

Gridders Lose to Methodical Parma Team

Annual Rivalry with Manchester To Be Renewed Fri.

By DWIGHT GADD

Parma's Panthers showed here last Friday night that they could bite and still scratch and chew, their way from behind to win, 20-14, although they did need some help from Chelsea to do it.

Without a doubt Chelsea's ends and backs put on their worst show of the year, defensively—the ends on wide plays and the backs on the defense. Parma gained two-thirds of the rushing total on the night, and the offense completed six of twelve passes, two of them for scores. Chelsea's offense deserved to win but the defense didn't appear interested.

The Bulldogs struck for both of their touchdowns in the first quarter while Parma skipped the first, preferring to notch singletons in the last three periods.

Both Chelsea scores came the first two times the Bulldogs had the ball and very close together. Parma failed to gain after taking the kick-off and were forced to kick from their own 28. John Batsakes gathered it in on the Chelsea 45 and ran it back to the visitors 49, from where he and Stan Knickerbocker alternated carrying to the 21. From there on a double reverse, Knickerbocker scored wide around right and scored standing up as he simply outran the defense. Parma's secondary after George Heydlauff's perfect placement, Chelsea led, 7-0.

On the third play from scrimmage after the following kick-off, Heydlauff intercepted a Parma pass on his own 40, and ran it back to the Chelsea 44 from which it took only six plays to cover the 50 yards to pay dirt. Knickerbocker sent this touchdown by a line sweep around right and from the Parma 33 to 4 and two plays later John Batsakes skirted left end for the score. Again, Heydlauff's conversion was good and it appeared that Chelsea was off to the races with a lead in the first quarter. But, it was the end, not the beginning.

Parma got their first score midway of the second period as the result of some very fine kicking by Dave Moffitt. Panther right half, booted one from midfield which went out of bounds on the Chelsea 7-yard line. Chelsea failed to gain and Slane's punt traveled only to the 25 from where it was run back to the 21. In six plays Parma scored, getting the tally on a 6-yard pass from Dave Moffitt, fullback, to Laurin Milleding.

Parma's second score was the personal achievement of Dave Moffitt, Panther fullback, who carried or passed the ball on nine of the twelve plays which they needed to cover 56-yard march. Moffitt plunged over right tackle for the final yard but after Slane blocked Tooley's attempted conversion Chelsea still held a slim 14-13 lead.

In the final period Parma scored on the longest drive of the night, a 63-yarder, which took only nine plays as they gained at will around Chelsea's ends. However, the score was made on another play, from Huey Tooley, reserve right half, to Harold Zantop, left end, which found the Chelsea backs again entirely uninterested in the play of pass defense, even of a half-hearted nature. Tooley's second conversion for the night made it 20-14 for the Panthers, and Chelsea put on two stayed although one to the 23, which good drives, one to the 19 as the game ended, in an effort to tie it up, but they just couldn't do it.

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs travel south for their season finale, the annual rivalry game with the "Flying Dutchmen" rivalry angle and despite all this one in a Chelsea should win this one in a walk as Manchester is suffering from one of its worst seasons without memory. The Bulldogs' season record stands at 4-4 now and this record should enable them to better a 500 season rating.

See you at game time!

FHA Official Explains New Housing Act

Farmers in Washtenaw county are showing considerable interest in the new housing act recently passed by Congress and signed by the President on July 15, according to Clayton C. Ingerson, FHA regional administrator, who is in the county on a tour of inspection.

He said that his office, in Jackson, had received a number of calls or visits from farmers eager to construct or repair farm buildings.

To be eligible for loans an applicant must be a farm owner, and be unable to obtain credit for his construction or repair work from local sources at reasonable terms.

A farm tenant may not obtain a loan under the housing act; but a farm owner may borrow to repair or construct farm buildings for his tenants.

