Community Fair Draws Thousands

Two Days of Perfect Spring-like Weather Add to Festive Spirit

Large crowds attended Chelsea's Community Fair last week Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the Bowser plant property. Although it rained hard almost all day Thursday, there was a good crowd on hand for the evening's entertainment features—Steve Filpiak and the Southern Entertainers from radio station WHRV, Ann Arbor, followed by greased pole, potato peeling and corn husking contests. The greased pole was furnished by Rowe and Titus, potatoes by Richard Carlson, and corn by George Erke. Prizes were awarded as follows: greased pole contest, 1st, John Lightner, and 2nd, Ralph Trinkle; potato peeling, 1st, Mrs. Melvin Lesser, and 2nd, Mrs. Clarence Trinkle; corn husking, 1st, John Brooks, Jr., and 2nd, Earl "Hank" Ortring. Friday night the same entertainers from Ann Arbor were on hand and the contests which concluded the entertainment period were the bus calling, with Mrs. Lulu Sweeney winning first prize, and Everett Van Riper, second, and the five calling, with Charles Smith, Jr., receiving first and Reuben Lesser, second prize. First prizes were $3 and second prizes $2 on all of the contests.

With summer-like weather prevailing Friday and Saturday, and with schools being closed on Friday, the attendance was exceptionally good. Carnival rides and pony rides furnished entertainment for the children. Friday afternoon's horse judging event proved interesting to a large group of spectators. Kenneth Proctor, Jr., whose horse won the grand championship, put on a show of the judging and drew much applause. A polo game put on by members of the "Up and Down" horse club, was also much enjoyed.

Saturday afternoon's horse pulling and tractor backing contests were of special interest to the assembled crowd on hand.

Saturday evening the Waterloo band, with Howard Parks as director, gave a fine band concert and then Bob Ufer, sports announcer for radio station WPAG, Ann Arbor, acted as master of ceremonies and talks were given by Dick Rifenberg, last year's all-American football player, and Vic Heyliger, U. of M. football scout, hockey coach and personnel director of the U. of M. Plans for showing a special surprise movie after the talks was abandoned by the entertainment committee because of the lateness of the hour.

A parade staged shortly before noon on Saturday, included new automobiles and farm implements exhibited at the fair, tractor-drawn wagons, one carrying the youngsters band, and others on horseback, and Dor Whitaker on foot, leading the steer which was given away that night. Exhibits of livestock, are housed in a large tent on the grounds, while the merchants' displays, farm crops, poultry, rabbits, hobbles, canning and household exhibits were shown in the Bowser plant building which proved ideal for the purpose.

Comments made by many people in the community indicate that the fair was a decided success and that the exhibits and displays were worthwhile and interesting and very well arranged.

A complete list of prizes on articles and exhibits, as well as a listing of the door prizes given by the merchants, and the winners, will be printed in next week's issue of The Standard.

Argus, Inc. Closes Out Chelsea Plant

Argus, Inc., of Ann Arbor, has suspended operation of the Chelsea branch plant and has no plans at present for its future operation, spokesmen for the company stated Wednesday. All equipment of the Chelsea plant has been moved to Ann Arbor as part of a consolidation plan of the company resulting from the dropping of post-war business. Spokesmen for the company said that as many branches of the plant as possible are being moved to Ann Arbor as an economy measure.

The Chelsea branch, officials said, was never expanded as had been hoped by the company when it was established here a year ago last spring. For this reason, moving the facilities back to Ann Arbor should have no serious consequences on the employment situation here. The majority of the employees at the Chelsea plant were Ann Arbor residents and they and the Chelsea people employed there have, for the most part, been transferred to the Ann Arbor plant. Exceptions are the three watchmen who were employed at the plant and who are to be laid off.

Remodeling of the old Hoover plant on Hayes street, where the Argus branch was located, was begun in February, 1948, and included a new heating plant and a new concrete floor in what was to be the press room. Partitions were put in to divide the building into various departments, such as shipping room, stock warehouse, tool crib, grinding room, etc. Approximately 1,400 panes of glass were installed to replace those broken during the years the plant was not in use. Production of stamped metal parts for Argus cameras, projectors and camera shutter lenses was begun on a small scale in April, 1948, with 34 people being employed at that time.

Chelsea residents and business firms hailed the opening of the plant here last year as a fine addition to the community and regret that conditions arose to make it impractical for the company to continue its operation.

