

Michigan MIRROR

By Gene Alleman

"When I get through at Lansing, I trust no one will say, 'Williams left here.'" Governor Williams, Michigan's youthful governor and Democratic protégé of former Governor Frank Murphy, tossed off the words crisply.

The newspaper editors laughed heartily. The governor was appearing at their traditional "State of Michigan Press Conference" to answer written questions. The moderator, Senator Doc VanderWerp of Fremont, had previously introduced State Treasurer D. Hale Brake with a humorous reference to Brake's boyhood days in Newaygo County. Fremont could well put up a monument, "Hale Brake Slept Here," said VanderWerp. All this happened in January, 1949.

The state legislature has two weeks left before adjournment May 20. Many weeks have gone by since Governor Williams presented his program of social and economic reforms. The program included liberal proposed public housing, liberal workers' compensation benefits and extension of medical care and disability payments. "Injured workers should be allowed medical care as long as necessary."

Unemployment benefits should be increased, and coverage should be extended to all employers and employees. (Now limited to eight or more.) Also fair employment practice law modeled after the New York statute.

More state-aid for higher education and for vocational education. Old age assistance benefits should be increased from $50 to $60 monthly maximum. Michigan farm produce would be offered to consumers with a "Michigan Seal of Quality" supported by strict grading and marketing laws. More state pollution laws would be tightened, and money provided whereby state institutions might eliminate pollution of public waters.

To finance all this and to bridge the growing gap in the treasury caused by a budget diversion, Governor Williams proposed a tax on corporation profits. He condemned Michigan's present tax system as "leaking the consumer."

What does Governor Williams think now—four months after his inauguration—about all this? At a luncheon of the Detroit Economics club, he panned the legislature for shelving much of his program. "We are like a bunch of crows flapping over the carcass of the past when we ought to be eagles soaring to meet new horizons," declared Michigan's state-governor "was 10 years behind the times."

The state's labor legislation, he said, was inadequate. The legislature, controlled by the Republican party, was obstructing progress. And so on.

Prior to the spring election, Governor Williams had urged the voters to make a clear-cut choice between the Republican record of "inaction" and the Democratic path to social justice. The April verdict, a whopping victory for the G.O.P., was a "disappointment" to Williams. He continued to insist that his November victory was a popular mandate for his spending program.

In the meanwhile, Republican leaders are seeking to transform parts of Williams' proposals into G.O.P. accomplishments, while avoiding imposition of new or higher taxes for state needs. Economy and revenue adjustments would plug the major part of the deficit.

If the state incurs a deficit—as seems inevitable in view of the 7 1/2 per cent ear-marking of state sales tax revenue—Governor Williams is likely to blame the legislature for it.

Does Williams hope to win reelection in 1950 by taking a cue from President Truman's successful attacks on the 80th "do-nothing" Congress?

Kim Sigler criticized the 1947-1948 legislature for blocking his program of centralized streamlining of state government. In 1949 Governor Williams is also critical. His reference to "a bunch of crows" reveals his impatience.

PARK CLEAN-UP IS SCHEDULED TODAY

HOWARD BROOKS, Chelsea Fire Chief for 44 years, is shown above receiving congratulations from Thomas Young, as he takes over the job as new Chief. Mr. Brooks, a member of the fire department for 50 years, is to be honored by townspeople at an Anniversary Banquet next Thursday, May 12.

Banquet Next Thursday To Honor Brooks

Ladies of Rebekah Lodge To Serve Dinner to Group

Dale McIntyre, whose "Know Your America" radio program is a daily feature of Station WJR, Detroit, has been secured as the principal speaker for the dinner to be given next Thursday in honor of Howard Brooks, recently retired chief of Chelsea's Fire department. Don Alber, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the dinner, made the announcement this week, stating at the same time that State Fire Marshal Arnold C. Renner and Ann Arbor's Fire Chief, Ben Zahn, are to be guests at the dinner. Neighboring fire chiefs have also been invited to attend the dinner.

Mr. Alber said that the ticket sale is to be limited and suggested that men of the community who plan to attend should secure their tickets as soon as possible.

They may be obtained from any member of the fire department and also at McKel's Brothers store and McLaughlin Motor Sales.

The dinner, which will be prepared and served by ladies of the Rebekah Lodge, will be given in the Municipal building at seven o'clock next Thursday, May 12.

