pacific again, this time going via the Panama Canal to Pearl Harbor, with Okinawa as his destination, landing there in May. From May to August he participated in all major battles on Okinawa, leaving for Guam in August and arriving in the U. S. in October.

Cpl. White reached Chelsea in time to spend Thanksgiving day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert White.

He was graduated from Chelsea high school with the class of 1940, and until the time of his enlistment was employed at the Federal Screw Works.

Sgt. Charles Panarites arrived in the United States on Nov. 16 and reached the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Panarites, on Thanksgiving day, after having received his honorable discharge from the army.

Sgt. Panarites was inducted into the army Nov. 19, 1942, receiving his basic training at Camp Berkeley, Texas and his advanced training at Camp Livingston, Louisiana. He left the States on Oct. 27, 1943 aboard the Queen Mary, arriving at the Firth of Clyde, Scotland, Nov. 1 and on the continent of Europe on June 15, participating in all five of the major European campaigns—Normandy, Northern France, Ardennes, Rhineland and Central Europe.

Sgt. Panarites was graduated from the Chelsea high school with the class of 1935 and at the time of his induction was a student at Western State College, Kalmar, where he was majoring in Physical Education.

On June 9, 1945 while in Paris, Sgt. Panarites was married to Miss Maria Nicolas of Athens, Greece. Mrs. Panarites was unable to accompany her husband to the States but is expected to arrive within the next two months.

Fleet Home Town News Center — Thomas James Lyons, radioman, second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyons of Chelsea, Mich., served during the war with a Pacific Navy Service Forces group whose personnel was credited with saving the lives of 75 survivors of a small tanker during the height of a raging typhoon off Iwo Jima, newly revised Navy records of the group have disclosed.

The small ship had to be abandoned 300 yards off shore. Even while the crewmen of the stricken vessel were going overboard, ambulances were arriving at the beach to care for the injured—if they ever reached shore through the roaring surf.

Rescue parties went to work. Men entered the sea, some with lines about their waists to keep them from being pulled out to sea by the undertow; others didn't wait for the lines.

No one could count the individual acts of bravery performed, but when the weary group had completed its task the announcement came: "All survivors and rescue parties accounted for and all safe. Well done."

S-1C Marvin Schiller, who recently returned from the Pacific, is spending a 15-day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schiller.

James H. Rudd, MM-2C, received his honorable discharge from the Navy on Thursday, November 22.

HOLD SOCIAL MEETING

The social meeting of the Auxiliary to the V.F.W. was held Monday evening, Nov. 26 at St. Mary's hall, with 37 members present. A short business meeting was held to initiate three new members. Evelyn Rowe was elected three-year trustee. The members signed a letter to be sent to our congressmen, asking them to use every effort to get three bills to aid the veterans through Congress. We were also reminded of our coming bake sale. After the meeting, bingo was played and a lovely lunch served. Many thanks to the ladies who served on the entertainment committee.

—Publicity Chairman.

Hospitalized Vets Are Given Birthday Parties

American Legion Auxiliary of the Department of Michigan plans and carries out a birthday party every month of the year for the veterans at the American Legion Hospital and Veterans' Facility No. 100, Camp Custer. There are at present approximately 1800 veterans from World Wars I and II at Veterans' Facility, and of this number 169 had birthdays this month and were able to be entertained.

The Rehabilitation committee of the Second District, of which Chelsea Unit is a part, was responsible for the success of the November party. Special gifts were given to the men who have birthdays this month, ice cream and cake was served, and through the courtesy of the Ford Motor Co., the Ford Ramblers entertained the veterans at both hospitals.

This year a "Christmas Gift Shop" has been added to the list of services given to the men by the Legion Auxiliary, and is now in operation at Veterans' Facility No. 100. The veterans are encouraged to choose gifts and these are mailed to his family, as a gift from him, free of all charges.

Members of the Herbert J. McKune Unit who attended and assisted with these birthday parties at the hospitals on November 14, were Mesdames E. J. Quirk, Jack Dumouchel, Howard Walz, Albert Doll, J. D. Wright and Paul Maroney.

Perry Yaw Will Teach Vocal Music At School

Perry Yaw, graduate student in the School of Music at the University of Michigan, has been employed by the Board of Education to assist with the vocal music program in the Chelsea public schools. Mr. Yaw will direct the high school chorus and teach vocal music in grades 4, 5 and 6 under an arrangement similar to that followed in instrumental music.