Barber House Moved To New Location

The house at the corner of Park and East streets, known as the old Barber place, was moved on Monday to a new location on the south side of Adams street, about two blocks south and one-half block east of its former location. Valde Kusterer, present owner of the property had the house moved to its present location but has not announced plans for future use of the Park street property.

The Barber property was purchased by Waldemar Grossmann following the death of Miss Ella Barber, Oct. 31, 1948. He had partially remodeled and modernized the interior of the house before selling to Mr. Kusterer earlier this year.

Miss Barber was born in the house in 1867 and had lived there her entire lifetime. The house was built by her father, Perry Barber, and is thought to be about 85 years old.

Road Comm. Given OK on Borrowing for New Trucks

The Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday unanimously voted approval of the County Road Commission's plan to finance the purchase of new trucks by borrowing on future weight tax revenue. Approval of the Municipal Finance Commission at Lansing must still be obtained, but is expected to be forthcoming, Road Commission spokesmen said Wednesday.

Superintendent-Manager Kenneth L. Hallenbeck said Wednesday that present county road equipment has been in need of replacement for some time but money for such replacement has not been available. With winter coming on and trucks and equipment in such worn-out condition, Hallenbeck said, the Board of County Road Commissioners decided to take bids on new trucks Sept. 23, and then petition the Board of Supervisors for approval of the plan to borrow the money with which to purchase them.

Bids for the new trucks amount to slightly more than $75,000. It is interesting to note, Hallenbeck said, that the Board of County Road Commissioners decided to take bids on new trucks Sept. 23, and then petition the Board of Supervisors for approval of the plan to borrow the money with which to purchase them. ### Fire Department Urges Extra Care All Year 'Round

Fire Prevention Week began last Sunday, Oct. 9. Chelsea Fire department officials are hoping that activities during the week will remind people of the community not only that it is Fire Prevention Week but that fire prevention should be carried on 52 weeks in the year; also that they will in their minds the thought that a little extra precaution on their part might some time mean the saving of a life or the prevention of untold property loss from fire.

In reports of fire losses in the years from 1942-1948, inclusive, it suite of Michigan during the seven years shows the average loss of life by fire during that time was 162, the highest number being 208 in 1945. That year eight firemen lost their lives fighting fires. Last year's loss of life was recorded at 164 with no firemen lost.

In spite of fire prevention education, property loss from fire has increased from $1,719,664.42 in 1942 to $2,048,534.10 in 1948. Of these numbers rural fire losses amounted to $1,555,000 in 1942 and $2,448,928 in 1948.

Listed in the state reports as causes of fires were: bonfires igniting buildings; careless use of lamps and candles; carelessness; careless smoking; careless disposal of hot ashes, etc.; children playing with matches and other fireworks; defective chimneys; defective stoves and furnaces; defective stove pipes or smoke pipes; defective electric appliances and electric wiring; explosions; grass fires; incendiary fires; kerosene or gasoline stoves; (Continued on page six)

Local Fire Dept. Developed from Meager Beginning

With Fire Prevention Week beginning on October 9, it is interesting to note the progress shown in the development of modern fire fighting apparatus as it has affected the Chelsea department in the last 50 years. Howard Brooks, who retired as chief of Chelsea's fire department last spring after fifty years of service, recalled at that time that when he joined the volunteer group in 1899 the fire-fighting was done by a bucket brigade with water being obtained from any nearby well or cistern. Shortly after he became a member of the department, a hand-drawn hook and ladder wagon was purchased. The wagon's equipment included pike poles and 32 rubber buckets. This outfit was considered "up-to-date" fire-fighting equipment for some time. The fire alarm was sounded in those days by ringing the bell in the Town Hall belfry.

When city water mains were laid in the village the wagon was equipped with hose and, whenever the fire alarm was sounded, pumps in the waterworks would be set in operation to keep up the water pressure.

Later, a hand-operated two-chemical wagon was added to the department and in 1917 a Ford engine was purchased. This engine had a rack for fire hose.

In 1928 a Graham-Paige pump engine was purchased and in 1943 the present Chevrolet pump engine was delivered. The pump had been purchased during the war and delivery had been delayed. Both of the latter pieces of equipment are now used by the Chelsea department. However, plans are under way for the purchase of a new, modern truck to serve Chelsea and the neighboring rural areas. Fire Chief Thomas Young said this week that many models of fire (Continued on page two)

Repairing Sidewalks in Business District

Improvement of sidewalks and curbing in the business district was begun on Monday. Sidewalks at Kandlehner's store on the corner of Main and East Middle streets were the first to be renewed under the present improvement program which will continue as far as the $2,500 appropriation for the work will permit.

