Answers Given on Many Questions Asked about School Expansion Plans

(Editor's Note: The following information is being reprinted here from a pamphlet prepared by the Board of Education of the Chelsea School District in order to present the complete picture of the proposed school expansion program as factually as possible. This information is not to be construed as a statement of policy, but rather as a statement of fact. The information is being given to the public for their information and to enable them to make an informed decision on the proposed expansion program.)

Q. Why is there a need for additional building facilities?

Ans. (a) The pre-school census taken during May of this year indicates a great increase in the number of births in the district starting with the year of 1946. The birth rate for the years 1944 through the first 5 months of 1949 are as follows:

| Year                  | Births |
|-----------------------|--------|
| 1944                  | 56     |
| 1945                  | 58     |
| 1946                  | 79     |
| 1947                  | 102    |
| 1948                  | 79     |
| 1949 (first 5 months) | 56     |

An shown by these figures we can expect this increase to reach our elementary school by the fall of 1951 with the largest group starting in 1952. Present building facilities are not adequate for handling this number of pupils on a full time basis.

Q. Why not add to the present building?

Ans. (a) The present site is far too small for the number of pupils enrolled at the present time. Many dangers are present when a large number of pupils are housed on a small site.

(b) Any new building plans must be approved by the Board of Public Instruction and this department, in most cases, will not approve plans for an elementary school to be built on a site less than 5 acres.

(c) The basement of the present grade building is considered by sanitary engineers, the state fire marshal, teachers, board members and many parents to be unsanitary, unsafe, very difficult to maintain and a general danger for elementary pupils. The cost for placing this basement in satisfactory condition has been investigated and found to be almost prohibitive in comparison to the value of the building.

Q. Why is the Board submitting the question of construction of a new elementary school rather than a new junior and senior high school building?

Ans. The Board selected a group of about 50 representative citizens in our district to act as a planning committee to assist in making this decision. The committee studied this matter quite carefully and submitted these recommendations for the construction of facilities for elementary pupils for the following reasons:

1. The increased birth rate will affect the elementary grades first and therefore facilities should be provided for elementary grades first.

2. The present school plant is more suitable for use by junior and senior high school pupils. It will be much easier to use the class room space in the present grade building for high school classes than to remodel the high school building for use by grade pupils.

3. The difference in cost between the construction of the two buildings.

Q. What site has been selected for this building?

Ans. The land located to the south and west of Pierce and Maywood streets. Options have been obtained on an area of about 15 acres.

Q. Will all elementary pupils in the present district attend this school?

Ans. Yes. This was another question submitted to the planning committee for a recommendation. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that most parents favor one elementary school for all pupils in the district.

Q. How many pupils can be accommodated in the proposed building?

Ans. About 450. This is the highest number of elementary pupils expected under normal conditions in this district. The plans provide for easy expansion if it should be necessary.

Q. What type of building is being planned and what will it contain?

Ans. (a) A single-story building with a lowered corridor and office space with directional glass, black space on each side of each class room. Further descriptions can be obtained from newspaper articles, pamphlets, meetings, and from the office of the superintendent. A model of the building can be seen in some of the show windows in local business places.

(b) The plans call for the following: 14 classrooms, one all-purpose room 40'x80' with stage, one kitchen, showers and rest room facilities, visual aids room.

Missionary to India Will Speak Before Congl. Assembly

REV. JOSEPH MOULTON

The Jackson Association of Congregational churches, comprising 26 churches in southern Michigan, will meet in the local Congregational church next Tuesday, Sept. 27. The program opens at 3 p.m. and closes with an evening session at 7:30.

Rev. J. H. Moulton of India, in this country on a furlough, will speak at 3:45 p.m.

Rev. Wallace Winchell of Royal Oak and Rev. Wm. Matters of Lansing, will also speak in the afternoon.

The Guild will serve a dinner at 6 p.m. and the evening service will follow at 7:30.

Rev. Edgar Edwards of Willow Run will lead the devotionals and the Clinton choir will sing. The state superintendent of the Congregational Conference will deliver an address. Assignments for today and the service will be concluded with the showing of a film, "And Now I See."

Bridge on Chelsea-Dexter Road To Be Renovated Soon

People who frequently travel the Chelsea-Dexter road have noticed the signs placed at the approaches to the bridge over Letts creek stating that it is a repair zone and have been inquiring about when the repairs are to be done. Cars make a thundering noise that can be heard a mile away as they travel across the rattling planks which form the bridge deck or floor.

