

Bulldogs Hand Milan's Big Reds 14-12 Surprise Defeat in League Game Last Friday

Brings End to 11-Game Winning Streak for Champs

By DWIGHT GADD

Displaying a tenacity usually attributed to the animal from which they got their nickname, the Chelsea Bulldogs ripped and tore the highly favored Big Reds of Milan last Friday afternoon and upset the high-flying 1946 Huron League Champions, 14 to 12, to end an 11-game winning streak.

Although outwitted in almost every position, Chelsea made up for it with fight and speed. Bassett and Benjamin, Milan's quarterback and fullback, respectively, spent a sorry afternoon as the whole Chelsea line spent most of its time wandering around raising mayhem with reckless abandon in the Big Red's backfield.

Milan drew first blood early in the initial period. After receiving the kickoff and failing to gain, Bassett kicked to the Chelsea 20, where Vogel took it and ran it back to the 30 before he was spiked.

On the first play from scrimmage, Vogel went off tackle for 7 yards, only to fumble as he was hit, and Milan recovered on the 43.

Bassett skirted his own right end on the first play and raced 22 yards to the Chelsea 21-yard line. In three plays, Holmes and Bassett took it to the Chelsea 9 and from here—Bassett again—went wide around right end to score standing up. Benjamin's kick was wide of the uprights, but with less than half of the first quarter gone it appeared that Milan was on its way to another top-sided win.

The Chelsea eleven evidently didn't see it that same way. Milan took the kickoff on the Chelsea 32-yard line and carried it to the 45 before being spiked. From there the Bulldogs put on a show of power and speed combined to move downfield 46 yards in 10 plays to the Milan 10-yard line for a first down.

Slane, Carlson, Knickerbocker, Vogel, Bauer and Miller all combined in this drive and most of the yardage was made through the big Milan guards and tackles. Slane went all the way to score from the 33 or a beautiful run, only to have it called back for backfield in motion, but this only slowed them down temporarily.

Milan braced and held for three downs as the second quarter opened, but on 4th down on the 14-yard line, Miller dropped back to the 25 and uncoiled a perfect strike to Baldwin in the end zone to tie the score. Seconds later, Baldwin kicked the extra point and Chelsea led 7 to 6.

Except for one Chelsea drive to the Milan 20, the rest of the quarter was spent around the middle field stripe, as both teams defense was too tough for the other to crack. Chelsea second touchdown was the direct result of heads-up playing and very hard tackling. With better than half of the period gone neither team had gotten farther than the 40-yard line. Milan had the ball on their own 44 with second down and 8 yards to go. Big Al Benjamin smashed off his own right tackle but was hit hard at the line of scrimmage by the whole left side of Chelsea's forward wall and he fumbled. The ball popped out of his hands 5 feet into the air, Hasey caught it before it hit the ground and was off on a 44-yard touchdown run, his second this year, before most of the Milan players knew what had happened. Again Baldwin's kick was good, just skimming over the cross bar, and Chelsea's lead at 14 to 6 looked much safer.

After 7 minutes of the last quarter had gone by with neither team being able to get their attack started, Milan finally found the necessary spark and from their own 36, in 10 plays, marched 64 yards to score, Benjamin bucking it over in three successive plunges through center from the 5-yard line. Milan attempted to run the extra point but the Chelsea line smeared this attempt and there the score remained, 14 to 12, until the final gun.

The statistics were as close as the final score. Chelsea ran and passed for 180 yards and 11 first downs, while Milan's total was 172 yards and 9 first downs. Chelsea completed two out of five passes and Milan three out of eight.

A great deal of the credit for this upset victory is due to the line as they almost completely throttled Bassett and Benjamin, two of the supposedly best backs in the league. The Bulldogs backfield showed lots of spirit and drive as they ripped and tore into the heavier Milan outfit. It was a complete and well-earned team victory.

Especially gratifying were Baldwin's two-point after-touchdowns, as they were his first two successful attempts in ten tries. He certainly picked the right game to come through.

The officiating was looser and less restrained than we've seen in a long time.

Tomorrow night, Oct. 24, at the local athletic field at 8 o'clock, Chelsea, entertain the Cubs of University High from Ann Arbor. They have won only one game this season but on occasions have shown a very strong defense.

The Bulldogs should win this one, providing they don't have a let-down after that struggle last week.