Councilmen Walter Gage and Joseph Dreyer are on the sidewalk committee which is in charge of the work.

The pre-school birthrate figures, as taken from the school census, indicate very clearly the need for additional space within the next year.

School Board members have been working on proposed plans for additional school facilities for the past year. The proposal submitted to electors of the district Tuesday was the result of many hours of study and planning on the part of the members of the Board. They were assisted in their study of the problem by a planning committee of 60 representative citizens who submitted recommendations after studying the situation from many angles.

The issue, as submitted to the electors Tuesday, was to grant permission to raise the millage rate to 15 mills for a period of 15 years and to raise by bonds, $350,000 to pay for a new elementary school to be erected in the Maywood-Pierce area at a cost of $300,000, and for necessary work

Board of Education States They Must Still Plan To Meet Expected Enrollment Jump

The school bond issue was voted down at yesterday's election. Of the 645 votes cast on the bonding question there were 348 "No" and 297 "Yes." On the question of raising the millage 713 votes were cast with 364 "No" and 349 "Yes." Thus the bonding question lost by 51 votes while the millage issue lost by only 15 votes.

After the results of the election were made known last night, Russell McLaughlin, president of the Board of Education of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools school district, speaking for the Board, made the following statement: "The majority of the electors, present and voting today, decided against the proposal presented by the Board of Education. Either the plan was considered wrong by the voters or the citizens are not alarmed about crowded conditions and the possibility of half-day sessions for the youngsters."

"The members of the Board of Education are your elected representatives and are trying to study and solve the problem which exists in the district. We shall continue studying the problem and do all we can to avoid the development of acutely crowded conditions in your school system."

"The pre-school birthrate figures, as taken from the school census, indicate very clearly the need for additional space within the next year."

Two Fire Alarms Answered This Week

Two alarms were answered by the Chelsea fire department during the past week, it was reported. The first call was on Friday afternoon when Mrs. Lyle Christwell's car suffered considerable damage from fire said to have been caused by a short circuit in the wiring. Mrs. Christwell had stopped her car on Orchard street when the fire was discovered.

The second alarm was on Saturday afternoon and was the result of a grass fire in a field north of the New York Central tracks at the Methodist Home crossing.

IRVEN WEISS and team of plucky horses are shown above as they competed in the horse pulling contest in the lightweight class last Saturday afternoon at the Community Fair. This team placed second, while a team driven by Ernest Gibrach of Saline, won first honors in this class. In the heavyweight class a team driven by Mr. Mobley of Manchester, placed first, one driven by Kenneth Proctor, second, and one by Harve.

Navy Announces Examinations for Their College Training Program

The Navy announced recently that the fourth nationwide competitive examination for its College Training Program has been scheduled for December 3, 1949, and will be open to high school seniors or graduates within the age requirements. Successful candidates will be given a four-year college education at government expense and will be commissioned as officers of the Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation.

The program is open to male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21, and quotas have been assigned to each state and territory on the basis of its high school population. Those who are successful in passing the aptitude test will be interviewed and given physical examinations; then, if they are found in all respects qualified, their names will be submitted to state and territorial Selection Committees composed of prominent citizens and naval officers. The Navy expects to enter about 2,000 students into the program commencing with the fall term of college, 1950.

Students selected by these competitive examinations will be assigned to the 52 Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps units which are located in various universities and colleges in the United States. If accepted by the college, they will be appointed Midshipmen, U.S.N.R., and will have their tuition, books, and normal fees paid for by the Government. In addition they will receive pay at the rate of $50.00 a month for the four-year period. Upon graduation they may be commissioned as officers in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or required to serve on active duty for two years. At the end of this time they may apply for retention in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or transfer to the Reserve and return to civilian life.

A panel discussion followed, with Mrs. Johnson presiding and members of the church school staff answering questions. Members of the staff present were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Newkirk, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cameron, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Albert Klein, Gerald Carr, Mrs. George Walworth, Mrs. Herbert Sanborn, and Mrs. James Nutt.

