

Michigan MIRROR

By Gene Alleman

When President Truman and Governor Williams ask for increased government spending at Washington and Lansing, their actions fit logically—as we see it—into an interesting cycle of contemporary history.

It's plain arithmetic in part. And yet it is as elusive as a magician's rabbit or Alice in Wonderland.

We refer to that little understood thing called inflation.

Every dollar you saved in 1939 and put in the bank, ok into defense bonds, or an insurance policy or anything else in fact, is not worth a 1939 dollar today. It is worth only 59 cents.

What happened to the other 41 cents? you ask.

Well, part of it might be considered to be a tax we paid to get our freedom. The government—and that means all of us—spent money freely to win the war. And war is utterly destructive. It destroys material wealth as well as human lives. It leaves a trail of devastation.

Part of the 41 cents may be due also to postwar treasury deficits caused, in part at least, by social reforms—public housing, for example, whereby we, the government, agree to subsidize rents of low income workers.

Will we get more inflation in the future?

Roger Babson, the noted economist, thinks we will.

This would mean that our 1939 dollar, instead of being worth 59 cents, might go down to 50 or 35 and even a lower sum. At 50 cents, your 1939 savings will be worth one-half. You would need $2 to buy the same goods that a 1939 dollar would have purchased. At 35 cents your income would have to be four times that of 1939 to come out even!

In a recent statement for the United Press, Babson says that more inflation depends on two things: whether we will have a World War III and whether our free enterprise system is preserved with its attendant high living standards for American workers.

It is significant that about three-quarters of the proposed national budget for 1951 is earmarked "to pay the cost of past wars" and to provide insurance in form of military preparations, against the danger of wars to come.

What is the annual cost of our wars?

First Union Lenten Service To Be Held Next Wednesday

The first in the series of Union Lenten services for the current season is to be held next Wednesday evening, Feb. 22, at 7:30 p.m. This first service will take place in the Methodist church, with William Major, of Detroit, president of the United Christian Youth Movement in Michigan, as the guest speaker. The Methodist church choir will present special music.

Young people of the participating churches (Methodist, Congregational and St. Paul's) are urged to attend this service. After the service the Methodist Youth Fellowship group will sponsor a Lenten fellowship period for all of the young people present.

In announcing the opening Lenten service, Rev. O. W. Morrow, pastor of the Methodist church, said that he was hoping for continued support of the Union Lenten program as evidenced by the very good attendance in past years.

As announced in the Feb. 2 issue of The Standard, when a complete schedule of services was given, the next week's service on Wednesday, March 1, will be held at St. Paul's church, with Rev. Vern A. Tanner, of Salem Grove Methodist church, as speaker.

Cage Squad Wins Game from Saline

Bulldogs Now Rate Second Place in League Standings

By DWIGHT GADD

In a rough, rugged, and sloppily played game, the Bulldogs took over sole possession of second place last Friday in the Huron league, at Saline by dunking the Hornets, 27-22.

While the Bulldogs won the game, it definitely was one of their poorest showings of the season, and according to most Saline followers, the same was true for the game. The officials were very lax in their calling of fouls on both teams and this extra opportunity for rough play cut in on the scoring total.

Chelsea looked like themselves only in the first quarter when they hit the cords for 14 points and appeared on their way to a "hot" night. Saline made their first quarter the best one too, by netting eight points, but they followed Chelsea in slowing down the rest of the way.

Saline outscored the local lads in the second period, 6-3, to cut the Bulldogs' lead to 17-14 at the half, but neither team played good ball.

The last half was the same story, with few exceptions, for both squads. Chelsea out-stumbled Saline, 4-2, in the third quarter, and in the last one both hit for six points to leave the final at 27-22, Chelsea.

The bright spot for Chelsea came at the halfway point in the last quarter when the Bulldogs put on the "freeze" with the score 25-22, and very successfully stalled for the win while also picking up two points as Saline fouled in attempts to get possession of the ball. This stalling technique has been woefully lacking before, and one game in particular, the final game at Albion against Hinds could have been saved by as good a stall as this. It may still save some very important games in the near future.

In the scoring last Friday night, Bob Vogel, Chelsea forward, paced the winners with nine points. Jack Burnmeister, Hornet center, led the losers with eight points. And for the second week in a row Coach Ned Stuitt's Bulldogs won a thriller, this time, 33-32, to give Chelsea a clean sweep for the night. Jerry Lehman was high man for the Bulldogs with 12 points.

Tomorrow night Lincoln High will provide the opposition here at the local gym with the reserve game starting at 7 p.m. and the varsity game following immediately after. The Railplitters have lost five straight in league play, so the odds favor Chelsea in this one, but with Milan winning last week and remaining undefeated, Chelsea can't afford to let overconfidence slip in as they continue to hope for Milan to stumble.

Dog Vaccination Clinics Are Termed 'Very Successful'

The dog vaccination clinics held throughout the county the first ten days this month, were very successful, it is reported. The clinics were held under the sponsorship of the Washtenaw county Health department, the Washtenaw county Veterinary Medical association, and the dog wardens.