Let's have a big crowd out there to back them as they deserve after last week. See you at game time! Following is the line-up:

Milan Pos. Chelsea
Collins L.E. McClear
Bausman L.T. Knickerbocker
Opp L.G. Robbins

Hicks R.T. Hasey

Flyweight Football Team Deadlock with Dexter Squad Here

The Chelsea Flyweights football team was held to a 13-13 tie in the game with Dexter at the athletic field here on Sunday.

Riegger were outstanding on the defensive play, while Johnny Batsakes and A. Knickerbocker were very sharp on the offensive.

The Flyweights next game will be played with Clinton or Grass Lake but the date at this time is uncertain.

Visits Site of First Settlement in Country

Mrs. Dor Rogers has returned home from Maine, where, with Mrs. R. W. Fitch and Mrs. Albert Steward of Detroit, and Mrs. Fred Mundhank of Toledo, she had spent a month while Mrs. Mundhank was making a survey of historic old houses in that state, to gather material for her latest book which deals entirely with the subject of old doorways. She has written several books about old houses throughout the country.

While in Maine the ladies visited Pamauit Point which is the site of the oldest settlement in the United States, English fishermen having settled there in 1603, seventeen years before the Mayflower on Plymouth Rock.

The lighthouse at Pamauit Point is said to be the oldest one in the country.

Cancer Society's Mobile Unit to be in Chelsea Friday

On Friday, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., the traveling cancer exhibit which is sponsored by the Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, will be in Chelsea and will be located on East Middle street.

The exhibit, housed in a Red Cross Motor Corps bus, is one of the methods being used in a well-organized plan to educate the people of the entire county to recognize early symptoms of cancer and to seek treatment immediately if any of these symptoms appear or are suspected by an individual.

The exhibit was on display in Ann Arbor from Monday until Friday of the past week and this week has been on display in Ypsilanti, Saline, Milan and Manchester.

The exhibit is open to the public and the people of Chelsea and vicinity are urged to avail themselves of the opportunity to see it. Mrs. Maynard Knickerbocker has been appointed Commander of the Chelsea Chapter of the American Cancer Society and all cancer work in Chelsea will be done under her direction.

Philathea Divided Into Two Groups

Following a thorough discussion of the proposed division of the Philathea Circle of the Methodist church into two or more groups, it was decided at last Thursday's meeting to divide the Circle into an afternoon and an evening group.

There is a possibility, according to Philathea members, that the evening group will eventually be divided into another two groups.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lawton Steger with 32 members present.

Following the Lord's Prayer, repeated in unison by the group, there was a short business meeting which preceded the discussion of the proposed division of the Circle.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess following the close of the meeting.

FAREWELL PARTY

Mrs. Christina Bristle and her family, who are moving soon to a farm south of Manchester, were honored with a surprise farewell party at their home on Jerusalem Road Friday evening which was attended by about 75 friends and neighbors and was arranged for the Bristle's pleasure by Mrs. Elmer Lindow.

Euchre was enjoyed as the entertainment of the evening and prizes were awarded as follows: High, to Mrs. Clarence Bristle and Walter Eschebach, second, to Mrs. George Steele and Everett Van Riper, low, to Mrs. Lester Schulze and Richard Schulze.

The Bristle family was presented with a beautiful floor lamp as a gift from the group and in addition, Miss Ruth Bristle was presented with a gift.

The evening's festivities were concluded with a very nice potluck lunch.

Eternal Vigilance

Eternal spirit of the chainless mind!

Brightest in dungeons, Liberty! thou art,

For there thy habitation is the heart—

The heart which love of thee alone can bind;

And when thy sons to fetters are consign'd—

To fetters, and the damp vault's dayless gloom,

Their country conquers with their martyrdom,

And Freedom's fame finds wings on every wind.

We observe the anniversary of the Statue of Liberty, a national monument, on October 23 because it was on that day in 1886 that the great bronze colossus on Bedloe's Island in New York harbor was formally inaugurated. Actually, the monument was proposed shortly after the Civil War by a group of Frenchmen who later commissioned Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, a sculptor of Alsace, to design a suitable statue. His conception of the mighty goddess-bearing a torch in her right hand and a book in her left belongs now to all the ages of free men.

Study Club To Hold Annual Rummage Sale

Friday and Saturday of this week, Oct. 24 and 25, the annual Fall Rummage-sale of the Chelsea Study Club is to be held at the Sylvan Town hall, from 1 until 5 o'clock both afternoons. Would-be contributors who have no way of getting their contributions to the Town Hall on Thursday may call either 6741 or 6021 and someone will be sent to pick them up. Calls should be made early in the day.

