George Webb Injured When Car Hits Rake

George Webb, 20 years old, of North Lake, suffered severe bruises and lacerations Thursday afternoon when a car driven by John Fausser, 27, of Pinckney, crashed into the back of the hay rake he and Coyne Holliday, 17, were driving on the road.

The car, which was parked on the road shoulder, directly in front of the John Sullivan home. Holliday was shaken up and bruised.

The rake, a new one, was the property of John Sullivan, who had offered Mr. Webb the use of it, and Mr. Webb and Holliday had just started back to the Webb farm and were parked on the road shoulder while Mr. Sullivan's son, Charles, 16, was oiling it.

Charles narrowly escaped instant death as he looked back a second before the crash and lost the presence of mind to throw himself backward and into the ditch. He had been working at the back of the rake.

The impact broke the harness on the horses and they broke loose, which was the reason Mr. Webb was not more seriously injured or killed, as he fell into the rake when it was struck. The rake was completely demolished.

Mr. Webb was taken to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor, where it is reported he is slowly improving.

John Fausser was arrested by investigating officers and was assessed $10 in court costs Friday morning by Municipal Judge Jay H. Payne when he pleaded guilty to driving without an operator's license.

Educators Visit Cassidy Lake Technical School

In commenting on his findings made during a recent visit to the Cassidy Lake Technical School, Professor Orlando W. Stephenson, of the Department of History and head of the Department of Social Studies at the University of Michigan high school, expressed his opinion that "much worthwhile work was being done there."

Professor Stephenson said: "We went from one building to another and made a study of the physical plant, of the various services, and the activities of the administrative staff, those of the high school and of their evident attitude towards their present situation. I have been connected with public work for many years and am at present chairman of the Ann Arbor Police Commission. This connection has given me an opportunity to study at first hand the type of boys to be found at Cassidy Lake, and I think I know when I see a wholesome attitude on their part. I talked with a good many of the boys at Cassidy, and found them responsive, appreciative of their opportunities at Cassidy, and possessed of a wholesome attitude toward their environment."

Speaking for himself and the several other members of the University faculty who visited Cassidy Lake with him, Professor Stephenson stated: "We found things well ordered, nicely systematized, and moving along with the barest minimum of friction. The fine attitude of the boys toward the project's aim and its officers, together with the nature of the services, the progress the boys are making, and many other things convinced us that it would be difficult to find a place better managed than Cassidy Lake is being managed."

The State Department of Corrections has been operating the Cassidy Lake Technical School since it started part of 1942, having acquired title to the equipment there when the National Youth Administration project was abandoned. The school is built up along camp styles on a tract containing some 600 acres belonging to the Department of Conservation, at Cassidy Lake, northwest of Chelsea.

Buildings consist of well constructed cabins each housing nine persons.

Cross-breeding of dairy cattle without a plan is to be frowned upon; but cross-breeding by using a succession of sires will bring productive results, says Dr. B. B. Baltzer, a dairy specialist at Michigan State college.

Recent announcement of cross-breeding of dairy stock at the U. S. Department of Agriculture dairy farm at Beltsville, Md., has caused many questions to be asked as to cross-breeding to reach Michigan State college dairy specialists.

Dairy stock of rich milk and percent test inheritance will bring productive results in cross-breeding, Baltzer explains. Dairy cows can be highly productive because they have inherited the milking and butterfat producing factors and receive from their owner good feed and treatment.

"It is not a question of grade or registered stock. It is a question of more economical and efficient production," says Baltzer, "and records obtained from dairy herd improvement association," says Baltzer, "concerning cross-breeding of dairy stock."

He points out that by using artificial insemination, the dairy farmer is able to build up the production quality of his herd because of proved sires. More than 95 per cent of all the dairy cows in Michigan are graded cows, Baltzer points out. He adds that they are excellent grades because of their registered sire-parentage with a background of high production of quality milk.

Speaking of Books
Vacation time is children's time—a time when parents give more thought to the reading of their children. Louise Seaman Bechtel, one of the most distinguished of children's book editors writes, "There is a wonderful golden age when everyone who feels like doing so can find an answer for childhood when people are partly corrupted, when individualism is rampant, when the sense of good words is acute, when the world is still surprising, and all good still is possible. This age used to last till people were adolescents. Now this golden age is shorter and shorter, depending on where children live and how much of the mass culture touches them. It is our job together to prolong it and to make books that give it a belief in its own best impulses."

