The Song of Christmas

THE long journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem . . .
a new Star in the sky . . . heavenly music above the hills of Judea . . . the flutter of angel wings
... the swift journeying of the Shepherds . . .
Mary and Joseph and the new-born Child . . .
the coming of the Wise Men, with their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh . . .

From these inspiring things the Song of Christmas was fashioned more than twenty centuries ago. The years have added new notes of happiness. Carols and song upon the air . . . candles gleaming into the night . . . secret whisperings and laughter in the home . . . greetings going from friend to friend . . . deeds of love and mercy done in the name of a Child.

No great symphony or composition can match the Song of Christmas. It rises above the clatter and roar of the city; it throbs through the scattered town and hamlet; it sings through the sunlit islands of the South; it permeates the frozen wastes of the Northland. In ever-widening volume its strains echo around the world.

Before its magic the hosts of darkness take flight. It touches the slumbering chords of memory; it heals old hurts and scars; it binds loved ones in a closer and deeper tie. There are no friendless or forsaken within its sound; under its influence the strong reach out to help the weak. Peace and Love and Joy, these are its loudest notes, and they are for all men. For the Song of Christmas is the greatest of all songs because it is understood by every heart.

PEACE ON EARTH..

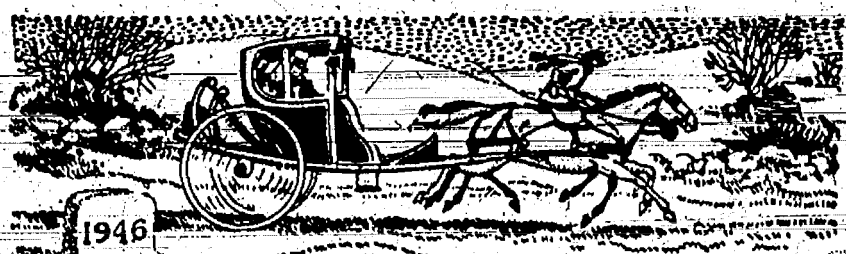

CHRISTMAS 1946

1946 GREETINGS from St. Nicholas

Have you ever thought of Christmas as a birthday party—a birthday party that goes all over the world at once? That is why Christmas is so joyous! Everybody is a participant in this big, grand, worldwide party, with Santa Claus the host!

And here we are, on the Eve of Christmas, sending you our very best wishes for a joyous time at this great Birthday Party.

Merry Christmas TO ALL OUR FRIENDS

Styles change, methods change, but Christmas—never! Beneath it all is the same old love of man for his folks and his neighbors, the same old dream of the day when peace and good will encompass all the earth.

So now in that changeless season of Christmas we greet our friends and neighbors, as so often before, with that time-worn message of cheer and good fellowship, MERRY CHRISTMAS!

HOLIDAY at HOME

IT WAS three nights before Christmas and Margaret was packing to go home. Contrary to traditional sentiment, she was not happy about it, for she had planned to stay in New York with Ralph. With considerable forethought she had even planned the day; church in the morning, Christmas dinner with Amy and Bill, a walk down Fifth avenue at twilight, a snack of supper, and the theater.

But Ralph had been invited to a "swell house party" in Philadelphia. Margaret slammed down the top of her suitcase. She could have borne up under a Christmas with a lonely mother, or a widowed sister. "What about me?" she had longed to cry out, but she had instead, smiled and said that it was just too marvelous, wondering meanwhile if Mr. Johnson would let her have an extra day off. Ralph had only to go to Philadelphia, two hours away, while she had no one within 500 miles!

Several hours later she stood on the porch of a white frame house. Now she was ready, bag-in-hand, for the midnight train. As she waited for the taxicab, she smoothed her black tailored-woolen frock over her slim hips. If New York hadn't been particularly kind to her, it had at least taught her how to dress!

She couldn't sleep on the train. Closing her eyes, she saw the cluttered desk which she had left at Roswell's Advertising agency, and Mr. Johnston's kindly face when he had told her to go home for Christmas. She saw Ralph's desk in the manager's office, Ralph dancing in Philadelphia, Ralph opening Christmas gifts—and just Ralph, with whom she would never again share good times.

There was a three-hour wait for the local train at Pittsburgh, but Margaret was too tired and depressed to leave the station. After buying a magazine featuring an article on men, and an astrological delineation of her birthsign, she settled herself into the practical task of trying to determine her future in this most unpredictable world. Several hours later, not much wiser but much more weary, she stood on the porch of a white frame house.