Dr. P. E. Sharrard, local veterinarian, said that 190 dogs were vaccinated for rabies at the Chelsea clinics held Feb. 6 and 7 at the Sylvan Town hall. The first night, Monday, Feb. 6, 89 dogs were vaccinated here, while 101 were treated on Tuesday.

At Lyndon road hall, Wednesday evening, 50 dogs were vaccinated, Dr. Sharrard said.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Trinkle were in Manchester Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral for Glen Adams, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Adams. The baby was a grandson of Mrs. Trinkle and Mrs. Rayda LaRoe, of Parma.

Snow, Ice Cause Severe Damage Throughout State

More than six inches of snow fell here Sunday night and Monday morning to give the community a real taste of winter weather. The snow was followed by sleet before noon Monday, and by freezing rain during the afternoon and all night. The ice forming on trees and wires caused considerable damage, many trees being broken down and limbs falling on wires and tearing them down.

Several houses in the village were without electricity for a time on Monday because of wires being damaged by falling limbs. However, no general failure of electric current took place here, although street lights, except for those in the downtown district, were out Tuesday night as an aftermath of the storm.

Many television aerials were down Tuesday as the result of the ice and wind, and reports of large limbs breaking down were received from all over town.

Buses were from 30 minutes to an hour and 45 minutes late on Monday, but by Tuesday morning had resumed almost their normal schedules. Train schedules were not affected, according to New York Central spokesmen.

Cars were stuck repeatedly on Monday but village employees worked Monday night to clear the streets with the snowplow.

Rising temperatures Tuesday afternoon, together with intermittent rain, melted the ice on trees and wires, greatly lessening the danger of more damage.

Chelsea was more fortunate than some of the neighboring communities. Manchester, for instance, was reported to have been without electricity part of Monday night and Tuesday because of power failure caused by the storm.

School Officers Meet Tuesday in Ypsilanti

The biennial school officers' meeting will be held in McKenny hall, Ypsilanti, on Feb. 22, opening at 10 a.m. There will also be an afternoon session. Luncheon will be served in the cafeteria at McKenny hall.

This meeting is called by Julius W. Haab, county superintendent of schools, the purpose of consultation, advice and instruction upon matters pertaining to the management and welfare of the public schools of the county.

Participating in this meeting will be Dr. John S. Haltema, assistant superintendent of public instruction, and Ferris Crawford, chief of accounting for the department of public instruction, as well as by Carl Mast, Ben VandenBelt and Horace Whitney, members of the County Board of Education. Julius W. Haab will act as general chairman.

The morning session will be largely devoted to a discussion of the general and specific problems of the individual school districts. The greater part of the afternoon session will be taken up with a discussion of the Area Study act (P.A. 225) which was passed by the 1949 legislature. This act permits the people in a county, or in part of a county, or in two or more counties, to create an area studies committee to study the existing educational program and to make recommendations back to the people concerning ways and means of improving it. In response to a manifest county-wide interest, the County Board of Education has recently taken preliminary steps toward setting up an area study in Washtenaw county. The plan for such a study must be presented to the superintendent of public instruction for approval.

Seek To Reorganize Band Parents Club Next Tuesday Night

A meeting for the parents of all youngsters in the High school and Grade school bands will be held at the High school on Tuesday, Feb. 21, at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting has been called for the purpose of reorganizing the Band Parents club in Chelsea. Mr. Sohn, the band director, is interested in reorganizing this group which was very active a few years ago.

A Band Parents club can be of great benefit to all students in instrumental music in Chelsea, spokesmen for the school state. This group can not only aid the progress of music, but can also serve to bring the parents and school closer together.

All band parents are urged to attend this meeting. If a sufficient number of parents do not attend this meeting all plans for the reorganization of this club will have to be dropped.

Farm Bureau Told How To Prevent Fires

Lima-Scio Group Members Are Guests of Sylvan Club

At the Sylvan Farm Bureau meeting held Friday night at the Lima Center Grange hall, members of the Lima-Scio Farm Bureau were guests of the Sylvan group. Approximately 85 persons were present. The Sylvan roll call showed that 48 farm families were represented.

Sylvan Farm Bureau Chairman, William Pritchard, introduced Chelsea Fire Chief, Thomas Young, who in turn, introduced Sam C. Fischer, representing an agency in Lansing. Mr. Fischer gave a talk on what to do in case of fire and how to prevent fire. He recommended emergency fire extinguishers for all farm buildings; gave faulty wiring as one of the principal causes of fires, with careless smoking and lightning as second and third on the list. He also recommended having electric water pumps on a separate circuit away from other wiring in buildings. At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Fischer showed a picture called "Fire Hazards and Their Prevention."

Other speakers were Don Boyer, Washtenaw county conservation officer, who talked of grass and timber fires, and Arthur Lovell, Dexter fire chief, who spoke about his experiences with the fire department.

Thomas Young then outlined the need for a tank truck to serve the townships that the Chelsea fire department takes care of. As a result of Mr. Young's talk a lengthy discussion was held and Chairman Pritchard appointed a committee of six men who are to contact their respective supervisors in regard to getting the money to pay for the much-needed tank truck. Arthur Kuhl is chairman of the committee. Others appointed to work with him are Erwin Pidd, Dexter, Everett Van Riper and Reuben Lesser.