In that job many people have a part, especially teachers, parents and librarians. The children's librarian is a defender of books. She judges them by her own trained judgment, and also by their direct appeal to children. On her rests the importance of library work in our world. The library conducted directly to youth guidance in several ways: (1) by encouraging young people to form the habit of reading for pleasure, (2) to develop their appreciation of good books and consequent sense of values, (3) by teaching them to use printed materials and reference tools skillfully, and (4) by helping them determine which vocations fit their qualifications best.

The union picnic of the Sunday schools of Chelsea planned for last Monday, was postponed because it was feared by the committee in charge that it would not be a financial success. The children of the Sunday schools were very disappointed. St. Paul's Sunday school held a picnic in Riemenschneider grove at Cavanaugh Lake on Wednesday as a substitute.

Recent announcement of cross-breeding of dairy stock at the U. S. Department of Agriculture dairy farm at Beltsville, Md., has caused many questions to be asked as to cross-breeding to reach Michigan State college dairy specialists.

Dairy stock of rich milk and percent test inheritance will bring productive results in cross-breeding, Baltzer explains. Dairy cows can be highly productive because they have inherited the milking and butterfat producing factors and receive from their owner good feed and treatment.

"It is not a question of grade or registered stock. It is a question of more economical and efficient production," says Baltzer, "and records obtained from dairy herd improvement association," says Baltzer, "concerning cross-breeding of dairy stock."

He points out that by using artificial insemination, the dairy farmer is able to build up the production quality of his herd because of proved sires. More than 95 per cent of all the dairy cows in Michigan are graded cows, Baltzer points out. He adds that they are excellent grades because of their registered sire-parentage with a background of high production of quality milk.

Speaking of Books
Vacation time is children's time—a time when parents give more thought to the reading of their children. Louise Seaman Bechtel, one of the most distinguished of children's book editors writes, "There is a wonderful golden age when everyone who feels like doing so can find an answer for childhood when people are partly corrupted, when individualism is rampant, when the sense of good words is acute, when the world is still surprising, and all good still is possible. This age used to last till people were adolescents. Now this golden age is shorter and shorter, depending on where children live and how much of the mass culture touches them. It is our job together to prolong it and to make books that give it a belief in its own best impulses."

In that job many people have a part, especially teachers, parents and librarians. The children's librarian is a defender of books. She judges them by her own trained judgment, and also by their direct appeal to children. On her rests the importance of library work in our world. The library conducted directly to youth guidance in several ways: (1) by encouraging young people to form the habit of reading for pleasure, (2) to develop their appreciation of good books and consequent sense of values, (3) by teaching them to use printed materials and reference tools skillfully, and (4) by helping them determine which vocations fit their qualifications best.

Michigan Bell To Have Radiotelephone Service
Detroit—The Michigan Bell Telephone Company plans to inaugurate general mobile radiotelephone service on all important highways in the southern part of the state by next spring.

President Thomas N. Lacy announced that the company will apply to the Federal Communications Commission for permission to install transmitting and receiving stations at Detroit, Leaning Grand Rapids, Jackson, Flint, Port Huron, Kalamazoo, and Bay City-Saginaw.

Lacy said that, although the proposed installation initially will operate as separate stations serving those and nearby communities, they later will become links in a general highway service, not only for southern Michigan but also to nearby states through similar Bell System installations.

The new service will provide automobile communication on highways south of the Bay City-Saginaw line in eastern Michigan and south of Grand Rapids in the western part of the state, Lacy said.

Proposed installations are in addition to those planned this fall in Detroit where the first urban mobile service will be inaugurated in Michigan. That service will be provided over a different frequency and it will be necessary to install new stations at Detroit for general highway operation.

Highway service will provide two-way telephone communication between cars, trucks and other mobile units and any telephone connected with the nation-wide Bell System lines. Stations at coastal points also could serve harbor and shipping craft. Calls to and from vehicles will travel part way by radio and part way by wire, each transmitter-receiver along the highways being linked by wire with a telephone central office.

