

● Governor Kim Sigler possesses an astounding memory.

And so does Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction.

The other day we received a telephone call. Norm Borgerson, one of Dr. Elliott's aides, was on the line. "There's a very important dinner coming up next Monday night, and you ought to be there," he said. "The governor, lieutenant governor, most of the state officials and department heads are coming."

"What's it all about?" we asked. "Education and conservation—how to make better use of our state recreational land, how to increase the public's appreciation of Michigan's parks and recreational facilities, why it's necessary to practice soil conservation—"

"That's plenty," we interrupted. "We'll be there."

If there is anything we try to practice and preach, it is more intelligent use of the state's vast holding of recreational, game, and fish land, and the need for better soil conservation. Land is the foundation of our entire economy.

About 125 persons were seated around a long table at a Lansing hotel. Dr. Elliott arose, welcomed them, and then proceeded to introduce each guest. He knew them by their first names. He injected humor. He said of Tom Wilson, director of civil service: "He is a man we all love." Called by first name and given an accurate and semi-flattering reference, each person was in good spirits by the time the next speaker arose to talk.

Pete Hoffmaster, director of the state conservation department, knows his conservation. He lives it. He speaks it. He sleeps it. He folds out the state's 18 group camps whereby groups of five to 60 persons may be given overnight camp facilities and groups up to 250 persons may be accommodated for day use. From January to June of this year the total of persons thus serviced was 5,559; the summer season added 6,446, and the calendar year's total will be between 15,000 and 16,000.

Where are these camps? Pete didn't go into details, and so we required later. Three are in the Waterloo recreational area; two in the Yankee Springs area. One each at the following: Ludington, Muskegon, Slinger, Hayes, Island Lake, and Van Buren state parks. One at Allegan lake, Ogish lake in Presque Isle county, Ortonville and Highland recreational areas. And, two in the Upper Peninsula.

Dr. Hugh Masters, educational advisor of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, was next introduced. The foundation gives the state an annual grant of $7,500 to promote group camps.

The final speaker was Governor Sigler. Recovering from an illness, he told about book he had just read. Its title was "The Misunderstood Patriot"—Michigan's first governor, Stevens T. Mason. The governor recited from memory incidents and dates about Michigan's early history. And when we wondered how far off the beam he had gone, he wound it up neatly and effectively.

The Sigler mind is amazing in its ability to remember names, dates and information. It has created a dilemma for him, because he is under constant pressure to speak. He likes people, he likes to speak, and the result is neither good for his health nor for the accumulation of problems at the executive office in Lansing.

We left the dinner with two impressions: One, Michigan is only beginning to make use of its public land. Second, we wish we had a good memory.

Pastor of St. John's Leaves Next Week

Sunday, October 19 Is Rev. Baumann's Farewell Sermon

Rev. W. F. Baumann, who announced some time ago that he had accepted a call to become the pastor of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church at 2442 Moffat street in Chicago, will preach his farewell sermon at Bethel church in Freedom township next Sunday, Oct. 19, taking for his topic, "The Sure Foundation of Our Faith." He will leave for Chicago on Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Baumann and their sons, Carl, Adam, and John. The Rev. Baumann, a teacher in the Coldwater High school, and Barbara Ann, a sophomore at Ypsilanti State Normal college, will continue their work. Reverend Baumann has been pastor at Bethel church for 12 and one-half years, having preached his first sermon there on April 7, 1935. He has made many friends in this vicinity who are sorry to have him leave the community but nevertheless wish him success and happiness in his new undertaking. No pastor has yet been appointed to succeed him at Bethel church and Rev. Alvin Siemsen of St. Paul's church at Saline, will be in charge of the services until a permanent pastor is appointed. Services will be held Sunday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

Last Friday evening Reverend and Mrs. Baumann were honored with a surprise farewell party given for them at the church by members of the congregation. Jacob Bihlmeyer, president of the church council, was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the party and Rev. P. H. Grabowski of St. Paul's church was master of ceremonies.

To open the program Reverend Grabowski led in group singing and then called on Wanda Haessler for a vocal solo and on Leon Helmerding for accordion solos. These were followed by several of Reverend Grabowski's contest specialties, featuring prizes which, together with the contest, provided plenty of fun.

