Flourescent Lights Installed in Three Rooms on Trial Basis

Chelsea Public Schools will open at 8:30 a.m. on Thursday, September 4. All pupils, including those in Kindergarten, are asked to report at that time. Pupils who will be new in High school are enrolling in the office of the superintendent Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Russell Altstaetter, Joe Scott and Morris Alpervitz have been working during the past summer cleaning, repairing and painting the various parts of the school plant, in preparation for the coming year. The following rooms have been painted: Study hall, laboratory, typing room, high school library, superintendent's office, boys' and girls' rest rooms and dressing rooms in the high school building, second grade room, first grade room, hall in grade building, girls' rest room in grade school, playground equipment, stair fire-escape and the lines on the gymnasium floor.

The floors in the following rooms were sanded: Rooms 24, 21 and 22 in the high school building; superintendent's office, third grade room, upper hall and stairs in grade building, and the fire exit in the gymnasium. All other floors were cleaned, sealed and waxed.

Students desks were varnished in the following rooms—Eighth grade, third grade and room 11, and the teachers desks in all rooms. Bulletin boards are being installed in the laboratory, study hall, east stair-landing, high school building and the high school gymnasium.

During the past year a lighting engineer from the Consumers Power Company inspected the school plant and made recommendations to the Board of Education regarding the lighting situation and possible solutions for proper lighting. He recommended fluorescent lights for most of the rooms and the Board, in accordance with the recommendation, decided to place the lights in three of the rooms for the coming school year. These rooms are the study hall, sixth and fourth grades. The Senior class of 1947 contributed approximately $250.00 for the fluorescent lighting in the study hall and the painting of the study hall and the type of fixtures used in the rooms, conform with the recommendations.

The roofs on the high school building, gymnasium and home economics room were repaired and completely covered.

In addition, the parking lots at the athletic field are also being fitted for use this fall.

St. Mary's Catholic school will also open at 8:30 a.m., Thursday, September 4. Registration will be held Sunday, August 31, immediately after the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. Masses.

Summer Projects of Library Comes To Conclusion This Week

Two summer projects have come to a most successful conclusion: "The Story Hour" has been held each Wednesday afternoon for six weeks for the "small fry." Miss Dorothy Beach has held in rapid succession an average of 40 youngsters each week. One special day the attendance reached 55. Stories, very well illustrated, finger plays and children's music, covering many subjects and themes, were used to make this one of the most successful series in recent years.

One has to witness one of these things to really appreciate them. You can imagine 40 children scattered all about on the furniture, on the floor, and one day a very little one climbed onto Miss Beach's lap—but only on attendance can you see the intense interest of the child as reflected in their faces and attitude.

The summer reading program was very ably supervised by Miss Joan Schneider and was entitled, "The Junior Sweepstakes." Twenty-nine juniors entered the event, which continued from mid-June to August 10. Deserving of special mention are Linda Mayer, Norma Dull and Richard Schneider for their fine record in reading during that period.

Others in this first group, too, were Gail Maxfield, Iolene Bisio, Gretchen Lanning and Sandra Baldwin. The balance of the entrants also turned in some fine records and no doubt gained equally from their experience.

Miss Fern Till and John Jacob Alber, cutting their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage, Saturday.

Fern Till Wedded with John J. Alber Saturday, Aug. 23

Miss Fern Rita Till, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Till of Columbus avenue, Detroit, and John Jacob Alber, son of Mrs. Jacob Alber and the late Mr. Alber of Chelsea, were united in marriage at a double ring ceremony performed by Father Sherzer at St. Theresa church in Detroit, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, August 23. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of guests.

The bride was dressed in a white gown with a full skirt and a long train. She wore a white veil and a white headpiece. The groom was wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a dark tie.

The ceremony was held in the sanctuary of St. Theresa church, which is a beautiful building with a high ceiling and large windows. The altar was decorated with white flowers and greenery.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were seated at a table with their parents and other guests. A reception was held in the church hall, where many guests were present.

The bride's bridesmaids were Miss Louise Hunt and Marion Glaser of Detroit, who were dressed alike in gowns of hyacinth blue, which were made like that of the maid of honor. They wore matching picture hats and their bouquets were of tea roses.

Donald Alber of Chelsea, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and the ushers were Wilbert Brink, Nathan Miles and Joseph Steele, all of Chelsea.

