Are private home builders falling down on the job?

Governor G. Mennen Williams thinks so: "If private industry unaided, could meet this problem (homes for low-income workers) I would be entirely in favor of letting private industry handle it." The record shows that private industry cannot handle this housing problem alone.

In advocating public housing where rents are subsidized by taxpayers, Williams points to the four years' experience of Detroit as reported by the Detroit Housing Commission. "The housing needs of the city of Detroit increased during the last four years by a total of more than 144,000 dwelling units. During the same period, the private building industry constructed a little more than 27,000 units, leaving more than 117,000 Detroit families still without adequate homes."

H. E. Alles, executive secretary of the Michigan Association of Home Builders, takes issue with the governor's blanket indictment. "According to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 446,400 new homes were started under construction in the first six months of 1945. This is 98.8 per cent of the record rate of production set in 1943 when 1,038,000 homes were completed. More than one-half of these homes were built to sell at $7,500 or less."

The U. S. Federal Reserve Board is authority for information that 40 per cent of these homes cost less than $5,000. Financing of homes is still the number one problem. Senate Bill 7.2, extending Federal Housing Administration guaranteed loans, must be acted upon before Congress adjourns."

Governor Williams contends that housing is a government responsibility. "Everyone is aware to some degree of the acute housing problem, which has afflicted us since the beginning of the second World War," he said recently.

"Many of us regard this as our economic position in life. I have faced housing problems, I myself, had a difficult time finding a suitable home for my family in Lansing. With the exception of a very wealthy few, there isn't any group of our citizens which hasn't felt the weight of the effect of the lack of homes."

Governor Williams also feels that the "denial of homes to veterans is a particularly flagrant contradiction of all that America stands for. The men and women who fought in World War II are entitled to the best of the defense of OUR homes. It is a disgrace that as an indirect result of their victorious struggle, there are no homes for them."

Allies, who serve as spokesmen for Michigan home builders, maintain that hundreds of homes are now available throughout Michigan to war veterans at attractive terms.

"Down payments are not required on World War II veterans who can obtain Veterans Administration approval," he said. "Monthly payment including interest and taxes on a two-bedroom house varies between $40 and $47. VA requires interest of not more than 4 per cent on such mortgages. This advantage to the veteran becomes a handicap because of the difficulty in finding lenders in view of the lack of cash payment who will accept this lower-than-going rate."

"Private builders have advocated that Congress should increase this interest rate to 4 1/2 per cent, the prevailing rate paid by non-veteran home mortgagees equally attractive and marketable."

One requirement of the new federal housing act, recently adopted by Congress, is that cities which obtain federal housing subsidies must eliminate slum dwellings in an amount equal to the number of new public housing units provided.

A Washington business service has assured home builders that the federal housing program will call for only about 15 per cent of the housing industry's total capacity (Continued on page ten)

Local 4-H's Take Honors in Judging

Several important events have taken place during the week. 4-H members have been quite active in preparing themselves for the regional and state judging contest. Thirty-four Washtenaw county 4-H girls met for training in clothing judging last Wednesday. They judged three classes of garments and gave oral reasons. Each girl was ranked according to her score. The first eight places, in order of the score, were as follows: Barbara Kuhl, Lima township, 1st; Marie Kuhl, Lima township, 2nd; Audrey Gray, Lima, 3rd; Linda Bradbury, Lima, 4th; Mary Lou Zeeb, Ann Arbor, 5th; Iva Lou Kahrl, Superior, 6th; Alice Gunnis, Ann Arbor, 7th; and Irene Kruger of Freedom, 8th.

The training school was in charge of Mrs. Anna Brown, county Home Demonstration Agent, and was assisted by the following local leaders, Mrs. Harvey Sanderson, Mrs. Kenneth Schlimmer, Mrs. Lewis Hasselwardt, and Mrs. V. E. Henry.

Later on, the district judging contest will be held, at which time the high-scoring girls will be selected for the State Show which is held at Michigan State college the last week in August.