Herman Howelsen of Clinton, representative of District No. III of the Farm Bureau, spoke briefly at the close of the meeting, and Everett Van Riper gave a brief report on the Bureau's Social Services meeting he attended in Lansing.

Pot-luck refreshments were served in the dining room by the evening's committee, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Stegle, and Mrs. John Steele and Warren and Miss Bertha Spaulding.

Local Factory Moving Plant to Jackson

Air-Hydraulics, Inc., which has operated its plant here at 120 West Middle street since Oct. 1945, is moving its equipment to Jackson next week, C. H. Flick, secretary-treasurer of the company and manager of the Chelsea plant, announced yesterday. The move is being made, Mr. Flick said, for the convenience of company officials as well as employees, most of whom live in Jackson and make the trip here daily, and to cut down overhead costs. The business will be consolidated with the new and used machinery business of F. T. Miller, president of Air-Hydraulics, Inc., which is located at 811 Belden avenue in Jackson.

The local building, owned by Mr. Miller, will temporarily be used for storage of materials and machinery of the consolidated business.

Of the seven men now employed at the local plant, only three are Chelsea men. Mr. Flick said he did not know at this time whether the men would continue with the company after it was moved to Jackson.

Mr. Flick said the company officials had liked Chelsea and wanted to leave but best interests of the company indicated the move was necessary.

The company manufactures air-hydraulic presses, air cylinders, and paint mixing equipment.

On A Foundation of Liberty

In observing the 218th birthday of our first president, we want to pay honor to a man who was more than a great statesman, a great humanitarian, and a great general. George Washington was also a great builder. Armed with a blueprint planned by men who cherished freedom, he led them through adversity to the construction of a nation whose foundation was and yet remains LIBERTY. He built well. True, some new wings have been added since his times, yet the basic edifice that is America is unchanged and serves as the lasting foundation for ever-expanding happiness and prosperity for all who would be free.

World Day of Prayer To Be Observed Here Next Friday

Chelsea's observance of the World Day of Prayer is to be held in the Methodist church this year. Women of the three Protestant churches will participate under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lyman Walker. Mrs. A. A. Palmer will be the soloist and Mrs. Minnie Broesma will serve as organist. Mrs. A. E. Hollidge, of the Methodist Home, will preside as leader and a foreign student from the University of Michigan is to be the guest speaker.

Women of the churches in the surrounding community have been invited to attend the service, including those from the North Lake Methodist church, Salem Grove Methodist church, St. John's Evangelical and Reformed churches of Rogers Corners and Franciscan and Union Lutheran church at Rogers Corners.

This year, on the first Friday in Lent, Feb. 24, the World Day of Prayer will be observed in 90 countries.

The annual event is sponsored by the United Council of Church Women, an organization representing 10 million women. The chain of prayer will be made by millions of people worshipping in all corners and centers of the earth and praying in 60 different languages.

Following the sun, it will be started in the Fiji Islands at dawn and continue westward from the Balkans, through the ports of Singapore and Shanghai into the United States, China and Pakistan; from the African jungles to the Arctic wildernesses.

World Day of Prayer is interdenominational, interracial and international in scope. Offerings are divided between missionary work at home and abroad to bring the people of this country and the world into greater communion with each other through supplying their spiritual, educational and recreational needs. Last year a quarter million dollars was collected and used in this work.

The World Day of Prayer was observed last year in 86 countries (the United Nations numbers 59), and the program was translated into more than 10,000 languages. The service was held in more than 10,000 communities in the United States.

The offerings received on this day support the literacy program among the Navajo Indians, as well as increase cultural and religious uplift for the country's migratory population; aid to the 26,000 foreign students in the U. S.; give stability to colleges in the Orient, and Christian literature for industrial centers and forest villages of Africa and South America; for India, Burma, Korea, Mexico and China.

The local service at the Methodist church on Friday of next week, Feb. 24, will begin at 2 p.m. Afterwards tea will be served in the church parlors by the ladies of the WSCS of the Methodist church.

Arrangements for the World Day of Prayer service were made locally by Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Dwight Gaderby, of the Methodist church, Mrs. William Geddes and Mrs. Russell McLaughlin of the Congregational church, and Mrs. Lorenz Wenk and Mrs. Herbert Paul of St. Paul's church.

New Police Car Is Delivered Thursday

Chelsea's new police car arrived here Thursday evening. During the past week the police radio has been installed in the new car and the car is now being used by Chelsea officers in their police patrol work.

The identifying signs are not painted on the body of the car as has previously been the custom; instead, they are mounted on a transparent strip about four inches high and extending along the top center of the car hood from the radiator to the windshield. Lights illuminate the sign when police officers order drivers to stop their cars.

DEATH REPORTED

During the past week, old friends of the late Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Haag were notified of the death of their daughter, Miss Magda Haag, Miss Haag, who was 57 years old, had resided at the Chelsea home and Reformed Orphan and Old People's Home in Detroit, for a number of years. She died there on Tuesday.

