

Bulldogs Defeat Dundee in Final League Game of Year; Manchester Game Tomorrow

18-12 Win Clinches Second Place for CHS in League Play

By DWIGHT GADD

Chelsea clinched second place in the Huron League last Friday night by whipping Dundee, 18 to 12, in a game that was far from being as close as the final score would indicate.

The weather was very disagreeable and was hard on players and spectators alike as the thermometer hovered just above freezing and a cold, damp southwest wind blew in gusts during the entire contest. Both sides fumbled a great deal and passes were blown far from their intended receivers on more than one occasion. However, football is one of the few games almost always played regardless of the weather and in this case the weather has been a great equalizer of what undoubtedly would have been a one-sided contest otherwise. It failed to help Dundee on this occasion though.

Dundee received the initial kickoff, but on the third play from scrimmage, the parade of fumbles started. Dundee was hit hard on an attempted end run and his fumble was recovered by Stoffer on the Dundee 39. Two plays later, however, the Bulldogs gave it back to them as a pass back from center went astray and Missler downed it on the Chelsea 42. Three plays gained only 4 yards though, and Friess went away a very nice kick which went out of bounds on the Bulldogs 9-yard line.

Sticking to straight football, Chelsea began to roll and as the first quarter came to a close the Bulldogs had a first down on the Viking 8. Baldwin, moved from end to halfback in place of the injured Vogel, sparked this drive as he romped 50 yards from his own 22 to the Dundee 28, on the aged statue of liberty play.

On the first play of the second quarter, Baldwin smashed to the left and then Slane ploughed through center to score, putting Chelsea ahead, 6 to 0. On the try for the point after, Carlson couldn't make his cold fingers hold the ball and Baldwin had no chance to kick.

The Bulldogs' second marker came quickly and unexpectedly. Dundee failed to gain after receiving the kickoff and Friess dropped back to his own 10 to punt. However, McClellan, Chelsea right end, broke through and blocked this one with Hanson and Christwell downing it on the Dundee 2-yard line.

On the first play from scrimmage, Carlson smashed off the weak side for a touchdown, making the score read 12 to 0 in favor of Chelsea. This time Baldwin got a chance to kick for the point after, but his attempt was wide to the right.

After the kickoff Dundee again could not gain and Friess kicked to Carlson on the Chelsea 22 and he ran it back to the 39. This time in 9 plays the Bulldogs rammed the 61 yards to pay dirt with Miller going the last 24 yards to score standing up, with the aid of some beautiful downfield blocking. Again Baldwin's kick was wide to the right, but Chelsea led 18 to 0 at the half ended.

Coach Cameron got very gracious in the second half, letting everyone play but the water-boy. "Charlie" was especially anxious for all of the seniors who were not regular during the season to get some time in along with the younger up-and-coming players.

Midway in the third quarter, after a kick by Chelsea fizzled out, Dundee got a break on the Bulldogs 9. On the first play, Zieske, Viking halfback, raced wide around right end to score. Friess attempted to pass to Gensler for the extra point but it was incomplete.

Dundee got their last touchdown on a very nice bit of running by Gensler as he ran wide to the left around end and then reversed his field and cut diagonally down across the field to score. Brown's kick from placement was wide and the score stood 18 to 12 with only 3 minutes left to play.

The Bulldogs regulars came back then to take the kickoff and protect the 6-point lead. In five plays they moved from their own 32 to the Viking 33, but the gun halted this drive and the game.

With the exception of the Flat Rock game Chelsea played good ball all season. That second half let-down against the Rams was their only bad lapse and it definitely cost them the title. However, they can point with pride to a very good season.

And now to Manchester and the Flying Dutchmen! This game, year in and year out, is one of the most bitterly contested rivalry games in this part of the state and always marks the finale for both teams. Past performances count little when these two teams square off in any athletic encounter and I can attest to that statement, both as a player and spectator, as can many of you reading this column.

Manchester hasn't had a very successful year, with two wins, as compared to five defeats, but a win over Chelsea would more than make up for those losses. The only common opponent both teams met was Dexter, Chelsea and Dexter opened the season here by playing to a scoreless tie, while three weeks ago Manchester bowed to this same Dreadnaught outfit 13 to 0. But don't go by that if you intend to bet the family bread money, because it doesn't mean a thing.

The Dutchmen have been plagued by injuries this year, a fate which has not bothered Chelsea to date, with the exception of Vogel. Coach McCabe has lost six of the boys who started for him against Michigan Center, due to injuries, while last week two more fell because of the eligibility rules. It's hard to turn out a winning team with luck like that.

Two men have stood out this year for the Dutchmen, both in victory and defeat. Ray Tirt at center has been the backbone of the line and Bill Cannon at fullback has been their offensive spark. Cannon also calls the signals. McCabe undoubtedly wishes he had nine more men to match these two stalwarts.

Tomorrow night at 8:00, under the lights at Manchester, let's have a larger crowd than we've had all year for the annual battle between the Flying Dutchmen of Manchester and the fighting Bulldogs from Chelsea.

See you all at game time!

County Teachers To Sponsor Public Lecture at Saline

Teachers of rural and village schools of Washtenaw county are sponsoring a free lecture at Saline High School auditorium, November 19, at 8 p.m., to which the general public is invited.

Dr. Otis A. Crosby, Senior Administrative Assistant, Department of Information Service, Detroit schools, a national authority on public relations, will be the speaker. Dr. Crosby writes syndicated articles in his field for 21 state education journals, contributes regularly to a half dozen other magazines of different types, is the author, editor or co-editor of five books.

He is a speaker of note, with a tendency to emphasize plain, practical, workable suggestions suitable for use in publicity work by almost any type of organization. As a lecturer, he is known and respected from coast to coast and border to border. He is in nearly constant demand.

The Washtenaw County District of the Michigan Education feels particularly fortunate to have secured such a distinguished and capable speaker.

It is hoped that the general public will take advantage of the opportunity to hear him.

PUBLIC CARD PARTY

The VFW Auxiliary is sponsoring a public card party and bazaar to be held at the Sylvan Town Hall, Wednesday, Nov. 19. The bazaar will open at 10 a.m. and remain open all day and evening while the card party will begin at 8 p.m. An excellent place to shop for Christmas gifts! Offered for sale will be handmade rugs, towels, pillow cases, embroidered articles, aprons, baked goods, jellies, and canned fruit. Card games will include bridge, euchre, "500," pinocchio and Pedro, with prizes for each. Admission for card party, 50 cents. Refreshments will be served.

Altar Society Has Guest Speaker at November Meeting

Mrs. George Ennen, president of the Southwestern Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women, was a speaker at the November meeting of St. Mary's Altar Society which was held Wednesday evening, November 5, in St. Mary's hall.

She took for her topic, "Catholic Action," and explained the purpose of the National Council of Catholic Women.

Miss Brown, a teacher in Jackson public schools on a year's exchange plan from England, gave a very interesting talk on the educational system in England and the life of the people there. Her talk was greatly enjoyed by the entire group present.

It was decided during the business meeting that each member was to bring a fifty-cent gift to the December meeting at which time the annual Christmas party will be held.