K. L. Hallenbeck, superintendent-manager of the Washtenaw County Road Commission, said Tuesday that a contract for the repair of the bridge is being awarded recently to the P. Yeager Bridge and Culvert firm of contractors, of Port Huron. Work on the bridge is to be begun by the contracting company as soon as it completes work on a bridge in the vicinity of Mooreville, about two miles west of Milan. The company was expected to begin work on the 80-foot Mooreville project immediately.

The Dexter road bridge deck is to be replaced with a laminated treated deck. Instead of the customary planks, two-by-four pressure-treated timbers, said to last for years, will be placed on edge and securely attached to the present stringers or steel beams which are in good condition. The two-by-fours will be fastened together to form a tight floor which will be finished with blacktopping.

A bridge of similar type construction located on Maat road near Dexter has proved very satisfactory. Mr. Hallenbeck said, both as to smooth riding and elimination of noise.

Other work on roads in this vicinity includes the blacktopping of six-tenths of a mile on Wake road north of Waterloo road which is now completed. Blacktopping on the remaining portion of the Werker-Stofor road link to North Lake is to be completed next summer, Mr. Hallenbeck said.

C. of C. Votes To Contribute Funds for Fair Entertainment

At Tuesday night's meeting of the Chelsea Chamber of Commerce it was voted to donate a maximum of $100 for entertainment at the Community Fair. It was also decided that merchants will keep their regular store hours during the Community Fair days.

After the business session Supl. Albert C. Johnson thoroughly covered the plans for proposed additions to school facilities in the community and displayed a model of the proposed elementary school building. For the next two weeks the model will be on display for several days each, in the show windows of the following business places: Merkell's Hardware, Red and White grocery, the Consolidated Gas Co., and Spaulding's Garage.

Twenty-seven members were present for the meeting which was held in the Municipal building.

Bulldogs Lose First Game Friday Night

Still Hope for Good Season as Team Outplays Dexter

By DWIGHT GADD

Chelsea High's Bulldogs pushed and slammed the Dexter Bulldogs around last Friday night almost at will but Dexter won the game anyway, 7-6, on Chelsea's second blunder. It was only the second defeat for Chelsea in the nine-year series.

The Bulldogs scored midway in the second quarter as they marched 41 yards in 10 plays, with Bob Robbins, fullback, plunging through center from a foot out for the touchdown. George Heydlauff's kick for the point after was wide to the right of the goal posts, but after the way Chelsea had dominated the play up to that time it didn't appear that that one point would be significant.

Throughout the third quarter Chelsea continued to hold the edge in play, and those six points kept coming larger and larger but there was an unnoticed shred of what could happen and did happen, midway in the period when Stan Knickerbocker attempted to catch a wildly bounding Dexter punt, and fumbled it with Dexter recovering on the Chelsea 45-yard line. The factor two plays later and the incident was forgotten—until it happened again, disastrously, in the final quarter.

With the ball on the Dexter 49, Dexter punter Gene Schnebelt booted one far downfield, and as it bounced wildly, Knickerbocker made a grab for it only to fumble it and the ball came to rest on the Chelsea six-yard line under a horde of red-shirted Dreadnaughts. From that point-black range they were not to be denied.

Chelsea dug in and made a great stand but Dexter had just enough push to carry it over in their four power pushes. Three consecutive power pushes, each carried to the one-foot line and from there Mick Gregory, Dexter fullback, blasted through center and just barely crossed the line to score before being thrown back.

Then the pressure-heavy on his shoulders, Schnebelt calmly booted the point after and the scoring was over for the evening.

Chelsea came back strong in the waning minutes to almost pull a storybook win, but it just wasn't their night. The Bulldogs took the kickoff and marched 61 yards to the Dexter 4, but a sure touchdown pass was dropped in the end zone and a last-second field goal attempt from the 13-yard line missed by inches—and so the ball game was over, with Dexter winning, 7-6.

The statistics bear out Chelsea's superiority in everything but the point game. The Bulldogs carried 14 first downs to Dexter's five, and the only time Dexter got past Chelsea's 38-yard line was when they scored their lone touchdown.

"There just ain't no justice," Tomorrow night the Bulldogs will tackle their first Huron League opponents, the Roughriders from Ypsilanti-Roseville-High, here in Chelsea.

