The Chelsea Standard, which has been partly printed in Detroit, is now entirely printed in this office. This change is made to give more space for home and community news.

Plans of city officials to discontinue the operation of Chelsea's municipal lighting plant and grant the Consumers Power Co. franchise to operate an electric distribution system was defeated, through the failure of receiving the majority required by law, which is 60 per cent of the total vote cast. The coal shortage and the prevailing high price of fuel make it exceedingly difficult to keep the plant running steadily and the village may yet be obliged to call for help from the big power company.

A census has been taken of vehicles of all kinds that travel over M-17 and M-92 by having an enumerator located at the intersection of South Main street and the territorial road. Miss Irma Mohrlock did the enumerating during the day and George Eder, nights.

LOCAL MAN IN EASTERN NEWS
The following item taken from an Old Town, Me. paper of August 29 tells of the anticipated meeting of Tom Vail of Chelsea, and his sister whom he had not seen for 52 years.

OLD TOWN, Aug. 20.—Tom Vail, of Chelsea, Michigan, who is visiting relatives in New England, is looking forward to meeting his sister, Mrs. B. J. White of West Old Town, for the first time in 52 years.

Mr. Vail surprised Mrs. White's family by calling at her home this week. Mrs. White was not at home as she is visiting her daughter in Rangleley. She will return home especially for the reunion with her brother this week-end.

Mr. Vail, who is 73 years old, went west many years ago and married there. He lost track of his sister when several letters from her were unanswered and no trace of her since could be found. Mrs. White, who has always lived within 100 miles of the vicinity of Houlton, where her brother lived, also gave up trying to locate her brother. Both last, gave up the other, thinking they must have died.

Mr. Vail has visited Houlton and this vicinity in the last five years and even visited in Conina, not many miles from his sister's home.

A Bangor Daily News item gave Mr. Vail the desired information, when a half sister, Mrs. Ida Lane's death in Florida some time ago was recorded and Mrs. White's name was given as a surviving relative.

WEDDINGS

Risner-Schiller

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Schiller, near Lima Center, was the scene of a very pretty candlelight wedding service at eight o'clock Saturday evening, August 31, when their son, Marvin Roy, and Miss Virginia May Risner, were married at a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. P. H. Grabowski of St. Paul's church.

The bride was given in marriage by Ralph Conley, a close friend of her family.

The bridal party passed through the dining room and living room down an aisle and took their places before a background of banked ferns and large baskets of white gladioli, with tall seven-branched candelabra at either side holding the lighted white tapers.

A recording of Lohengrin's Wedding March was played as the bridal party entered, and Mendelssohn's wedding music was softly playing during the ceremony.

The bride wore a blue-gray suit with white accessories, and a three-strand necklace of pearls which was a gift from the groom. Her corsage was white roses and baby mums.

The bride's only attendant, Mrs. Kenneth Livingstone, wore a blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses and white baby mums.

Mr. Livingstone assisted the groom as best man.

The groom's mother chose for her son's wedding, a soldier blue dress, and wore a corsage similar to that of the matron of honor.

Carrying out the color scheme of pure white with silver, about fifty guests were served refreshments from a lace covered table centered with the wedding cake flanked by tall white candles in crystal holders and white gladioli in crystal bowls.

Mrs. Ross Packer assisted in cutting the cake after the bride had cut the first pieces, and Mrs. Victor Sindlinger presided at the coffee service.

Guests were present from Chicago, Jackson, Ann Arbor and Chelsea.

Mr. Schiller was discharged from the Navy last January, after almost four years of service. He has been employed at the Recreation Tavern.

The bride is an employee of the Chelsea Spring Co.

After a short trip to the northern part of the state, the couple will be at home in the Adams apartment on South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Kalmbach and Wayne are spending two weeks visiting relatives in New York.

Meet our Boss:

MRS. ROE

Who's the Big Boss of any business? That's easy—the person or persons who own the business!

In the case of Michigan Bell, our Big Boss is "Mrs. Richard Roe" and thousands of other thrifty folks who have invested in Bell System securities and provided the money for enlarging the system and improving the service.

