Michigan's state government received $506.4 million in its various operating funds in 1948-49 to finance the various programs which the state undertakes, according to a study just completed by the Bureau of Governmental Research, Detroit.

Such receipts were 67 per cent greater than those the state received in 1945-46.

Seventy-two per cent of the state's revenues this past fiscal year came from taxes—such as the sales tax, cigarette tax, corporation tax, gasoline tax, weight tax, intangibles tax and many others.

Revenue from state enterprises, regulatory services, patents and royalties and miscellaneous sources accounted for 14 per cent of the total.

The remaining 14 per cent came from Washington in the form of "grants-in-aid" to help finance those programs which Congress has decided at one time or another that the state or local units should undertake.

With the exception—of the charges that the state makes for certain services, all revenues come from taxes—direct or indirect—levied upon all of us as individuals, consumers or businessmen. In most instances the tax money goes to Lansing.

But $73.1 million comes to Lansing via Washington. That money, nevertheless, is from the pockets of Michigan taxpayers.

Michigan state government paid to its local units of government $12 per cent of its total revenues in 1948-49. Most of this "aid" came direct from Lansing—having been raised by state-wide taxes. But a portion of such aid was funneled through Lansing from Washington to the local units of government—during the past four years well over one-half of the state's revenues are distributed back to local units.

Local units of government—cities, villages, townships, school districts, counties and other special districts—must pay taxes. Sometimes forget that this money which is "given" them by the state came from only one source—TAXES.

TAXES regardless of what government collects them or which are the final beneficiaries of them to expend are paid by all of us who receive an income.

Every dollar spent by government is a dollar the citizen does not have to spend for himself at his own choice.

T. Jarvis, R. Ringe, New Directors on Central Fibre Board

Two new members were added to the Board of Directors of the Central Fibre Products Company at the annual meeting of stockholders Tuesday, Feb. 7, namely Theodore Jarvis of Chelsea and Richard H. Ringe of Ionia.

Mr. Jarvis was first employed by the company Nov. 3, 1945, and was promoted to toolroom foreman, then general production foreman, and he now becomes a director.

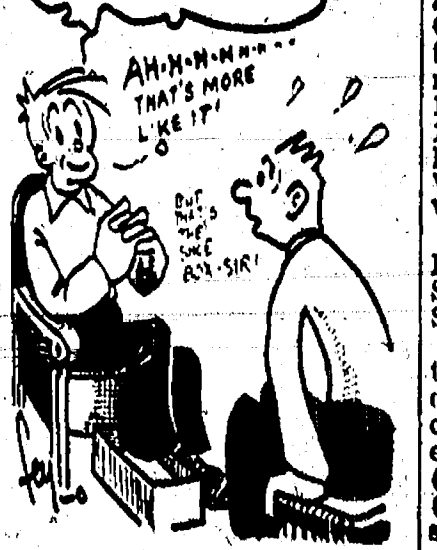

Mr. Ringe became associated with the company in 1935 at its Detroit plant where he was employed until 1942 when the plant was closed due to the war. At the end of the war Mr. Ringe was recalled to Chelsea to act as general production manager, and he has held this position since that time.

Other directors re-elected were Donald H. Bacon of Chelsea and Samuel E. Tushingham, Harold A. Jones and Richard W. Ambrose of Detroit, and Henry C. Schneider of Chelsea. At the annual organization meeting of the Board of Directors, Mr. Jones and Mr. Ambrose, vice-presidents, and Henry C. Schneider was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Lawrence Hovey, of Detroit, spent Tuesday here with her mother, Mrs. Henry Mohrlock.

Milan-U. High Meet in Crucial League Game This Week

By DWIGHT GADD

Chelsea High, pulling another of their week-end-the-half-act, vaulted high up the league ladder last Friday night as they created a minor upset by tripping an overrated Cub quintet from University High, 34-32, here on the local hardwood.

Just as the game the week before at Ypsilanti had traveled on the locals during the first half but then came to their rescue in the second, Chelsea's shots again were of the in again-out again variety and it enabled U. High to lead quite comfortably 17-10 at the intermission.

U. High jumped to a big early lead as they rolled up 8 points before Chelsea found the range to cut the lead in half at 8-4, at the quarter's end. And the second quarter continued the same way, as the Cubs stretched their margin to 17-10 at the half and appeared very confident as they left the floor.

The third quarter proved to be a different story though and the visitors saw this was to be no runaway. Sparked by Marty Tobin and Stan Knickerbocker, the Bulldogs closed the margin of the score in a rush to leave U. High ahead by only two points, 22-20, at the three quarter mark.

Then in as wild and crowd-pleasing a finish as will be seen here for sometime, the Bulldogs made their bid for victory. With the quarter over, half gone and U. High leading 20-25, Crocker started the sport with a foul shot, and then in rapid succession, Vogel, Knickerbocker, and Tobin dropped in two pointers, and Knickerbocker added a free throw to put Chelsea on top 32-22 with one minute and forty seconds to go. U. High fought back with all they had and came within one point of tying it up but Tobin drove a free one in the last half minute for the final, 34-32, score.

It was the first loss of the year to a scholastic side as they had won only to their top alumni in 10 previous starts but they definitely aren't the ball club they've been built up to be. Or else, we have a Knute Rockne of basketball here with us in the figure of Coach John Magiera with his half-time rallying fights, pep talks, and clear logic.