The Bulldogs will run true in this one. However, one consolation note on Friday's loss was the way Stan Knickerbocker and the whole team rallied and fought from behind only to miss by so much a margin.

This points to better things to come. Let's have a crowd out on the field tomorrow night and back this team for this game and the rest of the '49 schedule.

High School PTA Will Hold Pot-Luck Supper Monday Eve.

The High School Parent-Teachers Association has decided to try continuing the Chelsea chapter for just this one more year because of a lack of interest and cooperation among the majority of parents of high school pupils.

Every parent may show renewed interest in the organization by attending a pot-luck supper and program being held at the High School, Monday, Sept. 26, starting at 6:30.

Young children are invited to come. There will be a full hour of movies shown for the entertainment of this group, simultaneous with the adult program in different rooms, following the supper.

The PTA is furnishing extra food, coffee, cream and sugar for everyone. Each person attending is asked to bring sandwiches and table service for himself, plus one dish to pass.

New teachers will be introduced and the mothers who have volunteered to represent the grade from seven through twelve will also be on hand, in an attempt to establish better understanding and closer relationship between parents, teachers and students.

Supl. A. C. Johnson will also present an informative talk on proposed school expansion plans for those who have not yet had an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the details.

Small Group of Electors Gather for Discussion of School Building Plan

Bethel Church To Hold Annual Mission Festival

The annual Mission Festival of Bethel Evangelical and Reformed church, Freedom township, will be held Sunday, Sept. 25. Rev. Fred C. Schweinfurth of Cleveland, secretary of the Commission on Evangelism of the Evangelical and Reformed church, will speak at the ten o'clock morning service. Rev. Schweinfurth directs the work of supplying materials and promoting church enlistment for his denomination of nearly 8,000 churches with about three fourths million members in the United States.

The speaker at the eight o'clock evening service will be Rev. Matthew Northman of Bluffton, president of the Michigan Indiana Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed church. This synod embraces 105 congregations in southern Michigan and northern Indiana.

In order to accommodate those who attend the two services, which will be held at the church, the church has arranged to have a new amplifying system in operation to relay the services to the church basement. Rev. T. W. Menze is pastor of Bethel church, which was founded in 1840 and is one of the strongest rural parishes in Washtenaw county.

Police Urge Special Care for Children

"Spare the gas and save the child," the local police department urged today as Chelsea opened its September drive against the needless traffic fatalities and injuries to school-age children.

"No matter how much safety education a child has had drilled into him, the police men state, 'the fact remains that it is largely up to the motorist whether the child lives or dies.'"

They pointed out that home training and school safety lessons are extremely valuable in impressing youngsters with playing safe on the streets.

The street and crossing between intersections and that it is impossible to know how high a child's death rate among children might be if such training were neglected. But on the other hand, the police men said, "if a child is properly trained, he can save child life by following these rules:

1. Regard every child on the street as a flashing 'caution' sign.

2. In school zones, residential districts and near playgrounds, be especially watchful for children and expect the unexpected at all times.

3. Give bicycles a wide berth. Inexperience, a poor sense of balance, holes in the road, or just sheer childish absent-mindedness can place the rider directly in your path without warning.

4. In residential districts, particularly, be on the alert at driveways and intersections for tricycles, riders, skaters, scooter riders, and, in the winter, children on sleds.

Chelsea is conducting this campaign as part of a continuing traffic safety program in cooperation with the National Safety Council and the Washtenaw County Sheriff's department.

Grange Discusses Health Insurance

The program given at the meeting of the Grange hall Tuesday evening was as follows: group singing; "Come, Thou Almighty King"; and "Bringing In The Sheaves" by Mrs. Angie Oesterle; a talk on her recent trip to Toronto and the National Safety Council; and "Shall the United States Adopt Compulsory Health Insurance," by Mrs. Fred Seits, followed by discussion of the topic; reading, "The Brannan Farm Plan," by Albert Pielesmeier.

The regular business meeting preceded the program and at the close of the program a pot-luck lunch was enjoyed.

Options Taken on Maywood-Pierce Property for Site

About 50 residents of the Chelsea Agricultural school district attended the public meeting held in the study hall at the school Monday evening for the purpose of explaining the proposed building program as recommended by the Board of Education. Supl. Albert C. Johnson, presiding, acted as chairman of the planning committee which, at a meeting last Tuesday, decided to hold the public meeting this week. He gave an overall resume of the preliminary work done by the Board of Education and the planning committee it appointed last winter to help with a study of the problem of planning for proposed additional school facilities here.