These judging contests offer both boys and girls an excellent course in judgment and expression, as they are required to not only place the items according to merit, but also must give reasons for the same.

Last year Michigan had 54,000 club members enrolled in different projects. Eighty-eight per cent of them completed and received credit for their work. Michigan ranked the highest state in per cent of finishers in the North Central region of the United States. Only two states in the U. S. ranked higher. These were Maryland and Rhode Island. Each have less than 5,000 club members enrolled. Michigan has 5,000 clubs in the state. Michigan also has 2,000 more project clubs than any other state in the union. Both county and state extension workers consider the local 4-H leaders the key persons in the 4-H club program. Most of the credit for 4-H progress is due to the untiring efforts of the leaders and the support of the club members' parents.

Golf Tourney Progressing

Bob Foster, defending champion of the Chelsea golf tourney, fired 42-38-80 to just beat J. W. Hale, 2-1. After being one down at the turn, Bob turned on the heat and Hale's 41-43-84 was needed against Hale's 41-43-84.

The longest match to date was Joe Policht's victory over L. Ludtke, in which he had to go 20 holes to win, 1-up. Other results were K. McMannis over Harry Burnett, 4-3; B. Barlow over H. Hopper, 3-2; N. Pharis over H. Hopper, 4-3; and Pat Brazzil over Dave Colquhoun, 3-1.

In the lagging first flight, the only scores reported are J. L. Hale's win over Steve Slane, 4-3, and R. Devine's over Stan Policht, 4-3.

Second-round matches in the Championship Flight are B. Barlow vs. Bob Foster; Pat Brazzil vs. Joe Policht; winner of C. Rowe; J. Miller match vs. Phelps; winner of Dud Foster-Al Kaiser match vs. K. McMannis. These are to be played on or before Aug. 18.

Signing Now for Rural Women's Camp at N. Lake

There are four days of fun and relaxation for you when you attend Rural Women's camp at North Lake, Aug. 23 to 27, according to an announcement today by Anna B. Brown, county Home Demonstration Agent. The general program will include music, square dancing, swimming, boating, fishing and games.

Crafts include advanced Italian hand stitching and a surprise craft. Special program highlights are a talk on "Flower Arrangements with Christmas Greens," an international program, and a story telling hour.

The deadline for reservations is Aug. 13. Registration fee for five days campers is $2.00. The fee for day campers is 50c plus any meals taken a camp. Come out and camp like you've never camped before, urges the Extension office.

Camp Activities Curtailed Due to Recent Polio Case

The schedule for the Cedar Lake Girl Scout camp has been curtailed to some extent for the week of Aug. 7-14, only as a precautionary measure. During the week of August 1, a girl became ill and was sent home. Two days later the case was diagnosed as poliomyelitis.

Upon the recommendation of the Washtenaw county Health Director, Dr. Otto K. Engelke, continuing campers remained at Cedar Lake, but no new campers were accepted for the week of Aug. 7-14.

Parents may be assured that every precautionary measure is being taken to safeguard the health of each camper. Both the Washtenaw county Health department and the U. of M. Department of Public Health are cooperating with Cedar Lake personnel.

For those girls remaining in camp the regular schedule of events will be followed. The next complete camp period will be from Aug. 14 to 21, at which time the regular program of hay rides, pioneer camping, square dances, and such activities, will be followed.

Kiwanis Chooses Delegates to Mich. State Convention

With Robert Toney as leader, he and Stanley Toney and Robert Breuninger, of the Lima Shepherds 4-H club gave a fine demonstration on sheep feeding at Monday night's meeting of the Kiwanis club. Kiwanians present were impressed with the ability of the boys as evidenced by the posters and models of feeding bins, shelters, etc., with which they illustrated their talks, making the demonstration very clear and interesting.

Fifteen Livonia Kiwanians were present for the inter-club meeting which was followed by a softball game won by the Chelsea club, 29 to 2.

