100-Year-Old Landmark Is Moved from Pritchard Farm

Top Story Removed for Cross-Country Trip to New Site

Another old landmark was moved recently from the "project" property south of Chelsea, during recent weeks.

This latest house to be moved is the Pritchard home, which stood for almost a hundred years on the Pritchard road farm whose latest occupants were Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Wahl. It has been moved to an acre plot of ground on Old Us-12 purchased by Norwood Bush from Jacob Mohrlock. This is a part of the place that has been in the Mohrlock family for many years and is situated on the north side of the road across from the main part of the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Wahl will make their home in the house.

The appearance of the house is now changed considerably because it was necessary to remove the upper portion which contained two rooms and was in the form of a porch. The new porch is in the very front of the house. The removal of this portion was made so that the house could be moved without encountering too much obstruction in the way of trees and wires. Also removed before starting the three-mile move to the new location were two rooms in a lean-to which were formerly used as a bedroom and kitchen.

The house now gives the appearance of a bungalow, the pillared front porch still remaining as it was originally.

The house was built by George Begole whose parents settled on the farm which they took up from

The campaign will be conducted without set quota in accordance with rules governing money-raising projects in parochial schools, which are primarily educational.

Easter Seals Being Sold by Kiwanis Club

The sixteenth annual sale of Easter Seals in Michigan began on March 17 and ends Easter Sunday, April 17, it was officially announced by Emmet Richards of Alpena, president of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. It is a three-way campaign, national, state and local, but more than 90 per cent of the money raised remains in Michigan.

The Easter Seal sale, sponsored by an organization now in its 28th year of service, is the Society's only means of support. The Society maintains its own identity but cooperates with all agencies both public and private. The Easter Seal sale does not involve a highly personalized solicitation method. It does not seek contributions from just a few, rather, every citizen of Michigan is afforded an opportunity to contribute.

In Chelsea the Kiwanis club has again organized its effort to give everyone in the community an opportunity to purchase these Easter Seals. A committee has been appointed and seals will be mailed out this week. An envelope for the purchaser's remittance will be enclosed, making it convenient and easy to send payments in return.

Members of the committee are Paul F. Niehaus, Rev. O. W. Morrow, and H. T. Moore.

Easter seals make the following possible: wheel chairs, braces, special equipment, crutches, transportation and from clinics, hospitals and schools; healthful specialized summer camping and other recreational experiences; home tutoring for those unable to attend school; boarding care, and many other services depending upon individual needs.

In addition to the above, money derived from this year's sale of Easter seals will assure the continuance of 30 Rheumatic Fever Diagnostic and control centers throughout the state. This disease alone kills five times more children each year than does infantile paralysis, diphtheria, measles, meningitis.

GEORGE ENGLISH
Old Friends Help George English Mark 85th Birthday

George English, whose 85th birthday occurred on Monday, March 21, was honored with a surprise celebration of the event on Sunday evening at his home on South Main street. A dozen friends and neighbors spent an enjoyable evening with Mr. and Mrs. English and were served ice cream and cake. The birthday cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Walter Beutler.

Mr. English was born in Hartwick, Otsego county, New York, Mar. 21, 1864. His father, Rev. J. D. English was a Methodist minister.

Mr. English came to Michigan in December 1881, and lived in Detroit until July, 1882, when he came to Chelsea. He was married to Miss Frances Cooley on Nov. 22, 1883, and they lived on her father's farm (now owned by Paul F. Seitz) for four years. They then went to Orland, Ind., where they lived for eight years, returning to Chelsea in 1896. They lived for 24 years on the Manchester road farm now owned by the Pielemers, and have lived in their present home since 1920.

Mr. English and his wife have been active in the work of the LaFayette Grange for many years. He is a life member of the Masons and of the OES, and is a member of the Congregational church.

Grass Fires Full-Time Job for Volunteers

Pumpkin College School Damaged by Overheated Stove

Grass fires have kept members of the Chelsea Fire department on the run the past week. In addition, the department was called out for a chimney fire on Sunday and for a fire at the Pumpkin College schoolhouse Monday evening.

Tuesday of this week was the worst day of all the past hectic week, according to Tom Young, assistant fire chief. Three alarms were answered beginning at 1:15 p.m., when a grass fire threatened buildings at the Spring Lake Cabins on North Territorial road. The equipment had hardly been returned to town before another call came. A grass fire was raging on the west side of the Michigan Consolidated Gas company's storage tank in the eastern part of the village. A grass fire on the south side of the storage tank had necessitated a call to the fire department Monday evening about 7:15. After burning off grass around the tank to forestall another call, the scene, the firemen were told of a plot of grass behind the pumping station in the western part of town that seemed dangerous, so the firemen went out and supervised the job of burning this off. They were barely finished with this when the third call came.

