Behold a miracle!

Dad at 3 p.m. was fit to be tied. Petty irritations all day long. The air was explosive. Office folks walked on tiptoe and held their breath.

Now look at him at 6 p.m. . . a changed man . . . and his cracked tenor was never in better form.

That's the miracle of a piping hot tub or shower to soak away the troubles of the day, wash out the fatigue, restore the old pep and optimism.

"Things go smoother around home now," says Mother, "since we got an automatic gas water heater. Father has all the hot water he wants any time for a bath, and so do the children and I. And there is always plenty for cooking and washing dishes, cleaning and other needs."

Chalk up another family's vote for the automatic gas water heater as the No. 1 home convenience.