This annual affair has been sponsored by the Study club for many years and is one of its main opportunities for raising money for the many worth-while projects it supports.

In addition to the regular contributions to the Chelsea Public Library, the 25c cookies a month sent to Percy Jones hospital, and support of the two French war orphans who were "adopted" by the club several years ago, the club makes substantial donations to every drive for funds that takes place in Chelsea during the course of the year, and the shut-ins of Chelsea are remembered each Christmas with boxes of fruit and cookies.

Public support of the club's Rummage sale either by contributions or purchase of items (or both) will assure the continuance of the club's fine work for another year.

On behalf of George Doe, chairman of the committee and the other committee members, we wish here to correct that error and acknowledge Mr. Merkel's time and effort expended in performing his duties.

Celebrate Silver Anniversary with Surprise Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwieser, whose twenty-fifth wedding anniversary occurred on October 11, were guests of honor at a dinner in celebration of the event which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lindauer at their home on Monday evening.

The dinner was arranged as a surprise for them, their daughter, Caroline, aware of the plans, merely telling them to be ready to go out to dinner that evening, but not mentioning where. When they were all ready she blindfolded them both and didn't remove the blindfold until they were inside the Lindauer home.

Following the dinner an evening of cards and visiting was enjoyed and the Breitenwiesers were presented with a gift from those present, which included in addition to the honor guests and the Lindauers, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schairer, Ronald and Marilyn Schairer, Daniel Duncanson, and Mr. and Mrs. Veryl Steinaway, all of Ann Arbor and Robert and Caroline Breitenwieser.

Fields covered by this group are agricultural engineering, commercial fruit production, dairy manufacturing, dairy production, forestry and wildlife conservation, poultry, and practical floriculture.

Navy and has been stationed at Jacksonville, Fla., has received his honorable discharge and he and his wife arrived on Monday at the home of her parents in Jackson where they plan to remain for a time. The range will be available after October 31, with the Fort's provost marshal in charge of scheduling reservations. Custer authorities will provide supervision for sportsmen using the range.

Entries Will Still Be Welcomed for Amateur Nite Show

At Monday evening's meeting of the Kiwanis club it was stated that if there is anyone who desires to enter the amateur contest show which is to take place at the High school gymnasium November 7 and 8, they may still do so by contacting Paul F. Niehaus or sending in an entry blank to him.

There is still room for more acts in the show and the $175 in War Bonds which is to be divided into three prizes should be an inducement for all who are interested, to enter.

Speaker of the evening at the meeting was Douglas R. Reading, Washtenaw county prosecutor who explained in detail the procedure in issuing warrants, making investigations to determine whether conditions warrant a court case and settling cases out of court when possible, thus making decided savings of the taxpayers' money. He cited several cases to illustrate his point in this connection.

Plans for the annual Kiwanis Hallowe'en party are almost completed and next week's issue of The Standard will give the complete program.

Committees for the Hallowe'en party are as follows:

Forest Fire Hazard Mounting in State

Lansing—Hard rain, and plenty of it, would relieve anxiety of conservation department field men now watching the forest fire hazard mount as the number of hunters afield reaches the season's peak. Rain would be welcomed by the hunters also, as they have found the going unusually tough in dense ground vegetation, and shooting difficult because of leaves still clinging to the trees.

The fire hazard is reported highest in the upper peninsula and in northern lower Michigan, but warm, sunny days of the prolonged Indian summer have produced a dangerously dry condition in the southern zone also, where pheasants bring the heaviest hunter concentrations.

Conservation department men are repeating once again the warning that forest fire is not exclusively a hazard of the northern pine country. A year ago, they say, more wooded acreage was burned over in the southern third of the state than in the entire upper peninsula.

Extra care with burning tobacco and with lunchtime fires has been requested of hunters throughout the state.

ELEMENTARY PTA SUPPER

Officers and committees in charge of the Elementary P.T.A. pot-luck supper, held Friday evening, October 17, in the Home Ec. room at the High school, were gratified because of the fine attendance, about one hundred and forty being present. Thirty new members were enrolled.

Following the supper, two cartoon movies were shown as special entertainment for the children present.

A number of articles, including dishes and silverware, were left at the High school and may be reclaimed by contacting the president, Mrs. A. D. Mayer.

