MIRROR

By Gene Alleman

The Michigan state legislature met at Lansing this Wednesday (Mar. 15) for a special session called by Governor G. Mennen Williams.

The Governor's office is proceeding on the principal, as laid down by several Supreme Court decisions and by advice of the Attorney General, that the Governor himself must define the subject matter as to new legislation which legislators may consider in special session.

Accordingly, the lineup to date presents an interesting situation. Governor Williams is advocating a new source of revenue to be used to avoid a deficit in the State Treasury, while Republican legislative leaders will probably seek to minimize a fiscal deficit by possible reductions in legislative appropriations for state aid and other functions.

As state spending is usually popular with minority pressure groups which have an axe to grind, the Republican legislators are apt to be on the defensive if they adhere to previous declarations for economy.

The potentials for political campaign issues are numerous. For example, Governor Williams has sought to put the legislature on the defensive as to additional funds needed for highway purposes. The Governor is asking the legislature to appropriate $18.5 million to be used for matching purposes in building new roads in cooperation with the Federal Government. While not permitting the legislature to consider revision of the gasoline or weight tax levy, which heretofore have been used to finance highway construction, he favors inclusion of this additional state aid in revenues to be derived from a levy on corporation incomes.

By advocating the program of the Michigan Good Roads Federation, the Governor is credited with a smart political move designed to put legislators more on the defensive. In fact, it is more than obvious that the Williams strategy steadily has been to accomplish just this by maintaining a political offensive to embarrass his critics.

To date, it has been the accepted policy in Michigan to finance highway needs from revenues paid by highway users. The Governor would go beyond this point by using the general fund in part to finance needed construction in cities, villages and townships as well as state routes outside of municipalities.

Of the questionnaires distributed last week, Wednesday, by two sections of the Community Civics class of Chelsea High school, 763 were marked and returned. The questionnaires were distributed in an effort to determine which type of school building program would seem to be the choice of the majority of electors in the Chelsea Agricultural Schools school district. Rural children also assisted in distributing the questionnaires.

Tabulation on Monday showed the following results on the three main questions: for elementary school with bond issue of $276,000, 428 yes; for high school with $550,000 bond issue, 114 yes; for combined issue of high school and elementary school, requiring $800,000 bonds, 104 yes.

The decision to distribute questionnaires in the district was made at the second of two public meetings of electors held the week of Feb. 20 at the High school.

At a meeting of the Board of Education held Tuesday evening, March 14, results of the questionnaires were studied but no action was taken.

Plans Underway
for Annual PTA
Parents' Night

Plans are being completed for the annual Parents' Night program at the Chelsea Public School, Friday evening, March 31. A committee composed of two representatives of the Elementary PTA and two of the High school PTA has been working with teachers and members of the Student Council in formulating plans for the evening's activities. The main departure from plans of former years is that the entire program is to be shortened so that it will be finished by 8:30 p.m. This plan is expected to meet with the approval of parents of small children who felt that a program lasting until 10 p.m. as was formerly the case, was too late for children in the elementary grades. High school PTA members on the committee are Mrs. Jack Bradbury and Mrs. Lloyd Keeny, while Mrs. Carl Mayer and Mrs. Howard Flintoft are acting for the Elementary PTA.

A student party for pupils in grades seven through twelve will be held after the close of the program. A complete outline of the evening's program will be announced later.

By popular request another one of those delicious pancake and sausage suppers will be held at the Methodist church Tuesday, March 21, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. adv.

Magazine Solicitors Are Halted Until Permit Is Issued

Following a report to local American Legion Auxiliary officers that magazine salesmen were misrepresenting themselves as selling subscriptions for the Chelsea American Legion Auxiliary, sheriff's deputies were called last Wednesday afternoon by a rural resident south of town after a salesman had called at her home. She reported the license number of his car and the solicitor was apprehended at the home of a neighbor down the road. He showed the deputy a card reportedly signed by officers of the Manchester American Legion Auxiliary but had no permit from the sheriff's department. Such a permit must be obtained before soliciting may be carried on anywhere in the county, sheriff's officers said.

The man was ordered to stop soliciting subscriptions immediately and he then came here to talk with Chelsea police officers. He said his wife was working in the community also and police officers told him that she must stop soliciting subscriptions too, until such time as the sheriff's office furnished permits for them to continue.

Easter Seals
Mailed in Local Drive

Mail bags containing Easter Seals for Chelsea homes, flooded the post office today on the eve of the opening of the annual Easter Seal Drive of the Crippled Children's Society tomorrow.

Most of the Easter Seal letters will be delivered this week, carrying the message of the society asking support of its services to our crippled children and adults. The campaign for funds will continue through until Easter Sunday, with a goal of $400.00 to be reached in that time, according to Paul P. "Jerry" Niehaus, Easter Seal drive chairman.

Easter Seal letters were prepared and addressed, and sheets of 100 seals each, were folded into the envelopes by a corps of volunteer workers and members of the Kiwanis club, who have been working for the past several weeks.

"Let's not deny a single crippled child the full benefits of professional care so that he may have the happy life that is the birthright of every child," was the appeal of Mr. Niehaus, campaign chairman. "Let's give and give generously so that we may not only maintain our present services but expand them to care for all of the crippled who have need of them and add other services just as badly needed."

"To serve so many crippled adequately is a very costly undertaking for only the most expert and carefully trained professional personnel can attempt to do remedial or rehabilitation work for the handicapped. We must see that we raise funds for that work during the Easter Seal Drive."

Girl Scouts, Brownies Attend First
Local Father-Daughter Banquet

One hundred and ten Girl Scouts and Brownies and their fathers and other guests attended the Girl Scouts' Father and Daughter banquet held Thursday evening, March 9, in the dining room of the Congregational church. This was the first such Girl Scout banquet held in Chelsea and leaders are hoping their wonderful success will assure plans to make it an annual affair. All Chelsea clergymen or their representatives were present at the gathering. Mrs. Edward Hartford, Girl Scout leader, acted as toastmistress and welcomed the fathers and other guests. Marian Honbaum, Lois Pierce, Angeline Murphy and Carol Glick were color guards.

Rev. W. H. Skentelbury, pastor of the Congregational church, gave the opening invocation. H. T. Moore spoke briefly on the subject of scouting in the community and expressed pleasure because of the large attendance and Mrs. J. Raymond Seitz, one of the two local Brownie leaders, gave a resume of the accomplishments of the Brownies' organization to date and spoke of plans for the future. She said there are now 20 Brownies in the local group. Miss Jane Schlosser is the other leader.