Many Attend Dedication of New Wing to Methodist Home Sunday Afternoon

More than 500 people attended the service of dedication of the recently-completed wing at the Methodist Home which took place at 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Rev. Benjamin F. Holmes, pastor of Westlawn Methodist church in Detroit, and president of the Board of Management of the Home, presided, and Bishop Marshall R. Reed read the ritual of dedication. In an inspiring and thoughtful manner, Bishop Reed told during his address later how the economic and old-age problems of the aged become the opportunity for unsal-fish service for the Methodist Church.

Chief donors for the cost of the debt-free $275,000 wing were Mr. and Mrs. Ora C. Kimball of Hillsdale, who contributed $100,000. On the fourth floor of the new wing is a plaque bearing the inscription "Hillsdale Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ora C. Kimball of Hillsdale, Generous Friends of the Home." Mr. and Mrs. Kimball were present at the dedication Sunday and Mr. Kimball said he and his wife were very happy to have a part in such an outstanding social service in Michigan.

Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Betz were introduced and Rev. Betz, superintendent of the Home, was praised for his skill and untiring efforts during the building and equipping of the new wing. Mrs. Augusta Hollidge, Matron of the Home, was also introduced and commended for her careful and efficient service.

Regrets were voiced by speakers at the service because of the fact that Rev. and Mrs. Leroy I. Lord were not able to be present. Rev. Lord, former superintendent of the Home, managed the campaign for raising the money for the new wing.

The Chelsea Methodist Home has been in operation here since 1907. The first meeting of the season at St. Mary's hall Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, with 54 members present. Principal business of the evening was appointment of standing committees for the year. Games were the evening's entertainment and featured the Halloween theme. Halloween decorations were also used on the refreshment table.

30, 1907. The wisdom of the founders of the Home in selecting a plan which readily adapted itself to extensions without expensive or awkward alterations, has been demonstrated through the years. In 1915 a south wing was built to accommodate the increasing number of people desiring to enter the Home. In 1926 a north wing was added, and later a fourth addition, known as Kresge Hall, was built. On Nov. 12, 1946, the 40th anniversary of the Home took place.

Then, on Oct. 27, 1947, ground was broken for the latest addition which was dedicated Sunday. All buildings are connected by enclosed, heated corridors and there are automatic elevators for the convenience of the Home family.

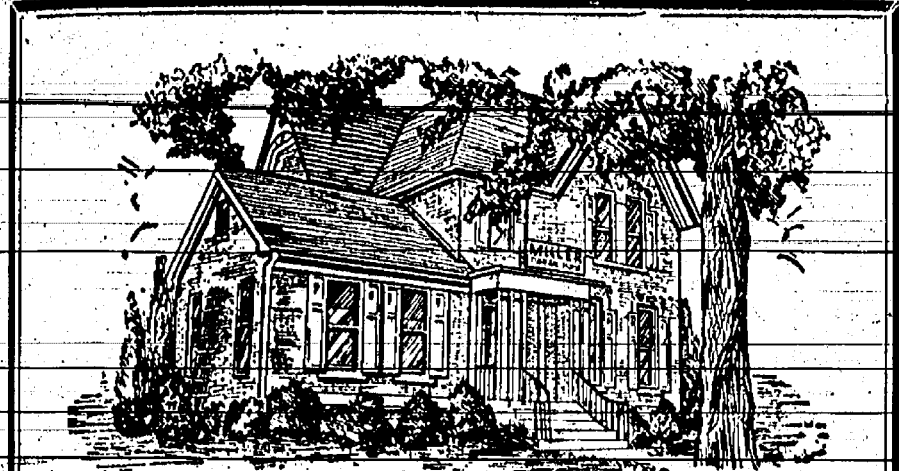

Statistics given at the time of the 40th anniversary showed that during the 40 years 430 people from churches of the Detroit Conference had resided at the Home for a total of 4,500 years. To date, more than 450 have been accommodated.

This notable record of human service was begun, according to "Chelsea Home Notes," a bulletin issued by the Home, "in a vision of service to elderly people in the soul of James E. Jackson and Dr. Charles W. Baldwin, who exerted great and wise efforts to inaugurate this work in the Detroit Conference."

The Home, as it now stands, contains 145 rooms for residents, a spacious lounge, a large, well-lighted dining room, modernly equipped kitchen, solarium, infirmary and diet kitchen, a library and office and storage space.