A grass fire behind the D. Mayer residence on South Main street, spread rapidly across the peat marsh behind the Klump residence a block away, and was getting close to the old peat plant when the fire alarm was given.

There were two grass fires last Friday, the first one about 2 p.m. on the Mrs. Fred Young farm on Manchester road and US-12, and the second about 4:30 p.m., near the Harold Messner home on West Middle street.

The chimney fire Sunday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, was at the Joseph Ball home on Lima Center road.

The fire at the Pumpkin College schoolhouse called the firemen out almost before they had put out the last of the grass fire. The schoolhouse was damaged by an oil-burning heater, which is always kept burning, apparently overheated and set fire to the place. A hole was burned in the floor, and desks and furnishings were badly scorched. The telephone and a radio were twisted out of shape by the intense heat.

The 25 pupils of Pumpkin College, representing classes from beginners through the sixth grade, are being transported to the Savage school on Visel road at Pierce road.

Savage school was opened Wednesday morning so that pupils lost only one day of school because of the fire. The teacher is Miss Kathryn Miller.

The Blacks plan to continue the services of dinners, luncheons, and catering to special parties.

AT THE ANNUAL State FFA Convention held in East Lansing, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 22, 23, Keith Bradbury (right) was chosen "State Farmer." Oscar Bareis (left) was also a member of the local FFA delegation which attended the sessions.

Honor K. Bradbury as 'State Farmer' at FFA Convention

Keith Bradbury, a member of the FFA Chapter of Chelsea High school, was awarded the coveted State Farmer degree Tuesday at the Michigan State FFA meeting in East Lansing. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bradbury, 9875 Jackson road.

The award is made on the basis of farm projects carried through, which in Keith's case are sheep, dairying, and hogs.

He has been outstanding also in leadership in the local chapter of which he was treasurer for one year and is serving as president this year.

He was active in planning the FFA summer trips to Wisconsin three years ago and to Canada two years ago, and was a member of the parliamentary procedure team of the local FFA chapter. This team placed first in the District FFA meeting at Saline, March 1, as did the other two entries from Chelsea, Walter Zeeb, Jr., in public speaking, and Zeeb and Kenneth Proctor, Jr., in an irrigation demonstration.

Portion of M-92 Gets 'Face-Lifting' Job

A RADICALLY CHANGED APPEARANCE in the landscape now greets motorists at the junction of M-92 and Werknor roads about two miles north of Chelsea, where Washtenaw County Road Commission crews have removed a steep hill which formerly jutted out to the very edge of the road at the intersection. The above photo, taken from a point on M-92 at the road fork, shows the changed appearance of the scene. The hill formerly extended to a height of about three-fourths that of the telephone pole shown in the right center of the picture.

People who frequently travel M-92 north of Chelsea have probably become familiar with the greatly changed appearance of the turn at the junction with Werknor road. Others however, who seldom travel that way, will probably be confused and think they have made a wrong turn somewhere. The reason for this is easily understood by examining the above picture of the corner which was taken recently.

This shows a nicely-graded corner field on the Unstead property, affording an unobstructed view of M-92 for a considerable distance northwest of the turn when traveling away from Chelsea, and south of the curve when coming toward Chelsea.

Motorists who traveled the road during the many years when vision was obscured for some distance both ways from the turn by a sharp hill extending to the very edge of the road, could be excused if they found it hard to believe that they were traveling on M-92 at this point.

The work of removing the hill and using the dirt thus obtained for fill-ins on Werknor road, has been in progress since the first of the year and is being done by the County Road Commission under the direction of Superintendent-Manager Kenneth L. Hallenbeck's office in Ann Arbor.

The huge gasoline-powered shovel used in digging away the dirt on the Unstead hill is now being used across the road on hills on the Gaunt and Kiss farms. Also on the job are a motor grader and two trucks. The banks on these two farms are being cut back for quite a distance and some of the dirt removed is being used to build up the grade on M-92 to meet Werknor road which also has been undergoing extensive improvement.

According to a statement made to The Standard by Mr. Hallenbeck, "The work now being done is actually another step in a rather long history of road improvements which will eventually give the motorists of that area a surfaced road from Chelsea north to the Territorial road."

"A few years before the war, a portion of the Stoffer (townline) road was graded from the Territorial road south, principally to raise it out of snow pockets. During the war on the Werknor road and near the intersection of that area a surfaced road was lowered somewhat, the dirt therefrom being used to raise a nearby low place, which in effect lowered the hill even more, as far as this point."