Probate Court Report Cites Need for Juvenile Affairs Co-ordinator

The first annual report of the Washtenaw County Probate and Juvenile court as given by Jay H. Payne, Probate and Juvenile Court Judge, shows the great number and variety of cases which come before the court for action. Of the report, Judge Payne says: "The statistical record, such as is herein contained, is calculated to inform interested citizens of community trends of importance to them, as well as to give us who serve you in this important county office, a daily inventory of our work, thereby preventing the development of any unintentional backlog. It also points out to us ways of systematizing our work so as to make it efficient and effective."

He continues, "Much planning was done during the year to make the Court a smooth-running institution of service in such of the fields assigned to it by statute and which are referred to in this report as the Probate Division, the Juvenile Division and Miscellaneous Function of the Court."

In the Probate division, according to the report, a system of setting hearings for definite days, and hours of the report states that this arrangement was made to permit doctors and other witnesses who may be involved in several pending petitions to accomplish their work in the Court on one day each week, thereby relieving them of the inconvenience of repeated appearances in court.

In the Juvenile Court division, two days a week are reserved for the hearing of petitions on juvenile matters and Judge Payne's report states that this has proved to be a convenience to police officers, the county agent, court investigators, social workers and others involved in such hearings.

Village Light Dept.
Begins Program of Plant ImprovementPark Improvement
Defeated as Only
118 Ballots Cast

Approximately one-tenth of the qualified electors of Chelsea turned out Monday to cast their ballots in the uncontested election for village officers and for the advisory vote on raising money for the improvement of the Pierce Memorial park site on South Main street. Only 118 votes were recorded. Of these, 67 were against the park site proposition, 49 were affirmative, and two ballots were blank. Elected to the offices were M. W. McClure, president; Lowell Davison, clerk; David Strieter, treasurer; Joseph D. Dreyer, Anton Nielsen and Charles J. Williams, trustees for two years; Edwin Keusler, assessor; James Daniels and Miriam Hale, members of library board for three years and Marjorie Fischer, member of the library board for one year.

Because the advisory ballot represents such a small percentage of the eligible voters in the community, it will be of much help to the village council as an expression of majority wishes on the matter. Involving as it does, only 50 cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation on the proposed one-half mill tax levy, many observers in the community expressed amazement that the proposal was disapproved.

Deer Struck by Auto Near
Clear LakeOfficers Ask Drivers
To Be Cautious on Waterloo Area Rds.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Parker, of Waterloo, driving home late Saturday evening, with Mrs. Parker at the wheel of the car, collided with a deer on Clear Lake road about two miles north of Cavanaugh Lake, according to a report by Frank Reed, local police officer. The left front fender and headlight on the car were damaged but the deer dashed into the field, although the Parkers said in reporting the incident, that they could see it had been crippled by the impact. It was snowing and the road was slippery at the time. Conservation officer Don Boyer was notified but was unable to locate the deer Saturday night.

On Sunday morning Richard Schmidt, mothered officer Boyer that he also had a deer but it was apparently not injured as it could not be located. But the deer hit by the Parkers was found by a party organized to hunt the animal. In the party were Boyer, Darrell Kniss, predatory animal control officer, Frank Reed, who was on duty; Parker and Richard Schmidt. The men hunted for two and one-half hours before they found the animal which turned out to be a doe. She jumped up and ran as they approached but soon became exhausted and dropped to the ground after examining her. Boyer decided she would have to be killed because the hindquarter bones were badly crushed. When they were dressing the carcass they found the doe would soon have given birth to triplet fawns.

This makes a total of three deer and five fawns killed in this area since Jan. 1 of this year, Reed said. He and conservation officers join in asking motorists to exercise extreme caution in traveling on Clear Lake road at this point where the deer in the vicinity use as a runway. Their runway was formerly across Loveland road until the gravel pit there began large-scale operations.

The officers advise motorists to drive slowly along this stretch of road, first of all to prevent personal injury to themselves or damage to their cars and secondly to protect the deer. Accidental death of the deer and forced slaughter of injured animals at this time will materially cut down on the number available for the hunting season next fall, they warn.

Next Lenten Service
at St. Paul's Church

Next week's Union Lenten service is to be held Wednesday evening, March 22, at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, Rev. W. H. Skentelbury, pastor of the Congregational church, will be the speaker.

Rev. O. W. Morrow, pastor of the Methodist church said yesterday that he believed thanks from the pastors of the community were due the people who braved the inclement weather on the first three Wednesdays of the current series of Lenten services.

Heavy-Duty Cables
Being Strung for Power Distribution

The L. E. Meyers Construction company of Chicago, is now engaged in installing a new 600-amp. heavy-duty main switch in the newly-completed control room building of the Chelsea Electric Light and Water Department on Van Buren street, Homer Nixon, superintendent of the Chelsea Electric Light and Water department has announced. This heavy-duty switch replaces the old one which had been in use in the former Electric Light department building on North Main street.

Four new, heavy-duty cables, capable of carrying heavy loads of current, will be strung from the control room to points throughout the city and supplied by the local utility company.

The first line to be put up will extend north from the control room on Van Buren street, between the houses on the north side of Van Buren street and the south side of East Summit street, thence across East Summit street and between houses on the north side of that street and then up the alley to the Rolland Spaulding residence. From there the line will continue behind the business places to the north side of the Central Fibre company's plant.

The second line is to extend south from Van Buren to Lincoln street, west on Lincoln street to the Mrs. Will Schatz property and from there will be strung north to the rear of the Sylvan Town hall.

The third line will begin at a point on the number-one line behind Moore's restaurant and will extend east down the alley to East street, across to the alley between Harrison and East Middle streets to the Colonial Manor Convalescent Home.

The fourth new wire will be strung parallel to Dexter road in the fields away from trees, beginning at the Abdon property and ending at the Harry Stofer residence. After these large scale improvements are finished a number of smaller improvements, setting of new poles, etc., are planned, Mr. Nixon said.

The work, which began on Mar. 2, is expected to take about two months to finish. It is estimated that the Electric Light and Water department will spend between $25,000 and $30,000 on the much needed improvements to the village electrical service equipment. Almost that amount, or approximately $29,000, has been accumulated by the department from its earnings in the past two years. Previously, most of the earnings of the department had been turned over to the general fund of the village. This left no money available for the large scale improvements which have for some time been considered necessary in the village's electrical distribution system. It is the objective of the village officials to carry out the same system of accumulating funds in the department for another year.