Mrs. Munden will continue teaching the music in grades 1, 2 and 3, and in addition will be a helping teacher in grades 2 and 3. The enrollment in these two grades is exceptionally large and Mrs. Munden will work with groups in reading and number work during the afternoon. Previous to Mr. Yaw's appointment, Mrs. Paul Eisele had been assisting with the work in grades 2 and 3.

Mr. Yaw is a graduate of Mansfield State Teachers' College, Mansfield, Pennsylvania, and has taught two years at Mishoppen, Pa., one year at Clarks Summit, Pa., and three summers at Penn State Band and Orchestra School, State College, Pa.

Gifts Urgently Needed For Vets In Hospitals

Surely, Mr. and Mrs. Chelsea, you have not forgotten already the sacrifices made in this war by the men and women who were in it. There are hundreds of men and women in our hospitals in Michigan—wounded and ill from their service to their country. Won't you say "Thanks!" to these Yanks by putting at least one gift in the boxes to be found this week in Gamble's Department Store and the Public Library?

Some suggestions are: Toiletries, pen and pencil sets, smoking articles, soap, handkerchiefs, games, cards and pocket knives.

The American Legion Auxiliary will wrap and pack these gifts and deliver them for you, along with the many gifts the Auxiliary and members are contributing. The deadline is Dec. 7. So hurry!

—Committee.

Plan Parent-Teacher Conferences Tonight

All teachers of the Chelsea public schools will be in their rooms this evening from 7:30 to 8:30 to confer with any parents who wish to see them regarding the work of their boys or girls. Parents and others are invited to visit the school. No program is planned and the entire time will be devoted to conferences.

Report cards were handed out yesterday for the second six-weeks marking period of the year for the signatures of parents or guardians.

ROAST TURKEY SUPPER

The line will start forming about a quarter to five (4:45) next Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church. You'd better get in it and follow it until you find yourself with a trayful of roast turkey and dressing and all that goes with it (served cafeteria style). When you've eaten your fill, you can wander back past the fair booths and pick up a few little things you need; i.e., a scatter rug, a holder, an apron, something in the baked goods line. But remember the date—Dec. 5.

W.R.C. HOLDS PARTY

The Women's Relief Corps held a very enjoyable party at the home of Mrs. Mabel Bair on Tuesday afternoon, with 17 members present. Bingo was played and refreshments were served by the committee. The blanket was won by Mrs. Minnie Jones. The Corps wishes to thank all who helped to make this blanket sale such a success.

Needs Quick Cooking
Sweet corn needs to be cooked as soon after it is pulled as possible. When an ear is left on the back porch a few hours, the sugar begins to turn to starch and the flavor is on its way out.

Chicken Delousing
To delouse hens, a shallow box of dry sawdust is placed in the henhouse and sprinkled with louse powder. When the hens scratch, the powder settles in their feathers, killing the lice.

"CENTRAL" idea

ONE by one, wartime travel shortcomings are on the way out. But the men and women of New York Central will never forget the cheerfulness and helpfulness passengers showed in those trying days.

Your courtesy proved catching. Railroaders responded by redoubling their efforts to be personally helpful. From end to end of New York Central, they've formed themselves into Public Relations Groups. And there you'll find executives, engineers, signalmen, mechanics, people from all the 128 railroad crafts... pooling their ideas and experience to find better ways of earning your goodwill.

Nearly 30,000 have already enrolled, and more are joining daily. For they know their friendly helpfulness can mean as much to your travel enjoyment as the modern comfort of today's Great Steel Fleet... or the still greater luxury being built into the Trains of Tomorrow.

"COMPANY MANNERS"

MOST BECOMING thing to wear is a smile. Little words like "Thank you" do a big job. You'll find such ideas from the new employee booklet, "Company Manners," in action everywhere you travel on New York Central.

Barr-Viel

Miss Virginia Arlene Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle S. Barr, and Edward James Viel, MM-2C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Viel, spoke their nuptial vows in a double ring ceremony which took place at 8:30 on Wednesday evening, November 21, at the Congregational church.

Rev. Wm. H. Skentelbury officiated, and preceding the marriage service Miss Lyla Clay of Dearborn rendered the solo, "Because," and "Dearly Beloved," also singing "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lawrence Wacker, who played Lohengrin's Processional as the bride party entered.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Barr chose a dress of white marquisette with a fingertip veil of net caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Margaret Helen Beers of Ann Arbor, as matron of honor, was attired in pink net, with the peplum at the waist falling over a band of blue satin. She carried pink roses and white chrysanthemums and wore matching flowers in her hair.