Mr. Brink, the bride's brother-in-law, sang the nuptial mass. The bride's mother wore navy blue sheer with flamingo pink accessories, while the groom's mother, also in navy sheer, chose white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families and the members of the bridal party at Botsford Inn, and in the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple left after the reception for a honeymoon in New York and upon returning will reside on Ardmore avenue in Detroit.

The bride was formerly of Quincy, where she attended St. Francis school. Mr. Alber, a graduate of Chelsea High school, is employed at the Chelsea Spring company.

Plane Crash Victim Former Chelseite
Jack Welch, 19, who, with Paul Richmond, was killed in an airplane crash at Marquette last week, was a former Chelsea resident, having made his home with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Outwater following the death of his mother shortly after his birth. The Outwaters, with whom he moved to Delhi about 18 years ago, lived at that time on the Pietermarl farm on old US-12 where John Schneider now resides.

Mrs. Mina Wiseman and Mrs. Walter Boutler attended the funeral services which were held in Dexter on Saturday.

Local Citizen Will Receive Merit Award

By "Tom" Tucci
Chelsea Aerle, Fraternal Order of Eagles, which presents an award each month for outstanding community service by a Chelsea citizen, has chosen Albert C. Johnson, superintendent of Chelsea public schools, as the recipient for the award in August. It was announced today by our Aerle President, George Lawrence. Mr. Johnson was chosen by Aerle officers for his outstanding work among the Junior Element, the 4-H Club, F.P.A., Boy Scouts and Junior Conservation work.

The award will consist of a Civic Service Certificate which will be presented at the regular meeting of Chelsea Aerle at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, September 4. It will be presented by President George Lawrence.

In explaining the award for civic service, Mr. Lawrence said: "That Aerle, to stimulate community activities, will confer the awards to give deserved recognition to persons who contribute to the public welfare." Any citizen of Chelsea is eligible to receive the award. Membership in the Eagles is not a requisite.

Mr. Johnson, who will receive the award, has been active in, primarily all junior activities, and all local organizations, and is a past president of the Senior Softball League. The National Eagle Organization in August selected United States Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York, as the recipient of its national award, given monthly to some outstanding leader in America or Canada for distinguished service in a field of Eagle interest.

Senator Wagner introduced the Fraternal Order of Eagles proposed in 1921, and for which it waged an unceasing crusade until passed in 1935. Senator Wagner worked hard for the passage of the measure and has continually espoused other social welfare legislation.

The public is cordially invited to attend this presentation, and members are asked to be sure to attend.

Several Attend Picnic
A number of Chelsea Aerle members and their families attended Zone 2 picnic, Sunday, August 24, at Round Lake. Contests were held for the kiddies and grown-ups. A good time was reported by all.

Stofer Reunion
The Stofer family reunion was held Sunday, August 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Staphish with thirty-seven present.

Others from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stofer and family, Mrs. Harry Stofer, Mr. and Mrs. John Stofer and son, Mrs. Harriet Platt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walsh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Staphish, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jarvis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fowler and family, and Mrs. Wilbert Smith.

Officers elected for the coming year are Irene Stofer, Betty Wahl and Doris Smith.

Koch Reunion

NEW MANAGER FOR CHELSEA KROGER'S STORE APPOINTED

Robert Dorer, who has been employed at the local Kroger store since his graduation from Chelsea High school seven years ago, with the exception of three years during the war, when he served in the Navy, has been appointed manager of the Chelsea store.

I. H. Nothnagel, who has been manager of the store for a number of years, has been transferred to the managership of the Dexter Kroger store.

Skentelburys Write from Panama Upon Their Arrival Mon.
Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Skentelbury, who are on a vacation trip to the Panama Canal zone where they are visiting their daughter, sent the following letter to Chelsea friends this week. Knowing it will be of interest to many, it is printed here.

On Board SS Panama
My dear friends:
I am writing at the hour when we would be in Sunday school if we were home. We have had a very different Sunday today. I am enclosing a program of our service on ship-board. A day after coming on this the Purser asked me to take the Sunday service. I was fortunate in finding Dr. Rolofson who consented to speak and we have secured help from three when we asked. It happened that the night and morning have been rough. Do many could not attend. In fact Dr. Rolofson was sick as service was about to begin and had to go and feed the fish before he spoke.

We are having a wonderful time—in fact it's out of our ordinary class—but we try to appear as if we were accustomed to luxuries. Our cabin is nearly as large as our bedroom at home, with bath and shower. Our meals are most excellent. It has surprised me to find I can eat three good meals a day with no medicine or distress. I ought to be much heavier when I return.