American Legion
Auxiliary Conducting
Magazine Campaign

The authorized American Legion Auxiliary subscription campaign will be held in Chelsea during the next two weeks, March 16-March 30, it was announced by Mrs. William Weber, president. Magazine salesmen representing the American Legion Auxiliary will carry proper identification, and it is hoped that the public will not confuse these salesmen with those who recently misrepresented themselves in this community.

The funds raised from this campaign will be used for sick room equipment which may be used by resident of Chelsea and rural vicinity free of charge for temporary home use. The sick room equipment may be obtained by calling Mrs. William Weber, phone 5881 Chelsea.

At present the Auxiliary has two hospital beds and two wheelchairs which have been in constant use. This year their goal is a hospital bed and additional mattresses.

VERNON EWALD'S OLD WHEELCHAIR went into retirement Monday evening when he was presented with the new chair he is shown seated in, above. The new chair is provided by the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, and the local Kiwanis club. Funds for the operation of the society are obtained from the annual sale of Easter Seals, now in progress. (See story on page five.)

Infirmary Residents Find Life More Pleasant Due to Gifts Contributed

For the 98 members of its "family" the Washtenaw county infirmary has become a more cheerful, comfortable place to live in during the last few months. They can go to the movies every week, except that they go downstairs instead of downtown. They are funny movies too. Like Charlie Chaplin's "The Fireman," and "The Great Guy."

The Business and Professional Women's club of Ann Arbor donated the projector and some of the films, and the "shows" are arranged and put on by the infirmary Auxiliary, the group of county women who have banded together for the sole purpose of making life more comfortable and a little gay for the old people of the infirmary.

And there's the television set. That's probably the most wonderful thing that's happened inside those four walls in the 30 years of the institution's existence. For many of the men and women it's the first real glimpse of the outside world they have had since going to live there, and they love it. Instead of going to bed at 8 o'clock as they formerly did, they will retire only at the switching-off of the television set which, with its large screen, makes a "little theatre" of the front sitting room.

There are parties every month at which ice cream and real home made cake made by members of the infirmary Auxiliary are enjoyed. Even the hospital patients share in the treat, with the dietetics having special desserts. At these parties music is the favorite entertainment, with Leader Eileen Lay a great favorite among the residents.

Now comforts, labelled necessities in most hospitals, have been installed on the hospital floor where there are 52 sick people in the seven ward-bedrooms and the two private rooms.

A modern stretcher, given by the Washtenaw County Medical Auxiliary, has been installed and is in constant use. The hospital made cake made by members of the infirmary Auxiliary are enjoyed. Even the hospital patients share in the treat, with the dietetics having special desserts. At these parties music is the favorite entertainment, with Leader Eileen Lay a great favorite among the residents.

Moreover the hospital now, for the first time, has its own refrigerator with ice cubes available 24 hours a day. The refrigerator also makes it possible for terminal cases to have fruit juices and gingerale—and for soups and serums and penicillin tablets to be always on tap. In other words, there is now more efficient nursing, more humane care of the chronically ill.

For the first time in the infirmary's history, chest x-rays of all residents have been taken, as well as blood tests and urinalyses. Much has been done, but there is much more still to do. In the hospital, sterilizing equipment is

Public School Closes for Institute

Public schools here will be closed all day Friday, March 17, to allow teachers to attend the annual county teachers' institute and convocation exercises in the Rackham building, Ann Arbor. The convocation exercises are presented under the direction of Dean J. B. Edmonson, with the public school teachers of Washtenaw county cooperating with the U. of M. School of Education.

The morning session begins at 9:45 in the Rackham lecture hall with Julius W. Haab, Washtenaw county superintendent of schools, presiding. The Rev. Harold J. De Vries, pastor of Grace Bible church, Ann Arbor, will give the invocation, and Dean Edmonson will be present to welcome the group.

Charles L. Anspach, president of Central Michigan College of Education, and Frank A. Huntley, associate professor of English and secretary of the Barbour scholarship committee at the University of Michigan, will be the speakers at the morning session. A film, "Act Your Age," will be shown, with Ralph Van Volkinburg, superintendent of Willow Run schools, presiding.

Randall Coates, president of the Washtenaw chapter of the M.E.A., and a teacher at Saline High school, will preside at a meeting of the Michigan Education Association scheduled from 1 until 2 o'clock in the Rackham amphitheater.

The convocation will take place at 2:10 p.m., with James P. Adams, provost of the University of Michigan, presiding. The concluding address of the day will follow in the Rackham lecture hall. Stanley Diamond, chairman of social studies in the Detroit public schools, and director of the Citizen Study of Detroit, will speak on the topic, "Can Schools Develop Better Citizens." Albert C. Johnson, superintendent of the Chelsea Agricultural school, was on the program planning committee for the day's activities.

St. Mary's Wins Final Junior Game

The last basketball game for this season for the local Junior Highs was played Saturday morning at St. Mary's gym with St. Mary's being victorious by a score of 40-32.

High-scoring man for St. Mary's was Neil Buehler with 26 points, while the high-point man for the Chelsea Junior High team was Bob White, with 12 points. Don Mahar made a sensational one-hand shot in the game. Referees were Alfred Knickerbocker and Bill Clark.

H.S. Baseball Team Begins Spring Drills

Enthusiasm High as Practice Is Held Each Day in Gym

Now that basketball season is over, baseball is readily gaining momentum and interest among the students and people of Chelsea.

Every school day some 23 boys assemble in the gymnasium for baseball drills. These drills consist of: throwing and batting practice, bunting practice, pitchers and catchers working together for control of the ball, and general training and conditioning drills. Also movies have been shown the boys, giving them valuable information about baseball.

It is Coach Stuits' opinion that there is a good future in baseball, and he hopes that the training of this sport received in the school will be instrumental to those who have the desire to pursue it as their profession.

Mr. Stuits is greatly pleased with the enthusiasm of the "baseball prospects," and reported that he is often met by a group of them at 8:00 in the morning, waiting for him to open the gym doors so they can resume their drills. Beaming proudly, he added "That's a good sign!"

Chelsea is scheduled for 18 spring games, six of which will be played during spring vacation. The first home game will be played against Stockbridge at the athletic field on April 10.

Providing the old proverb, "Where there's a will, there's a way," holds true, we can look forward to some fine baseball games for Chelsea this season.

Farm Bureau Urges Purge of Communists in Government

The Sylvan Farm Bureau meeting was held Friday evening, Mar. 10, at the K. of P. hall. Forty-seven members were present. Chairman William Pritchard presided.

