

• "No increase in taxes!"
• "No increase in government spending for public services!"
Such will be the answer of the Michigan state legislature to Gov. G. Mennen Williams in the current special session at Lansing, if the recommendations of the Senate and House finance committees are upheld by Republican legislators.

• Governor Williams has proposed a record-breaking budget for state spending for $840 millions for the next fiscal year starting July 1, 1950.
This would be an increase of $110 millions, most of which would be covered by new taxes.
The source of new tax revenues has been limited by Governor Williams to a state corporations profits tax. The state constitution permits the Governor to limit subject matter to be considered during a special session. In the past special sessions have been called to deal with emergency situations. Since the close of World War II the special session has become one for arriving at an annual budget in view of the post-war inflation in prices and a steady decline in purchasing power.

• In deciding that the Republican policy in the special session would be to balance the state budget without calling for new taxes, legislative leaders have given a firm "no" to the proposals of the Governor for more spending and new taxes.

Unless legislators give in to pressure group demands for their own areas, legislative leaders believe that they can hold the lines firmly to accomplish the desired results of a balanced budget.

Members of the two finance committees are agreed that compulsory appropriations, such as $87 millions required for public schools by the sales tax diversion amendment, could not be reduced by the legislature. This fact indicates that a budget cutting squeeze will be forthcoming whereby many state agencies, and perhaps some non-mandatory state aid to local governments, will have less funds to spend during the coming year than heretofore.

• Whether this economy in certain fields of government spending will meet with approval of the taxpayers is another matter. Governor Williams no doubt will take advantage of the situation, pressing for further benefits in public services, local as well as state, and deploring the "reactionary" and "conservative" attitude of the Republican party in 1950.

There is a strong feeling among Republican legislators, as repeatedly reported in the press, to treat the spending program of the Governor as largely political issues for his campaign of re-election. The large list of proposals, of which there are 15, appear to be very ambitious to many legislators in view of the tradition that a special session should be limited to financial appropriations. Matters held to be of an emergency nature.

• William Palmer, chairman of the State Civil Service Commission, has proposed that the legislature apply a flat 10 percent cut in state payrolls as one way to effect a balanced budget. Records show that the payrolls of state agencies during the past year were approximately double of those in 1943-44. Senate Minority Leader Elmer R. Porter, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, points out that if the legislature could reduce state employment to the level of 1945-46, a savings of $24 millions could be effected. In 1948-49 the state had 16,038 employees for a total payroll of $33,181,567. For the past fiscal year (1948-49) 23,791 employees received a payroll totaling $66,283,311.

Yet the budget cannot be balanced alone by cutting salaries of state employees, a relatively small item in the light of all appropriations. Public services must be trimmed, and this means that the taxpayer will not pay more for present services, but due to conservation of state revenue to public schools and local governments, he (Continued on page twelve)

COUNTY VOTES ON NEW COURTHOUSE

County Roads Impassable as Frost Thaws

Unnecessary Travel on All Side Roads Being Discouraged

Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, superintendent of the Washtenaw county Road Commission said yesterday that his office was experiencing real relief from the flood of telephone calls of the past week because county residents have finally come to the realization that not only their own particular road in every gravel road in the county is practically impassable. He said the unprecedented break-up of all gravel roads, many of which had never been in bad condition at this time in previous years, was the result of the saturated condition of roadbeds caused by the frequent rains of the winter which were concentrated above the frost line underneath the surface.

As the frost underneath gave way, Hallenbeck said, the saturated, oozy condition was deepened. The alternate freezing and thawing which took place and the absence of clear, dry days which would have helped to stabilize road beds, together with recent heavy rains, all combined to turn most unpaved and unsurfaced highways into seas of mud. Preparations are being made by county road crews to repair bad spots as soon as it becomes possible to move equipment over the roads.

At present, Hallenbeck said, it is physically impossible to do anything, the heavy road trucks only serving to cut up road beds still further. He said that the heavy snow-plow push bars at the front of the county trucks are being removed in an effort to lighten the weight of trucks when they begin work on the weakened road beds. Removal of the push bars which hang low under the truck frames, also help to prevent the vehicles from becoming stuck when they run into soft spots in the roads.

Wilbert Breitenwischer, Chelsea district foreman for the Road Commission, said he had run out of signs to mark roads that are closed, and because they had become impossible. He said that even though roads are not marked closed and seem quite normal.

Defacing of Walls in Rest Rooms Hit by Officials

A problem with which village officials were confronted during the past week is that of the defacing of walls and woodwork in the women's public restroom in the Municipal building. Complaints have been received that the walls and doors bear not only scribbled names and inconsequential drawings which serve only to spoil the appearance of the once nicely-painted surfaces but that some of the drawings and writings are actually obscene. The market and lead pencil marks are difficult to remove. Strangers who might happen into the restrooms would most certainly gain the impression that there are girls or women in Chelsea who to put it mildly, show very questionable taste by leaving their names or names of acrobats scrawled on the walls of a public restroom.

The women's restroom is reported to be worse in this respect than the men's restroom. While some vandalism occurred at one time in the men's restroom there has been no great amount of defacing of the walls as has become the cause for complaint in the women's quarters.