Misses Jane and Helen Hart of Adrian attended their cousin as bridesmaids and were dressed alike in blue net, with trimming of pink. Their flowers were pink roses and blue mums. Diana Barr, little sister of the bride, wore a dress of the same material and style as the bridesmaids, and carried a basket of flowers.

Alan Wuerfel of Dexter was ring bearer and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Lt. Orvas Beers of Ann Arbor, cousin of the groom, performed the duties of best man, while the guests were seated by Lawrence Dietle and William Stierle.

Following the ceremony, a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 1288 Manchester Rd., was attended by about 100 guests from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Adrian, Hillsdale, Saline and Chelsea. The table, laid with a hand-painted cloth, was centered with the wedding cake, flanked with vases of roses and mums. The couple left for a short wedding trip, the bride wearing a suit of brown gabardine with lizard accessories.

Mrs. Viel, who graduated from Chelsea high school in 1942, was employed at the Federal Screw Works and later at Bowser, Inc.

Mr. Viel, also a graduate of Chelsea High with the class of 1940, enlisted for service in the U. S. Navy in October 1943, and has served in the Pacific since September 1944. The Rev. M. J. Messer performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and approached the altar, which was banked with palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums down an aisle of lighted tapers. She wore a grey wool suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage completed the costume.

Mrs. J. M. Allison, jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a suit of coral shade with black accessories. Her corsage was of white roses. Miss Ruth Miller, the bridesmaid, wore an aqua suit with black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

enter the School of Agriculture next semester.

Palmer-Moore

White chrysanthemums, palms and lighted tapers in candelabra formed the background for the marriage in the Martha Mary Chapel in Greenfield Village of Lois Patricia Palmer and Lieut. John Barton Moore at a 4:00 o'clock ceremony on Saturday afternoon. Rev. Frederick D. Mumby of Milford read the nuptial rites.

The bride is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Alger Arthur Palmer of Ft. Sheridan and Chelsea, and the groom, who served in the United States Air Corps in the Italian theatre, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Barton Moore, sr., of Dearborn.

The bride's gown of white chiffon was fashioned with a square neckline edged with lace. Long sleeves were gathered full at the wrist. The fitted bodice was designed of lace and a full skirt fell in a long train. A full length veil of matching material was held in place by a circlet of lace. She carried a white Bible and a white orchid.

Mrs. Raymond J. Gies served her sister as matron of honor and was gowned in a floor length dress of fuchsia silk jersey modeled with a fitted bodice. Ostich tips of matching color fashioned the head dress.

Miss Dorna Zarbach of Wheaton, Ill., and Miss Jeanne Meservy of Chelsea were chosen as bridesmaids. Both wore aqua gowns and head dresses, identical in pattern with that worn by the matron of honor. All carried arm bouquets of daisy mums blending in color from deep pink to fuchsia.

Capt. Charles Parham of Dearborn, who recently returned from Italy, where he served with the Army Air Corps, assisted Lt. Moore as best man. Norman Phelps of Chelsea and Howard Neal of Dearborn seated the guests.

Following the ceremony, the guests were received at Dearborn Inn.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Palmer wore a floor length dress of chartreuse and black and a small hat of matching ostrich tips. Mrs. Moore chose a gown of plum crepe with sequin trim. She used black accessories. Both mothers wore orchids.

The bride attended Michigan State College for two years, where she was a member of Chi Omega Sorority. She completed her work in the School of Dental Hygiene at the University last June.

When the couple left on a short honeymoon, the bride wore a three-piece suit of tweed with which she used brown accessories. After their return, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside in Ann Arbor, where Mr. Moore will continue his studies at the University.

Anita Catherine McClear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark E. McClear of Gregory, became the bride of Bernard P. Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Lyons of Chelsea, at a nuptial high mass solemnized at St. Mary's Catholic church in Chelsea on Saturday, Nov. 24 at 9:00 a.m. The Reverend Father Lee Laige officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace fashioned with a fitted bodice, and full skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tulle of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and baby mums, centered with an orchid.

Miss Dorothy McClear, maid of honor, her sister's only attendant, wore an aqua brocade gown fashioned very similar to that of the bride's, and a headpiece of matching ostrich feathers. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and baby mums.

Joseph Lyons, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and S-Sgt. Glennon McClear, brother of the bride, and William Rademacher, close friend of both the bride and groom, seated the guests. Rosemary and Therese Lyons, sisters of the bridegroom, sang "Ave Maria" at the Offertory.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McClear wore an aqua dress with black accessories. Mrs. Lyons wore a black dress-trimmed in blue, with black accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at Black's Country Club, Unadilla, to the immediate families and close friends of the bride and groom. The table decorations consisted of a beautiful floral centerpiece of white mums with lighted tapers on either side.