There were also five visitors at the meeting, including one from Ypsilanti and two from Ann Arbor. One of the latter was Kiwanis Lt. Gov. Ralph Keyes. Delegates and alternates for the Michigan state convention of Kiwanis International, Aug. 28-31, were elected as follows: delegates, president John P. Keusch, vice-president H. T. Moore, and Col. P. S. Holmes; alternates, John Alber, Russell McLaughlin, and P. G. Schaible.

P. P. Niehaus will also attend the convention as delegate-at-large, and state chairman of the program and music committee. Chelsea Kiwanians went to Dexter for an inter-club meeting on Tuesday.

Band To Present Final Concert of Summer Season

The Chelsea Community Band will present its last summer concert this Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock in front of the Chelsea Standard office on East Middle street.

The program will consist of numbers selected by members of the band themselves. Officers for the band this summer have been secretary, Nancy Eisenmann; librarian, Virginia Christwell; equipment manager, Dan Maroney; and assistants Bill Aldrich, Bill Moody, and Billy Geddes.

Charles Kirsch of Mason City, Ia., who was formerly cornet soloist with the U. S. Naval Academy band, will play a cornet solo this Saturday night with the band.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Moore and family attended the wedding Saturday at Paw Paw, of Marian Marshall, former college roommate of Joanne Moore. Miss Moore was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding. The Moores remained at Paw Paw overnight and on Sunday will be in Benton Harbor to spend the day, returning home Sunday evening.

Independents Suffer Second Defeat of Current Season but Still Lead League

By "BILL" SCHATZ
Dame Fortune smiled Sunday afternoon, but her generous smiles were all for Saline who slapped the groggy Chelsea Independents into a pitiful defeat 6 to 2. The Independents won the error "sweepstakes" when they bunched four errors in one inning to give Saline three runs without a hit. The old leading dazlers were out-dazzled by a wide awake Saline gang who really put the locals on ice while they were doing a Rip Van Winkle.

"Slim" McClanahan started for the locals and was doing a fine job on the mound, but Mac just could not strike out every batter and while the comedy of errors was going on the Saliners put forth their best efforts to collect three runs. Mac was lifted and Ed "Jr." Miller was sent in.

REV. M. W. BRUECKNER is shown holding the gold ribbon which led from the chancel of the church to the door of the new Ford car which had just been presented to him. The car was a surprise gift from the congregation of Zion Lutheran church, Rogers Corners, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of his ordination as a minister. The presentation was made after the morning church service last Sunday. Standing beside the new car with Rev. Brueckner are Mrs. Brueckner and one of their sons, Rev. Ted Brueckner, of San Bernardino, Calif. The men behind the Brueckners are Al. Gross, of Dexter, and Norman Wenk, one of the church trustees.

Objection to Closing Roads Is Rumored

Persistent rumors throughout the community in regard to alleged circulation of a petition in opposition to the closing of six roads in the John Hanna project southwest of Chelsea, remained unverified Wednesday morning.

Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, superintendent-manager of the Washtenaw County Road Commission, was out of town yesterday, but spokesmen at his office said that, to their knowledge, no such petition had been presented.

The Board of County Road Commissioners, on Friday, July 29, announced receipt of a petition requesting the closing of Decker, Prichard, Burtis, Warthley roads and part of Heim road.

The petition had been signed by John Hanna, through whom all sales of property in the project had been made, and by his wife and 17 Sylvan township residents.

Following receipt of the petition the Road Commission set Aug. 25, at 2 p. m., as the date for a hearing to be held at the Red school on Manchester road at Prichard road. The hearing, it was stated, will give all interested persons an opportunity to be heard. If no objections are offered by persons who might be affected, Mr. Hallenbeck said, the roads may be legally closed.

No announcement has yet been made as to the purpose for which the land was purchased, Mr. Hanna being quoted only as saying that the project would be an asset to the community.

Light Plane Makes Forced Landing Here

A monocoque plane made an emergency landing about 6 p. m. Sunday in the field across the road from the George Sanderson home at 2770 Notten road. The occupants of the plane, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Price, of Kalamazoo, were returning from the Willow Run air fair when they noticed several loose bolts on the cowling. Fearing the engine might work loose, they landed the plane and made the rest of the trip to Kalamazoo by bus, leaving the plane where it landed to await repairs.