Village officials said that if use of the restrooms continued to be abused some manner of restriction in regard to their use will have to be employed.

One Chelsea woman remarked, in regard to the vandalism, "What a sad reflection on some of Chelsea's female population. One would think they'd be ashamed of themselves."

Fire Followers Warned by Officials

Fire department officials again remind people of the community of the law requiring motorists to remain 500 feet behind fire equipment which is answering a fire alarm. The law also states that cars must not be driven closer than within 500 feet of the scene of a fire.

Motorists at several recent fires neglected to comply with these regulations, officials reported.

Open Fires Require Burning Permit

Let's protect our wildlife and wildlife cover during 1950. Let's burn only when absolutely necessary, and then be sure we have all fires under control. By exercising a few precautions, we can save considerable expense to our townships, our county, and to ourselves.

An uncontrolled fire can kill our young rabbits, pheasants, quail, squirrel and all types of animal and bird life, especially during April and May, in addition to the unseen damage to our soil.

A burning permit is required to start or have an open fire except for domestic purposes, when the ground is not snow covered. Domestic fires including cooking fires and leaf and debris burning in close proximity to homes. If there is any possibility of the fire spreading, play safe, and get a fire permit.

Fire permits can be secured from your local fire departments or conservation officers stationed at Chelsea, 406 North Street, phone 7701, and Ypsilanti, 1888 La Forge road, phone 4506.

The aim of the law is to permit use of fire as a tool to clear land, dispose of debris and the like, yet control it and prevent uncalled for damage. By your cooperation, you can save the fire departments many unnecessary calls each year.

Crippled Children's Society Seeks to Help Afflicted

If there is a crippled child or a handicapped adult in your family, the Washtenaw County Crippled Children's Society wants to know about it.

Paul F. "Terry" Niehaus, vice-president of the Society, declared today that the Society is "eager to give assistance where it is most needed to bring health and strength to either child or adult who needs aid in the battle for a normal life."

"We shall never feel that we have fulfilled our purpose until we are giving full aid to every crippled child and adult who needs us. This is why we hope to enlarge our funds this year in order to expand our services."

"Funds are being raised during this Easter Seal month from the citizens of this community to help those who are less fortunate. Facilities of our Society are maintained by this community participation in the Easter Seal Drive. We want to see these services extended to as many crippled children as possible who need a crutch or therapeutic treatment as well as adults who need a helping hand to overcome a handicap."

Mr. Niehaus pointed out that all but a small percentage of the funds raised during Easter Seal drive are used right here in the community, with considerably less than 10 per cent going to the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Chicago, to finance its program of research and education and a national program to aid the cerebral palsy.

The local goal for the 1950 Easter Seal drive is $400.00. Those in this area who know of crippled persons needing aid are urged to get in touch with Washtenaw County Crippled Children's Society, 720 E. Catherine St., Ann Arbor, telephone 2-5581.

Rev. Skentelbury Addresses Kiwanis Club Monday

Rev. W. H. Skentelbury, pastor of the Congregational church and a past president of the Chelsea Kiwanis club was guest speaker at Monday's regular Kiwanis meeting in the dining room of the Methodist church. Choosing as his topic for tonight's address, he pointed out the tremendous material progress made in this country since Colonial days, comparing the modest number of possessions required by the early settlers with the enormous variety of articles and modern necessities in this day. Moral progress, he said, has not kept pace with material progress. Among the examples he cited was the growth of juvenile delinquency despite the fact that the standard of living for today's children is food, clothing, medical care, schools, amusements, etc., is the highest the world has ever known. He stressed the point that the pioneer had definite goals in mind when they emigrated to America and that they worked toward those goals but that present-day Americans, as a whole, seem to be drifting aimlessly in a sea of material prosperity.

Kenneth Runciman, chairman of the Kiwanis Boy Scout committee introduced Andrew LeJan, Knickerbocker. Howard Flintoft and Edwin L. Benjamin, all Chelsea men, who have been assisting the committee in its work and were guests at Monday's meeting.

Free Clinics Planned for Immunization

All Children Eligible for Treatment in Annual Service

The ninth annual series of county-wide diphtheria and smallpox immunization clinics sponsored by the Washtenaw County Medical Society was announced today by Dr. Paul Bassow, president of the society.

"The physicians of Washtenaw county are glad to contribute their time in these clinics to prevent epidemics of diphtheria and smallpox," said Dr. Bassow.

The first clinics were held in Willow Run with the initial clinic scheduled at Ross school at 9:00 a.m. Monday, March 27. Some of the other clinics in the county will be held according to the schedule below. Clinics will also be held in many of the rural schools.

Ann Arbor school clinics are to be conducted in May at a date to be announced later.

Most infants are protected for whooping cough, tetanus, smallpox, and diphtheria in their first year of life according to studies conducted by the Health Department cooperating with the physicians of Washtenaw county. Most parents have recognized this as an essential part of medical care and secure their immunizations in the office of their family physician.

Many parents have arrangements made with these family physicians to renew protective treatments every two or three years.