High's two five forwards, Bill Twining and Dan Lickly, led the scoring for the night with 11 points each. Chelsea's high men were the two who sparked the second half comeback, guard Marty Tobin and forward Stan Knickerbocker, both with 10 points and all of them coming in the last half.

However, just as in the game the week before, the starting five all contributed important points as Vogel had 5, Crocker 6, and they diaut 2.

With this important win behind them, the Bulldogs should have only two worries and they are overconfidence and who's going to trip Milan for them. The first they'll have to guard against themselves and for the second one all they can do is hope.

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs travel to Saline for a battle with the low-scoring, up and down Hornets, who are tied with Chelsea in the league, but still have to play all the teams in the top half of the standings except U. High. While the Bulldogs should win handily, they mustn't be thinking too much about the U. High-Milan game or they could upset themselves.

See you at game time! P. S. The "Bulldogs" won a thriller on Friday night, too, as they nipped the little Cubs, 41-35, with Merkel netting 13 points and Betts 12 to lead the attack. It was a good night in Chelsea!

Mrs. D. Schneider, 94 Dies Monday at Her Home

Mrs. Anna Magdalena Schneider, widow of David Schneider, and a life-long resident of this vicinity, died at her home, 604 South Main street, at ten o'clock Monday morning. Mrs. Schneider, who was 94 years old last September 25, had been confined to bed since Jan. 16, when she fell at her home and broke her hip.

She had recovered from a similar injury suffered ten years ago and had been doing her own house-keeping with the assistance of her son, Reuben, who lived with her. Born in 1855, in Lodi township, she was a daughter of John and Elizabeth Kuebler Wagner. She was married to Mr. Schneider on April 13, 1880 in Scio township. In 1881 they bought the Schneider road farm where they made their home until Mr. Schneider's sudden death on July 5, 1922. In 1923 Mrs. Schneider and her son, Reuben, came to Chelsea to live at the South Main street address.

Mrs. Schneider was a charter member of the Ladies Aid Society of Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners. She had also been a member of the church for many years. Funeral services are to be held at the residence at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, and at Zion Lutheran church at Rogers Corners at 2:30. Rev. M. W. Bruckner is to officiate and burial is to follow in Zion cemetery.

Survivors of Mrs. Schneider, in addition to the sons with whom she made her home, are three daughters, Mrs. William Finkbeiner, of Litch township, Mrs. E. R. Ladd, of Detroit, and Mrs. F. L. Arner, of Bellevue. Also surviving are thirteen grandchildren, including Carl Schneider and Mrs. Howard Flintoft, of Chelsea, and eleven great-grandchildren, those in town being Peter, Jeffrey and John Flintoft. A son, Oscar, died suddenly Jan. 29, 1941, and another son, Albert, died suddenly on September 27, 1937.

Camping Program Is Possible Chelsea School Project

The camping programs for schools, which have been carried on by Dearborn, Ann Arbor and other high schools, are now being discussed as a possible project in the Chelsea school. Joseph Fischer, art teacher at Chelsea High school, is in charge of the project locally and tentative plans have been made for a group of fifty Chelsea students to participate in such a camping program at Mill Lake camp on Saturday and Sunday, April 1 and 2. In addition to the fifty students, which would include the Student Council and the biology classes, twenty-five adults would be present. These would be faculty members, instructors on natural resources from the conservation department and the county nurse.

Mrs. Howard Flintoft spent the week-end in Detroit and attended an annual get-together of former teachers in the Grand Blanc school.

Meeting Is Called by Ed. Board

Electors To Have Chance To Discuss School Needs Now

Members of the Chelsea Agricultural School Board of Education at their regular meeting Monday evening decided to hold a public meeting of school electors on Monday evening, Feb. 20. The meeting is to be held in the Study Hall at the High school beginning at 8 p.m.

The Board members are calling the meeting to try and present to the electors the school situation as they see it now. After they have given their report they plan to divide the electors present into four discussion groups. Each group there will be asked to choose a chairman to preside and lead the discussion of the school situation in this smaller group—it is hoped in this way to give interested people in the community an opportunity to express their views and ideas in regard to a plan of school expansion which would prove satisfactory to a larger number of people than did the plan submitted to the electors last fall.

One of the school board members will sit at the four discussion groups; not to take part in the discussion, but to learn the views and wishes of the people in the group.

The meeting is being announced at this time so that interested persons in the community who wish to attend will have plenty of time to arrange to keep the date open.

Mrs. H. Guthrie, Life-long Chelsea Resident, Dies

Mrs. Helen Guthrie died Tuesday evening at her home, 409 West Middle street, after an extended illness. She was 83 years old and had spent her entire life in this vicinity.

On Oct. 3, 1889, she was married to Albert H. Guthrie and they lived on the John H. Guthrie farm until coming to Chelsea in 1901 to make their home at the Middle street address. Mr. Guthrie died Dec. 29, 1927.

Mrs. Guthrie was a member of Salem Grove Methodist church where funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A prayer service will be held at a residence at 2 p.m. It is expected that Rev. E. O. Davis, former pastor of the church, will officiate at the prayer service and that Rev. Boy Scout Organization Observes 40th Birthday

President Truman greeted twelve outstanding Boy Scouts in the White House yesterday morning in observance of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12, to mark the 40th birthday anniversary of the organization.