We are meeting many fine people. Dr. Rolofson is pastor of the largest Union church south of the border, and was formerly Presbyterian pastor of Royal Oak, Rep. Dingell of Detroit and Mrs. D. are on board and very pleasant. We were very much surprised to find Mrs. Donaldson of Dearborn, whose parents-in-law have a cottage next to McLaughlin's at Cavanaugh Lake. She left Chelsea Tuesday night.

There are some we have not become quite so well acquainted with, as they are busy playing poker, and we hear that large sums change hands. They do not change either to or from our hands, however.

Our New York visit was interesting, as we took a sight-seeing bus, and for four hours took in the points of interest on Manhattan. Perhaps you people who attend will be sorry we ever made this trip if every sermon begins with "when we were in Panama" or "when we were in New York." It will be almost as valuable to talk about as an operation.

Tuesday
We arrived 11 a.m. Monday, with Ruth waiting. Have comfortable apartments and the climate is a surprise—cool and comfortable.

Trusting that this finds you well,
Sincerely your friends,
Rev. and Mrs. Skentelbury.

Win Over South Lyons Clinches It
Win First in Eastern Division of League
By "Bill" Schatz
Chelsea started early Sunday to smash out a 10 to 2 win over South Lyons in a tight won by belting a fast pitcher game for our fast-moving locals. With one more game on the regular schedule, we have the old strangle hold on first place in the Eastern Division of the Tri-County baseball league.

The play Sunday was illuminated throughout with fine fielding, the highlight being Chelsea's fast triple play which cut short South Lyons' only hope. The bases were loaded, South Lyons' third-sacker teed off on a fast pitch, bending it into foul territory. Fast-moving Lefty Barth made a swell catch, slapping the ball home on a perfect throw to catcher Marsh, who tagged out the runner coming in from third after the catch. Their runner on second broke for third, and was nailed flat-footed on a sweet throw from Marsh to Stan Pouchka.

This was a fast triple play such as is seen very seldom during a season of even major league play.

Louie Birch contributed his share of comedy after taking off from second, headed for first, with Andy Pollich going from first to second. Andy kept right on going for third, losing Birch to come home. Little Louie came spanking in, scoring, when he turned around and shouted at Andy "fine thing to do on a hot day, keep a man running his head off."

Miller, South Lyons' shortstop, surprised himself by belting a fast pitch off MacClanahan for a home run.

MacClanahan did a nice job of hurling for our locals, going the entire route, striking out 11 men, walking 2, and really bearing down in the clinches.

These South Lyonsers are like the song "Always"—always ready for an argument, always ready to protest, but believe me, they give you action. Caught their catcher off first with the old hidden ball trick. Mac gave him a walk, Marsh holding the ball. After reaching first he takes quite a lead, and a snap throw to Jack Miller caught him off the bag by three feet. Was his face red? He never knew what happened until the umpire called him out, which brought forth the remark "this shouldn't happen to me."

Special Election Being Held Today To Decide Issues of School Dist. Reorganization

Attempt Made To Confuse Electors on Reorganization

The opponents of School District Reorganization have made a last-minute attempt to confuse the school electors by circulating handbills instructing voters to vote "NO" on the proposal for Reorganization and signing the handbill "The Steering Committee."

This is not the work of the Steering Committee which most people understand to be the Steering Committee. The Steering Committee is made up of a group of individuals representing both the rural and Chelsea Districts and is the one that circulated and obtained a large majority of the electors on the petitions in the 13 districts.

This Steering Committee has studied and analyzed the proposed program very carefully and wants the electors to know that they have no connection with these last-minute methods to confuse voters about the issue. The names of the true Steering Committee are:

Earl Berman, Chairman of the Committee and Director of McLauchlin School.
Henry Schneider, Secretary of the Committee.
E. W. Eaton, President, Chelsea Board of Education.
Alfred D. Mayor.
Russell McLaughlin, Secretary, Chelsea Board of Education.
Donald Wideman, Director of the Chelsea Public School.

Schenk School.
Paul Pabsdorf, President of Howe School District.
Lyman Walker.
A. C. Johnson, Superintendent of the Chelsea Public School.

Mrs. Nettie Vickers Died Monday Night

Mrs. Nettie Vickers, mother of Mrs. Nellie Flood, who operates the Colonial Manor Convalescent Home on West Middle street, died there Monday night after an extended illness, at the age of 79 years.

Mrs. Vickers was born in Aylmer, Ontario, September 19, 1867. She was married to Robert Vickers, who survives.