"The annual clinic sponsored by the society," said Dr. Bassow, "are designed to serve those children where such arrangements have not been made and to get immunization started in children who for one reason or another have never been immunized before."

"The County Health Department is pleased to cooperate with the Medical Society in conducting these immunization clinics," said Dr. Engleke. All children from infancy through high school age are eligible for immunization. No charge is being made for the service. Dr. Engleke added that 3,000 children were vaccinated for smallpox and 3,500 were immunized for diphtheria under this same program.

Attention Spotlighted On Conservation of Michigan Forests

With this edition of The Chelsea Standard, we are making our first attempt to join forces with other Michigan newspapers in spotlighting the forests and simple farm woodlots in our state—the backbone of a once lightly-regarded but now so vital a part of our life.

To protect this resource which means more than just lumber, we are asking for the "two cents worth" you can kick in along with the 6,000,000 or so other citizens of the state. It is still true in sections as well as words that the impression the thousands of outside visitors get on such a seemingly small act as throwing a lighted cigarette out of a car window.

Restoring trees into the proper scheme of things in Michigan requires use of a two-pronged weapon—forest fire prevention and replanting. While eventual recognition of a problem and modern fire fighting techniques have reduced the toll of fire-chewed acres, the turn of the 20th century, it also must be remembered nature's remaining stockpile is smaller.

Thus we direct thought not only to guarding what we have left, from one of man's worst enemies, fire, but to the new and exciting "tree farm" system in Michigan.

Foster Named Sec'y of Rod-Gun Club

Dudley Foster has been appointed secretary of the Chelsea Rod and Gun club to replace M. W. McClure, who resigned after election to the post at the March 14 meeting. The announcement was made by the newly-elected club president, Lyle Haselwerdt.

Essay Contest Winners Named at St. Paul's

Winners in a Stewardship essay and poster contest were awarded prizes during the Sunday school hour at St. Paul's church Sunday morning.

First prize winners in the various age groups were Donna Oesterle, Donna Hinderer, Eleanor Leland and Mrs. Floyd Walz; second prize winners were Janet Widmayer, Richard Leland and Mrs. Ernest Fitzmeyer; and third prize was awarded Alice Ann Wenk.

The winning essays and posters in the local contest have been forwarded to judges for the Michigan-Indiana Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and any winning entries chosen there will be entered in the national contest.

The local contest ended March 12. Mrs. Harold Widmayer acted as chairman and Mrs. P. G. Schable and Mrs. Herbert Paul were the judges who selected the prize-winning essays and posters. Edges Wayne Dunlap, conductor of orchestra at the University of Michigan; and Leonard Falcomer, director of bands at Michigan State College.

Each band is required to sight-read two numbers in addition to their concert playing. Chelsea was judged in this event by Larry Teal of the Detroit Symphony.

The judges complimented the band on its fine appearance, tone quality, precision, and general musical effect. The judges, in general, were very complimentary in regard to the band's performance and urged them to continue the fine work they are doing.

Red Cross Campaign Tops Quota

Mrs. John Fischer, local chairman of the current Red Cross drive for funds, reported yesterday that Chelsea had already raised well over a hundred dollars more than its $1250 quota. With one of the Chelsea plants and a number of block societies still to be heard from, the final amount is expected to reach a gratifying figure over and above the stated quota. The amount on hand yesterday, Mrs. Fischer reported, was $1,368.25.

Mrs. Fischer said she was very much pleased with the response of the contributors in Chelsea and she highly praised the work of the block solicitors and the four section captains, Mrs. John L. Fletcher, Mrs. John Chaplin, Mrs. Paul Schneider, and Mrs. Paul Eisele.

Hampered by severe winter weather at the beginning of the month-long campaign which closes tomorrow, the work of soliciting was begun later than had been planned. This prevented workers from completing the major portion of the solicitation the first two weeks of the month as they had hoped to do when announcement of the 1950 campaign was made.

Safety Measures Urged Before Starting Grass Fires

Now that the season for grass and rubbish fires is again approaching, Fire Chief Thomas Young reminds the people of Chelsea that much trouble and expense to the fire department could be eliminated if those who plan to burn such areas would cooperate with the department by following a few simple rules.

Although no permit is required to set such fires within the village limits, Young said, unnecessary runs of the fire department equipment could be eliminated if the person planning to burn off grass would notify him or the telephone operator in charge of fire calls whose number is 3451. If the fire department personnel is thus consulted, suggestions as to safety measures may be obtained and, in addition, the fire department would not answer a call to the scene of the fire called in by anyone other than the person in charge.

Permits must be obtained from conservation officials for burning of grass or setting other fires outside the village limits.

High School Band Wins Honors at District Contest

The Chelsea High school band won second division honors at the District Band and Orchestra Festival held in Ypsilanti last Saturday. Competing in the "Class C" division of the band, under the direction of Robert Sohn, performed the "Scoutmaster March" by Jewell, "Be Across the Meadows," by Ketyelby in addition to the required number "Overture Argentina," by Buchtel. The band was judged in concert playing by William D. Revelle, director of bands at the University of Michigan; Wayne Dunlap, conductor of orchestra at the University of Michigan; and Leonard Falcomer, director of bands at Michigan State College.