The fine cooperation received by us from adjacent land owners has made these improvements possible as with needing gravelly material for filling we received the farmers' permission to enter their fields and remove this material which also removed "blind" corners and eliminated places where snow drifted and blocked the road," Mr. Hallenbeck stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hartman and son Jimmy, were Sunday evening supper guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman. In the evening they all went to Grass Lake to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hartman.

A number of the members of the Youth Fellowship of the Methodist church are planning to attend the district rally to be held in Ypsilanti Friday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Breitenwischer were dinner guests Wednesday evening at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Britten, in Jackson, the occasion being a celebration of Mrs. Britten's birthday which was on Wednesday, and her mother's, which occurred the next day.

ingitis and whooping cough combined. It will assure the maintenance of the Society's state-wide program of Occupational Therapy and craft service to the severely handicapped, homebound cripple, over 600 of whom are being served at the present time, and which for many of them have remunerative value. It will also make possible the continuance of the Society's highly specialized services for the cerebral palsied who rank high in the most severe crippling conditions. These children were not being properly considered until the Society initiated its clinical and treatment program. During the past year, nine cerebral palsy clinics were conducted by its nationally known consultant, and as a result, over 300 are under treatment.

Many more services could be enumerated, suffice to say, the need for generous support is greater today than ever before. The above and other needed services must be maintained and developed in order that greater good may accrue to a greater number of crippled persons in Michigan.

Tracing the history of the Society, Mr. Richards states, "The challenge of 25 years ago that gave birth and impetus to our Society has not diminished and the challenge before us today and for the future should stir us all to renewed and increased effort. No physically handicapped person in Michigan must be denied the privilege afforded his more favored fellows. A great task—a greater challenge—and we pledge our selves to meet it."

4-H's Give Mothers Preview of Spring Achievement Show

Mothers of the 4-H "Learning by Doing" clothing club members last Saturday afternoon witnessed a preview of the coming 4-H Achievement Style Show which will be held Tuesday afternoon, April 5, at Ann Arbor High school. All winter projects of the county will be exhibited that day. A skit was presented by the girls in the Good Grooming class. Linda Bradbury gave a talk on the aims and the possibilities of 4-H club work. Mrs. Anna Brown, County Home Demonstration Agent, was a welcome guest.

Girls in the style review were Joann Bateson, Elsie Zwaan, Joan Shepard, Lottie Maeder, Margie Bradbury, Hildegarde Maeder, Betty Bradbury, Barbara Kuhl, Katherine Fleming, Phyllis Brouniger, Arlene Haist, Linda Bradbury, and Audrey Coy.

Girls showing knitted articles were Olive Ann Reddeman, Marlene Kuhl, Joann Bateson, Elsie Zwaan, Joan Shepard, Lottie Maeder and Margie Bradbury.

Leaders of this group are Mrs. Mary Hasselwerth, Mrs. Marie Coy and Mrs. Katherine Reddeman.

The girls served refreshments of cake, ice cream, coffee and grape-ade.

This Saturday evening, April 2, they have planned a theatre party to conclude a pleasant winter of worthwhile projects.

The Hi-Light

Edited by the Journalism Club of the Chelsea Public School

CO-EDITORS
Joyce Hughes M. E. Palmer
Mae Slane—General Manager

School will close tomorrow evening and remain closed until the morning of April 11 for spring vacation.

School will be closed on the afternoon of Good Friday.

The spring speech contest, which is planned by the State High School Forensic Association, will be held in the study hall of the Chelsea High school on April 12 at 7:30. The four schools participating are: Milan, Saline, Adrian, and Chelsea.

IS IT NECESSARY?

The doorbell rings at the Jordan residence. Leaving her mid-morning work, Mrs. Jordan hurries to answer it.

"Oh, the carpenter! Come right in. I've been expecting you. A little late, aren't you?"

"Yes, madam. But you see, I had a few odd jobs to do this morning and I was in such a hurry that I forgot to bring my hammer and saw. You wouldn't mind, would you, if I used yours?"

"What a foolish thing to ask! How absurd that a carpenter should go to a job expecting to have his tools furnished by someone else. Yet, let us see what is going on around us in school practically every day."