Refreshments were served by the month's committees, Mrs. Wm. Weber, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Ray Culhane, Mrs. J. A. Conlan, Mrs. J. A. Dumouchel, Mrs. James Dann, Mrs. Joseph Merkel, Sr., Mrs. Martha Hall and Miss Bertha Hall.

VFW Aux. To Hold Annual Bazaar Wed.

Committees and members of the VFW Auxiliary have been busy planning for the annual bazaar which this year is being combined with an evening card party. The affair is to take place next Wednesday, Nov. 19, at the Sylvan Town Hall.

The bazaar, which is to open at 10 o'clock in the morning, will remain open all day and remain open all evening during the card party which is to begin at 8 o'clock. Prizes have been planned for bridge, "500," euchre, pinocchio and Pedro, and following the games refreshments will be served.

The bazaar has been designated as a good place to do Christmas shopping as there will be offered for sale, handmade rugs, towels, aprons, pillow cases and embroidered articles, in addition to baked goods, jellies and canned fruits.

The VFW Auxiliary which calls itself primarily a service organization, with social activities of secondary interest, plans to use the proceeds of the bazaar for the "Health and Happiness Fund" for the National VFW Home at Eaton Rapids. This fund provides playground equipment, library facilities, and other advantages for the children of veterans who live at the Home.

Proceeds of the card party will be used for the hospital work of the Auxiliary, which includes parties for veterans at the various hospitals, Christmas gifts for veterans to give to their families, and the many other kindnesses extended to veterans who are confined to hospitals. It has been remarked by members who have taken part in these hospital entertainments, that it is impossible to imagine, unless one sees it himself, the great amount of happiness afforded these hospitalized veterans when they are remembered in the ways the hospital committees of VFW Auxiliaries do, with parties, gifts and little articles of comfort, not only at Christmas, but all during the year.

Proceeds of the card party are also to be used for rehabilitation work of the Auxiliary which includes aid to veterans and veterans' families in need of help.

People of this vicinity who attend this combined bazaar and card party are assured that while they will be enjoying the card party and making their purchases at the bazaar, getting full value for the money they spend, they will at the same time be helping the Auxiliary raise funds for the very worthy and necessary work of their organization.

PRINCIPAL-FRESHMAN CONFERENCE AT U. OF M.

Several deans of Michigan Junior colleges will also be on campus to interview former students who have transferred to the University.

Colonel H. D. Vogel Awarded DSM in Buffalo Ceremony

Colonel Herbert D. Vogel, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Vogel of Chelsea, and a graduate of Chelsea High school, who now is District Engineer with the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, at Buffalo, N. Y., received the Distinguished Service Medal in a ceremony held in the district offices in the Elliott Square building in Buffalo, on October 18, 1947. The presentation was made by General Joseph A. Cranston, commanding officer of the Michigan Military District, Detroit, and was witnessed by Mrs. Cranston, Mrs. Vogel, Colonel Dabney O. Elliott, engineer of the Great Lakes Division, Chicago, and the personnel and employees of the district office in Buffalo.

The citation for "meritorious and distinguished service to the government in positions of great responsibility in the Southwest Pacific from January 1944 to September 1945" was read by Lieutenant Colonel H. J. Lowe, executive officer. Included in the citation was praise of Colonel Vogel's "superior leadership, exceptional competence and unfailing devotion to duty in contributing to the success of operations in the Southwest Pacific and Japan."

During the time Colonel Vogel was in the Southwest Pacific and Japan he served as deputy assistant chief of staff at headquarters of the U. S. Army Services of Supply, then as chief of staff in the intermediate section of the same branch, and later as commanding officer at Base M, Lingayen Gulf, and finally, as assistant chief of staff, G-4, U. S. Army Service Command C.

Colonel Vogel attended the school of engineering at the U. of M. at Ann Arbor for two years following his graduation from high school here, and then went to West Point Military Academy, graduating from there in 1924. He took post-graduate work in Germany and at Berkeley, California, in addition to special work in various Army schools.

Chelsea relatives of Colonel Vogel, in addition to his parents, include a sister, Mrs. Ralph Oster; two brothers, Clarence and Philip Vogel, and a cousin, Paul Maroney.

Victim of Kidnap Plot Near Chelsea Beaten, Released

It was reported to sheriff's officers by Bertram C. Major of Litchfield, that his car had been forced off US-12 near Chelsea, Saturday, by another car, and the occupants of the other car, two men and a woman then entered his car, one of the men taking the wheel and driving to Manchester and vicinity, and back to Chelsea.

When they discovered that his wallet, which they had demanded, was empty, Major's story continued, he was beaten and threatened with death.

When the car neared Chelsea again, he said, he jumped from the car while it was still moving and walked to where he had been forced off the road and found his car parked there and the other car gone.

A report was being investigated by sheriff's officers who had been told that a car answering the description of the hold-up car was seen in Chelsea late Saturday night and that two girls were seen to get into it.

Major said he was on his way to Ann Arbor at the time of the attempted abduction, to visit his wife, a patient at University hospital.

Kiwanians Hear Guest Speaker at Monday Meeting

H. A. Lyon of the Detroit Agricultural Foundation was the speaker at the Kiwanis club meeting held Monday evening in the Municipal building. He spoke on the subject of prosperity and inflation and stated that if there is to be real prosperity without inflation it must begin with farmers increasing the production of food and products necessary for the well-being of the nation. He said one of the surest foundations for international peace was "full stomachs and warm homes."

Reports were made on the Kiwanis-sponsored amateur contest at the High school, Nov. 7 and 8, and the club voted thanks to the merchants for their contributions; the contestants, whether winners or losers, for their fine performances, and Rev. Wm. Hainsworth of Dexter, Joe Stanley of Chelsea, Mrs. Marian Rutledge of Grass Lake, and Bruce Rogatz and Clare Linn of Radio Station WHRV of Ann Arbor, for their contributions to the program which helped greatly to make the show the grand success it was.

All are invited to attend and take the opportunity to look over the many books, both fiction and non-fiction, as well as the numerous magazines and newspapers which are available for the use of children, youth and adults.

The Library Board members will be present to show you about and to explain the system and "workings" of the library. They anticipate seeing the many patrons, and extend a special invitation to the new residents of Chelsea and the surrounding townships, and to those who have not as yet inspected the quarters in the Municipal Building.

300 Persons Enjoy Farm Meeting Wed.

More than three hundred people attended the meeting called the "Patrons' Commodity Information Conference" sponsored by the Farmers' Supply company, which was held at the Municipal building Wednesday evening, November 5.

Walter Wolfgang, chairman of the Patrons' Advisory committee, presided at the meeting. Maynard Brownlee, district representative, and Anton Nielsen, owner and operator of the local company, gave reports, and Roy W. Bennett, head of the Seed department of the Farm Bureau Services spoke on the seed program. He stated that red clover was a very short crop this year, but that alfalfa was plentiful. He said this was the first time in the twenty-seven years he has been connected with the Farm Bureau Services, that one bushel of red clover seed would buy two bushels of alfalfa seed. He said ordinarily the situation is the exact reverse, and that for this reason this next year will be the one to concentrate on alfalfa.