They came to Chelsea from Detroit in June, 1945, having been residents of the United States for over fifty years.

Survivors, in addition to the husband and daughter, are a granddaughter, Mrs. Dorothy Hanna, and a great-grandson, King Hanna, both of Chelsea.

The body was to be taken to Detroit today (Thursday) and funeral services will be held at the Frazier Funeral home, 2377 West Grand Boulevard tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Frederick Kendall of Quincy, Mich. will officiate, and burial will take place in Grand Lawn cemetery, Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart of Jackson, spent Monday evening here at the home of Mrs. Stewart's father, Herschel Watts.

Polls Open 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. in Both Rural, Chelsea Elections

School electors in twelve rural districts and the Chelsea district are voting today on the question of combining to form a Rural Agricultural District. The electors in the twelve rural districts will vote at the Sylvan town hall, and the electors in the Chelsea district will vote in the high school gymnasium. The polls are open from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. in both places.

The Steering committee, consisting of 9 members of both the Chelsea and the rural districts, has devoted considerable time and effort to the study of this question, and as a group believe that the program will provide a more sound educational program for the area than is possible under the present system. Also, that the cost of operating the program will be in line with the costs under the present arrangement.

The Steering committee has studied and analyzed the situation as carefully as possible and offer the following, to refute the untrue statements that have been circulated by uninformed persons. These answers are based on the facts of the program as far as it is possible to determine them.

Q. What type of program will be offered this year?
A. The pupils in the first six grades who were enrolled in the rural schools last year would remain in those schools. The elementary pupils from districts having closed schools who attended the Chelsea schools last year, and all pupils in grades seven through twelve, would be transported by bus to the Chelsea schools. A large part of the cost for this transportation, up to $50 per pupil, would be paid by the state.

Q. Where will the bus routes be?
A. There are three routes mapped out. One route through the Staphish, Pumpkin College, Lyndon Center and Savage districts; another through Collins Plains, McIntee, Howe and Riemenschneider districts. The southern route would be through the Merkel, Irwin, Schenk and Sylvan Center districts.

Q. Will the Chelsea school become overcrowded in the grades?
A. Five of the rural schools in the group were closed last year and most of the pupils from these districts were enrolled in Chelsea last year. The new program should change the situation in the elementary grades very little.

Q. Will elementary pupils be transported from one district to another?
A. The present plans call for the operation of the first six grades in each of the rural schools that are open.

Q. What will the valuation of the new district be?
A. The county equalized valuation is about $5,800,000.

Q. For how long a period will the pupils be riding on the bus?
A. The length of time varies, but the large percentage of the pupils will be riding for less than 40 minutes. The routes have been clocked and from all indications the length of riding time will be very reasonable.

Q. What are the legal responsibilities of rural districts regarding school attendance and transportation?
A. The new state law provides that transportation be furnished by rural districts, with financial assistance from the state, for all high school pupils. Also that all pupils regardless of their place of residence attend school until at least their 16th birthday. The new program should assist rural districts in both respects.

Q. What will the cost of operation be locally?
A. About 8 mills on the county equalized valuation.

Q. Is the Chelsea Public School plant approved by the State Fire Marshal?
A. Yes. Representatives from that department have inspected the buildings a number of times and have approved them for public use.

Auto Accident Sunday Bruises, Cuts Three

A car driven by Neil F. Winkle, Ann Arbor, crashed into a telephone pole, breaking it off, when the car failed to negotiate a right turn onto Conaway road from Cavanaugh Lake road, early Sunday morning.

The driver suffered cuts on the head and legs and a broken arm, it was reported, while Robert Winkle, 16, and Nick Soosa, 16, of Detroit, were cut and bruised. All were treated at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

Kiwanis Met Monday, Ball Game Tuesday

The Kiwanis club held its regular meeting Monday evening at the Municipal Building and on Tuesday evening played ball with the South Lyons Kiwanis club team here at the Athletic Field.

The Chelsea team was out for revenge—and got it, winning the game by a score of 20 to 8. They really kept their eye on the ball in every thing, up after their defeat at South Lyons a short time ago.

At Monday night's meeting movies of Pan-American air tours were shown and were much enjoyed. The pictures included scenes from Santiago, Buenos Aires, Rio de Janeiro, the Andes Mountains, the Bahamas and other South and Central American places.

Next weeks meeting is to be held at the Municipal Building on Tuesday, September 2, the change of date being necessary because of the Labor Day holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hinderer, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bohner, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schaller and Mrs. Martha Weinmann attended the funeral services of their aunt, Mrs. Meta Lindholm at Saline, on Wednesday of the past week.