Now let's see what Mrs. Roe's investment helped make possible. Here are just a few examples:

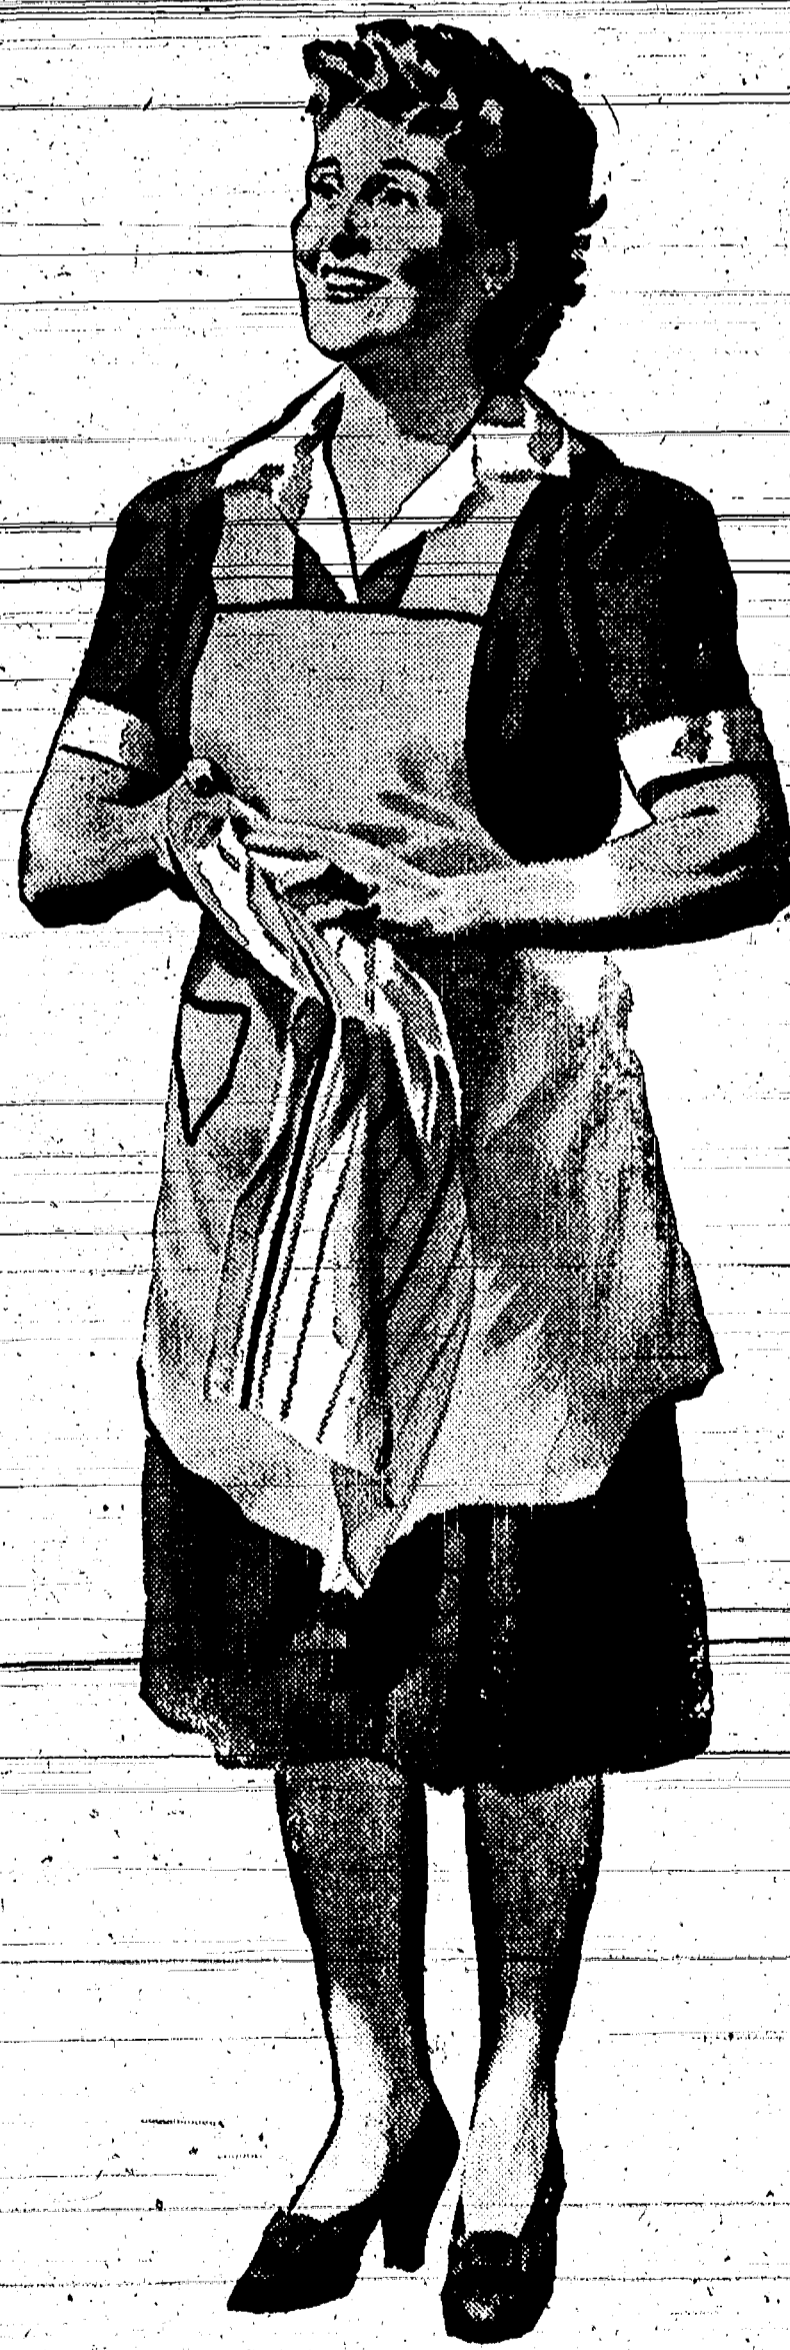

- From 1920 through 1945, it has permitted the Bell System to increase the number of telephones in service from 8 million to 22 million — almost 16 telephones for every hundred people in the United States.
- It has provided the facilities for handling a record-breaking billion and a half toll calls in 1945, compared to 360 million in 1920.
- It has financed the development and installation of dial telephone equipment so that now 4 out of 5 telephones in Michigan, for example, are dial operated.
- It has paid for the construction of 75 million miles of wire and cable throughout the nation, and accomplished many other improvements too numerous to mention.

If this progress is to continue—more money will have to be obtained from more investors through the sale of additional Bell System securities. And, since investors naturally want a fair return on their savings, telephone rates should be sufficient to permit paying a reasonable rate of return.

Michigan Bell's "cost of living," like yours, has been rising rapidly. If it continues to go up, rate increases may become necessary to insure adequate earnings. In any event, Michigan Bell wants telephone rates no higher—and no lower—than necessary to operate the business efficiently . . . pay good wages . . . give a fair return to investors and, thereby, protect the future quality of the service we give you.

CAVAUGHAN LAKE GRANGE
The Cavanaugh Lake Grange met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. P. H. Klemensneider, with 28 in attendance.

