

Public schools of Michigan will gain on November 5, regardless of how voters decide the fate of ballot proposal No. 2.

This proposal would amend the state constitution whereby 76 per cent of all sales tax revenues would be earmarked for local governments. Schools would get approximately $80,000,000 in 1945 compared with $60,000,000 in 1944. Cities, villages and townships would get $47,000,000 instead of $20,000,000.

If the ballot proposal carries, the Michigan Education Association believes it is a 50-50 chance of doing more than school teachers will receive. No more legislative lobbying for funds! The state constitution will guarantee in perpetuity—as long as the amendment stands—a big boost in money for payment of salaries and other expenses.

School teachers are underpaid in this postwar inflation period, as compared with the rest of our wage-earners. Property owners balk at lifting the 15-mill limitation on property taxes. The amendment would offer a happy solution for public education. No doubt about that.

If the ballot proposal is defeated by voters who fear it would lead to additional taxes in 1947, then the schools still stand an excellent chance of getting more funds at Lansing.

The straw in the wind to this conclusion is provided by Rep. John P. Espie of Eagle, chairman of the powerful house ways and means committee of the State Legislature. Espie believes the amendment is bad legislation. He wants that the state government cannot function with only 24 per cent of the sales tax revenue.

However, he recommends that state aid to schools be increased from $60,000,000 to $75,000,000 or $80,000,000 a year, a boost of 25 to 33 per cent.

Michigan also favors state aid for new buildings in school districts financially unable to construct necessary additions because of increased population.

It is the judgment of State Treasurer D. Hale Brake, Republican nominee for re-election and president of the Michigan Institute of Local Government, that adoption of the sales tax amendment would lead to a $21,500,000 deficit for the first year of operation of state government.

If the $270,000,000 veterans' bonus is also approved, the treasury deficit would be $39,114,000, Brake warns.

"You cannot stop caring for the needy, running the prisons, paying the assistance, educate your children and the thousands of things state government is doing for the people of Michigan," he said. "People just won't stand for it."

Brake predicts more taxes, if the tax amendment carries.

Robert S. Ford, director of the University of Michigan's bureau of government, points out that school benefits under the tax amendment would depend on whether or not total local property tax levels stay at their present level of $71,500,000 for the entire state.

"If these levies are reduced, as they may be in school districts, revenues for schools will not be increased as much by adoption of the amendment as is now anticipated. In fact, the state would decide to impose additional taxes to make up the difference," he says.

The Detroit bureau of government research taxes much the same way.

In an announcement December 9, the bureau declares that the adoption of the tax diversion amendment will lead inevitably to more taxes.

"All things now stand, the school lobby has been the most successful in the state," states the bureau report. "School aid distributed by the state has grown from 22 million in 1933, prior to the sales tax, to 50 million three years ago and close to 64 million last year. In 1941 basic grants to schools were 41 millions. This year they are 60 millions."

Fundamentally, in the opinion of the bureau, the amendment is undemanding and sound principle that should carry the spending of it. That principle is at stake in responsible government.

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, recently pointed out that approval of the legislature would force local governments to throw back upon themselves the state educational services now paid by the state.

Michigan Society for Mental Hygiene through its directors, has expressed opposition to the amendment, charging it would "jeopardize" the state's entire mental health program.

Michener Is Speaker At Club Meeting

Congressman Earl C. Michener, of Adrian, addressed the Kiwanis Club at their meeting in the Municipal Building on Monday evening, talking on national affairs and of the dangers which confront our country unless the people as a whole take a more active interest in the affairs of government.

The speaker, who stated that he might be called "old-fashioned" by some of his beliefs, but that he still believes that the Constitution of the United States under which we have so successfully operated our form of government for so many years provides the best system in the world.

"It is difficult for anyone operating a business to know when they are violating a law," stated Mr. Michener. "In fact, they are not. Laws are merely rules and regulations emanating from some bureau in Washington."

"Public opinion is a sleeping giant, but when this giant is awakened, there is no limit to the power it has, and it will be felt by those in power. This was the case in regard to the O.P.A. and not by the force of public opinion, but by the desire of the bureaucracies in Washington."

He stated that it is his belief that all functions of the O.P.A. would be abolished immediately if a special session of Congress were called.

In touching briefly upon the subject of labor, Congressman Michener stated that he is in favor of collective bargaining, but he is also in favor of amending existing laws, placing equal responsibility upon labor and industry.

He denominated the present system whereby there is such power vested in labor leadership that one man may say the nation cannot have coal and there is no coal, one man may say the railroads cannot operate and rail traffic stops, or one man may say there shall be no automobiles manufactured and production lines are stopped.

Mr. Michener stated that there is much confusion in Washington because of the lack of strong leadership, but he believes that through the action of the people this situation will be corrected.

He closed his talk by urging everyone to vote at the election next Tuesday, and to vote for the candidates who stand for a continuation of the real American way of life.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church held the October meeting at the church hall Friday evening with the husbands of members as guests at the dinner which was served at 7:00 o'clock, with 65 in attendance, followed by a social hour.

The meeting opened with "Onward, Christian Soldiers," followed by prayer by Mrs. Albert Aschaff, the president.

Following the regular reports it was announced that the Thank-Offering in-gathering would take place with appropriate ceremonies some time during November.

A vote was taken on the proposed merger of the Ladies Aid Society and the Auxiliary, which resulted in unanimous approval of the merger, and Miss Cora Feldkamp and Mrs. Harold Widmayer were appointed by the president to act on the nominating committee with members of the Ladies Aid committee to be appointed by the president, Mrs. P. Schaeble and Mrs. William Henderson were appointed to act on a committee for arrangements for the merger of the two societies. Two members of the Ladies Aid will also be appointed to act with meeting of the two societies. The date will be announced later, at which time election of officers will take place.