In a brief description of the farm housing program as authorized by Mr. Ingerson said that construction of homes and other farm buildings to farmers whose income from farm or other resources is sufficient to repay the loan plus interest without further assistance from government. On this type of loan the act does not set a limit on the amount a farmer may borrow; but Ingerson estimated that the most of the loans are expected to be for remodeling rather than for new construction.

Nationally they would average about $2,200. Loans will be repaid in a maximum of 33 years at 4 per cent interest. When a farmer, because of circumstances beyond his control, is unable to make his payments, a moratorium on interest and principal may be granted, and in extreme cases the interest for that year may be forgiven.

When necessary, loans may be made to enlarge or develop farm land to help provide income needed to pay off a housing loan.

Supervisor Ingerson said that these loans are made through his agency and approved by the Farmers Home county committee, are only part of the aid which the Agricultural Research Administration is authorized to work out research on new materials and construction methods. This includes plus building plans for various farm construction, will be made available to farmers through the County Agricultural Extension agent. In addition, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics will make special surveys to determine farm construction needs.

Hearing Scheduled on Notten Road Flasher

A hearing is scheduled for 9:30 a.m., Dec. 8, on the Washtenaw County Highway Department appeal on the Michigan Public Service Commission's order to install a flasher signal at the Notten road crossing of the New York Central railway west of Chelsea. The Public Service Commission ordered the highway department to install the flasher in August, 1948.

School officials requested the flasher signal as a safety measure for school buses which must cross the tracks at this point. The crossing has been considered a dangerous one because the view is obstructed. Several fatalities have occurred there in the past.

The hearing will be held in the Ingham county Circuit court.

Fire Destroys Garage at Cavanaugh Lake

A garage at the home of Walter Stewart at Cavanaugh Lake, was destroyed by fire shortly before noon on Sunday. Also burned was a 1941 Buick car and a quantity of tools. A 1950 model Buick which had also been parked in the garage was driven out when the fire started. The fire had gained too much headway to permit removal of the second car. It was thought the fire probably started around a stove in the garage.

A garage building only three feet away from the burned structure, was scarcely scorched, but the roof of the Stewart house had caught fire from flying sparks and Chelsea firemen concentrated their efforts on saving the house and nearby buildings. A more serious fire was averted, fire department officials said, by the fact that there was almost no wind at the time.

Rod-Gun Members See Dr. Paul's Movies

A much-enjoyed feature of the program at Tuesday's meeting of the Chelsea Rod and Gun club was the showing of two reels of color movies by Dr. L. J. Paul. The pictures were of last spring and showed highlights of the doctor's fishing trip in the Canadian wilds.

The meeting was held in the K. of C. hall and a K. of C. committee served a nice lunch to the club members.

During the evening centered on the pros and cons of the 10 a.m. opening time for pheasant hunting.

Forty-three members and three guests attended the meeting.

Fire Department Gets OK To Buy New Smoke Masks

The Village Council Monday evening authorized the purchase of a special smoke and gas mask for the Chelsea Fire department, thus making it possible for the department to have two of the masks as part of its equipment. The department had enough money on hand from the remainder of the money contributed last year for the re-equipment, to purchase one of the masks. Two of the special masks were considered necessary because of the danger of one man going alone into a smoke- or gas-filled building.

The masks are called a type of air pack and are equipped with an aluminum tank of purified, compressed air which is strapped to the fireman's back.

Other similar masks have tanks at the front thus hampering a man's movements. A full tank of the compressed air is sufficient to last for one and one-half hours, officials said.

The mask fits so securely that it has been known to remain effective even under water. The air is released at high pressure across the glass, keeping it clear at all times. The high pressure air release into the mask also has a cooling effect.

Purchase price of the masks, complete with the aluminum tank, is $197 each. The Council also authorized the purchase of an extra tank at a cost of $40.

School Bond Issue Loses Second Time by Narrow Margin

The school bond issue re-submitted to local electors last Thursday, Nov. 3, was defeated for the second time within a month. The previous election on the issue was held Oct. 12.