Mrs. Archie Coe, with her daughter and grandson of Grass Lake, visited her sister, Mrs. Elmer Steinbach and niece, Mrs. Elmer Schiller, Tuesday afternoon.

Steinbach's niece, Mrs. Gary Ordway and daughter of Ypsilanti, visited her Tuesday, also.

A STUDENT'S OPINION

Some parents believe that when their children start school the rest is up to the teacher. Education really begins in the home. If the parents really wanted to help their children, they would come to the PTA meetings.

Then they would become better acquainted with the teachers. They also would realize the problems of the teachers and the students. The parents would also know to what kind of people they are entrusting the education of their children. These children who are students of today soon will become leaders in the world of tomorrow.
Parents! Take heed, and find out about the education of your children by coming to the PTA meetings.

JOURNALISM

The following six students representing the Journalism club, attended "Journalism Day" at MSC last Friday: Mary Lantis, Joanne O'Dell, Joyce Hughes, Verdicke Wheeler, Genevieve Guinan and Phyllis Fischer.

The day opened with an assembly. Prof. A. A. Applegate of the Department of Journalism, introduced the main speaker of the assembly, Mr. Averill, who brought out that if we ever plan to take up journalism as a career, we must expect much hard work.

Sectional meetings followed this assembly and the Chelsea group attended the meetings on editorials, features and photography and arts.

During the lunch hour, C. Yates McDaniels, Associated Press Detroit Bureau Chief, gave a very interesting account of his experiences as foreign correspondent in China.

Following lunch, clinics were held for A, B, C, and D schools. Because of the large number there, the Chelsea group were unable to attend the C group meetings.

Concluding a very interesting and profitable day, a tour of the campus was made by all visitors.

TEACHER'S INSTITUTE
School was closed on Oct. 9 and 10, so the teachers could attend the Teacher's Institute, which was held in Detroit. Facts disclosed proved the meetings were very interesting, successful and helpful.

Teachers from Chelsea High, who participated as chairmen of various groups were Miss Larson and Mr. Cameron. Miss Larson was chairman of the group that met to discuss the "Problems of Beginning Teachers." D. D. Tewes, who is now working for his Doctor's Degree at the U. of M., led the discussion.

Mr. Cameron was chairman of the Physical Education group of Region Six. This group discussed various business problems of large and small high schools, some were solved.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE
Two weeks ago when the teachers at Chelsea Public schools went to Institute, they were addressed by two speakers, Robert Kasmayer and Mrs. Paul Robeson.

The general opinion of Mr. Kasmayer, whose topic was Russia, was that he was very wonderful. He was described as exceptionally interesting, very excellent, invigorating and most informative. He was "easy to listen to and amusing at times." His fund of information and his optimistic outlook were both impressive and inspiring. He also gave some recommendations in regard to disciplinary measures in school. He said that students don't have enough responsibility and that there is a lack of discipline in the homes.

One teacher is quoted in saying: "Mrs. Paul Robeson was her usual gracious self, vivacious and stimulating; she presented a sensible attitude and outlook toward intercultural relations."

Mr. Richards attended Institute at Grand Rapids where he heard

J. G. Chase of the Agricultural Research of Swift and Co. of Chicago and C. Straight. The latter brought out the fact that boys and girls are not writing letters as well as students did 50 years ago. Their penmanship is poor and their use of the English language is influenced more by comic magazines than by their school work.

COMMENTS FROM THE TEACHERS

The teachers each gave their own opinions on the speakers, Mr. Kasmayer and Mrs. Robeson, who talked to them at the Teacher's Institute.

Every teacher enjoyed Mr. Kasmayer's speech very much, because he brought out so many points of interest.

Mrs. Robeson was enjoyed also, but was thought by some not to be as interesting and informative as the former.

Mr. Chandler thought Mr. Kasmayer one of the best speakers he had ever heard. The main idea Mr. Kasmayer left with teachers was, in order to be sure that our country remains great we have to go back to the lessons of the Golden Rule and to work.

Mrs. Robeson was very good, stressing the point that all of us in America are Americans. Whether we are judged good Americans depends on our behavior.

Mr. Newkirk said, "the quality of the lecture given before the Teachers' Institute group is very difficult to appraise. In short, there are three things, three basic elements that make a speech good. 1. Knowledge of subject matter, 2. ability to present the subject matter, and 3. audience interest. The speaker had these three basic elements 100 per cent. Therefore the speech was good, very good."