Mrs. P. G. Schaeble, who was the Auxiliary delegate to the Fall Sectional conference at Manchester, Me., November 25, gave her report of the conference, and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Big Halloween Party For Kiddies Starts At 7 O'Clock Tonight

Don't forget! Tonight's the night of the annual Kiwanis Halloween party for the youngsters of Chelsea and vicinity.

Be ready for the start of the parade by arriving at the gym promptly at 7 o'clock to get your costume. Dress in your spookiest or nastiest costume, whichever you prefer. You'll have plenty of goblins and ghosts for company. Preparations have been in full swing the past week and competition for prizes for costumes and floats promises to be keen, which should make the parade "bigger and better" than ever.

The parade may be viewed on East street to Orchard, to Main, to Middle, down Middle to East and back to the school grounds where it will be disbanded at the huge bonfire which will be presented under the direction of H. H. Moore.

After the judging for prizes and refreshments of older and doughnuts, an hour's entertainment, directed by Newt Loken, 1942 Big Ten and national collegiate all-around gymnastic champion, and six of his troupe will be presented in the gymnasium. Events presented will include working of the high bar, parallel bars, flying rings, tumbling (singles and doubles), trampoline and hand balancing acts.

All members of the troupe have won special gymnastic honors either at the University of Michigan or the University of Minnesota and five of them are U. of M. cheerleaders at the present time.

Cartoon movies will top off a grand party.

Milan Wins Easy Victory Over Chelsea

By C.H.S. Reporter

Chelsea's football team lost all sight of the Championship Cup by being defeated by Milan last Friday, 19-0. The game was pretty much one-sided, with Milan having possession of the ball most of the time. The Big Reds proved to be too much for the Little Bulldogs.

It appeared as though Chelsea was having a bad time of it all the way around. The punting was far from being good, the passes were pretty much on the bad side. The blocking and tackling didn't even compare with previous games.

The boys will have to be given a good deal of credit for sticking it out like they did. Towards the end of the game the boys began to look more like the Bulldogs of old (on defense). The last eight minutes of the game were played within the Chelsea 20-yard line and the Bulldogs managed to beat off a couple of hard hitting attacks.

In other games Romulus downed U. High, 6-0; Roosevelt did away with Saline, 19-0, while Dundee flattened Flat Rock, 12-0. His team will take on U. High at Ann Arbor while Romulus takes on Saline at Romulus. Milan will be playing for championship honors at Flat Rock while Roosevelt and Dundee tangle.

It appears that Chelsea will have its last full at Ann Arbor this week when it goes into action against U. High. U. High started the season off on the wrong foot but since its win over Flat Rock, 7-6, U. High has been improving fast. If Chelsea wins this game it stands a good chance of ending in second place with Romulus—that is, if Milan defeats Romulus.

Halloween In Days of Old

Halloween today stands as one of the holidays most anticipated by the world's children and by all merry-makers. It was not always so considered.

In the beginning it was an agricultural feast, and was surrounded by the many rites with which ancient men invested days or seasons to which he attached peculiar significance. It was in the dim and storied reaches of antiquity, thousands of years before the dawn of written history that halloweek customs, now repeated from season to season, had their origin.

It was believed in Ireland during the seventh to twelfth centuries that evil powers dwelt in the caves of Cruachan in "Cannaught," called "the hell-gate of Ireland." It was here that the rituals of halloweek originated.

Today not even little Betty believes that a curled apple-paring will tell her future matrimonial status, but at halloweek time, she will have a lot of fun reading an ancient ritual, while Johnny will carry away gates and play other pranks in the neighborhood.

Acting Postmaster Paul F. Nicholas today warned Chelseaites that Christmas cards early, as far as the Navy in the Pacific is concerned.

Persons who want to send Christmas cards via air mail to Navy or Marine personnel in the Pacific were given the following schedule by which time the Christmas cards must have reached the Fleet Post Office at San Francisco:

For personnel in China, Japan, or the Philippine area—Dec. 15.
For Okinawa, Manus, Guam, Saipan, Marcus, Canton or the Canton Island area—Dec. 15.
For Johnston Island, Wake, Kwajalein, Majuro or the Eniwetok area—Dec. 15.

Acting Postmaster Nicholas also said he had received information that restrictions have been removed on the gross weight, frequency of mailing and weight of food contents of unsolicited gift parcels to the United Kingdom.

Such packages may now be accepted for mailing to Great Britain and Northern Ireland up to the normal weight limit of 22 pounds; but the parcels must be marked with the words "Unsolicited Gift."

Anyone wishing an air mail envelope cachet for National Air Mail Week, please call at the post office. Cachet has picture of airplane with the following words: "Chelsea, the biggest little town in Michigan, Gateway to Southern Michigan Playgrounds, Joins in Celebrating National Air Mail Week Oct. 28-Nov. 2, 1946."

N. L. Extension Club Meets At Noah Home

North Lake Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Perry Noah on Tuesday, October 22, with 12 members and three guests present. Two of the guests, Mrs. Wilbur Hatt and Mrs. Walter Wolfgang, are members of the South Sylvan Extension Club, and the third one was Mrs. Holton Kniesly of North Lake.

Dinner was enjoyed at noon and the lesson for the month, on improving kitchen cupboards and drawer space, was presented by the leaders, Mrs. Ed. Wise and Mrs. Homer Stoffer.