Each band is required to sight-read two numbers in addition to their concert playing. Chelsea was judged in this event by Larry Teal of the Detroit Symphony.

The judges complimented the band on its fine appearance, tone quality, precision, and general musical effect. The judges, in general, were very complimentary in regard to the band's performance and urged them to continue the fine work they are doing.

Thieves Loot N. Lake Store Thurs. Night

The North Lake general store, owned by Scott Freeman, was broken into sometime between 10 p.m. Thursday and 8 a.m. Friday, the thieves getting away with a large quantity of merchandise. Freeman said he had not yet been able to make a complete estimate of his loss. Among the articles stolen were two fishing rods, two fishing rods, a large quantity of canned goods, 2½ cases of coffee, approximately 70 cartons of cigarettes, several bottles of wine, and a quantity of clothing and other items. The thieves chose only the better brands of canned goods, coffee and cigarettes, Freeman said.

The loot was carried away in two large boxes of the type used as banana boxes. The bananas had been emptied out of the two boxes and then loaded with the stolen articles. Giving rise to a theory that the thieves might have been frightened away was the fact that a bundle of woolen jackets was left on the basement stair landing.

Freeman said entry was gained by forcing a small basement window, presumably by a "pinch" bar which was abandoned a short distance from the store. After getting inside the store the back door was opened to allow goods to be carried out, according to footprints which led to tracks of an automobile.

Freeman said he discovered the robbery when he opened the store on Friday morning. He immediately notified the sheriff's department. Officers arriving at 11 a.m. to investigate, he said, were hampered in their efforts to find footprints and tracks by snow which had fallen in the meantime.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Campbell and children, Jack and Nan, of Toledo, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Moore. Also there for the afternoon was the Moore's daughter, Joanne, of Ypsilanti. Eileen Moore, who had spent the past week at home, returned to Michigan State College on Monday.

Check Buildings for Fire Hazards

The annual loss from fires reaches a tremendous figure each year. It means both the loss of property and life. Fire is a dangerous hazard during the spring season.

Grass and brush fires should be guarded against this spring. The loss of organic matter far exceeds its value in controlling insects, weeds, etc. Only death and destruction lie in the trail of a fire.

The destruction of serviceable buildings on a farm caused by fire, not only means the loss of shelter, of people and livestock, but may also mean the loss of essential food. Buildings and equipment are expensive to replace at this time.

Before the rush of spring work starts it might be well to check all farm buildings, including the home, for fire hazards. It is estimated that 90 per cent of all home and farm fires can be prevented by removing the hazards through a clean-up campaign. Preventing farm and home fires is a literal interpretation of the old adage, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." A tidy, attractive farm is a safe farm.

Approval of Both Propositions Needed To Permit Building

Next Monday, April 3, Sylvan township electors, together with qualified electors in the entire county will go to the polls to cast their ballots on the question of "bond issue for a new courthouse to be built on the site of the present building in Ann Arbor." Propositions are to be submitted and both require simple majorities to pass.

If the county is to be permitted to go ahead with the building of a new courthouse, a simple majority of the electors must vote "yes" on proposition number one which asks authority to issue bonds amounting to $2,600,000 and also on proposition number two which seeks permission to increase property taxes amounting to $1.25 per thousand dollars of property valuation for a period of 20 years.

To be eligible to vote on the bonding proposition, electors must be owners of property. The proposition to increase the tax rate may be voted upon by all registered voters, regardless of whether they are property owners or not.

Sylvan township's supervisor, Fred Broesamle, when asked for comment on the proposition to be submitted, said the amount of increase in taxation was so small that it would be necessary to be necessary that he saw no reason why anyone should vote against either of the two propositions next Monday.

In an attempt to gauge probable interest in the election locally, Walter Kantlehner, Sylvan township clerk, was questioned in regard to the number of electors in the community who had registered or checked on their registration period ending March 14. He said there had been no rush of registrations, the number requesting registration being just about normal.

Cub Scouts Hear Full-Blood Indian Thursday Evening

The major attraction at the Cub Scouts Pack meeting in the High School gymnasium Thursday evening was Elliott Pamp, a full-blooded Indian, dressed in full Indian regalia. He explained that his name in the Indian language is "Sitting Sides Way." He spoke interestingly of the differences and also the similarities of the Indians and white men's lives and religions and included an Indian song which he sang to the accompaniment of tom-tom music.

Six Cub Scouts who had become eligible to join the Boy Scouts were graduated in special ceremonies and each was presented with a Scout book, certificate and kerchief as a gift from the Pack committee. The boys are Paul Weber, Billy Geddes, Irven Knickerbocker, Ronald Foster, Eddie Went, George Colyer.

The new Scoutmaster, William Mende, was a guest at the meeting and welcomed the six boys to his troop.