Roy Kalmbach was elected a delegate to represent the Chelsea committee of the Farm Bureau at the State convention to be held in Lansing, December 9.

The entertainment of the evening was furnished by "The Rhythm Rangers," from station WJR, Detroit, and Marshall Wells, radio commentator and farm editor of station WJR.

"The Rhythm Rangers," a group of five young men, gave a very enjoyable half-hour program of songs and instrumental music which was very well received by the audience, as was Marshall Wells' talk, which included much humor.

Paul Niehaus led in group singing at the beginning of the program. Piano accompaniment was furnished by Mrs. Niehaus.

Coffee, cider and doughnuts was served at the close of the meeting and this was followed by inspection, by many of those present, of the WJR mobile studio, which brought the entertainers from the station to Chelsea, and which created quite a stir of curiosity on the street where it was parked.

Door prizes were awarded by Mr. Brownlee as follows: first, an electric extension cord, Franklin Van Valkenburg; second, an electric hot water heating gadget, to Glen Wiseman, and third, a flashlight, to Kenneth Proctor.

Tractor Maintenance Clubs Will Organize

Washtenaw county's 4-H tractor maintenance clubs are preparing to organize for the winter season. Last winter, six clubs were organized throughout the county with sixty boys taking part. Much worthwhile information concerning the proper maintenance and operation of farm tractors is acquired through participation in the activities of one of these clubs.

This year a more active program is to be planned. It is expected that again the work will be climaxed with a county-wide plowing contest to determine the champion 4-H plowman.

The success of these clubs is largely dependent upon the fine cooperation given by local implement dealers and 4-H leaders.

Hoffman Sisters Win First Prize of $100 Savings Bond

The Hoffman Sisters, Phyllis, Maurine, Rose Ann, Joanne and Yvonne, were winners of the first prize in the Kiwanis-sponsored amateur contest held Friday and Saturday evenings in the High school gymnasium here.

They called themselves the "South End Harmonettes," their act consisting of vocal numbers without instrumental accompaniment. The girls range in age from ten to fourteen years, the three younger ones carrying the melody while Phyllis, the oldest of the group, sings the alto and Maurine, soprano, for the harmonizing arrangements. Their first song was, "When You and I Were Sweet Sixteen." Called back for an encore, they sang "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," and after presentation of the prizes, they sang "The Anniversary Song."

Second prize winner was Donna Kalmbach for her piano solo, "Rustles of Spring." As an encore she played Tchaikovsky's Concerto.

"Corky" Dreyer and Buddy Johnson, musical comedians, were awarded third prize. They played a cornet duet, "Night and Day," accompanied on the piano by Donna Kalmbach. Their "finest" number attracted considerable applause.

Bruce Rogatz and Clare Linn, radio announcers from Station WHRV, Ann Arbor, announced the programs and Paul Niehaus announced the prize winners and presented the prizes of $100, $50 and $25 Savings Bonds as first, second and third prizes.

Mr. Linn was recently appointed talent scout for this part of the country by the American Broadcasting Co., and remarked that there seemed to be plenty of talent right here in Chelsea.

The applause meter promised was not available for judging of contestants so cards were given out to the audience to state preference for prize winners—those being listed as preference for first prize receiving three votes; second, two votes, and third, one vote. Counting of the votes by Kiwanis members took some time and during the interval, Rev. Wm. Hainsworth of Dexter entertained with pianolugues and Joe Stanley of Chelsea, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Marian Rutledge of Grass Lake, very ably rendered several marionette numbers, being called on for several encores.

Friday night's winners were Judy and Nancy Arnold of Dexter, dance team of little girls, who presented a song and dance program, accompanied on the piano by their mother, Mrs. R. W. Arnold; Donna Kalmbach, piano soloist, and Patricia Murphy, vocal soloist. All three acts appeared again in Saturday night's show, Donna Kalmbach remaining in the lead to win second prize.

A number of entrants made very good showings including David Slane, who sang "The Desert Song," Rosemary and Dolores Mathews, harmonizers from Dexter; David Savage, accordionist from Milan, and Marjorie Proctor, with her monologue.

L. Doll Leaves for Librarian Position in Tokyo, Japan

A few of them were Indian trails and early roads, women's clubs, forestry, names of cities and wild cat banking. Many heirlooms and antiques were brought by different members for exhibition. Among these was a foot warmer used in 1850 exhibited by E. J. Allmendinger. A contract for mother-teacher of Sharon township, 1887, salary $4.50 per week, was exhibited by F. G. ### OFFICE NEWS

The final football game of the season will be played November 15, at Manchester. The 4-H clubs in this area will have a party in the gym tomorrow night. The grade school PTA will meet in the Home Economics room on Wednesday, at 8:00 p.m.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Chelsea High school pupils show lack of school spirit at the football games, the opposing sides cheer louder than our side, although there are fewer present. People remark that Chelsea must not think much of their team, for they don't even cheer for it. The lack of school spirit shows not only at the football games, but also when any extra-curricular activity is planned: there is very little response. The pupils do not want to work to put on dances, plays and so on; but people think it is terrible if the activity does not turn out well-finished and well-planned. Come on! Let's show some enthusiasm!

JUS' A LITTLE BIT MORE

Howdy folks. I wuz jus' wonderin' aroun' with nottin' to do, so I asked the editor of the paper if I could jus' step in an' have a talk with you. He sed I could so, here I am.

My names Christopher an' you can't see me, but I'm here anyway. I came to talk to you about the starving people of Europe. I heard that your school is putting on a drive to send some clothes an' things to Europe an' I wuz jus' wonderin' what you kids are doin' about it. I imagine you'll say, "Oh, every member of our class is donating twenty-five cents. We are really goin' full force." But jus' stop an' think how much it would help if everyone gave just a little more. How's about if everyone gave, say, one-third as much plus their regular amount of money? Don't you think it would be worth it? Don't you think it's a little more considerate to dig down jus' a bit deeper into your pocket than to let someone starve? I gotta get outta here before I get caught in that typewriter contraption.

ATHLETIC BOARD

Dave Slane has been appointed to ask Doctor Fischer if he will consent to be present at our home football games. It was also discussed that a stretcher be purchased for the football games, in case of emergencies.

BAND NEWS

Aptitude tests will be taken by the seventh and eighth graders who participate in the band. The results of these tests will determine who will be eligible to play an instrument. Classes will be organized on basis of these tests. Anyone interested in participating in this course will be required to take the aptitude test.

FFA

The FFA boys are doing nicely on their apple project. Last Thursday they went to Munith and saw Mr. Reno's apple and onion farm. They also saw his storage houses.

CHORUS

The Chorus is planning a hayride for November 22. They have started practicing Christmas songs for the Christmas pageant.

G. A. A.

The G. A. A. basketball girls have their basketball practice well underway.

The four bowling teams, Classy Lassies, Stinkers, Roll-aways, and Five-Chicks, are getting a fine start. The Roll-aways have won the most games. The girls who have had high games so far this year are Marilyn Johnson, 158, Rita Gross 150, Doris Gibson 150, and Mary Margaret Dumouchel 148.