Following the lesson, a discussion was held on the subject of the three amendments to be voted on at the November election, and then games, in charge of Mrs. Eugene Lindemann, were the entertainment for the afternoon.

Waterloo Girl Gets Achievement Award From FFA Chapter

At the annual game dinner of the Chelsea Chapter, Future Farmers of America, held last Wednesday at the high school gymnasium, Amelia Hess, a senior at Chelsea high school, was presented with an F.F.A. achievement award by Marshall Richards, leader of the chapter.

This does not seem, at first glance, to people who are acquainted with the rules and regulations of F.F.A. work, to be so unusual.

What makes it so unusual is the fact that the National F.F.A. chapter actually prohibits girls as members. However, because of her great interest in the work and her excellent record in dairy work, especially in dairy cattle judging, which ordinarily is considered a field for boys only, she was awarded an honorary membership of the Chelsea Chapter F.F.A. this fall.

There is on record only one other such instance—a girl in Texas having been elected to honorary membership in a chapter in that state.

Miss Hess is 17 years old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hess, of Waterloo.

Installation Held By OES Wednesday

Public installation of officers of Olive Chapter O.E.S. was held Wednesday evening, October 23 in the chapter room of the Masonic hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with large baskets of flowers and potted plants in shades of yellow and bronze. Candelabras holding lighted candles were placed at each side of the altar and each station was also marked with a lighted candle.

Mrs. Carl Butler was in charge of the decorations in the chapter room.

As the retiring officers resumed their regular stations for the last time, the retiring Master, William Miller, who had placed a gift at each station beforehand for each of her retiring officers, thanked them all, as well as all members of the chapter, for their help and cooperation during the past year.

The new officers were then brought in and introduced, and installation ceremonies were begun, with Bertha Freeman serving as installing officer; Allen Steinbach, installing master; Helen Baxter, installing chaplain; and Esther Belser, installing organist.

The Worthy Matron-elect was installed first, and was escorted to her station in the East by her husband, Maynard Knickerbocker. She passed through a heart formation executed by her daughter, Mrs. Max Collins, and those of her sons who are not now in the Service, assisted by Jimmy Miller, Johnny Batskies, David Crocker, and Gene and Michael Miller. As the Worthy Matron-elect and her husband reached Mrs. Collins at the head of the formation, she presented her mother with a corsage of red roses.

The Worthy Patron-elect, Franklin Hess, next, and his wife, Alda Juergens and Anna Werra, attended the dedication of the nursery cottage at the V.F.W. Home, about three miles outside of Eaton Rapids on Sunday morning.

The cottage is a memorial to veterans of World War I and is equipped to care for children of deceased veterans from infancy to five years of age. Six young children were admitted at the dedication ceremonies and six babies were brought in Sunday evening. The cottage has accommodations for about thirty young children and is reported by those who went to the dedication services to be a truly wonderful place for the care of veterans' orphans, making it a very fitting memorial to those who lost their lives in the service of their country.

Among the prominent V.F.W. Auxiliary officers present were the past national president, Hazel Miller, of Des Moines, Iowa, and national senior vice president, Dorothy Mann, of Detroit.

In the afternoon the Chelsea group went to Lansing to attend the annual V.F.W. Auxiliary Pow-Wow before returning home.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS
The party for the Girl Scouts, celebrating Juliette Lowe's birthday, will be held on Saturday, Nov. 2 from 2 to 4:30 in the Municipal Building. For your convenience in getting news to The Standard, call Emma Osterle, phone 2-1681.

The honored couple received a number of lovely gifts as remembrances of the occasion and refreshments were served by Mrs. Leeman, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Riker.

PEP MEETING
A very humprous pep meeting was given last Friday by the Latin Club.

The pep meeting was given this year. It was made up of a skit which took place on Mount Olympus.

The characters were: Jupiter, King of Gods, Doug Vogel; Minerva, Goddess of Wisdom, Mary M. Paul; Apollo, God of Sun, Junior Nichols; Pan, God of Music, John Copren; Hercules, Warrior of Strength, Ray Knickerbocker; Cupid, God of Love, Verne Conk; Mercury, God of Speed, Donald Baldwin.

An explanation of football was given by Ray Knickerbocker. Brains, power and speed were given to the football players to help them in the game last Friday by the various Gods and Goddess.

Spirit and pep were given to the band and the cheerleaders. All these things were requested in a letter from a member of school, John Copren, who also asked for a fine day.

Coach Cameron was brought upon the stage by the God of Speed, Donald Baldwin, and we heard an interesting speech. The cheerleaders gave four cheers and introduced a new one. The band played two numbers. The seniors advertised the senior stand.

The pep meeting was broken up by announcing a parade through town, led by the band.

PARTIES

Friday night, after the game with Milan, many returned to the school gymnasium for the dance. There was a large crowd, many of which were people from Milan.

Although the Chelseans were low in spirits because of the loss of the game, the general actions showed a livening up of those spirits as the evening lengthened, and everyone seemed to be having a good time.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The new amendments to the Student Council constitution have been completed and passed. They are ready to go before the student body.

It was decided by the council to have request cards printed for the students to make record requests at the All-High parties.

Thursday, 24th, an assembly was given by John Sloan on "Wonders of Liquid Air." Liquid air is one of the most common and most spectacular substances known to science. The temperature is 312 degrees below zero. Exhaling liquid air, exploding demonstration and using a banana as a hammer, were some of the demonstrations. These and many other fascinating experiments were performed.

