Michigan MIRROR

By Gene Allemen

Michigan cigarette smokers are beginning to hoard packs of cigarettes before the new state tax goes into effect. One consolation for whatever it is worth: A package of the new state tax is a tax on cigarettes. Twelve per cent more a year from now, as prices decline and consumers get more for their money's worth.

If a doctor is a specialist, he is to find, remembering that 55 per cent of all illnesses are specialists to the University of Michigan post-graduate conference on medical education was told the other day.

Since Michigan state troopers no longer mount steeds or straddle motorcycles, Commissioner Donald Leonard has ordered the following new summer uniforms: gray slacks, light blue shirt, black brown belt and light gray summer helmet. Did you know that Pennsylvania has had as many as 100 troopers as Michigan? Or that the average daily working force in Michigan is 294 men, spread over 45 posts in 83 counties? With urban crime up 7.4 per cent and rural crime up 4.1 per cent, Leonard has made a good case why Michigan needs more state troopers.

Fire insurance rates are due to be increased soon. Michigan fire losses have mounted sharply since 1940.

If a doctor is occasionally hard on the rooster crows early and often, this may be why the average American has 298 eggs a year. War-time rate was 392.

This is personal, but it may tell why public opinion surveys consistently show that most Americans favor legislative action on lawlessness. We invited a roofer to Lansing to estimate the cost of putting a metal roof over a breakfast room. His oral bid was $180. When he arrived, the amount was $180. When we inquired, he said, "I didn't believe the man was going to lose the money. And we are not going to have our six-room place repainted this year. The painter's estimate: $486."

Members of the Lansing Capitol Club, comprising secretaries of 16 state organizations, are well pleased with the lobbying bill approved by the legislature. Recommendations of the club were incorporated into the final measure. Legislative agents must register with the secretary and must maintain financial records for six years.

Despite all the hub-bub at Lansing, the state liquor monopoly system will remain unchanged. The Tripp bill to kill state stores was defeated in the house. SDD's who sell packaged liquor are doing all right as it is. They sold 61.94 per cent of the liquor purchased in Michigan last year; increase of 19 per cent over the preceding year. Bar sales dropped in 1946 from 34 to 22 per cent. Package dealers total 18,443; bars, 2,768. Distillers are now able to produce eight times as much as the public consumes.

"Drink milk and save!" is the 1947 theme of June Dairy Month. Health experts insist that the following is the equivalent of calcium in three pounds of broccoli, vitamin B2 in two and three-fourths pounds of round steak, protein of two pork chops, vitamin A in two eggs, phosphorus in two pounds of white fish, energy value of ten slices of bread and thiamine in four ounces of liver.

Michigan's 1947 spring has been the wettest on record. Brrrrr!

Gov. Sigler Proclaims June 1947 To Be State Dairy Month

Governor Sigler has proclaimed June 1947 as Dairy Month in recognition of the contributions made by the dairy industry to the health and vitality of our consumers. With the peak of the milk production coming during June, I believe consumers will continue to receive abundant supplies of dairy products at relatively favorable prices, stated Charles Elgy, director of agriculture. Reports of the department of agriculture show that the extremely cold spring may have retarded milk production for April and May somewhat, but a cool and dry season usually brings an abundance of good pasture and hay to help maintain milk production throughout the rest of the year.

Milk is the greatest economy food offered the consumer today. With bottled milk retailed from 16 to 19¢ a quart throughout Michigan and with today's prices on cheese and other dairy products, consumers are getting a nutritional bargain on these foods, according to Director Elgy. Consumer prices for dairy products have decreased from 70¢ to 60¢ throughout Michigan since December 1946 while prices of many other staple foods have increased in the same period. With 84 per cent of the consumers budget going for food, the dairy products market them the economy food for the average consumer because they make the budget go farther.

Commencement Week Activities To Close 1946-47 School Year

By C.H.S. Reporters
With the final week of school almost in its history stage already, events of the week are everyone quite a final whirl. The following is a summary of Commencement week activities.

JUNIOR-SENIOR RECEPTION
The Junior Class honored the Senior Class with a dinner and dance last Thursday evening. The excellent dinner started at 6:30 p.m. The banquet was lovely, consisting of baked Virginia ham, whipped potatoes, late green peas, molded salad, buttered rolls, milk cake, U. M. m. and chocolate.