HUDSON REUNION

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Hudson family was held Sunday at Watts' grove, North Lake, with 61 members of the family attending from Lansing, Williamston, St. Johns, Stockbridge, Chelsea, North Lake, White Oak and Merrill.

After a pot-luck dinner at noon, a short program was given consisting of group singing and a talk by Mrs. Fred Glenn, of Chelsea, on the history of the surrounding territory at North Lake, where most of the family originally lived.

Officers elected for the coming year are: President, Mr. Norman Whipple, Chelsea; vice-president, Clasper Glenn, Stockbridge; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Glenn, Stockbridge.

The 1947 reunion will be held the last Sunday in July at Potter's Park in Lansing.

Chelsea people attending the reunion were the families of Harry Lehman, Dale Keeser and Veal Whipple, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glenn.

Donald H. Bacon and his daughter, Sallie, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Schneider during several weeks' business trip, left Saturday for their home in Tucson, Ariz. Sallie will later return to enter the University of Michigan.

Baseball News

By Bill Schatz

"Back in the Saddle Again!" Chelsea Independents handed Pinckney a trouncing Sunday afternoon to the applause of a nice crowd. Thank you.

Box score was as follows: Chelsea, 5 runs, 10 hits, 1 error; Pinckney, 1 run, 3 hits, 2 errors.

Our warriors wielded the old club mightily here Sunday afternoon. Richard the Lion Hearted, Dick Heister belted out two timely doubles, a three-base walkup by Ed Miller being the longest hit. H. Barth and Al Johnson each got 2 out of 4. Nice dessert, folks, mighty nice. Fast, happy hitting plays were in evidence, Stan Policht doing a swell job at short.

Our lineup for Sunday was as follows: 2b, Joe Policht; cf, B. Barth; 1b, H. Barth; 3b, Al Johnson; catcher, Dick Heister; 1b, Dick White; pitcher, Ed Miller, Jr.; ss, Stan Policht; rf, Louis Birch.

S. Marsh went in for Joe Policht at second in the fifth.

Sunday, August 4 we will try to scalp Fowlerville in their own pasture. We took them here, so it's Fowlerville here we come. Batter up—let's go!

Repair Fence Around Wildlife Browse Plots

Munising.—Repair of the fencing around one of the 12 browse spots at Cusino wildlife experiment station marks the resumption by conservation department game men of the deer feeding and carrying capacity studies interrupted by the war.

The first one-acre plot enclosed in hard maple cover. Next winter this and other browse plots readied for use will be stocked with live-trapped deer.

Browse plot experiments will reveal, it is hoped, just how many deer may be expected to find sufficient winter food on a given acreage of each type of deer country cover, so that the state's overall capacity may be known for long range deer herd management.

Thrilling moment in the 20-year-old film DON JUAN, featuring John Barrymore. This was the first full-length sound movie.

The modern movie is 20 years old on August 6

Twenty years ago the movies added sound to sight. DON JUAN was the film. A year later came THE JAZZ SINGER, the first feature to use lip synchronization.

Both were produced and presented by Warner Brothers. The equipment which made them possible was developed and made by Bell Telephone Laboratories and Western Electric Company. These two Bell System units have continued to apply their skills to improve sound reproduction.

Bell scientists were able to solve the talking picture problem because of their continuous study of every means to improve communication. The "talkies" came directly out of telephone research.

First Choice for a Picnic—Fried Chicken

(See Recipes Below)

Eat Outdoors!

The time has come to take the picnic baskets out to the shady glen or under the old oak tree in the back yard and let the outdoors spread its irresistible seasoning to savory-cooked foods. Why not plan to eat outdoors at least once a week this summer?

Eating outdoors will get Mother out of the sweltering kitchen for at least two hours; it will give Dad time to contemplate the beauties of nature; and it will give youngsters a chance to catch up on out-of-doors secrets.

Outdoor eating is spoiled if there's too much fuss connected with it, so plan everything as simply as possible. The family will enjoy nibbling on a chicken leg with their fingers much more than trying to carve a piece of pot roast for every bite they take. If they don't want to wrestle with salads, take along whole fruits like oranges and tomatoes, pears or grapes, or such things as carrot sticks and celery hearts and let them get their vitamins that way.