The Scouts, who represented the nation's 2,800,000 Scouts and leaders in the ceremonies at Washington, D. C., where the Scout Movement was incorporated, will go to Independence Hall in Philadelphia today for ceremonies where the Liberty Bell is enshrined. The Scouts will wind up their trip in New York where they will enjoy sightseeing, meet notables and visit the National Council office.

Federal officials, civic leaders in Washington and national Scout leaders greeted the twelve representatives Boy Scouts at a breakfast in Washington Wednesday morning. A year ago the Boy Scout movement celebrated its two-year anniversary in the Arm of Liberty by giving more boys in Scouting a richer experience. Summing up the service projects and activities carried on in 1949 in "Report to the Nation," the dozen Scouts told of the progress of the first year of the new program.

The theme of the birthday celebration is "Strengthen Liberty." Since in every city and town and nearly all villages and hamlets throughout the nation and its territories more than 71,000 units take part, this is the largest birthday celebration observed by young Americans. On the actual birthday, Wednesday, all the members were given an opportunity to recommit themselves to the Scout Oath or Promise at 8:15 p.m., in the four time zones.

Sunday, Feb. 12 will be Boy Scout Sunday. Scouts and leaders will attend church services in uniform. Those of Jewish faith will hold their observances in synagogues and temples on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 10 and 11.

A "good turn" by an unidentified British Boy Scout in 1909 to an American businessman who had lost his way in a London fog, led to the incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America in Washington, D. C., 40 years next Wednesday, Feb. 8.

The late William D. Boyce, Chicago publisher, was the first to publish with the helpfulness of the British Boy Scout, who declined his tip for the "good turn" that he accompanied the Scout to the office of Sir (later Lord) Robert Baden-Powell, founder of Scouting, learned about the program and brought a trunkful of pamphlets to America. Later, he incorporated the organization.

On June 21, 1910, a group of men representing 34 national groups interested in youth, started developing the organization and (Continued on page ten)

Polio Fund Total Tops Last Year; Figures Incomplete

Mrs. Walter Mohrlock, chairman of Chelsea's March of Dimes campaign this year has announced that a total of $11,175.45 was contributed here for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis when tabulation was completed on Tuesday. She hastened to add, however, that complete returns had not yet been received from the Chelsea Agricultural school and several organizations are still planning contributions; also, a few coin-collectors are not yet in.

The present total has been tabulated as follows: special gifts (from organizations and manufacturers)—$299.45; proceeds of the Mile O' Dimes board—$217.23; St. Mary's school—$16.30; Public school and High school—$181.72; coin collectors (in business places and those used for factory collections)—$462.81.

Last week Mrs. Mohrlock had said she felt sure a total of over $1,000 would be raised here but she now believes the final figures will be nearer $1,200. If this goal is realized Chelsea will have raised approximately 50 per cent more this year than the final total for 1949.

Fire Damages Cavanaugh Farmhouse

The farmhouse on the old Philip Riemschneider homestead on Lowry road near Cavanaugh Lake was severely damaged Saturday afternoon by fire of undetermined origin. The fire discovered about 1:15, burned out the entire upper floor and all of the roof except a portion over the kitchen. The lower floor was severely damaged by smoke and water. Walter Riemschneider, who has lived in the house his entire lifetime, was in Chelsea paying taxes when he learned that the house was afire.

Mrs. Riemschneider, alone in the house at the time, learned of the fire from unidentified persons who came to the door after seeing the roof afire.

Mr. Riemschneider on Tuesday estimated the property loss to be about $8,000. Household goods and bedding belonging to Mr. Riemschneider's mother who is spending the winter in Texas, had been stored in the upper portion of the fire-damaged house and is a total loss. Several glass jars of small coins which Mr. Riemschneider's first wife had saved over a period of years before her death five years ago and which had been kept as she left them, were broken open by the intense heat and the coins scattered. Mr. Riemschneider estimated that there was approximately $300 in the jars, and believes about $200 of it was recovered. A Communion set, formerly used at Salem Grove Methodist church and stored with Mrs. Philip Riemschneider's personal belongings was melted into a solid mass of silver by the intense heat.

The house had been the Riemschneider homestead for about 65 years. A new furnace and other improvements had been installed during the past year.

The Chelsea and Cassidy Lake fire departments answered the alarm. Mac Packard, one of Chelsea's firemen suffered an electrical shock during the fire-fighting when water he was spraying reached a high tension wire, it was reported.

The Chelsea fire department was also called out Friday evening when a car was discovered to be on fire on Park street. Wiring on the car was burned out, Fire Chief Thomas Young said.