Rev. Haag was pastor of St. Paul's church here from 1887 until 1895.

Coal Strike Causes No Local Hardships; Supplies 'Adequate'

Financing of New County Building To Be Put on Ballot

On Tuesday the Washtenaw county Board of Supervisors voted on and passed a resolution to place before the voters on April 3 the question of approval of a bond issue and tax increase to finance the building of the proposed new courthouse. Fred Broesma, Sylvan township supervisor, said the resolution was passed unanimously by voice vote.

The questions to be placed before the voters for approval will be for a $2,600,000 bond issue and a 1.25 mill tax increase for the 20-year plan of bond retirement.

The April 3 election date coincides with the regular spring elections in Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, but townships in the county will have to call special elections on that date. With the biennial plan of elections in the township the regular elections are being held this year.

School Needs To Be Aired in Discussion

The public meeting of school electors announced by the Board of Education last week, will begin at 8 p.m. next Monday, Feb. 20. The meeting, to be held in the study hall at the High school, is another step in the study of the problem that still engages the interest of school officials and many others in the community—namely, the problem of housing the increasing number of elementary children who will be entering school for the next four or five years. School officials, on the basis of census figures, estimate that enrollment in five years will have increased by approximately 35 per cent. Roughly, they say, this means that for every three pupils now attending school in the elementary grades, there will then be four pupils. This increase, they maintain, must be planned for immediately if the necessary facilities are to be provided in time to provide a solution to the increasingly crowded situation in the Chelsea school.

As planned, the general meeting in the study hall will be used to present the problems as they appear at the present time as quickly as possible, and then divide the group into small discussion groups. The discussion groups will be urged to take as much time as they wish to express and discuss their views and ideas. A school board member will sit in on each of the discussion groups to get an idea of just what solution would satisfy the greatest number of people in the community.

To answer any questions in regard to the amount of taxes which would have to be levied to pay for school expansion programs here, tables of figures have been prepared and will be distributed to all who attend the meeting. These figures are so arranged that electors in all seven townships comprising the Chelsea Agricultural School district, may ascertain immediately what the tax rate would be on each $1,000 of assessed valuation in each township. The equalized valuation base is also fully explained on the leaflet.

Townships in the district are Sylvan, Lima, Lyndon, Sharon, Dexter, Grass Lake and Waterloo, the latter two being in Jackson county.

If the meeting, as planned, proves to be reasonably satisfactory in regard to promoting a solution to the school problem, an additional meeting will probably be called for a later date.

All interested persons in the community are urged to plan to attend Monday's meeting.

179 Persons Attend Rod-Gun Banquet

The annual Rod and Gun club's Ladies' Night took place, as scheduled, at St. Paul's church hall Tuesday evening. Present for the dinner and the program which followed, were 179 members and guests of the club.

Miss Alberta Worden, of Michigan Center, was the guest speaker and gave a vivid account of her experiences while in Alaska for two years during the war and on two six-month trips since. She illustrated her talk with colored slides, showing scenes she photographed herself, including hunting and fishing shots, dog sledding, etc. Dr. L. J. Paul and Leon Chapman were on the program committee for the banquet and Al Mayer was ticket sales chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. David Beach were in Albion Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Beach's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Sanford.

Many Shut-downs Probable if Shortage Continues Very Long

Effects of the coal strike are being felt to a certain extent in Chelsea, although no real hardship has yet been experienced. However, with miners having defied both President Truman and their union leader, John L. Lewis, in regard to returning to work Monday morning, the situation here, as well as in other parts of the country, could become critical in a matter of a few weeks.

Local coal dealers show no alarm over the fuel supply situation here. H. T. Moore, of the Moore Coal company, said that while the situation is not settled he is taking what he can get of hard coal, soft coal and coke and is doling it out among his customers in half-ton lots. While it is causing considerable inconvenience both to himself and to his customers, Moore said he would not be kind of fuel and no one has really suffered, Moore said.

The Chelsea Lumber, Grain and Coal company is still receiving shipments of coal, and with stocks on hand can keep its customers supplied for three or four weeks with some kind of fuel, a company spokesman said.

St. Mary's school is fairly well supplied with coal for heating purposes for the next two or three weeks, at least, Father Lee Laige said Tuesday. Supt. Albert C. Johnson reported that under normal weather conditions the Chelsea Public school could manage fairly well until the middle of March. Mr. Johnson qualified his statement to say that if unusually severe weather should be experienced schools would be closed sooner to conserve an emergency supply of coal to provide a minimum amount of heat to prevent freezing of plumbing at the school. The same precautions apply at St. Mary's school, Father Laige said.

Stuart R. Booker, vice-president and secretary of the Federal Works and general manager of the Chelsea division, said that the present inventory of steel stock is sufficient to carry the company through if the strike doesn't continue beyond several weeks. The plant does not use coal for heating, and aside from a few steel deliveries which have not come through for certain special jobs, Mr. Booker stated, continuation of the coal strike would not greatly affect the operation of the plant here unless their customers should be forced to stop shipments because of effects of the coal strike on their businesses.