If it's pie or cake for dessert, they like, bake and leave in its pan, as it's easy enough to place that in a box and slice as it's needed on the picnic.

Here's an unusual way of preparing potato salad that's both flavorful and easy to make. If you are having a light supper, you won't need extra meat.

Hot Potato-Sausage Salad.

(Serves 6)

- 1 pound sausage links
- 6 medium-sized potatoes
- 1/4 cup minced onion
- 1/4 cup vinegar
- 3 tablespoons water
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Paré potatoes and cook. Drain and cut in 1/4-inch squares. Place sausage links in skillet and add a small amount of water. Cover and steam for 8 minutes. Drain off remaining water and cook sausage over low heat, turning to brown evenly. Remove links from pan. Add onion to dripping and brown. Add vinegar, water, sugar and salt. Stir and cook about 10 minutes. Pour over potatoes. Top with sausage links.

Lynn Says:

Sandwiches for Summer: Nut bread tastes mighty good when spread with orange marmalade, currant jelly, and a grated rind of lemon mixed with cream cheese.

Or mix chopped, cooked fruits with cream cheese and spread on date bread.

Date paste or mixed dried fruits ground into a paste and mixed with cottage cheese offer a taste treat on raisin brown bread.

Cut peeled cucumber very fine, mix with mayonnaise and give it a dash of onion juice and spread on thin slices of white bread.

You'll also like these combinations: Cottage cheese with grated carrots; apple butter with raisins and chopped nuts; cream cheese with finely ground, hard-cooked egg and minced green pepper.

Sweet salad desserts are excellent for strictly feminine lunches. Diced canned cling peaches plus assorted fruits, frozen-in gelatin-thickened whipped cream, are tops.

For enjoyable eating, include shiny black olives in your picnic lunches. To keep them shiny and to prevent shriveling, roll them in a few drops of olive oil or salad oil and wrap them in wax paper.

Fried Chicken.

Cut chicken into serving pieces. Chicken may be dipped in seasoned flour, corn meal and flour, or cracker crumbs or flour. If a heavier coating is desired, dip in egg, beat in slightly, then in flour coating. Use heavy skillet and have 3 to 4 inches of fat in it. Fry chicken on both sides until golden brown. When browned, turn fire down very low and allow chicken to cook until tender—from 30 to 60 minutes depending upon size of the pieces and age of chicken. Or, if desired, finish cooking in a moderate (350° oven).

If you prefer your chicken in a loaf, bake it when ready to serve your picnic lunch, slice it from the loaf for sandwiches, or serve with tossed salad.

Chicken Loaf.

(Serves 8 to 10)

- 4 to 5 pound chicken, cut in pieces
- 1 small carrot
- 1 small onion
- 2 stalks celery
- 1 clove
- 3 peppercorns
- 1 teaspoon salt

Chicken Loaf.

(Serves 8 to 10)

- 2 cups bread crumbs
- 1 cup cooked rice
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
- 3 cups chicken broth, milk or both
- 5 eggs, beaten

Place chicken in large kettle and add carrot, onion, cloves, peppercorns and salt. Cover with cold water and simmer until tender, about 2 hours.

Strain chicken stock and let chicken cool. Combine diced chicken with remaining ingredients. Add more seasoning if desired. Place in a deep loaf pan and bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven for one hour or until firm.

A good salad to take in a well-chilled bowl to the picnic grounds is this one that is light but chewy and rich in vitamins:

Tonic Salad.

(Serves 6)

- 2 cups cabbage, sliced fine
- 1 cup grated carrot
- 1 cup chopped tart apple
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 small onion, minced

Moisten all ingredients with a little salad dressing. Salt, if desired, and serve cold.

A delicate yellow cake that is made in a square pan is another easily transported item. Ice this with a little orange powdered sugar icing or a chocolate frosting:

- 2 egg whites, beaten stiff
- 2 egg yolks, beaten light
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 cup hot milk
- 1 tablespoon butter, melted

Add yolks to egg whites, then blend sugar in slowly. Fold in flour which has been sifted with baking powder, then lastly add the butter. Bake in a square pan in a moderate oven for 25 to 30 minutes. When cool, ice with:

- 2 squares chocolate
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1/2 cup rich milk
- Powdered sugar

Melt chocolate with milk and butter. Add enough powdered sugar until frosting is of a spreading consistency. Flavor with vanilla. This will keep soft and smooth.