The door opened and Margaret blinked. "What time?" shouted Ralph triumphantly. "She came on the midnight train!"

Mrs. Brown rushed out to the hallway and enfolded her daughter in an ample, motherly embrace. "Margaret! Why child, you're a sight! Your face is as black as coal."

Margaret withdrew herself from her mother's arms and looked at the two of them coolly. "Well, if it isn't asking too much, just what is this? Not a weekend in Philadelphia, I believe!"

Ralph took her bag and magazine and helped her out of her coat. "Don't be like that, Margaret! I bet your mother a box of candy against a mince pie that you'd come down on the midnight train." "And what, exactly, are you doing here?"

"Margaret!" chided her mother. "I invited myself. A surprise for you, and then I wanted to talk to your Dad about something." Ralph was awkwardly turning the magazine in his hands. "Jumping fishes!" he exclaimed. "Look at the little red book!" He opened it to a center page, and read: "The natives of this sign are more than likely to have short tempers." "Give it to me!"

Ralph held it tantalizingly out of reach and Margaret stamped her foot. "Ralph Wells," she said, "I come home for a rest and the first thing you do is make fun of me. If I have a complete breakdown it's your fault. Give me that book!"

"There, there," comforted her mother. "You go upstairs and get washed. You'll feel better."

Margaret started up the stairs, then turned in sudden remembrance. "Are you staying over Christmas?" she asked Ralph. "I had expected to." "You might as well. There's a dance Christmas Eve." At the top of the steps she turned again. "And don't forget, half of that pie is mine. After all, I did the coming home!" "Okay."

"She's tickled to death to see you," whispered Mother Brown cautiously. She patted his arm, and Ralph understood.

Paper Early Invention Paper was invented in 105 A. D. by Tsai Lun, chief eunuch at the court of China's Emperor Ho Ti. Not until the middle of the last century, however, was it introduced in one of its most widespread present day forms—as a folding box for packaging consumer goods.

CHRISTMAS THOUGHT

THESE ARE DAYS WHEN WE ARE ALL IN A BIG HURRY TO GET HOME. FOR THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME WHEN THE CHRISTMAS WRATH IS GLOWING IN THE WINDOW. WE ARE DUE RIGHT NOW TO SAY OUR LITTLE PIECE—AN OLD REFRAIN, IT IS TRUE, BUT AS WARM AND HEARTFELT AS THE FIRST TIME WE EVER SAID IT—

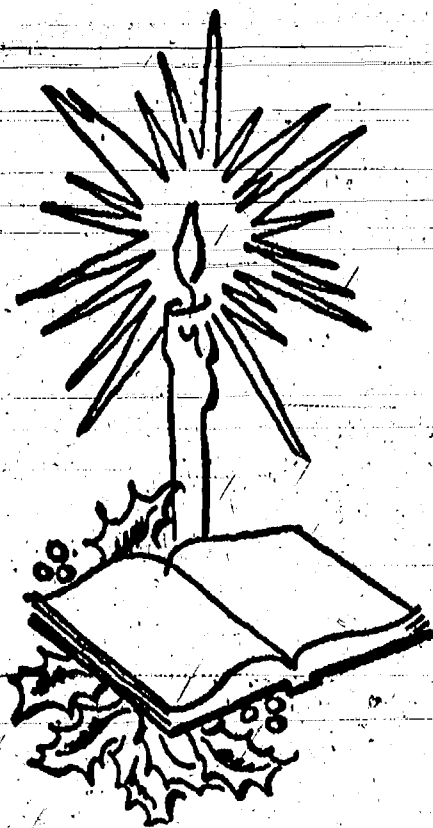

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Loeffler's Market Quality Meats