At roll call each member told of an incident he or she remembered as happening during their first few days at school.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Chester Notten and included the song, "I Love the Dear Old Farm," by the Grange; a reading by Clara-belle Hoppe, "Who Will Teach Your Children?" which was taken out of the Farm Journal; a playlet by 4-H club girls called "Grandma Shakes the Family Tree," with Mildred Notten taking the part of the grandmother, Donna Lou Kalmbach, the mother, Marjorie Proctor, the father, Phyllis Kalmbach, the granddaughter, and Virginia Wahl, the grandson; and another song by the Grange, "Be Faithful, O Patron."

The next meeting will be held the first Tuesday in October in the basement of the Salem Grove church. Election of officers is to take place at this meeting, and Clara-belle Hoppe is to be in charge of the program.

Sunshine Increases Vitamins
Studies indicate that sunshine increases vitamin C. Citrus fruit growing on the sunny side of the tree has been found richer in C than the fruit growing in the center of the tree or on the shady sides.

Tomatoes ripened in sun, not injuriously hot, have proved considerably richer in C than those ripened in shade or in cloudy weather.

Good Showing Is Made By Local 4-H Members

Gardeners' group, Richard Kalmbach received a first in corn, and Dean Schweinfurth, second.

On garden vegetables, James Clark and Henry Notten received firsts and Kenneth Proctor, Jr. and Lee Max Hoppe, seconds.

The Grand Champion Livestock Club group, with John Beal leader, and Calvin Clark, assistant leader, received the following awards:

Gertrude Widmayer, first and grand champion for her Milking Shorthorn yearling in a mixed class of Ayrshires, Guernseys, Brown Swiss, Red Polled and Shorthorns.