Continuing the program in more serious vein, Reverend Grabowski introduced the following speakers in turn: Rev. H. S. von Rague of Emanuel church, Manchester; Rev. A. Siemsen, Rev. J. Fontana of St. John's church, Rogers Corners, and Rev. C. A. Haneberg of St. James church, Saline township. All brought messages of regret because of the Baumann's departure from this vicinity and expressed best wishes for their future in a new field of christian service.

Jacob Bihlmeyer, on behalf of the congregation, presented Reverend Baumann with a purse of $300 and the Young People's League of the church presented a gift to Reverend and Mrs. Baumann. Reverend Baumann responded, thanking everyone for the gifts and the fine send-off, and then Reverend Grabowski spoke briefly to close the program which was concluded with the Lord's prayer in unison.

The Ladies' Aid society of the church served refreshments to the more than 300 guests present.

HOUSE MOVED

The partially completed house belonging to Mrs. Elsie McDavid which had been under construction on her farm on Decker road about one-half mile south of US-12, to replace the old Baldwin homestead which burned down some time ago, was purchased on Monday by the lot she purchased south of Old US-12 near Pierce's cemetery. It will be completed at the new location and Mrs. McDavid will move there as soon as it is ready.

Mrs. McDavid's house is the first of a number of houses that are to be moved to other locations following the sale of farms in the entire section between Manchester and Saline roads and US-12 and Pritchard road.

Second Concert Series To Be Presented This Fall in Ann Arbor

Patrice Munsel, coloratura soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company, will give the opening concert in the second annual Extra Concert series, under the auspices of the University-Musical society, Saturday night, Oct. 18, at 8:30 o'clock, in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor.

Because of the tremendous increase in the student enrollment at the University of Michigan, it was deemed wise to develop a second series of concerts, thus enabling students and others who were unable to get tickets for the regular series because of the limitation of the size of the auditorium, to hear a special short series.

Following the concert by Munsel, concerts will be given by the Cleveland Orchestra; Don Cossack Chorus under Serge Jaroff; the Minneapolis Orchestra under Dimitri Mitropoulos; and Alexander Brailowsky, pianist, in recital.

Garnet Garrison of the U. of M. Speech department, the speaker of the evening, gave a very interesting talk on radio broadcasting and programs. He explained how the programs were set up and the tremendous amount of work involved in doing so and mentioned the exacting work necessary on the part of radio engineers in creating the sound effects. He stated figures showing the high cost of the more important advertising shows on the air and gave his listeners a very comprehensive idea of the whole system of radio broadcasting.

FOE Presents Brooks with Civic Award

Honored for Service as Long-Time Chief of Fire Department

A civic service award for outstanding community service was presented to Howard Brooks, Fire Chief, by Chelsea Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, last Thursday at the Municipal building.

The award is given each month by the Aerie to a citizen of Chelsea for noteworthy civic advancement. Mr. Brooks was chosen for the October award for his many years of service to Chelsea as Fire Chief. The presentation of the award, a civic certificate, was made by Secretary Harold Bair. Aerie officers will select the recipient for the November award soon, Mr. Bair announced.

Membership in the Eagles is not a requisite for the honor. The award will be given solely on the basis of outstanding community service for a particular month.

Lieutenant Stouch of the Ann Arbor Fire Department, was present and gave a very interesting talk on Fire Prevention. He told of the number of fires which caused considerable damage to property and lives, could have been prevented if the fire department had been notified when the fires are first noticed. He claims that many of us get excited and try to extinguish the fire before notifying the fire department and in many cases it is then too late.

Many citizens of Chelsea, as well as Eagle members, attended this meeting.

Chelsea Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will initiate a large class of candidates on Oct. 26, which will be followed by a dinner which will be served at the Municipal building. The initiation of new members will be held at the Eagle home above Moore's Restaurant. The unveiling of the charter will be held at this time also.

New School Board Accepts all Funds, District Records

By resolution of the Board of Education the official name of the newly formed district is Chelsea Agricultural Schools. It will also be known as No. 1 Fractional Sylvan Township for tax purposes. Because of a number of problems and the desire to perfect the organization of the new district in as short a time as possible the board has met in extra sessions for the past month and will continue to do so until such time as only routine matters need attention.