Some suppliers for the Central Fibre Products company are being curtailed to a certain extent because of conditions caused by the coal strike, Harold Jones, vice-president of the company, stated. A reduced schedule would naturally follow at the plant, he said, if the strike continued for a few weeks. Shipments curtailed include steel wire, paper and the black fibre board used in the company's manufacturing processes. The plant does not depend on coal for heat.

Chelsea Milling company uses no heavy materials and is not affected by the coal strike, Howard Holmes pointed out, and as coal is not used to heat the plant, the coal strike cannot materially affect operation of the mill. Leavelle Davidson, speaking for Chelsea Spring, said one of the company's suppliers of steel has informed him that his company would have to shut down by the end of the month.

Given Sentence for Alleged Slashing

Police Officer George Doe was called to the office of a local physician about 6:35 p.m. on Friday, when Ellis Creighton was brought in for treatment of a gash on his face.

Upon investigation, Doe said, he learned that Newman Lindsay was alleged to have slashed Creighton with a butcher knife, following an argument in a West Middle street residence.

Lindsay was taken to the sheriff's office in Ann Arbor by Doe and Deputy W. Grossman, and on Saturday morning was sentenced to five days in jail and ordered to pay $20 costs, Doe reported.

Gas Pipeline Blaze Causes Much Worry

Sohio Pipeline company men on Tuesday were burning surface oil, presumably collected in pockets from a leak or leaks in the pipeline, about a mile west of Chelsea and south of US-12. Residents of the area became alarmed when they noticed the flames shooting high in the air, but company men had taken the precaution to notify the Chelsea fire department that they would be lighting the huge fire and thus prevented a possible needless call to the scene in answer to calls from persons who did not know the fire was under control.

Old Roman Calendar Began With March
JANUARY has not always been the first month of the year. The old Roman year began with March.
About 251 B.C., the beginning of the year was shifted to January, but it was as recently as the 15th century that this calendar was accepted by the Christian nations. Members of the Jewish religion still observe New Year on March 25.
January took its name from Janus, the Roman god of doors, gates, and all passageways. In art, Janus was portrayed as a deity with two faces, one looking forward and the other backward. The chief festival dedicated to this god became New Year's day. This was the day presents were placed before him.
In war time, Janus' temple in Rome was open. So prevalent were wars, it was closed but three times in a period of 700 years.

Teamwork of All Plant Nutrients Needed to Make High Crop Yields

PLANT nutrients have to "play ball" together to make high crop yields possible, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out. Each element has its work to do. Each reinforces the other. Non-can do the whole crop-feeding job by itself.

"All nutrients must be in balanced supply to give you top yields," the Committee says. "You can't increase crop production by adding only one plant food element when others are short. If your soil has plenty of phosphate and potash, but is short of nitrogen, you won't get good yields unless you supply that nitrogen. And the same is true of phosphate and potash, respectively."

"University of Illinois agronomists demonstrated that it takes the combined teamwork of lime, nitrogen, phosphate and potash to get maximum corn yields. They made their tests on nutrient-deficient soils at the Brownstown field."

"A plot that had no fertilizer yielded only 14.7 bushels of corn per acre. When nitrogen alone was added, the yield was 14.3 bushels. Adding phosphate brought the yield up to 24.8 bushels because the soil got some nitrogen from clovers in the rotation. When potash alone was added, the corn yield was 11.9 bushels per acre. Liming brought the yield up to 31 bushels. When lime, nitrogen, phosphate and potash all were added in balanced supply, the yield rose to 46 bushels per acre."

WOMAN'S CLUB OF CHELSEA
A musical program in charge of Mrs. James Daniels was much enjoyed by members of the Woman's Club at their regular meeting held Tuesday evening, Feb. 14, at the home of Mrs. John Hale.
The program included the story of the blind pianist, Alec Templeton, given by Mrs. Robert Wagner, a vivid description of Major Lawrence who succeeded in her musical career in spite of the handicap she suffered when stricken with polio, related by Mrs. Alice Johnson; and a resume of the life of Beethoven by Mrs. Daniels.
Beethoven and Templeton records added to the enjoyment of the well-presented program.
Refreshments were served to the 15 members present by Mrs. Kent Walworth and Mrs. Johnson.

LYNDON FARM BUREAU
The Lyndon Farm Bureau meeting was held at the Lyndon Town hall Friday evening, Feb. 10. There were 40 members and guests present. In the absence of the chairman, the vice-chairman, Wirt Boyce, presided at the meeting.
Albert C. Johnson, superintendent of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools, was guest speaker at the meeting and explained the school situation. His talk was followed by a general discussion.

Aborted Call
When a cow loses her calf, owners always suspect brucellosis as the cause, since approximately 80 per cent of all abortions in cows are due to this disease. However, at least a dozen other diseases and conditions may enter into the abortion picture, and it takes a careful herd examination to determine the exact nature of the trouble. Policing injury, unsound reproductive organs, trichomoniasis, and vibriotic infection are among the factors that may prove to be the real cause.