Results of Thursday's election on the bond issue was 422 "No" and 384 "Yes." There was a total of 816 votes and ten ballots were spoiled and could not be counted. The millage issue received a majority of one vote, there being 438 "Yes" and 437 "No." Sixteen ballots were spoiled. The total vote on the millage issue was 891.

Results of the advisory vote on site preference was as follows: athletic field area, 427; Maywood, 229; Palmer farm, 68; blanks, 54; Bowers plant, 10; Wilkinson property, McKenna acres and present site, each 5 votes; Pierce farm, 3; North M-92 and McKinley, each two votes and one each for Pierce's Lake, Cassidy Lake and Holmes field.

Funds Needed To Equip New Pet Shelter

Today, Nov. 10, is the opening date for a county-wide campaign to raise $25,000 for equipment and maintenance of a new animal shelter for Washtenaw county's stray and needy animals. Dates for the campaign have been set from Nov. 10 to Dec. 1.

In Chelsea, Dudley K. Holmes is in charge of solicitation. The shelter building, house for the humane officer, garage, land, landscaping and fencing will all be given by an anonymous donor to the society.

Dr. Edward H. Kraus, dean emeritus of the University of Michigan's literary school, is county campaign chairman. J. Wayne Meadows of the State Savings Bank, Ann Arbor, is campaign treasurer to whom contributions and pledges may be mailed.

Dr. Kraus, who is also president of the Humane Society, emphasized that despite its name which was adopted in 1886 when the society was formed, serves the whole of Washtenaw county.

Dr. Kraus states, "The donor's unusually generous offer to give buildings and land is contingent upon the ability of the Humane Society to raise the $25,000 fund for equipment and maintenance. The proposed shelter would be a boon not only to lost or homeless dogs and cats and other small mammals in distress, but would include quarters for horses and other large animals. It would give our county the means to control the stray animal population in a humane and effective way, and would play an essential role in the prevention of rabies. If the fund is raised, Washtenaw county will be provided with a permanent, first-class animal shelter. If it is not raised, Washtenaw county will continue to be faced with the problem of providing properly for its lost, stray, unwanted, suffering and abused animals."

School children will help to buy special items of equipment such as feeding dishes, supplies for sick animals and animal rescue equipment. School authorities express approval of the project for its educational value to children.

The Washtenaw County Farm Bureau is assisting through its community groups towards the raising of the fund. A spokesman for the Humane Society is presenting the project to a county grange meeting this week.

In a statement about the work of the Humane Society, of Ann Arbor, Dr. Kraus said: "The Humane Society is a charitable organization incorporated under the laws of the State of Michigan as a non-profit corporation for the prevention of cruelty to animals. The Goodyear animal shelter, which is no longer adequate to handle the work which the society is called upon to do, is the only animal shelter in Washtenaw county. It receives dogs and other animals turned over to it by the county dog warden, police officers, and private citizens throughout the county. Last year it received 1,986 dogs and 1,228 cats. All of these animals were either lost or homeless, and therefore might have added to the stray population had they not been received at the shelter. They were returned to their owners, placed in good, new homes, or peacefully destroyed."

The proposed shelter would be located in superior township, one-third of a mile south of Lombard, it would include a small barn area in the main building and an outside paddock. It would provide a clinic, special quarters for sick animals, kennels with individual outside runways for dogs, a puppy room, outside runways for cats, kitchen and shower room, as well as the necessary storage and office space.

"The citizens of Washtenaw county may take a just pride in this building," said Dr. Kraus, "if their generosity makes its erection possible."

Blood Donors Told How

(For the convenience of those who wish to give blood and those who will work in the blood plasma center, the following information on procedures.)

This is how you give your blood. First of all you register early. Now is a good time. Then you receive an appointment card—follow its instructions. Appear at the center in Ann Arbor or Ypsilanti at the exact time indicated on your appointment card. (If you can't get there, phone 2-5546.)

