Michigan MIRROR

By Gene Alleman

How the constantly growing financial needs of local governments can be met in the period of inflation is one of the aggravated problems now confronting the Michigan State Legislature in its fourth month of sessions. There appears to be two ways whereby additional funds could be raised through taxation.

The first would be new taxes, created by the State Legislature and collected by the State of Michigan. This has been the favorite way to finance new public services by local governments. Since the tax was adopted, state expenditures have increased $168,000,000, of which $138,000,000 were returned to local units of government and $30,000,000 retained by the State for direct state services to the people.

As these new needs have developed from time to time, the State Legislature has been in the habit of seeking new or added taxes such as the intangible tax, the 10 percent liquor tax, the close to home parking and other levies whereby substantial revenues could be derived to finance the new public services by local units of government. For every $100 of new taxes collected, the State of Michigan retained $18 and turned over $82 to local governments for their needs.

A second way whereby local public services by home governments are financed in other states is that of special local taxes.

The local collection of local taxes has a peculiar virtue of bringing the taxpayer close to the agency which is expending his tax dollar. Much of the breakdown in tax responsibility has been due to the fact that an increasingly large amount of taxes has been received from sources not within the community, either from Lansing or from Washington, and hence had the illusion of being money from someone else's pocketbook and not his own.

This aspect was crystallized recently by Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York who declared: "Without close correlation between the spending of public money and the responsibility for collecting it through taxes, local responsibility for government will degenerate rapidly and we shall have an all-powerful, centralized government, that project is a grave threat to the decentralizing government which the Governor Dewey has had the courage and daring to propose. Special new taxes for local units of government whereby these governments might finance the increased cost of public services at the local level."

For example, county governments in New York State would be empowered to levy a retail sales tax of not more than 2 percent on tangible personal property. Owners of motor vehicles would pay a tax of not more than $5 per passenger vehicle and not more than $10 for a commercial vehicle. Trucks used exclusively for farming would be exempted. The county government would be authorized to levy a tax of 3 percent on restaurants, meals and drinks over $1. Counties could tax alcoholic beverages at not more than 25 percent of the amount of the state license fee. Counties could tax admissions to theatres not more than 5 percent. Operating machines would be licensed by the county at not more than $10 per machine per year.

It is the conviction of Governor Dewey that the above taxes, if levied by county governments in New York State, would realize a total of more than $40,000,000 per year to make possible some of the improvements such as higher salaries for teachers, new or improved school buildings, and other public works.

Clashes of at least 100,000 population would be given new additional tax powers, and New York City would be segregated and thereby additional taxes could be levied on meals, admissions to commercial, liquor licenses, ownership of motor vehicles, including commercial trucks.

Governor Dewey summed up the benefits of new taxes for local governments by pointing out "there is no magic to the production of revenue. They arise only by being extracted from the pocket of the taxpayer."

One of the above ways, the Michigan State Legislature has worked out some solution to finance new needs of the State of Michigan and of local governments. The problem is great, and the solution is not easy.

Ypsilanti	3,444.80

Amounts due each city, village and township were figured according to population on the basis of $1.60 per capita, the total for the state amounting to $3,418,258.00. The schools' share of the sales tax is figured at the rate of $6 for each child listed in the school census records and was not sent out at the time the checks were mailed to county treasurers for distribution to cities, villages and townships.

There was a delay in making the school distribution until a decision could be obtained from Eugene F. Black, attorney general, in regard to 1,822 of those listed in the child census who were disqualified for participation in the primary school fund because their districts had an auditor general, was told by Attorney General Black to disqualify the same group in the distribution of the sales tax refunds for the reason that the constitutional amendment provided that this money be distributed in the same manner as the primary school fund.

SM Funeral Directors Met On Thursday

The Southern Michigan Funeral Directors' Association met for its regular monthly meeting last Thursday in the dining room of St. Paul's church here, where members of the Women's Guild of the church served dinner to the group.

Following the dinner, the president of the Association, Frank Kessler, Hillsdale, called on Martin Miller, of Chelsea, to present the program he had arranged. Mr. Miller welcomed the group and introduced H. B. Prin, vocational director at Cassidy Lake Technical school, who was present with seven boys from the school. Five of the boys sang without accompaniment, the following numbers: "Down by the Old Mill Stream," "Blue Skies," and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," with the audience joining in on the last chorus of the latter. Three of the boys then presented instrumental music featuring a saxophone and guitar with piano accompaniment. They played an original composition which they called "Down Beat Boogie" and also played "Jim."

Mr. Prin then spoke interestingly and informatively of the work that is being accomplished at the Cassidy Lake school. For the benefit of those present who live at a distance and have never seen the Cassidy Lake grounds and school, he gave a short description of the 70-acre tract which comprises the grounds. He spoke of the 32 buildings in which the boys live, each building arranged to house nine boys, and mentioned the machine shop, radio shop and other vocational facilities. He stated that about three months ago a typing class was organized in which 20 boys are now enrolled and making fine progress, and also, that just last week a license was procured for a "ham" radio station to be operated on the grounds.

Mr. Prin then detailed the procedure in accepting, grading and placing boys where they are best fitted to study whatever seems to be of the most interest to them individually and which will fit them to become useful members of society when they are released. He gave figures to show the very small percentage of boys who were returned after being kept at the school until they were considered to be ready to earn their living and become useful citizens and were released.

Mr. Prin had brought with him several samples of the work done by boys in the machine shop which he passed around for inspection by members of the group. There was a mimeographed list of the boys and a specially designed hammer for use on glazier points which was designed and made in quantities at Cassidy Lake after conservation department men had requested such a tool. All were of excellent workmanship.