The program was started by the toastmaster, Donald Baldwin, who welcomed the guests. Agnes Forner, Junior Class president, and the response, by John W. Merkle, Senior Class president. Next on the program were remarks by Mr. Shirley Kolb. The speaker of the evening was the Rev. Everett E. Major, who spoke on "The Finer Things in Life." The program was concluded by a duet by Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Burg. The prom, began at 8:30 p.m. and was a big hit.

The Juniors really did themselves proud with their super-duper decorations based on a Hawaiian theme. Credit should go to the chairman, Helen Hochrein and also the clever originators of the bubbling brook, "Green" water. Yea, Niehaus, Praying, Kaiser and Baldwin. On entering the gymnasium from the gangplank of the S. S. Chelsea one could see the mainland with the beautiful Hawaiian girl swaying in the gentle South Sea breeze, that is "til someone turned the fan and the music of the fan enjoying the romantic music of Del Elliott and his orchestra up to the time ever-faithful Clara seized the "mike" and requested (?) a picture of the faculty and their guests. Clara was quite taking pictures of everyone—business was booming! And oh, the picture of those four dashing, (he was staring) male faculty members with their idyl on the stage sure looked interesting. The girls with that staid look in their formal, the Juniors of the future will have a hard time doing a better job!

Baccalaureate
The second event in the graduation week program took place on Sunday evening at the Methodist church when the graduating class gathered to participate in a Baccalaureate service. Rev. P. H. Grubbs, Rev. W. A. Skeltonbury, Rev. Everett E. Major all participated in the program, while the address was supplied by Rev. E. O. Davis, who told the young people that the fore-anchors of life are hope, duty, prayer and loyalty. Music was furnished by Miss Lucille Finkbeiner and the high school chorus, under the direction of Mr. Redner.

Class Day Program
The third event in graduation week was the much anticipated Class Day Program. Wisdom and gracefulness were mingled in Bob Daniels' salutatory address and in Helen Harker's valedictory. Washtenaw County Woman Featured In Magazine Article

Mrs. Albert Staebler, who lives near Chelsea, is among a group of mid-western farm women featured in an article in the June issue of Capers—Farmer entitled "Freeze Foods—Save Time," which describes how they keep frozen foods by freezing cooked foods and baked products in their home freezers.

"They feel it's as easy to cook or bake once for several meals as for one," the article in the nationally circulated farm magazine points out. The extra food is frozen in small quantities. After they've spent the afternoon at outside work or a club meeting, it's a pleasure to heat foods from the freezer and get the evening meal in a jiffy.

Mrs. Staebler freezes strained pumpkin for pies in round, quartered waxed containers. Her family likes slightly thawed frozen applesauce served with top milk or cream. She also freezes rhubarb, hamburger buns, goulash and baked beans. The Staebler keep a 2½-gallon carton of ice cream in the freezer. They especially like it topped with their frozen strawberries.

All Fully Automatic Firearms Must Be Registered By Owners

All of the banks throughout the United States have been asked to circulate the following letter regarding the new law which requires that fully automatic firearms be registered by their owners.

The local bank decided that the publication of the letter in the local newspaper would serve the community better than to send it by mail.

To that end, the following letter addressed to bank depositors and bearing the secretary's signature follows.

"I address this communication to you in my capacity as banking officer and my responsibility as Secretary of the Treasury.

"The National Firearms Act of 1934 requires registration with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., of all fully automatic weapons, including machine guns and machine pistols. No difficulty was encountered in enforcing the Act prior to the influx of war souvenir firearms during 1944-45. Since that time, however, many of these dangerous weapons have been used in the commission of crimes and of violence, such as robberies and murders. These guns represent a great potential hazard to the safety of their possessors as well as to effective law enforcement.

"Your government is making strenuous efforts to cope with this situation by urging the owners of fully automatic firearms to register them.

"If you deposit your savings in any of the banks who are entrusted with the custody of such monies, have always been foremost in complying with legislation enacted into law in behalf of the public interest and security. If you possess a fully automatic firearm, which is now registered, contact the nearest office of the Alcohol Tax Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, or write to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., and a representative will register your firearm without cost at your convenience."

(Signed) John W. Snyder, Secretary of the Treasury.

Backward Spring May Cause More Corn To Be Planted In 1947

Michigan corn acreage could establish new records this year as farmers prepare to seed in one of the most backward springs in many years. Farm crops department officials at Michigan State college say the 1946 record seeding of 1,830,000 acres may be surpassed this spring.

Little of the intended 1,600,000 acres of oats and barley was planted by early May because of the cold, wet spring. Although many farmers, determined to get a small grain crop in the ground, continued planting, much of that intended acreage has been held for planting of other crops.