ST. MARY'S ALTAR SOCIETY St. Mary's Altar Society held the first meeting of the season at St. Mary's hall Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, with 54 members present. Principal business of the evening was appointment of standing committees for the year. Games were the evening's entertainment and featured the Halloween theme. Halloween decorations were also used on the refreshment table.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

But Curly "Knows" What The Score Is!

Was over at Doc Sherman's drug store listening to the World Series on the radio. Curly Lawson wandered in and says: "How about a chocolate malted, Doc?"

"Sorry, Curly," says Doc, "can't make you a malted for a while yet." "What's the idea?" Curly asks. "Well," says Doc, "most of the folks want to hear the game and the mixer makes too much noise." Curly thinks a moment and says, "Okay with me, Doc—I'll take a chocolate soda!"

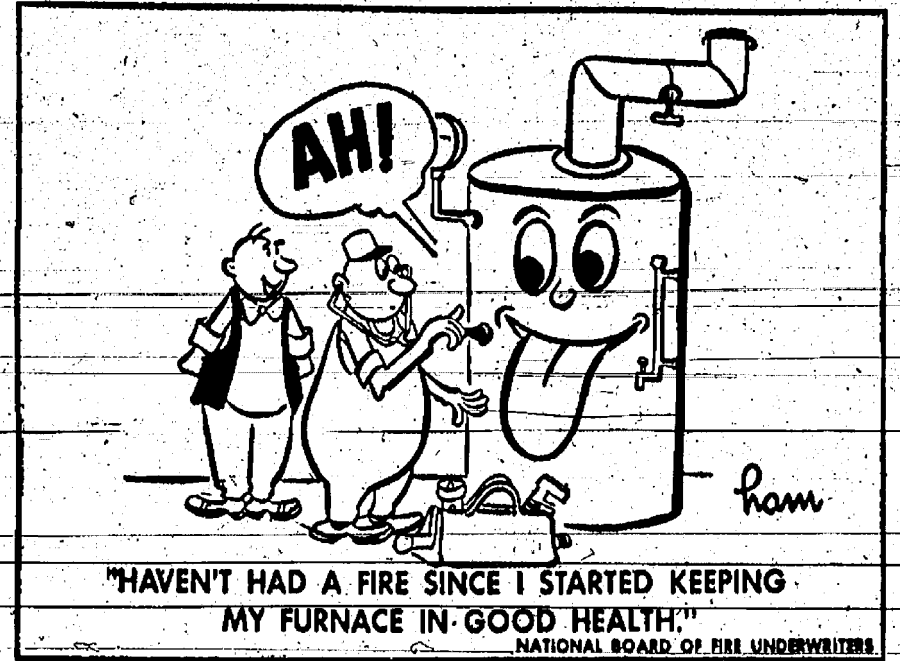

This shows how tolerant folks can be. Doc showed his respect for how the majority felt; Curly was big enough not to insist on his malted even though he doesn't happen in and says: "How about a chocolate malted, Doc?"

From where I sit, willingness to respect the other people's feelings is important in a Democracy. If we're tolerant of a person's like for baseball or a glass of temperate beer, we've come a long way on the right road... the road to a better America, that is!

Come Look at All Three with Dynaflo Drive

YOUR KEY TO GREATER VALUE

ONLY one make of car in all the land can give you the sweet 'n' easy luxury of Dynaflo Drive—and that's Buick.

But look how much territory that takes in—how many different-sized budgets can now afford the only drive with neither a clutch pedal nor gears that shift.

You can have Dynaflo as optional equipment on the tidy, sparkling new Buick SPECIAL, with its traffic-handy size, stepped-up roominess, and bold new front-end treatment.

You can have it, again as optional equipment, on the neat and nimble SUPER, with its sleek lines, 110 or 120 horsepower Fireball power plant, and triple Ventiports.

And of course Dynaflo is standard equipment on that best buy among fine cars, the magnificent ROADMASTER. There it combines, with matchless ride, the stirring lift of 150 Fireball horsepower and truly regal size and bearing.

So look at the SPECIAL, the SUPER and ROADMASTER, three Buicks that match almost any price range you have in mind—and remember that all of them offer the added enjoyment of Dynaflo Drive.

†Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

On every one it is the same silky, sweet-handling delight. On every one it cuts driving effort to the minimum, takes tension out of traffic, brings you to the end of day-long drives with surprising freshness and relaxation.

Sooner or later we predict that you'll join the army of car owners who wouldn't think of passing up what Dynaflo has to offer.