Mrs. Everett Van Riper explained new benefits of the group insurance carried by Farm Bureau members and Fern Lesser reported for the first committee in regard to the progress made in their efforts to obtain a tank truck for the townships. The courthouse question was discussed at some length but was tabled until such time as more information on the subject could be provided.

The group also discussed the county Farm Bureau's resolution to establish a store or warehouse to sell all commodities at a whole sale plus cost of operation to Farm Bureau members. The Sylvan Bureau members came to the conclusion that it was their opinion there was no need for such a store in the county.

Provisions for refreshments and places to meet are to remain the same as the past year, hosts and hostesses to be selected in alphabetical order.

Concluding business at the meeting was the passing of a motion to have the secretary write to congressmen requesting that if there are any known communists in the State Department, the Congressmen will use their influence to have them ousted.

Guard Enlists 4th Congressional Medal Winner

Another of Michigan's five liv-ing-army Congressional Medal of Honor winners enlisted this week in the Michigan National Guard. Oscar G. Johnson, Jr., of De-Witt, became the fourth Medal of Honor winner to join the Guard when he signed up as a corporal in the State Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment at Lan-sing. Corporal Johnson earned the nation's highest award for valor near Scarpia, Italy, in 1944, as a member of the 91st Infantry Division. Using the weapons of his dead and wounded comrades, he stood alone at the base of a German defense are for two days and two nights without respite to withstand repeated enemy attacks. According to his official citation, "he practically single-handed pro-ected the left flank of his com-pany's position in the offensive to break the German's Gothic line."

In his single-handed defense op-eration, 25 Germans surrendered to him and 20 enemy dead were found in front of his position.

Born in Ishpeming, Corporal Johnson entered service in 1942 from his parent's home in Foster City. He is married and has two children, and is employed as a construction worker in Lansing.

In addition to the Congressional Medal, Corporal Johnson was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received in action.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Handy and Easy Are Both Wrong

Handy Peterson and Easy Roberts got in quite an argument the other day over at Fred's Garage talking about the best spot to fish up at Green Lake.

"Opposite the old sawmill is the best spot," says Handy. But Easy "pooh-poohs" him. "I've seen the biggest fish caught off Cedar Point," says Easy. "I've been catching them there for years."

Then Fred goes into his office and brings out the biggest mounted rainbow trout you ever saw. "Bet that was caught at the sawmill," comments Handy. "Cedar Point," says Easy. "Well," says Fred, "you're both wrong. I caught this baby right out in the middle!"

From where I sit, there are always two (or more) sides to every story. Let's live and let live in the true American tradition of toleration. Your opinion is worth a lot, but so is the other fellow's—whether it's on politics, the best fishing spots, or whether he likes a temperate glass of beer and you like buttermilk.

EDITORIALS

When you received your report card last week, were you satisfied with it? Most of you probably have to answer "No." If you want better marks the only way you can obtain them is by study.

Of course it's hard to study, but if the students that receive A's and B's do it why can't all of you? If you skim through a course on D's, you are not getting the value and information out of the subject that you should. Your marks should be a challenge to you—a challenge to do better.

Look about study hall and count the number of students sleeping or fooling around. Surely all those pupils are not satisfied with their marks. Remember you, and you alone, can bring about an improvement in your report card—not by studying yourself to death and missing a lot of fun, but simply by making better use of your study time.

SPONGE DANCE

Under rainbow colored streamers, the boys and their escorts danced to the music of various name bands, (on record, that is).

The girls asked the boys, cut in on them, and treated them afterwards. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served after the entertainment, which consisted of five songs played by the "Five Piece Flatfoots" and "Mountain Yodel Gals."

The Sponge Dance was the climax of Sponge Week, which is sponsored every year by GAA.

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION

The Student Council further discussed about Parents' Night to see that all the committees had taken care of their duties. All committees were found to have taken care of everything very well.

The Albion College band will be here April 24. The Student Council, Band, and Hi-Y will share in the expenses and loss if any.

The subject of the Student Court is to be brought up in each home room to see if the students still favor having one and how they think it will work out after having heard the comments from another school on the failure of their Student Court.

It was decided to bring to the attention of the High school students who bring non-high school guests to school dances that they should not be allowed to let their guests go outside to smoke or for any other reason.

The GAA plans for Sponge Week, with the exception jeans day, were accepted.

The Hi-Y will be allowed to have May 6th for a play to be presented by them.

ATOMIC!!!

Last Tuesday morning in an assembly for grades seven through 12, Mary Lou Tobin introduced Mr. Nadeau, a speech instructor from the University of Michigan. Mr. Nadeau brought with him three students speakers; Tom Gladstone, from Nebraska City; and Marvin Esch, from Akron, Ohio.

The subject covered by the three speakers was "The Atomic Bomb." Tom Murray told that the destructiveness of war is increasing because of the more deadly weapons used each time. He also said that the worst a country used to expect was defeat, but now the worst a country can expect is total destruction. (Continued on page nine)

Always Looking To The Future

Sound planning which aims to provide increased benefits for all whom it serves—members and the public alike—is the life blood of a virile farm cooperative.

By strict adherence to a policy of always serving the greatest number to the best purpose, the Michigan Milk Producers Association has thrived and grown steadily throughout its entire 33 years.

Since the close of World War II, members of the M.M.P.A. supplying the Detroit market have ploughed back over $685,000 in expansion and improvement of their plant and transportation facilities.

At this time, about a half million dollars are being invested in the modernization of the association-owned receiving station and manufacturing plant at Inlay City. This will provide added "stand-by facilities" to insure members against loss of revenue during seasons of highest milk production.

To constantly provide the great Detroit market with high quality milk from day to day and plan for the future to maintain an ample supply at all times, under all conditions, are primary objectives of this farmer owned and controlled cooperative.

Vernon Ewald Given New Wheelchair by Crippled Children's Society

Vernon Ewald was all smiles Monday evening as he seated himself in the new wheelchair presented to him by Paul F. Niehaus, representing the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, and the Chelsea Kiwanis club. The Kiwanis club made the recommendation for replacement of Vernon's old wheelchair which had become a familiar sight in Chelsea as he propelled it along on his way to and from his home, a mile west of town.

Vernon, who in spite of partial paralysis caused by injuries suffered at birth, is rather mechanically inclined and figured out an attachment for his old chair which enabled him to steer it as he propelled it backwards by pushing himself along with one foot. Vernon said he hopes to install the attachment on his new chair with the help of a friend who is a machanic at the local garage. Shown beside him is a chest in which he keeps the material with which he makes lifetime aluminum name plates for rural mail boxes. He sells these as a source of some income for himself.