Legion Tells Plans for Addition to Cav. Lake Home

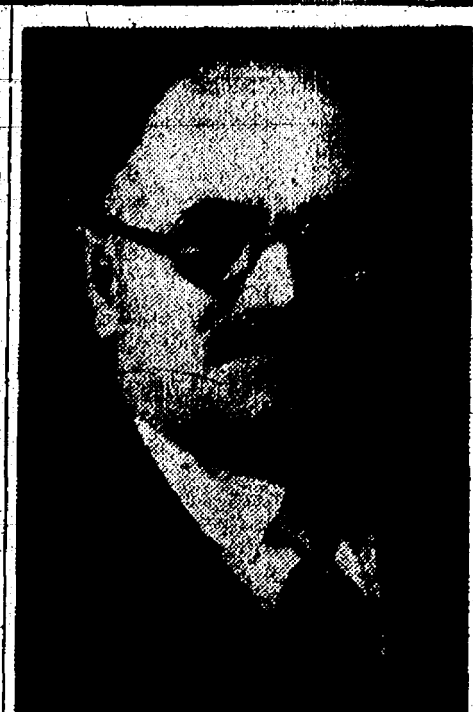

Herbert J. McKune, Post No. 31, of the American Legion, has announced proposed plans for building a 24x40-foot addition to the American Legion Home at Cavanaugh Lake. Albert Doll, Sr., was named chairman of the building committee. Work on the structure is to begin as soon as weather permits.

Present plans are that the addition will be of cement block construction, one story high, and will consist of a dining room and kitchen. The new building will be at the east side of the present building facing the lake. It will be glass-enclosed to afford a sweeping view of the lake.

Formal action on the building project was taken at last week's regular meeting of the Legion, held Thursday, Feb. 2, at the Legion Home.

Plans for the building program are not yet completed but it is expected that the construction work will be done on contract with Legion members volunteering for any preliminary work necessary.

The Washtenaw Junior Bureau is sponsoring a shadow-box social, Feb. 9, at the Washtenaw Farm Bureau store, Ann Arbor. All young people interested in Junior Farm Bureau are cordially invited to attend.

JOHN FRYMUTH

J. Frymuth Taken Sat. by Death

John Frymuth died suddenly about four o'clock Saturday afternoon after suffering a heart attack in the Chelsea Recreation store where he had stopped for a dish of ice cream. He had seemed to be in his usual good health and had been busy making arrangements for a party which he had planned in celebration of his eighty-fourth birthday, Tuesday, Feb. 7. It was a matter of great pride with him that his birthdays the past several years had been occasions for special celebrations planned by fellow employees at the Chelsea Spring plant where he had been employed the past nine years. Old friends also gathered at his home each year to spend the evening with him on his birthday and it was for this annual custom that he had been making arrangements the day he died. He had bid his friends at the Spring plant goodbye Friday night in anticipation of a week's vacation which he planned to enjoy this week.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. on his birthday at the Staffan Funeral Home. Rev. W. H. Skentelbury officiated and burial took place in Oak Grove cemetery.

Mr. Frymuth was born Feb. 7, 1866, in Waterloo township, and was the last surviving member of a family of four daughters and two sons born to John and Barbara Schaff-Frymuth.

He was married to Fannie Hammond, at the home of her parents, on March 15, 1893. They operated the Mensing farm, the Elmer Smith farm and the Sears farm before purchasing the Warren Guerin farm on Sibley road. They lived on their farm (now the George Brettschneider place) until 1920 when they came to the present home at 242 E. Middle street where Mr. Frymuth has since resided. Mrs. Frymuth died very suddenly on August 3, 1935.

After moving to Chelsea Mr. Frymuth was employed as a salesman for Palmer Motor Sales for a number of years. He then worked for the Sterling Michigan company for two years before he was employed at the Spring plant.

He served several terms on the Village Council and had served for twenty-five years as master of finance of K. of P. Lodge No. 194 before resigning from the office in 1945.

Mr. Frymuth is survived by one son, Edward, of Ypsilanti; one granddaughter and a number of nieces and nephews in Grass Lake, Munith and Jackson. Also surviving is Olen Siegrist, a nephew, who, with his wife, has been living with Mr. Frymuth at his home here the past four years.

Honorary pallbearers were Howard Brooks, Ed Chandler, Fred Roessman, John Lutz, Elmer Weinberg and William Luick while active pallbearers were Gerald Luick, Gene Staebler, John Liebeck, George Seitz, Fred Sager and Carl Schwiager.

Saline JCC Presents Darktown Minstrel

The Saline Junior Chamber of Commerce "Darktown Minstrel Show," Feb. 14-15 at the Saline High school auditorium, will be supported by a chorus of 40 voices. Blackface comedians, reminiscent of the famous Richard and Pat Roach, Saline attorney, acting as Mr. Interlocutor, blues singers, tap dancers, gag artists, impersonators, soloists and instrumentalists, will present a two-hour show more pretentious than anything undertaken in Saline in years.

The performance, each night, will start at 8 o'clock.

Independent Cagers

Independent basketball takes the local spotlight this week as the first such games this year are to be played tonight (Thursday) at the High School gym.

In the opening game at 7:30, Edwards Bros., undefeated team from Ann Arbor, will play Cassidy Lake. In the nightcap the Pincney VFW will tangle with Mack's.

THE RICH MAN PAYS IN INCOME TAXES...

...THE POOR MAN PAYS IN HIDDEN TAXES

Graphs reprinted by special permission of Newsweek Magazine.

DID YOU KNOW — ?

That for the small wage earner, hidden taxes—included in the price of nearly every commodity and service today—are worse than income taxes? Hidden taxes averaged $700 in 1949 for every family in the U.S.A.

That federal, state and local governments in 1949 collected $55,000,000,000 in taxes—approximately 25 per cent of our national income?