Recommendations of the planning committee and its subcommittees were thoroughly studied by the Board of Education. Mr. Johnson said, before a decision was made that proposed new school facilities here should be planned for the elementary grades, rather than the high school. With the great increase in the birth rate in the district, the past several years, larger numbers of new pupils are now entering the school each fall. If new facilities are not provided as soon as possible, half-day sessions for all pupils in the lower grades will, of necessity, be the outcome in the very near future, according to School Board members and those who assisted in the study of the problem.

When Mr. Johnson opened the meeting Monday, he said that it is important to remember that the democratic way of considering what is best for the largest number of people is the only way to approach the school problem here. He said that was the reason the School Board had named a planning committee to study the situation and make recommendations which could be considered the wish of the majority of people in the community. The planning committee members, he said, were chosen as a representative cross-section of the entire district. Mr. Johnson continued by saying that the School Board had considered all recommendations of the planning committee in reaching the decision to submit to the electors the proposed plans for building a new elementary school at this time. Elementary school facilities are the most urgently needed, it was pointed out, and thorough study of the present school plant has shown that the present building can be adapted for high school use much better than for grade school purposes; also, that its non-fireproof construction would probably cause authorities to prohibit its use for elementary children without extensive provisions for fire protection. High school age children could be handled in an emergency with much less danger than the younger children, it was said. The plan of the entire present building would not lend itself to conversion into an all-elementary school according to the results of the study by the planning committee and its recommendations to the School Board.

In the discussion period following Mr. Johnson's explanation of the proposed building program it became evident that while those present were in accord on the matter that additional school facilities are needed immediately, personal opinions differed only as to whether a high school or elementary school should be the one built at this time. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Papadopoulos and Mrs. L. H. Walker expressed opinions in favor of a high school building program in preference to the proposed elementary school. School Board members William Kolb and Harold Widmayer and the president, Russell McLaughlin, countered by explaining that the decision of the board to propose the building of an elementary school was the direct result of the members' wish to follow what they believed to be the will of the majority of the people in the district. The proposed elementary school building program was decided upon after thorough study of the planning committee's recommendations, they said.

The proposed site chosen by the School Board for the elementary school is in the Maywood-Pierce area in the southwest part of the village. This site was chosen, Mr. Johnson explained, when it was found that certain sites recommended by the building and site sub-committee of the planning committee could not be obtained without litigation. This was the case, he said, with the sub-committee's first choice of site in the athletic field area. Options on the property in the Maywood-Pierce area site have been secured, it was stated.

Plans of the proposed elementary school, drawn up by the Kalamazoo firm of Louis C. Kingscott and Associates, architects, said to be specialists in school planning, were on display at Monday's meeting. Also on display was a model of the proposed school as it would appear when completed. This model is to be on display in a downtown store window.

Thru and Sidwell, of Lansing, is the law firm engaged by the School Board to be in charge of the legal aspects of the proposed bond issue which is to be decided at the election Oct. 12.

Questions in regard to the proposed school building program and bond issue have been answered in a pamphlet prepared by the Board of Education of the Chelsea Agricultural School District and are printed this week on page one of The Standard.

Council Will Take No Action Now on Municipal Building

The Village Council, at its regular meeting Monday night decided to take no action at this time on the request of the state fire marshal's office in regard to correcting hazards on the third floor of the Municipal building. The reason no action is planned, village officials said Tuesday, is that no action is now available for the required work on the building, a letter dated Sept. 12 which was received by Village President M. W. McClure from Arnold C. Renner, Chief of the Fire Bureau. (This letter was printed in The Standard last week, Sept. 22.)

The action of the council in tabling the request for a number of safety measures outlined in the letter, may mean that use of the third floor of the Municipal building will be prohibited when a representative of the state fire marshal's office returns in 30 days to re-inspect the building.

First Lecture of Current Series To Be Wednesday

Wednesday, Sept. 28, at 8 p.m. Prof. N. M. Efimenko, instructor in Political Science at the University of Michigan, will open the third annual lecture series with his address on "Imperialism in the Twentieth Century."

Lectures will be held in the Chelsea Public Library, located on the second floor of the Municipal building.

Persons desiring tickets for the lectures may obtain them from the librarian, Mrs. G. W. Walworth, or from library board members.