OUR NEIGHBORS

WILLIAMSTON—To perpetuate the memory of our war dead and commemorate the living veterans, a local committee is planning a Veterans' Memorial Building Association. A meeting of all local organizations and the public is planned for Friday, July 26—Enterprise.

GRASS LAKE—August 14 was set as the day for the annual V-J Day celebration in Grass Lake at the first meeting of committee chairman on Monday evening. Prizes will be given at a drawing of lucky ticket holders.—News.

MANCHESTER—A meeting was called at the school auditorium Monday evening to organize a much needed Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Alvin Kappler was chosen temporary chairman and Mrs. Roscoe Lannon, temporary secretary.—Enterprise.

SALINE—The Irish Hills were named by Rev. Wm. N. Lyster, a native of Wexford county, Ireland, because the gentle slopes, with their woods and sparkling lakes, recalled to him the countryside of his old home. Lyster was born in 1805 and came to the United States when a young man.—Observer.

BRIGHTON—Cats, dogs, goats, tadpoles and rabbits with their youthful owners "marched" down Main street last Friday afternoon in the Pet Parade held as part of the Victory Homecoming celebration, and several members of the Fire Department, led by leashes in the hands of their respective wives, brought up the rear of the meandering parade of pets.—Argus.

The International Association of Police Chiefs is starting a car check-up program and that program needs your support.

All cars involved in traffic violations, accidents and those that are stopped because of some infraction of the rules by the law will be given a checkup on brakes, horn, lights, steering equipment and other driving mechanisms and, if found faulty, will be given a slip to have the item repaired within a given time.

This is a very worthy cause and a fine program. People ought to volunteer to have their cars checked by the police department in their community so that they can be assured of these items on their car and, through their actions, encourage others to do likewise.

Call up the police department in your community and volunteer to have your car checked—show the way to be a safe driver.

Damaged Hides

The damage caused by the branding of the hides of range cattle amounts to more than $6,000,000 annually. Side branding reduces the value of one-half the hide when tanned by 35 per cent. It is to curb these losses and encourage more careful branding practices that a campaign has been launched in the cattle country to encourage branding on the cheek, neck or legs below the belly line, leaving the group area unmarked.

VACATION DAYS

By NATE COLLIER

By GENE ALLEMAN

Living symbol of the power of an idea is Mary Jane Hayden, 18-year-old daughter of Perry and Elizabeth Hayden of Tecumseh.

The Haydena founded the "Biblical Wheat" demonstration of sowing whereby farmers have agreed to donate one-tenth of the annual yield of grain, starting with one bushel of grain donated by Henry Ford, to the church of their choice. The sixth and final planting of dynamic kernels has produced approximately 50,000 bushels of wheat, valued currently at about $100,000.

—Sown this year by 267 Michigan farmers, the wheat which will benefit 200,000 poor people in 175 individual churches. Much of the wheat will be donated to famine relief.

Mary Jane has dedicated her life to the cause of Christ. She will be a foreign missionary, planning to go to China for example, the spirit of the Golden Rule in the hearts of people in far-off lands.

Labor unrest in the city, not the revolutionary threat to the atomic bomb, is prompting industry to decentralize production in favor of small towns.

While on a brief swing of West Michigan last week, we ran into several cases of this post-war trend.

At Belding, for example, the town's business section is dominated by an imposing mill structure, many stories high, with a big clock in a tower. It was built about 1900 by the Belding Brothers Silk company and operated steadily until 1931 when it became a victim of the depression and remained idle for nearly nine years.

The Belding mill plant is the new home of a division of the Murray Corporation of America which employs 500 persons, make springs for Oldsmobiles. Another new industry is the Extruded Metal Corp., employing 300 persons to make airplane parts. Gibson has a stove factory also at Belding.

Belding is now back on the map. Things are booming.

North of Belding is another enterprising small city, Greenville, with plants making Gibson refrigerators and Federal Mogul trucks.—Don Smith, newspaper publisher, reported that Greenville has a labor shortage that local industries hope to double payrolls in the next five years.