A MESSAGE OF INTEREST to all who await deliveries of new Chevrolets

We want you to know that everything possible is being done to speed deliveries to you; but production still lags far behind schedule—even though Chevrolet has built more cars and trucks than any other manufacturer from January through September 1946

WE REALIZE how eagerly you are awaiting delivery of the new Chevrolet you have ordered from us, and we want to pass on to you the latest information received from the Chevrolet Motor Division, even though that information isn't too encouraging at this time.

It is true that Chevrolet leads all other manufacturers in total production of passenger cars and trucks from January through September 1946, despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of this year. It is also true that Chevrolet has continued to maintain its lead in total production during the third quarter of 1946. And yet production is still running far below desired levels, with the result that Chevrolet's output of cars and trucks through September 1946 was only 38.7% of the number produced during the corresponding period of 1941.

This means it may take many months for the Chevrolet Motor Division to reach peak production of new Chevrolets—even longer to fill the unprecedented demand for this product of BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST—and, for the present at least, "there just aren't enough Chevrolets to go around," much as we wish there were.

However, we want you to know that new Chevrolets are leaving the plants in the largest numbers possible today. The Chevrolet Motor Division tells us it is doing everything it can, in the face of continued suppliers' strikes, material shortages and manpower problems, to step up shipments to us and to all dealers, in accordance with a predetermined distribution plan assuring each dealer of his fair allotment, based on 1941 passenger car sales. And we, in turn, are doing our best to deliver new Chevrolets to our customers as rapidly as they are received and in the fairest possible way. We are too appreciative of your loyalty and goodwill—too grateful for your patience and understanding—to do anything less than continue to serve you to the very best of our ability.

KEEP YOUR PRESENT CAR RUNNING

Meanwhile, the most important car of all to you is the car you are driving now. May we suggest that you keep it in top running condition until you secure delivery of your new Chevrolet, by bringing it to us for skilled service now and at regular intervals. Remember—cold weather is hardest on old cars. Please see us for a complete check-up today. . . . And, again, thank you!

HALLOWEEN

On Halloween, hang a doughnut on a string, attached to a nail. The number of people passing under it will indicate the number of months that will elapse before you will be married.

Or hang two doughnuts from a string. Select a boy and a girl, the one who can eat the doughnut first, without touching with their hands, will be married first.

If you believe in superstitions, you will believe those told by the doughnuts—they are typical American superstitions. Or if you want some with a foreign twist here are a few:

If you drop two needles into a bowl of water, you can tell by the way they move whether you and your lover will come together.

If you are born on Halloween, you can see and read things in dreams. You can discover your future mate on Halloween, by looking into a mirror on the cellar step.

The most familiar one, still believed by some, is the superstition of the witch who rides upon broomsticks and prowls about on Halloween.

Lets Take the BLINDFOLD OFF!!

On the Lansing Liquor Question

Over 4,500 Citizens of Washtenaw County Have Petitioned For An Answer to This Question As We Vote on November 5th—

"Shall the Sale of Spirits by the Glass on the Premises in Addition to Beer and Wine Be Permitted?"

WHY?

Because, While It Is Perfectly Legal to Buy Liquor in This Township, the Person Who Might Wish a Drink or Two Must BUY THIRTY TO GET ONE.

OR

He May, If He Wishes, Risk the Highway and Drive to Jackson.

We Who Have Signed This Petition Ask the Question—Which Is Better—Which Is Real Liquor Control—Which Is More Apt To Promote Moderation and Temperance—

A System that Provides a Business Place, Selected by Our Own Local Officers, Where One Who Wishes can be Served by a Business Man Who Knows that Excessive Drinking by Anyone in His Establishment Means the Loss of His License and His Livelihood?

OR

A system that says, "Buy a Bottle If You Want a Drink?"

REMEMBER

This Is Not a Wet or Dry Issue. Liquor Is Plentiful in Chelsea Now. This Is Purely a Question of How to Dispense It. In Moderation or in Quantity.

In Passing Let Us Remember That 85 Per Cent of the License Fee of the Dispenser and 10 Per Cent of the Sales Revenue is Returned by the State to Our Own Community. This Certainly Should Help Our Tax Problem and Keep Money Here Which Is Now Going to Jackson and Detroit.

Join With Us and Vote on November 5th

RETAIN YOUR CIRCUIT JUDGE

JUDGE JAMES R. BREAKEY, JR.

HIS RECORD

James R. Breakey, Jr., was appointed Circuit Judge by Gov. Harry Kelly on May 29, 1945, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge George W. Sample. Judge Breakey had gained a wide experience as a practicing attorney in the courts of Michigan and in the Supreme Court of the United States. His record as your Circuit Judge for the last 16 months follows:

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

Judge Breakey shortly after taking office arranged with the staffs of the Ypsilanti State Hospital and the Neuro-psychiatric clinic of the University Hospital at Ann Arbor to make psychiatric examinations of all juvenile delinquents coming before the Circuit Court. These examinations, which are made without added cost to the taxpayers, afford the court the best scientific opinion in the study and disposition of these increasingly numerous cases. Today every juvenile delinquent granted probation must have a minister or priest as spiritual sponsor and a businessman as adviser in employment.

DIVORCE

Divorce actions make up 52% of the cases before the Circuit Court. Judge Breakey is married — happily married for 17 years. He presides over divorce cases with a sympathetic understanding of the distressing issues at stake. His decisions are rendered with a complete knowledge of the law and judicial procedure, to which is added full human experience. He initiated in this Circuit Court the pre-trial conferences in divorce cases. This has saved the court time and the taxpayers money. Only nine fully contested divorce cases have been tried since June, 1945, although 688 divorce decrees have been entered.