If everybody follows the schedule set, you won't have to wait a minute. You'll give the registration clerk your name, address, phone, sex, birthplace, and date, and the date you last donated blood.

A nurse will check your temperature, pulse, blood pressure and hemoglobin and medical history. Then a doctor will check you over. They intend to be certain that you won't feel any ill effects at all from giving blood, before they let you give a drop.

Then a volunteer worker will give you a glass of sweet fruit juice or sweet gingerale just before you go into the donor room.

The actual giving of blood takes about five minutes. You lie down for this, and you probably won't know when you start or stop.

Then you're given a sandwich and a cup of coffee, tea or milk or a sandwich, cookies or doughnuts, (and will taste good). You see, your appointment blank asks you not to eat fatty food for four hours before you give blood. You chat for a few minutes with others who have just given blood and the girls in the canteen, and then you are on your way.

That's all there is to it. You've given a pint of blood to make plasma and fractions to help many people to health, and perhaps some to life.

Flowers that Bloom in the Spring

Among the "signs of spring" recently noted in this community is a heptatica plant in full bloom, brought in to The Standard office Tuesday by Mrs. Conrad Beisel. The plant was dug up by her son Edward, in his woods on Yssel road, near the Waterloo project, last Sunday. It was one of a large number that were in bloom in the woods. The heptaticas are among the earliest flowers of spring and the last few days have evidently "fooled" them into bursting forth into bloom now.

The lobed leaves are fresh and green and the delicate pinkish blossoms are perfectly formed. When Mrs. Beisel brought in the plant Tuesday it had four open flowers and also a number of buds.

Mrs. Beisel said ferns and other plants in the woods all still look fresh and green.

CHURCH BAZAAR

Orchard Expert Will Show How To Protect from Mice

A demonstration for the control of mice from girdling fruit trees in orchards has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 15, at 1:30 p.m., in High Orchards on Geddes road.

According to H. S. Osier, county agricultural agent, last year many trees were girdled by mice which could have been controlled if proper precautions had been taken. Next Tuesday afternoon Karl Bailey, district horticultural agent, will demonstrate the proper mixing of poison and its distribution in the orchards for the control of rodents.

According to Mr. Bailey, if this is properly done it will be quite effective in reducing girdling during the winter months. It is likely that Mr. Bailey will also discuss some other orchard management problems during the afternoon.

In the forenoon of the same day, Mr. Bailey will meet with the committee of Washtenaw county fruit growers for the purpose of outlining the County Fruit Growers program for the coming year. The forenoon meeting will be held in the Agricultural Extension office, in the court house, Ann Arbor.

Orchard Expert Will Show How To Protect from Mice

A demonstration for the control of mice from girdling fruit trees in orchards has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 15, at 1:30 p.m., in High Orchards on Geddes road.

According to H. S. Osier, county agricultural agent, last year many trees were girdled by mice which could have been controlled if proper precautions had been taken. Next Tuesday afternoon Karl Bailey, district horticultural agent, will demonstrate the proper mixing of poison and its distribution in the orchards for the control of rodents.

According to Mr. Bailey, if this is properly done it will be quite effective in reducing girdling during the winter months. It is likely that Mr. Bailey will also discuss some other orchard management problems during the afternoon.

BULLETIN

At a meeting held Wednesday evening, Nov. 9, in the Lima Township hall for the purpose of nominating community committee members and delegates to a county convention of the Production and Marketing Administration, the farm program of the present U. S. agricultural administration met a sharp rebuff.

All farmers present at the meeting unanimously agreed that they were not at all in favor of the PMA plan, quotas and marketing controls. Consequently they stated that they were "opposed and objected to having any part in nominating a committee member or delegate to any county convention under the present PMA. At the meeting a petition to this effect was signed by all present, to

REPORT CARDS

Pupils at St. Mary's grade school took home their report cards this week. This was the first of seven reports which parents will receive before school closes in June, to show them what their youngsters are doing during the year. Report cards are issued every two months, or five times a year in parochial schools. In addition, pupils take home their individual progress charts following standard tests in January and June. These regular reports insure parents being informed of Johnny and Mary's exact progress through the months.