Miss Brown said, "Mr. Kasmayer was one of the finest speakers I've ever heard. He not only knew his 'stuff' but how to present it, so that his audience was with him from the first to the last word."

"Mrs. Robeson was charming. We need more speakers like her to show us the needs and accomplishments of minority groups."

Miss Searles said, "I have never heard a speaker cover so much material in an hour's time and at the same time keep the audience so

Hunting Must Be Fun
Lansing—Wallace Beden of Lansing isn't sure his hunting luck on a trip to Eckerman was good, though he got his limit of "pats" within five minutes on the first morning.

He hung the pats on a pole outside his tent, and next morning discovered a bear had eaten them. He laid a slab of bacon on the table, went in to get a knife to slice some off for breakfast, came out to find the bear had taken that, too. To get a meal he went fishing.

caught a six-pound pike. When he laid this on the table for cleaning, the bear that had been playing tag with him made off with it, scales and all.

Then Beden's dog tangled with a porcupine, and after the quills were removed it took to chasing deer. Beden managed to catch the dog, and bring two pats home in spite of it all.

OUR OIL SUPPLY
Although the U. S. has only 12% of the world's land area geographically favorable for the occurrence of petroleum, we have discovered about 75% of all the oil found in the world to date. This is simply because any person in our country can win the rewards of finding oil—consequently there are more people looking for it in America.

MISS ELEANORE ANN JONES

Miss Eleanore Jones To Wed Donald Cook at 10 A. M. Today

Donald John Cook of Caro, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cook of Chelsea, is to be married at 10 o'clock this morning (Thursday) at Sacred Heart church in Caro. His bride, Miss Eleanore Ann Jones, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amber M. Jones of Kingston. The double ring ceremony is to be performed by Father Elmer J. Betsing, rector of the Caro church, in the presence of about 50 guests and the bride is to be given in marriage by her father.

Decorations in the church will consist of baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and tall candles bearing lighted tapers.

The bride's gown is floor length and fashioned of ivory satin. Her veil is fingertip length trimmed with lace and held in place with a band of seed pearls and lace. Her bouquet of white roses and baby mums is to be centered with a corsage of gardenias which she plans to wear with her traveling costume—an autumn green suit with black accessories.

To complete her bridal costume she is wearing a diamond necklace which belongs to the groom's mother and was worn by Mrs. J. P. Cook at her own wedding, a gift from her husband. This same necklace has been worn by each of the brides in the Cook family—Mrs. Marvin Kirk of Manchester and Mrs. Gerald M. Cook of Romulus.

Mrs. Gerald Cook, the groom's sister-in-law, will be the bride's only attendant. She plans to wear a floor length blue gown of brocade satin and tulle and a matching Juliet cap and short veil. Her hand bouquet will be of pink roses and baby mums.

Gerald Cook, the groom's brother, is to serve as best man, while the ushers are Kent A. Jones of Kingston, brother of the bride, and Marvin J. Kirk of Manchester, brother-in-law of the groom. A wedding dinner is to be served at the home of the bride's parents.

in Kingston for 14 guests, all members of the immediate families of the couple.

Mrs. Jones was to wear a blue dress and hat with black accessories for her daughter's wedding, while Mrs. Cook, the groom's mother, chose a figured blue dress with black accessories. Both were to wear shoulder corsages of pink roses and mums.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High school and Tuscola County Normal college. She attended Michigan State college for a year and Wayne University of Detroit for one semester and at present is a teacher at Darby school in Caro.

The groom graduated from Chelsea High school. He attended the State Normal college at Ypsilanti and graduated from Michigan State college at East Lansing. He taught for two years at Blissfield and is now employed as Farm Service advisor for the Detroit Edison company in Tuscola county.

Following a short motor trip to points in southern Michigan and in Ohio, the new Mr. and Mrs. Cook will return to their duties in Caro on Monday.

After Nov. 1, they will be at home at 3474 Washington street, in Kingston.

The officiating clergyman at the double ring ceremony performed in the presence of 75 guests, was Rev. A. W. Thomas, pastor of the Pentecostal Church of God at Battle Creek.

The bride wore a grey gabardine two-piece street length dress with a corsage of white roses and carnations and wore matching flowers in her hair.

The bride's only attendant was Bernitta Moffat of Dexter whose dress was like the bride's except for color, hers being aqua. Her corsage and the flowers in her hair were pink carnations.