Corn seeding may be accomplished late May with good prospects of maturing. Bean acreage, particularly in areas adapted to the crop, may also be increased due to inability of some farmers to plant oats or barley.

Corn requires a good seed bed preparation, but unless the weather continues unusually bad, there will be ample time for planting.

Adequate supplies of hybrid corn seed are available in Michigan and crops specialists advise farmers to get varieties adapted to their locality. County agricultural agents are prepared to give information on rates and dates of seeding as well as to recommend varieties adapted to certain areas.

OUTSTANDING PEOPLE AND ORGANIZATIONS

This school year, the Chelsea Public Schools have many pupils and organizations to be proud of. Ray Knickerbocker has done an excellent job as president of the Student Council for this year. The central treasurer, Marceline Hindener, has also done a very fine piece of work.

The Chorus presented for the public an operetta, which was one of the best ever given by the Chelsea Public Schools. Mr. Mattern judged the Chorus to determine whether or not they would be eligible to go to the state contest. He said that the Chorus was one of the best. "C" high school choruses he had heard. The Chorus had planned to attend the contest but were unable to go. They plan to send David Slane to Interlochen for two weeks this summer.

Another outstanding organization is the "undefeated" girls' basketball team. They played several games, winning all the games with the exception of one which they tied.

The boys' football team made a record of losing only one game during the season.

Several pupils and organizations presented radio programs over station WYAC this school year. It was a wonderful experience for those who participated and gives hope for presenting more programs in the future.

Maxine Ingram, Paul Niehaus, Phyllis Fisher, Agnes Forner, Genevieve Guinan and Erlanna Wanous wrote poems which were included in the publication of the National High School Poetry Association.

Donald Barth and George Merkell won the awards for being "State Farmers" for this year. Last year Charles Sullivan won this award.

In school there is a total of three who have won the awards.

Robert Schneider won first place in the District F.A.A. Public Speaking contest. His speech was on agriculture.

Library Featuring Junior Sweepstakes For This Summer

By Joan Schneider

The summer reading program of the library will be something very good and unusual as it was last year. This year we are planning to give you the chance of entering the race for the Junior Sweepstakes.

When the library moves to the second floor of the Municipal Building, a miniature race track will be set up, complete with hurdles and horses. It will be marked off in spaces and you must read one book to advance one space and an extra book to jump a hurdle. The first horse and rider to gallop over the final line, wins a silver cup and blue ribbon. The second prize is a red ribbon, third prize a white ribbon. You may keep your horse and rider. Join the Junior Sweepstakes, and win a silver cup!

From where I sit... by Joe MarshHow to Go to Sleep

We were sitting around Bill Webster's parlor Friday evening and the talk turned to the best way of overcoming sleeplessness... like breathing real slow and deep, imagining that you weigh a ton, or simply throwing away the pillow.

The consensus favored counting sheep. But right away was the question: what kind of sheep? There were some votes for countin' Merinos, Shropshires, Oxford and Dorsets. Ed Mapes said he had best look counting crossbreeds.

Finally, Bert Childers spoke up with his formula: A light snack and a mellow glass of beer at bedtime. Sort of puts you in the mood for quiet thoughts and peace of mind. Lets you relax... and "ho hum" off to pleasant dreams!

From where I sit, there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer to smooth away the creases of the day, relax a body, and pave the way for a good night's sleep. Try it, and see if I'm not right.

Put yourself on EASY Street

SKIP styling for a moment — it's pretty well admitted by now that Buick has called the turn on the shape of cars to come.

And for the present, slide over performance — with that big bonnetful of Fireball power, nobody's going to challenge you much on the open road.

What else has the trim Buick got that others can't quite come up to? You find one big answer where the cobbles are plentiful, the car tracks tangled, the bumps big.

This brawny traveler has a ride — a smooth, level, easy stride that makes you think of a canoe drifting in quiet waters.

One reason: It was Buick that first introduced the American public to soft, gentle coil springing on all four wheels.

It was Buick that first made it possible for each wheel to step over bumps as they came along, leaving the frame and body to pursue their level way undisturbed.

Buick's coil springs keep their gentle softness always. They need no greasing or attention. They are unaffected by dirt, wear or the weather, and breakage is practically unheard of.

The net of it all is that you put yourself on Easy Street when you seat yourself in a Buick. You make every road a better road—every ride an adventure in smooth and buoyant comfort.

Why not drop in and learn more? Whether you have a car to trade or want to talk on a "clean deal" basis, you'll always find a warm welcome here.