Before coming to the University of Michigan, Dr. Efimenko taught international relations at the University of Minnesota, and was an instructor in the Far East Area and Language Studies program for the Army both at Fort Snelling and the University of Minnesota. He received the Ph.D. degree from the University of Minnesota in June 1948.

Following the war, Dr. Efimenko taught at Lake Forest college. During 1945-1946 he was a speaker on the National Committee on Atomic Information at Washington, and also with the Chicago Council of Foreign Relations.

After coming to the University of Michigan, he was director of studies for the University's state-wide program on "The United States and World Problems," and the coordinator of the Upper Peninsula series.

Browns To Observe Golden Wedding with Open House

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, 304 South street, will celebrate their golden wedding Tuesday, Sept. 27, with a family dinner at noon and open house at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles McDaniel, 315 Congdon street.

Mrs. Brown is the former Julia Fewless and was born in Iosco township, Livingston county. Mr. Brown was born, and spent his early years on the family farm, at the east end of North Lake in Dexter township. Mr. and Mrs. Brown were married by Rev. Joseph Reversen in the log house where Mrs. Brown was born, and after a short wedding trip they settled in Howell where Mr. Brown was employed at the time.

Three years later they returned to the brown homestead at North Lake and Mr. Brown resumed farming. Three of their six children were born there: Lucile (Mrs. Albert Guenther), of Ann Arbor, Cecil of Howell, and Mary (Mrs. Mary Hassenpahl) of Plainfield.

In 1910 Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved to a larger farm at the corner of Territorial and Dexter Town Hall roads. Here the rest of the family were born: Nina (Mrs. Charles McDaniel) of Chelsea, Terry of Ann Arbor and William D. of Chelsea. The family moved from the Territorial road farm to the Younglove farm on the Marion-Putnam townline in the spring of 1922 which was their home for the next 20 years. Upon retiring they purchased the residence at Chelsea where they now live.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown have 12 grandchildren and three great grandchildren and hope to greet all their friends and neighbors from 2 until 5 and 7 until 9 p.m. at the open house.

Legume Value
Good legumes such as alfalfa or sweet clover improve soils in a number of ways. Their action in fixing atmospheric nitrogen is well known. A less publicized but equally important function of legumes is their effect on the tilth of soils. Legumes increase the granulation of soils thereby reducing their susceptibility to erosion, increasing their moisture capacity, improving aeration, and allowing better drainage.

Small Cars from Abroad
Little four-cylinder cars, popular in Europe, are being shipped to United States in increasing volume to take advantage of the continued shortage of domestic automobiles. Generally higher priced than U. S. models, they are not expected to be able to compete seriously with American cars after the current shortage is relieved even though their operating costs generally are low.

Guess who's losing sleep over this one?

FOR years, folks have talked about the "low-priced three" in the car business.

For a generation these have been the same three cars, unchallenged for position simply because they were lowest priced.

But take a look at the beauty pictured here and ask yourself:

How would you like to sell against it, with its wealth of Buick features?

How would you like to compete with it when it wears a price tag any new-car buyer can reach, gives you straight-eight performance for less than many sixes?

Truth is, this one sets a lot of standards that are going to be hard to match.

This styling is certainly something to start other

TRAVELING TEACHERS

Most of us came back to school this fall looking cheerful and rested after our summer vacations. Not only the pupils but the teachers also made use of their vacations to have an enjoyable time.

Mr. Fisher and Mr. Benjamin spent the summer at a YMCA camp in Muskegon where they were employed as counselors.

Mr. Johnson was working for the school most of the summer, but he did manage to get away for a few days vacation at Lake Michigan. He also attended a two-week course of workshop at Michigan State.

Miss Schell visited friends in Ohio and while she was there she attended the Ohio state fair.

Mrs. Martin spent her vacation at a boys' camp where her husband was working as an athletic director. She also attended a three-week course at Michigan State for home economics teachers.

Mr. Chandler said he spent a dull summer at Cavanaugh Lake. He was away from the vicinity of Chelsea only once. This was when he attended the Chicago railroad fair.

Mr. Magiera attended the University of Kansas where he studied physical education.

Mr. Krimbacher spent the summer working for himself in the construction business.

Miss Fox said she spent a very hot week in Boston where she attended the National Education Association delegate assembly.

Miss Betley spent the summer traveling through Canada and some of the eastern states.

Mr. Cameron had the busiest summer of all. He worked as a clerk in a grocery store in Cilmax, umpired at night baseball games, painted Pumpkin College schoolhouse, and spent two weeks "up north."