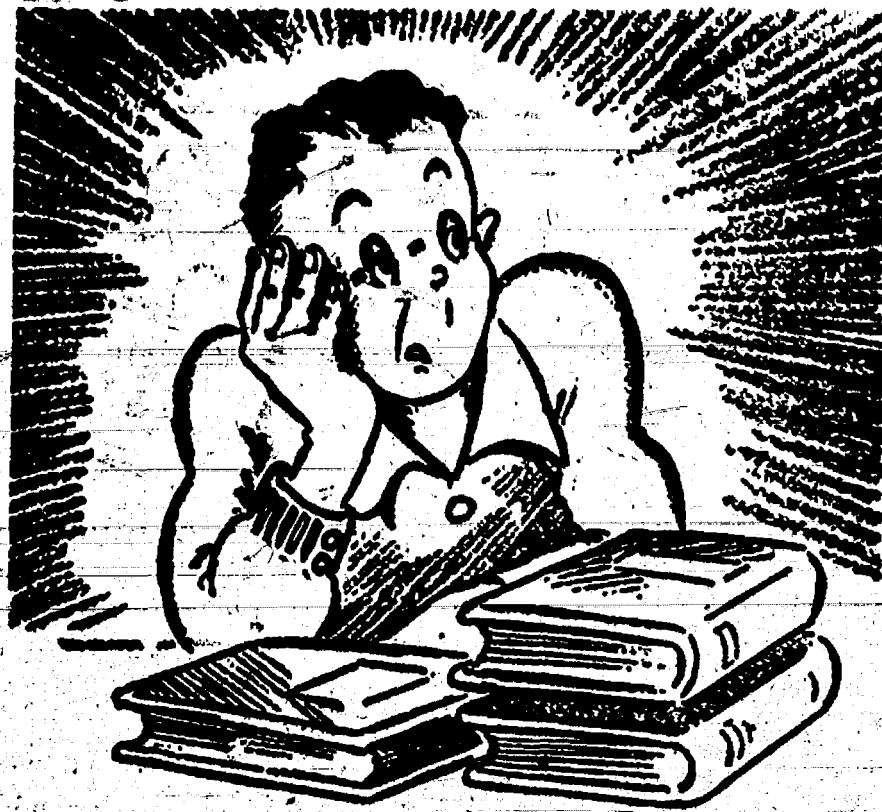

"Oh, Jim, I left my history book home. I wonder if you'd let me use yours?"

"I lost my pencil; Sandra, may I use yours?"

"Haven't any paper. Would you lend me some, Bob?"

Depending upon others for their tools may be justly compared with the carpenter mentioned above. Such individuals come to school without books, pencils, and other necessary equipment, and expect the students or teachers to furnish them. How do these individuals expect to complete the day's work?

Spring Fever . . .

"UMM-M-M--WHAT WAS THE QUESTION, AGAIN?"

satisfactorily if they haven't even the tools with which to work?

A workman, in any line of physical or mental labor, cannot do his work properly unless he is properly equipped. Self-reliant individuals do not impose on others by asking them to furnish such tools.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

"Should Students Be Given the Responsibility of Taking Over the Study Halls?" As you might expect, the answers to this question were numerous. Behind all of the answers was very good reasoning. The facts are being presented to you to draw your own conclusions. Some of the answers in favor of this question were: It gives a person experience in leadership; it would create a sense of responsibility which all students should possess. It also may give them more confidence in themselves.

Those opposed answered as follows: The students would take advantage of the opportunity and turn the study period into a playhouse. Students are not likely to cooperate. One person stated, "What are teachers for anyway? It's their job."

Naturally, there were a few unreasonable and silly answers to this question, such as these: It would be fun; it's a change from the same old way; a chance to loaf, and similar reasons.

But, as in all things, the little word IF enters into it. If the students would cooperate, IF it would work, and the most important, IF the school board would approve.

REMEMBER THE GOOD OLD DAYS . . .

when 4th and 7th hour study halls got out of school promptly. . . when Seniors had skip days, or were allowed to have those days. . . when Marlene and her girl friends didn't get stuck on lonely roads.

when Senior boys went with Senior girls. . . when you could sit in study hall without even passing one note. . . when there were more field trips.

when the FFA boys didn't always try to sell something during noon hours or after school. . . when Stoffer could get out of school for important appointments.

when Journalism club didn't have its officers in other organizations. . . when the girls' basketball team could win more games. . . when Chemistry class made those rotten-egg odors.

when All-High parties were just for high school students. . . When Canonball didn't use his defense weapon in study hall.

SENIORS VISIT CAPITOL

The polka dot tie moved, the "rooster tail" stood up, the face smiled and the voice of the big man said, "How are you?" It was Governor Williams shaking hands with lucky members of the Senior class.

How did all of this begin? Well, about 8:30 Tuesday, March 22, ten cars left for Lansing.