L. Luick Injured in Tractor-Truck Crash on US-12

Leigh Luick suffered a crushed vertebrae when he was thrown from his tractor on US-12 near his home early Tuesday evening. The tractor, going west, was struck by the right rear of a semi-truck trailer going in the same direction, according to a report of Sheriff's Deputy Charles Koch, who, with Deputy Claire Oltersdorf, investigated the accident. The accident was reported at 7:25 p. m. Luick was taken to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

Owner and driver of the semi-truck was reported to be Cecil Meek, of Benton Harbor, while owner of the trailer being hauled by the truck was Leo Litwisch, also of Benton Harbor, Deputy Koch stated.

Library Closes for Installation of Acoustical Ceiling

Beginning Thursday, Aug. 11 (today) the Chelsea Public Library will be closed for a period of time for the installation of an acoustical ceiling for the purpose of deadening the noise from the third floor.

The job has been awarded by the Chelsea Library Board to a local contractor, Walter Gage, and Henry Schneider has consented to act as consultant and will represent the Board.

While the library is closed to the public, books may be returned by means of the drop-box in the lower hall, and answers to the quiz questions will be posted on the hall bulletin board.

Zion Pastor Is Given New Automobile as Gift on Anniversary

Celebration Honors Pastor's 50 Years as Lutheran Minister

Rev. M. W. Brueckner, pastor of Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners for the past 23 years, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination there on Sunday. Much of the celebration, including the presentation of a new Ford car, was a complete surprise to the pastor. The celebration, arranged by the congregation, included, in addition to the morning service at which the pastor's two sons officiated, the following features which were kept secret as a surprise for Rev. Brueckner: Dr. N. A. Mentzer of Detroit, president of the Michigan District of the American Lutheran Church, as special morning speaker; presentation of the new Ford car by Al Gross, of Dexter, and church board members Norman Wenk, Alton-Horning and Erwin-Haist following the morning service; a pot-luck dinner in the parish hall for 300, including members and friends of the congregation and relatives of the pastor, arranged by the Ladies' Aid of the church; and a program in the parish hall at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The two sons who officiated at the morning service, Rev. Bruno Brueckner, of St. John's Lutheran church, at Capac, and Rev. Ted Brueckner, pastor of the Lutheran Church of Our Saviour, at San Bernardino, Calif.

Rev. Mentzer, in his anniversary sermon, emphasized Rev. Brueckner's ability to "grow with his people," keeping abreast of the times and maintaining a zest for his work which helped to "keep him young." Rev. Mentzer, speaking as if he himself were Rev. Brueckner, outlined the 50 years of unselfish service credited to the pastor since he felt called to the work of the church.

The presentation of the gift of the automobile was cleverly planned, a gold ribbon leading from the chancel outdoors where it was tied to a door handle of the car. The only response Rev. Brueckner could manage at the time of the presentation was the comment, "What would you say if someone gave you a car?"

The gold color scheme was carried out in the table decorations at the dinner in the parish hall and included a white anniversary cake beautifully decorated in gold, and ice cream centered with a gold-colored "50".