Cubmaster Willard Pearson, assisted by Edmund Kayser, presented the following awards: bobcat pin, registration pin and wolf badge to Tommy Geer; wolf badge, pin, card and bear book to Robert Weiss; George Mayer, David Nutt and Pat Merkel; gold arrow and bear book, Olen Hart; wolf badge, pin and card to Fritz Wagner; a gold and silver arrow to Jimmy Mahan; bear badge, silver arrow and lion book to Karl Riemschneider; silver arrow and scout book to Richard Leland; two silver arrows and scout book to George Staffan; gold and silver arrow and scout book to Jimmy Geer; a gold arrow and scout book to John Howe; lion badge, gold arrow, silver arrow, two service stars and webelos badge to Billy Geddes; lion badge, pin, card, two service stars and webelos badge to Irven Knickerbocker; gold arrow, silver arrow, webelos badge and card to Ronald Foster; gold arrow, silver arrow, two service stars, lion badge, webelos badge and card to Paul Weber; webelos badge and card to George Colyer; silver arrow, two service stars, webelos badge and card to Eddie Went; service star and scout book to Buddy Guest; silver arrow to Russell Moore.

A pot-luck supper preceded the evening's program. Eighty Cub scouts, parents and guests were present representing 30 families.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cook and daughter, Dana Lee, of Caro, spent the week-end here with Mr. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cook.

New Courthouse Issue To Be Decided

(Taken from the Ann Arbor News of March 14, 1950)

Monday, April 3, the people of Washtenaw county will determine whether a new county building is to be erected. They will do so by balloting on these two financing proposals: Shall the county issue bonds worth $2,600,000 to pay for the building? Shall an extra 1.25-mill property tax be levied with which to pay off the bond issue over a 20-year period?

It is the view of this newspaper that both questions should be answered in the affirmative.

Washtenaw county has long needed a new county building. There can be no question of that. It is not simply a matter of needing more space. It is a matter of housing the offices of the county in a building that has been adjudged unsafe by the state fire marshal in some 20 respects.

Not only is the physical well-being of county employees jeopardized by the existing state of affairs, but so are the countless vital records of Washtenaw residents. A major fire which destroyed records in any of several of the county's departments could result in complicated legal entanglements whose equitable solutions might never be achieved.

It has taken the county years to arrive at the point where next Monday the voters will speak with final authority on the question of a new courthouse. One delay after another has cropped up in the past to scramble progress and halt planning.

One of the greatest points of disagreement was overcome recently when the Board of Supervisors, after shying away from the matter repeatedly, voted to build the new structure on the site of the present courthouse. That was a wise decision. But the absurd succession of events between that move and the 1948 general elections when the people themselves said they favored erecting a new county building may have left too many county residents of a mind to forget the whole thing.

The county, justifiably disgusted at times, cannot afford, however, to let that disgust interfere with intelligent action at the polls April 3. The opportunity to vote a new county building into being—so long an unclutchable mirage—is now at hand.

The facts are simple: (1) the county needs a new building; (2) the site has been chosen by a fair vote of the people's elected representatives; and (3) the proposed building is the carefully designed plan of more than 20 experts in the whole field of architecture and construction.

The qualified electors of the county can do the rest by voting "Yes" to both building questions on the April 3 ballot.

It takes about 20 million acres of lush wheat land to produce the 12,500,000,000 pounds of flour used each year in making bread and other bakery products. The bakers of America use 200,000,000 bushels of wheat annually.

A survey shows that cigar smoking in the United States declined by one-third on a per capita basis from 1921 to 1941, while cigarette smoking greatly increased.

FRED M. ALGER, JR.

Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., who has announced his candidacy for governor on the Republican ticket, revealed today he intends to carry his campaign to the people with a pledge of "No New Taxes."

Alger said he does not intend to outline a complete platform until after the current special legislative session, but felt the tax issue was of sufficient importance to warrant an announcement of his stand at this time.

"I am unalterably opposed to new or additional taxes of any kind," he said. "If the people of Michigan see fit to nominate and elect me as the head of their state, they will have my promise to do everything possible to not only put an end to new levies, but to run their government just as I would run any business within its income."

We are today faced with a ridiculous situation. If it weren't so serious it would almost be laughable. I refer to the wild theories advanced by my political opponents which would have us, in these times of comparative prosperity, spend more than we receive.

"SAFETY-FIRST"
This is spring, the time of the year when trees are getting new leaves. This is the time you also should get something new, a sense of responsibility. If you use the safety-first rule, you will not only help yourself but others too.

Every day as you come to school, think not only of yourself but of the safety of others. As you come dashing across lawns, taking your favorite shortcut, and rushing out from between parked cars in the middle of the block, did you ever think of the cars that might come speeding down the street? Well then, just stop next time, because these are the things which set bad examples for the younger children. Are you going to set bad examples, which endanger our lives and the lives of others? Think it over and then make a resolution to use safety first.

CHELSEA SCHOOL GOES CAMPING

A group of students and faculty members of the Chelsea Agricultural school are to spend the week-end of April 1 and 2 at the Mill Lake camp in the Waterloo area.

This is the first camping program for the school, and this brief period is an experiment to see if the School Camping program should be added to the school activities.

Michigan is the only state in the country that has a school camping program, and the idea of the classroom in the outdoors is being accepted by more and more schools throughout the state.