That in 1945, when 11,000,000 Americans were under arms, the same governments collected $52,500,000,000 in taxes—Less than in the 1949 postwar year?

Hard to believe are these facts. But they are true.

Spending by government—whether federal, state or local—takes money away from every citizen. The money is collected directly or indirectly. The rich pay it, and so do the poor.

There is no Santa Claus at Washington, or Lansing, or county building, or city hall.

Blue Whale
The giant sulfur-bottom, or blue whale may be 100 feet long and weigh as much as 150 tons. This is about 50 times more than an elephant. Even the newborn baby whale sometimes weighs eight tons, which is heavier than two large elephants, according to the World Book encyclopedia.

Loosing Loose Bristles
Any new paint or varnish brush may have a few loose bristles. These can be easily removed by tapping the brush gently against the hand and twirling it rapidly between the palms. Any loose bristles which appear in the process can then be pulled out. Finally, the bristles should be combed straight.

With Malice Toward None--

Lincoln is loved for his humility and compassion, displayed so magnificently in the emancipation and the letter to Mrs. Bixby. But another side of his nature was his ability to take care of himself in an argument--his gift of rejoinder. To deflate pretense, he could hurl a verbal spear.

At a church meeting, rival candidates for congress, Rev. Peter Cartright and Abraham Lincoln appealed to the voters. The preacher intimated his opponent was a heretic. Lincoln waited patiently. The preacher said, "Now, will all those going to heaven stand up?" All rose but Lincoln. Cartright turned in triumph at having thus linked Lincoln and Satan, and cried, "And Mr. Lincoln, where are you going?" Lincoln stood up and said, "I'm going to congress."

Lincoln knew the glimmer boys of politics and the demagogues. He knew their conceits and vanities. He was even ready to put a politician in his place--even a dead one.

When a conceited politician passed away, Lincoln was informed that his funeral attracted a large crowd. To which he said: "If that politician had known how big a funeral he would have had--he would have died years ago!"

and the unmarried swains would draw the slips. This method of introduction, it was hoped, would lead to a permanent romance. At any rate, the young fellow was expected to court his "grab-bag" girl friend until the next feast when he'd have another chance at the boy-meets-girl lottery.

With the advent of Christianity came early church leaders, who, of course, frowned upon the feast of Lupercalia as a pagan celebration, but they also realized that the basic idea wasn't half bad. They solved this pagan problem by dedicating the day to Saint Valentine, patron of the amorous. St. Valentine was a martyred Roman priest who, by strange coincidence, was beheaded on February 14, 270 A.D., during the reign of Emperor Claudius, for refusing to denounce his faith in Christianity.

It is said that during his imprisonment he formed a friendship with the jailer's blind daughter and wrote her a farewell message signed, "From Your Valentine." So to this particular St. Valentine (there are actually seven of them) goes the responsibility for that charming, "From Your Valentine" phrase on the Valentine greetings we exchange today.

Manghelli-Birch Nuptials Performed in Anderson, Indiana

In St. Mary's Catholic church, Anderson, Ind., at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Miss Carolyn Ann Manghelli, of Chelsea, Indiana, became the bride of William Birch, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Birch, Sr., of Chelsea. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Jane Ann Manghelli and the late L.A.A. Manghelli, of Chelseafield. The Rev. Monsignor Thomas Travers, pastor of St. Mary's church officiated in the presence of approximately 200 guests.

Those from Chelsea who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Birch and son Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Viesel and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ritter and daughter, Meg. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Birch and daughter, Carol Ann, of Ann Arbor.

For her wedding the bride was gowned in traditional white satin. The molded bodice was accented with a sheer yoke and with seed pearls and satin and a beaded shawl collar. The softly-pleated skirt was finished with a back panel which extended into a long, cathedral train. Her double, fingertip-length veil was of imported illusion tulle and carried a scalloped satin half-hat edged with rolled illusion which was caught up at intervals with seed pearls.

She carried a white orchid on her white prayer book. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Manghelli, of Anderson.

Mrs. F. Lloyd O'Brien, of Anderson, a sister of the bride was her maid of honor, while Catherine Ann Manghelli of Anderson, a niece of the bride, and Jane Ann Legnard, of Pittsburgh, Pa., a cousin, were bridesmaids. All wore gowned alike in white satin and carried colonial bouquets of American Beauty roses.

Jane Ann Calabaja, niece of the bride, in a white satin gown matching those of the other attendants, acted as flower girl. She carried a small basket of tiny American Beauty rosebuds and baby breath.

David Brinker, of Anderson was the soloist. He sang Schubert's "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "In This Day." The wedding march and other selections including "In A Monastery Garden," were played by the organist, Mrs. Walter Olesky.

Louis Birch of Chelsea, a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Donald Terquest and Bert Weik of Hopkins, Michigan, were the ushers.

Fifty close friends and relatives of the bride and groom, together with the wedding party, attended the wedding breakfast following the ceremony and a reception for 200 guests was held later at the home of the bride's mother, 214 South Washington street, in Chelsea.

Assisting at the reception were the bridesmaids and another sister of the bride, Mary Catherine Manghelli.

Following a week's tour of the eastern states the couple will be at home, after Feb. 14, in Hopkins where Mr. Birch operates a funeral home. Formerly of Chelsea, he graduated from Chelsea High school and from the Indiana School of Mortuary Science at Indianapolis.