Serving as best man was Durant Parish of Ann Arbor. A reception followed immediately after the ceremony and Jackie Gross of Dexter was in charge of the guest book.

The young couple will reside at 11340 Chelsea-Dexter road. Mr. McCollum is employed at the Hoover Ball and Bearing company, Ann Arbor.

very attentive as did Mr. Kazmay. He was an excellent speaker. Miss Schell thought Mr. Kazmay an excellent speaker, who had a lot to say in a very short time, and the audience couldn't help but listen. He had very good diction and speaking manner. Miss Schell didn't hear all of Mrs. Rob-son's speech. What she did hear was interesting, but would have been more so had she said it instead of reading her entire speech. Miss Betley said, "Mr. Kazmay is one of the few speakers to attract attention for a long period of time."

THE #4 QUESTION

What would happen if the freshmen could get their revenge on the sophomores?

Who is Mary Ann Schroder constantly looking at in 1st hour study hall?

What would happen if Marilyn Johnson were early to classes just once?

Who is the new sophomore girl? (boys)

Where did Pat Murphy learn to sing like that?

Why are all the kids who were in "Amateur Night" going around school with their fingers crossed?

What would happen if the chorus all started singing together once?

How did Carl O'Dell sprain his wrist?

What would happen if Joyce forgot to meet Bud at noon?

Why is Alton always singing "Margie"?

Where did all the sophomore worries disappear to Friday night?

CONSERVATION MEETING

Tuesday morning, Oct. 14 a meeting was held for all boys in high school interested in Pheasant hunting. Mr. Boyer, the conservation officer, told the boys how to handle a gun correctly, the rules of hunting game, and several cautions to take while hunting.

The boys who brought excuses from home were permitted to go hunting. Wednesday morning, about 55 boys went out of these Jim Ewald and Oscar Barels were the lucky ones who got a pheasant.

HONORS ASSEMBLY

A special assembly was called at 8:30 last Monday. Mr. Johnson announced the honor roll, noting only three all "A" students, but predicting an increase in numbers.

He honored the FFA boys "Fall Festival," Tuesday evening, and commended them for securing such a fine speaker as Marshall Wells.

He urged greater participation in band, paying his respects to the quality of the present organization, but stressing the importance of quantity, too.

The remaining time was devoted to honoring our grid-iron squad, which last week defeated Milan's team. This is said to be Milan's first football defeat in three years.

FRESHMEN FROLIC

The Freshmen initiation was held at the Chelsea High school Gym, Friday night.

In all a good time was had by everyone. Initiation stunts were varied, older and doughnuts were served after a few dances. Later dancing was resumed.

In past years, it has been the policy of our school to let the sophomores initiate the new teachers.

The sophomores would like to let Mr. Newkirk know how they appreciate his good sportsmanship, for he went through the initiation just as the freshmen did.

FROM THE SIDE LINES

Last week Chelsea traveled to Milan for their annual football game. Your roving reporter has these remarks on the game and conditions there.

The field is not as good as our own. The grass could have been cut and the field better marked off. Your reporter is probably sticking his neck out, but he could say, "Chelsea has the best field of all the fields in the Huron League." The field could have a better parking lot and the school could furnish some bleachers. Of course, this may be impossible, but it would be a nice project for some group. Also, they need a better senior stand.

Some good things about Milan should be mentioned also. Milan had a nice band which marched during the half and formed a "C" in honor of Chelsea fans. Then "M.H.S." was formed. The Chelsea fans almost equalled Milan's in numbers.

Behind the Chelsea section there was a group of Milan fans hanging from the trees.

You are lucky to be reading this for your roving reporter had a difficult time getting into the game.

FORMER TEACHER DIES

The death of one of Chelsea High school's former band directors, Mr. De Matteis, came very suddenly this summer. He died of a kidney ailment at his Ohio home.

ATTENTION! GAA!

GAA activities that are now underway are tennis, basketball and bowling. There may be some champion tennis players before the year is over. The forwards for basketball are practicing new plays that they hope will bring them big dividends. The bowling girls are well on their way toward a good season. Their four teams are: "Classic-Lassies," "Four-Chicks," "Roll-a-ways" and the "Stinkers." Miss Schell is again assisting the bowling girls this year.

JUNIOR NEWS

This year, as always, the Juniors are selling Christmas cards for some event unknown as yet; and as always, these cards are very beautiful!