Mr. Prin concluded his talk by saying that while the job of his listeners (the funeral directors present) was to bury people who had died, his job was to try and bring back to a useful way of life boys who would be "buried" in penal institutions except for the work being done for them at Cassidy Lake Technical school.

Mr. Miller thanked Mr. Prin for his fine talk and the boys for their contribution to the program. He then, with the president, Mr. Kessler, in charge, a short business meeting was held. Plans were discussed for a breakfast or luncheon meeting of the Second district group at the Funeral Directors' Association state convention which is to be held in Grand Rapids, June 10-14.

Wesley Adams, of Camden, was nominated as Second district Governor for the election which is to be held at the state convention. He was appointed by Mr. Kessler as acting governor of the district until the election in June.

Thirty-six members of the Association were present at the meeting, and guests, in addition to the speaker and the boys from Cassidy Lake, were Mrs. Marie Thompson, of the Methodist Home, the mother of one of the members, Wendell Greiner, of Hanover, Mrs. John Osterle, and Donald Schanz.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Miller, local members of the Association, were in charge of all arrangements for the meeting here. The May meeting is to be held in Adrian.

Kiwanians Hear Talk On "Atomic Energy"

Last Sunday a group of Kiwanis members put on an entertainment for the boys at Cassidy Lake. Several quartet numbers were sung and Supt. Albert C. Johnson gave a talk.

A new member, Lawrence Riemschneider, was accepted at the previous week's meeting.

Six Special Trout Ponds Provide 5000 Hours Of Fishing

Ann Arbor—Five thousand hours of fishing for 5,500 anglers is the record that southern Michigan's six special trout ponds set in 1946, and with cold weather and high water in prospect for the season opening in the north, the ponds' popularity is expected to be high on April 29.

Fishermen on these trout fishing spots created by the conservation department far from the "trout country" are limited to two trout a day, each eight inches or longer, and to fishing from the shore or wading, with flies only. Yet the fishing last year was productive. A total of 1,840 brook, brown and rainbow trout were caught and kept, and another 551 of legal-size caught and released. The ponds are stocked in the fall at the rate of 50 to 100 trout per acre. Portage creek pond in the Waterloo area, Jackson county, proved most popular of the ponds last year with 1,828 hours of fishing. Others that will be available on the opening of the trout season are Bata and Cook ponds in Barry county; Hillsdale rearing station pond, No. 2, Hillsdale county; Wilder creek pond, Calhoun county; and Sylvan ponds, Washtenaw county. Three more will be put into operation this year. The trout season: Hillsdale pond No. 1, Hillsdale county; Spring creek pond on Bald Mountain state recreation area, Oakland county; and Sunnerville pond, Cass county.

Decrease In Farm Tenancy In State

Farm tenancy, never high in Michigan, decreased from 1940 to 1945, according to the latest United States census report. E. B. Hill, head of the department of farm management at Michigan State college, points out that 17 per cent of all farmers in Michigan in 1940 were tenants. In 1945, only 12 per cent, or 21,000 farmers, were tenants. Higher rates of tenancy are found in the more productive land areas. Southern Michigan counties have the state's highest tenancy rate. Lenawee county leads the list with about one farm in four operated by tenants. Most of the northern Michigan counties have less than five per cent tenancy. Osego, with less than one per cent of tenancy, has the lowest rate in the state. Although the number of farm tenants decreased from 1940 to 1945, the amount of land operated by non-owners has changed very little during this period. In 1940, about 28 per cent of Michigan's farm land was operated by non-owners. In 1945, this figure was about 27 per cent. Land operated by farm managers increased about 30 per cent in the same period. In 1945, there were about 1,000 farms listed as being operated by farm managers. The average size of farms so operated was about 400 acres. The greatest increase has been in the number of part-owners. Farmers in this classification own some land and rent additional land from neighbors. From 1940-45, land rented by part-owners has increased 43 per cent. There has been a 27 per cent increase in the number of part-owners.

AUTO INDUSTRIALIST'S EAST RIDE... Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford are shown during the Auto Golden Jubilee held at Detroit last year. It was about the last ride that Henry Ford took behind the wheel of one of his old models. The 83-year-old auto industrialist was born July 30, 1863, and died April 7. He had spent the previous day inspecting flood damage to his estate at Dearborn and died later in the night with his wife at his side.

Window Shades Are Important To Comfort And Appearance

When you look for ways to improve the appearance of your home this spring, don't overlook your window shades. They effect both the inside and the outside of your house. Jessie Marion, home furnishings specialist at Michigan State college, says that window shades also influence the comfort of your house when used for insulation. If you keep your shades pulled in extreme weather you can make your house 10 to 20 degrees cooler in hot weather and you can save fuel in cold weather.

Since window shades are very conspicuous both from the outside and from the inside of your house, dust them often with a soft clean cloth to keep them in good condition. Always raise or lower your shades with a pull cord. Take good care of your shades and they will give you privacy and keep the sun from fading your furnishings for a long time.

When you buy new window shades, choose them for durability, color and transparency. Durability is measured by resistance to cracking or breaking and by washability. There are three general types of fabric shades. Painted cloth shades are not washable. To clean them, always dust thoroughly and then use wall paper cleaner or art gum.

Holland cloth shades are also made of muslin which has been sized but it is finished with a smooth glossy effect. They are ruined by damp air and are not washable. Pyrozylin shades have a muslin base, but are filled with a liquid cotton which makes a shade that will not flake off. They can be washed or even scrubbed with soap and water.