The Washtenaw Chapter of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults also provided Vernon with his old wheelchair which is now worn out. He has been a charge of the county chapter for a number of years, said W. Busch, county president, said yesterday. Under the auspices of the Society he enjoys two weeks at the Crippled Children's and Adult's camp at Big Wolfe Lake, near Jackson, the first two weeks in August each year. The Society has also furnished him with materials for various crafts which he has been taught. Mr. Busch said that the Society would like to have provided Vernon with a mechanically propelled wheelchair but the cost of one of these would amount to five or six hundred dollars—which is considered prohibitive in view of available funds of the Society. The approximate cost of the new chair presented to Vernon is $75. Through ordinary channels the chair would cost almost double that amount. The gift will help make Vernon's 23rd birthday, which will be next Wednesday, March 22, a happy occasion. He lives at 20337 Old US-12 with his father, Frederick Ewald. His mother died 11 years ago. The family formerly resided in Detroit, coming to this vicinity in 1925. Vernon spent about five and

Well-Organized Boy Scout Troop Could Offer Local Youth Good Training

(ED. NOTE: Interest in scouting for Chelsea youth is mounting as is evidenced by the liberal contributions several firms have recently made to help further the local project. The following article, the second in a series, has been compiled by members of the Kiwanis club's committee on scouting.)

At present scouting activities practically do not exist in Chelsea. Camps at Mill and Bruin lakes are never used by Chelsea Boy Scouts even though they are available. The week-end camporees are not attended by Chelsea Boy Scouts. In short, Chelsea Boy Scouts exist in name only and are not even registered with the National Boy Scouts of America at present!

A well-organized and conducted Boy Scout troop would afford its members an opportunity to learn to conduct meetings with proper parliamentary procedure. The Boy Scout would learn to correctly introduce speakers, to organize an agenda for individual meetings as well as outline the whole year's program. In other words, they would learn to plan — and to plan for themselves.

Varied programs are possible in Chelsea drawn from the following fields — mention only a few: First aid training; photography; use, care and handling of firearms; forestry and signalling. All these activities and many others would be of real worth and interest to a boy of scouting age. In Chelsea hikes, overnight camping trips, swimming, life-saving instruction, fishing, etc., are all available without making long trips by automobile necessary to get to them. All this, and no use is being made of it.

At the present time a training course is being offered in Ann Arbor for men interested in becoming Scout leaders. This training course has been well attended by men from Chelsea. The following have attended the two meetings thus far held and have every intention of completing the eight-weeks course of instruction: Edward Benjamin, Howard Flintoft, Glenn Hass, Paul Niehaus, Wes. Howes, Andrew Leland, Bill Mendel, Kenneth Runciman, and Ed Sutter. No, these men are not all Kiwanians! The Kiwanis club merely sponsors the Boy Scouts of Chelsea — it is too big an undertaking for a mere service club — Dads of Scouts, Mothers of Scouts, and those interested in the fine work a real scouting program can do are the real backbone of the Boy Scouts of America in Chelsea and in any other community!

Raw materials plus processing equals more useful materials. Boys plus scouting program equals more useful citizens. Remember boys are the raw materials of this generation and the potential leaders of the next. Let's aid in preparing them for this future task!

I deem it a privilege to live in a country where Boy Scouts and their parents are not only tolerated but appreciated, and I wish to contribute $_____ to this, the first annual Boy Scouts of Chelsea drive for funds.

(Signed) _____

I am interested in the scouting program and would like, to the best of my ability, to serve the organization (the Boy Scouts of America) as an adult leader.

(Signed) _____

Please clip out either, or both of the above blanks and mail to Committee for Boy Scouts of Chelsea, c/o Chelsea Kiwanis club, Chelsea.

Those who have thus far contributed: Central Fibre Products, $100; Federal Screw Works, $100; Chelsea Milling company, $100; Chelsea Produce company, $50; and Warren R. Daniels, $25.

one-half years some time ago at Sigma Gamma hospital school at Mt. Clemens, his father said. Presentation of this chair to a local boy, coming as it does during the present Easter Seal campaign which is a means for raising funds for the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, brings home to Chelsea people the fact that the Society is performing a real service to deserving, handicapped people and is therefore worthy of the generous support of everyone in the community. The campaign opened March 9 and will continue through April 9. Easter Seals will be in the mail soon with enclosed, addressed envelopes for remittance of contributions. Officers of the Washtenaw Chapter of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, in addition to Mr. Busch, the president, are Paul F. THIS LITTLE PIGGY WENT TO MARKET

And the chances are, he was assisted in his journey by the telephone. For farmers find the telephone invaluable in checking the market, selling and ordering supplies. Every day the telephone saves valuable time that can be profitably devoted to the farm. Yet with all the help it gives... with all the comfort and convenience it brings... a telephone costs less than a half gallon of gasoline a day.

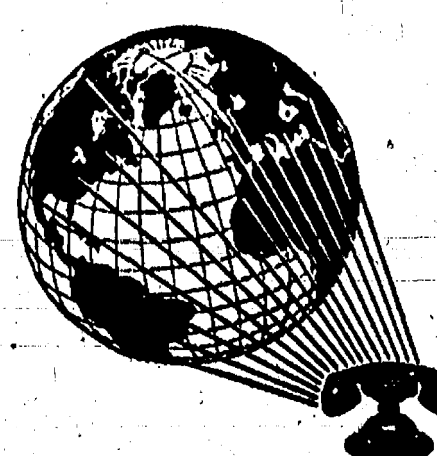

OVER THE FIELDS AND FARTHER AWAY

For years, farm families have wanted to be able to call nearby towns where they deal and have friends—without paying toll charges. Michigan Bell's "extended area service" is designed to eliminate toll charges between certain towns which have developed a natural community of interest. Nearly 500,000 Michigan Bell customers in some 160 exchanges now enjoy this new service, and it's being extended to more areas every month.

THE WORLD'S FAR CORNERS... IN YOUR HOME

If you were to visit the countries that provide all the materials that go into the various parts of your telephone, you'd be a world traveler. India for mica. Mexico for lead antimony. Brazil for caruba wax from palm leaves. Western Electric, the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System, searches the far corners of the world for materials to give you the best possible telephone equipment and service.

In this way I wish to thank my many friends and neighbors for the flowers, cards and kindness shown me during my stay in the hospital and after my return home. Thanks one and all.