Cedar Springs, the red flannel home, was selected recently for a branch of the Keeler Glass company of Grand Rapids. Its big industry is the Interstate Creamery which employs 80 persons, pays them $3,500 a week, and puts $30,000 into the bank accounts of dairy farmers every six days.

Through the courtesy of Cy Johnson, plant superintendent, we witnessed the assembly line production of sweetened condensed milk, of which 250,000 cans are being turned out daily for shipment overseas. Interstate cream recently opened up branches at Edmore and Reed City.

Sparta, also in Kent county, brags of a "million dollar peach belt," but it has several prosperous industries including a branch of the Muskegon Pylon Ring company and a plant of the Carnation Milk company, only one of its kind in Michigan. Nearby at Kent City is the Larsen canning plant.

Growers near Sparta are in clover this summer. Cherries are bringing $300 a ton, or around 21 cents a quart. Pickers earn $1 an hour, compared with $1.50 a day pre-war. One Sparta grower, a graduate of Michigan State College, netted $2,000 an acre from strawberries on a three-and-one-half-acre tract.

Up in Newaygo county at Grant is an up-and-coming agricultural center. Nine new buildings are under construction in the business district, thanks to high prices for onions, celery and carrots.

Grant is proud of its fine community building, the gift of heirs of a West Michigan lumberman, the late D. W. Squier, who left property in 38 states.

The town of Newaygo on the Muskegon river is the home of a new industry, the Robey Tackle company, making fishing tackle and tennis shoes. It was started by Robey, a former salesman for Shakespeare at Kalamazoo. Newaygo also has the newly organized Post Frozen Products company and the Newaygo Milk Products company, both financed by Grand Rapids and Fremont people.

At White Cloud, county-seat of Newaygo county, is a lumber company which is going to town with prefabricated houses. Three rooms and bath for $1,300, so we were told.

Scottville is the home of the world's largest canning plant for string beans. It is operated by the Stokely company of Indianapolis. When we were there, the company was advertising for 2,000 women to work five or six weeks.

Traveling northward along the sandy west coast with its succession of lakes, most of them connected to Lake Michigan, we visited Manistowick, Frankfort, Belding, and Charlevoix. Hotels and cottages are jammed; it looks like a bumper year for the tourist industry there.

Better wire ahead for reservations if you plan to stay any length of time. We found plenty of cabin facilities for overnight needs.

Conceived by the American Legion and legalized as a holiday by the state legislature with an official proclamation by Governor Harry Kelly, "Victory Day" will be celebrated in Michigan on Wednesday, August 14. A number of Michigan towns will hold raising-receptions for World War II veterans. State employees now have legal holidays with pay. "Victory Day" will be No. 11.

An eye-witness true story: Recently we were week-end guests of Richard "Dick" Fletcher of Bay City at his Rosecommon summer place. On a day's car trip down the South Branch Au Sable, we went by four fishermen, each of whom was eager to get the daily limit of 15 trout. At the Smith bridge the four men caught up with us. Much to our surprise they returned 42 live trout to the stream and the day's catch. How many sportsmen would do the same?

BROADSIDE TO THE SUN
By Don West

This is the story of a man, his deep attachment to his family, to his animals, and to his land. It is the story of a reclaimed farm deep in the hills of Arkansas.

Mrs. W. G. Price and daughter, Mrs. Victor Sindinger were in Detroit on Sunday, where they called on Mrs. Price's brother-in-law, B. E. Weinheimer, who is a patient at Receiving hospital.

WEDDINGS

Hooker-Stephenson
Saturday, July 27 at 7 p.m., Miss Marie Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hooker of Jackson, formerly of Chelsea, and Edward L. Stephenson of Bancroft, Michigan, were united in marriage at a candle-light ceremony held in the Congregational church of Bancroft, in the presence of one hundred relatives and friends. Rev. W. H. Skentelbury performed the double ring service. The couple was attended by Miss Peggy Hooker, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, Mrs. Clark Lewis, friend of the bride and Mrs. Roland Byam, cousin of the groom, as bridesmaids. Clark Lewis acted as best man, and Roland Byam and Loren Frye seated the guests. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride's gown was of white satin with long sleeves pointed at the wrists, sweetheart neckline and long train. The veil was finger-tip length and fastened to the head with a tiara of seed pearls. Her colonial style bouquet was of white gladioli blossoms and edged with stephanotis.