Why be among the late-comers? Your Buick dealer will be tickled to show you how quickly and how easily you can have Dynaflo to enjoy—right now!

THE POWER ITSELF
The Student Council members decided they would again have pictures taken of the student body. The Junior class will be allowed to sell Christmas cards. The class is earning money in numerous ways for the coming Junior-Senior reception next spring. The PTA asked the Student Council what the PTA could contribute to the school in the way of a necessity. There were numerous suggestions, but it was finally decided upon new curtains for the gymnasium stage. Also new stage props are needed.

MARCHING MAGIC

The marching band is progressing very nicely this year. At the half of the U. High-Chelsea football game—it performed and the show was very much longer than at previous games. First, "Hi" was spelled to U. High, and then a "C" was made in their honor. Next the band marched across the field in the form of the "U" and made a horseshoe to wish Chelsea good luck. Band formation was then taken again in the center of the field and some drills were performed. Finally a "C" was made to salute Chelsea, and the band left the field. Band members are working very hard this year and hope the community enjoys their shows.

HI-Y

The following Hi-Y boys have been chosen for a standing committee for evening meetings: Arden Musbach, chairman; D. Lake; D. Pierson; R. Seeley; W. Franklin; and R. Steinbach. B. Johnson, D. O'Dell, M. Tobin and J. Popp were chosen to make sandwiches after the game to feed the visiting players.

V. Gauthier and D. Crocker were appointed to the clean-up committee.

chester in the pulling contest at the Saline Community Fair. The Chelsea chapter's exhibit placed first.

A special FFA meeting was called Monday during fifth hour. A committee of three boys was asked to go to the Board of Education to ask that school be closed for the Community Fair. A committee also was appointed to set up an apple and cider stand at the Fair.

FFA boys and Mr. Smith have certainly cooperated with the Fair committees to make the Community Fair a success. This shows what cooperation will do.

Assemblies . . .

WINGS AND THINGS

The Senior and junior high schools were treated on Oct. 5 to an assembly which consisted of two movies. "Wild Wings" was about the habits and similarities of wild birds and "Feathered Shafts" was about archery. Both were supplied by Michigan's Department of Conservation.

JUNIOR HIGH PARTY

Last Wednesday night the seventh and eighth graders entertained the ninth grade at the first Junior High party of the year. This party was well attended, with nearly 100 students present. The evening was spent in dancing, and later cider and doughnuts were served.

The eighth grade sponsored pony rides at the Community Fair. These rides were enjoyed by all.

GUNS AND GAME

On Wednesday, Oct. 5, Don Boyer, conservation officer for this area, was present at CHS to inform the young hunters about hunting safety and this year's game laws.

The duck season opens at noon Oct. 7 and after that hunters will go by the time schedule which has been published. On Saturday, Oct. 15 at 10 o'clock the small game season opens. Hunters may hunt from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. from Oct. 15-30; from Nov. Dec. 31 they may hunt from sun-up to sun-down. Mr. Boyer told the young hunters that there were more pheasants around Chelsea than there has been since 1942 and that there was very good cover this year. He suggested that the nimrods would have to have a good dog to flush the birds.

"The Green Plant" and "The Oxygen and Carbon Cycle" were the titles of movies viewed by the Biology classes. The movies stressed that all food comes directly or indirectly from plants. Plants use carbon dioxide and provide oxygen. This cycle is continuous and plays a very important part in everyday living.

Do you plan on being a stenographer or congressman? The movie which the bookkeeping class attended last week stressed the importance of bookkeeping in both of these professions. After seeing the movie the students were aware of the ways in which this subject can affect their futures. They realized that bookkeeping will become important in their business and personal lives.

SEEN ON THE SCREEN

"Basic Typing: Machine Operations" was the title of the movie which the typing class saw last week. The parts of different typewriters were explained to the pupils. The way to type quickly and accurately was demonstrated by an efficient woman who typed 190 words a minute. After seeing the movie, however, the classes decided to be satisfied with a mere 175 words a minute.

SEVENTH GRADE

The class is grateful to president George Bataillon for his careful supervision of the seventh grade booth at the Fair. To Patty Aldrich, Gael Willy, Linda Walker, and Geneva O'Dell for making some signs; to Sally Vogel for acting as purchasing agent; to Edna Whitaker and his family for erecting the tent; and to Mr. Steinbach for lending us some lumber. Many others earned gratitude by devoting time and effort to the project.