Window shades may be "inside hung" or "outside hung"—inside the window casing or outside it. In homes, shades are usually hung inside so that rollers and brackets which hold them do not interfere with the window treatment. Also they will last longer because they are not bent against the casing by drafts.

FRANKFORT—The first forest fire in Michigan of the 1947 season occurred in Benzie County last week according to a dispatch from the State Conservation Department. This somewhat dubious distinction was probably due to the fact that the other parts of the state are abnormally wet while Benzie county has received a little less rain to keep the hazard down.—The Benzie County Patriot.

Hospital officials estimate that during its 24 years of existence, the school has aided more than 75,000 children.

Strawberries Are Most Popular Of All Small Fruits

Strawberries are grown by more home gardeners in Michigan than any of the other small fruits, says J. R. Moulton, specialist in horticulture at Michigan State college.

New varieties introduced each year are grown and compared at the Michigan Experiment station. On the basis of these trials and reports from commercial growers, suggestions are made to help the home gardener select the strawberry he wants for his garden.

Premier, at the head of the list for commercial plantings, is also recommended for the home garden. The Midland, a new early variety, is large, fine in flavor, and excellent for freezing. Fairfax is medium early, sweet and has fine quality and flavor.

A mid season variety that has gained in prominence is the Robinson. It is very productive, large, high in vitamin C and has good quality. Another popular mid-season variety is Sparkle. Fairfax is recommended as a new high-flavored late variety. Ever-bearing varieties such as Gem, Wascata, Green Mountain, and Mastodon succeed well in the home garden—especially if given water in dry periods.

Moulton suggests that plants be set out as early in the spring as the ground can be prepared. The plants may be placed 24 inches apart in rows 42 inches apart. When runner plants are spaced about eight inches apart, and all late runners removed after a matted row 18 inches wide has been established, it is usually possible to obtain a quart of berries to the row foot.

The year the plants are set, all flowers should be picked off in order to obtain a vigorous stand for the second season.

34 Years Ago

Thursday, April 10, 1913
Sylvan township gave a majority of fifteen for woman's suffrage at the election last fall, while on Monday it gave a majority of 68 against the proposition.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell and Rev. and Mrs. Geo. C. Npht, Curt enjoyed a chicken dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Riemenschneider on Wednesday.

John Miller, of Sylvan, on Monday drew from Lima a number of the telephone poles that the Michigan State Telephone Co. cut down recently between her and Dexter where the toll lines were rebuilt. Mr. Miller paid 35 cents per pole and he will use them for fence posts on his farm. Each pole will make about four of the ordinary fence posts.

Fred Broesamle has equipped the handcar on the section of the D. J. & C. line, of which he is foreman, with a Flanders 4' gasoline engine and it works to perfection.

New income tax bill would require every resident of the United States who earns more than $4000 a year to pay a tax of one per cent on his earnings in excess of the exemption.

As the result of the election in Sylvan on Monday, the following were elected: Supervisor, J. Wilbur Van Riper (R); clerk, Warren C. Boyd (R); treasurer, William C. Arnold (R); highway commissioner, Charles H. Young (D); justice of the peace, Herbert M. Witherell (D); member board review, Fred Notten (D); overseer highways, Burleigh C. Whitaker (R); constables, Hector E. Cooper (R) and William Schatz (D). The election board was kept busy from the time the polls opened at 7:00 a.m. until the count was completed at 11:30 p.m. There were a large number of the electors who cut their party ticket.

William Samp died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Samp, of Lima, on Sunday, April 6. He was 83 years old. He was born in Lyons, New York, in 1849, he became a resident of Chelsea, and he engaged in mercantile business which he conducted until 1879. Then he entered into the produce business for several years.

Loren Babcock died at his home in Chelsea on April 7, 1913, age 90 years, 8 months and 8 days. Born in Lyons, New York, in 1849, he became a resident of Chelsea, and he engaged in mercantile business which he conducted until 1879. Then he entered into the produce business for several years.

Vegetable Growing Is Big Business In State of Michigan

The Michigan vegetable crop is big-time business. The 1946 farm value of commercially produced vegetables is estimated at 34 million dollars. In terms of retail value, this means something within the range of 100 million dollars.

Of all vegetables in Michigan, celery is at the top of the list with an annual crop value fluctuating between 5 and 18 million dollars. Second in value is the tomato crop. Some of the other crops valued at more than a million dollars each year are: sweet corn, two million; snap beans, 1 1/2 million; rhubarb and cauliflower, one million each.

In addition to the crops mentioned, about thirty other vegetables are grown in the state. Michigan produces nearly one-half of all the pickles in the United States—forty thousand acres. In overall annual production of vegetable crops in the United States, Michigan ranks between fourth and sixth. In the past ten years, only California, New York, and Florida have consistently ranked higher.

Why is it that Michigan ranks so highly as a producer of vegetables? S. H. Wittwer, vegetable specialist at Michigan State college, says that the answer is found in three words: climate, soil, and markets.

The climate, made up of cool nights, warm, sunny days, and low humidity in late summer, permits production of a wide variety of crops. Conditions are ideal for growing vegetables for the fresh market, as well as for canning and freezing.

The soil types—muck and light sands—lend themselves to many special crops. There are plenty of heavier loams for market garden vegetables, too.