The program at 3 o'clock, also in the parish hall, was opened with group singing, led by Rev. Bruno Brueckner. Rev. Ted Brueckner acted as master of ceremonies and announced the following program: Vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," dedicated to Rev. Brueckner, by Joan Koengeter who played her own accompaniment on the accordion; humorous skits by Rev. James Hunter, of Detroit, son-in-law of Rev. Brueckner, and by Moritz Brueckner, a son; a playlet, "Arrival of the New Minister at Toledo in 1899," by May Grossman, Lorena Wenk and Rev. James Hunter, talks by Rev. A. Zeitner, pastor of Liberty corner church at Toledo, an old friend of Rev. Brueckner, by Emil Minke, pastor of St. James church, Toledo, and Melbourne Marwede, representing St. Paul's church, Alpena, Rev. Brueckner's former pastorates, by Alton Koengeter, a member of the congregation preparing for the ministry, who spoke for the Rogers Corners congregation, and by Rev. Brueckner, thanking the congregation and giving a short history of his life. In his talk Rev. Brueckner said he had not intended, in his youth, to become a minister, even though his father, Rev. Herman Brueckner, of Earlville, Ill., had always hoped he would. Rev. Brueckner said he had taken a position as a buyer with a Chicago company and was doing well in his work when he felt called to return to the seminary in 1897. He graduated from Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque, Ia., in 1899, and is the only one of the four surviving members of the class of 17 still actively engaged in the ministry.

The afternoon program was concluded by Rev. Mentzer with commendation to the congregation for their efforts in making the anniversary celebration such a wonderful occasion. He said he had attended many fine anniversary observances in his capacity as president of the Michigan district, but had never attended a finer one than had been arranged here.

Present for Sunday's celebration were representatives from Rev. Brueckner's two former pastorates at Toledo and Alpena; five of his six children, Rev. Bruno Brueckner, of Capac, Rev. Ted Brueckner, of San Bernardino, Calif., Mrs. James Hunter and Moritz Brueckner, of Detroit, and Mrs. Robert Warren, of Toledo; a brother and three sisters, Ed. Brueckner, of Dyersville, Ia., Mrs. Lou Goebel, of Mendota, Ill., Mrs. Sophia Gutzwill, of Correctionville, Ia., and Mrs. Gustie Heimreich, of Gillman, Ill.; and a number of nephews and nieces.

Helping to make the celebration almost world-wide in participation was the presence of the son, Ted, from the west coast, a nephew, Mrs. Goebel, of Des Moines, from the east coast, and receipt of a cablegram from the daughter and her husband, Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Schaefer, missionaries in South India.

Rev. Brueckner was honored on Thursday evening with a celebration arranged by the Men's Brotherhood of the church, the guests including a number of the pastor's friends from the community. Albert Johnsen, superintendent of the Chelsea Agricultural school, was one of the speakers, and mentioned the pastor's interest in all community and school programs as well as all school athletic contests. The hunting and fishing theme was also brought into the talk because of Rev. Brueckner's interest in these out-of-doors activities.

George Heist, who was a member of the church council at the time Rev. Brueckner became pastor here, spoke of the pastor's arrival here and of his loyal service to the church through the past 23 years. "Lunch was served by the committee and a traveling bag and gardening jacket were presented to the pastor on behalf of those present."

SUMMER LIBRARY PROJECT: Joan Schneider, Billy Eisenbeiser and Carole Ann Glick are shown above, grouped around "Story Book Castle" in the Chelsea Public Library. "Story Book Castle," with its many turrets, was built by Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armin Schneider, and has been the source of much interest to the 41 children registered in the summer reading program at the library. Each child who registered was given a tiny flag with his or her name on it. As progress was made toward the goal of required reading, the flag could be moved a certain distance on its travels around the castle. Entry to the castle itself was gained when the twelfth book was read by the "traveler." Christine Riener was the first child who registered for the summer "Story Book Castle" reading program. To date, 13 children have finished the required 12 books and placed their flags inside the castle walls. Billy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Eisenbeiser, of North Lake, and is in the sixth grade at the North Lake school. Carole Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Glick, is in the fourth grade at St. Mary's school, and Joan is a junior at Chelsea High school.

State Ranks High in Completion of 4-H Club Projects

With more than 88 percent of Michigan's 53,830 4-H Club members carrying projects through to completion in 1948 the state ranked highest of any in the north central section of the United States. In the nation, only two states ranked higher, and both of these, Maryland and Rhode Island, have less than 5,000 4-H members enrolled.

A. G. Kattunen of Michigan State College, state leader for the 4-H Club program, cites local leaders of the 5,261 clubs for their record of achievement. "Michigan has 2,000 more 4-H Clubs than any other state in the nation and that means more leaders," Kattunen remarked. "We owe a great deal to these men and women who give of their time to help the rural youth of our state in this fine program."