Mr. Brooks, who joined the Fire department in 1899, was chief of the department for forty-four years prior to his resignation. When he declined reappointment to the post, Thomas Young, former assistant chief was appointed as chief of the department.

Reminiscing about the early days of his fire-fighting, Mr. Brooks recalled that when he joined the department a hand-drawn hook and ladder wagon, equipped with an extension ladder, a roof ladder and a single ladder was purchased as up-to-date equipment. The wagon, carrying in addition, pike poles and 32 rubber buckets, replaced the former bucket brigade. The fire alarm in thicket bell in the Town Hall belfry and, said Mr. Brooks, "It really got folks out, too."

Several years later, a hand-operated two-chemical wagon was added to the department's equipment and in 1917 a Ford engine, with a rack for fire hose, was purchased. Firefighting equipment today is a Graham Paige 1928 pumper engine and a 1943 model Chevrolet pumper engine, both housed in the Municipal building. In addition, the department is now equipped with a rescuicator, purchased and funds donated by community, all organizations of which Mr. Brooks said, is a far cry from the equipment considered as up-to-date fifty years ago.

The Lansing group's clown band accompanied the drill teams.

About 200 attended the second annual birthday dinner in the Municipal building. The dinner was prepared and served by the members of the F.O.E. Ladies' Auxiliary.

Educational Committee Report Made

Advise Erecting New Elementary School Building

The Educational Planning committee, a sub-committee of the General Planning committee appointed some time ago by the Board of Education of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools district has completed its work and submitted its recommendations to the General Planning committee. These recommendations are as follows:

(1) That a new Elementary school be built.

(2) That under present conditions the Elementary school built within the village or in close proximity to it.

(3) That the new Elementary school be built progressively, as finances permit, on a plan to have 14 rooms in 1950, 15 rooms in 1951 and 16 rooms in 1952.

The following are the sites investigated by the site committee under the chairmanship of Kenneth Lundquist and are listed in order of preference:

(1) Athletic Field area. This area extends from the end of Flanders street east to Freer road and is approximately 37 acres in size.

(2) Palmer area. This area lies between the cemetery and Washington street.

(3) Schneider estate, extending from South Main street west to Wilkinson road.

(4) Pierce farm, which lies along old U.S.-12.

(5) Wilkinson area, west of Wilkinson road and south of West Middle street.

During a discussion the Planning committee was informed of the intensive study and preliminary work the Educational Planning sub-committee had done before submitting its report.

Mrs. Mary Deal, working under Douglas Lange, chairman of the sub-committee, told of the work her group had done in an attempt to discover the preferences of people in the community. Each member of her group was given names of a number of persons who, because they had children in school, or, for some other reason, were expected to be interested. Members of the group telephoned all persons on their lists and asked for their opinion as to whether their preference was for a new high school or new Elementary school. Reports of those who worked with this group show that no definite answers were given to the question.

Their study of the problems confronting them led the Educational Planning committee members to come to the following conclusions as their reasons for making the above recommendations:

(1) The largest enrollment is in the Elementary school grades.

(2) The recommended site would provide adequate play grounds.

(3) A fire-proof building would be provided for the smaller children.

(4) The present buildings are less adaptable for elementary use than for high school use.

(5) The recommended site for the Elementary school is more centrally located in relation to the community forming the Chelsea Agricultural district.

(6) An expansion program is possible on the recommended site. No additional buildings can be built on the present school site.

Large Number of Volunteer Workers Needed To Clear Area for Early Development

Can Be Made Ready for Use This Year if Enough Interested

Work on the Pierce Memorial Park project is proceeding in earnest now and if enough volunteer workers turn out to help this afternoon and the following Thursday afternoons it shouldn't be many weeks before the place will really begin to take on the appearance of what is being forecast as "the finest park in the state in any community the size of Chelsea."

A bulldozer has been at work this week cutting down the knoll on the Main street side of the plot. The dirt is being used to fill in at some distance back from the road, there is to be a softball diamond for the youngsters.

A wading pool for children is to be built on the knoll itself. At some distance from the pool among the trees, it is planned to place benches, tables and fireplaces to provide an ideal picnic spot. The grounds around the pool will be landscaped and sodded and a circular drive will curve around it, beginning at the entrance to the park near the northwest corner. Parking space will be provided to the east and south of the picnic grounds.