TENTH GRADE NEWS

The tenth grade has spent quite some time thinking up something logical to present the "Freshmen" on Oct. 17, for the initiation into Chelsea High school.

This has been the most important thing that has been done.

NINTH GRADE NEWS

The ninth grade had a meeting Friday morning in which they discussed the Halloween Float; they appointed a committee to work on this. They discussed the Freshmen initiation which has probably been on their mind since it was first mentioned. They asked various questions which were answered only on October 17, 1947, the night of the great event—Freshmen initiation party.

GRADE NEWS

The kindergarten and both sections of the first grade went to Mrs. Maroney's farm yesterday. The children learned about the carrying of seeds by the wind. The kindergarten children gathered feathers for the Indian hats they are making. On the whole, the children had a wonderful time looking around the farm.

The kindergarten children are making hats, masks and table decorations for their class Halloween party.

The fifth grade took a trip into the country yesterday. They went on the school buses.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

In a restaurant that specializes in chicken in the rough, with the strains of "Come to the Mardi Gras" floating through the air, a girl in blue, turns toward us. Why! It is Shirley Ann Kolb. No, the situation isn't real, but if it were it would be ideal for Shirley, because those are her favorite food, song and color. She also likes to bowl, play the piano, read and sew, but after graduation Shirley will probably have little time for these things because she plans on going into Nurses Training and specializing later.

Shirley will be seventeen on December 18. She was born in Ann Arbor in 1930.

Say, girls! If you are interested, here is some chit-chat about a man's man. At least his likes indicate that that is what he is. He is Alton Grau and some of his favorites are: sport, football; color, red; subject, physics; song, "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes." In his spare time he likes to hunt, and in the time of food thinks that steak is just about "it!"

"Grau," as he is known to his friends, is seventeen, and was born in Chelsea on October 9, 1930. His friends will be seeing a little of him after he graduates because he plans on doing some traveling.

LIVELY NUMBER — with a high Eye Cue

You take this one out on the road — and right away, start discovering things.

The thrill you get from Fireball power that makes your wheels kick gravel with the slightest nudge of your treadle foot;

The ease there is in light, sure steering that finds the track and swings into curves with little more than a hand's weight on the steering wheel;

The sense of buoyancy that's yours with four coil springs, one on each wheel, floating you over the dips and rough spots as though they weren't there;

The room you've got in three-person seats — the sureness that's yours from Safety-Ride rims that not only give a softer ride, but check heel-over and sway on curves and spell better car control at all times.

This, you begin to feel, is perfection complete. Surely nothing more can be added to make an automobile more to be desired.

But just look, sir, at what's going on all around you.

The youngsters that point you out from passing cars. The heads that turn to follow your course. The bundle-laden shoppers that check stride for a quick admiring look.

All the eyes that follow the fellow in the car that's setting the style trend.

True — you've a lively number here. But you also have the car with the highest "eye cue" on the American highways — the one that's going to stay out front in the fashion parade.

So why hold off on the chance that something "different" might turn up? Place a firm order now — with or without a car to trade — and we promise you, the Buick you get will be the newest, smartest buy on the market.

The Chelsea-Manchester road, extending through the townships of Sylvan, Sharon, and Manchester has become a county highway and the county board of road commissioners will have charge of its upkeep in the future.

Headed by President W. R. Daniels, of the village, possibly 75 business men of Chelsea will pay a "social" call to Jackson prison on November 1st. The men will be conducted through the various departments of the institution by Warden H. L. Hulbert.

James L. Klein and Wm. G. Kolb have purchased a grocery and meat business on William street, near U. of M. in Ann Arbor. Mr. Klein is an experienced butcher.

and has been employed by Fred C. Klingler and by F. G. Loeffler and Son. Mr. Kolb recently sold the Liberty cafe which he had owned for several years. The young men will open their store for business Saturday morning, under the name of the White Market.

James W. Speer, telegraph operator at the local station of the Michigan Central railroad, after 50 years of continuous and faithful service will be retired on Nov. 1st. Mr. Speer has reached the age of 70 years. He was born in Sylvan township on what is now known as the Sam Guthrie farm in 1868. He started at a salary of $35.00 per month and married, reared and educated his family, bought and paid for a home, all with an income ranging from $40.00 to $50.00 per month. Vast changes in local railroad history have been witnessed by the veteran operator. He has seen the expansion of the single track road to the double-track system in use today; the evolution of transportation methods such as the development of high-powered and fast locomotives; the building of larger and better railroad equipment; installation of the latest devices for the control and operation of trains, etc.