Although a few states have more 4-H Club members than Michigan, the state has by far the largest number of clubs.

Dodging Police Leads Victim into Another Officer's Back Yard

Kendell Arnett, a native of Kentucky, was probably surprised when he found that in trying to elude one Chelsea police officer he ended up under the window at the home of another and promptly found himself taken into custody.

Friday night, Police Officer Frank Reed reported, was his night off and he was in bed asleep at 12:30 when his wife awakened him saying she heard noises in the back yard. Getting up quietly, Reed said, they looked out but could see nothing amiss. However, a little later, Mrs. Reed insisted she believed someone was concealed in shrubbery under one of the windows. Following her husband's advice to turn on a flashlight and train it on the window, Mrs. Reed saw a man pressing his face to the outside of the window.

Reed told her to talk to the man and keep him there while he crept out the front door and surprised the intruder by firing a shot into the ground and ordering him to put up his hands.

Not knowing at the time who the man was, Reed kept him covered until Waldemar Grossman, on duty that night, came and took him into custody.

Reed surmised that Arnett, in trying to keep out of Grossman's sight, took a short cut through back yards, and stumbled over children's toys and a trailer at the back-end of the Reed's yard, making the noise which awakened Mrs. Reed.

In Municipal Court in Ann Arbor, Arnett paid a fine of ten dollars and also ten dollars costs on a drunk and disorderly charge, Officer Reed reported Monday.

Pays Fine on Reckless Driving Charge

Dillon Olmstead, who rooms at a North Main street address, was given a traffic ticket for reckless driving Tuesday evening, Aug. 2, Police Officer Frank Reed reported.

When Reed noticed the left front fender and headlight of Olmstead's car was damaged and questioned him, Reed said-Olmstead admitted his car hit a parked car on South street Monday evening and agreed to pay the damages. The parked car belongs to Karl Koengeter.

On Saturday, Justice Howard Brooks fined Olmstead $25 and ordered payment of $3.35 costs, Reed reported.

Production of clean eggs should be one of the big aims of the successful poultryman, say Michigan State College poultry specialists. Eggs that get dirty and have to be cleaned lose quality more rapidly than eggs which are produced clean.

A roller skate forgotten on a stairway — a bicycle draped across the sidewalk — a back yard tussle between your boys and neighbors — a golf drive that got away — a pet dog with a taste for postmen's calves — any one of these could result in a costly injury, end up as a court judgment devastating to your family's financial security. The Family Legal Liability Policy gives you protection for the above.

Late Grassfires
Late summer burning is particularly bad from a game standpoint. At this time of year almost every grassland fire burns alive nests of helpless baby rabbits. These same grasslands harbor the homes of ground-nesting birds and even a fast moving fire will invariably destroy the nest and its contents.

Grass Lake built up a 6 to 2 lead, then blew it as the Local rallied for four runs in the fifth and pushed the winning run across in the last of the seventh. Dick Copeland and Al Cooper homered in a losing cause for Grass Lake.

There's Nothing New To Tell Hay Fever Sufferers, Say U. of M. Allergy Doctors

Ann Arbor-There's nothing new to tell hay fever sufferers this summer. On the eve of the annual bout with the ragweed pollen, the doctors in the Allergy clinic of the University of Michigan hospital, surveyed the past year's developments and could find no startling new word for the four to five million "sneezers" in the United States.

Selection of Feeds Vital in Stock Health

What you feed your livestock today will determine the profit you make tomorrow, for experts are agreed that keeping livestock healthy is a profitable job-and to do that, care must be observed in choosing livestock feed. Feeding livestock on a ration deficient in minerals, vitamins, proteins and carbohydrates, as well as fats, often leads to nutritional diseases. Lack of any of the common or trace minerals in home grown feeds may be and often is, responsible for terrific livestock, feed, labor and investment losses.