Horseshoe courts are also being planned.

Lloyd Heydauff is chairman of the solicitation committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis park committee. He said Tuesday that if the present excellent cooperation of factories and townships in the matter of free-will contributions is an indication of what to expect when solicitation really gets underway, the quota of $3,000 set as a necessary amount for park improvement should soon be secured. If this amount is raised soon it will be possible to provide rest rooms and playground equipment such as swings, slides, etc., as soon as the grounds are ready. This would provide full use of the park all during the present season instead of waiting for another year before the project can be completed.

It is emphasized over and over again that volunteer help and donations is one of the main needs of the moment if the park is to be completed for use this summer.

A big job at present is to clear out the brush, much of which has been piled up this week by the bulldozer operations. A clean sweep could be made in clearing away the accumulation if about 50 men will go out this afternoon and give a few hours of their time. The park seems to be the answer to a long-felt need in Chelsea for a recreation spot available to everyone in town. For this reason, committee members say, it would seem that all able-bodied men in the community would do what they can to help get the spot ready for use as soon as possible.

Shovels, axes, and brush hooks are tools that will prove useful in the work that needs to be done this afternoon.

James Richards Dies Friday at Home of Niece

James Runciman Richards, a lifetime resident of this vicinity, died Friday morning at the home of a niece, Mrs. Mabel Hoppe, where he and Mrs. Richards have been living the past two years. They came here from their farm home, 4640 Loveland road, where they had lived since their marriage in Waterloo on July 13, 1898. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last year.

Born in Sylvan township November 26, 1864, he was a son of Frederick and Isabelle Runciman Richards.

He served as Waterloo township road commissioner for many years and had also acted as a director of the Palm school district. He was a member of the Ancient Order of Gleaners and of the Cavanaugh Lake Grange.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon with a prayer service at the residence at 2 o'clock followed by services at Salem Grove church at 2:30. Rev. Henry W. Lentz, of Detroit, officiated and was assisted by Rev. E. O. Davis, pastor of the church. Burial took place in Mount Hope cemetery at Waterloo.

Mr. Richards is survived by his wife, the former Carrie C. Weber; three daughters, Mrs. Earl Beahan, of Torrance, Calif., Mrs. 1. Velma Dorr, of Grass Lake, and Mrs. Irwin Klumpff, of Chelsea; a sister, Mrs. Etta B. Cadwell, of Francisco; two nieces, Mrs. Hoppe, of Chelsea, and Mrs. Charles Doty, of Detroit, four nephews, Sheldon Drey and Jack Weber, of Detroit, Freeman Weber of Whitmore Lake and Max Hoppe, of Sylvan township; and three grandchildren, DeForest Dorr, of Detroit, R. Duane and Doris Elaine Dorr, of Grass Lake.

Ralph Hartley of Grass Lake, on his first trip of the season to the usual spot, the location of which is his own secret, gathered 115 mushrooms last Saturday, April 30.

Contract Awarded Detroit Firm for Village Street Work

The T. P. Flynn Company of Detroit was awarded the contract for street work in Chelsea at the Village Council meeting Monday evening and on Tuesday began moving in its equipment. Work on the streets is to begin immediately. The amount appropriated for street work this year is not to exceed $19,500. This amount is not enough to cover all the work desired but will materially improve such streets as Wilkinson and Chandler; also Washington, from Flanders street to the village limits. Other bad spots and sections of streets will also be improved. The major improvement will be made on the 2100-foot section of Railroad street from Taylor Lane to the village limits on the Chelsea-Dexter road. Cost of this improvement will be about $5,000, approximately one-fourth of the appropriation for all the work in the village. The light seal coat put on this section two years ago did not hold up with the heavy traffic conditions and a more permanent type of road construction is necessary at this point.

In addition to the appropriation for street work, $10,000 has been appropriated for sidewalks and new curbing work. This will include some sidewalk and curbing work in the business district.

A committee was appointed at Monday night's meeting to proceed immediately with the construction of sidewalks and curbing work.

Second Graders 'Double-Up' for Class

SECOND GRADE PUPILS in the Chelsea Agricultural schools are shown above as they met recently for their music class. The ideal number of pupils for a room of this size is said by the Planning committee to be about twenty-five.