1947 Fishing License Sale Surpasses Last Year's Record Volume

Lansing—Popularity of Michigan sport fishing has resumed its upward climb.

The conservation department reports 607,324 fishing licenses were issued in the first seven months of the year, compared with 593,407 issued in the same months of the record-breaking season of 1946.

April collections were the first in 21 months that failed to show a gain over collections to the same date in the previous year. Excessive rain and cold weather at that time produced a slump in license sales that was not overcome until recent sales, to August 1, were tabulated.

The net gain is due to an increase for the year so far of nearly three per cent in fishing license sales to residents; sales to non-residents still are slightly below those of last season.

Trout Season Closes Labor Day on Season of Productive Fishing

Labor Day, September 1, marks the end of a trout fishing season that many fishermen have reported productive in spite of its beginning in freezing weather and its ending in heat waves.

Besides the good fishing reported in June and early July, the season has been distinguished by marking all legal size hatchery plantings through removal of the dorsal fin, to let the fisherman know precisely how many of the trout he creeled were produced in the stream and how many were artificially reared.

Next season's plantings will be marked by removal of the small adipose fin, so anglers may see not only the percentage of wild trout in their catch, but also note the survival, or lack of it, of dorsal-clipped fish through this coming winter.

Fishermen who have the patience, persistence and resistance to

Careful Canning of Corn Avoids Spoilage

If you can corn with care, using a pressure canner, you will not lose any of this precious crop with spoilage.

Don't expect the job to be as short as with some vegetables, warns Roberta Hershey, foods specialist at Michigan State college. Heat penetrates very slowly in corn which is a starchy vegetable.

Choose corn at just the right stage for eating. Remove husks and silk and then wash the ears. Do not use poorly developed, diseased or badly infested ears.

For whole kernel corn, cut it from the cob with a sharp knife with a smooth stroke at about two-thirds the depth of the kernel. To each quart of corn add 1 pint of boiling water. Heat to boiling.

Pack corn loosely to 1 inch of the top in hot glass jars and cover with hot cooking liquid, leaving 1 inch space at the top. Add ½ teaspoon salt to pints and 1 teaspoon to quarts. Adjust jar lids. Process in a steam pressure canner at 10 pounds pressure. Process pints 55 minutes and quarts 85 minutes. As soon as jars are removed from the canner, complete the seals.

Brueckner-Hunter Nuptials Are Held Sun. Evening, Aug. 24

Candelabra, palms and white and flame-colored gladioli were used to form a very beautiful setting for the wedding of Miss Esther Brueckner and James Hunter, at Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners, Sunday evening, August 24, at 7 o'clock. The bride's father, Rev. M. W. Brueckner, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and Rev. George Wagner of Akron, Ohio, preached the sermonette.

Mrs. Robert Warren of Toledo, Ohio, sister of the bride, was the organist and her brother, Rev. Bruno Brueckner of Caples, was the soloist. He sang Koskela's arrangement of "The Twenty-Third Psalm." Luther Heyde's arrangement of "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" (Ruth 1: 16-17), and Ma-lotte's "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's ivory satin gown was made with long sleeves, pointed over the hands and had a V-neckline with a row of tiny buttons down the front of the bodice which was finished with a lace peltum at the waistline. The full skirt was made with a long train. Her veil was full length and was made of illusion edged all around with a wide band of lace. It was held in place with a tiara of the lace. She carried a cascade arm bouquet of Easter lilies.

The matron of honor, Mrs. M. F. Brueckner of Detroit, the bride's sister-in-law, wore a white tulle gown fashioned with a bouffant skirt with a long tunic, a bateau neckline and cap sleeves. She carried an arm bouquet of deep red gladioli and wore matching flowers in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Miss Frieda Spindler of Freeland, Mich., Ronald Noreen of Grand Rapids, and Miss Arlene Koengeter, all wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor. They carried flame-colored gladioli and wore matching blossoms in their hair.

Barbara Klumpp of Pittsburgh, Pa., niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in a white tulle floor-length dress with an off-shoulder ruffle finishing the bodice. The bride's nephew, Eric Warren of Toledo, acted as ring bearer.

Alvin McCollough of Pittsburgh, assisted Mr. Hunter as best man, while his brother, Charles Hunter of Pittsburgh and Sam Krieger of Terre Haute, Ind., and John Auer of Columbus, Ohio, were the ushers. Following the ceremony a reception for two hundred guests was held at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. W. Brueckner. The reception was in charge of the Ladies' Aid of the church. The bride's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner at their home Sunday noon.