If Johnny should be doing better in all his subjects, or if Mary's mark in reading is below par, it behooves parents to ask now while the school year is still young. A brief talk with the teacher will probably show where the difficulty lies. Any teacher will be glad to make an appointment with parents outside of school hours.

The time for parental consternation is right after this first report card, not in June when the final mark for the year has been recorded. The first report measures what pupils have accomplished or failed to accomplish in the first two months of class work. Depending upon their marks, they still have four-fifths of the school year to keep up the good work—try to do a little better—or turn over a new leaf and really improve.

HALLOWEEN FUN

On Monday afternoon the boys and girls celebrated the festival of Halloween by individual room parties. Music, games, and refreshments were enjoyed by all. The primary section enjoyed two piano solos by Carol Young and David Rowe, also a tap dance by Gordon and Gilbert Glick.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

The boys and girls of grades one and two enjoyed a birthday surprise on Nov. 3. Mrs. Steger brought ice cream and candy for each one in honor of Susan's seventh birthday.

SODIUM FLORIDE TREATMENTS

Forty eight boys and girls took advantage of the sodium fluoride treatments. They all received the second treatment Monday, Nov. 3.

While the number of men required to operate farms is decreasing owing to mechanization, scientific developments in industries utilizing agricultural products have created more jobs for more people.

Edited by the Journalism Club of the Chelsea Public School

Nov. 11, tomorrow night, will be the final football game of the season, with Chelsea playing at Manchester.

Wednesday evening, Nov. 16, the Grade PTA will meet at 8 o'clock in the Home Economics room.

FOOTBALL UPS AND DOWNS

Chelsea's 1949 football season will end tomorrow night at Manchester. All in all, in the league, Chelsea has had a successful season, with four wins and two losses. The team came near to winning the '49 pennant. Chelsea hasn't won a pennant since '38. Mr. Cameron's first year of coaching football here.

At the closing of our '49 season we are sorry to say that we must lose a few of our senior boys as follows: Captain Bob Vogel, who was injured in the U. High game, O. Bareis, B. Robbins, N. O'Connor, A. Musbach, D. Myers, and Dr. Maroney. Chelsea's coaches must have recognition also, for they have done a wonderful job. We'll all be out rooting again next year.

TODAY'S BOOK VS. YESTERDAY'S BOOK

Today's book, Happy Joe; yesterday's book, Gloomy Moe. Subject matter, comparison of books. Gloomy Moe—"What do you have to say for yourself, Happy Joe?"

Happy Joe—"Well, I am very gay and full of cheer and I am full of bright pictures and illustrations. Both young and old can enjoy and understand me."

Gloomy Moe—"Huh! You are more than half full of pictures, which are silly. When people read me they gain valuable, plus interesting knowledge. I have more subject value to offer them; not silly pictures."

Happy Joe—"What do you mean, interesting? Valuable, yes, but people no longer care for such cut and dried material as you offer. They will long remember what they read in me because they enjoy while they learn. I contain as much knowledge as you, but I express it differently."

Well, what is YOUR verdict, public? Which is more interesting? Do you read many books? You should. Books contain not only valuable knowledge, but they are entertaining and enjoyable.

A FRESHMAN GIRL HAS HER FIRST DATE

At 12:30 Saturday afternoon, a freshman sits at home wishing for something to do. There is always work, but she doesn't feel like working. She seems to feel dreary.

At 1:00 p.m. the clock is moving too slowly. Ten minutes later the telephone rings, and with trembling fingers she answers it in her best Lauren Bacall voice. Then she almost drops the phone in excitement, because that certain handsome boy has finally called up to ask her the big question (for a date).

At 1:20 she rushes to tell her mother the wonderful news. Then she waits for a few moments (they seem like hours), before she floats smoothly down stairs to greet him.