The program of camping and outdoor education is a joint venture of the Department of Public Instruction and the Department of Conservation, aided by funds from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation.

The Ann Arbor and Dearborn schools have been using the camping program for some time, and it is hoped that Chelsea will also be able to participate.

The camps are located in various sections of Michigan, two of them near Chelsea in the Waterloo area. These camps, Cedar Lake camp and the Mill Lake camp, have both been winterized to accommodate campers the year around; the Scouts use them during the summer while the school groups and other organizations use them the rest of the year. The cabins and main lodge have been insulated and equipped with oil heat.

The Chelsea group will be comprised of members of the Student Council, students in the biology classes, and high school and elementary faculty members; the total will be around 50 adults and boys and girls. Joe Fischer is heading the group. Mrs. Lawrence Fowler will serve as camp cook with assistance from some of the women members of the faculty. All of the students and faculty will serve on K.P.

Saturday will be spent in various activities: soil conservation, nature hikes, outdoor cooking, and perhaps last week-end and Friday. On Sunday morning, a bus will bring in all members who wish to attend Palm Sunday services, and then return them to camp in time for dinner. The afternoon will be spent in a group evaluation of the program.

BASKETBALL BELLS

The Senior girls, champions of the class tournaments, played their final basketball game last week. In a final burst of glory they defeated the faculty, 27-11.

The Seniors' starting line-up was as follows: M. Schrader, P. Scott, W. Franklin, M. Johnson, G. Widmayer and P. Schable, also playing were J. Hughes, P. Murphy and S. Geer. The faculty players who started were: B. Harvey, T. Martin, M. DeRose, E. Schell, L. Cooper and K. Kenny. J. Kompass and M. Gregory were substitutes.

J. Kompass led the scoring for the teachers with seven points to her credit (according to Mr. Cam-

GIRLS' BOWLING ENDS

The GAA bowling girls finished their 28 game season March 22. Although bowling was scheduled for every Wednesday after school at which time the girls bowled two games each night. The teams consisted of the following girls: Silly Seniors: Audrey Lake, captain; Dorothy Thomas, Genevieve Wheeler, Mary Harker, and Marilyn Johnson; Wood Splitters: Georgia Sals, captain; Louise Walz, Elaine Ferry, Esther Klobuchar; Green Thumbs: Bea Fowler, captain; Donna Fowler, Shirley Rihimaki, Pat Murphy and Virginia Quatt; Cracker Jacks: Virginia Christwell, captain; Nancy White, Eleanor Schmidt, Marjorie Moore and Lyndall White.

There were 20 girls who took part, and they were divided into four teams of five girls each; bowling was scheduled for every Wednesday after school at which time the girls bowled two games each night. The teams consisted of the following girls: Silly Seniors: Audrey Lake, captain; Dorothy Thomas, Genevieve Wheeler, Mary Harker, and Marilyn Johnson; Wood Splitters: Georgia Sals, captain; Louise Walz, Elaine Ferry, Esther Klobuchar; Green Thumbs: Bea Fowler, captain; Donna Fowler, Shirley Rihimaki, Pat Murphy and Virginia Quatt; Cracker Jacks: Virginia Christwell, captain; Nancy White, Eleanor Schmidt, Marjorie Moore and Lyndall White.

The team standings for the above teams were as follows: Cracker Jacks ended in first place with 18 wins and 10 losses; Silly Seniors in second with 17 wins and 11 losses; Green Thumbs third with 15 wins and 13 losses; and the Wood Splitters ended in fourth with six wins and 22 losses.

Many good games were bowled by the girls during the season; some of the more outstanding ones were: Shirley Rihimaki, 202; Marilyn Johnson, 197; Mary Harker, 187, and Mary Klobuchar, 187. A number of 160 and 150 games and over were also bowled but too numerous to mention.

Outstanding raises in averages over the season were: Bea Fowler raised her average 55 pins; Shirley Rihimaki, 34; Donna Fowler, 38; Pat Murphy, 30 pins.

The girls have found much fun and have shown much interest in bowling and incidentally have many good games to show for their efforts. So confidentially, why not ask that best girl to go bowling? If you don't know how, the GAA is willing to bet she'll gladly teach you. How about it?

Assemblies . . .

Parliamentary Procedure

Parliamentary procedure has been in existence for a long time. It first started in England in the year of 1205 during the reign of Edward I.

N. O'Connor, A. Musbach, B. Robbins, J. N. Lantis and chairman, Walt Zeeb in an assembly demonstrated the rules of parliamentary procedure to students and members of the faculty.

The boys who are members of the FFA parliamentary procedure team, suggested that clubs and organizations follow the rules of correct parliamentary procedure when a meeting is held. If the rules of order are followed the meeting will be quiet, orderly and businesslike.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings, received from our kind friends, relatives and neighbors, during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father. Mrs. E. J. Moeckel and Odema.

THANK YOU I wish in this way to express my sincere thanks to my relatives and friends for all the beautiful cards, gifts and flowers received during my stay in the hospital. Mrs. Mary Faisl.