Following a week's honeymoon trip through the New England states, the couple will live in Columbus, Ohio, until Mr. Hunter finishes school in January.

For traveling the bride wore a brown Palm Beach suit with a pink blouse. Her accessories were brown and white and her corsage was of Johanna Hill roses.

The bride is a graduate of Chelsea High school and of Capital University of Columbus. Mr. Hunter, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter of Pittsburgh, is also a graduate of Capital University and is now a student at Capital University Theological Seminary at Columbus.

Guy D. Thompson Is Buried in Oak Grove Cemetery Saturday

The body of Guy D. Thompson of Lapeer, who died Thursday, in a Saginaw hospital after suffering a heart attack, was brought to Chelsea for burial in Oak Grove cemetery on Saturday.

Mr. Thompson was the husband of the former Beatrice Bacon of Chelsea, who died last May. Survivors are a son, Dr. Arthur Thompson, and two grandchildren, all of Saginaw.

It seems but yesterday that Labor Day meant only a day off, a picnic and a ball game, but year by year the holiday makes us ever more mindful of the part that labor is playing in the welfare of our country. Those who labor, working together, have become leaders in raising men to a higher level of living.

Joyce Ann Nolde Wm. Stierle Wed Saturday Evening

St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church was the scene of a very lovely wedding at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, August 23, when Miss Joyce Ann Nolde of Ypsilanti, daughter of Mrs. Marie Nolde of Ypsilanti, became the bride of William James Stierle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stierle of Fletcher road, Chelsea.

Rev. P. H. Grabowski performed the ceremony in the presence of 100 relatives and friends of the couple, before the candle-light altar at either side of which was a large floor vase, filled with white gladioli, and tall seven-branched candelabra bearing lighted white candles.

The traditional wedding music was played on the organ by Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwischer, who also accompanied Marilyn Schaefer of Ann Arbor, cousin of the groom, who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because" before the ceremony, and "The Lord's Prayer," by Ma-lotte, during the rites.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Philip Schanz of Ypsilanti, was beautiful in a colonial style gown of white marquisette over taffeta, having a fitted bodice and with a panel of overlapping tiers of ruffles of embroidered lace down the front of the skirt. The skirt ended in a long train. Her veil of double illusion was fingertip length and edged all around with a satin scroll design. It was held in place with a beaded tiara. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses and matricaria tied with a large white satin bow, and to complete her costume she wore a pearl necklace which was the groom's gift to her.

The bride's sister, Mrs. George Hayes, also of Ypsilanti, was matron of honor. She wore a colonial gown of yellow taffeta with a fitted bodice and short sleeves with which she wore matching mitts and in shoulder-wait of yellow net held in place with a matching tiara of flowers. Her bouquet was of cava-lar roses with blue delphinium finished with a blue satin ribbon bow. Her coiffure of curls completed the colonial theme.

The bridesmaids, Phyllis Grable and June Short of Ypsilanti, wore light-blue marquisette with matching blue tulle veils and blue flower-ets at either side. They carried yellow roses and bronze daisy mums tied with yellow and wore long blue mitts to match their gowns.

Lawrence Koch was best man, while his twin brother, Leon, seated the guests with George Hayes, the bride's brother-in-law.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding, a navy crepe dress with beaded trimming, with which she wore a beige hat and a corsage of pink roses tied with white ribbon, while Mrs. Stierle, in a copenhagen blue dress with nail-head trimming, wore a grey felt hat and a corsage of pink roses tied with silver.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Philip Schanz of Ypsilanti, wore brown crepe with matching accessories, while Mrs. Caroline Greve of Ann Arbor, the groom's grandmother, in black crepe, trimmed with white lace, and black accessories, wore a corsage of red rosebuds.

A reception given by the bride's mother, was held in the parish hall following the ceremony. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Gale Ripma of Ann Arbor, another cousin of the groom.

Centering the table from which the refreshments were served, was the four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and encircled at the base with smilax and individual white gladioli blossoms. The groom's aunt, Mrs. Robert Greve of Ann Arbor, assisted with the cutting of the wedding cake.

A special feature of the decorations used at the reception was a beautiful old silver and crystal flower holder consisting of a triple-footed silver plate with a tiny silver bird perched at one side, and a silver figure of a young man holding the crystal vase which was shaped like a horn of plenty. Lacy pastel colored garden flowers were used in the holder. This flower holder was used many years ago at the wedding of the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Greve of Ann Arbor.