Pupils in the second grade at the Chelsea public school were having a music class when the above picture was taken recently. The room they are crowded into is one of two rooms 25 ft. 8 in. by 18 ft. 2 in. into which the former second grade room was divided when enrollment went well over sixty in the grade. The ideal number for the room when it was full-sized was 38 ft. 8 in. by 36 ft. 4 in.) was considered about twenty-five pupils. It can readily be seen that the second grade is very much overcrowded.

Divided into two sections, each larger than the recommended number for the whole room, the sections are crowded into the small rooms formed by the simple expedient of putting a partition through the center. There are about twenty pupils in each section at present.

Teachers of the two sections of the second grade are Miss Jane Kompass and Miss Marjorie Suttorland.

Because Chelsea is so situated that transportation to outside points by bus and train is available, there is more opportunity for obtaining good teachers. Teachers generally like it here but hesitate to accept teaching positions when they find such overcrowded conditions. They feel that it is difficult to give a fair share of attention to each individual pupil when there are so many more than the recommended number in their care.

Hesitancy to accept positions here has also been encountered in cases where athletic instructors were involved. The inadequate shower facilities and storage space for athletic equipment as well as crowded space for dressing rooms all point to possible difficulties in any athletic program, and are factors considered by applicants for teaching positions.

Members of the Publicity committee are providing the pictures and acts describing conditions at the Chelsea Agricultural schools for this series of articles. Members of this committee, with Mrs. George Barlow as chairman, are doing what they can to bring before the public all information in regard to conditions at the school. They again state that the present building will all be used regardless of whether the final decision of the Board of Education is to use it for a high school or for elementary grades.

CONFER ON WORLD PEACE

A conference on "Understanding the representatives discussed ways (PAID ADVERTISEMENT) ing as a Basis for Peace" was held last Thursday-afternoon at University High School auditorium. The conference was sponsored by St. Thomas, Ann Arbor, and University High schools.

Flat Rock, Saline, Romulus, Dundee, Ypsilanti and Chelsea sent representatives to the meetings. There were also visiting students from Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

The delegates heard Wesley Maurer, professor of journalism at the University, speak on "Barriers That Keep Americans Apart", and Albert Villalon, a Chilean lawyer now doing graduate work at the University, speak on "Barriers That Keep Nations Apart".

Then, dividing into small groups, the representatives discussed ways in which relations among people could be improved.

When the conference reconvened the students agreed that existing barriers can be broken down through education in the home, church, and school, through personal experiences which leads to understanding of other individuals and their ways of life, and through exchange visits, such as the one the Oak Ridge students are now making, and through reducing race prejudices.

On a local level, the delegates suggested that neighboring schools exchange assemblies, and plan joint activities between schools.

They concluded that if an educational program is to succeed it must be spread throughout the community to churches and civic groups.

Chelsea delegates were Stanton Walker, Jacqueline Hughes, Marlene Schneider, Bob Bazow, Audrey Taylor.

Did any of you see a little mouse sneaking around the gym last Friday night after the operetta? It wasn't exactly a mouse, but your inquiring reporter did go around finding out people's opinions of the evening's performance. Here are the results:

Audrey Lake—"Scenery and make-up were wonderful!"
Donna Hinderer—"Very good."
Norman O'Connor—"Music was beautiful but you couldn't hear what was being said."
Jayne Proctor—"Chorus did pretty well."
Bill Koselka—"Very good. I enjoyed it a lot."
Audrey Knickerbocker—"Bob Taylor did very well."
David Myers—"Very good."
Roslyn Reule—"Marjie did very well."
Jackie Hughes—"Dancing was very good."
Virginia Quiatt—"Superbly directed." It can be observed from these comments that the operetta went over big. It's too bad that more people did not turn out to see such an excellent performance!

Ah... Spring!

'KILL THE UMP'

This and other expressions of excitement could be heard if you were in earshot of the athletic field on Wednesday of last week. The girls' teams from Dexter and Chelsea played a rip-roaring game of baseball.

With Generis in the pitcher's box for Chelsea, and doing a very good job; Widmayer, catcher; Scott, 1st base; Howard, 2nd base; Hughes, 3rd base; Schable, short stop; Eschbach, right field; Zeeb, left field; and Slane in center field, the team did their best to keep the Dexter score down.