Lo and behold, it looks as if the two-week laydown did us girls some good. Barbara Tobin came out with a nice 208 game and P. Fitzsimmons hit high with a 222 game. Among the rest doing very nicely were: S. Kaiser 468, E. Weese 453, M. Ritter 452, and N. Eiseman 451. B. Tobin had 520 and P. Fitzsimmons 542.

This week the 5-10 split was a preference over all others. Four girls, B. Rabley, P. Weber, B. Kaiser and K. Karp slid this one over: E. Beach 4-6, Gert Thomsen 8-10, P. Houle 8-10 and 7-9, G. Lucht 7-9, D. McClear 4-7-9, B. Tobin 4-6-9, H. Stevens 5-7, and B. White 3-5-10.

Let it be known that the Lady Anne took all three games from the C.I.O. Is this the first time anyone has ever taken all three from the top team?

The following girls had high game on her team: P. Houle 175, B. Rabley 157, P. Tobin 208, N. Weese 161, G. Hummel 163, F. Koch 165, Fitzsimmons 222, B. Wheeler 150, A. Sibbing 168, M. Eder 156, J. Phelps 168, and E. Searles 165.

Farm Earnings
Farm records show that in cash grain areas year-to-year earnings tend to be higher where less than 15 per cent of the tillable land is maintained in clovers and alfalfa than where more land is kept in these crops.

Circulation in Refrigerator
For good circulation of air around a refrigerator, allow three or four inches of space at the back and at least 10 inches above so that the condenser coils may become properly cooled.

First Aid
Severe injuries should be treated promptly by a doctor, but scratches and small cuts, which happen so often to children, may be treated safely at home with simple precautions. According to Dr. Benjamin Spock in his "Common Sense Book of Baby and Child Care," the best treatment for scratches and small cuts is to "wash them with soap and pure water on a piece of sterile absorbent cotton." If not, keep a bottle of hydrogen peroxide for the washing and rinsing. According to this authority, an antiseptic is less important than careful washing. 40

Rail Wages
In 1945 the employees of the American railroads received in wages 41 cents out of every dollar of gross revenues. The stockholders received in dividends 3 cents out of each dollar. 40

Assistance Given To Thousands of Vets By American Legion

Assistance to thousands of World War II veterans in filling out and filing their applications for the state bonus has been provided by American Legion posts and Legion service officers throughout Michigan since April 1. This special service will be continued as long as the need exists, Legion officials declare. Many of the posts are furnishing free notary public service as an additional aid to the applicants.

Reports from Lansing indicate that a large percentage of the applications received early in the month were improperly completed and must be filed again. Veterans are warned to furnish the exact amount of information—no more, no less—that is called for in the instructions on the application forms.

Health Commissioner

Urges Vaccination

Against Smallpox

"Outbreak of deadly smallpox in New York state makes it advisable for every adult and child in Michigan who has not been vaccinated for smallpox in three years to be vaccinated at once," Dr. William DeKleine, State Health Commissioner, warned this week.

Michigan is extremely vulnerable to smallpox because of the large number of people who are not vaccinated against the disease. Immediate vaccination is especially urgent. Two deaths have been reported among eight cases in New York state. Smallpox is highly communicable and a traveler from New York might bring the disease to many persons and localities in the state before he knew he was seriously ill, Dr. DeKleine said.

The Michigan Department of Health last week complied with an emergency request from the Nassau county, New York, health department for 40,000 tubes of smallpox vaccine to be used in fighting the outbreak there.

Child Health Day May First

Prevention of home accidents involving children will be the general theme of National Child Health Day to be observed May 1. Special effort will be made to arouse parents and others to the serious loss of life resulting from accidents, which annually take as many lives in the 1-to-14-year-old group as all diseases combined.

Impetus to the observance has been given by proclamations issued by President Truman and by the governors of various states.

In connection with the observance, child health authorities point out that to be healthy and learn to live a happy, useful life, a child should have—

The security of a family in which he shares in the love and attention of his parents and the family group.

A clean, well-ordered home and a room of his own, if possible.

Well-planned and adequate meals at regular times.

Plenty of sleep at night and an afternoon nap.

Enough clothes to keep him comfortable.

As much fresh air and sunshine as the weather permits.

Playmates and a place to play, indoors and out, and time to play.

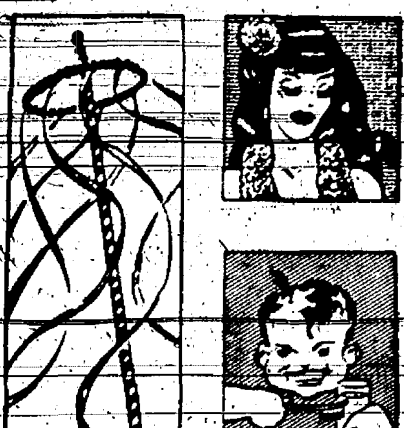

A thorough examination by a physician at regular intervals.

A visit to the dentist every six months.

Inoculations against smallpox and diphtheria (and whooping cough and tetanus, too, if the doctor advises them).

Here is One Day That We All Can Celebrate

No other day offers as many special events, holiday celebrations and historical incidents as May 1. Outstanding events are:

May Day
Lafayette Day in Hawaii
Child Health Day
International Labor Day
Spring Festival Day
National Baseball Day
Dewey Day, anniversary of battle of Manila Bay
Moving Day in many cities.

American Wildfowl Can Be Saved, Says Outdoor Writer

"I am of the opinion," says Mr. Gilliam, popular outdoor writer, "that if we even partially correct the evils brought on by man, that wildfowl will ever be with us. Enforcement of game laws is only secondary in the waterfowl picture, to the proper utilization of land and water. State and Federal agencies handicapped by a lack of funds have been unable to see that the rules were obeyed. An increase in the price of the duck stamp to $2.00, with 50 per cent of it earmarked for enforcement will go far towards aiding waterfowl restoration."