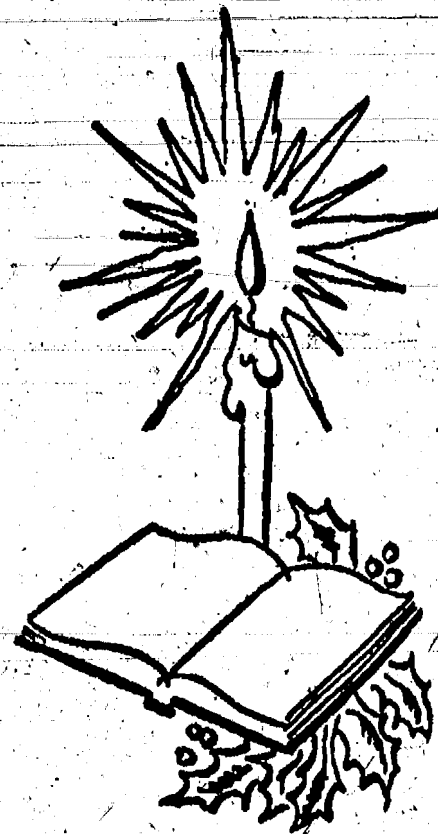

O, come let us adore Him

Clear, sweet and strong the many voices of the choir rise as one to praise Him. For it is His birth date . . . anniversary of the beginning of a new concept of love and brotherhood for all mankind. We see again how He brought light into the darkness; how He fed the hungry, slaked the parched and healed the suffering. We sing again, psalms of joy in His coming . . . hymns of faith in His undying spirit . . . songs of love which are veritable pacans of glory reverberating around the world to guide all His children toward an everlasting realization of Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.

Joy to the World
Christmas

● Christmas is not all tinsel and tissue or colored lights and merriment. It has a deeper significance, rooted in the long gone past, which sets it high above all other holidays of the year.

● It is our hope that this blessed season will bring to your home not only the festive joys of Yuletide but that deep inner peace which is essentially a part of Christmas.

EDITORIAL

What would be more fitting than to talk about the coming Christmas day and the New Year? Perhaps we're inclined to believe that this will be the best Christmas we've ever had, for we have hopes of "peace and good will toward men" coming true. In the New Year we, too, can rejoice in the fact that those who have been away are once again at home or will soon be home. Of course, there is the thought of those who have not known what Christmas is, but now they too can discover and even participate in Christmas activities. Will this not be a truly happy and thankful Christmas and a promising New Year?

HEALTH PROGRAM PLANNED

If your child came home and said he had had his eyes or ears tested don't think he is the only one. They are having a general health program in school.

First, there will be arranged a distribution of milk to children in school. This is to be handled by Miss Larson, who is the Home Economics teacher.

Second, Mr. Cameron has charge of the eye tests, with the help of the freshmen class.

Third, Mr. Cameron also has charge of the hearing clinic. There will be a lighting survey of the school made to correct deficient lighting facilities which will be handled by Mr. Alpervitz.

Miss Fox has charge of talks which will be made to home rooms about personal health habits.

The school board has also tried to make arrangements for a dental clinic to come to school but not much progress has been gained in that field. They have asked several clinics but all have too much to do at present.

We plan to publish more about all of these as we progress in the individual health programs.

BAND

The band has elected officers. They are as follows:
President—Junior Niehaus.
Vice President—Lyle Christiwell.
Secretary—John Copren.
The treasurer has not yet been appointed.

The high school pupils in band are going to have a roller skating party shortly after Christmas vacation.

The brass ensemble played for the Christmas Chorus Concert.

CLASS NEWS

Different classes of the high school helped to put on the Christmas dance Saturday evening, which was held at the Municipal Building. The contributions were as follows:

Freshman—Tree.
Sophomores—Program.
Juniors—Decorations.
Seniors—Gifts.

CHORUS

The chorus is planning to present an opera, "In Old Vienna," in the spring. The characters are as follows: June Pennington is Anne Lambertson; Jack Merkel acts as James H. Pennington; Lady Vivian Delaney is Wilma Koenigster; David Slane poses as "Max" Maier; Marilyn Eschelbach takes the part of Louise; Captain Kink is Jack Wellnitz; Bumbaki, Bob Barlow; Rumbaki, Loren Munro; J. Jennison Jones is Clara Knickerbocker; Jigo, Oscar Hansen; Alona is Nancy Looze; and Arthur Cretont is played by Dick Cobb.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y has decided not to take over the noon dances. They have decided to feed the basketball players after the games and sponsor the dances after the games, however.

During the past few weeks they have been selling Christmas cards throughout the school.

At the last meeting they discussed racial prejudice.

FRESHMAN BIOGRAPHIES

On July 25, 1932 Mr. and Mrs. Clark looked upon a small blond babe already named Nancy. Now, Nancy Clark is a freshman five feet 4 inches tall, with blue eyes and blonde hair. Her subjects this year are English, home economics, general business and biology. Her favorite teacher is "good ole Mr. Cameron." Her only gripe is: "I don't think we have a long enough lunch hour." However, she forgets the fact when she hears "To Bach His Own" or when she sees Dana Clark on the screen.