Farm Shop Layout
Adds More Space
More Equipment Added
As Skill Is Increased

The shop layout, sketched by Harold E. Gulvin, New York teacher of vocational agriculture, includes spaces for more equipment than most farmers plan to put in their shops; but he has observed, he says, that farmers rapidly obtain more equipment as they become skilled in handling their own repair and construction work.

In describing the farm shop in the book, "Welding Hints for Farmers," published by the James F. Lincoln Arc-Welding foundation, Cleveland, Ohio, states that this plan is the result of many years of experience in working in and examining many farm shops, and makes the following suggestions:

For storage space, many drawers should be installed under the benches. The walls can be used to hang other tools where they can easily be seen and reached. The heating stove is placed in the corner near the smokestack provided for the forge.

The entire right side of this shop plan is for tractors and trucks. There is a handy chair bolt for raising heavy machinery opposite the large overhead outside door. The air compressor and the welder are close to the outside door so that three can be inflated and machines can be welded without having to drive into the shop. The welder should have sufficient welding cable to reach well over the repair area.

The combination of an arc welder, an acetylene torch, a blacksmith's forge, a heavy-duty grinder, a drill press, and a metal lathe are all included in this shop and are grouped together. The grinder and drill press are installed on a supporting post, allowing the grinding and drilling of long pieces. The pipe vise is attached to another supporting post.

Safety Shield May End
Power Line Accidents

It is beginning to appear that the end of power line accidents may be approaching faster than anyone believed, for manufacturers of farm equipment are now producing power line safety shields that cannot be removed when the shaft is in operation.

These shields may be opened for servicing and inspection of the power shaft, but they cannot be removed unless the operator goes to work on them with a blowtorch or a chisel—and nobody expects that to happen.

For many years the manufacturers of farm machinery have been providing shields for power lines, but many farmers have failed to keep the standard shield in place despite the fact that rapidly-revolving power take-off shafts are a never-present hazard.

Fertilizer Shortage Seen As Imminent This Spring
Farmers cannot buy all the fertilizer they want when they want it during the coming spring, according to H. J. L'Hote, supervisor of the Missouri fertilizer inspection service.

He explained that the fertilizer industry is geared to furnish farmers as much fertilizer as they want for the 1950 crops if they fill their needs early. Industry has run out of storage space early.

Tyson gave a comedy dialogue in Negro dialect. Miss Lucille Cooper gave some readings and there were two short plays one in which the actors did not say a single word but acted their parts with the help of a sound effect man, Jack Pickett, while Mrs. Ralph Wright read the story.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

See where a bank in Denver is sitting in left-handed checkbooks. They figure their southpaw depositors deserve just as much consideration as the right handers.

Time was when it was believed that left-handed people had no right to exist at all. If a youngster showed signs of using his left hand, his parents were supposed to break him of the habit—to force him to use his right.

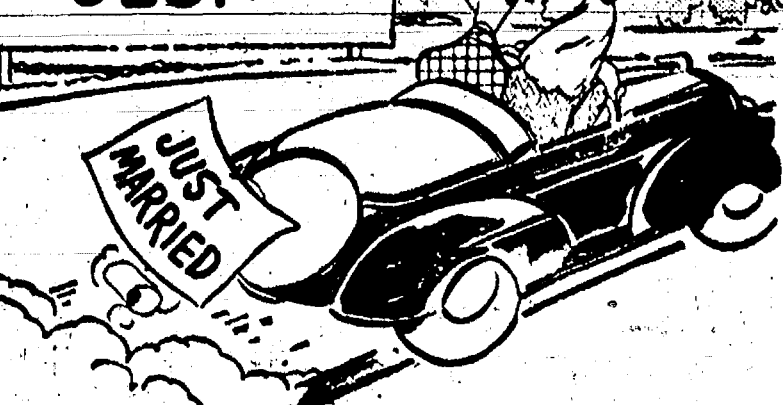

But today most doctors will tell you that changing a child's natural left-handed tendency usually causes more harm than good.

Stammering and other nervous disorders often get their start that way with children.

From where I sit, if a man wants to use his left hand—that's his business. It's not such a good idea to make anyone do things our way, just because we think it's right. Personally, I think a mellow glass of beer is the finest beverage on earth. If you happen to prefer a Coke—why, go to it! Only leave me the same freedom of choice, won't you?

Waffles
Waffles sometimes stick on cleaned grids just as they do in a new iron which has not been seasoned first. To prevent sticking, grease the grids with unsalted fat or oil and then preheat the iron thoroughly before using.

Well, just look how the SPECIAL shines now! Brightwork on the fenders and around all windows. A name plate—and inside, door armrests, a robe rail, an extra ash tray. See the SPECIAL in de luxe finish at your dealer's.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR,
ABC Network, every Monday evening.

Here's where Thrift and Glamor meet

Recognize this sprightly traveler?

Yes, it's the Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedan that has caught the public fancy not only on its sleek lines, but on its easily-reachable price.

But notice anything new on it?

That's right — gleaming trim and the name plate "SPECIAL" brightening up the fenders. Brightwork around the windshield and windows, too. And when you swing the door open you'll see still other touches of added luxury—side armrests, front and rear, a robe rail, an extra ash tray.