Until 12:30, when a tour was conducted, everyone explored the capitol building as he chose. The tour began with the long, long climb to the top of the capitol dome, where the class was allowed to walk around the outside of it. Next, the Supreme Court room was visited. Here were paintings on the walls of former important Chief Justices of Michigan. Many interesting facts about the court, its history, and the room itself, were explained.

The group then went to the House of Representatives, which convened at 2:00 p.m., and everyone witnessed the procedure as well as many other fascinating incidents.

The Senate proved to be interesting also, when its session began at 3:00 p.m. The class was formally introduced in the House by our representative, Mr. Warner, and in the Senate by Senator Higgins.

FINAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENTS

The Senior girls, class champions, tangled with the female faculty members in a tip-off basketball game last Thursday. A very important factor in the game was the referees, Mr. Cameron and Mr. Magiera.

For the first time in many years the faculty had enough for a team. The starting line-up for the faculty was: forwards, Miss DeRose, Miss Bailey, Mrs. Martin; guards, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Rasmussen, Miss Kompass; substitute, Miss Sutherland. The seniors' line-up was: forwards, J. Hughes, M. Slane, J. O'Dell; guards, M. Palmer, M. Roberts, D. Kalmbach; substitute, M. Heydlauff.

After a little practicing, the whistle blew and the game started. There was not too much action in the first quarter, but the second period speeded up a little. The score at the half read 7 to 4, in favor of the seniors. During the half, the teachers must have taken some vitamin pills, for they came back with a great deal of pep. With one minute to go, the faculty was leading by two points. M. Slane then tipped in a basket, but it was not counted. The referees ruled she took a double dribble in the air. Boy! that is something different!

Before the seniors had a chance to score again the game ended.

The final score was 11 to 9 in favor of the faculty.

The next day the announcements read, "Lost: two pairs of glasses. Please return to Mr. Magiera and Mr. Cameron." Could this refer to the refereeing of the game?

STUDENT MEETINGS

The annual student meetings were held last Wednesday, March 23. The girls from grades seven through twelve met in study hall, with Joyce Hughes presiding. The discussion centered around new courses, such as driving, physical education, and improvements in the library. A committee was appointed with each class represented, to contact Mr. Johnson about the needed improvements.

The boys' discussion in the gymnasium was led by David Knickerbocker. Their group discussed similar improvements through out the school, mainly more control in study hall, a clean-up day, and establishing a student court.

THE FORTY-NINERS

Elizabeth Jean Wheeler, known to most of us as Betty, arrived in this world on March 9, 1931, in the village of Dexter, Mich. After attending the school there, she decided to try her luck at Chelsea. Comparing the two schools, Betty likes Dexter High better, but the students in Chelsea are more friendly.

During her leisure time, you will probably find her in jeans and a sport shirt, eating Italian spaghetti, swimming, playing the piano, or bowling. The movies "Red River" and "The Fuller Brush Man"; the songs, "Maybe You'll Be There," and "Cruising Down the River," are a few other favorites.

Betty's opinion of the new look: "I like it on anyone if she doesn't go to the extreme." She also thinks that Chelsea should have a cafeteria to help younger children off the streets at night. Choosing her friends is a matter that is left up to her entirely. She believes that high school students are capable of choosing their companions. Having worked at the Methodist Home and in a cleaning establishment, Betty thinks that it is a very good idea for students to earn their spending money. They might not spend so much if this were the case.

On July 15, 1929, the stork flew over the Taraschi home and left a small bundle. Inside this bundle was a baby girl, which Mr. and Mrs. Taraschi named Rose Marie. Rose Marie attended St. Mary's before coming to Chelsea High school. Her favorites are: food, steak; sport, baseball; movie, "Fuller Brush Man"; song, "It's Magic"; recreation, bowling; and costume, blue jeans and plaid shirt.

She likes "the new look," but thinks some people go to the extreme. Rose Marie does not think that our parents should choose our friends. She thinks that if students earn their own money it gives them a feeling of independence. She also thinks daily chores develop "character."

Activities . . .

The Red Cross Council is now carrying on a "Gift Box" drive, the outcome of which will be reported later.

The gift boxes contain the following items: soap, pencils, paper, tooth brushes, tooth paste, balls, socks, and other articles of importance. If the students of Chelsea High and the people of Chelsea knew the great importance of these gift boxes, they would get to work and make this campaign a big success. What is their importance? Well, to begin, they give the children overseas pleasure and fun. They let those people in foreign countries know that we Americans are behind them and wish to help them. They create a general feeling of good will. These are just a few of the things the gift boxes do. Let's hit an all-high record this year in our "Gift Box" drive. Last year Chelsea reached its appointed quota and it can top that (Continued on page nine)

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Remember How We Talked?