On Sept. 22, officers of the combining districts appeared before representatives of state and county school departments and turned over all monies and records in their possession to the new district. Receipts were as follows:

| | | |
|--------|-----------------|-------------|
| No. 6 | Dexter | $ 226.25 |
| No. 4 | Lyndon | 349.68 |
| No. 5 | Fr. Lyndon | 929.97 |

| No. 6 | Sylvan | 1304.79 |
| No. 10 | Sylvan | 1057.52 |
| Total | | $16,048.76 |

In addition to the above amounts $18,400 in Government bonds and $93.45 in cash of the building and site fund was turned over by the Chelsea District, No. 3 Fr. Sylvan and Lima. This will be held as a building and site fund. No additional levy will be made for the building and site fund until the electors of the new district vote a special tax for that purpose.

It was expected that this year's school taxes for all districts would be levied on an equal rate and as seen as the results of the election were known and the new board was elected, the county treasurer was notified and requested to levy 8 mills for school purposes.

A letter was received Sept. 27 from Mr. Fleming, county treasurer, that this could not be done. The letter stated that the districts combined after final allocation of millage, by the tax allocation board and that the previously allocated tax must be collected notwithstanding the consolidation.

Douglas K. Reading, prosecuting attorney, confirmed the opinion, that this would not be done. The letter stated that the districts combined after final allocation of millage, by the tax allocation board and that the previously allocated tax must be collected notwithstanding the consolidation.

EDITORIAL

We have been told to stay off the lawn again this year. This summer there has been much done to improve the lawn. It might take a few more seconds to go around the sidewalk, but no one wants the lawn to be full of paths made by people who have been too lazy to walk on the sidewalk. The janitors have done all they can to make the lawn beautiful and, now, the rest is up to the students. Let's stay off the lawn and thus make the outside appearance of the school much better.

How many of these does your telephone save you every day?

• Imagine trying to see in person everybody you talk to on the telephone in a single day. Think of the time and the shoe leather . . . the gasoline or carfare it would take! • We've installed thousands of new telephones in recent years. And thousands are still to be installed for folks now waiting for service. Each new telephone makes your telephone that much more valuable. It means more people you can call—more jobs your telephone can do for you.

Chelsea Flyweights Defeat Dexter Team

Much interest is being shown in the football games of the Chelsea youths not over twelve years of age, who are interested in participating in football.

The Chelsea Flyweights football team defeated the Dexter Juniors in a hard fought game at Dexter, Thursday afternoon. Score 18-6.

Johnny Batsakes, speedy fullback for Chelsea, scored all three touchdowns. Johnny showed the fans some thrilling open field running in the second quarter, when he caught the ball on his 5-yard line and ran 95 yards for the touchdown.

Larry Hulce, diminutive back for Chelsea, turned in a very good performance with some clever blocking. Bobby White and Alfred Knickerbocker were outstanding on the defensive play, while Danny Murphy, quarterback, displayed some fine judgment in calling the plays.

Elise, Mike Murphy, Otto Rieger, Freddy Hoffman, E. Hanked, Skip Wheeler, A. Knickerbocker, Danny Murphy, John Batsakes, George Batsakes, Larry Hulce and Lyle Wenk, manager.

A Halloween masquerade ball is being planned by the hospital committee to raise funds for a ceiling projector which is to be presented to a veterans' hospital.

IT SEEMS BUT YESTERDAY

... that the tar sidewalk, rough and stony, skinned the knees of many a boy who stumbled and if he "it on all fours" scratched and bruised the palms of his hands. One who has known only the smooth cement sidewalks of today can hardly imagine the hazards of the old tar walks of yesterday. Remember?

WRC SOCIAL MEETING

Twenty-six members and guests were entertained at the home of Mrs. Howard Gilbert at the Woman's Relief corps social meeting which was held Tuesday afternoon. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon and Mrs. Cora Beissel received the door prize. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Martin Miller.