Miss DeRose went to school most of the summer. She also spent a week at the lake. She attended three weddings.

Mr. Stuits was the director of a

I OPEN MY DOORS

Another summer has rolled by another summer of being scrubbed and polished.

I watch you students come up the walks into my doors, some laughing, familiar with my every nook and corner. I see some new faces, too, bewildered, and a little frightened, wondering whether the other students and teachers will like them.

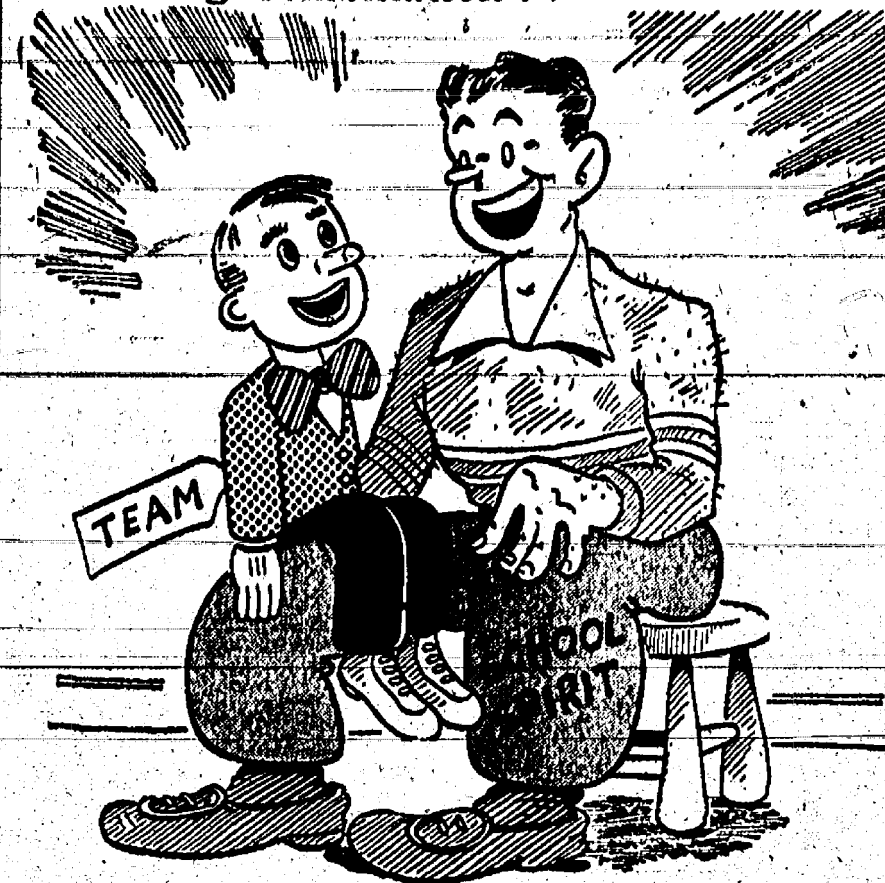

Through the year I shall know your every secret, the contents of every note.

I shall hear your whispered conferences, and your secrets will be my secrets. I shall watch some of you leave with an unexplained illness, wait for your return, and wonder why you don't like me.

I shall watch some of you worry and work over your studies. I myself, will not be able to help you with your problems. All I can do is give you the best teachers, books and equipment possible and hope you make the most of the opportunity set before you.

Yes, I see you all come up the walks and I open my doors to you—the doors of knowledge.

JOURNALISM JAUNT

By Roslyn and Nellie

Looking a bit dazed and bewildered we stepped off the bus at East Lansing on a bright sunny morning and tried desperately to find Mason Hall. Anyone who has seen the campus of Michigan State college can tell you it's quite a confusing place, especially if the building you're looking for is approximately four blocks from the bus terminal. We were each carrying two large suitcases, camera, and coats and we looked a bit awkward, which is probably why we received a few curious stares from passing students. Finally we gave up and asked someone, arriving slightly late, proceeded to our room to unpack.

Later that day we had our first class, with Prof. Applegate as instructor. He informed us of the schedule we were to follow, in which buildings classes would be held, and dismissed us with the information that a dairy bar was nearby which served giant ice cream cones. You can imagine where we went then.

Classes from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. consisted of feature and news writing, photography and art, copy editing, printing problems and annual work. We wrote articles, practiced photography, and worked on a mimeographed pamphlet for journalism students, and acquired information regarding annuals and other school newspapers.