For their honeymoon trip to Yellowstone National park the bride wore an aqua suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. They will be at home after two weeks at 876 Fletcher road, Chelsea.

The bride is a graduate of Milan High school while Mr. Stierle graduated from Chelsea High school.

He has since engaged in farming with his father.

Pre-nuptial showers were given for the bride by Mrs. Gale Ripma, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carl Stierle in Ann Arbor, and by Phyllis Grable at her home in Ypsilanti.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts at the rehearsal dinner for twenty guests which was given at their home Friday evening.

A fish that squeaked when landed at dusk by a Petoskey angler fly fishing for trout proved on examination to be a bat ... On Commerce lake, Oakland county, a fisherman tried to stop a bullhead from bouncing about by beating it on the side of the boat. It was a rubber boat. The bullheads' horns pierced the boat's fabric, sank it.

push a clutch!

GM HYDRA-MATIC DRIVE has been proved by nearly 400,000 Oldsmobile owners in billions of miles of "no-clutch, no-shift" driving!

400,000 left feet... left without a thing to do! Because Hydra-Matic Drive eliminates the clutch pedal and all clutch pushing. 400,000 right hands... on the steering wheel where they belong! Because Hydra-Matic Drive shifts gears automatically—makes manual shifting a thing of the past!

That's the story of convincing proof that lies behind the GM Hydra-Matic Drive of today. Oldsmobile first introduced this revolutionary advancement almost 8 years ago! And since then, nearly 400,000 owners of Hydra-Matic Oldsmobiles have driven literally billions of miles—without ever pushing a clutch!

After these 8 years, Hydra-Matic Drive is still the only "drive" that eliminates the clutch pedal and shifts gears automatically through four forward speeds. The lowest-priced car to offer GM Hydra-Matic Drive* is the smart new Oldsmobile. It's ahead in performance—automatically. Ahead in appearance—dramatically. That's why people are saying, "It's SMART to Own an Olds!"

Treat Eggs Right in Hot Summer Weather

Hot weather can cause a decrease in egg quality unless poultrymen are careful how eggs are handled, says Howard Zindel, Michigan State college extension poultry specialist.

The first five or six hours after eggs are gathered often determine how well they will retain their quality until they reach the consumer. Eggs should be gathered three or more times a day in a wire basket or similar container that will allow air to circulate around them and hasten cooling. Eggs should be immediately taken to a well-ventilated, fairly moist room with a temperature of 50 to 60 degrees. A cellar serves well for this purpose if properly ventilated.

Keep the eggs away from odors while they are cooling and after completely cooled, pack them in clean and down in pre-cooled egg cases. Market eggs at least twice a week.

Deer Hunters May Get Annual 'Dope Sheet' of Conservation Dept.

Lansing—Deer hunters thinking fondly of frosty weather and tracking snow in the north woods in November may send now for the Conservation department's annual statistical "deer hunting" "dope sheet." Hunting parties looking for a new location to improve their luck can check, on the dope sheet, the last three seasons' results, catalogued county by county.

Each county's area in square miles, the number of hunters it had, the number of deer killed, the percentage of hunters successful, the concentration of hunters per square mile and the deer kill per square mile all appear in the statistical report.

Hunters can find plenty of deer, for instance, in Roscommon county; 7,119 were killed last season, but there were more than 45 hunters to the square mile there to harvest them. Or they may consider the success ratio, highest in the upper peninsula, where there are both fewer deer and fewer hunters. Dickinson county with six hunters to the square mile had the highest success ratio in 1946; every other hunter there got a buck.

About one out of every three of the 850,000 licensed hunters last season brought home a deer, and the total kill exceeded 115,000.

gan averaging nearly 1,500 fires and burning 20 thousand acres of woodlands annually. The average fire in this state burns 21 acres, with every sixth fire burning in excess of ten acres.

"If we are to stop this loss," the forester said, "we must provide some form of fire control for every acre of forest land in the nation. We must also learn the value of our forests. In spite of the many things—more than 4,000 separate items—for which we depend on our forests, nine out of ten forest fires are still traceable to human causes."

Forest Fires Inflict Huge Losses Annually

Washington, D. C. (special)—If the trees destroyed by forest fires in Michigan during the last 12 years could have been manufactured into building materials, they could have rebuilt every house in Lansing. This was the startling estimate of Chief Forester Charles A. Gillett of the American Forest Products Industries, Inc., as that organization released its third annual analysis of forest protection in the United States.