CHILD STUDY CLUB

The Child Study club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Niehaus with Mrs. Howard Flintoft as assisting hostess. Work done during the afternoon included continued work on rugs being prepared for gifts to institutions of the church and dressing dolls for Christmas giving at the southern mission stations. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

SILVER WEDDING

The "Ever Faithful" class of St. Paul's Sunday school honored one of the members, Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwischer, with a dinner at the church hall in celebration of her 25th wedding anniversary, on Friday evening. Thirty-six members of the class were present. Table decorations featured an anniversary cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Arlene Larson and Lucille Martin were in charge of the evening's entertainment and presented Mrs. Breitenwischer with an original scrapbook depicting the major events of the past 25 years of her life, the final pages very cleverly arranged to show her faithfulness as organist of the church and Mr. Breitenwischer's eight years as a member of the church council. They concluded by presenting Mrs. Breitenwischer with a tiny corsage and a "set" of silverware, which proved to be a dolls set consisting of a knife, fork and spoon.

Games followed in which Mrs. Charles Meserva and Mrs. Albert Ashraf won prizes. Mrs. Breitenwischer was presented with a gift from the class.

On Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Breitenwischer were surprised at their home when a group of friends came to help them celebrate their anniversary, bringing with them the refreshments which included a beautiful anniversary cake. Temporary Silos Can Be Easily Erected

If all space is going to be at a premium this fall on your farm, you may not construct a temporary silo.

Michigan State college agricultural engineers point out that these silos are easily built from snow fence and heavy waterproof paper. Wire fence may be used if necessary. Construction is relatively inexpensive and simple.

County agricultural agents can give details of temporary silo construction. Helpful tips will also be found in Extension Bulletin 281, "Grid and Trench Silos," obtainable from county extension offices or the Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State college, East Lansing.

Grain to cows—will it pay to feed or should I let the cows travel at their own speed with the least possible grain? Such questions are going through farmers' minds these days when grains are costing nearly four cents a pound and milk price has changed very little.

A. C. Baltzer, extension dairyman at Michigan State college, points to records showing that cows receiving liberal supplies of roughage alone can produce only about three-fourths of normal capacity. During 1946, for each additional $5 worth of grain given the cow, she yielded about 850 extra pounds of milk. That's $12 to $15 worth of milk.

Grain will also help to maintain the cows in good condition. Loss of body weight now will be more expensive to replace next winter.

Baltzer believes that despite high grain prices, the values found in milk and dairy food stuffs will justify farmers continuing to feed productive cows.

U. S. Farm Fire Losses Are High

American farmers lose 100 million dollars worth of property annually from farm fires, according to Fred Roth, farm safety specialist at MSC.

Every year 3500 farm people die in these fires. Deaths from burns and explosions on Michigan farms last year totalled 68.

Roth states that records show five structural hazards account for 50 per cent of all farm fires: 1. Improperly installed heating plants. 2. Bad chimney construction. 3. Flammable wood shingle roofs. 4. Defective wiring. 5. Lack of lightning rods.

If your farm harbors any one of these five hazards, it's time to take steps to remove it. Ask your county agricultural agent or the nearest fire department how you can protect yourself, your family, and your farm.

Two Memorials Near Negaunee Mark Spot of Michigan's First Ore Discovery

(Editors' Note: This is one of a series of stories about historical spots and monuments in Michigan, based on information from the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan.)

Where and when the Upper Peninsula's valuable iron ore first was discovered is marked by two memorials at Negaunee.

A square, cast iron marker on highway M-28 near Jackson Park says a United States surveyor made the first discovery near that spot, Sept. 19, 1844.

The other memorial, however, states the first discovery of iron ore occurred in June 1845. The pyramid-shaped, flagstone monument is about 20 yards beyond the Lake Superior and Ishpeming Railroad tracks at Iron street.

According to information in the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan, a widely spinning compass and a reluctant Indian chief helped lead to the ore strikes.

The compass was in the hands of surveyor William A. Burt when it began its unusual actions. Knowing the presence of some mineral could upset the instrument's magnetism, Burt suggested his men explore the region.

They did so and quickly found outcroppings of ore that appeared to be almost pure iron, the Michigan Historical Collections data indicate. Burt and his men, however, were not interested in the ore. So it remained for the party's Indian packers to carry news of the discovery to persons in the Lake Superior region.

Hearing of the strike, Philo M. Everett of Jackson, and four others went to the locality. They asked a Chippewa Indian chief to show them where the ore was. Saying he feared evil spirits, the Chief refused to do so—but changed his mind when offered a share in the mine that might result.