GRAND JURY

Judge Breakey's continuance of the grand jury investigation crushed a $1,000,000-a-year gambling combine. One person was found guilty, 15 pleaded guilty and fines and costs totaling $15,800 have been assessed. This is more than the amount appropriated by the Board of Supervisors for grand jury work. The grand jury, therefore, has not cost the county a penny of the taxpayer's money and has resulted in a respect for and enforcement of the law.

COURT RULES

A complete revision of local court rules has been adopted as proposed by a special committee of the Washtenaw County Bar Association, and approved unanimously by the Association membership.

AS OUTSTATE JUDGE

Judge Breakey has been assigned by the Presiding Circuit Judge of Michigan to try cases in Courts in Detroit, Flint, Midland, Pontiac, Bay City, Monroe, Jackson, St. Joseph, L'Anse, Houghton and Eagle River.

BAR LIBRARY

In co-operation with the Board of Supervisors he has established a Washtenaw County Bar Library now housed in the Court House, open to all attorneys. This is especially helpful to young lawyers who have not yet acquired a private library.

DOCKET

The overcrowded Circuit Court docket caused by the long illness of Judge Sample has been cleared so that before the October, 1946, term began, six jury trials for this term were disposed of.

Up to October 1 of this year not one appeal from his decisions had been taken to the Michigan Supreme Court.

Small Amount Of Shoreline Available For Use By Public

Lansing—Less than three per cent of the state's inland lake shorelines and less than seven per cent of the state's Great Lakes shoreline is now controlled by the conservation department for public use, and much of this, say department officials, is of such a character that the usable frontage available to the public still is less than adequate.

Most of the state's choice frontage has been bought piece by piece in small parcels—105 miles of it in 70 state parks and 35 miles in public fishing sites. Frontage that boasts the state's total of a sizeable figure is largely of such low value it once was let go to the state for unpaid taxes.

Michigan's Great Lakes shoreline is 3,028 miles, including 800 miles on islands. State frontage totals 200 miles, or 6.6 per cent. Much of the state's frontage, however, is on the islands, and a good deal of the mainland shore it holds is tax-reverted land.

Accurate shoreline surveys of the state's 11,000 inland lakes (3,000 of them named) are not available, but their total frontage is estimated at 20,000 miles. Of this the conservation department controls 470 miles for public use, in state parks, public fishing sites, state forests, state game areas and undeveloped lands. State ownership is 2.35 per cent of the total, and as with Great Lakes frontage, much of it is of low value for resort purposes.

ATTEND DISTRICT MEETING

Chester members of the American Legion and Auxiliary who attended the Second District meeting at Grass Lake on Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. David Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Eisele, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maroney, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cox, Mrs. Lyle Christwell, Mrs. Howard Walz and Mrs. Susie Howard.

Pheasants Don't Like Poor Range Provided In Waterloo Area

It is easier to plant pheasants on poor pheasant range than to persuade them to live there, conservation department game men once more have confirmed at Waterloo state recreation area.

C. T. Black, of the department's game division, interviewed 91 hunters in the area on the first day of the season and on the first week-end—four days in all. He found the 91, who had been hunting a collective total of 293 hours up to the time interviewed, had seen a collective total of 24 pheasants, 19 of them hens. Of six birds banded, four were examined, and one of the four was a banded game farm bird. Pheasant releases on the area, begun ten weeks before the season and continued to within a week of opening day, totaled between four and five hundred birds.

Return of bands from better farm land surrounding the area may explain the birds' disappearance as a matter of migration, but it is believed many of the pen-reared birds did not survive until hunting season.

Waterloo area, developed on former military land, is better known to hunters for its rabbits and squirrels than for pheasants. Hunting pressure on the 14,000-acre tract is moderate; the 91 hunters interviewed were believed to be more than 10 per cent of the number using the area.

APPEAR ON RADIO

Sue Barlow and Donna Hinderer appeared in a program over Station WPAQ, Ann Arbor, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, which was the first of a series of radio appearances of the pupils of Mrs. Alice Smith, Ann Arbor, who played a piano duet, "The March of the Wee Wee Folk," by Jessie Gaynor, and each also played a piano solo. Sue's solo was "The Dance of the Ghosts," by Maxwell Eckstein, and Donna's was "Stephen, Stephen," by Stephen Eckstein. Both girls gave very creditable performances according to reports of listeners here.

If you have news for The Standard, please call Emma Osterle, phone 2-1581.

NOTICE TO ALL PARENTS WHO HAVE CHILDREN IN THE FIRST SIX GRADES

We have had two Parent-Teacher meetings, first one September and the last one October 18. Over twenty parents attended either meeting. There are 250 children enrolled in the lower grades of the school. I know some parents have two or three children included in this group, but there are at least one hundred sets of parents represented in the school every day by the children. Is it too much to ask that we represent our children one night a month, nine nights a year, at the P.T.A. meetings?

Both nights all the teachers were there. They are sure are faithful to our children.

I have heard some excuses like this: "After I work all day I have too much to do at home at night," or "I am so tired I don't want to go anywhere." How many of our teachers have a maid to do their work while they are at the meeting?

I think all of them have their own home or an apartment to take care of, not to mention the fact they have their jobs during the day teaching our children.

If they have courage to come back to the school house for the P.T.A. meeting why can't we?

What is wrong with the parents of Chelsea? I have come to this conclusion:

If it is up to the parents of Chelsea to get behind our school and put it in the lead, or as the saying goes, on the map, someone had better put up detour signs.

Unless we do better than we have done it is a one-sided affair—teachers and pupils vs. parents. Whatever honors the school receives they owe it to themselves and their teachers.

Come on out November 20 and bring some ideas for a project for the P.T.A. to sponsor in order to make the days shorter for our children.