Henry Notten, first for his Jersey in the yearling class.

Donald Proctor, first for his Holstein calf in the junior class.

Kenneth Proctor, Jr., second for his Holstein yearling in the senior class.

Richard Kalmbach, third for his Shorthorn in the yearling class.

Quite a number of the winners of awards at the Ann Arbor show qualified for the State Show at Lansing, which was held this week, but a reasonably correct list of names could not be obtained as yet from leaders or club members.

Walter Stark of Springport was a guest at the Albert Pielemier home from Sunday until Monday morning.

WEDDINGS

Kalmbach-Beal
Carolyn Kalmbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kalmbach of Sylvan township, and James C. Beal, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beal of Steward Ave., Jackson, were united in marriage at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 31, at Salem Grove church, with Rev. Ernest O. Davis officiating at the double-ring ceremony, witnessed by approximately 150 guests. Baskets of white, pink and yellow gladioli and white candelabra bearing seven tall white lighted tapers, at each side of the altar formed a beautiful background for the ceremony. Before the bridal group entered, Walter Kalmbach of Francisco, the bride's uncle, accompanied at the piano by Margaret Harper, high school classmate of the bride, sang "Oh, Promise Me" and just before the ceremony sang "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Harper also played the Bridal March from "Lohengrin." The bride's dress was white embroidered nylon, and her fingertip veil, which was edged with hand-made lace, was held in place by a Juliet cap, embroidered with sequins. She carried white gladioli and baby mums. The matron of honor, Betty Jean Sanderson, the bride's sister, wore a dress of rose colored dotted net over taffeta, and a flower bandeau of the same color. She carried pink gladioli tied with green ribbon. The two bridesmaids, Donna Lou Kalmbach, another sister of the bride, and Margaret Loscke, college classmate of the bride, of Manchester, Iowa, were dressed alike in aqua dotted net over taffeta with matching bandeaus, and carried bouquets of yellow and pink gladioli tied with yellow ribbons.

The best man was Merlin Beal, Michigan Center, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were John Beal, Jr. and Palmer Beal, both brothers of the groom, of Grass Lake.

A reception for 80 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. Voy Proseus of Jackson, sister of the groom, and Mrs. T. G. Hienrichsen pouring at the table which was covered with an embroidered linen cloth, and centered with an arrangement of pink-throated white gladioli in a silver bowl, and crystal candelabra holding tall white candles.

The bride's mother wore a grape-colored dress with gray accessories, and a corsage of white gladioli, while the groom's mother wore black with fuchsia trimming and black accessories. Her corsage was fuchsia colored gladioli.

The bride is a graduate of Chelsea High school, class of '41, and of Michigan State college, class of '45. She is employed as research assistant at the University of Iowa, and also attending the university, working on her Master's degree.

The groom is a graduate of Grass Lake high school, with the class of '39, and is employed as a carpenter by an Iowa City contractor. He was discharged from the Army in December, 1945, after three years and three months of service.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Springfield, Vt., and will return September 8. They will be at home, after Sept. 11, at 416 E. Fairchild, Iowa City, Ia.

Showers honoring the bride-to-be were given at Iowa City, July 24, by Mrs. Robert Sasse and Margaret Loscke; at Salem Grove church on August 20 by Mrs. George Heydlauff, Mrs. Clifford Heydlauff and Mrs. Walter Kalmbach; at the home of Mrs. Gaylord Osborne, Portage Lake, August 21, by Mrs. Osborne and Mrs. Donna Rapp of Jackson.

Out-of-town week-end guests at the Kalmbach home, who attended the wedding, were Miss Margaret Loscke of Manchester, Iowa, and Miss Dorothy Elmore, South Fallsburg, N. Y.

Holderman-Waterman
Miss Betty L. Holderman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holderman, of Detroit, and Calvin M. Waterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Waterman, also of Detroit, were married at a double-ring ceremony in St. Paul's church here, with Rev. P. H. Grabowski officiating, on Friday evening, August 30, at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a few friends.

The bride wore a light gray suit with duobonnet accessories, and a corsage of white carnations and gladioli. Miss Phyllis Hopper of Ann Arbor, the bride's only attendant, wore a blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations and gladioli.

Don Gaubatz, of Ferndale, nephew of the groom, was best man. A dinner was served to the wedding party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Hopper, who are family friends.