Just how many duck stamps were sold during 1946 is not yet known, but it is reported that a general 20 per cent increase in state hunting licenses was true throughout the U. S., and that in all probability stamp sales will approach two million, an increase of 16 per cent over 1945. Figures now show that the hunting preserve is three times that of 1935, and more than 70 per cent greater than that of 1943.

"One of the major problems confronting conservationists today," says Mr. Gilliam, "is the destruction of the waste that results from crippling and unretrieved birds."

"More discriminating and sportsmanlike hunting," continues Gilliam, "will go a long way in eliminating this unnecessary waste."

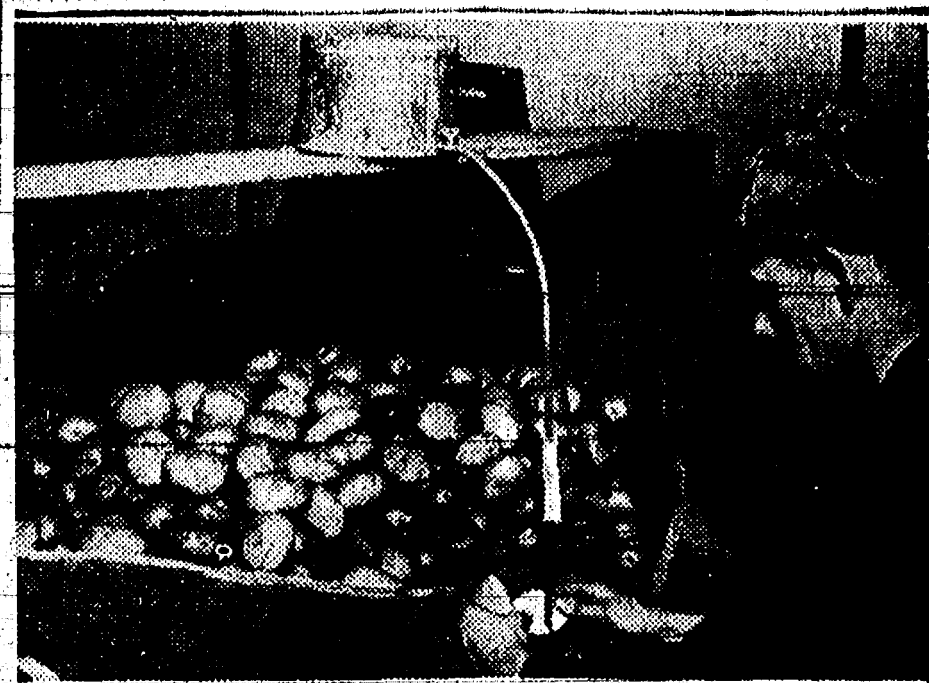

To insure the perpetuation of the sport of wildfowling, the following steps have been outlined, as necessary, by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service:

1. Regulation of the annual kill to a carefully determined proportion of the supply and distribution and in no case should this exceed the increment of increase.
2. Development of public support to sound conservation as opposed to selfish pressure groups that seek special privileges.
3. Greater effort to eliminate crippling losses, and other losses resulting from botulism (duck sickness due to stagnant water) and lead poisoning.
4. Development of public recognition of the fact that our national wildlife resources may be increased only as we are willing to dedicate lands and waters for this purpose. This education may be effected by greater and continued effort on the part of states, clubs, and private capital interested in the establishment of more waterfowl habitat.
5. Amendment of the Duck Stamp Act to increase the cost of the stamp, the extra amount to be earmarked for better enforcement, for development, and for management of waterfowl areas and to help carry the load of fact-finding regarding the status and requirements of the birds. We believe also that the refuge program would meet fewer obstacles of public resistance, and would be on a sounder management basis, if the Migratory Bird Conservation Act were amended to permit a harvest on a portion of all Federal Refuges when—but only when—this is justified by conditions thereon.
6. According to Hochbaum, the senior wildfowl biologist, only two choices are open to us: (1) the hacking away at what is left by further reducing the bag and the season, (2) cut the tree right down and start with a new plan. This plan to be on a long-term, permanent basis, elimination of one and for all the bad practices associated with our wildfowl shooting.

Home Made MSC Device Controls Pototo Ring-Rot

A simple and inexpensive method to control ring-rot disease in potatoes has been worked out by L. Carl Knorr, extension specialist in plant pathology at Michigan State college.

By using an old can or crock, to which a petcock is attached near the bottom to control the flow of disinfectant, corrosive sublimate is allowed to trickle down over the stationary cutting knife. The disinfectant flows through a flexible rubber hose and through a kerosene lamp wick which is attached to the top of the stationary cutting knife.

The pathologist explains that ring-rot bacteria are usually transferred from infected potatoes to healthy seed tubers in the process of cutting. The germs ride through on the knife to the cut surface of the potatoes

DEXTER—The school auditorium was practically filled Monday evening when Dorris Stack came to speak on school reorganization for this section. A point he brought out was the fact that under the present set-up youngsters living four or five miles from high schools are often denied the privilege of attending high school because it is not possible for them to get home. Under plan which is proposed, school buses would provide transportation for such young people and they would have the same advantages as those living in the village where the high school is located. One thing is sure—people who attended the meeting Monday were able to find out what they wanted to know about reorganization.—The Dexter Leader.