Janet Talbot lost the birthday game on Oct. 5.

The following is a story told by Judy Wagner on the prevention of forest fires.

"I am a little bear cub. It is Fall and my mother and I are worrying about a hollow log to sleep in. We are going out to find one after we finish eating honey. Now we are on our way. We will go down by the creek and the we will find one. Here we are at last, and the log is still here. My mother said let's go in it. So we started in. All at once my mother started to cry. She turned and ran out. I followed her. When we were safe in a tree I asked her what was wrong. She said something pricked her. Then we started back to the log. When we got there she said that she would go in first. So she started in. I followed. When she got there she saw a porcupine. The porcupine chased us away. So we started to find another log. At last we found one. We went in and fell asleep. As we were sleeping a boy, a girl and their mother and father came on a picnic. They made a fire to cook. After they had eaten they stomped out the fire. But their fire was not out. It spread and it spread. At last the fire came near the log where my mother and I were sleeping. My mother smelled it first. She woke me up and told me. Together we ran to tell the other animals. We told the beaver first. He ran and knocked down his dam. The water from the river flooded and put out the fire. My mother and I went back to sleep till next summer. So please, for my sake, and for that of all of my friends' sake, please try to prevent forest fires."

ST. MARY'S School Notes

The 17 boys who make up the sixth, seventh and eighth grades volunteered to be members of the school safety patrol for the school year of 1949-50. The patrol is divided into four squads, a lieutenant heading each squad. Each group is striving to excel in honor days. In order to have an honor day the members of the patrol must be on the designated corners, on time, and wearing the standard Sam Browne patrol belts. The boys are issuing violation slips to those who offend in safety measures.

The following are members of the safety patrol: Captain, Emerson Wheeler; lieutenants, Douglas Kolb, David Atkinson, Conrad Hafner; members, Neil Buehler, Robert Lonsway, Terry Guinan, Thomas Elsie, Bruce Hoffman, Richard Dault, Leonard Hofner, Laverne Hafner, Frederick Hoffman, James Eder, Michael Murphy, Donald Mshar, David Collins.

The following pupils of St. Mary's will celebrate birthdays in October: Richard Wood, Gerald Blough, Marie Forner, Ellen Keusch, Donald Wood, Bruce Hoffman, Dolores Buehler, Mary Ann Titus.

GROWTH OF POLIO CARE TEAM

Medical care for polio patients is costing the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis more money than ever before—because better treatment is available today than formerly, as the accompanying chart reveals. Until 1938 when the National Foundation was formed, a physician and a nurse usually comprised the best available care. Today, modern polio treatment may include 13 specialized services, provided by an entire TEAM of professional workers. This expanded care has cost National Foundation chapters millions in March of Dimes funds. More money is needed immediately to continue these services. Support the POLIO EPIDEMIC EMERGENCY DRIVE to help care for today's polio patients. Send your contribution now to POLIO, care of your local Post Office.

Gas Company Names New Home Service Director

Miss Harriet Adams, a member of the Home Service staff of the Ann Arbor district of the Michigan Consolidated Gas company, has been named home service director for the company. She succeeds Arlene Shields Aitken who retired this month.

The new director, whose home was in Camden, is a graduate of Michigan State college. Miss Adams came to Ann Arbor in August, 1943, as a member of the home service staff.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Ruth Pocock of Pittsford, who joined the home service staff in August. Mrs. Pocock was graduated in January, 1943, from Wayne University, where she majored in home economics.

The home service department instructs homemakers on the use and use of their gas appliances and conducts cooking schools, distributes tested recipes from the test kitchen, and presents a radio program. Classes for Girl Scouts are held in the department throughout the winter months.

World Community Day Project Will Be Undertaken

"Pieces for Peace" is the motto adopted for the World Community Day project in which women of the Congregational, Methodist and St. Paul's churches will participate on Nov. 4. The women of the three churches voted to take part in this World Service project of the United Council of Church Women following the World Day of Prayer last spring.

Women of the three participating churches in Chelsea will bring their offerings of material and findings for clothing to be made by the women of Europe and Asia to whom the donations will be sent.

Suggested materials for these bundles of "Pieces for Peace" are yard goods of cotton, wool or prints of all kinds except rayon, also yarn, floss, crochet cotton, trimmings, curtain materials, or pieces for patch-work quilts, etc. Materials may be new or used if in good condition, clean and ready to use.