Miss Holderman and her parents are former Chelsea residents, moving to Detroit several years ago. The young couple will reside in Detroit.

They'll keep singing its praises for years

Every so often it happens.

A car comes along that rings so many bells on so many counts that folks remember it fondly and talk about it for years thereafter.

You're looking at one of those
"vintage-year" Buicks now.

Right from the start, it clicked with the stand-out, hint-of-the-future freshness of its styling.

It brought wide, appreciative grins with the smooth way its Fireball straight-eight engine delivers its eager surge of power.

It registered with the steady

State-owned Lands May Available To Purchasers

Lansing—State-owned lands—abandoned once by owners who did not think them worth the taxes—at times can be bought for cabin sites, hunting lands, forestry and in some cases for farming, but purchasers are advised flatly that no oil or other minerals are included in any such bargain.

Since 1909, when the Legislature ordered all mineral rights reserved to the state, title to more than 1,000,000 acres, with mineral rights deducted, have gone into private ownership. Income from leasing these lands for mineral production—and some of them have produced hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of gas and oil—has gone into the state treasury.

The current flood of requests for mineral rights that cannot be sold is attributed to the ever-growing number of new owners of lands purchased from the state. While the department advises the surface owners that the 1909 policy still stands, it assures them they will be protected against any damage that might result from the state's development of oil, gas, iron, limestone, sand, gravel or other mineral on property to which they own surface title.

The department has a thorough understanding of the surface owners' position. Of 4,500,000 acres it manages throughout the state, about 500,000 are owned subject to mineral reservations.

Rental Housing May Be Solution To Vets' Plight

The solution to G. I. Joe's plight, and that of the whole home-hungry American people, according to Mrs. Samuel I. Rosenman, chairman, National Committee on Housing, is more rental housing.

Under present plans, only a small portion of the veterans' emergency housing is being built for rental purposes, and the bulk of it is to be sold to individual purchasers. This portion should be reversed.

True, the veteran will have to pay more rent today than he would for a comparable house built before the war, but he will not incur responsibility that he may not be able to maintain, or tie himself down permanently to an unsatisfactory house. If he loses his job, has to move to another city, or requires more space for a growing family, he will not be stuck with a house and mortgage.

While renting, he will still retain for 10 years the privilege of buying a home under the G. I. Bill, and, later, when prices have become stabilized, he may do so without being victimized.

Sentimentalists and other people with special axes to grind will gain-say this advice. Home-ownership in this country has always been surrounded with an aura of emotional fiddle-faddle. We have been told that a man should own his own little castle for the good of his soul and the sense of security it will give him. Only home-owners, we have been led to believe, can have real civic pride and a love of democracy.

Under present-day conditions this is mostly sheer rot. There is no sense of security in being tied to an overgrown mortgage, and when one's little castle starts to crumble about one's ears because the contractor didn't use enough studding, nails, or cement there is nothing in the event to make a man a better citizen. On the contrary, he's apt to become disgruntled and develop a peeve at the whole economic system.

For the sake of emotions, which may be unpleasant as well as pleasant, and for the other reasons I have mentioned, we should construct thousands of small houses and apartments for rent. There is an enormous permanent demand for such rental housing. This demand has been with us for many, many years and exists particularly at the price levels required by average veterans.

The need for action all along the line—by government, states, and private interest—is an urgent one. Thousands of G. I. Joes are being fleeced and fettered in our growing building orgy, but it is not too late to save millions of others from a similar misfortune. The boom is not yet at its peak. By switching the emphasis of our construction program to rental housing and insisting upon wiser planning and better building, we can still avoid catastrophe and really alleviate our housing needs.

If we do not do this, we shall wake up from our binge a few years hence and find ourselves the unhappy proprietors of thousands of new slums which will plague us esthetically, socially and financially for decades to come.

By GENE ALLEMAN

Three financial proposals, each having far-reaching consequences, are to be voted upon by Michigan citizens on November 5.

Two of them would amend the state constitution to authorize the spending of $270,000,000 in bonus payments to Michigan war veterans.

All three ballots, moreover, would affect the Michigan taxpayer—perhaps more than he anticipates. As we see it, a strong likelihood exists that the state legislature will be forced in 1947 to levy additional taxes, if the bonus proposal and the sales tax amendment are both approved at the November election.

One amendment to the state constitution would earmark one cent of the sales tax for schools and local governments.