Mrs. Augusta Fritz.

THANK YOU

I want to thank all the children in my room at St. Mary's school for the letters and cards they sent me and everyone else who remembered me while I was in hospital; also I wish from my heart to thank my "little mamma" for my nice box, books and toys and for the lovely flowers. Thank you all.

George Hepplewhite

George Hepplewhite was a practical cabinetmaker and designer, and his furniture was a refinement of previous styles. He was particularly famous for his chairs and sideboards. Today his styles and adaptations are the most popular of all those produced by the 16th century masters.

Early Cro-Magnon

You might say that interior decoration began when the Cro-Magnon men chewed sticks into brushes, dipped them into clay mixed with melted animal fat, and painted pictures of deer and bison on the walls of their caves.

The 180 tons of steel which the industry is able to produce per minute is equivalent to the amount required to manufacture 180 typical 3,130-pound automobiles which are about 71 per cent steel.

Passenger Trains
Passenger trains on railroads of the United States perform a transportation service each hour of the day and night equivalent to moving the entire population of a city of 4,100,000 inhabitants for a distance of one mile.

Ginseng
Ginseng is found only in China and North America, growing on wooded hillsides. About 50,000 pounds are dug each year, over half of this being found in western North Carolina, parts of Kentucky, Tennessee, and Virginia.

James Ewald Reports for Training with Professional Ball Club

James Ewald, 20-year-old son of Frederick Ewald, left Friday for Daytona Beach, Florida, where he was to report on Sunday for spring training as a pitcher with the Green Bay Bluejays, farm team of the Cleveland Indians.

The young man has a contract with the Cleveland Indians signed by Hank Greenberg, business manager of the club. He got his chance to play in the baseball through the efforts of Bill Schatz, who acted as local scout for Charles Reese, regional baseball scout for the Cleveland Indians. Reese came here at Schatz's suggestion to watch young Ewald in action. Schatz said he and Reese both feel that Ewald has a good chance of getting on the Indians' farm team, the Green Bay (Wisconsin) Bluejays to play this summer.

He has been a member of the Chelsea Independents team but didn't play with the team much last summer because he worked Sundays, the days when the Chelsea team plays most of its games. Schatz said, however, that he had faithfully kept up his practice with the result that his pitching form impressed the Indians' scout to the extent that the contract was secured for him.

"Deathwatch" Beetle
"Deathwatch" is the name given to several kinds of small brownish beetles that burrow into furniture and woodwork and are often very destructive. These beetles have the peculiar habit of knocking their heads against wood. Superstitious people sometimes believe that the rattling sound this sport produces in the quiet of the night foretells death in the house.

Eight Robins Sighted at Crooked Lake

Saturday morning, Mar. 11, Mrs. Walter Watson saw eight robins feeding on crumbs regularly put out for birds in the back yard at a neighbor, Mrs. George Clark, in Crooked Lake. Mrs. Watson said the robins appeared to be well fed, and because there were so many together at one time, she believes they are really harbingers of spring that migrated from the south and not "larks" which sometimes spend the winter in marshes in the north. One day the previous week, just before the heavy snow, Mrs. Watson spied a flock of wild geese heading north. She said they circled overhead and then attempted to settle on the lake until they discovered it was still frozen over. The flock continued north after their unsuccessful attempt to "land."

THE HI-LIGHT

Mr. Murray pointed out that atomic energy can be used for either good or bad and we must decide which, now.

The second speaker, Mr. Gladstone, spoke on the American Plan for controlling the A-Bomb and H-Bomb. He said that the American Plan is to control the materials which go into the bomb, but he pointed out that we cannot do this now because of the Iron Curtain. He also said that the American Plan is to have a International Policy that more bombs be made and the ones in existence now be destroyed. He pointed out that the Russian veto power should be eliminated because they will not let these things pass. Mr. Gladstone also mentioned that the inspection of peace-time use of atomic materials is necessary to see that none is being used for war bombs.

power because they are a minority and that is the only way they can protect their interests. The second point of rebuttal was that the Russians wanted a World Government just as much as the United States but they did not feel we are ready for it yet. Mr. Esch also said that the Russians believed that each country should have their free enterprise in peacetime atomic research. He said they don't mind inspection but they want advance notice when inspectors are coming. Mr. Esch said the Russian plan is: One, to destroy all the A-bombs in existence now; two, to make an international treaty not to make any more; third, inspections with a advance notice; and fourth, they should keep their veto power. When Mr. Esch finished Mr. Gladstone asked him a few questions and summed up the material. The students then asked questions and gave constructive criticisms about the speeches and speech-habits of the performers. When this was over everyone went to classes.

Resting! Yes, that's her favorite pastime. She enjoys resting and eating hamburgers and French fries more than anything else. It is somewhat surprising that she chooses bowling as her favorite sport. (This is quite strenuous, isn't it? Not only does she exert herself bowling but she has participated in Latin club, Band, Journalism and GAA. If you were told that she is inclined to have quite a temper and dislikes people who pretend to be what they are not, I'm sure you would guess that this young lady is Virginia Christwell. Yes, Virginia is the girl who enjoys doing nothing. I must say for a girl that likes doing nothing she has kept herself quite busy with being president and librarian of the band, and assistant in the Senior stand. Virginia was born on Sept. 15, 1932 and has attended Chelsea High all her life.

Her plans after graduation are to become a beautician.

decisions later in life, so the sooner they start, the better."

"Well," said Jane, "You've told me all this but you haven't told me who she is."

"Oh, I'm sorry," said Mary, "She is Jean McClure."

What would you do? It's graduation night and one of the graduates is missing. There are just a few clues to the identity of this person. She is five feet four with brown hair and blue eyes. She was born Aug. 20, 1932 in Dexter. There she attended the St. Joseph Elementary school. These things don't help much so you try to find more clues. Discovering she likes horse-back riding, swimming, football, and the movie "Neptune's Daughter" you visit the various places where these things are held but no graduate.

Biographies . . .

It seems the case is hopeless. Walking by a home you hear a piano playing "Room Full of Blues." Remembering the graduate likes these things you go to the house and find Mary Ann Wheeler in her favorite costume, jeans and a sweater. Answering why she isn't at graduation since it takes place in an hour, she explains she was not aware of the time because she was waiting for her favorite food, Italian spaghetti, to cook. Taking her along to her graduation, spaghetti and all, you discover that comparing Chelsea High with St. Joseph she believes one can learn more at Chelsea. During her High school career she has been working at the Chelsea Methodist home. She believes working a good idea because then students wouldn't be too eager to throw away their money. She thinks Chelsea shouldn't have a curfew since students know what hours they can keep.