Mr. Fischer was born July 2, 1866 in Schorndorf, Wurtemberg, Germany, the son of William and Agatha Hanselman Fischer. He came to this country at the age of 14 with his mother, brother and sister. The family lived in Ann Arbor until 1883, when they moved to Lima township.

On March 7, 1901 Mr. Fischer was married to Hattie Spiegelberg, and they made their home on the George Spiegelberg farm, moving to their present address in 1906.

Mr. Fischer had been a member of the Methodist church since the closing of the Lima Center Evangelical church, of which he was also a member.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Wilford Ketz of Schenectady, N. Y.; a son, Harvey, of Lima township; six grandchildren, three nephews and a niece.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Miller funeral home, with Rev. Fred D. Mumby of Milford officiating. Burial was in Forest Lawn cemetery, Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Louis Fryzelka and family in Detroit.

OFFICE NEWS

Report cards were handed out yesterday. All teachers will be at the school tonight from 7:30 to 8:30 to confer with any parents who wish regarding the work of their children.

The 7th and 8th grades are having a party in the gymnasium tomorrow night from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

The Freshmen are having a party Saturday night from 8 to 11 p.m.

The first basketball game of the season will be played at U-High on December 7.

FAMOUS LITTLE PAPER WADS

Yes, the paper wads are famous around Chelsea high school. I wonder who started this thrilling game which is so popular in the study halls! What is there so wonderful about crumpling up a piece of paper very tight, throwing it, and hearing the victim express his protests? But that is only half of this little game. When the person who threw the first one gets a paper wad back at him, only a little harder, it isn't quite so funny. Certain people wad the paper so tight and throw them so hard that when the person is hit it really stings. Often times a different person is struck than the paper wad was meant for. This person may not consider it at all funny.

Although it may be fun for some pupils, it is not fun for the janitor to clean them all up each night. It is very annoying to the people who try to study and cannot.

The situation has been improving, but it still needs much more attention.

JANITORS

We have two new janitors in Chelsea High this year. Probably most citizens read of Mr. Gentner's retirement as the janitor this summer. We have two younger men this year and we should be thankful for the school's extra cleanliness. Everyone will agree that Mr. Gentner did everything he could to keep our school clean; but he was one man trying to do the work of several. There are two janitors this year, not just one.

We didn't half appreciate what Mr. Gentner tried to do and did do, and we aren't half appreciating the new janitors either. After all, janitors aren't supposed to clean up after each individual personally; we should try to help lighten the task. We could do this and never know it. Paper should be put in the waste baskets and not in desks; gum should be thrown in a waste basket and not stuck on floors, walls, and desks; writing on the walls and desks could be stopped. Every little thing will help.

Come on, let's thank the janitors for what they are doing by cooperating. Let's show them that we appreciate the weekly mopping of the halls, rest-rooms and shower-rooms, that we value the extra repairs that are appearing, one by one, about the building!

FRESHMEN BIOGRAPHIES

In introducing the new freshmen to you we almost left out some of the most important ones—the new teachers! This year there are three new high school teachers. Their names are: Miss Vogel, Miss Thornton and Mr. De Matteis. This week you will meet:

Miss Doris Vogel, our commercial teacher, is from Grand Haven. Before coming here to teach, Miss Vogel taught in the Grand Haven high school and is a graduate of Western Michigan College.

When asked what her favorite form of relaxation was, Miss Vogel got a gleam in her eye and then answered "Swimming and reading! Sure!"

She has very dark hair, blue eyes, claims to be 5 feet 8 inches (but we doubt if that is in her stocking feet); and looks very nice in either red or green. That ought to prove interesting, too, with Christmas coming up. Miss Vogel says she likes Chelsea and the school very much but there is no place like home!

CLASS NEWS

Freshmen—The Freshmen are having a class party this Saturday evening in the gym.

Juniors—The class is very happy because they received their class rings last Wednesday. Their stationery sale, which ended Tuesday of this week, was very successful.

BAND SPECIAL

Plans are being made by the Chelsea High School Band for a special Christmas Concert to be given in the near future.

Guest performers from the University of Michigan will high-light the program and the band, under the direction of Vincent De Matteis, will play many of your favorite Christmas numbers.

If you really intend to make your Christmas holidays complete this year, plan now to attend this concert given by your own high school band. More complete plans will be announced in later issues of the Standard.