THE DUNDEE SCARE CROW

The pep meeting given by the Sophomore class was opened by C. Dreyer, who informed us about the Chinese version of football. Shall we say that Corky is a rather backward reader? As the curtains parted we viewed a typical (?) C.H.S. football practice. Reasonable facsimiles of our coaches were before us—each dressed in his familiar garb. ### Nancy Jane Weese, Robert Burgett Wed in Home Ceremony

Nancy Jean Weese and Robert Owen Burgett were united in marriage by Dr. James Brett Kenna of the First Methodist church, Ann Arbor, last Saturday evening, in a lovely home candlelight service.

Miss Weese is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Weese of Jackson road, and Mr. Burgett is the son of Mrs. William Bahnmiller of Dancer road.

Miss Weese, given in marriage by her father, wore a black tiered crepe skirt with blouse top of ice blue crepe, studded with crystal beads. The dress was street-length with high neckline and short sleeves. Her bouquet was three white orchids encircled with white roses and tied with white satin ribbon.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mary, who wore a two-piece beauteous red crepe dress. The torso top was studded with gold beads and rhinestones, with short sleeves, high neckline, and buttoned down the back. The skirt was draped. Her bouquet was white shasta daisy 'mums and pink dot 'mums, tied with changeable green ribbon.

Carl Lesser of Dexter, assisted the bridegroom as his best man. The ceremony was performed in the Weese home with the bay window centered with a palm with baskets of white shasta daisy 'mums and candelabra on either side, as a background.

The bride's mother wore a soft green wool dress with a corsage of yellow roses and tiny white cushion 'mums, tied with pale green ribbon. Mrs. Bahnmiller's dress was of brown crepe with ice blue trim. Her corsage was the same as that of Mrs. Weese.

Mrs. Frank Reddeman, the bridegroom's grandmother, wore light blue crepe with a white carnation corsage. Mrs. J. George Staebler of Ann Arbor, the bride's grandmother, wore black crepe, and white carnations, also.

A three-tiered wedding cake and other refreshments were served from a table decorated with white candles and a centerpiece of bronze 'mums. Mrs. M. B. Ahling, and Misses Wm. Trinkle and Harriet Stevens served the refreshments. Miss Virginia Stevens had charge of the guest book.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Ahling of Sterling, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens of Bay City and Miss Senta Ottenheimer of Chicago.

For her going away costume, Mrs. Burgett wore her wedding dress with a black double breasted short coat, black felt hat trimmed with ice blue ostrich feathers and tissue veiling, white gloves and the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

After a brief trip in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Burgett will be in their new home on the Ross farm, Maple road, Saline.

Mrs. Burgett is a graduate of Ann Arbor High school and has been employed as secretary at Maurice-Roberts, Inc., of Ann Arbor.

Mr. Burgett served two years in the Navy, with one and a half years of this period being spent on an aircraft carrier in the Pacific.

Adrian Church Is Scene of Very Pretty Double-Ring Service

The First Methodist church in Adrian was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, November 1, when Betty Jean Marshall, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Marshall of Chelsea, and Luney Marshall of Jackson, became the bride of Horace Butcher, son of Mrs. Thelma Butcher and the late A. Butcher of Manitou Beach, in a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. A. H. Wallsdelager before a background of white and yellow 'mums, and candelabras.

Robert Henson of Adrian played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Henson when she sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because," before the ceremony. The bride, attired in ivory satin with a fingertip-length veil, and carrying a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white pompons, was given in marriage by her father.

Her sister, Mrs. Alfreda Grable of Jackson, was matron of honor, and another sister, Dolores Marshall of Chelsea, and the bridegroom's sister, Helen Vasher of Jackson, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Grable wore a fitted maine colored gown and carried bronze colored Hibbard roses, while the bridesmaids in pink and blue respectively, carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Serving his brother as best man was Charles Butcher of Manitou Beach, while Harley Grable of Jackson, and Harley Vasher of Adrian, were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gray suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother, in a black suit with matching accessories, wore a corsage of yellow roses.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the Family Inn, at Adrian. One hundred guests were present from Flint, Detroit, South Lyon, Stockbridge, Morenci, Hamburg, Jackson, Britton and Chelsea.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride wearing, for going away, a brown crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Laler and two children, and Mrs. Merkel's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Doll, Sr.

ENTERTAIN FOR NIECES

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Riemen-schneider entertained for fifteen guests at their home Saturday evening following the Kiwanis Amateur Show, for the pleasure of their nieces, the Hoffman sisters, who participated in the contest and carried off the first prize honors. Out-of-town guests present were another aunt of the Hoffman girls, Mrs. Imelda McDonald, and her son, Joe, of Ann Arbor.

Refreshments were served and a very pleasant time was enjoyed, heightened by the fact that the honor guests had turned out to be the winners in the contest.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scripser of West Middle street, November 7.

The banns of marriage of Miss Isabell Kerbach and Mr. Arthur Merkel were published for the first time in St. Mary's church, Sunday.

Fred Koch caught an "albino" colored muskrat. The fur of this very rare specimen is very light in color, with a slightly yellowish tint.

The orchestra of the ME Sunday school, consisting of Mrs. Broesamle, Mrs. Houck and the McClure brothers, played for the chapel exercises held in the High school assembly room, Monday morning.

Mrs. Aron Marofsky, two daughters and son, arrived here Monday from their native home in Russia, Poland, uniting the family after eleven years.

Mrs. M. J. Dunkel on Monday entertained members of the Board of Directors of the Chelsea Screw company at a dinner in honor of Mr. Dunkel's birthday. The guests besides Mr. Dunkel, were C. Lehman, Edw. Vogel, L. P. Vogel, H. S. Holmes, P. G. Schaible and John Kalmbach.

The children of Geo. Loeffler Sr., Rogers Corners, gathered at the home Sunday to celebrate his 90th birthday.

Saturday, November 8, being the 47th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Orange P. Noah, about fifty of their friends gathered in their home and prepared a surprise oyster supper. Wm. Baird presented them with two beautiful rockers.

The storm of Sunday and Monday was a record-breaking one for the first of the season. A high wind prevailed and snow was piled up in some places from five to ten feet, in many instances completely blocking the highway, and drivers of rigs had to take to the fields to get around the drifts. The west side of Main street was a sight Monday morning. The drifted snow was above the tops of the hitching posts and the clerks were kept busy from two to six hours removing it from the sidewalks. Some of the rural mail carriers from the Chelsea postoffice were unable to cover their entire routes on account of the blocked highways.

The residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Conway on the corner of West Middle and Cleveland streets was burned to the ground about two o'clock Sunday morning. It was impossible to save any of the contents of the home. Mr. Conway, assisted by Fred Gilbert, succeeded in removing the children from the second story of the house by the use of a ladder, and had barely done so when the roof fell in.

It has a maximum lifting thrust of 5000 lbs. for the "breakaway", then the McCormick-Deering will take a load-lift of 1500 lbs. up to dump truck loading height—96 inches from ground to heel of bucket.

And when it comes to mounting, that's a job of only a few minutes. One person can quickly attach or detach the McCormick-Deering.