The ore the Indian pointed out

was found to contain iron, and the Jackson Mining Company was organized, July 23, 1845. The Indian received a minor share of stock. However, when the company was incorporated as the Jackson Iron Company in 1848, the chief's share was not recognized, the Michigan Historical Collections information shows.

Burt found more than 20 iron ore beds in the Upper Peninsula between 1844 and 1846, thus revealing the vast mineral wealth of northern Michigan. But the thing that pleased Burt the most was the fact that a solar compass, he invented was unaffected by the presence of iron ore and enabled him to carry on his surveys unhindered.

SPEAKS SOFTLY

but carries a big Kick

Go easy, sir, when you come up behind this Buick and the little medallion over its license plate tells you it's a Roadmaster.

For this biggest of all today's Buicks rides the roads with deceptive ease and serenity.

It moves its smooth and easy way in such well-mannered quiet you may think here's one you can safely challenge.

Take our advice — and don't try it.

For with all the bigness of its eighteen feet — with all its solid steadiness of 4400 pounds of curb weight — this model packs 144 Fireball horsepower under its broad bonnet.

And it's power on instant call, power with such quick, singing responsiveness that no special gearing's needed to supply ample passing speed in any situation.

You can't miss, of course, the levelness of the Roadmaster's going. Size and weight and all-coil springing join hands here to make every mile a mile of ease.

Behind its wheel you can't help marveling that a car so big can handle so lightly, holding true on curves, coming smoothly out of sudden swerves, answering wheel and brake obediently whatever the road's condition.

And just seeing this sweetheart pass is enough to settle your mind once and for all that Buick holds the key to coming things in automotive styling.

So it's small wonder that more and more people are picking Roadmaster by name as the car they've set their hearts on.

Small wonder, either, that they're settling matters now — and getting their orders in, certain that on delivery day they'll receive the smartest, liveliest, most wanted car of its time.

Why not place yours, too — with or without a car to trade?

More than One Million Fish Licenses Likely

Issuance of more than one million fishing licenses in 1947 has become a likely prospect since the conservation department disclosed that to Oct. 1 sport fishing license sales totaled 887,466.

This total is only about 52,000 short of last year's record number and only about 62,000 short of the million mark. Of the 1947 licenses issued to date, 709,703 went to residents, 129,970 to non-residents fishing 10 days or less, 97,793 to non-residents buying 12-month permits.

MSC Tests Show Loss Due to Erosion

Rains during September gave visible proof of the value of cover crops at the Michigan State College Agricultural Experiment Station, reports A. H. Mick, soil science specialist, who conducted the tests. The fields tested had already been well saturated with rain when a total of 3.3 inches of rain fell on the plots. There was little chance for the soil to absorb moisture. A field planted to alfalfa, seeded in late this spring, soaked up 0.2 of an inch of the rain but had little erosion of soil.

A recently tilled corn field lost the entire 3.3 inches of moisture. This run-off carried approximately one ton of soil per acre with it. Ninety-three per cent of this residue lost was silt and clay, the most productive parts of the soil.

Officers elected on Monday for the Methodist Fellowship club are as follows: Pres., E. L. Clark; vice-pres., E. P. Steiner; Sec., Ellsworth Hopper; treas., John Kilmer.

Many of the farmers in all directions from Chelsea are having their silos filled, others are finishing cutting their corn. Some of them have commenced husking their corn crop and gathering their apples.

Misses Beulah Luick and Emma Lewich entertained Saturday evening at the home of the former, 607 South Main street, at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Oscar Lindauer, a recent bride.

John Haselschwerdt had two truck loads, 50 ewes, placed on his farm in Sylvania, Saturday. Mr. Haselschwerdt purchased the animals of a farmer six miles southwest of Jackson.

Leigh Beach, Lima township farmer, has had his farm greatly improved during the past few months by the erection of several new buildings, a new barn and garage have been completed. The farm home is also being remodeled.

Supervisor Geo. W. Beckwith, at the meeting of the board of supervisors in Ann Arbor, was successful in getting a resolution passed appropriating $17,000 to be used in improving the Chelsea-Manchester road. This is the first time that this part of the county has had a direct appropriation made for any of the highways south or north of Chelsea.