It went like this at the Hooper's the other night. Hap's eighteen-year-old daughter is talking about "a real gone guy—solid—out of this world, but def."

"Now what kind of language is that?" Hap barks. "Can't she speak English?"

"I'll translate it for you," Ma Hooper says, "in the language of the twenties, when you were about twenty years old. She simply means this fellow is the 'cat's whiskers.' Remember how we used to talk sometimes?" Hap went back to reading his newspaper.

From where I sit, it's easy to criticize the other person when we don't take a good long look at ourselves. Sure, there'll always be some differences. I'm fond of a temperate glass of beer and maybe you would prefer ginger ale—but let's just live and let live. Because when we go out of our way to find things to find fault with in others, chances are they can find a few in us, too.

VFW Post Will Observe Army Day

April 6 is Army Day. The 1949 theme for that occasion will be "Unity." The slogan will be "The United States Army—Part of the Team—For Security."

Army Day is the special occasion on which public attention is focused upon the need for strong national security through a strong army—just as the slogan implies.

Throughout the country on Army Day many public speeches and radio talks will be delivered, and many special functions sponsored by organizations and leaders interested in maintaining adequate national defenses until the long hoped for world peace is definitely assured through such efforts as are being made by the United Nations.

Army Day marks the date in 1917 when the United States was plunged into World War I. Also it is the date on which our country was fighting most desperately against Japanese enemies in the Pacific theater of combat during the second world conflict. Those events in American history are sharp reminders that adequate national defenses can go a long way toward preventing a third world war.

Army Day has been observed many years. It was established in 1928 by the Military Order of the World Wars. In 1937 Congress adopted a measure requesting the President, as Commander-in-Chief, to order military units to assist civic groups in appropriate Army Day celebrations. This the President has done each year in an official proclamation.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars join in emphasizing the importance of Army Day observations because the one and one-half million members of this overseas organization know what war means from first-hand experiences. Today they are advocating national preparedness as one of the best deterrents of future wars.

The slogan "The United States Army—Part of the Team—For Security" means that the armed land forces of this country are a very definite and important part of the whole national defense set-up including air and sea power.

On Army Day civilians will see and become acquainted with the officers, men and equipment of the United States Army and National Guard units operating out of many military posts and armories. Also emphasized on Army Day will be the purposes and functions of army reserve units.

Why this pressure for military defense in time of peace? Who are we afraid of? The answers to these questions are: We are not going to fight anyone if we can help it. We are not pointing a finger at any potential enemy. We are striving hard—have been since 1945—to outlaw war through international cooperation. That is evident by the efforts of practically every country on earth—through the United Nations.

Our efforts to establish world peace—and outlaw war—have been progressing slowly. Meanwhile we say that we must avoid being caught unprepared as we were by the Germans in World War I and by the Nazi and Japanese in the second world conflict. We don't want to be bullied against a stone wall by any nation having an army seven times larger than ours, nor by a foreign air force three times greater and growing at the rate of 100,000 planes a year.

So we advocate preparedness and we talk about the need for preparedness on Army Day. That is the importance of the April 6th celebration.

That is why the Veterans of Foreign Wars—through its 10,000 posts and a million and a half members—will participate in Army Day ceremonies in this community and in all the cities and towns throughout the country.

—Americanism Committee of VFW Auxiliary.

Union Meeting Held of Young People of Protestant Churches

Thirty-five young people of the St. Paul's Methodist and Congregational churches of Chelsea attended a union gathering Sunday evening, March 20, at the Congregational church together with eight young people from the University of Michigan. The Ann Arbor group led the devotional period which was non-denominational, and also was in charge of the games which provided entertainment during the social hour. The chairman of the Ann Arbor group was Miss Elaine Schmidt.

Preceding the evening's program, a pot-luck supper was served, the young people of the other churches being guests of the Congregational group.

WESTERN WASHENAW FARMERS' CLUB

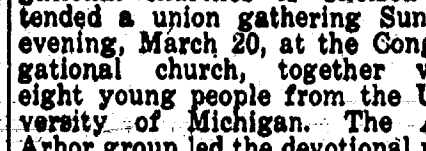

Rev. and Mrs. E. O. Davis entertained members of the Western Washenaw Farmers' club in the dining room of the Salem Grove church for the regular meeting Thursday, March 24.

Because of illness of a number of members there was an unusually small attendance.

A pot-luck dinner was enjoyed and was followed by group singing and a social evening.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Broesamle.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU

Breakfast Orange Juice Cooked farina with raisins Honey-Kuchen Butter Beverage Recipe Given

Sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking powder. Beat egg until light, add milk then stir in dry ingredients, being careful not to over-mix. Add slightly cooled fat and stir just enough to mix ingredients. Carefully fold in corn flakes. Fill greased muffin pans, 2 inches in diameter, 3/4 full. Bake in a moderately hot (400°F.) oven about 20 to 25 minutes.