Hunters Are Urged To Register Selves at State Police Post

Lansing—The department of conservation and the state police are cooperating this fall to greatly expand a messenger service for deer hunters.

For several years the conservation department and the state police have invited hunters to register at their field headquarters and posts, giving their home addresses and the location of their hunting camps. This enables the state police and conservation officers to reach them in case of emergency at home.

This year the two state departments are cooperating to make this service even more efficient and convenient. Hunters may notify their families and the place where they work as to the particular conservation or state police station where they will register—the one nearest their hunting camp. Then should an emergency arise, the family or working place can phone the message to the nearest police post or conservation headquarters. That station will radio the message to the station where the hunter is registered and the message will be delivered in person. In the same manner, should something happen to the hunter, the state police or conservation officers can notify the family or place of employment.

A supply of registration cards is being distributed to the various stations this week. Fifty-eight stations will be available for registering.

Marines for 172 Years

The U. S. marine corps observed its anniversary on November 10, because it was on that day in 1775 that the continental congress authorized its formation. Since then, behind its motto "Semper Paratus" the marine corps has made tremendous history. Since 1775 its members have fought all over the world, but this generation of Americans probably will remember the marines best for their dogged, bloody conquest of Iwo Jima, that little pile of volcanic ash in the Pacific, and the superb act of securing the American flag atop Iwo's Mount Suribachi.

St. Paul's Women's Guild Met Friday

Forty-eight members and two guests were present at the November meeting of St. Paul's Women's Guild which was held at the church hall at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon, November 7.

Following the devotional service which opened the meeting, Mrs. Harold Widmayer, program chairman, presented the month's study topic, "Christian Women in Action." Mrs. Julius Eisele gave a reading, "World Community Day," which was part of the topic lesson, and included a suggestion to "give a thought to children in overseas countries when you see your own or your neighbors' children starting out for school well-dressed and well-fed, after a good night's rest in a clean bed with warm blankets." The reading was concluded with the admonition that if the world of tomorrow is to be what it should be, parents will have to teach their children well, the lesson of Christian sharing.

Reports read at the business session included one given by Mrs. Julius Eisele, War Relief chairman, stating that during the past month seven boxes of good, used clothing and three boxes of food were sent to Germany and Hungary for distribution to needy persons.

Reports on the Ann Arbor Regional Women's Guild Educational conference in Jackson, October 29, were given by Mrs. Otto Lucht and Mrs. P. G. Schaible, and other business included a vote that the Women's Guild of St. Paul's church go on record as being opposed to compulsory military training.

It was decided that next month's meeting is to be held the second Friday in December, and that it will be an evening meeting beginning at 8 o'clock. A special offering will be taken for the Orphan's Home in Detroit, instead of an exchange of gifts by members.

Sunday, November 23, was announced as the date for the annual Thank-Offering in-gathering service. All Thank-Offering boxes are to be turned in before the regular morning church service that day. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room by the month's committee, Mrs. Ernest Gauthier, Mrs. Elsie Gage and Miss Hilda Gross.

Know Your Pans To Help Avoid Waste Bake Goods

If your cakes, biscuits or other baked goods don't turn out just right, perhaps it is your baking pans, not the recipes, that are at fault.

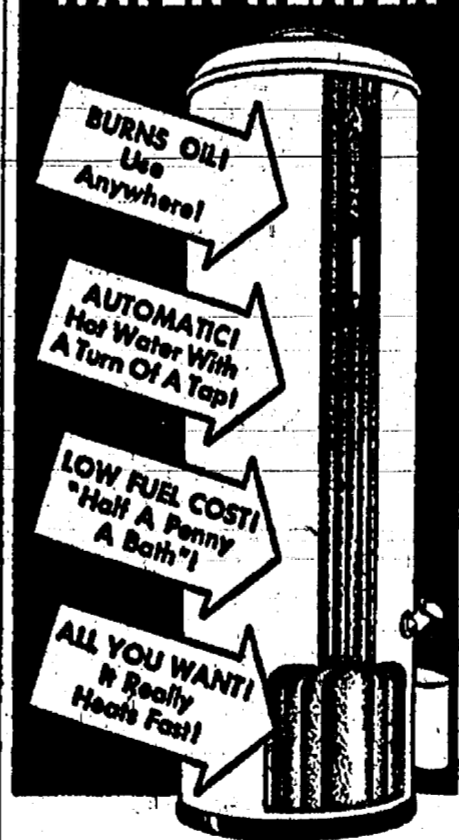

Recipes baked in the same oven for the same length of time and at the same temperature may brown quite differently in different pans. Roberta Hensley, "foods" specialist at Michigan State college, says that most test kitchens where recipes are developed use aluminum pans.

If you don't use aluminum pans you may need to change the baking time and the temperature accordingly. In general, enamelware baking pans give the deepest brown. Glass ranks next in rapid browning, especially in an electric oven. Enamelware and glass both absorb that kind of heat well. In aluminum and tin the browning is less rapid and usually more even, unless the tin is very dark, or thin and warped so that the heat is uneven.

The shape of the pan also influences browning. Cake baked in a square pan, especially if it is enamelware, is likely to become too brown at the corners. Browning is more even in pans with rounded corners. In a deep, high-sided pan biscuits and cookies of a come out too pale because the sides "shade" them from the heat. They brown better on a flat top or on the bottom of an inverted pan.

Pan size counts, too, in browning. If the pan is too large for the recipe, a cake or bread mixture may be spread too thin and become too brown. In these days of grain saving, we can't afford to throw away baked goods that have become too brown or didn't set "done."

Rural Teachers Met in Ypsilanti Saturday

Mrs. Ruth Zeeb, Mrs. Norine Whipple, Mrs. Betty Gadd, Mrs. Lucille Looze, and Mrs. Mildred Breitenwischer, all rural school teachers from this area, attended the meeting of Section VIII of the Michigan Rural Teachers' association, which was held all day Saturday in Ypsilanti.

Addresses were given in the morning and afternoon by Dr. David Trout, Dean of Students, Central Michigan College of Education, and Claude Eggertsen, assistant Professor of Education at the U. of M., respectively.

Vocal music at the opening session was furnished by the Chelsea Rural Agricultural High school chorus under the direction of Burton Gable, and was reported to have been exceptionally fine. Music at the afternoon session was furnished by the Edgewood Junior Glee club and Taylor Center Senior Glee club.

Greetings were extended at the afternoon session, by Fred Squire, president of the Michigan Rural Teachers' association, and Superintendent of Schools in Midland county. All of this part of the day's program took place at Roosevelt High school.

Sectional meetings were held at Charles McKenny Hall, where luncheon was served at noon in the cafeteria.

A group of teachers from Midland county was in charge of the sectional meeting called, "Democracy and Curricula," and planned the study period on quotations from Emerson, "Nature never rhymes her children... no two are ever alike," emphasizing the fact that each child needs individual attention in class work.

Those attending the meeting from this area reported that the program proved to be very interesting, instructive and helpful.