The night grows on, and at 10 we find her at her door. The good night parting is over in a moment. After entering the house she asks herself "Will he ask me again?"

Two days later the phone rings and her big question is finally answered.

SPORTLIGHT
"Oh! Aren't they wonderful? I'm just dying to try them on. Yes, that was one of the many conversations which took place in Miss DeRose's room last Monday afternoon when the girls' basketball uniforms arrived. These are the first new uniforms the girls have had in nearly 10 years."

Miss DeRose and two representatives from the girls' basketball squad, Mary Ann Schrader and Peggy Schable, attended a meeting in Manchester on Wednesday evening, Nov. 2. The purpose of this meeting was to make a schedule for basketball games during the coming season. Among the schools represented were Manchester, Dexter, Saline and Chelsea. A schedule was decided upon and will be published in the near future.

First a bath and then supper. After all this the time is only 4:45. Now there seems to be a funny feeling in her stomach. Did she eat too fast?

Dishes are done and she rehearses just what and how she will say good night to him. She must remember to use her Bacall voice on him. It's so effective! At 6:00 dishes are done and she is upstairs getting ready. "Oh dear, my hair just doesn't seem to want to lie down," she remarks. She is ready and waiting for him in her room for her mother.

Utter Confusion . . .

YOU VOLUNTEER AN ANSWER AND SUDDENLY FORGET IT-- to call and say that he has arrived. Then comes the big moment. A knock on the door makes her heart tingle. She waits for a few moments (they seem like hours), before she floats smoothly down stairs to greet him.

The night grows on, and at 10 we find her at her door. The good night parting is over in a moment. After entering the house she asks herself "Will he ask me again?"

Two days later the phone rings and her big question is finally answered.

SPORTLIGHT
"Oh! Aren't they wonderful? I'm just dying to try them on. Yes, that was one of the many conversations which took place in Miss DeRose's room last Monday afternoon when the girls' basketball uniforms arrived. These are the first new uniforms the girls have had in nearly 10 years."

Miss DeRose and two representatives from the girls' basketball squad, Mary Ann Schrader and Peggy Schable, attended a meeting in Manchester on Wednesday evening, Nov. 2. The purpose of this meeting was to make a schedule for basketball games during the coming season. Among the schools represented were Manchester, Dexter, Saline and Chelsea. A schedule was decided upon and will be published in the near future.

First a bath and then supper. After all this the time is only 4:45. Now there seems to be a funny feeling in her stomach. Did she eat too fast?

Dishes are done and she rehearses just what and how she will say good night to him. She must remember to use her Bacall voice on him. It's so effective! At 6:00 dishes are done and she is upstairs getting ready. "Oh dear, my hair just doesn't seem to want to lie down," she remarks. She is ready and waiting for him in her room for her mother.

SENIOR REVIEWS

According to the majority of opinions of students, who is the best dresser in the senior class? Everyone who guessed "Dorothy Thomas" will receive a silver dollar at the corner of Maple and Humphrey after school. Dorothy was born in Rochester, N. Y., May 19, 1931. Her favorites are as follows: food, chow mein (although she doesn't have any Chinese blood), sport, football (that might account for her attendance at all games). Her pet peeve, although she doesn't look capable of having one, is butter that won't spread. Dorothy has been active in many organizations during her four years of high school. She was a member of the chorus and Latin club and she belongs to the G.A.A. and the Journalism club. Dorothy is a treasurer of the senior class and held the offices of vice-president and treasurer of the Latin club. She has been on the "B" honor roll consistently during her years in high school. The senior class considers Dorothy one of its prize students.

BIG BLAZE

On Nov. 3 was held the first post-war outdoor pep rally, which was a success.

The bonfire was started by Mr. Stuits. Then the group heard a speech from him about the game Friday.

Later on, Mr. Stuits called on all of the senior football boys for a few remarks.