CHORUS

Chorus has a new teacher, Mr. Yaw. Everyone likes him. Can you blame them? More boys are planning on joining chorus, too. The chorus is busily working on their Christmas program.

JUNIOR HIGH PARTY

Committees have been chosen for the party on November 30, which is going to be held in the gym. The committees are:

Decorations—Raymond Steinbach, Nancy Eisemann, Carl O'Dell, Marilyn Johnson, Billy Palmer, Roslyn Reute.

Food (preparation and planning)—Thelma Refett, Joanne Rudd, Jerry Lehman, Virginia Christwell, Priscilla Popp, Helen Eschelbach.

Food (clean-up)—Joanne Eisemann, Doris Vickers, Deores Walker, Peggy Schable, Jean McClure, Joyce Umstead.

Clean-up (gym)—Donald Pierson, George Alperwitz, Buddy Johnson, Arden Musbach, Dean Wortley, Bill Schrader.

Tickets—George Heydlaff, Ronnie Eder.

This will be the second Junior High Party this year and the dates for two others have been set.

The chaperons for this party will be Miss Searles and Miss Fox, and at least two others not yet chosen.

We also want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steinbach and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Alperwitz for chaperoning the last party.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

Things I'm Thankful For

(By Jana Lou Weinberg)

I am thankful for a lot of things. One thing I am thankful for is religious freedom, that we are able to go to any church we wish, that we can worship how we want.

I am thankful for our homes that we have, that we are not like some people in Europe who have no homes.

I am thankful for the schools we have and the books and material to use. Think of the Pilgrims! They didn't have paper or any school supplies. I am very thankful about our schools.

I am thankful that I have parents that love me that care for me and help me. I am thankful for my friends, for my teachers, and people who help me. But, best of all, I'm thankful for everyday living in this wonderful country, the United States, and its democratic way of governing. I'm very thankful for everything.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The seventh grade boys started basketball teams in Physical Education on Wednesday nights.

We are planning for a party to take place between now and Christmas.

ORGANIZE BREEDING UNIT

Washtenaw county dairymen in the northeastern area of the county organized an Artificial Breeding Unit last Friday evening. The officers are: President, Frank Geiger; vice-pres., Nelson Bender; secretary-treas., Donald Gill. The other directors are Geo. Simmons, J. R. McKay and Clarence King. Other members of the unit include: Miro Bailo, Joseph Ziwniowski, Ivan Galpin, Gordon Gill, Reynolds Sweet, Richard Earhart, Earl Knaggs, Curtis Hamilton, John Hansen, and DeForest Thompson.

Geo. Parsons, Dairy Department, Michigan State College, was present and explained the organization and purpose of such a unit.

Two hundred thirty-three cows have already been signed up for the unit. Three hundred is the minimum before a unit can begin operation. Directors are now interested in obtaining the services of some local person as an inseminator who will be required to take a week's training course at Michigan State College. This is the first unit to be organized in Washtenaw county and the directors desire to confine its operation to the four townships in the northeast corner of the county in order to hold travel expenses to a minimum.

LYNDON FARM BUREAU

A meeting of the Lyndon Farm Bureau was held on Tuesday evening, November 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barton, and was called to order by the president, Edward Cooper.

Guest of the evening was Clyde Breining of Ypsilanti, who led a discussion on the need of more cooperation among farmers and farm organizations. After the meeting, the remainder of the evening was spent in visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Barton's son, Richard, who was recently discharged from the armed forces.

Proclamation

Home and Family Week

Home is a word common to all languages. In all countries and among all peoples, the home is the basic unit of human living. The American home is the most important factor in determining the strength, welfare and happiness of the state and nation.

The family is the object of our deepest affection and concern. As we again set ourselves about the tasks of peace, and as the reunion of families, separated by war, happily becomes a daily occurrence, it is impressed upon us that the home should be a place of large spiritual dimension, truly a sanctuary of affection, harmony and contentment.

As there is no substitute for the home and family in the development of the character of our youth and a national morality of high ideals and a belief in God which is all-important to our state and nation;

Therefore, I, Harry F. Kelly, Governor of the State of Michigan, set aside the week of December 2 to 8, 1945, as Home and Family Week, and I call upon all our people to study and reflect upon the values and needs of home and family and ask that all unite their efforts for the preservation and improvement of home and family life.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand-Nine Hundred Forty-Five, and of the Commonwealth the One Hundred Ninth.

HARRY F. KELLY, Governor.