Bruce Bycraft is fifteen years old. His subjects this year are: English, biology, general business, and civics—which last is his favorite subject. He likes all of his teachers but Mr. Cameron tops the list. Bruce says Chelsea High is very different from St. Mary's, but he really likes it here. In fact, he says, "I think Chelsea High is a super school." Bruce adds that his favorite sport is football.

Norman O'Connor was born in Detroit May 17, 1932 and lived there for his first fourteen years. Since August this year he has been living here. The part he likes best about our school is the athletics. Mr. Cameron rates as his favorite teacher. Norman's main trouble is his personal "No. 1" movie is "Smoky" and roast chicken is his favorite dish. He enjoys being a member of the basketball squad, but his "special" sport is football.

GRADE PARTY

The grade school building had their Christmas party Friday. The kindergarten sang Christmas carols to the rest of the grade school students.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Christmas program given Thursday afternoon by the Chorus Club was enjoyed immensely by all. It was started by the members coming in singing "O Little Town of Bethlehem." Then, while the chorus was singing "Silent Night," Adele Forner read "The Christmas Story." Two other songs, "Praise Carol" and "Ye Watchers and Ye Holyones," were sung in beautiful harmony.

The elementary school pupils sang "Away in a Manger" and "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing." Wilma Koenigster sang the descent for the latter.

Solos sung were "Ave Maria" by Nancy Looze and "O Holy Night," by Anne Lambertson. The Girls' Chorus then sang "Jesus is Born" and "Holy Night." The last two songs sung by the chorus were "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" and "Praise Thee the Lord."

The piano accompanists were Donna Kalmbach and Miss Wendelburg.

The rest of the program was devoted to the singing of Christmas hymns by the audience.

Christmas is likely to become too prosaic to many of us grownups, but to boyhood's eager eyes it is a time of preparation and expectancy... an enchanted season when the woodland is hushed and even ordinary tasks take on the glamor and joy of dragging home the Christmas tree. Christmas Day

On Christmas Day we repeat the old familiar greeting that, each year, in some mystic way rings fresh and true—"Merry Christmas." Like such words as "hello" and "good-by," there really isn't anything else to say that pulls at our heartstrings as do these old dear words. And so again we say: Merry Christmas—to the kindest ones who skip downstairs in the gray dawn to explore their stockings and the wondrous tree and to look at Christmas with the special radiance of youth... who lend to the rest of us little glimmers of the real Christmas glamour.

Merry Christmas—to father who'll strain a point any day to give us all the things we want... who probably works much too hard and yet keeps younger and more alert because of the responsibility of a family and the competition of business... who makes the gesture of tut-tutting all the fuss and feathers yet beams with affection and excitement.

Merry Christmas—to mother who really calls the tune for the holidays and does the planning and pulling together... who out-foxters and bustles resolutely for weeks ahead and undoubtedly has the best and busiest time of all.

Merry Christmas—to the butcher, the baker, the candlestick-maker, not to mention all those who sold us shoes and ships and sealing wax... for what would Christmas be without them? For through them we've all been able to share our own little prosperity in the most wholesome way of all—by spending it.

Merry Christmas—to dear friends far and near who've sent us greetings and gifts... most especially do we cherish the greetings because even more than gifts they express the true spirit of Christmas.

Merry Christmas—to the droppers-in who come with holiday cheer and friendship... who come to our parties or stop by to leave a glass of extra elegant jelly or an original privately invented relish.

Merry Christmas—to ourselves, for that matter. But then we feel pretty sure that we'll have one for we've put so much work and excitement and loving getting-ready into it. For of course we all get out of Christmas just about what we put in.

the name "wassail" is a contraction of the middle English "wese heel," meaning "be thou well." Wassail was usually prepared in a large wooden bowl. The base of the drink, which was cider, was placed in the bowl and other ingredients added for seasoning. It was then set on the hearth in front of a log fire and apples were tied above. As the apples began to roast, the juice dripped into the wooden bowl.

Here is a recipe for wassail today: 1 gallon cider, dash of grenadine, 8 egg whites, separated and whipped. Add allspice, cinnamon, crushed cloves to suit and one pint of milk or cream.