Biographies . . .

Upon reaching the gymnasium safely she declared that after graduation she plans to go to business college or be a ward helper in St. Joseph's hospital.

Someone put a little nickel in a nickelodeon on April 19, 1932 in Waterloo, and out popped Shirley Le Van. Before coming to Chelsea, she went to school in Waterloo. She was vice-president during her sophomore year, but her high school career was interrupted by an attack of undulant fever. Her happiest moment was returning to school after her illness. Her favorites are food, hamburgers; recreation, hiking, sport, football; and her pet peeve is self-centered people. Shirley does not think parents should choose our friends because we should be able to choose our friends wisely.

Telling her grandchildren about her high school days won't be a difficult job for Marlene Schneider, who was born Oct. 8, 1931 in Chelsea, and has always attended Chelsea High. A regular home-town girl! While in school Marlene has been a member of the Latin club, Journalism, GAA and Student Council. In these organizations she was treasurer of Journalism and secretary-treasurer of Student Council. Her happiest moment in school was when Mr. Man gave her a gold identification bracelet for her 18th birthday. "Wonder why?"

Biographies . . .

Marlene has working experience, since she has worked both in a clothing and drug store. She has some definite opinions of her own such as parents should choose ones friends when one is too young to know "bad" company. Her pet peeve is buying ginger ale and potato chips to take home after a game. How odd!

Biographies . . .

After graduation Marlene plans to attend some business school.

Biographies . . .

Whether swimming or playing basketball she is enjoying herself immensely.

Biographies . . .

In preparation for high school she attended Savage Grade school. No one likes chile better than she. Oh how happy she was the day she became a senior.

Biographies . . .

Nonie seems to be her nickname. "Always smile when things seem blue" is her policy.

Biographies . . .

For a job she chooses baby sitting. Rather than daily chores develops character.

Annoys her greatly when people are always late.

Nonie entered the world on June 6, 1933 in Chelsea.

Movies . . .

The history class enjoyed a movie last week on "Here is Tomorrow." It was the history of how Co-ops first began in this country. Movies presented to the Biology class were "Posture and Exercise," "Body Defense Against Disease," and "As Maine Grows." The Home Economics class saw "From Cotton To Cotton" which described the stages that cotton goes through before it is woven into material.

The following pupils have a record of perfect attendance this year: seventh grade—Betty Smith, Janet Talbot, Sally Vogel, and Alice Wenk; eighth grade—J. Bertke, R. Bertke, B. Hughes, C. Paul, L. Paxton, and K. Widmayer.

Delores Joseph, Gary Packard, and Constance Steinbach had perfect attendance the last six weeks. Delores Joseph, seventh grade, spelled the other contestants down, but was ineligible because she had previously won. Sally Vogel was a close runner-up for Ruth Ann, and Jeanette Otte gave Sandra a battle for the championship.

Last Friday, March 10, during fourth hour, the eighth grade Home Ec. girls had a party for the boys.

SIXTH GRADE

The sixth grade art class has been designing women's hats. Some very original ideas have been sketched.

The geography class is studying France. They have made maps and are planning to make the Eiffel Tower on the bulletin board.

The class had a spell-down on March 10. The winners will compete in a contest with the fifth grade.

The morning kindergarten pupils are making the scene "A Street in Holland" while the afternoon pupils are making "A Farm in Holland." This is in preparation for Parents' Night.

Mrs. Gregory's pupils are beginning a train unit and the fourth graders are making paper-made animals.

The third grade had a roller-skating party at Jackson on Saturday. Mrs. Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Keizer, and Mrs. Wagner were chaperones.