—A. Rowe, Secretary.

WEDDINGS

Poster-Gardner.

The Methodist church was the scene of a very impressive and beautiful candlelight wedding service at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, when Joyce Elaine Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Foster, of Chelsea, became the bride of Russell W. Gardner, son of Mrs. C. Kasenchuk of Chelsea and Wm. Gardner of Pinckney, in the presence of 200 friends and relatives.

The chancel before which the ceremony was performed by Rev. E. R. Major was beautifully decorated for the occasion with a large basket at either side filled with chrysanthemums, ranging in size from the button variety to the very large ones; two tall triple-branched candelabras flanking the Bible on its own pedestal in the center, and two slightly shorter seven-branched ones at the sides, each candelabra tied with a large white satin ribbon of which a cluster of milx and holding the tall white lighted candles.

The organ at one side, and the piano at the other, each held three lighted white candles. One lighted candle was placed in each window of the chancel, and a single tall candle holder with a single giant white candle was placed at each of the entrances and in the rear center of the auditorium.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. A. A. Palmer sang "Beloved, It Is Morn," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. P. M. Brossman, who also played Lohengrin's Wedding March as members of the bridal party entered and took their places.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her eldest brother, Laverne Foster, of Detroit, wore a gown of white tulle, edged with an embroidered net, and with keyhole neckline, long pointed sleeves, and a peplum. The skirt was of the plain sheer net and ended in a train. Her double veil was fingertip length and was held by a "fish tail" comb, and she wore with tiny orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid bearing streamers of white satin ribbon tied with clusters of bouvardia.

Either Riemschneider, the maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of aqua tulle, and net with a sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow button mums and talisman-roses tied with a bronze-colored satin ribbon, and wore a matching bandage of flowers in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Virginia Spaulding and Madelyn Rowe, a cousin of the bride, were gowned in pink and blue sheer net, respectively, and carried cascade bouquets of button mums and carnations in blue and pink. Miss Spaulding's bouquet was tied with a blue satin bow and Miss Rowe's with pink to contrast with their gowns, which were made exactly alike, except for color.

Both bridesmaids wore matching flower bandeaux also.

Little Rachel Foster, of North Lake, nephew of the bride, carried the ring on a white satin cushion, while the bride's niece, Patricia Foster, of Detroit, was the flower girl, scattering rose petals from her tiny basket along the bride's pathway. She wore a dress with short peach colored dress with matching hair bow, while the ring bearer wore a short white suit. Both wore white shoes and short white socks.

The groom was assisted by Lionel Parkin, of Grosse Pointe, as best man, and the ushers were Fritz Gardner of Ann Arbor.

brother of the groom, and William Van Riper of Chelsea.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the church parlors, with Leota Kohman and Alvin Clark, friends of the bride, acting as hostesses, and Betty Lee Foster of Detroit, another cousin of the bride, in charge of the guest book.

The lace covered table was centered with the four-tiered wedding cake with low white bowls holding white mums and snapdragons, and either side of the base of the cake, twin candle holders of crystal with tall white lighted candles completed the setting.

The bride's mother was in black, and her corsage was of lavender mums and Lily Pons roses. The groom's mother, in black and white jersey, wore a corsage of pink carnations.

After a three week's honeymoon trip to California, the young couple will reside in Ann Arbor.

The bride is a graduate of Chelsea high school, class of 1945, and the groom is a graduate of Pinckney high school. The groom was discharged January 7, 1946, after 8 1/2 years of service in the Navy.

Protein Supplements

Many of our American style dishes use one of the protein foods to supplement another in highly surprising combinations. Oatmeal and milk, for example. The grain food can do a better protein job because it's teamed with the animal protein of milk. Meat and vegetable stew, macaroni and cheese, milk and egg custard-corn-pudding—all are such combinations.

Friendship—Three Thousand Miles Apart

Ever play chess? It's a great game! One of the strongest friendships I know of started with a game of chess—between Dad Hoskins, in our town, and a man named Dalton Barnes, in England.

Chessboard. And the Englishman writes him that he does the same. "You know, it's almost as if we shared a glass of beer together," says Dad contentedly.

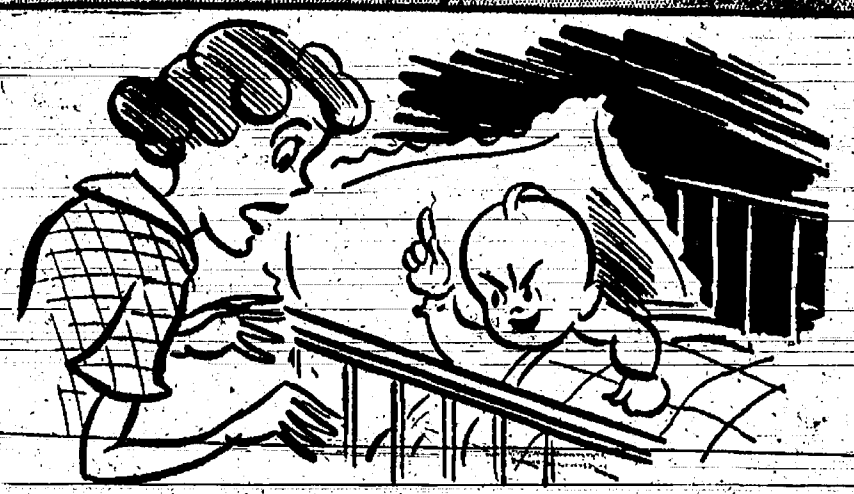

They've never seen each other, never met. But for the past eight years they've been playing chess by mail together—Dad pummeling over Dalton's latest letter, while he sends a chart of his next move to England.