O. C. Burkhardt assumes the agency for Buick automobiles in this vicinity, working in conjunction with the Ann Arbor-Buick Service Co. Mr. Burkhardt will be located at the Buick-Chevrolet garage, Park street, where he will have the east side of the showroom, the west side of the garage being reserved by W. P. Schenk and company for the display of Chevrolets. Service of both makes will be given by David Mohrlock, who is conducting the repair and service departments in the basement.

A miscellaneous shower in Grass Lake Tuesday evening was given by the Misses Sherman for Miss Susie Dorr. Miss Dorr and Roy Davidson of Chelsea are to be married on Tuesday of this week.

Robert Howe, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howe, was walking on the Michigan Central tracks Saturday afternoon. One of his feet caught in the cattle guard between the track and it was so firmly wedged that he was unable to free it. Wm. J. Haefner, passing by, went to the assistance of the boy as a fast west-bound freight was approaching. The boy had just been removed from the tracks when the train whizzed by them.

At a special election Monday—Ann Arbor voters considered the proposition of the city's purchasing the Ann Arbor Water company's plant for $450,000. It was accepted by a vote of 1,079 to 493. Two other propositions were voted upon, both having to do with the issuance of bonds for the purchase of the Steere farm south of the city, where artesian wells furnish 1,000,000 gallons of water a day. Both were carried by large majorities. The Steere farm will cost the city $20,000. Underlying it is a large body of running water.

Announcement was made that the Motor Products company, organized with a capital stock of $150,000, filed articles of incorporation in Lansing. The company is formed to continue the manufacture of the Flanders "4" and "4-1/2" motorcycles—a machine formerly built by the Flanders Manufacturing company. Headquarters will be located in Detroit. D. W. Caswell of Chelsea holds the office of secretary and treasurer. Operations are already in progress at the former Flanders plant in Chelsea.

Appoint New State Health Commissioner

Dr. J. K. Altland became Acting Commissioner of the Michigan Department of Health on Sept. 22. Former Director of the Bureau of Local Health Services of the Department, Dr. Altland was appointed by Governor Kim Sigler to succeed Dr. William DeKleine who had been State Commissioner of Health since 1944.

Born in White Pigeon, Michigan, Dr. Altland attended the University of Michigan School of Medicine and interned at St. Mary's hospital, Grand Rapids. He practiced in Lowell for eight years and then returned to the University of Michigan receiving his Masters Degree in Public Health in 1938. He served as Director of the Grand Traverse County Health Department for two years. He became Director of the Barry County Health Department in 1940, and held that position for six years, one and a half of which were spent with the United States Coast Guard and the United States Public Health Service. He came to the Michigan Department of Health as Director of the Bureau of Local Health Services in April 1946.

U-M Home-coming Will Be Celebrated Sat., October 25

Home-coming will be celebrated at the University of Michigan on Oct. 25.

The Michigan-Minnesota football game will be the chief center of interest, but a schedule of events has been arranged both for the Friday evening before the game and throughout Saturday.

The huge pep rally will be held at South Ferry Field Friday evening followed by the traditional Varsity Night, a student variety show, at Hill Auditorium. Saturday morning the winners among the fraternities, sororities and Residence Halls in the contest for the best decorated house will be selected.

The game itself on Saturday afternoon already is a sell-out and a capacity crowd of 85,988 will be on hand to watch the Wolverines seek to retain possession of the Little Brown Jug.

The Home-coming Dance at the Sports Building Saturday evening is expected to attract some 1,500 couples. The music will be by Louis Prima's orchestra.

Mystery of the Missing Farms

Yep, the number of farms in America is shrinking (by a quarter-million in the last five years!). What's happened to the missing farms? The land has been taken in by other farms, increasing the average size by twenty acres!

Does this growth mean farming's no longer a family enterprise? Just the opposite! More families own farms today than ever—only with labor-saving equipment they can handle more land, more work.

That's as it should be. The family farm is a fortress of democracy—where our free, American life is secure. Where every member co-operates and shares the work... living together in temperance and tolerance—temperance that prefers a moderate beverage like beer, and tolerance for a taste that may be different from one's own.

From where I sit, our Family Farms (and they're 98% of all farms) are something that this country can be proud of!