Then came two peppy cheers,

Mr. Benjamin were the chaparons.

MAIN ATTRACTION

Have you seen them? Are they a wow!

On Halloween night the Chelsea marching band led the parade through the business district. Despite the cold weather, members played very well.

The following Thursday a snake dance was held and the band was at the lead, playing their best.

At the Chelsea-Farma game the smartly-dressed members stepped off snappily to put on a good exhibition which was dedicated to "Dad's Night." A "D" was made for Farma, and after playing their school song, the band marched across the field to form a "V" for Vogel, and played "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Then a setting sun was formed, and "Day Is Done" was beautifully played.

Next, a rocking chair that rocked, was formed while the band played "Old Rocking Chair's Got Me." Stepping off from this formation, a pair of glasses was made, while playing "Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Then a pipe was formed, and while it smoked the band played "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes. The song "Whaka The Matter With Father" accompanied the formation of "Pa." The final formation of the evening was a huge "C" for Chelsea, while the band played the school song.

The Home Ec. III girls are really going to be professional sewers after this year. They are even learning how to use all the attachments to the sewing machine. They have become familiar with such terms as "binder," "cording foot," "quilter," "ruffler," etc.

SAVE THE CHILDREN
The magazine "Seventeen" recently published a pictorial article telling how a high school in Phoenix, Ariz., helped students in western Europe by sponsoring their school supplies, as well as permitting them to find a bridge of friendship through correspondence.

Pat Murphy greatly stressed the children's plea for help, and the students agreed to the project of supporting a European school.

Assemblies . . .
Tuesday morning an assembly was called by Mr. Johnsen. The purpose of the meeting was to impress upon the students the necessity of locating a site for building our new school. The three sites to be voted on are the athletic field area, the Palmer farm area, and the Maywood-Pierce area. Pamphlets were distributed to the students, to be taken home to their parents. The pamphlets clearly stated the facts about the new school.

Mr. Johnsen also gave the football team a big build-up concerning the Flat Rock game. He concluded the assembly by sending the students to their second-hour classes.

Petition Requests Road Commission Not To Close Roads

A request in the form of a petition is to be presented to the Washtenaw county Board of Road Commissioners at the hearing on the closing of a portion of Heim road in Sylvan township, scheduled to be held in the Sylvan Township hall on Friday, Dec. 2. It was learned yesterday.

The petition carries the names of a number of property owners and voters of Washtenaw county, particularly those living in the township of Sylvan and Sharon, who request the board not to close or vacate any part of the Heim, Pritchard, Bartis, Wadley or Decker roads. The petition states, "Control of those roads by the Road Commission in the interest of the general public is the only defense the people have against use of the adjacent land in ways detrimental to the public peace, safety and welfare."

"The people have reason to believe," the petition reads, "that the use intended to be made of the large tract of land traversed by those roads will be contrary to the interests of neighboring property owners and the Village of Chelsea."

November 6-12 Is National 4-H Club Week

Many 4-H clubs are planning programs for National Achievement Week of the organization which is November 6-12. Much of America is unfamiliar with 4-H club purposes and the good 4-H does. How can we reach those persons who have not learned about our clubs? members write, "What should we try to show the public during achievement week?"

The aims of the week are: to report the year's total accomplishments of 4-H members; to highlight the contributions of 4-H members to food production and conservation; to aid parents in understanding the accomplishments of their boys and girls; to recognize individual achievement; to develop plans for the coming year and to stimulate enrollment.

In many states, clubs will be reorganized and goals set for the coming year. Nationally, as well as on a state basis, the week will feature greetings to club members by prominent government officials.

The public may be reached through newspaper releases and advertisements, circulars, display cards on streetcars and buses and displays in stores and store windows. Achievement award banquets may be held and exhibits featuring projects.

The challenge to leaders during this special week was expressed by the late Dr. C. B. Smith, former assistant director of the federal extension service:

"If we continue in 4-H work to stress great living in the minds of rural youth and train men and women who have regard for efficiency, 4-H club work will grow."