Those who wish to donate material for an entire dress for a woman or child should include a dress pattern, matching thread, snaps, buttons and trimming sufficient to complete the garment, as well as needles and thimble and scissors, if possible.

Completed bundles are to be packed according to certain directions which will be given later.

Dwindling Resources—In America's once lavish storehouses of resources, many bins are being emptied, some such as copper, zinc, and iron ore, at an alarming rate. As this trend toward exhaustion of our present reserves continues, the problem of "getting more from less" may well become a determining consideration in shaping the policies and futures of most industries, including chemicals.

Grid Team Wins Game from U. High Gain Victory by Capitalizing on Lucky Breaks

By DWIGHT GADD

Chelsea's Bulldogs rebounded from the Milan drubbing in fine form last Friday night here at the home field, as they downed the invading Cubs of U. High 13-6, in a fine, close game before a large home crowd.

Little George Heydlauff, Chelsea quarterback, sparked the Bulldogs in this win as he played the best game of his high school career, and scored one of the two touchdowns and kicked one of two conversions.

The Bulldogs pulled another page from their rival's occasionally-used book as they let U. High out-do them in everything except the final score. The Cubs rolled up 11 first downs to Chelsea's seven and seemed able to gain very easily until they approached the pay-off part of the field, and here Chelsea would brace and throw back the attack.

Chelsea drew first blood early in the first period and it was done on a play which is seldom good for long yardage. After the first exchange of kicks Chelsea took over the ball on their own 41 and on the first play from scrimmage Heydlauff broke through center on a quarterback sneak, found himself all alone and broke wide to his right, outran the Cub secondary, and raced 59 yards to score untouched. His kick for the point was blocked by Ron Larson, but it mattered little as the Bulldogs made that 6-0 score stand up very well for the remainder of the first half.

Late in the third quarter Chelsea got the break it needed to rack up the clinching touchdown and they proved themselves opportunists by taking full advantage. Capt. Bob Vogel started the fire as he intercepted a Cub pass on his own 40 and scampered to the 33 before being run-out of bounds. In six plays Chelsea drove to the Cub 16 but at that point it was fourth down and four to go and it appeared that the boys had stopped the threat.

However, the next play was as sweet a maneuver as there ever was as Heydlauff took the ball from center and raced wide to his right, passed straight downfield, while on the run, and on the one-yard line Stan Knickerbocker made a leaping, diving catch for the first down. Stan then added, the final touchdown as he drove over right tackle two plays later and Heydlauff made it 13-0 on his first conversion of the season.

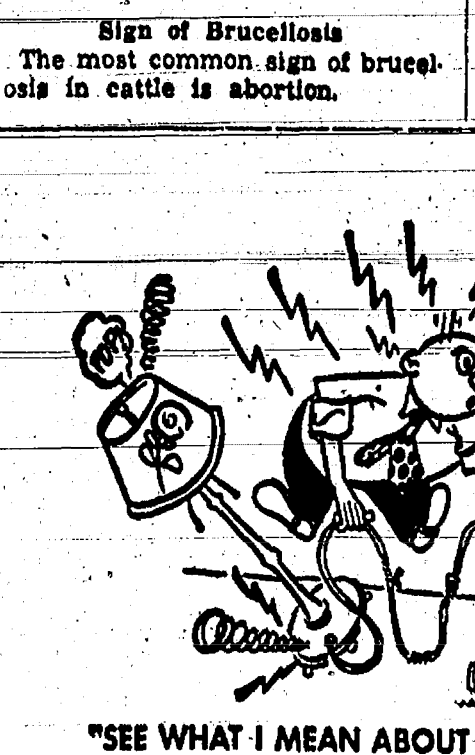

U. High drove downfield on the following kick-off for 68 yards and their only score on Dean Leith's two-yard smash off left tackle to cap the game. Larson's try for the point after was blocked by Heydlauff and that ended the night's end-zone excitement although U. High lifted the air with desperation passes just before the final gun.

Now, after showing that they could rebound and win, Chelsea travels to Saline tomorrow night at 8 o'clock for a game with the Hornets on their newly-lighted field. The dope sheets favor Chelsea but football takes funny bounces once in a while so let's have a large caravan follow the boys there tomorrow night. With a record of two wins and two losses it's a chance for the team to pull over the .500 mark and to boost themselves well up into the league first division.

See you at game time!