Among the happy customs of Christmas is that of drinking a wish for health and happiness to the assembled guests—the early name used was "wassail."

Dr. Engelke Speaks At Grade School PTA

The Chelsea Grade School PTA held their December meeting in the Home Ec. room of the high school on Wednesday evening, Dec. 18.

Dr. Otto K. Engelke and two nurses from the Washtenaw County Department of Health gave very interesting and informative talks on the functions of the department, its objectives and how they are being accomplished, and describing the work of the free clinics that are held throughout the county during the year.

Following the talks refreshments were served from a table which had been beautifully arranged before-hand by Mrs. Lawrence Riemen-schneider to portray a Christmas scene and placed in such a way that the decorations could be seen and admired during the entire meeting, eliciting many complimentary remarks from members of the group.

Farmers' Club Meets At Whitaker Home

The December meeting of the Western Washtenaw Farmers' Club was held Friday evening at the Whitaker home, with Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Holden assisting as hosts.

A lovely Christmas dinner was served to the thirty-four members and guests present, and was followed by a short business meeting. It was announced that the next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Miller.

Christmas carols were sung by the group with Mrs. P. M. Broese van Groenou at the piano, and then Mrs. Broese van Groenou played a special arrangement of "Silent Night," which was very beautifully rendered and much enjoyed by those present.

Christmas gifts were distributed and reports are that everyone had a most enjoyable time.

Boxing Exhibition At Cassidy Lake

The boxing fans of this vicinity are invited to witness a boxing program under the supervision of Boots Prim of C.I.O., which is to be held at the Cassidy Lake gymnasium Wednesday evening, December 25, at 8 o'clock.

The Cassidy Lake and Chelsea boys are in training for their entry in the coming Golden Gloves tournament, and "Doc" Corey, Hoffman, coach of the team, promises an interesting program.

LIMA CENTER SCHOOL NOTES

Lima Center school had their Christmas party on Thursday, Dec. 19, in the afternoon this year. We had a very nice Christmas tree loaned to us by Mr. Gracey's store. Santa Claus even came to see us in the afternoon—we hadn't expected he would be able to come. We all were glad to see him but some of the littlest folks were frightened. We all received some lovely gifts and enjoyed our ice cream and cookies.

We wish to thank the P.T.A. for the oranges and candy and all the folks who helped in any way.

Our school is being painted during the Christmas vacation. We will appreciate that very much as it was badly needed. We hope to keep it nice then for the rest of the year anyway.

Unless otherwise notified we will return to school Jan. 2, 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Steger are the parents of a son, born Tuesday, December 17, at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

Barths Honored On Fortieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin W. Barth entertained relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Barth in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary on Thursday, December 19, in Phyllis Wedemeyer's apartment at the Sylvan hotel.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Barth, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Lesser, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lesser and son Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Eppler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sager, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Park, Kathryn Shierman, Rudolph Eschbach, Mrs. Ella Gross and daughter Phyllis Wedemeyer, all of Chelsea, and Mrs. Etta Covert of Lansing.

The evening's entertainment consisted of bingo, followed by moving pictures shown by Mr. Park, of scenic Florida, his deer-hunting trips in northern Michigan, and pheasant-hunting trip in South Dakota.

The honored couple received lovely gifts.

The refreshments were climaxed by the tiered wedding cake.

Tail-waiters lighted the table centered with a bouquet of red roses and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Covert presided at the coffee service.

34 Years Ago

Thursday, December 14, 1922

Covers were laid for 210 at the rabbit and chicken supper served by the K. of P. Lodge to members and guests and to the members of the Phyllis Sisters.

The 36x50 ft. barn on the Jacob Kern farm in Sylvan, with its contents of hay and grain, livestock, and farm machinery, was completely destroyed by fire about 9 o'clock Friday night. The loss was fully six thousand dollars, with an insurance of about two thousand dollars. The origin of the fire is undetermined.

Chas. E. Clayton, manager of the Chelsea division of the Hoover Steel Ball Co., of Ann Arbor, has been instructed to have the Chelsea plant in shape to begin operations about Feb. 1.

The board of directors of the Washtenaw County Fair Association have decided to erect a building 125x161 to house the merchants' exhibits. It is hoped the building will be ready for the 1923 fair.

County Clerk Pray, at the close of last week, had issued 123 sets of 1923 auto license plates. The Stockbridge bank was considerably damaged by fire and most of the fixtures ruined when a blaze broke out in the basement. It was necessary to cut a hole in the roof to get water to the blaze.