It's all still mighty thrifty, because this strapping straight-eight sells for less than many sixes.

Why not drop in and see for yourself, both how these added touches dress up this SPECIAL and how close it is in price to cars of much less room, riding comfort, standing and performance.

Your dealer will be glad to see you — glad to show you how this traveler handles—glad to sign you up for prompt delivery.

Frugal in other ways too — gas mileage, for instance, is surprising so many people they are writing us in delight about it.

But here we've added extra glamor. Stepped up, at small step-up in price, the luxury look and surroundings of cars that would normally be much higher.

DYNAFLOW DRIVE? SURE,
AT $40 LESS THAN BEFORE!

Dynaflo Drive is available as optional equipment on all 1950 Buick SPECIALS. The extra cost is now $40 less than originally, putting the sleek luxury of this super-smooth transmission within still easier reach.

MARCH OF DIMES
A successful March of Dimes campaign was held throughout the High School and the Grade School. The Student Council gave its permission to the Senior class to manage the Drive for grades eight through twelve.

A quota of twenty-five cents for each High School student was set, and after the seven day drive the High School goal was passed.

All the grades except the eighth and the eleventh went beyond their respective quotas.

Totals for the various grades are as follows: seventh, $11.50; eighth, $6.88; ninth, $17.34; tenth, $14.37; eleventh, $12.73, and twelfth, $16.13. In addition $7.05 was collected from the school as a whole, making the total money raised from the High School for this worthy cause $36.00.

The Grade school volunteered a quota of $100.00 and was successful in raising it.

FREEDOM
Because we inherited freedom from our forefathers, most of us do not appreciate it as much as we should. We take for granted that this freedom will always be here for us to enjoy.

Our ancestors knew the value of freedom. They paid a great price for it—the price was their lives. They fought and bled for it, and went through trials and hardships in order that we, their descendants, might have it.

Think what our country would be like without freedom—freedom of religion, speech, press. The most terrible thing that could happen to us would be to lose this freedom. What could be worse than to be unable to express our thoughts—to keep our feelings and ideas bottled up inside of us?

If we ever lose this wonderful thing called freedom, perhaps then we will appreciate it as much as we should.

PEP MEETING
The fire in Mr. Chandler's room was finally extinguished when the Weinberg Fire Department came to the rescue at the Pep Meeting last Friday morning.

The scene was then changed to the stage where the basketball game between Chelsea and U. High was half over with the score 39 to 24 in favor of Chelsea. During the half Mr. Stuits had managed to acquire two boxes, one from U. High and the other from Chelsea. Of course the Chelsea fighter won.

Then Mr. Stuits, Mr. Magiera, Mr. Cameron, and a few players from each team gave a talk. The pep meeting was ended with cheers followed by the school song.

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION
The Hi-Y plans for the dance after the U-High game were accepted by the members of the Student Council. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the chaperons.

The Freshmen plans for having a roller skating party at Jackson were accepted providing that they be back by eleven o'clock.

Dona Noah, Marlene Schneider, and Stanley Toney were appointed to meet with Mr. Stuits and see about setting up a noon hour Council.

The Senior class of last year left $230 to help buy a new piano for the school. The Council decided to write and get more information on a new piano. Members discussed where the piano could be placed so that it would serve the maximum need.

Cynthia Paul, David Hoffman, and Norma Dull were appointed to see about paid assemblies for next year.

HI-Y
There was a Hi-Y meeting Wednesday to discuss the constitution. They are going swimming Wednesday in Ann Arbor.

FFA
Forty-one boys attended the Farmers' Week program on Feb. 2. Some of the highlights of the day were: the judging and auctioning of fat steers and hogs, an interesting machinery exhibit, the showing of the International champion steer by Judge Roy Bean, grass silage and numerous other meetings. The boys also went through the museum and the college's greenhouses. It was very interesting and every boy felt he should have attended every day of the Farmer's Week.

Organizations . . .
The Board met on Feb. 2, and the rewriting of the constitution was discussed. A committee was appointed to suggest changes and improvements. The committee is as follows: Mr. Stuits, chairman; Miss DeRose; Virginia Quiatt; and Jerry Lehmann.

TYPING CLASS

It is the aim of every typist to improve his speed. The typing classes saw the movie "Tricks for Typists" showing the method to improve. The movie showed incidents that seemed unimportant but hinder the typist. One can save hundreds of seconds a day just by using the little tricks shown in the movie. As there is a right and wrong to everything, the movie explained the wrong and right ways of typing.

the members of the freshmen class for the roller skating party which will be held in Jackson Saturday night, Feb. 11.

Stanley Toney has been elected the new student council representative for the class.

SENIOR REVIEW
On the bright, warm day of May 17, 1932, a dark cloud passed over the O'Connor residence and dropped "little Norm." At almost any time you may find Norman dressed in a pair of blue jeans and a sport shirt, eating roast chicken and listening to his favorite song "Liberation."

He likes football and enjoyed the movie "Gone With the Wind." For recreation he likes to play the piano or dance. While in high school Norman has been a member of the Chorus-Hi-Y and has held the office of secretary in the FFA.

Norman doesn't think that our parents should choose our friends, nor does he believe that Chelsea should have a curfew.

After graduation he plans to attend the Conservatory.