Meat for Freezing Thrifty, moderately fattened animals provide the most desirable meat for freezing. A good finish adds to the flavor, but excessive fatness is not necessary.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish in this way to thank all my relatives, neighbors and friends for the letters, plants, gifts, cards and flowers sent to me while in the hospital and since my return home. Your thoughtfulness will never be forgotten. Mrs. Albert Hinderer.

Style Mr. Long White In ancient Babylon and Egypt painted color was applied to walls, ceilings, floors, tombs, pottery and mummy cloths as well as many other surfaces.

Origin of "Squash" The word squash comes from a Massachusetts Indian word squash, meaning eaten raw or uncooked. Today, however, squashes are not eaten that way.

Impassable Roads

stable where they leave the paved roads, they are bound to be broken up in spots further on and chances are that motorists will become hopelessly stuck in the mud before going very far. He urged everyone who did not actually have to get on the gravel roads to stay off until conditions have become better.

Chelsea road crews worked all day Saturday which ordinarily should have been their Saturday off. He said he and his men had tried to mark all closed roads where they join the main highway but they were unable to mark each road at the opposite ends and at all crossroads for the simple reason that travel to those points was impossible.

Breitenwischer said that Fletcher road, which is a county road, has been closed as well as the following township roads: Musbach, Kaimbach south from US-12, Hayes south from US-12, Heim and Sylvan in Sylvan township; Freer from US-12 south to Jerusalem road (which is in an impassable condition); in Lima township; Hadley and Goodband in Lyndon township; Dexter Town Hall road north from Territorial road to Silver Lake, in Dexter township; On Fletcher road it was possible Tuesday to travel from Jerusalem road to Scio Church road. Roads in Lyndon and Dexter townships, generally, were in better shape than those in Lima and Sylvan townships, Breitenwischer said.

School buses operated on hard-surfaced roads only. This cut down school attendance to some extent but many scholars were being brought by tractors or walked to main roads where they could board the buses. Pumpkin College was closed the first of the week until road conditions become sufficiently improved to allow travel.

Jewett-Stone school on Waltrous road was closed also. Mrs. Veal Whipple, the teacher, said she had sometimes failed to reach school because of ice or deep snow but this was the first time in her many years of teaching that she was prevented from getting to school because of muddy roads.

Sunday's attendance in some of the rural churches was curtailed because of road conditions, one church reporting only nine worshippers and another 10 at the morning services.

Milk trucks could not get through and farmers were hauling their milk to the hard-surfaced roads by tractor.

ENTERS HOSPITAL

Rev. R. Nathan-Bell of Adrian entered University Hospital at Ann Arbor Monday, March 20, for surgery. Rev. Bell is well known around Chelsea as he was the pastor of the former Chelsea Gospel Center which was located on West Middle street in the fall of 1943. At that time he made his home in Chelsea and was employed at the Chelsea Spring company. Since moving away from Chelsea he has been a chaplain in the United States Army. Upon receiving a medical discharge from the service he went to Louisiana to pastor a Methodist church for a year, and then moved back to Michigan in order to attend Adrian college. While in Adrian college he supplied a pulpit in Lenawee county until he was accepted by the Vermont Administration and as a person in the central office at Washington D.C. Because of failing health he left the V.A. in August 1948, and returned to Adrian to make his home. Although almost entirely blind he manages to carry on some special spiritual work as a social worker in and around the vicinity of Adrian.

Let A Standard Want Ad Help You Find It

"A $2,000,000 Mistake"Political feeling for various candidates will quite properly be expressed at the polls April 3, but of most importance to the county as a whole will be decisions regarding location of the new county court house.The proposed location in downtown Ann Arbor is wrong.
There is no question about need for a new building.Also there is no question but that the new building should be in or near Ann Arbor where it has been for years past.But there is a question and a very important one about location in a congested area where parking is very limited and there is no room for enlargement to meet future needs, except by purchase of high priced business property.At the polls Monday, April third, you will be asked to approve a bond issue, amounting to Two Million, Six Hundred Thousand Dollars, for a new court house to be located in the business district of Ann Arbor.The proposed site is valuable. Some say it is worth $500,000. By erecting the building on either of two nearby sites, already owned by the county, money realized from sale of the present site could be applied on cost of the new building, reducing cost to close to $2,000,000.Another important consideration is the cost of housing county offices, records and furniture in temporary quarters while the present building is torn down and a new one erected. That cost would approach another half million dollars.Further, actual cost of construction could be reduced on a site where there is plenty of room to store heavy equipment and supplies during the process of construction.From the standpoint of cost alone, taxpayers could save themselves a huge amount of money by favoring a site such as the fair grounds west of Ann Arbor or the county farm, which practically adjoins the city and could easily be made a part of the city, on the east.