Andrew Haffey of Portland, Ore. arrived on Saturday to spend the holidays with relatives and friends here.

Trappers Must Report
Raw Furs On Hand

Lansing—Trappers holding their furs for better prices than are being offered in the current market are reminded by the conservation department that all raw hides on hand must be reported within five days of the end of the season.

The mink and muskrat trapping season closed December 15, in the northern half of the lower peninsula and ends December 31 in the southern half of the lower peninsula, except on Lake Erie marshes, where trapping continues to January 31.

Permits to hold raw hides may be obtained without cost from the local conservation officer. Each permit is provided with perforated cards for removing out-of-season sales of furs. With these permits, the furs may be held in possession indefinitely.

Low prices of fox, skunk and raccoon pelts reflect a current fashion trend away from long-haired furs. Muskrats are reported bringing $1.50 to $2, well below 1945 selling prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood announce the birth of a daughter, Janice Ann, on Friday, December 13, at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

PIN CHATTER

December 17, 1946

Judging from the number of new members in the "450" and "500" clubs (none), it would seem that the girls are in need of the rest they have coming. In view of the fact that there will be no Ladies' League bowling for two weeks, during the holidays, there will be no bowling news for those two weeks.

Now to get back to this week's news: E. Tucci is given another "Gold Star" for the 500 club again. She bowled a neat 526 series. Another "450" member is back with 450: B. Rabley. That is all. The splits picked up were 9-7 and 9-10 by Slane, the 9-10 by M. Beam, the 7-5-9 by E. Schell, the 5-7 by J. Robinson, the 8-10 by N. Holmes, the 5-6-10 by V. Guest, and the 6-10 by R. Novess.

Half of the League, six teams, are in the first three places. The other half are trying hard to get up there. They are as follows:

If . . .

Children of Provence, France, reverently recite the following prayer before the Christmas crib in that vicinity:

Little Jesus of the Crib—
Give us the virtues of those who surround you.

Make us as philosophical as the fisherman.

Carefree as the drummer,
Merry for exploring the world as the troubadour.

Eager for work as the bugler,
Patient as the spinner.

Kind as the ass,
Strong as the ox which keeps you warm.

Give us the sacred leisure of the hunter.

Give us also the desire of the shepherd for earthly things.

The pride of the trade of the knife-grinder and the weaver,
The song of the miller.

Give us the knowledge of the Magi.

The cheerfulness of the pigeon,
The impulsiveness of the cock,
The discretion of the snail.

The meekness of the lamb,
Give us the goodness of bread,
The tenderness of the wild boar.

The salt of the haddock,
The good humor of old wine,
The ardor of the candle.

The purity of a star.

Propriety of a few of the metaphors may be disputed; nevertheless, nostalgia prompts speculation regarding a world of humanity endowed with the virtues so earnestly and innocently enumerated by the little ones.

Future Foretold By Drowsy Hens

Divinations were an important part of the Christmas festivities in Czarist Russia.

After a special family Christmas dinner, the girls of the household placed five piles of grain upon the kitchen floor: each pile was given a name, such as Hope, Ring, Money, Thread and Charcoal. A drowsy hen was fetched from the henhouse and allowed to walk around the kitchen floor and choose a pile of grain.

Obviously the hen's choice of Money meant wealth; Ring, foretold a wedding within a year; and Hope, promised the fulfillment of a wish or a long journey. If the sleepy chicken chose the grain designated as Thread, a life of toil was predicted for the marriageable maiden of the household; and Charcoal was considered an omen of death in the family.

Old songs were sung to accompany such goings-on, while the girls and women vied to devise complete stories based on the antics of the hen.

Yule Means December

The word "Yule" for Christmas comes from the Anglo-Saxon "geol," meaning December.

Seeing Upside Down

Everyone "sees upside down" in a sense. The image on the retina is inverted, like in a camera. Experience and habit, however, enable us to see rightside up.

Farmers Advised To File Returns Early

Farmers who file their final income tax return before January 15, 1947 will be saved the extra work of preparing and filing the "estimate" that is due at that time. That's why E. M. Elwood, farm management extension specialist at Michigan State college, recommends that you get started on figuring returns early.

The farm management specialist believes farmers will find the job easier this year than in the past, especially if they have kept records of their income and expense.