Based on U. S. Forest Service statistics the survey shows Michi-

Grass Lake — Despite blazing heat in the forenoon, drenching rains in the afternoon, Grass Lake's annual V-J Day celebration was a great success. An estimated 10,000 people visited the village during the day and more were undoubtedly deterred by the thunder storm. On the list of prize winners for the day was: Washing machine, Clair Tatter, 239 Park street, Chelsea.—The Grass Lake News.

Buchanan — The community owes its thanks to the American Legion for a good time and successful show on the occasion of the V-J day celebration here Saturday. Hot weather thinned the crowd in the afternoon, but attendance in the evening made up for the afternoon lack. The streets were thronged from 7- to 10:30 p.m.—Berrien County Record.

Milan — Thanks to the vigilance of the Washtenaw County Health Service, there has been no spread of diphtheria in Milan nor any other cases reported in the county. There were contradictory reports as to the case in Milan but it was finally determined to be diphtheria. However, the victim has recovered and is about her customary pursuits.—The Milan Leader.

Manchester — William Frey, 66, an onion field worker on the farm of Elmer Trolz, died in St. Joseph's Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor on Saturday night and sheriff's deputies said the death apparently was caused by a fall from a haymow. Mr. Frey was still alive when found in the barn and a depression was found in the haymow above, where he was lying. A blanket was found near him. There was no sign of a struggle.—The Manchester Enterprise.

Dexter — The sodding of the Dexter Athletic field is ready to get underway. The grading of the field has been finished and the sodding of the field is the next step towards getting the field ready for use by the "high school" football team this fall. The sodding will begin Saturday at 8:30 a.m. and will continue each day until the field has been completely finished. Tools and men will be needed to complete this job on time.—The Dexter Leader.

Frankfort — In Frankfort's first recall election the citizens voted to oust Mayor E. C. McCauley by a vote of 277 "Yes" and 248 "No." There were 528 votes cast, but two were thrown out and one absentee was not turned in. The heavy downpour of rain did not seem to interfere with the citizens coming to the polls. When the polls closed at 8:00 p.m. last evening 528 votes had been polled. At about 8:30 the results were announced.—The Berrien County Patriot.

Saline — Lightning struck the barn on the Dale Fuhrman farm, 10480 Warren road, about four and one-half miles south of Saline, Tuesday night at about 7:15 o'clock. The structure, about 50x36 feet, was entirely destroyed by the fire which resulted and also the hay and grain which were stored in it, along with two calves. Both the Saline and Milan fire companies attended the blaze and their efforts saved the house which stood quite close to the barn. The community was deprived of electricity for two hours due to the storm that evening.—The Saline Observer.

Northville — A host of people responded to the lure of the old time picture of the street car and the personnel as published in last week's issue.

Saline — Within the past two weeks several youngsters went swimming in the river near the Girl Scout cabin, located on the Sinkule farm, and having tired of the sport, their eyes lighted on the cabin and when one of their number suggested that they have a look inside, they proceeded to do so. Having gained entrance by prying loose a hinged shutter on the side of the cabin, a spirit of devilment possessed them and they proceeded to wreck the interior. A $50 first aid kit was destroyed and rolls of toilet paper and antiseptic gauze were draped about the rafters and hung down in streamers. Bales of straw were broken open and strewn about, and they left the place in quite a mess. The Sheriff's department was notified Monday, the vandalism having been discovered when Rev. R. S. Hocking and a number of youngsters visited the place.—The Saline Observer.

No Community Fair For Chelsea This Year

At a recent meeting of the directors of the Chelsea Community Fair association, it was decided not to have a Fair in 1947. Those present feel that Chelsea already has more organizations and scheduled events than can properly be supported. Rapidly changing conditions seem to favor the development of a county-wide agricultural Fair. Farm leaders in various communities and in the extension department have been discussing such a plan.

Because of the rapid growth of the 4-H and Future Farmers organizations, young people in this community will have ample opportunity to exhibit crop and livestock projects. The 4-H Fair in Ann Arbor and the State meeting in East Lansing are being held this month. Achievement Day is also an annual event. The F.F.A. Fat Stock show will be held in Detroit October 6 and 7. State-wide potato shows and swine sales are held each year. In addition there are district, regional and state contests for crop and livestock demonstrations, parliamentary procedure, and public speaking.

Students in grades three through eighth will bring vegetable garden exhibits to the High school agriculture department on October 3. Prizes will be awarded as announced last spring.