But with Schultz as pitcher for Dexter; Frank, catcher; the final score was approximately 30-10, in favor of Dexter.

The two teams will meet again on May 12. With a chance for more practice, the Chelsea team is hoping to win the game.

OPERETTA

The annual chorus operetta presented last Friday was a great success. This year it was the Gilbert and Sullivan "The Gondoliers."

Special congratulations should go to Mr. Fischer for the excellent scenery. The background for the first act, the Piazzetta at Venice, showed a castle facing a lake, which Mr. Fischer had painted on the wall behind the stage.

Costuming was done by the home economics classes, under the direction of Mrs. Martin, and was extraordinarily colorful. The plot of the operetta was centered around a search for the King of Barotavia. At first it seemed as though many hearts would be broken if the King was discovered, but he turned out to be the one everyone least suspected and the outcome was happy. The entire chorus did a splendid job in presenting this musical and every member is to be congratulated.

lated on the effort he put forth to make it a success. Mr. Gable also deserves a great deal of merit for the wonderful job he did in directing the operetta.

A BIG EVENT

The bubble of excitement in Chelsea High school can mean but one thing—the Junior-Senior Reception nears.

Breathless whispers and dreamy sighs come from the Freshmen and Sophomores. Suddenly, with a hopeful gleam in her eye, one of the girls develops a fond attachment for a Junior or Senior boy. Though the planning and preparing takes a great deal of time, the Junior girls still can stop to see visions of themselves floating across the dance floor, belles of the ball.

The Seniors are in a slightly different situation—the silent cry of all is: "Where is an available mate?"

Meanwhile the boys just groan and take inventory of cash on hand. Even mother and dad are caught in the bustle of events. Poor Pop hopes the bills won't declare him bankrupt, and Mom is exhausted from the countless fittings. The glow of happiness on the children's faces on May 13 will be their reward.

CLASS INVADES MIDLAND

Largest in the world under one enclosure is the Dow Chemical company at Midland. Its products are "indispensable to industry and agriculture". The plant consists of more than four hundred modern factory buildings which occupy 785 acres. There are approximately 7,500 people employed there. The entire area used by the concern is 2,800 acres.

These and many more facts were learned by the chemistry students who visited the Dow Chemical company. They were taken by bus on a guided tour around the plant. The two guides were Mr. Lorange and Mr. Fink. The students were divided into two groups, but they all visited the same places.

The first stop was to watch the men blowing glass, where the students compared the results these men obtained with those that they had gotten in class. Next the groups went to the spon salts plant. There they saw how the salts are extracted from the salt brine, dried, and boxed ready for shipment. Then they went to the aspirin plant. Aspirin, they learned, are really all made from the "same barrel of ingredients"; the only difference in them being the trade name given to them by the drug house that distributes them. They also learned that wintergreen oil and aspirin are made from the same materials.

The extrusion plant was the next place visited. There they saw how big magnesium billets are made into finished products of many different shapes. After this the main research laboratory was visited where the research for Dow Chemical is carried on.

The last stop was the plastics warehouse where, on the second floor, the sales offices were located. The walls of the halls were covered with plastic paint, the floor covering was plastic, and the office walls were made of colored plastics—interwoven—different walls being bright red, green, blue, was also vofurniture purple, or yellow. The office furniture was also all made of plastic. All the students thought it very wonderful. The warehouse itself is full of large containers filled with a plastic called Styron. The plants visited by the students included, of course, only a few of the many things which the Dow Chemical Co. does. Needless to say, all the students not only enjoyed the trip, but also learned many, many things which will help them in their chemistry studies.

In looks it has the features of an accordion, but is a great deal larger and has more keys. Mr. DeWillo demonstrated how the instrument could be played resembling an organ or a barn dance orchestra (including all the instruments and wrong notes) and demonstrated the (Continued on Page ten)

Hilda Eiseman Breaks Right Arm While Pushing Stalled Car

CHELSEA, Michigan—This past winter will be long remembered by many as the most severe of any they can recall.

Living long in the memory of Miss Hilda Eiseman of Chelsea, Michigan, will be this past winter because she received a bad break to her right arm last Jan. 30.

She was in the backyard of her home pushing a stalled car when she slipped on some ice and fell, fracturing her arm.