The maid of honor wore a pale blue gown with pink veil and gloves. Her bouquet, fashioned like the bride's, was of pink gladioli blossoms edged with white stephanotis. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of pink with blue veils and gloves. Their bouquets were of pink and white gladioli.

Judy Hawkey, small-cousin-of-the-groom, was flower-girl, dressed in a pale yellow gown with a tiara of shasta daisies and a miniature bouquet of sweetpeas and snapdragons. Richard Byam, another cousin of the groom, carried the rings in the center of a large flower made of gladioli petals.

Two tall candelabra, palms, and baskets of white gladioli-banked the altar. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Wilbur Love of Bancroft, Lawrence B. Van Horn of Durand sang "I Love You Truly" and "Home-Coming."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hooker wore a street length dress of light blue, a corsage of pink gladioli and white accessories. Mrs. Harry Gregory, mother of the groom, wore a black and white print with a corsage of yellow roses and white accessories.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was given in the church parlor. Tables were decorated with white flowers and crystal candelabra holding long white tapers. In the center of the bride's table was a beautifully decorated wedding cake topped with the traditional bride and groom. Miss Lorraine Street and Miss Audrey Jackson, both of Bancroft, served the cake and ice cream. Coffee and iced tea were served by Mrs. Robert Brown of Durand, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Bert Walworth of Bancroft.

For going away the bride chose a dress of gray gabardine with gold and white accessories. The couple will spend their honeymoon near Traverse City.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson are graduates of Bancroft high school, the former with the class of '33 and the latter with the class of '40. The bride has lived in Chelsea for the past six years. The groom spent forty months in the United States Army, during which time he served with the Medical Corps in the African and European theatres of war.

In late August the couple will return to Bancroft, where they will make their home.

WEBER REUNION
The annual Weber reunion was held Sunday, July 28 at Ella Sharp Park, Jackson. About thirty-five members of the family attended, and enjoyed a pot-luck dinner at noon. During the afternoon games and stunts were the entertainment.

Chelsea people attending were Mrs. Clarence Leach and sons, Merle and Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwischer, Caroline and Robert, Mrs. Otto Weber, G. Eisele and Patricia Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Foster and daughter Izora spent Thursday and Friday of the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Walling in Grosse Pointe Farms.

kitchen and bakery, hospital, laundry, school buildings, garage and machine shop, a large recreational building which houses the library, chapel, and gymnasium, and several other office and service buildings. The camp has very complete equipment for the teaching of machine trades, welding, radio, shop work and related subjects. The school is staffed by a superintendent, vocational supervisor, who has several civilian assistants, an academic supervisor, a psychologist, a boys' counselor, a steward, a maintenance supervisor and five watchmen. There is also a physician and a chaplain in attendance. Psychiatric service is had from the State Psychiatric.

Boys are sent to the school by the Probate Courts of the State under the Wayward Minor Act, enacted by the State Legislature in 1944. This group is augmented through transfer of carefully screened "first offenders" from the Ionia Reformatory, who closely conform to the age of the Wayward Minor group who range from 17 to 19 years of age. At the school every effort is made to discover the factor that leads to the boy's maladjustment, and then a program is planned to be helpful in his correctional treatment. The school program is chiefly of a vocational nature, with counseling in other subjects whenever it is indicated as necessary in the remedial training. However, much of the remedial effort consists of counseling, with the purpose of enabling the boy to better understand and overcome his own problems. Since January 1945, 103 boys have been returned to civilian status with the percentage of recurring offenders being far below normal expectancy.

Since its inception, Cassidy Lake School has been visited and studied by many groups and individuals from this and many other States. Earlier this year Mile. Cecile Rabut, a lawyer from Paris and a representative of the French Government, visited Cassidy with view of finding helpful methods in the post-war rehabilitation of French youth. Mile. Rabut expressed surprise at the efficient control over the camp members, considering the great amount of free choice allowed to each member of the school. However, she was most impressed with the results obtained in preventing recurring offenders, over those methods which are more universally used.

The Cassidy Lake Technical School is operated by the State Department of Corrections, of which Dr. Garrett Hoyns is Director.