Meals were excellent and the recreation (swimming, golfing, baseball and tennis) was fun. From 7 to 10 p.m. our time was our own, during which we could go to the movies, dances, band concerts, etc.

A journalism banquet was held the last night of our two week stay, at which all the teachers were present to say "goodbye" and to wish us luck in trying to improve our school papers.

We appreciated the time and effort put forth by these instructors, and hope that we can fulfill some of their wishes as we attempt to improve our own Hi-Light.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... It is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow. In view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

- 1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
- 2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
- 3—Decision by arbitration.
- 4—Decision by neutral referee.
- 5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employees, and are the most highly paid of all employees on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employees of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

The first few days of school the home making girls spent in planning their work for the year. The seventh grade girls have started their sewing work by learning to run the sewing machines. Their first project will be kitchen aprons.

In Home-Making I the girls have started with the Foods unit. The girls are working in family groups in preparing "nutritious breakfasts." Home-Making II girls have called their first unit, "Can You Can?" In it they are doing some food preservation work. In preparation for their sewing work which will be "Special Problems in Clothing" this year. Home-Making III girls are studying all sorts of fabrics—cottons, wools, silks, rayons, nylon, and other synthetic fabrics. They are learning ways to identify fabrics and the advantages and disadvantages and uses of each.

The organization is planning to have a marching band this year. They played at the Dexter-Chelsea football game last Friday night and are planning to play at all home games. They would also like to play as well as march, at one "away" game.

Election of officers was held, resulting as follows: president, Buddy Johnson; vice-president, Corky Dreyer; secretary, Jan Lou Weinberg; librarian, Eleanor Schmidt; equipment manager, Raymond Steinbach.

CHORUS
Mr. Jack Wilcox is the new director of the chorus. Mr. Wilcox attends the University of Michigan and sang in the community chorus last year. There are about 50 members, including several new ones. They are looking forward to a busy season.

Election of officers resulted as follows: president, Ted Slane; vice-president, Don O'Dell; secretary, Lois Eisele.

Activities...

The first pep meeting of the year was given last Friday by the seniors. The pep meeting got off to a wonderful start with a lusty cheer. Next came speeches from Mr. Magiera and Mr. Cameron. A skit was presented showing last hour study hall in Dexter. The study hall teacher had trouble keeping the underclassmen quiet. She overlooked the disturbance the seniors made. In came the great Dexter football team, Johnny Popp to be exact.

Then the water boy bounced in. Sad news was in store for them. Coach Gismo stalked in and read the line-up for the game, naming the positions such as fullback, first base 40-mile dash and forward, all to be played by "Muscles" Popp. Then with a mighty effort, the coach named the team that was rumored to play Michigan State, that Dexter was to play that night in Chelsea. After hearing the fatal words, Dexter students and team swooned away in a dead faint. The curtains closed and the skit ended. Mr. Stuits gave a talk and introduced the football boys. The captain, Bob Vogel, gave a short talk.

The cheer leaders for this school year were chosen by election. Sixteen girls tried out for cheerleading of which eight were chosen for the first team. Girls on the first team are Jackie Hughes, Jayne Proctor, Mary Ellen Van Riper, Jean Barlow, Judy Murphy, Karen Chase, Janet O'Dell, and Mary Lou Tobin. The reserves are Donna Hinderer and Christine Rowe.

600,000 was authorized—in the face of an existing deficit. No new taxes were levied.

Frank Fitzgerald, campaigned for economy in state government. He assailed a $9,420,000 increase in the state payroll during the Murphy administration. The CIO sit-down strike had evoked strong public resentment. Fitzgerald capitalized on this, too. Murphy lost the election and later was sent by President Roosevelt to the Philippines and then to the United States Supreme Court.

● If state government could meet payrolls in 1938 with red ink on its books, it seems logical to us that it can do so in 1950.

Why then all this letter writing in September, 1949?

President Truman said he opened the 1950 political campaign with his Labor Day speeches at Pittsburgh and Des Moines. The same might be said about Governor William L. Hastings.

● Who is to blame for the big, bad deficit at Lansing?

Not the voters who want 78 per cent of the state sales tax revenue for schools, cities and townships. No, not the "villains" will be take your choice (1) a Republican legislature which declines to tax corporation profits; (2) a Democratic governor who insists on more state aid for everyone, especially for members of the CIO.