For 77 days she was totally disabled. However, Miss Eiseman received cash benefits from her accident policy she carried with Woodmen Accident Company that helped to defray her expenses of injury and her loss of time from work as a machine operator at the Federal Screw Works at Chelsea.

Thousands suffer serious accidents and great periods of sickness that disable them for months of time and that incur costly medical bills.

Every day accidents take their toll in death and injuries. In 1947 there were 32,000 deaths in the United States from traffic accidents alone.

A low-cost Woodmen Accident policy can save you and your family from worries in case of sickness or accident. It provides a monthly income while you are disabled, plus cash for your doctor and hospital bills.

Woodmen Accident also pays for loss of arms, legs, fingers or eyesight, and for fractures and other injuries. Up to $10,000.00 is paid for accidental death.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haist, of Ann Arbor, formerly of this vicinity, were honored on Sunday with a dinner in celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary at Zion Lutheran church hall at Rogers Corners. The celebration was arranged by friends and relatives of the couple and was attended by 160 friends, relatives and former neighbors. The anniversary cakes for the dinner were baked and decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Christ. Bareman, of Detroit, and Rev. and Mrs. Brueckner. Table decorations carried out the gold and white color scheme. During the afternoon a program of vocal and instrumental music was given, with Rev. Brueckner as master of ceremonies. Joan Koengeter and David Kaercher played accordion selections and the former sang several numbers. Wanda and Marilyn Eschelbach favored with vocal numbers and then, prompted by questions from various members of the group, Mr. Haist told of the honeymoon trip he and his wife took to Cleveland, Ohio. He reminisced about the train trip to their destination and the return trip by boat, and told of other incidents of their life together. Mr. and Mrs. Haist were married April 27, 1899, by Rev. Henry Lemster, who was pastor of Zion Lutheran church at that time. Their attendants were Mr. Haist's brother, George, and Martha Schable, now Mrs. Martha Diible. They were both present at Sunday's celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Haist have continued as members of Zion Lutheran church and rarely miss a Sunday service. During the regular worship service Sunday morning Rev. Brueckner addressed them and congratulated them and Wanda and Marilyn Eschelbach sang a special number in their honor. Couple Honored with Reception on 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fitzmier celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary last Thursday, April 28, at a reception given in their honor at St. Paul's hall by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Satterthwaite. The color scheme for the ruby wedding anniversary was carried out in red and white. A beautiful three-tiered anniversary cake was decorated in red and white with red candles in crystal holders and a bouquet of red and white carnations, a replica of Mrs. Fitzmier's wedding bouquet forty-years ago all added to the effect. A white linen tablecloth used at the reception was one the Fitzmiers received as a wedding gift when they were married April 28, 1908, on Mrs. Fitzmier's parents' twenty-eighth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Fitzmier is the former Adelle Ortring. She and Mr. Fitzmier were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ortring, by Rev. G. Eisen, of St. John's church, Rogers Corners. Their attendants were the former Laura Eschelbach, now Mrs. Joseph Lucking, of Wayne, who is a niece of Mr. Fitzmier, and Henry Ortring Sr., who is Mrs. Fitzmier's brother. Both were at the reception Thursday.

Most of the guests who attended the reception were present at the original wedding. Pouring at the reception were Mrs. LeRoy Osborne and Mrs. Lewis Schanz, both of Ann Arbor. Mrs. Ernest Wilkie, also of Ann Arbor, cut the cake.

Assisting Mrs. Satterthwaite were Audrey Finkbeiner, of Saline, and Grace Schenk and Mrs. Norman Schmidt, of Chelsea. Mrs. Fitzmier and Mrs. Lucking each wore a red and white carnation corsage during the reception. Mrs. Fitzmier's being tied with white ribbon while Mrs. Lucking's was finished with red ribbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzmier were the recipients of many lovely gifts. The one hundred guests present were from Freedom and Sharon townships, Saline, Ann Arbor, South Lyon, Bridgewater, Wayne, Grass Lake and near Lake. These were Mrs. Fitzmier's only surviving aunt, Mrs. Bertie Ortring, of Clear Lake, and Mr. Fitzmier's two surviving sisters, Mrs. Anna Kittel, of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Euthemia Kuhl, of Sharon township.