Honey Kuchen (Makes 1 square)

Topping: 1/4 cup brown sugar 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg 2 tablespoons butter 1/4 cup bran or wheat flakes

Kuchen: 1/4 cup sifted flour 2 1/2 tablespoons baking powder 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/4 cup milk 1/4 cup honey 1 egg 3 tablespoons melted fat 1 1/4 cups bran or wheat flakes

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt. Combine milk, honey well-beaten egg and add to flour mixture. Add fat mixing only enough to combine. Fold in flakes. Place into a greased pan 8 x 8 x 2 inches. Sprinkle topping over batter. Bake in a moderately hot (400°F.) oven 25 minutes.

ANOTHER WAY to include cereal in the menu is to cook, chill and fry it. This may be served with fruit or breakfast meat or with syrup. It's a hearty, tasty dish.

Fried Wheat-Meal (Serves 6)

1 1/2 cups boiling water 2 1/4 cups wheat meal

Add salt to boiling water in the saucepan. Add cereal slowly, stirring constantly. Bring to a boil and cook 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Pour into cold, wet mold. Let stand overnight, or until cold and firm. Turn from pan. Slice into 1/4-inch slices and saute in a small amount of fat, turning to brown both sides. Serve with maple-flavored syrup. (Leftover cooked wheat-meal may be used in this way.)

Fried Wheat-Meal with Fruit: Add 1/4 cup seedless raisins, chopped dates or chopped figs to the cooked cereal before turning into mold.

Fried Wheat-Meal with Apples: Add 1/4 cup apples, peeled and cut in 1/4-inch pieces to cooked wheat-meal before turning into mold.

Either of the above are excellent when served with sausages, prepared in this way: lay pork patties or links in a cold frying pan and fry slowly for 12-15 minutes, turning occasionally with 2 forks or a spatula, being careful not to puncture the casing. Pour off fat as it accumulates. Serve the fat for sauteing vegetables, frying eggs, potatoes, French toast or for making sauces of gravies.

LYNN SAYS:

Add Variety To Breakfast

Dried fruits, cut and added to any of the cooked cereals, then served with brown sugar and rich milk provide an interesting dish.

Cinnamon toast made this way is delicious: toast and butter bread, then sprinkle with brown sugar and cinnamon and broil until bubbly.

For maple toast, make as cinnamon toast, substituting shavings of maple sugar for cinnamon-sugar mixture; broil.

Orange toast is a delightful variation to serve for breakfast. To make it, toast and butter bread, then spread with a mixture of sugar and grated orange rind which has been moistened with orange juice.

Never stick toast as it will become soggy and lose its fresh, crisp texture. Make toast as needed and cut in triangles or fingers to make it more interesting.

Adding several teaspoons of honey or molasses to the cereal while it is cooking will make the flavor more interesting.

The following ladies of Chelsea will graduate from the Normal college at Ypsilanti in June: Misses Adeline Sprague, Winifred Bacon, Ella L. Davis, Mary Weber, and Elizabeth Kusterer.

Supt. F. Hendry declined reelection for the coming year. He has accepted the superintendency of the Royal Oak schools. Mr. Hendry has been superintendent of the Chelsea schools for the past six years.

At the coming spring election the electors of Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon and Freedom townships will vote upon the proposition of dividing the townships into four sections, and the taxpayers will have an opportunity to work out their road tax if they choose to do so. Lima spring adopted this law last spring.

MOVIES

The movie "Roads South" was seen by the seventh grade geography class. It was about the contrast between North and South America, geographically, and also in the living standards of the people. Also shown was the great difference in the way which transportation has developed in the two continents.

BIOLOGY—"The Story of Dr. Jenner" was the movie seen by the biology class. It traces Dr. Jenner's life and his discovery of a vaccine for smallpox.

Bill-Blaess, when he visited the agriculture classes, showed three movies. "Smart Dairying" showed different practices that have proved profitable for feeding and managing dairy herds. Care and management of poultry was presented in "Poultry Facts." The students were taken on a tour of the Larro farms by "Touring a Larro Research Farm," where they saw all the livestock and experiments in feeding being carried on there.

"Scrub Game" stressed to the eighth grade science students the importance of soap in keeping the skin in good condition. It also explained the importance of the skin itself, the largest and most important structure of the body.

The history, government, and civics classes saw "The Bill of Rights." From it they learned how the Bill of Rights came to be written, what it contains, and why it contains these things.