Some for the Books, From the '47 Season

A Brighton hunter, surprised by a woodcock flying out of thicket straight at him, forgot to shoot, batted the bird down with his gun barrel. On a marsh near Pinckney a flock of black ducks filled the till then vacant sky at precisely two minutes past closing time, prompting one irate hunter to swear the birds "must be wearing wrist watches." A Keweenaw hunter tested the effect of bird shot on a bear with two cubs, had to climb a tree. It was a small tree, and bear shook him out of it. As he ran for another, companions rescued him. A farmer living near Owosso lost a wallet with $120 in it while hunting pheasants a year ago; hunting pheasants over the same ground this season his dog found it, with the money mouldy but intact.

SHORT STORY

Good Business

By M. J. COLLINS

UNCLE JOE came stamping into the kitchen making about as much noise as a small herd of cattle. "Here! You be careful!" Aunt Martha warned, waving a large mixing spoon threateningly. "I have bread settin'. And wipe your feet, don't you dare traipse in here from that dirty old barn yard."

"God darn it, woman, you put what I was goin' to say clean out of my head," he grumbled. "Oh yes, now I remember—I think we should sell out and go live in town." There was a faraway look in his eyes and he thought of all the pleasures of retirement. Perhaps they'd buy a new car and do a little traveling.

"Huh! I'm not moving to town and leave our home just to suit a whim of yours. Just get the whole idea out of your head!" There was finality in her voice. "You go and clean up. Ralph and Jenny are coming over for supper. All your clothes are on the bed so don't ask me where they are when they're right under your nose."

We didn't have the slightest inkling of what Uncle Joe had suggested until supper was nearly over and then Aunt Martha asked:

"Do you know what your uncle wants to do?" and as she generally does, answered herself before we could even close our mouths. "Well, he wants to move to town."

"Oh, I think that's a good idea!" Jenny cried. "It'll be so much easier for you."

The first thing we knew, we were involved in a full scale battle, three against Aunt Martha, but she wasn't giving an inch. Not her! Finally she did admit that she didn't get her work done as spryly as before and from there on the battle was won.

Uncle Joe was jubilant. It had been easier than he'd dreamed.

During the next few weeks several would-be buyers came to appraise the farm and finally one of them said he would buy it. Uncle Joe and Aunt Martha had been shopping around trying to find a house in town, but getting one was a tougher proposition than they'd expected.

Eventually the sale was completed and the new owner bought the farm complete with stock and implements for ten thousand dollars. He told Uncle Joe they could have another additional two weeks to find a house and move.

Early next morning we were over at their place and into the job of packing up. About nine-thirty the new owner drove out and hailed Uncle Joe.

"I've been thinking it over, Mr. Quinn, and this place doesn't quite suit me. How would you like to buy it back at the same price?"

Uncle Joe sort of looked at him around and we all crowded around. "Well, sir, I just don't know what to say," he mumbled. "The wife has sort of set her mind on movin' to town."

"Fell, and I haven't!" Aunt Martha swung her arms around excitedly. "You buy it back, Joe Quinn, if you know what's good for you."

"Well, let's go to town," there was no reluctance in Uncle Joe's voice. "and get the papers fixed up."

We went outside leaving Aunt Martha crying softly in Jenny's arms. I watched them drive away and Uncle Joe was grinning for all he was worth.

Later when we were driving home, Jenny said, "It was lucky the man wanted to sell it back. Neither one of them wanted to leave the farm."

"Lucky my eye!" I snorted. "It was just plain convincing on Uncle Joe's part. He made an agreement to pay the owner an extra thousand if he'd come out and say what he did. Don't say a word to Aunt Martha, he told me to keep it under my hat."

"Well, what do you know," Jenny laughed. "Uncle Joe's still a bit of a glib."

"An expensive one," I grumbled. Jenny smiled to herself. There was no sense in telling him that Aunt

Martha had already paid the new owner five hundred dollars to sell the farm back to her husband. Released by WNU Features

Umstead-Burnett Vows Exchanged in Church Ceremony

Miss Marjorie Marie Umstead and Harry Eugene Burnett, Jr., were united in marriage in a double ceremony performed by Rev. Orville W. Morrow, in the Methodist church here Saturday, November 8, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The altar decorations were large baskets of white chrysanthemums in various sizes, and tall seven-branched candelabras, which held lighted white candles.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Umstead. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Burnett, Sr., of Eagle, Nebraska.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Philip Brocasamile at the organ, played "I Love You Truly" and also accompanied Miss Joyce Mae Umstead, sister of the bride, as she sang "Because." Mrs. Brocasamile also played the Wedding March.

Preceding the bride down the aisle were Miss Marjorie Gilson, her maid-of-honor, and little Margaret Frey, who acted as flower girl. Miss Gilson wore a pastel blue-brocaded marquisette gown with a sweetheart neckline, a full, gathered peplum and long, full skirt. Her bouquet was of roses, shading from pale pink to deep rose color and was finished with a matching satin ribbon, bow and narrow satin ribbon streamers. She wore a pastel blue shoulder-length veil, held in place with a tiny cap made of laced bands of matching tulle.

The flower girl, in a short, white dress, with rosette arrangements of red and tiny pink rosebuds in her hair, carried a basket of flower petals and scattered them in the path of the bride who followed with her father, who gave her away.

The bride's gown was of white slipper satin with a long, fitted bodice, fastened down the back with a closely set row of satin-covered buttons. A bouffant-effect skirt was achieved with an inset yolk having a scalloped outline at the top and bottom and attached at the low waistline. The gown had a long train, long sleeves ending in a pointed outline over the hands, and a sweetheart neckline finished with piping of satin which she writes. You can give it an extra tang, too, with diced raw cucumbers or crumbled fried bacon.

MUSTARD CREAM POTATO SALAD

8 medium potatoes
1/2 c. mayonnaise
1/2 c. evaporated milk
1/2 c. vinegar
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. onion, chopped
1/2 c. celery, diced
1 tsp. celery salt

Cook potatoes in their jackets until tender. When cold, skin and dice. For dressing combine sugar, mustard, milk, vinegar and salt; beat thoroughly. Toss together lightly potatoes, onion, celery, celery salt and salad dressing to moisten. Chill before serving. Add hard-cooked egg if desired. Serves 6.

Early Compasses

The compass was probably the first instrument sailing men devised to help them steer a true course. First direct written reference to the compass which has survived is that of Alexander Neckham, an abbot of St. Albans, in England, who described it as a magnetic needle "six inches long, or longer, on a pinne" that was thrust crosswise through a straw or splinter of wood and floated on the surface of water in a bowl. It was the compass which sustained the courage of Columbus, Vasco da Gama and the other great discoverers. But compasses often stuck, and when a vessel hit rough seas, the oscillations of the needle rendered it useless. It showed direction, but did not help the mariner to discover where he was.

Canned Pears

Pears can be very tasty with a small amount of sugar used in canning.

matched the trimming on the tiara of net which held her double finger-tip veil. Small clusters of orange blossoms made of pearls were fastened at either side of the tiara. Her bouquet was of white roses and tiny cushion mums. It was finished with wide white satin bows and streamers of white satin ribbon with tiny mums tied in at intervals.