New York Farmers Hit 'The Jackpot'

New Device Determines Good Soil Management

What a New York farmer gets these days when he hits the "jackpot" might not be dimes or quarters, but it may be increased crop yields in the years ahead.
Or, as the saying goes in Ithaca, Cornell's two versatile soil conservationists have "done it again." Hugh Wilson and Harry Kerr of the state extension staff have come up with another "gadget" to demonstrate the value of good soil management.
That's where the jackpot comes in. Their latest contribution has been dubbed the "one-armed bandit" because it looks like a cross between a slot-machine and a roulette wheel. But it has proved an effective teaching device to let farmers know if their crop practices are robbing the soil.
The "bandit" is in two parts: one, a chart which determines land use capability (LUC) and the other, an analyzer consisting of four concentric circles. It can set up a possible 768 combinations and a flashing green, yellow or red light indicates whether or not favorable soil balance is being maintained.
But that's the last step. First, the land use capability must be established. It is based on the physical characteristics of the land: slope, length of slope, internal drainage, texture, erosion and humus. Values determined mathematically from these characteristics are assigned to slides of varying sizes which fit into the LUC chart. The color and number which the six slides reach show the land use capability for the field.

Cows Infested With Lice Give Poor Milk Output
Cows with lice make lousy performers records, says T. H. Parks, extension entomologist at Ohio state university. Since lice are often abundant on cattle during the winter and spring when the hair is long, he recommends treating the animals for lice as soon as possible.
Either rotenone or DDT is an effective treatment. If rotenone is used, two treatments, 15 days apart, are necessary. Only one thorough treatment with DDT is required.
Parks states that cattle with lice will not make satisfactory gains in weight, or if being milked, will not maintain a steady milk flow. Symptoms of lice include rough and coarse hair, and, sometimes, large, hairless patches on the neck and body caused by the animal rubbing the irritated area.

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE TERRIBLE

Ever since I have been able to comprehend, I have been one of those terrible youngsters, the kind of child whose parents think very funny in front of guests, and who receives lectures for an hour upon returning to the privacy of home life. My early exploits that brought on, after returning home, lectures and even reprimands, usually centered around the idea that the dinner hour was not my time for presenting Mozart's C Flat with my hostess' sterling knives and forks for dramatics and the walnut table for a drum. As my hours at home grew longer and my childish intelligence advanced, I put away my warlike approaches and used a device whereby I listened, unknown, to all of our immediate family controversies and then presented them for Grandmother's approval at the next family gathering. This saved my mother from crying on Grandmother's shoulder, but it nearly exhausted the supply of yardsticks at the local dive and den. When I reached school age, I began having trouble convincing my parents that I might get too much sleep. In fact one time the pressure got terrific; my teacher came to our house for a committee meeting at 7:45 and immediately asked if I had been getting ten hours of sleep each night. For a whole week I was shoved off to bed promptly at eight.

My small lies kept getting larger and larger. At the age of nine I found myself bending over the bathroom sink, getting my mouth washed out with soap, not just the ordinary peaches and cream type, but good old Fels Naptha, the soap that whisks those little black lies. I conscientiously tried to improve, but the neighbors still whispered about my bad habits. Therefore, I began to use the "impress, and leave-in-a-cloud-of-appraisal, upon all members of society. My friends were contently aware that something great was about to happen to me, but never quite knew what the event was. It took my parents a long time to convince me I wasn't a big shot, and that my impressions upon others were only causing harm. So once again, I suffered for my improvement, and the winter of my 14th birthday I was such an outcast that I spent an evening a week at home learning the art of being a good home-maker. My mother even went so far as to make me darn my own socks. There doesn't seem to be any other alternative, I will grow up to be a cruel parent—just like every other terrible child. Let this be a lesson to all of us.

HEART THROBS

When you sent your "heart throb" a Valentine or a box of candy on Feb. 14, did you think of the beginning of this day?

About 1,000 years ago the Romans began this idea. On Feb. 14 the ladies put their names in a large vase; later the gentlemen came by and drew a lady's name from this vase. He dated her for a year and went back again the next year to try his luck again. On Feb. 14, 270 A.D. the idea was changed to Saint Valentine's day. Saint Valentine was put in jail and the jailer's blind daughter sent him a message and signed it, "From Your Valentine." That's why today, we sign our missives "From Your Valentine."

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The basketball girls traveled to

Saline last Friday for their sixth game of the season. They entered the game with a won two, lost three record. Saline had one defeat, and that was against Dexter. At Saline, the girls had a long wait before the game started. There was a mix-up with officials and none arrived. A little after 4:30 the game started, with two people officiating who had never done it before. It must be said that they did a fine job; the officiating was very fairly done.

The starting line-up for Chelsea was: forwards, J. Hughes, M. Schrader, P. Scott; guards, M. Johnson, P. Schaible, J. McClure; substitutes, J. Murphy, W. Franklin, Joan Hughes, R. Eisenmann, and G. Widmayer. G. Widmayer was captain for the game. For Saline: forwards, Thomas, Lang, Muir; guards, Heith, Haussler, Jensen; substitutes, Haussler, Faust, Menzil.