Not many people enjoy shrimp to the extent of having them as their favorite food, but Bob Toney seems to be an exception to the rule. Another oddity of Bob's is that his song favorite is "The Three Blind Mice" and that his favorite costume is "clothing" (how odd?) Maybe the ape's resemblance to man comes out in Bob's movie favorite "Mighty Young." Any sport seems to please him, but basketball rates highest, for Bob has been a first stringer for two years.

Other clubs and offices that Bob has graced have been Hi-Y Latin club, Student Council, track and his favorite, the junior play. He was also treasurer of Student Council.

His ability to do well seems to come from his mother and father. Bob was born in Chelsea, March 27, 1932.

The Berries
The pie bakers of America annually use 7,300,000 pounds of strawberries, and 15,000,000 pounds of other berries such as blueberries and blackberries. The bakers also use more than 4,600,000 pounds of coconut and 34,000,000 pounds of cherries in pies each year.

Abraham Lincoln Is Extolled In Literature of America

Abraham Lincoln... who was at home and welcome with the humblest, and with a spirit and a practical wit in the times of terror that commanded the admiration of the wisest. His heart was as great as the world, but there was no room in it to hold the memory of a wrong.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

In the character of the victim (Lincoln), and even in the accessories of his last moments, there is something so homely and innocent that it takes the question, as it were, out of all the pomp of history and the ceremonial of diplomacy—it touches the heart of nations and appeals to the domestic sentiment of mankind.—Disraeli.

You are underlining the President. I grant that he lacks higher education and his manners are not in accord with European conception of the dignity of a chief magistrate. He is a well-developed child of nature and is not skilled in polite phrases and poses. But he is a man of profound feeling, correct and firm principles and incorruptible honesty. His motives are unquestionable, and he possesses to a remarkable degree the characteristic, God-given trait of the people, sound common sense.—Carl Schurz.

Lincoln, six feet one in his stocking feet.
The link man, knotty and tough as a hickory rail.
Whose hands were always too big for white-kid gloves.
Whose wit was a coonskin sack of dry, tall tales.
Whose weathered face was h-m-y as a plowed field.—Stephen Vincent Benet.

Look on this gift, and know the hand That bore a nation in its fold: From this mute witness understand What Lincoln was,—bow large of mould.—Stedman.

How his quiet wit made home truth seem more true.—Taylor.

He who walked in our common ways, With the seal of a king on his brow: Who lived as a man among men his days, And "belonged to the ages" now.—Cole.

May one who fought in honor for the South Uncovered stand and sing by Lincoln's grave?—Thompson.

Pumpkins and Squashes. All species of pumpkins and squashes are of western hemisphere origin. Hubbard, Delicata, and their maxima cousins originated close to the Andes in and near northern Argentina. The field pumpkin, summer squashes, and some others belong to Middle America, where they rank after maize and beans among all food plants.

Gelger Counter. The Gelger counter used to detect A-bomb blasts is a vacuum tube housing a gas-filled stainless steel tube. A fine wire in the tube catches minute atomic rays and gives the alarm.

Dr. Laubach's method of rapidly teaching people to read has been hailed as one of the greatest recent factors in promoting world peace through the work throughout the world but also in promoting world peace through disseminating information which people can read for themselves.

Dr. Laubach is a missionary and literary expert. He recently returned from Korea and is now on his way to Africa to carry on what he calls his "literacy crusade" which has for its guiding principle "I teach you to read and then you teach someone else. He plans to be in Africa for about six months.

opened a temporary office in New York City.

From that modest beginning the Boy Scouts of America has grown in four decades until now it has over 300,000 boys and adult leaders.

Since 1910 more than 16,500,000 American boys and men have subscribed to the Scout Oath and Law.

Local observance of Boy Scout Week includes entertainment of the members of the newly organized "Explorers" and Troop 25, two Chelsea branches of the Boy Scouts of America, at the Kiwanis club meeting in the Methodist church dining room Monday evening.

Members of the "Explorers," the newly formed senior group of Scouts, were introduced by David Hoffman, Eagle Scout, and leader of the group.

There were three speakers, all members of the Washtenaw-Livingston Council. Judge James E. Braskey, Jr., president of the Council stressed the value of the work of the Boy Scouts organization in building character, thus preparing a good foundation for upstanding adult living.

A Juncher, council executive, discussed present membership in the two counties and the possibilities for increasing the membership, and Lewis G. Christman, chairman of the financial committee of the Washtenaw-Livingston Council, the third speaker, gave a resume of the fiscal needs of the Boy Scouts organization.

At present, Troop 25 is without a leader, but plans for a new leader are being arranged. With a strong Cub Scouting organization here during the past year, eleven Cub Scouts almost ready to become Boy Scouts and the ones interestedly working toward completing their achievements so they may become Boy Scouts as soon as they are old enough, the need for a good leader is urgent, according to Scout officials.

Also present at Monday's Kiwanis meeting was P. F. Niehaus, a member of the executive board of the Washtenaw-Livingston Boy Scout Council.

Other activities in Chelsea in observance of Boy Scout Week include the Blue and Gold Cub Scout dinner to be given for Cub Scouts and their parents in the High School gymnasium Friday evening.

Cub Scouts have also arranged a downtown window display of handicrafts and achievement projects to call attention to their work during this birthday week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shepard and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell of Walled Lake.