Edmund K. Miller, Jr., assisted the bridegroom as best man, and Richard Umstead, brother of the bride and Willard Frey were the ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception for seventy-five guests was held in the church parlors. Yvonne Currier of Detroit, a cousin of the bride, and La Vaughn Lantz, poured. Mrs. I. J. Tieman of Centerline, the brides' aunt, cut the cake, and Mrs. Edmund K. Miller, Jr., was in charge of the guest book.

Guests were present from Eagle, Neb., Detroit, Centerline, Royal Oak, Birmingham, Pinckney, Ann Arbor and Chelsea.

Upon their return from a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Burnett will make their home in the Frey apartments on Sibley road. For going away the bride wore a black suit and hat. Her corsage was of white pompons.

The bride and bridegroom are both employed at Argus, Inc., in Ann Arbor. The bride is a graduate of Chelsea High school with the class of 1946, while the bridegroom graduated from the Northeast High school in Lincoln, Nebraska, in 1943. The latter served in the U. S. Navy for three years and was honorably discharged in 1946.

A kitchen shower was given for the bride by Mrs. Edmund K. Miller and Miss Marjorie Gilson at the home of Miss Gilson on Thursday, October 30.

Appliance Operating Cost

The cost of operating any piece of equipment is based upon the kilowatt hours used, multiplied by the cost per kilowatt hour. A kilowatt hour is 1,000 watts used for one hour. To illustrate, if a refrigerator consumes 200 watts and runs for one hour, it would use 200 watt-hours, or one-fifth of a kilowatt hour. All electrical bills are calculated on the basis of kilowatt-hours, so the refrigerator would use one-fifth of a kilowatt hour for each hour it runs. Based on a cost of 2 cents per kilowatt hour the cost of operation would be one-fifth of two cents, or two-fifths of a cent for each hour it actually operates. The same method is used to calculate the cost of operation of any piece of equipment.

Research Botanist Finds New Spray To Kill Crabgrass

Spray material that gives promise of killing crabgrass and does not damage bluegrass, clover and other lawn grasses has been found by Dr. B. H. Grigaby, Michigan State college research botanist.

The spray material isn't on the market and perhaps will not be for a year or more. Further tests must be made to determine the recommendations for its most effective and practical use.

Preliminary tests were promising enough to indicate the oil base spray material may answer the previously unsolved problem of crabgrass eradication by chemical means.

The oil base spray is an experimental material developed by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) which is supporting a part of the research conducted by Dr. Grigaby for the Michigan State College Agricultural Experiment station.

Young crabgrass dies in from 5 to 10 days when sprayed with this product. So do other grasses like foxtail. But the perennial grasses—the ones you like in your lawn—are practically undamaged. The killer has shown no indications of lasting effect on bluegrass, Bermuda grass, fescue, red top, orchard grass, clover, bent grass or perennial ryegrass.

Merits of the spray on crops have not been determined but experiments are under way to find if it can be used in killing crabgrass in nursery crops, cotton and corn without damaging the crops.

Dr. Grigaby has found the oil base spray compatible with broadleaf weed killers like the ester of 2,4-D.

The average yield of vitamins is greater in cabbage harvested in May, according to recent tests.

Nothing to be removed until settlement is made.

HELEN M. VALANT, Owner

IRVING KALMBACH, Auctioneer JOE WOLSKI, Clerk

YOU look over those long, clean lines, free and flowing as the wind—and you say "Aye!" to that.

You slip behind the ready wheel, settle yourself in deep, soft cushions—and once more the "Ayes" have it.

You finger the little buttons that run the door windows up or down, test out the control that at a touch positions the front seat for you—and those things win your nod.

Now put foot to treadle. There's the quick answer of eight big Fireball cylinders, tossing down a challenge to go adventuring.

Look over the top. A pull on a knob will swing it back out of the way—yet you find it tight and snug against the nippest of November winds.

Make a little test run, picking out roads not noted for their smoothness.

They're ironed level by four coil springs, cushioned by Safety-Ride rims that get 25-lb. softness from standard 30-lb.-pressure tires.

You test the wheel, the brakes; the room, the road-hugging steadiness. They all win "Ayes" as America's most wanted automobile shows why it is just that.

Centered here are all the good things you want in a car—including style that stands all alone for sheer beauty and as a forecast of coming things.

So why hold back?

Be as smart as those who've gone before you and get your order in, with or without a car to trade, soon as you can.

If your telephone grew in SIZE the way it's growing in VALUE...

It's a good thing we don't have to make your telephone bigger every time we make it possible for you to call more people. You'd have to move out of the house to make room for the telephone.

Except for the increasing size of your telephone directory, you may not realize how the telephone system is being enlarged. We're adding thousands of new telephones every month.

Each of these new telephones means someone else you can call. It may be a butcher, a baker, a hardware store, a doctor or lawyer or druggist. Or it may be a friend or relative you've not been able to reach until now.

The point is that each new telephone means more errands your telephone can run for you... more jobs it can do for you. It's getting more valuable every day.

played by D. Maroney. Mr. Newkirk by A. Mubach. Coached by Newkirk, B. Robbins and D. Meyers made many flying tackles at the dummy. C. Dreyer, although only a few of them were successful. The cheerleaders then led a cheer. Following this, speeches were given by Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cameron. Football practice resumed and ended with the downfall of the "Dundee Spy" played by R. Toney.

The last talk was given by Coach Newkirk and the pep meeting ended with the cheer "Yeah team!"

ON THE WINDY SIDE OF THE FIELD

Here is your wind-blown roving reporter commenting on the game which was watched by a mere handful of bundled spectators who braved the gusty winds.

Since the weather was damp and cold, those short skirts were unpopular before the game was over. The Dundee cheerleaders adopted a new idea by wearing their coats to cheer, but the Chelsea cheerleaders braved the cold and removed their coats.

Don't you think a worth-while project for some group could be to provide a permanent, closed senior stand? Those shivering seniors had a hard time attempting to heat the wieners and keep themselves warm.

Hoping the weather man may be kinder at the Manchester game tomorrow night, your reporter signs off.

SENIOR NEWS

The Seniors have received a plaque from the Curtis Publishing company, stating that they have sold more magazines this year, per capita, than any other school in the United States. The total of their sales was $1,820.20, and they have only forty members.

The committees for the play have all started to work and they are confident that it will be a great success. It is to take place on December 5, 1947.

SEVENTH GRADE NEWS

The seventh graders are giving reports in Geography. Lyndall White has given the most with twenty. Joyce Messner has given sixteen; Dixie Lee Rowe, fifteen; Priscilla Yoell, thirteen and Donna Hinderer, ten.

The seventh grade boys defeated the eighth grade boys in a "touch" football game, 18-0. Scores were Thanksgiving program, Wednesday, November 18, for the grade children, and Thursday afternoon, November 20, from 2:15 to 3:00 for parents. The scene is a Pilgrim home. Eminger, who was born near Jerusalem corners and moved to Chelsea when he was a year old, grew up here, and attended the Chelsea schools, died Thursday, November 6, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Baum in Brighton, following a four-month illness. He had lived in Detroit for a number of years.

His mother and foster father, the late Frederick and Matt Albert, lived for many years on West Middle street just west of the Winters lot.