NORTHVILLE—The following Recreation report for Northville has been turned in by M. P. Meke as director. The report includes the month of March and up to April 15. During this period 79 boys have taken part in boys' hobby classes, directed by Mr. Miel; 92 adults, hobby, Mr. Miel; 140 leathercraft, Wagoner; 225 girls, bowling, Mrs. Doris Sawyer; 43 seventh and eighth grade girls, bowling, Diana Lance. The summary reveals that a total of 693 persons have participated in the program during these weeks.—The Northville Record.

BUCHANAN—The Buchanan Public Library recently received a gift of several volumes from Mrs. D. M. Carlisle, all dealing with the subject of religious instruction. Titles are: Bible Commentary in one volume by Dummelow, Queen's College, Cambridge University, England; "Education," by Ellen G. White; "Sunday School Lessons of 1947," a practical exposition of the International Sunday School Lessons, by Shedd, Douglas. The books should be of interest and value to those teaching in Sunday schools.—Berrien County Record.

"As Homelike As a Barn"

Cy Hartman finally got his new barn painted, but plenty of folks had a hand in it. Whenever someone got a free day, or a little extra time, they'd come over and help out with paint and brush.

And Cy, to show his appreciation, held a big "barn warming" Saturday—for all the folks who'd helped him (but not barring those who couldn't). Ma Hartman supplied sandwiches, and Cy rolled out a mellow keg of beer.

You'd never think of a barn as "homelike." But with those lanterns hanging from the rafters; make-shift tables spread heavy with food; and Ed Carey's fiddle playing while the folks enjoyed their beer—Cy's barn was sure a mighty hospitable-looking place!

From where I sit, it's just about as appropriate to have a barn warming as a housewarming... if only because it's another chance to get neighbors together in a spirit of good fellowship.

OFFICE NEWS

Junior and Senior high school teachers will attend the School Masters' Club meeting at the University of Michigan. The kindergarten and the first six grades will be in session.

This week is the final week of the fifth marking period. Report cards will be handed out next Wednesday.

The Grade PTA Carnival will be held at the school tomorrow night.

The Band will join with the Dexter Band for a concert at Dexter tomorrow night. Mr. Revelli, director of the University of Michigan Band, will be the guest conductor at the concert.

The High and Grade School Bands will present a concert in the gymnasium next Tuesday evening.

The Roosevelt baseball team will play here on Tuesday.

As I walked around in school at different times, I have overheard some remarks by different people that were totally undesirable from every possible viewpoint.

I think it would be a good idea, if everyone would try to curb the way they talked. Think twice before you speak! I'm sure that will help a lot. If it doesn't, then create something that will stop you from saying rude, uncomplimentary things. Surely this should go on, for if it does it will only get worse all the time. Since some people fail to recognize those delicate limits beyond which one should not go, there are those whom you embarrass immensely. This improvement would be not only for the good of others, but more so for yourself. So from now on let's watch the manner in which we speak. I know it will help a great deal.

STUDENTS HONORED

Five members of Mr. Chandler's English III class have had their poems chosen by the National High School Poetry Association for publication in the "Anthology of High School Poetry." The students and selections are "Evening's Thought," by Phyllis Fischer; "Spring Is Here," by Agnes Forner; "Spring Is In The Air," by Maxine Ingram; "When a Boy Is Not a Man," by Paul J. Niehaus; and "Alicia," by Genevieve Gilman.

The secretary of the organization, D. Hartman, complimented the school on its good showing.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Plans were made to have an assembly once a week for league or special baseball games.

Discussion was held about raising money for the recorder in the school and also about trying to get some organization in the school to sell cook books.

It was decided to pay D. Baldwin for the bulbs he used in taking pictures here at school.

Two Dexter Student Council members sat in on the meeting.

THE HI-Y DANCE

Headlines: The most widely publicized, the best dance of the year! Outcome? The biggest flop of the year.

It was thought that the Hi-Y was for the betterment of the school, but it has only turned into a money-making project, as evidenced by the dance Friday night. Not only were there no decorations but also no entertainment. Not even the officers felt that the dance was important enough to take up their leisure time.

Outstanding, too, was the great majority of people that came dressed up and with dates. These well-known people such as Loren and Dorothy, Briety and Wilma, Richie and Kathleen; and circulating among the crowd were Jack and Mace, Norma and Bragdon, and Clara and Dan. Then too, one saw Ruth Fox and Bob Manville, Joyce Lenz and a stranger, Eunice and P. G. Who else? Why, Maxine and Kenny, and Barb Quirk and Bob Merkel. Where were Jerome and Barbara, also

OFFICE NEWS

Junior and Senior high school teachers will attend the School Masters' Club meeting at the University of Michigan. The kindergarten and the first six grades will be in session.

This week is the final week of the fifth marking period. Report cards will be handed out next Wednesday.

The Grade PTA Carnival will be held at the school tomorrow night.

The Band will join with the Dexter Band for a concert at Dexter tomorrow night. Mr. Revelli, director of the University of Michigan Band, will be the guest conductor at the concert.

The High and Grade School Bands will present a concert in the gymnasium next Tuesday evening.

The Roosevelt baseball team will play here on Tuesday.

As I walked around in school at different times, I have overheard some remarks by different people that were totally undesirable from every possible viewpoint.

I think it would be a good idea, if everyone would try to curb the way they talked. Think twice before you speak! I'm sure that will help a lot. If it doesn't, then create something that will stop you from saying rude, uncomplimentary things. Surely this should go on, for if it does it will only get worse all the time. Since some people fail to recognize those delicate limits beyond which one should not go, there are those whom you embarrass immensely. This improvement would be not only for the good of others, but more so for yourself. So from now on let's watch the manner in which we speak. I know it will help a great deal.