Dad always thinks best with a mellow glass of beer beside him.

After studying all the arguments pro and con pertaining to the sales tax amendment, the writer of this column has come to the following conclusions: Schools will gain financially whether the amendment is defeated or adopted. New taxes will be imposed if the amendment is approved. Cities, villages and townships will not be ahead financially if the amendment carries.

A Big Vote of Confidence for Senator Vandenberg

We believe that the re-election of Senator Vandenberg presents a challenge to the people of Michigan. The Senator has taken the voice of our State into the highest councils of domestic affairs and into the peace deliberations of the world. He has given our State a prominence and an influence in world events that is unequalled in our history. His re-election becomes a matter of State pride.

We are proud of Arthur H. Vandenberg. We are proud that he comes from Michigan. He should be re-elected to the U. S. Senate with an extra big vote of confidence.

And remember this — no matter how heavy his responsibilities around the world, he has never failed you and our home State when Michigan interests have been at stake in Washington.

Let's get out and vote on Nov. 5. Let's "tell the world" that we support our Senior Senator from Michigan.

This message is published in behalf of 100,000 citizens from all 83 Counties of Michigan who placed Senator Vandenberg in nomination in June.

WAR BRIDES IN PEACE BONNETS . . . Three of the British war brides who arrived in a contingent aboard the "Henry Gibbons" show varying taste in hats. Left to right are Mrs. William Williams, Sharon, Miss Mrs. Everett Olson, Waverly, W. Va., and Mrs. Russell Helton, St. Louis. Their bonnets have but one thing in common—all are smart, but war-brides are anxious to don American-made clothes as soon as they arrive while their American sisters adopt their former styles.

VETERANS NEWS

From the OFFICE OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS LANSING

Wyatt Takes Drastic Action Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt announced that he is taking drastic action to enable his goal of 1,200,000 housing units for 1946 to become a reality.

In a special supplement to his August report on the Veterans Housing Program, Mr. Wyatt listed specific actions which are being taken to channel more construction materials into veterans' housing. They include:

1. Reserving from 75 to 100 per cent of each scarce building material for priority holders, such as veterans, until the turn of the year.

2. The addition of 28 such scarce building items to the list under priority control, bringing the total to 58.

3. Stricter compliance will be obtained through inspection of sales of building materials and provisions requiring distributors to keep complete records of such sales.

4. A reduction in the permitted weekly volume of non-housing construction from the current figure of $45,000,000 toward a goal of $35,000,000.

The action that is claimed will benefit home seekers most directly is one which places under priority control almost every scarce item that goes into a house, and directs that the greatest portion of each material be set aside indefinitely.

for home builders with priority rated orders. NHA states this should result in building materials being channeled away from non-residential construction. However, the housing shortage is so acute that relief will not be in sight for some time.

Speaking on this point, Mr. Wyatt says in his report:

"As has been pointed out from the time that the program was announced early in February, even the full attainment of the 1946 housing goals will leave the nation with a greater shortage of housing, compared with demand, than existed at the beginning of the year.

The full impact of demobilization will continue to be felt through the coming months as more veterans marry and find permanent jobs, or otherwise become permanently settled and seek homes of their own.

"This constant rising demand at present more than offsets the additional accommodations that are provided under the program, and not until after the turn of the year will the demand begin to level off.

This winter will bring more crowding and more difficulty for those seeking homes. For this reason the program's objectives for 1946 and 1947, high as they are, call for maximum effort to insure their fulfillment."

Democracy Marches On

Delegates from local units representing the more than 15,000 members of the Michigan Milk Producers Association convene at Lansing on November 7 for their 30th annual meeting.

In the traditional manner of a democracy, these Delegates were elected by the general membership and speak the majority voice of all Association members on matters of major policy and administration.

Because these Delegates represent a large and important segment of all residents of this area, it follows that what is good for MMPA members likewise reacts to the public good.

The inter-dependence of dairy farmer and general public has been recognized by MMPA from its inception 30 years ago.

It has prompted Delegates to foster new scientific safeguards for public health protection;

It has led Delegates to sponsor production methods for increasing the quantity and quality of milk to meet increasing public demands for nature's best food at its very best;

It has enabled Delegates to set up administrative procedures for cooperative marketing and mutual aid which cost less than one per cent of gross sales—far less than administrative costs of the American Red Cross, Community Fund and similar activities;

It has resisted taking temporary advantage of abnormal conditions to obtain "quick money" at the expense of sound long-range planning;

It adopted more than a decade ago the base-and-excess plan which authorities on milk marketing have called the best year-in, year-out program ever devised for the advantage and protection of both milk consumer and milk producer.

Out of this background of successful operation, Delegates on November 7 will lay broad plans for sound future growth.

And action of the Delegates, you may be sure, will adhere to those basic principles of Democracy on which MMPA has operated for more than three decades—Awareness that what is good for the milk producer must be likewise good for the milk consumer.

DISCOLORED PLANTS
Plants discolored by yellow leaves with green veins, may need iron. A cup of iron sulfate (copperas) applied to the plant will supply the iron which is lacking. Results should begin to show in about three or four weeks. For a slower, but more lasting effect, make a heavy application of decayed grass clippings or other decayed vegetable matter, or a cup of sulphur applied to the soil about the plant.

MICHIGAN MILK PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

George Brown Says Meat Prices Must Satisfy Four Groups

The producer, the packer, the retailer and the consumer must all four be satisfied before ideal conditions again exist in the livestock industry. That is the opinion of George A. Brown, veteran head of the animal husbandry department of Michigan State college.