The flames started in the north end of the village about 10:30 p.m., and the business section is in ruins, a loss of more than $30,000. The town has no water system, and the only way the flames could be fought was with a bucket brigade.

It was to honor the anniversary of the Broesamle's marriage, Sunday, Mr. Broesamle's birthday, and Monday, Mrs. Broesamle's birthday.

Raspberry Bushes Need Fall Care Now

The old raspberry canes that bore this summer's crop should be cut off near the ground, removed from the plantation and burned, advises C. E. Russell, Michigan State college horticulturist.

Removal of the old canes will aid in the control of insects and diseases such as cane borer and anthracnose disease. New canes that were produced this summer and which will bear next season's crop should not be pruned until March or April. Information on pruning is given in Extension folder 74, "Practical Hints on Raspberry Growing." A copy may be obtained from county agricultural agents or by writing to the Bulletin office, Dept. of Public Relations, East Lansing.

Cows Must Have Grain To Maintain High Milk Yields

Forcing dairy cows to subsist on roughages alone will curtail their milk yields 25 to 30 per cent according to Dr. Earl Weaver, head of the Michigan State college dairy department. Because of the high prices for concentrates and the shortage of feed grains, many have believed that feeding of these products to dairy animals was not necessary.

With the winter season approaching, when a lack of pasture and a shortage of freshening cows normally cuts milk production, a serious milk shortage could occur should all dairymen immediately stop feeding grain to cows.

From the standpoint of the dairyman it's the good cow, fed liberally, that makes the profit. Dr. Weaver said while grain costs are high, milk prices have not gone up proportionately for the farmers. Most good dairy farmers know, too, that good cows cannot produce milk to capacity if they are too greatly limited in grain.

"If dairy producers are to make their enterprise profitable and if this nation is to avoid a virtual milk famine in years ahead, we will have to keep our herds productive," the dairy department head added.

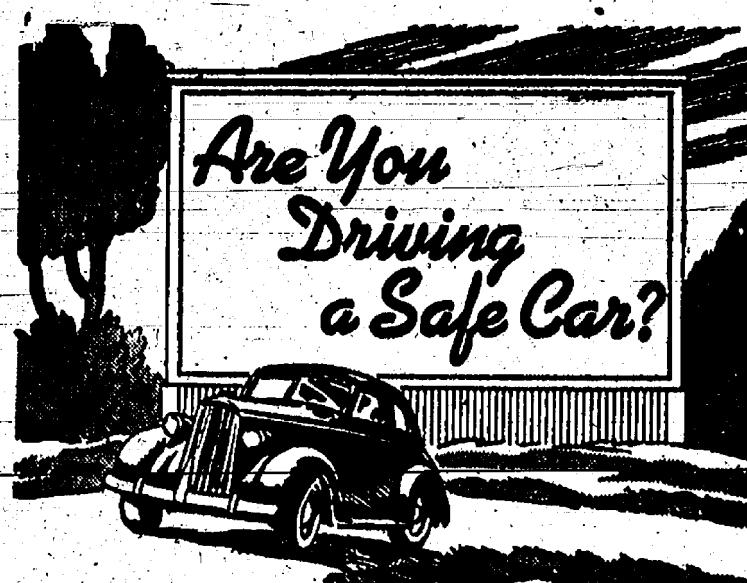

October Rye Planting

What about planting rye this late in the season?

That's a question which farm crops officials at Michigan State college are getting.

Their best answer is that September planted rye is usually better than October planted rye. But if the weather should continue mild and there is adequate moisture to get the seeds germinated before a freeze, it may not be too late.

If the rye doesn't progress enough for a crop it can always be plowed under for a green manure crop. And during the winter it will be protecting the soil from erosion.

entire the railroads get for hauling the average ton of freight is only 15% more, whereas the cost of operating the railroads has increased more than 63% in that period.

Only recently, for instance, an arbitration board added another $468,000,000 to our annual bill for wages and wage taxes, of which $187,000,000 is borne by the Eastern Railroads. This brings the increase in these items alone to more than 75% since 1939.

All the railroads ask is what the law says they should be allowed to have. That means just and reasonable rates. The law says there is need in the public interest for adequate and efficient railway transportation service at the lowest cost consistent with furnishing such service.

In other words, all the railroads ask is sufficient revenue to enable them, under honest, economical and efficient management, to provide the kind of service people want.