STUDENTS HONORED

Five members of Mr. Chandler's English III class have had their poems chosen by the National High School Poetry Association for publication in the "Anthology of High School Poetry." The students and selections are "Evening's Thought," by Phyllis Fischer; "Spring Is Here," by Agnes Forner; "Spring Is In The Air," by Maxine Ingram; "When a Boy Is Not a Man," by Paul J. Niehaus; and "Alicia," by Genevieve Gilman.

The secretary of the organization, D. Hartman, complimented the school on its good showing.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Plans were made to have an assembly once a week for league or special baseball games.

Discussion was held about raising money for the recorder in the school and also about trying to get some organization in the school to sell cook books.

It was decided to pay D. Baldwin for the bulbs he used in taking pictures here at school.

Two Dexter Student Council members sat in on the meeting.

THE HI-Y DANCE

Headlines: The most widely publicized, the best dance of the year! Outcome? The biggest flop of the year.

It was thought that the Hi-Y was for the betterment of the school, but it has only turned into a money-making project, as evidenced by the dance Friday night. Not only were there no decorations but also no entertainment. Not even the officers felt that the dance was important enough to take up their leisure time.

Outstanding, too, was the great majority of people that came dressed up and with dates. These well-known people such as Loren and Dorothy, Briety and Wilma, Richie and Kathleen; and circulating among the crowd were Jack and Mace, Norma and Bragdon, and Clara and Dan. Then too, one saw Ruth Fox and Bob Manville, Joyce Lenz and a stranger, Eunice and P. G. Who else? Why, Maxine and Kenny, and Barb Quirk and Bob Merkel. Where were Jerome and Barbara, also gan. It was divided into two parts. The first part was formal, and the second was informal. Professor Mattern of the University could not be present so the group was directed by Mr. Redner. The program was enjoyed by everyone and the chorus was very pleased with the attendance.

GRADE NEWS

The second grade is sorry that Larry Shepherd has been absent for so long. They hope that he will be able to return to school.

Janet Martin is having an extended spring vacation. She is spending it in Texas.

Two seventh grade students, Ernest Aldrich and Jean Schweinfurth, celebrated birthdays last week. Jean was less fortunate than Ernest for she lost the birthday game and Ernest won.

We love 'em in December as we do in May

REMEMBER the day you first romped away in that Buick of yours? How those eight Fireball cylinders fairly floated you over the hills—how those road-steady two tons of lively car answered sweetly every light touch of your hand on the wheel—how you glided along with foursquare BuCoil springing smoothing every wrinkle in the road?

That's what your Buick was built to do. Years and years of that kind of driving are in it—especially when it gets the interested, informed car care this fine an automobile should have.

That doesn't mean just periodic lubrication, a body wash, battery check or bolt-tighten. It means thorough attention by competent Buick men—attention that keeps a Buick always a Buick.

Buicks are our babies. Even the smallest details are handled the way they should be for a Buick. We have Buick tools that do jobs better and quicker. We have men who know Buicks best. We have Buick-engineered parts that are precisely right for your car.

Put that all together and it's Buick-car care.

Pretty clear, isn't it, that here is where your Buick will receive the best attention? After all, we love 'em heart and soul.

Clean Milk

Procedures that dairymen should follow for producing clean milk efficiently include wiping the cow's udder with a clean cloth and warm water one minute before the machine is attached; drawing a few streams of milk by hand into a strip cup for inspection of any abnormal condition of the milk; following directions of the manufacturer in attaching and handling the milk machine; removing the teat cups at the end of three to five minutes of milking.

Home Economics Extension Members Planning Program

Home economics extension members, 26,000 strong in Michigan are planning their program for the rest of this year and next year now.

Frances E. Wilson, county Home Demonstration Agent reports that the program planning meeting for Washtenaw county is to be held Monday, April 28th at 1:30 p.m. in Ann Arbor at the Bethlehem church, 323 S. Fourth avenue.

Chairmen and vice chairmen from the 37 organized Home Extension groups in the county are to attend this meeting. They in turn will conduct program discussions in their local groups and in that way the 660 members in Washtenaw county will plan their 1947-1948 program.

Extension groups undertake a great variety of projects. Projects are organized by the state home economics extension service and taught through local leaders. Special additional activities are often started locally.

Home demonstration work is a term which really applies in the case of extension member Mrs. Homer Stoffer of North Lake. Her home is a demonstration of what can be learned in extension classes. It is almost entirely furnished with old furniture which she has refinished. After their home burned about five years ago, Mrs. Stoffer was faced with the problem of furnishing her new home.

In reply to remarks about the lovely slip covers she has made, the beautifully refurnished furniture, and the convenient arrangement of the house, especially the kitchen, Mrs. Stoffer says, "I learned it all in extension." Mrs. Stoffer has worked, and her ability to put into use what she has learned in extension groups, have resulted in a very fine farm-home.

If you want to take part in the extension program which these 26,000 women are planning see your local leader or visit your county extension office right away.

Michigan Leads In 1946 Sale Of Sport Fishing Licenses

Lansing—Michigan maintained its position as national leader in sport fishing license sales in the latest compilation by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife service, but because of low fees ranked only fourth in income for fisheries improvement work. The national total reached a new high of 11,008,717 licenses.