There has been little change in the requirements for the 1946 return. Farmers, however, will find the rates have been reduced this year. Figuring the tax will be simpler than it has been in previous years because you are allowed an exemption for both normal tax and surtax.

Those who were in the service should remember that service pay received by all members of the armed forces, except officers, is excluded from income. Commissioned officers are entitled to exclude the first $1,500 of their service pay. Farmers are allowed to deduct, as a business expense, reasonable wages paid a minor child as a bona fide employee in the farm business. Such wages are included in the income of the child and if this income amounts to $500 or more, the child must also file a return.

Farmers must file either their final return or an "estimate" of their 1946 tax before January 15, 1947.

To aid Michigan farmers in preparing their income tax, the Michigan State college extension service has revised bulletin E-25, "Farmers and the Income Tax," which is available from county extension offices or from the Bulletin Office, Michigan State college, East Lansing.

Annual Meeting Held By Farmers' Guild

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Farmers' Guild was held Wednesday evening, December 18, in the Municipal Building. Officers elected for the coming year are:

Carroll Ordway—President.
Dorr Whitaker—Vice-President.
George Brettschneider—Secretary.
Kenneth Proctor—Treasurer.

Three directors, Dwight Harr, Ernest Hopkins and Elmer Schiller, were re-elected, and Joe McKel was elected to succeed Earl Whitney.

The state president, Harry S. Atchison, of Northville, was present, accompanied by Mrs. Atchison. He gave a report on a farmers' convention held earlier in the month at Lincoln, Nebraska.

Following the business meeting, bingos were enjoyed, with a number of prizes being awarded, and refreshments were served by the committee.

Chelsea Grads Sing In College Program

Two of last year's Chelsea high school graduates who are attending Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti sang in the Christmas program at Peace Auditorium, Ypsilanti, last Thursday. The choir, consisting of the direction of Haydn Morgan, consisted entirely of Christmas carols, sung by the choir of 186 voices, the Chelsea representatives of last year's class being Joanne Moore and Jean Eisenbeiser.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Moore and family, accompanied by Ellen Jane Geddes, attended the program.

Oil Well To Be Drilled On H. Mohrlock Farm

The state conservation department has granted permission to drill for oil on the farm owned by Herman Mohrlock on old US-12 about two miles west of Chelsea.

The well is to be known as the Herman Mohrlock No. 1, with the lease held by H. H. Hart of Detroit, Michigan, in charge of drilling operations.

Y. M. STUDY CLUB

The Young Mothers' Child Study club meeting for December was held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Weinmann on Tuesday evening of the past week, at which time gifts of bibles were packed and wrapped for veterans at Percy Jones hospital, Battle Creek. The scrap books for distribution as gifts to hospitalized crippled children were finished, also. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

P. S. CHRISTMAS PARTY

The officers of the Pythian Sisters lodge held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Robert Lantis on Thursday evening, with ten present. Bingo was enjoyed as the diversion of the evening, followed by an exchange of gifts around the Christmas tree, and refreshments of ice cream and cake served by the hostess.

PHILATHEA CIRCLE

The Philathea Circle of the Methodist church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Mohrlock. At the business meeting the work of the past year was reviewed and plans for next year's work were discussed. There was an exchange of gifts, followed by refreshments served by the hostess.

Girl Scout Group Holds Xmas Party

On Monday evening the Girl Scout group which has for its leader Mrs. Deane Rogers, assisted by Mrs. Walter Mohrlock, enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Mohrlock.

Balsam boughs with Christmas lights and tree ornaments were used as decorations in the recreation room where the girls gathered to play bingo and exchange gifts. One of the girls, Barbara Mahar, brought recordings of Christmas music, which added to the evening's entertainment.

A lovely lunch, which included sandwiches, potato chips, hot chocolate, cookies and ice cream, was prepared and served by Karen Chase, Joyce Messner, Barbara Mahar, Eleanor Schmidt and Barbara Buehler, who thus earned credits toward their cook badges.

ENTERTAIN FOR SON

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gaunt entertained at a pre-Christmas party at their home Friday evening prior to the departure of their son James, and nephew Bill, of Detroit, for Fort Myers, Florida on Saturday morning. The young men plan to spend the holidays in the South and return home about January 8.

Guests at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Gaunt and son Bill of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Piper and sons of Birmingham, and Duane Luick, who had planned to go to Florida also but was unable to leave his work because of the illness of a fellow employee, necessitating his remaining "on the job."