After the first half Chelsea played the best they had all year. All their plays seemed to click. Saline seemed to have the jitters, with nothing working for them. The half-time score was Chelsea 8, Saline 1.

After the half it seemed like a different game. Chelsea had slowed down and Saline was on the war path. Their jitters had vanished. At the end of the third quarter Chelsea led by one point.

The last period was exciting, with Chelsea managing to stay one point ahead. When the final whistle blew, the score read: Chelsea 13, Saline 12.

The girls were exhausted, but happy. They now have a .500 percentage.

Rural Tele-news

DID YOU KNOW?—About 50% of the farms of America now have telephones—a higher proportion than in any other country in the world. In Michigan Bell territory about 7 out of 10 rural establishments have telephones. That's pretty close to Michigan Bell's city telephone development.

SO MUCH FOR SO LITTLE—Someone described telephone service as a big package filled with the good things of life. Convenience—the telephone saves time and steps. Security—the telephone stands guard 24 hours a day. Comfort—the telephone keeps you in touch with friends and relatives. When you consider all that the telephone does, its small cost makes it one of the best buys on today's market.

BLOWING BUBBLES—To help keep telephone service reliable, thousands of miles of Long Distance cables are filled with harmless nitrogen gas. If a cable is damaged, the gas pressure drops and sets off an alarm indicating the approximate location of the damage. To find the actual break in the cable sheath, if it's so small it can't be seen, the repairman may paint the cable with soapuds—the exact point of damage being indicated by bubbles blown by the escaping gas.

BUSINESS IS GOOD!

Open Letter to an Ambitious Man:

Local representatives of UNITED FARM AGENCY, America's most effective advertiser of farms and country real estate, are busy and prosperous. If you want a business of your own, through which you may gain independence and security, you will welcome the news that there is now an opportunity for you to join the UNITED team. We are seeking a local representative in your area to list and show farms and country real estate.

Through a quarter of a century, UNITED FARM AGENCY has enjoyed steady growth. Right now, we are experiencing a growing demand for rural real estate. UNITED goes ahead through boom and depression in periods of economic stress, as well as during good times, thousands of families leave the large industrial cities and buy in the country. UNITED is proud of its well-earned reputation for fair dealing, dependability, and faithful service to real estate buyers and sellers throughout the country. Many of our sales today are made to families who have bought and sold through us in past years, or who are relatives and friends of former customers. This priceless heritage of good will is but one of the factors that contribute to the success of the worthy UNITED representative.

The UNITED representative receives the benefit of constant nationwide advertising in the great metropolitan newspapers, magazines, and farm publications with a total current circulation in excess of 40 million readers. Each UNITED man is advertised in UNITED'S famous quarterly catalog, more than 200,000 copies of which were sent to buyers upon request last year. UNITED buyers come from all over the nation—our representatives do not have to depend on the limited sources of business available to the ordinary real estate broker. UNITED maintains city offices in the larger centers of population where prospective buyers are interviewed and referred to our local representatives.

To qualify as a UNITED representative you do not need real estate experience, but must be thoroughly honest and dependable, willing to work, learn, and follow advice and time-tested methods. UNITED gives help, advice, and instruction with a personal touch. You should be between 25 and 60 years of age, and own and drive a car. You should enjoy meeting and working with the people of your community and those from other states and cities.

Complete information will be sent on request. There is no obligation, no investment is required, and all correspondence will be held confidential. Write today!

end of this week if coal supplies could not be obtained in the meantime. The shortage of steel materials, so necessary for the Spring campaign, is already being felt. He believes the Spring plant would be unable to continue operation if the coal strike should last three or four weeks longer.

The Chelsea Products company, utilizing radiant heat, has not yet felt any effect of the coal strike. The steel and cast iron used in the plant is still being normally supplied, Edwin Eaton, vice-president of the firm, stated.

Unless needed supplies become unavailable or customers are affected by the strike to the extent that they cannot continue operation, the Chelsea Products plant will not greatly feel the effects of a coal shortage, Mr. Eaton concluded.

Recent callers at the home of Mrs. Bertha Notten were Miss Linda Kalmbach and Mrs. Hollis Freeman, of Ann Arbor.

DEATHS

Mrs. Thomas Sanson

Mrs. Elizabeth Sanson, a resident of the Methodist Home for the Aged, died at her home on Thursday, Feb. 9, at the age of 89 years. She was born Feb. 2, 1861, at Mayville, and married Thomas Sanson on July 3, 1908. He died in 1927 and on March 11, 1929, Mrs. Sanson came to the Home from Kingston where she and her husband had made their home. She was a member of the Kingston Methodist church.

Funeral services were held at the Home at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with Rev. Matthew J. Betz officiating. Burial took place in West Burlington cemetery at Silverwood, near Mayville.

Mrs. Sidney Trolz

Funeral services for Mrs. Sidney Trolz, who died at Mercy hospital, Jackson, on Friday, were held at the Stormont Funeral Home, Grass Lake, Monday afternoon. Burial took place in East cemetery, Grass Lake.