HERE IS A 4-UNIT DIESEL FREIGHT LOCOMOTIVE NOW OPERATED BY 2 MEN (1 ENGINEER AND 1 FIREMAN)

2 BRAKEMEN AND 1 CONDUCTOR COMPLETE THE CREW OF THIS TRAIN [One brakeman usually rides in the locomotive in freight service]

BUT THE UNION LEADERS WANT 15 EXTRA "SITTERS" ON THIS TRAIN... 3 ENGINEERS, 3 FIREMEN, 6 BRAKEMEN AND 3 CONDUCTORS... TO GO ALONG FOR THE RIDE AT FULL PAY!

It's to your interest to know about this proposed feather-bedding!

You'll be fresh when you arrive...

"thanks to Hydra-Matic Drive!"

These words from Oldsmobile's new "radio song" have never been so aptly illustrated as in a typical ride to a football game. There's often a long distance to be covered. There's always traffic to contend with. Yet, if you're the driver of an Oldsmobile with Hydra-Matic Drive, you can... "Just forget the clutch and gear. All you do is sit and steer!" That's true in football traffic, or any other traffic. True on the highway, too. Hydra-Matic Drive takes care of all gear shifting—automatically—through four forward speeds. And the clutch pedal is eliminated completely!

What makes it even more impressive... this will be the ninth football season in which Hydra-Matic Drive has enabled Oldsmobile-owning fans to go to the games the easy way. GM Hydra-Matic Drive is a fully perfected, fully proved feature—and there's still nothing else on the market to compare with it.

Oldsmobile introduced Hydra-Matic Drive 8 years ago. Today, Oldsmobile is still the lowest-priced car to offer it. Add to this Oldsmobile's traditional style-leadership—plus Oldsmobile's all-round, fine-car quality—and you'll see why so many football fans are Oldsmobile fans as well. You'll agree that...

"IT'S SMART TO OWN AN OLDS!"

For sheer feather-bedding, this mock work proposal takes the cake. But it is only one of 44 "rules" demands filed by the leaders of the operating unions. If all these demands were granted, they would cost the railroads an added BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR.

Increased Wages, Too

On top of these "rules" changes, the leaders of the operating unions have filed an additional demand for a wage increase of over 30 per cent. If granted, this would be an added cost to the railroads of $400,000,000 a year.

$468,000,000 To Non-Operating Employees

In addition to this, an Arbitration Board has just granted a wage increase of 15 1/4 cents an hour to the million employees represented by the 17 non-operating unions. This will cost the railroads $468,000,000 a year.

Where Will The Money Come From?

Where will all the money come from to pay these increases? They total several times as much as the railroads made in 1946 or will make in 1947.

In July, the railroads filed an application for increased freight rates to close the gap which then existed between wage and material costs, and railroad revenues. Since then it has been necessary, because of further increases in wages and material costs, to supplement that petition and to ask for an additional freight rate increase. No other course is open.

Railroads Do Not Run For Employees Alone

Railroads are operated for the benefit of not one, but several groups—shippers, passengers, employees, stockholders, and the general public. The interest of all must be served—and that cannot be done unless the railroads can operate efficiently and economically, and unless they are allowed to earn sufficient revenue to provide the kind of transportation service this country MUST HAVE.

CHELSEA ABA MEETS

The Chelsea ABA met last Monday evening at the home of Jack Bradbury for their regular business meeting.

It has been voted by the Chelsea ABA directors to obtain a microscope for the use of the infertile. There were times this summer when the temperature was a little bit high on the semen shipments and the use of a microscope would have made sure of living sperm cells.

March 8, 1948 has been set as a tentative date for the annual meeting of all ABA members in this area. County Agent, H. S. Osler, has been asked to save this date, and to obtain George Parsons from MSC dairy extension service, as a speaker for this occasion. Mr. Parsons was here on November 29, 1946, and gave a very interesting talk on "Artificial Breeding."

The first test tube calves for this association should arrive the first week in December.

The first test tube calf born in this area arrived last Monday to a Guernsey cow owned by Harold Shepard. The sire was Sunset Golden Huntmen of MSC. The calf is a healthy, well marked, typical Guernsey heifer. Mr. Shepard, formerly belonged to the Southwest Oakland ABA group.