Grand Champ

'Love Apple' Popular
The scarcity of tomatoes in the past year's otherwise abundant harvests recalls something of the history of this romantic fruit-vegetable.
A sharp drop in production in some of the nation's principal tomato-growing areas means smaller domestic stocks of tomato soup, juices, stews, ketchup and chili sauce this winter. Unseasonable weather is given as the cause.
One hundred years ago the tomato was just beginning an uphill fight for respectability as a food.
'PLEASE DON'T SQUEEZE DA TOH-MAH-TOE!'
Black and White Pepper
Both black and white pepper come from the same fruit or peppercorn. White pepper, which is milder, is the berry with the skin removed before grinding. Black pepper, most popular in this country, has a more pungent flavor and aroma.

High Demand for Soil Tests Makes Charge Necessary

Unprecedented use of Michigan State College's soil testing service by both rural and city residents has made necessary a slight charge for this service, it has been announced by the department of soil science.

The charge will be fifty cents for each sample which will provide analysis of soil for the need of lime, phosphorus and potassium. Dr. L. M. Turk, head of the department, said more than 10,000 samples were tested during the year. At times during the spring, reports were running as far as three weeks behind receipt of sample due to inadequate help to take care of the great number to be tested.

With a slight fee being charged officials say adequate help can be employed to take care of the peak loads that come ahead of the planting seasons. Several counties have established local soil testing laboratories with the county agricultural agents and other agencies cooperating. Most of these are making a charge, and agents report the people willing to pay the small cost to determine the fertilizer needed.

Soil scientists say some growers report the analysis of their soil in testing "saves many dollars expended for lime and fertilizer which was not found to be needed."

Can Use Newcastle
 Vaccine on Broilers

To combat Newcastle disease of poultry, two types of vaccine—killed-virus and live-virus—are being authorized by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which supervises the manufacture and sale of veterinary biological products.

H. J. Statseth, head of the department of bacteriology and public health at Michigan State College, says a practical use for vaccination with the killed-virus is to protect broiler flocks when Newcastle is prevalent in the locality and the expense of vaccination is warranted. The immune period should carry them to market age.

"SPEEDY" BALMER'S BRAKE SERVICE

There's a piece in the paper about a man in South America who trades his wife for a horse. Isn't that awful!

You wouldn't do that, would you? I hate you, dear!

But gee, I'd like to have a new car.

But Speedy said I'd take my car to Balmer's Brake Service.

They'd fix it up to run like new and I won't have to trade it in.

It's Just Plain Common Sense ...

That car of yours cost a lot of money. It's just plain common sense to have faulty brakes fixed immediately ... to have inadequate lights made right ... to have necessary adjustments taken care of before they grow into larger troubles. We can put your car in top condition for so little. Then you can smile at driving hazards, steep hills, sharp curves ... and let those who don't use common sense pay the bill.

FORD OVERDRIVE

Drive one of our demonstrators and see for yourself how Ford Overdrive smooths your ride. Your engine speed actually drops 80% without any drop in road speed. For example, while your car's road speed stays at 60 m.p.h., your engine speed drops to 35 m.p.h. in Overdrive. This actually adds to engine smoothness and quietness, and engine life. It saves you up to 15% on gas and oil. It's like getting a dollar's worth of gas for 85¢. Cuts your service costs, too. And it adds safety, a touch on your gas pedal releases a magic-like surge of power that makes passing and hill climbing a breeze.

It accents the new FORD "FEEL"

Take the lower level "Mid Ship" Ride... the power of new V-8 or Six engines... the "feel" of "Hydra-Coll" and "Para-Flax" Springs... the 35% easier "Magne Action" Brakes. Add the many other "firsts" of the "Fashion Car of the Year" and you'll see why you should be ordering your Ford now.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Specs And I See Eye To Eye

Asked Specs Allen to go hunting last week. Known him all my life, so I wasn't surprised when he showed up with no gun. Specs doesn't like to kill anything. Couldn't ask for a better hunting companion, though. We tramp around the woods, and whenever the dogs flush a bird, I blaze away while Specs just watches. Told him once I was surprised he went along... feeling the way he does about shooting anything. "Well, Joe," he says, "you do what your think is right and I'll stick to what I think is right. I've no call to dislike you for not seeing anything the way I see it." From where I sit, open-mindedness is a wonderful quality. There are plenty of things Specs admires that I don't care for. Like his fondness for buttermilk. I'd rather have a glass of beer anytime... but Specs Allen and I don't let little differences get in the way of something big like friendship.