Mrs. Trolz, who was 52 years old, had been ill for some time. Survivors are her husband, two sons, William, of Jackson, and Robert, of Jackson, daughter, Mrs. Russell Sawdy, of Jackson, one grandchild, five brothers, Amos Curtis, of near Manchester, Clarence Curtis, of Dexter, Ray of Miami, Fla., Lynn, of Jackson, and Hammond, of Ann Arbor; and three sisters, Mrs. Inez Lemm, of Jackson, and Mrs. Nina Erickson and Eunice Curtis, of Chicago.

Charles W. Shephard

Charles Wilbert Shephard, a resident of the Methodist Home since Sept. 23, 1942, died there early Thursday morning after a short period of illness. He came to the Home from Detroit. A daughter, Miss Addie Shephard, is also a resident at the Home.

Mr. Shephard will be remembered as the man who drove around town with a horse and old-fashioned cutter each winter when there was a snowfall heavy enough for sleighing.

Besides the sister at the Home, Mr. Shephard is survived by a brother, George H. Shephard, of Lake Worth, Fla., and two other sisters, Mrs. John Thane, of Rochester, and Mrs. Frank Kirtan, of Sarnia, Ontario, Canada.

Prayer services were held on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Staffan Funeral Home, and the body was taken to Sarnia, early Friday morning. Further funeral services were held there and burial took place in Union cemetery at Morretown.

Mr. Shephard was 78 years old. His parents were Henry and Susan Salisbury Shephard, of Wilkesport, Ontario, where he was born on April 2, 1871.

Topping Pastures

Adds Grazing Days, Boosts Legume Yields

CHICAGO—Milk pails will be fuller next spring and you will get bigger dividends from extra grazing days and more tons of hay, if you topdress your pastures and grasslands this fall with phosphate and potash fertilizer.

Fertilizer added in the fall helps deep-rooted legumes and grasses make a sturdier, fuller growth, says the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee. The roots dig themselves in more firmly. The plants weather the winter in better condition for early spring growth.

Earlier spring growth means a longer grazing season. It means fewer days of barn feeding for your cows.

Agronomists recommend adding heavy amounts of phosphate and potash fertilizer to pastures and grasslands. Tests at state agricultural stations show that applications of 300 to 600 pounds per acre produce profitable results.

Buying Lumber

When buying lumber it is important to specify the condition of seasoning desired considering the use to which the lumber will be put. Lumber is sold green, air dried, kiln dried, commercially shipping dry, or with the exact percentage of moisture content specified.

February Lost Two Days To Two Summer Months

IN THE OLD ROMAN calendar, February was the last month of the year. A Roman word meaning to purify is credited with giving the modern calendar the name of its second month. February was the season the Romans were accustomed to purifying themselves for the advent of approaching religious festivities.

February is given 28 days with an extra day in leap year, or the year the number of which is evenly divisible by four. The one exception to this rule is that in the years completing a century, a day is not added unless the number of the year be divisible by 400.

February's lack of days is due to the theft of two days from it to lengthen July and August, named after Roman emperors, Julius and Augustus. Especially observed are several days of February. Candlemas Day, falling on the second, is one of the quarter days in which rents are due in Scotland. The fourteenth is dedicated to St. Valentine.

Meaning of "Helter"

Helter is the modern spelling of two Anglo-Saxon words, heah-fear, meaning "high ox," as the helter seems to stand up extraordinarily high on her legs compared to a grown cow.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Approximately $31 billion dollars, as follows: national defense, $13.5 to $14 billions (depending on expenditures or appropriations); foreign aid assistance, $4 billions; and veterans programs and interest on the war debt, $12 billions. The remainder consists of more than $800 millions for atomic bombs, merchant marine subsidy and other indirect national defense benefits.

There is little doubt that a third world war, with its frightful waste of human resources, as well as material wealth, would push the 59 cent dollar down still more. Continual treasury deficits at Washington, regardless of the cause, would have the same economic effect.

Hence the prediction that the average American family may have an annual income of $12,000 by the year 2,000—another 50 years in fact—is not fantastic. That is if we get mixed up in another global conflict or if we continue down the road to socialism.

As we see it, either of these causes would have the same ultimate effect.

The plight of all governments—federal, state and local—today is due primarily to postwar currency inflation (the 69-cent dollar) and secondarily to an emotional belief that we are entitled to a "better world" as compensation for our war-time sacrifices.

It is this latter urge, when coupled with a desire for individual and national security, that produces the so-called "swing to the left" right into the hands of the bureaucrats. The state becomes the false hope of salvation.

Inflation is another hidden tax. It takes money away from everyone.

And yet, like the magician's rabbit, it is extremely illusive—hard to believe, hard to grasp.

If more cents are taken from the dollar, due to socialist spending or due to another war, Huey Long's "every man a king" will not be far fetched. We will have a king-size income and king-size prices as well as a king-size debt.

Mrs. Edward Broseky of Detroit, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Rose Chase.

"SWIFTWATER"

By Paul Annixter

The lonely struggle of a boy and his father to realize the dream of a lifetime by establishing a sanctuary for wild geese which pass over the Maine woods twice each year. The rare and beautiful relationship between father and son—and their courage in the face of savage odds—are woven into a dramatic and deeply touching story.