One-half of this earmarked revenue would be divided among cities, townships and villages according to their population. The other one-half would be turned over to public schools which would receive $60,000,000 in 1947 and would be divided according to the school's annual census of children 5 to 19.

This constitutional diversion of sales tax revenue, according to present conditions, would approximate from $37,000,000 to $43,000,000 a year. The figure used most often is $40,000,000.

State tax officials are said to be of the opinion that loss of $40,000,000 in state revenue would be disastrous and that additional taxes would be forced upon the public. They talk of an additional cent in the present tax; revival of the state realty tax, such as the four mill property levy which prevailed prior to 1933; or a new form of taxation. It is a cliché that none of the three proposals will be popular with the taxpayers who are too often inclined to demand more and more state services but balk like a Missouri mule to any suggestion that extra taxes are needed to pay for them.

There's a "catch" in the sales tax amendment. It is little understood.

Public schools would get 16 2/3 per cent of the tax revenue IN ADDITION to their 43 1/2 per cent share, as received during the 1945-46 fiscal year. Or in other words, public schools would get nearly twice as much of the sales tax dollar. This right would be frozen into the state constitution. The state legislature wouldn't have a thing to say about it!

What about the state's obligations for welfare, highways, colleges, prisons and other public needs?

That's where the new tax enters the picture. State experts insist there is no choice.

The Michigan Real Estate association, which serves 1,600 affiliated brokers, is hostile to the idea of a revision of the state revenue law favoring the sales tax diversion for local governments. The latter would take some of the pressure off the local taxpayer, officials feel. A number of towns have held special elections to remove the 15-mill tax limitation or to impose extra taxes on property owners for purpose of schools. For example, Monroe will vote September 23 on whether to increase its 15-mill limitation by five mills for five years.

The Michigan Education association recently withdrew, temporarily at least, its opposition to the sales tax amendment. Opposing the amendment are the Michigan State Farm Bureau and the Michigan State Grange, representing rural interests.

Another amendment, Number One on the November ballot, would permit public expenditures on public airports. The attorney general's office has held that the constitution does not permit public disbursement for an internal improvement of this type.

The amendment would remove this barrier. It would open the way to matching of local funds by the federal government.

We have not heard of any organized opposition to the proposal. In fact, there is strong sentiment in favor of it.

The other financial proposal is the veterans' bonus of $270,000,000, as submitted by the state legislature.

In putting this proposal before the voters on November 5, the legislature sidestepped the question entirely of how the bonus is to be financed. State Senator Don VanderWerp of Fremont, chairman of the senate finance committee, believes that the public will be misled into the belief that a bonus of this size can be financed out of a "vast surplus" existing from sales tax receipts. Here is how VanderWerp explains it:

"As a matter of fact there is no sales tax surplus and we do not anticipate that there will be one. While the sales tax receipts have reached an all-time high, so have the state's expenses. As is true with individuals, the state is paying more for everything it buys. The cost of personnel service (wages) has also soared to new highs and with between 16,000 and 17,000 people on the state payroll this is no small element in the increased expenses."

"Another important element to be considered is the fact that all the state institutions have a backlog of equipment replacements and unfilled personnel posts that will total approximately $50,000,000. Because of the war conditions the state was unable to meet the demands for replacements and personnel requirements during the past four years as neither materials, equipment nor personnel were available. This backlog of needs must be met as soon as possible and the requests will be laid before the budget department and the finance committees of the next legislature. They must be granted if the state institutions are to function properly."

It is VanderWerp's conclusion that Michigan voters, in casting a vote for the bonus proposal, may be voting a tax on themselves—"a tax on your self you did not expect."

The same conclusion might be made, as we see it, for the freezing of 60 per cent of the sales tax for the public schools, plus 16 2/3 per cent for local governments.

START BIG PEACH HARVEST

Approximately 12,000 pickers started this week taking from Michigan's peach trees a crop estimated by federal statisticians at 3,800,000 bushels. Don Hamilton, emergency farm labor assistant for the extension service of Michigan State college in Berrien county, said indications pointed to adequate help for the start.

As the season progresses, more pickers may be needed. Hamilton suggests those Michigan people interested in peach-picking jobs should contact the farm labor office at Benton Harbor or the county agricultural agents' offices in Paw Paw, Allegan and Cassopolis.

Dry weather has caused the fruit to be somewhat smaller, but production may equal or exceed last year's crop.