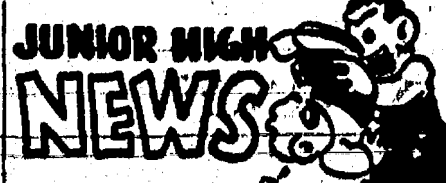

"Where Will You Hide?" was the subject of a movie shown last Friday morning to the student body. It explained the terrible results of the atomic bomb and of war. Atomic weapons are getting bigger and cheaper, and there will be more of them in the future. Science has developed a poison which, if given in the right proportion, would kill every person on the North American continent. But these are all secrets of nature and she knows no partiality. Will you be safe from the war of tomorrow if you hide today?

ARMY DAY Honors Nation's Fighting Men

With most of its war-making potentials scrapped or left to disintegrate on foreign fields, the American army, on this Army Day, April 6, 1949, observes the anniversary with mixed emotions.

There is, of course, gratitude for peace. Then there is the suspense, the ever-present possibility of war.

But over all there is the abiding confidence that the spirit of the army, the spirit of the nation and its people, burns as brightly as it ever burned in wartime, and should disaster threaten, the army will be ready.

History records that it always has been ready—ready in time if not ready at the outset. The army, constant nucleus of protection, always finds its ranks swelled with able, courageous fighting men in sufficient numbers to stem any enemy tide.

April is a fitting month in which to celebrate Army Day in America, for it has always been in April, with one notable exception, that this nation has gone to war against its enemies.

World War II was the only major war engaged in by the United States in which hostilities were not begun in April. The Japanese attack in December precluded a recurrence in that conflict of an April-starting date.

America is alert, however, and national planners are fully conscious of the need for the nation to remain strong. That is the reason

A program of auto insurance rate reduction has been launched by State Farm Mutual Automobile, Bloomington, Ill.

Commenting on the reasons why these further reductions were following so closely after reductions announced in June 1948, G. J. Mecherle, chairman of the Board of the company, stated: "Following the conclusion of World War II we were one of the first companies who found that our loss experience required rate increases. This was due primarily to the earlier availability of mature data under our six months' plan of operation. The same basic factors that impelled us to increase rates at that time enable us to lower rates now. In addition, during 1948 we completed a program of internal reorganization which has already enabled us to handle 7 per cent more policies with 15 per cent fewer people. Then too, our agents have been very diligent in the selection and handling of their business. The combined effect of these savings, after providing for ample reserves and surplus, belongs to the policyholders thru lower insurance costs."

A Galloping Genie

Modern genie known to steelmen as the continuous rolling mill usually picks up slabs of steel at a speed of four and a half miles an hour. Less than two minutes later it reels them off in the form of ribbons at 20 to 25 miles an hour. Higher speeds are frequently attained, however, and the type of steel sheet that ends up as tin cans has been known to travel a mile a minute.

Canada Grouse

Canada grouse differs from the ruffed grouse in having smaller crests on their heads, smaller sacs on their necks, and shorter tails, which are square at the ends. The coloration is darker and they are somewhat smaller.

Portion of M-92 Gets Face-Lifting Job from County Crew

The project is being financed through the cooperation of the three adjoining townships, Sylvan, Dexter and Lyndon. The townships have agreed to share the cost of the black-top surface. The other work is paid for entirely from license plate fees and gasoline tax and is felt by the Board of Road Commissioners to be justified inasmuch as any improved road costs less to maintain and also costs the motorist much less to use than does an unimproved road.

The two miles of road comprising the Werker-Island Lake-Storfer link from Chelsea to the Territorial road will be a fine improvement over the old rough route and queries have already been made as to why other nearby roads are not being improved.

The road commission's answer to this is simple. "Inadequate funds to do the work."

"Prior to 1931," Mr. Hallenbeck adds, "Washtenaw county raised by property tax nearly one-half million dollars per year for road construction and the maintenance of the former township roads, and since that time no farm, no lake lot, no property has paid a penny in road taxes—that tax was completely eliminated—and now other road tax took its place. In fact, the last penny of gasoline tax was put on in 1927 and in 1936 the price of license plates on cars was reduced 36 and one-half per cent, all of which affected highway financing."

Mr. Hallenbeck adds, "If people are satisfied with 1931 financing of roads in 1949 when costs of everything today are more than double in price over 1931, we are satisfied, but the way complaints and demands reach our office we believe they are not satisfied. Yet few if any will write their legislators to provide adequate funds. A gasoline tax increase will mean, of course, that we pay more at the pump, but I am sure we would pay much less at the garage."