Maxine Rudd Gets Watermelon Gift in Answer to Wish

Eleven-year-old Maxine Rudd, former Chelsea resident, who is seriously ill at her home in North Robinson, Ohio, stirred up no little excitement when she requested a watermelon as an Easter gift. Above are pictures of Maxine and her parents and brother, together with the watermelon flown from Florida after her request, for one was broadcast over a Cincinnati radio station. The appeal was heard by Dr. George H. Roth, of Hollywood, Florida, who was visiting in Cincinnati, and he immediately made arrangements to have the melon shipped to her by air. Maxine and her brother Ronald, 13, attended the Chelsea public school when they resided here for several years with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rudd. They left Chelsea about a year ago to return to North Robinson which was formerly Mrs. Rudd's home. Former classmates in Chelsea have remembered Maxine with cards and letters since learning of her serious illness. She is now paralyzed from the waist down after undergoing three operations since last July.

Howard Brooks . . .

(Continued from page one) meeting he stated that Howard Brooks was then the oldest living, active fire chief in the state of Michigan.

Mr. Brooks has always lived in Chelsea and was born in the house just two doors east of his present home which is at 511 West Middle street. He was seventy-years old last November 1. His sisters were Frank Brooks and the former Ruth Youngs.

He was married here November 20, 1901, to Miss Henrietta Heiber, their family includes three sons and two daughters. Dr. Glenn Brooks, a practicing dentist in Rochester, Mich., Perry F. with the Frederick Stearns Laboratories in Meyerstown, Pa., Harold, employed at the Federal Screw Works here, Mrs. Ruth Kinner, of Rosedale Gardens, and Mrs. Rowena Simpson, of Piquette, Mich. Another son died in infancy. There are also ten grandchildren.

Mr. Brooks has been a justice of the peace in Sylvan township since 1919 and was re-elected for a four-year term at the last election. Elected first to the office in 1917, his resignation as a deputy sheriff was not accepted and he was sworn into service as a special deputy during World War I, in 1917 and 1918. Kiwanis Club Hears of Teaching Methods for Deaf

David Irwin, ten years old, and Deanne Wells, seven, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Marian Gallagher, of the Horace Rackham School of Special Education, were guests of the Chelsea Kiwanis club at Monday night's meeting. Both children are deaf and are attending classes at the Rackham school which is connected with the Michigan State Normal college of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Gallagher and her pupils gave a very interesting demonstration of the methods employed in helping these handicapped children to "hear" through contact. By placing the children's hands against her own face and mouth Mrs. Gallagher was able to tell them the names of a number of articles handed over at random by Kiwanians. Proof that they understood was given when they later identified and picked out the articles for Mrs. Gallagher by reading her lips as she asked for them. At the April 25 Kiwanis meeting Douglas Lange showed colored pictures which he took on a trip through the West. These were much enjoyed by those who saw them, it was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weber and sons, of Ferndale, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Weber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Weinberg.

List Revenues for Road Work Under Proposed Plan Lansing—Chelsea will receive $18,510 from the state as compared with $7,504 in 1947 for street maintenance and construction, if the recommendations of the Michigan Good Roads Federation are enacted into law. The total for all incorporated cities and villages in Washtenaw county would be $309,284, as compared with $184,755. The Washtenaw County Road commission would receive $64,594 for county road purposes as compared with $44,506 in 1947, if the Federation's proposals go into effect. The Federation's program calls for a series of reforms in the expenditure of state collected revenues, a more equitable distribution of funds, a classification of roads and streets according to traffic requirements, and the matching of locally raised funds with state collected revenues for local roads and street use. The bills also would increase the present gasoline tax from three cents per gallon to 4.3 cents. The national average is more than five cents. The weight (license plate) tax would be raised from 35 cents per hundred weight to the less than pre-depression rate of 50 cents; and the weight tax on commercial vehicles would be increased by one-third. The Federation's formula would increase all road revenues by some $30,000,000, which would be deposited in the "motor vehicle highway fund" and distributed to meet the needs of the three agencies responsible for roads and streets. According to the engineering analysis "Highway Needs in Michigan" incorporated cities and villages would receive 19 per cent; county road commissions 37 per cent; and the state highway department 44 per cent. Forty per cent of the highway department's new construction funds—must be spent within city limits, thus raising the latter's real share of road revenues to about 33 per cent.