Survivors include two sons, Harold and Ernest, the daughter, Gertrude (Mrs. Joseph Baum); a sister, Mrs. Mary Miller of near Niles, formerly of Chelsea; twelve grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in Detroit at 8 o'clock, Saturday afternoon.

Prissy's Got a Man! (Maybe)

Yesterday Sis Martin, our librarian, found an article cut from their file copy of the Clarion. When she compared it with another copy that I gave her she found it was my column on "How to Keep a Husband Happy."

Nothing unusual about that. Except the last person seen reading the paper was Prissy Hoakins (our town's proverbial Old Maid).

Well, if Prissy has finally got a man, more power to her. And more tolerance to both of them ... because that's what my column was about: Tolerance of a husband's taste for old hats, old pipes, old friends, and mellow beer. And tolerance on the husband's part of a wife's tastes and habits.

From where I sit, nobody begrudges Prissy taking that clipping from the Clarion. But I'd like to hint that if she'd just subscribe, she'd get my thoughts on tolerance firsthand. And in return I'll treat her to a glass of beer.

BIOGRAPHIES

What's this? A very bewildered stork, looking from one house to another, dropped a nice little bundle at the Schiller household at Lima Center. This was in 1929, but now Miss Pauline Lillian Schiller is at the bright age of 18. To her senior classmates she is known as "Schiller." Being a cheerleader is her favorite pastime.

Home Ec., the color blue, and fried chicken are also her favorites, but listening to "Peg O' My Heart" tops them all. After graduation Miss Schiller intends to continue school.

There is a "hep-cat" in the Senior class. Say! She must be the queen of hep or do they call her "Queenie" for some other reason? Maybe "Queenie" is better known to some of you as Dorothy Laban. Dot was born in Richmond, Michigan, on June 7, 1930.

Some of the things "Queenie" is interested in suggest that she is a "hep-cat." You see if you don't think so too; they are: hobby, jittersbugging and being a "soda jerk"; sport, bowling and basketball; subject, typing; color, blue; food, chicken; song, "Sentimental Reasons."

After graduation, "Queenie" is going to be busy working.

Unusual Railroad from Adrian to Toledo Carries Neither Passengers or Freight

One of the world's most unusual railroads is mentioned on a bronze tablet imbedded in a boulder on the Adrian courthouse grounds.

The railroad earns $30,000 yearly, in spite of the fact that it has neither carried freight nor collected a fare in 98 years.

Called the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad, it stretches between Toledo and Adrian. It was chartered April 22, 1838, essentially to replace to the inland waterways of the United States and thence to the world, the produce of the farmlands in the Adrian region.

The line has been unique from its beginning. For according to the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan, the financing, construction and operation of the railroad attracted considerable attention, even in Europe.

The first horse-drawn train trundled its way over the 33-mile route on Nov. 2, 1836. Travelers on this, the first railroad west of Schenectady, N.Y., were charged $1.50 one way. The train ran on no definite schedule the first few months, then operated once a day each way.

Its first coach had three compartments, with the center one raised to provide a baggage space underneath. The conductor walked on a small rail outside the coach.

Freight and passengers were carried on the same train, although not in the same cars.

In 1837, the railroad acquired a locomotive. With its original wood track altered to bear the weight of the steam engine, the railroad operated until Aug. 9, 1849, when it was leased to the Michigan Southern Railroad.

The $30,000 the Erie and Kalamazoo earns yearly is the annual payment on the perpetual lease. Each year the stockholders meet in Adrian to receive the check, and after taxes and expenses are deducted, a dividend is declared.

The railroad in its early days also had the right to issue banknotes. From 1850 to 1860, its notes were in general circulation in Michigan. There are some Erie and Kalamazoo banknotes and a bank ledger in the Michigan Historical Collections.

U.N. Facts and Faces . . . . . INDIA

India, whose record goes back into the dim era at the dawn of history, is one of the world's newest independent nations. Created from the predominantly Hindu parts of what was British India, the new country shares the Indian "subcontinent" with largely Moslem Pakistan, also created from British India. One of the most densely peopled countries in the world, India's 300,000,000 inhabitants live in some 1,200,000 square miles. Agriculture is the principal industry, although manufacturing is making important gains. Her permanent representative at United Nations Headquarters is Dr. P. P. Pillai. India's flag has saffron, white and green horizontal stripes with a 24-spoke wheel.

MIRROR

an affirmative, positive reminder that Detroit's "know how" of making things through mass production was achieved only by competitive free enterprise and that we still live in "the golden age of opportunities unlimited."

"Since I have retired," he said, "I have organized several new companies. One is the Utopian Transportation Company, Limited, and that is a non-profit organization. I am trying to raise a few funds, and you can help in your little community, to give free transportation to these people who think this is a lousy country.

"The only thing about the Utopian Transportation Company that is limited is that the transportation is limited to one direction.

"The other company I have is a stock-selling company known as United States Preferred. I am trying to sell that, and I am getting along pretty well. Of course, a poor inventor like myself doesn't understand a lot of things that are going on, and apparently other people don't either.

"One of the things I don't understand is why this country is called upon to make up the deficits for all the cockeyed European ideologies and stop our own work while we are doing it. I don't understand that one at all.

"We didn't start this war, we just got in and tried to help a little. I was talking to Harvey Campbell this morning, and he said, 'You are all wrong.' He said, 'If a fellow is in the gutter, you either have to get in with him or help him out.' I said 'No, not if he put himself in there.' I don't intend to get into the ditch at all, and most of the fellows in the ditch would have had us there, so I can't be too sympathetic.

"When it comes to starving, I would like to help on that a little bit, but it is not a part of that to get sentimental over the guys that were trying to lick us. I can't get sentimental over that at all.

"So when I talk about United States Preferred, that is what I mean."

Kettering's remarks, philosophical and often humorous, were timely because they served to remind us that America's greatness has been built on the development and use of superior machines. According to a survey, the average machine investment per worker in America is $6,000. Who is going to put up this $6,000? Any citizen who is willing to save money and to risk it as an investment for profit.

Back in 1870 the average American worker worked 60 hours a week. He earned $9.60. Compared with 1947 real dollars, that would be worth $16.56. By 1908 he got $12 a week for 60 hours' work. Today, he gets $60 a week and works 40 hours—all because of the American system of free enterprise, risking money for profit.

There is no place in the world where this is true. So, don't sell the United States short for socialism or other European ideologies. Why not buy a few shares in Kettering's United States Preferred?

Mrs. Frank Arnet and son, Gerald, of Detroit, were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Arnet's sister, Mrs. Tillie Young. Miss Christina Bauer of Ann Arbor, was a dinner guest there on Sunday.

Animal Hair in Demand

There's a heavy demand for animal hair as insulation for refrigerators and as vibration and sound absorbers in other electrical appliances.

Used Fans at Bites

Fans were used in religious ceremonies by the Christian church during the Middle Ages. Deacons waved them to drive flies and insects from the sacramental vessels.

Pumping Man

"Pumping" the ham is additional safeguard against spoilage. The pumping is done before the meat is placed in the brine. Allen says one and one-half ounces of pickle solution per pound of meat and distribute it uniformly along the bone area with a meat pump.