The compilation covers the fiscal year ending June 30, 1946. After Michigan, with 904,557 licenses, it lists California with 764,557, which is followed in turn by Ohio, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Illinois, New York, Indiana and Wisconsin.

Higher fees in other states produce more total revenue from fewer licenses for California, Massachusetts and Minnesota. California's income was $1,545,026; Massachusetts' and Minnesota's both exceeded $1,000,000. Michigan's was $948,468.

As previously reported, Michigan also led the nation in hunting license sales, but because of low hunting license fees also, ranked only third in license income for game work.

VETERANS NEWS

FROM THE OFFICE OF
VETERANS AFFAIRS
LANSING

Veterans Administration
Out-Patient Treatment

An impression that out-patient treatment for illnesses which did not result from service is now available at Veterans Administration hospitals, is false.

The VA ruling, which is intended to make more beds available in VA hospitals, provides that patients may be sent on furlough from VA hospitals and given out-patient care to complete their hospital treatment, thus leaving beds free for new patients. In some cases this out-patient care is for non-service connected conditions.

By law, the VA can authorize out-patient treatment only for service-connected conditions. The one exception to this rule is in the case of furloughed VA hospital patients.

The only way a veteran can be treated by the VA for an illness which did not result from service is to be admitted to a VA hospital. The illness must be serious enough to require hospitalization and the veteran must be financially unable to provide his own hospitalization elsewhere. In addition, a veteran requiring non-service connected hospitalization may face an extended waiting period because service-connected patients are given priority in admission to VA hospitals.

Report of Earnings
Veterans in schools and in on-the-job training programs may receive drill pay as members of the National Guard without including it in their reports of estimated earnings.

Drill pay is not considered compensation for productive labor and therefore is not counted against the subsistence allowances veterans receive from the Veterans Administration.

Restoring Leather
Often a slightly worn or faded piece of leather can be restored to service by a good cleaning and a little leather restorer—or, in the case of suede, a good stiff brush and suede dressing. But if the article is of no use as it is, rip it apart and use the leather for a belt, slipper soles or some other needed item that will save buying new garments. You can cut hard leather with a razor blade, and soft leather with strong shears.

Rail Safety
In 1867 Thomas S. Hall invented the automatic electric block system; the first installation being on the New York and Harlem railroad.

The wheels of the locomotive strike a lever pivoted to the rail and this in turn sets the signal at danger until the train is out of the block.

DEATHS

Dr. Reuben Palmer

Dr. Reuben Palmer, of Fairmont, Minn., brother of the late Dr. Faye Palmer, died very suddenly there on Tuesday, April 16, following a heart attack.

He was born in Waterloo township in 1858, a son of James and Amanda Clark Palmer.

He is survived by his wife, the former Ruth Peterson of Fairmont; two daughters, Peggy and Jean, at home, and a sister, Mrs. Harold Brown, of Riverside, Calif.

Leigh Palmer and Dr. A. A. Palmer, cousins of Dr. Reuben Palmer, attended the funeral services which were held in Fairmont on Friday.

Everett Heaton

Everett Heaton, 60, a resident of Chelsea from March 1943 until September 1944, died at his home, 5015 So. Clarendon Ave., Detroit at 3 a.m. Tuesday, April 22, following a heart attack.

Mr. Heaton had suffered a broken leg about four weeks ago when he was knocked down by another car while parking his own and was still in a cast at the time of his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Heaton made many friends while they lived here in the old lives homestead on Sibley road. They were members of the Methodist church and of the Western Washtenaw Farmers' club and were very active in the social life of the community.

Mr. Heaton was born in Irvington, Indiana, February 17, 1887.

and he and Mrs. Heaton were married March 16, 1910.

Survivors are his wife, Nina; one daughter, Mrs. Max Davey, and three grandchildren, all of Detroit.

Funeral services were held in the First Nazarene church, Grand River Ave. and Fourteenth St., Detroit, at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, with Dr. Seiden-Dee Kelley officiating. The body was then taken to his former home at Irvington for funeral services and burial today (Thursday).

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gaunt and son Jim, Rev. E. R. Major, Mrs. N. W. Laird, with Mrs. Brown of the Methodist church, went to Detroit to call at the Heaton home, and on Wednesday, Rev. and Mrs. L. I. Lord of the Home attended the funeral services.

NORTHVILLE—About 200 fathers and daughters attended the first Father and Daughter Banquet at the Methodist church house last Friday evening. The Wesleyan Guild served a fine dinner. —The Northville Record.

There are only two ways to cure a dog of the egg-eating habit: (1) Keep the dog away from eggs or (2) keep eggs away from the dog.

Nylon Yarn

Nylon yarn is non-porous and absorbs so little moisture that wet nylon fabrics dry very quickly. This quick drying property is particularly advantageous in such articles of clothing as hosiery, foundation garments, children's clothes and bathing suits.

Forest Fires Now Number 575 A Day

Every year America's forests and woods and ranges suffer an average of 210,000 fires—575 a day. Extension foresters at Michigan State college urge extreme caution this year when timber and wood products are so desperately needed.

Michigan, in 1883, was the scene of one of the most damaging fires in the nation's history. One million acres of timber were lost, property loss was set at two million dollars and 138 people were killed. Already Michigan has had its first forest fire in 1947.

Farmers who intend to burn off crop land that is near wooded areas are urged to practice extreme caution. Blowing around areas to be burned will help to reduce spread of fire. Dry or windy weather should be avoided as dry help should be handy in case the fire gets out of control.

Records show that cars will prevent 9 out of 10 forest fires. Do your part by observing the safety rules.