Either of these locations would mean:

No investment in land,
Saving of temporary housing cost,
Saving in cost of construction,AND MOST IMPORTANT, PLENTY OF ROOM FOR PARKING AND EXPANSION.A vote now to borrow $2,600,000 for a new court house would mean approval of the congested and highly objectionable present location.Location is far more important to the future of the people of Washtenaw County than the question of a bond issue. The people should be allowed to choose the location.
They should not be asked to go into debt for $2,600,000, with no voice in the important question of location.This proposal has been rushed onto the April ballot by interests selfishly concerned in the present location. People of the county should not be rushed into a decision of so great importance.The new building, when erected, will probably stand through many future years. Steady community growth is soundly predicted. It cannot possibly serve the greatest number to the best advantage in the present location.The votes should be "NO", and continue "NO" till a practical site is selected and the best interests of the county as a whole are more carefully considered.

They Will Walk If Nation Buys Easter Seals

THE ANNUAL EASTER SEAL appeal of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults will be conducted this year March 9 through April 9. Funds raised throughout the nation during this annual drive are used to benefit crippled children and adults through direct services, education and research.

Thousands of children, crippled by cerebral palsy, speech defects, epilepsy, poor hearing, asthma, rheumatic heart, disease and orthopedic deformities, will be given their chance to run and play thanks to the purchase of Easter seals by Americans.

Much is being done by federal agencies, state agencies, and private and local groups for these children—but much remains to be done. That's where the national society steps in. It is a nationwide organization with headquarters in Chicago and more than 2,000 state and local affiliated societies. Its projects are directed and supervised by professionally trained specialists.

The society provides health, welfare, educational, recreational and employment services to all types of handicapped persons. These services are determined by specific needs in each community, and do not duplicate activities of other agencies.

"Earning Your Salt"

The expression "earning your salt" is by no means a modern term, but has a deep-rooted heritage. Salt was once so scarce and precious that it was used as money.

Caesar's soldiers received a part of their salary in common salt. The word salary comes from the Latin word sal—meaning salt.

DEATHS

Mrs. S. P. Foster

Funeral services were held at two o'clock yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Schuyler P. Foster, who died suddenly at her home, 409 Madison street, Sunday evening.

She had become seriously ill Sunday morning. Rev. Orville W. Morrow officiated at the services and burial took place in Oak Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Foster, the former Ella May Craig, was 82 years old at the time of her death. She was a daughter of Charles and Janet Riggs Craig and was born in Marshall, Burlington, Kansas, and Grass Lake and before her marriage she operated a millinery shop in Chelsea.

She was married to Mr. Foster in Sylvan township on Sept. 15, 1898 and they had made their home in Chelsea since that time.

She was a member of the Methodist church, the Western Washington Farmers' club and the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. She was the second-oldest member in point of years she had belonged.

Survivors, in addition to her husband, are two daughters, Miss Laura Foster of Wyandotte, and Mrs. Virgil Walling, of Dexter.

Survivors include her husband, of San Antonio; and three brothers, William, of Dearborn, Oscar, of Detroit, and Louis, of Stockbridge. A number of cousins reside in the vicinity of Chelsea.

Mrs. S. C. Hoover

Mrs. Sarah C. Hoover, of Rosebush, member of a pioneer Sylvan township family, died at her home on March 15 and funeral services were held on Friday, March 17.

Her sister, Miss Lillian Foster, returned to Chelsea last Friday after spending several weeks assisting in the care of Mrs. Hoover who had suffered a broken hip.

Miss Foster remained until after the funeral. Rev. Thompson of the Presbyterian church at Rosebush, officiated at the services and burial took place in Riverside cemetery at Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. Hoover was the former Sarah C. Foster, a daughter of Robert and Ann Depew Foster.

She was born in Sylvan township on March 4, 1865. She was one of the early graduates of Chelsea high school and taught rural schools in the vicinity of Chelsea for about 10 years before her marriage to Charles Hoover, of St. Johns. She had lived in the vicinity of Rosebush since that time.

Mr. Hoover died about 14 years ago.

Mrs. Hoover had never transferred her membership from the Chelsea Methodist church. She organized a Sunday school in a hall near her home and was superintendent and a teacher there for many years, until failing health about two years ago forced her retirement.

Survivors are a son, Clair, and a daughter, Erma, both living on the home farm at Rosebush; five grandchildren, a brother, Schuyler Foster, of Chelsea, and two sisters, Miss Lillian Foster, and Mrs. Gertrude Hammond of Owosso; also a number of nieces and nephews.

Those from Chelsea who attended the funeral services are Mrs. Thomas Moore and Mrs. Alura Geer. They were accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Hagadon, of Grass Lake.

Mrs. A. D. McMullen

Mrs. A. D. McMullen, of San Antonio, Texas, died there on March 22 and funeral services were held on Saturday, according to word received by friends and relatives here.

The family moved to Texas about six years ago. She was the former Emma Barth.

Survivors include her husband, of San Antonio; and three brothers, William, of Dearborn, Oscar, of Detroit, and Louis, of Stockbridge. A number of cousins reside in the vicinity of Chelsea.

Such is the prospect if recommendations of the legislative finance committee are accepted by the House and Senate in the final showdown of roll calls. Already the pressure is coming from pressure groups to make an "exception" to local interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fitzmaier were in Ann Arbor Sunday to visit Mr. Fitzmaier's sister, Mrs. August Kuhl, who was a patient at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital. They also called on a neighbor, Grove Douglas, who is still a patient there.