ENROLL AT KALAMAZOO NORMAL COLLEGE

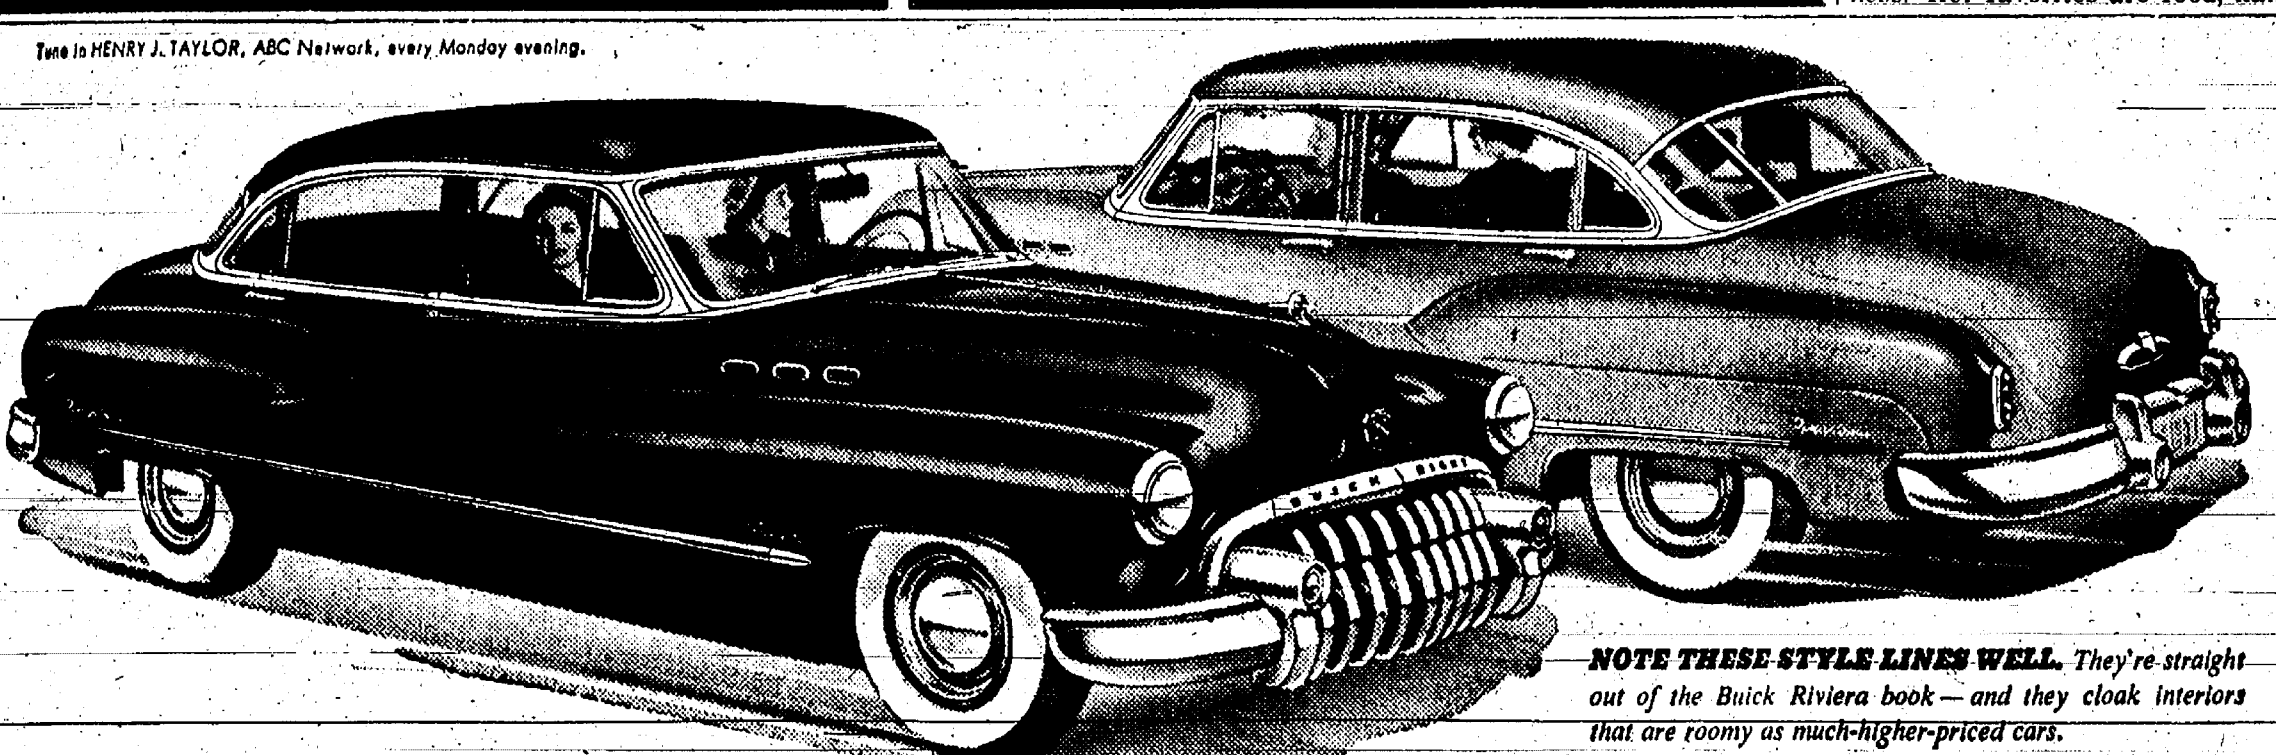

Kalamazoo—Two students from Chelsea have enrolled for the second semester at Western Michigan college, according to an analysis of the semester's registration which has just been completed.

These include David Knickerbocker, pre-engineering, and Mary Gage, secretarial.

A furious snowstorm occurred in the New England states during the winter of 1780. In many places snow was piled up to the second-story windows of tall houses, while houses of one story were completely snowed under. This notation was found on an old calendar belonging to Martin Gottschalk.

NOTE THESE STYLE LINES WELL. They're straight out of the Buick Riviera book—and they cloak interiors that are roomy as much-higher-priced cars.

FORE AND AFT - a Beauty and a Buy

It's lithe, long and lovely—and it calls not just for one look, but for two.

See how this sleek Sedan looks coming down the road—bold grillwork shining, broad bonnet purring with power, and the wide, curving, unbroken sweep of a one-piece windshield giving you horizon-wide outlook.

And spot the pretty picture you make going away.

The broad, wrap-around rear window and topside styling in the Buick Riviera manner.

The graceful, spacious trunk, the "double bubble" taillights, the sense of high-fashion fleetness in everything from rear fender lines to the curve of the roof.

Yes, that's beauty—beauty in the unmistakable Buick manner. But observe also:

Interiors are extra roomy in all dimensions. The biggest you can buy for the money, we believe—and bigger than many higher-priced cars.

And, since this is a Buick SUPER, there's sensational new power under the hood—Buick's own F-263 Fireball straight-eight, this year's big news in valve-in-head power.

Yes, when you go stepping in this one, you'll really step—with roominess and top-drawer styling and the level going of all-coil springing—yes, and Dynaflo Drive* too, if you choose—making your pleasure complete.

The price? Well, drop in on your Buick dealer, ask about the SUPER 126 and be prepared for happy listening. Here's a buy—so grand a buy you'll lose no time getting behind a Buick wheel.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilson, who recently moved to Charlotte after being residents of Chelsea

Following a family dinner, open house was held from two until five o'clock in the afternoon.

Guests were present from Battle Creek, Lansing, Holt and Chelsea.

Daffodils and yellow roses, together with the three-tiered anni-color scheme on the refreshment table. The cake was topped with the number "50" in gold.

The Gilsons were married in son from Battle Creek, and Mary Lou Schram, also of Battle Creek, announced their engagement and left to attend an engagement party in their honor later in the afternoon.

Federal Screw Works here. While employed here he and Mrs. Gilson

They left after the party and are now spending some time at their

MICHIGAN MIRROR

● The Governor has included in the legislative call a proposal for aid to Michigan wine makers. He would change the law whereby wine makers could produce stronger wines in competition with other states such as California.

Another subject matter before the legislature is a proposal by the Governor to enable counties and townships to utilize Federal housing machinery. The Governor has also proposed special zoning authority around airports designed to prevent hazards.

● Indications at Lansing were that the Governor would also recommend revision of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Act along lines of his message in 1949. At that time he favored a minimum of $30 a week and maximum of $42 a week, the latter depending upon dependents for unemployment.

played workers covered by the Unemployment Compensation Act. The legislature agreed upon a minimum of $24 and maximum of $32.

● The Governor is known to favor an extension of the time for worker benefits, as well as a change whereby workers are disqualified from jobless payments under certain conditions.

● Revision of the State Sales Tax, currently a subject of considerable controversy, is not likely to come before the legislature as the Governor has consistently opposed consumer taxes. The Governor has been assured by legal advisors that such could not be acted upon by the legislature unless authorized by the Governor.

Thus revision of the State Sales Tax is likely to be held over until 1951.

As 1950 is a Michigan campaign year, the proceedings at Lansing will bear close watching.