THIS is MICHIGAN

(Following are excerpts from a series of broadcasts entitled "This is Michigan" sponsored by the Michigan department of economic development. The scripts are written by Nancy Hoard in charge of radio for the department, and produced by Larry Frymier, program director of WJLW, Kalamazoo. Michigan radio stations are carrying this series.)

Did you know that there is an area in Michigan that produces more paper than any other area in the world?

Kalamazoo is the center of this spot where almost every kind of known paper to man is made. Michigan's leadership in this industry is a simple story of profits, pure water, position and people all mixed in a boiling pot of pulp, paper stock and primary chemicals.

The first paper mill founded in Michigan three generations ago by a New England paper-maker who sensed the future enormous market for paper in the great industrial Midwest. No less important to the industry were the capitalists who took initial risks in supplying the money for the building of the mills and purchase of expensive machinery so necessary for the manufacture of paper. Of equal importance are the hundreds of highly trained paper-makers and skilled workers who gradually concentrated in Michigan.

Water is another important contributing factor to Michigan's success in this industry. One mill alone in Michigan used 14 million gallons in just one day.

For over half a century paper-making has been one of Michigan's major industries and today boasts 65 mills spread over 23 communities in both the upper and lower peninsulas. The state's paper and paper products industry gives employment to thousands of workers and produces an annual tonnage whose value runs into many millions of dollars.

The only kind of paper that is not produced in Michigan is wall-paper. Although paper products are legion in number, there are factories in the state producing practically every one of them.

Paper has a thousand usages and scores of varieties must be made to meet all requirements. The greatest tonnage is consumed by daily newspapers.

Kalamazoo has been named the paper city of the world. The city where more tons of paper are made than in any equal area in the world. It is especially famous for food protection papers, writing and printing papers, book papers, cartons and hundreds of converted items.

Bruce Hoffman, and Phil Baris were the pitchers, with Hoffman gaining credit for another victory. Hits were made by Richard Baris, Freddie Patsch, Neil Buehler, Phil Baris (2), and Denny Murphy.

VFW Nat. Home Dedicates New Hospital Wing

Carl Benjamin of the local VFW Post, and Mary Kniss and Alura Geer of the VFW Auxiliary attended the dedication of the new hospital wing at the VFW National Home at Eaton Rapids, on Sunday.

The day's program began at 11 a.m. when Helen Murphy, national VFW Auxiliary president, placed a poppy wreath before the monument on the grounds. The ceremony at the monument included a hymn by Annabel Heimesleiter and prayer by the boys at the Home.

At 12:30 p.m., a memory service was held in the chapel honoring the memory of the five national presidents of the Auxiliary who have died. Mrs. Paula Littlefield was in charge of the music.

Lyle Beggs, national VFW commander, was present and took part in the day's ceremonies.

The formal presentation of the hospital wing took place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with Morley Gates Post No. 701 furnishing the band music. Helen Murphy, national VFW Auxiliary president, made the presentation, and Harry Hoffman, president of the Home, accepted the gift.

The afternoon's main address was given by Dr. Thomas Carter, a professor of education at Albion college.

A touching feature of the afternoon's program was the presentation of three "piggy" banks filled with money, as a memorial to Larry Simons, the first boy from the National Home to lose his life in the service. The presentation was made by a brother who is post of the VFW.

Adding to the impressive service of dedication were the flags of all 48 states and those of Hawaii, Alaska and Panama. Each flag was represented by a post commander or other official representative.