Declaring that prices the first few days after government controls were lifted could not and should not be maintained, Brown said.

Continuation of such prices would result in disaster for the livestock industry.

The producer, he maintains, must receive a sufficient return to maintain adequate production. The wholesaler and retailer must be guaranteed a continuous supply and a reasonable profit. The consumer must be able to fill his needs at a price in keeping with his income.

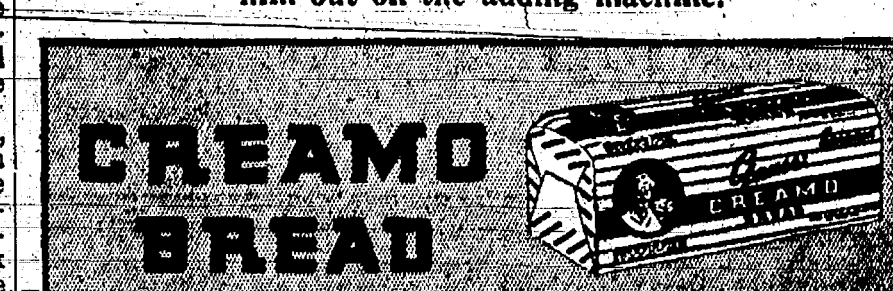

Referring to the prices existing the first week after controls were removed, Brown said they would curtail consumption by low-income groups and would cause overproduction. If these prices lasted any length of time they would be followed by ruinously low prices.

Past experience has proved, Brown says, that prices too high to the consumer, or too low to the producer, seriously hamper the industry. "It is up to the good judgment of the farmers and livestock producers of the country to see that neither of these conditions prevail," the animal husbandry department head said.

Brown predicted unstable and fluctuating livestock markets during the coming year with the general trend working lower. He believes that unless restraint is used, the number of sows bred this fall and the number of steers placed on feed may result in burdensome supplies. That would result in prices lower than is desirable from the standpoint of all branches of the industry before the end of 1947.

Olive Chapter Held Public Installation On Wednesday Night

Associate Matron-elect, Esther Lucht, and Associate Patron-elect, Olive Weir, passed to their stations, each escorted in turn by the installing Marshal.

Following these special ceremonies the other officers-elect were installed and escorted to their stations by the installing Marshal in the following order:

Secretary—Lenore Schmidt.
Treasurer—Lila Asha.
Conductress—Janis Van Riper.

Associate Conductress—Helen Leggett.

Chaplain—Ruth Walker.
Marshal—Helen Baxter.

Organist—Betty Hall.
Aides—Helen Gatzel.

Ruth—Helen Hutzel.
Esther—June Robinson.

Martha—Doris Smith.
Electa—Lelia Weir.

May Luick, who was to be installed as Warder, was unable to be present because of illness, and she and Wyla Miller, who was unavoidably absent also, will be installed at a regular meeting of the chapter.

After the installations a program, arranged by the retiring Worthy Matron, was given, beginning with a solo by Helen Baxter, accompanied on the piano by her daughter, Hazel Wacker. Her solo was an arrangement of words of tribute to the new Worthy Matron, adapted to the music of the song "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling."

Between star points, Delda Gee, Helen Hutzel, June Robinson, Doris Smith and Lelia Weir, were escorted to their stations by members representing the retiring star points who presented them with their emblems. The new star points then conducted an impressive little ceremony, each one approaching the altar and paying her tribute to the new Worthy Matron before placing on the altar the flowers representing her color—blue, yellow, white, green and red respectively.

At the conclusion of this ceremony the piano was gathered up and presented to the new Worthy Matron by the conductress, Janis Van Riper, on behalf of the chapter.

As a surprise for the new Worthy Matron, Helen Baxter then sang her favorite hymn, "Someone Must."

The program closed with another solo by Helen Baxter, this one being words of tribute to the new Worthy Matron, adapted to the music of the song "The End of the Road."

The newly installed Worthy Matron took over the meeting and thanked the soloist, the retiring Worthy Matron and the entire chapter for their efforts in her behalf and told of her plans, hopes and ambitions for the coming year. She also had the retiring Worthy Matron and Patron escorted to the East, where she presented the retiring Matron with the Past Matron's Jewel, and the new Patron presented the retiring one, Mary Steinbach, with a gift on behalf of the chapter.

The Past Matrons then formed a circle around the altar and the retiring Matron was accepted as a member of the club. In the absence of the president, Emma Vickers, Betty Hall presented Mrs. Miller with a gift on behalf of the club.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake, tea and coffee were served in the dining room, where arrangements were in charge of Mrs. A. Gulde. The lace covered table was lovely with the centerpiece—a beautiful mixed bouquet arranged in a silver bowl flanked by white candles in silver holders.

Ethel Knickerbocker and Esther Licht, the newly installed Worthy Matron and the Associate Worthy Matron, presided at the silver tea and coffee servers at either end of the table. Small tables were provided where the guests were seated for their refreshments, the entire dining room presenting a very lovely appearance with its tastefully arranged profusion of flowers and autumn leaves.

I wonder how many bowlers noticed the ninth team on the league standing? It all happened so fast that I will try and explain how they got there.

Last evening's bowling on the averages was a knock-out.

The door opening it, there stood three of the oldest-looking characters anyone could ever see. One of them said they had joined the Chelsea Bowling League. I said:

"I can't do that, or can you?"

"I took another look at them. After debating with myself, I then, their score books, and they left, slamming the door. After I was sure they were out of sight, I looked at their score books. The first thing I noticed was that they didn't add up their total score. Taking another look out the window and not seeing them, I added their teams at the bottom of the standing.