County Polio Chap. Spends $14,000 for Local Treatments

Approximately $14,000 was spent by the Washtenaw county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis last year in treatment of polio cases and for polio equipment. J. W. Meadows, treasurer of the chapter, announced at a meeting in Ann Arbor.

It is not yet definite, Meadows said, whether the chapter will have sufficient funds to pay expenses for the duration of the year. The chapter has been using its reserve fund during this past year, which has seen a record number of polio cases in the county.

During last year's March of Dimes drive, the county contributed approximately $19,000, half of which went to the National Foundation for its emergency fund and for research. The remainder, about $9,000, did not match the expenses incurred in caring for the county polio victims, Meadows pointed out.

The 1950 March of Dimes drive must bring in more contributions than ever before if the chapter is to operate successfully in the event of another high-incidence year in polio, he averred.

Miss Virginia Schumacher of Ann Arbor, has been named the new president of the county chapter. Other officers are Dr. John Wessinger, vice-president; Dorothy Ketcham, secretary; J. W. Meadows, treasurer. Two new members appointed to the executive board are Judge Jay H. Payne of Ann Arbor, and Stanley Wirbel of Ypsilanti.

Reports of the emergency polio drive are not yet complete, Meadows said. Announcement as to funds contributed by county citizens will be made at a later date.

Red Cross Hospital Workers Help Speed Patient Recovery

The job of rebuilding sick bodies and minds of servicemen in military hospitals and restoring them to useful life is carried forward by a team—doctors, nurses, and Red Cross workers. The Red Cross worker may be a medical or psychiatric social worker, a recreation specialist, or a combination of them assisted by a Gray Lady.

Military physicians and nurses find that restoring the health of a sick man requires much more than medicine and food. The will to live and the will to do things must be revived before medical treatment can get in its beneficial work. That's where the Red Cross enters the picture.

A young soldier, only 23, was injured in an accident at a munitions proving ground. Half of his face and neck were blown away. Pain-racked and frightened, he had little taste for ordinary hospital recreation. He loved music, though, so the recreation worker brought to his bedside a radio phonograph and then, by mere chance, found she could satisfy a greater longing. The boy revealed that he wanted to write to his young wife those tender, personal things that he hesitated to dictate.

Under federal statute and regulations of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, the American Red Cross furnishes volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the armed forces and acts in matter of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their armed forces.

Red Cross hospital workers assist medical officers with welfare and recreation programs for military patients.

A recording machine was brought to his bedside, and he found the words to tell his longings to his distant wife. It wasn't easy because his injury had damaged his vocal chords and articulation was difficult. But after patient practice with the hospital worker, he finally poured out his heart to the record and sent it off to his wife.

To the arthritic, the tubercular, the rheumatic heart sufferer, doomed to long periods of bed care, the recreational services provided by the Red Cross ease their burden of restlessness and discouragement. Nearby chapters in cooperation with other local agencies bring into the hospitals young people from the nearby communities, women who serve as hostesses for parties, young people who dance and play games, all reminding the sick soldier that he is not forgotten by those he serves.

Clam Chowder Can Be Dynamite!

If Smiley Roberts is a friend of yours, like he is mine, and if you want to keep his friendship, like I do, don't ever let him hear you say that good clam chowder can be made without cream.

In New England, where Smiley comes from, friendships have been broken over tomatoes versus cream in clam chowder. Experts say that south of Boston the tomato reigns supreme, but north of Boston it's cream—or else!

From where I sit, whether it should have cream or tomatoes is simply a matter of taste. This is plain to anyone who doesn't come from clam chowder country.

What a great world this would be if we could all see that most prejudices are matters of taste only. Some like hot coffee. Some like it iced. Some people like a temperate glass of beer. Others prefer ice-cold lemonade. My grandmother used to say, "Prejudice that sees only what it pleases, cannot see very plain."
