

Whether it was courage or foolhardiness, Governor Williams' veto of General Kunzig's salary from the legislative budget has had the practical effect of grabbing on to an angry bull by the tail.

It remains to be seen whether the governor will throw the bull, or the bull will throw him. (No pun intended.)

Civil service is a cherished principle of good government with many partisans. Republican and Democrat. The people's verdict in placing the civil service amendment into the state constitution was the result of a popular crusade to take political patronage out of state government. It was championed by Governor Frank Murphy.

And so when the Democratic majority on the state liquor control commission fired Burt, General Louis A. Kunzig as its business manager, they flaunted the power of the civil service commission.

A suit was filed with the Michigan Supreme court to test the liquor commission's right to abolish Kunzig's position. The Supreme court ruled that the commission erred, it ordered the commission to restore Kunzig to his job.

With such a Supreme court mandate, you would assume the liquor control commission would give up the fight and put Kunzig back to work.

Actually, Kunzig was restored to the payroll, but the commission allegedly declined to assign him any duties.

One way out of the dilemma would be for Governor Williams to go to the commission's rescue.

Wipe out the general's salary from the legislative budget. Such was within the governor's power as the state's chief executive.

But to do this would be to put the governor technically in a position of nullifying the intent of the State Supreme court. A good many persons did not think the governor would deliberately choose to put himself on the spot.

Gov. Williams, either through courage or foolhardiness, chose to veto the Supreme court decision for all practical purposes. He left the two alternatives for it now appears that the governor's move was a political mistake of first magnitude. The Republicans have a brand new issue. The governor is on the defensive—something he has astutely tried to avoid.

Robert H. Dunn, legal adviser to the civil service commission, has announced a suit would be filed in the State Supreme court to restore full duties to the ousted business manager. He denounced the governor's veto as "illegal"—interference with the Supreme court's decision. The word was strong, as if the governor was about to defend himself in an impeachment proceeding.

Williams countered with a declaration that Owen J. Cleary, former chairman of the liquor control commission and now Republican state chairman, had recommended dismissal of General Kunzig. Cleary politely said the governor had lied he had done no such thing.

John Kozaren, the present Democratic chairman of the commission, was a Hamtramck precinct worker when he was picked by Williams to head the liquor control system.

General Kunzig, classmate to General Douglas MacArthur, was selected by former Governor Harry F. Kelly to become business manager of the commission, after a series of liquor scandals had made the liquor control setup a "hot spot" for any appointee. (The controversy now pits Kelly into the limelight in a big way.)

Kunzig met all civil service requirements for manager of a business in which purchases of liquor amount to $140,000,000 in one year. If there has been any scandal recently in the state's liquor control business, we have yet to hear of it. The governor defended his "economy"—saving the taxpayers (Continued on page ten)

Local 437 Wins Third Victory

Winning Run Comes in Tenth Inning After Mason Rally

The Chelsea Local 437 baseball team won their third game last Sunday as they out-scored the Mason team in a ten-inning affair, 5-4.

Scoring was the only department in which the local team proved to be superior in a wild extra inning contest which saw Mason leave 16 men stranded on the basepaths as they solved the offerings of Harold "Lefty" Barth and Blaine McClanahan for five hits and 12 walks, while the Chelsea team was contributing four errors.

R. Stolz, Mason's starting pitcher, had his only wild spell of the game in the second inning and three Chelsea players crossed the plate without benefit of a base hit. McClanahan led off and grounded out, Braden popped up to the first baseman, and Stolz hit Gaken with a pitched ball. In quick succession Jim Miller, Adams and Barth were given free passes, forcing in Gaken. With the bases loaded Heydauk hit an easy grounder which went through the shortstop's legs for an error and two more runs. Ed Miller lifted one to the catcher for the third out.

In the fourth, Chelsea went ahead 4-0 as Adams was safe on an error, went to second on Barth's sacrifice, took third on a wild pitch, and scored on Ed Miller's single.

Barth held Mason scoreless until the sixth, although errors and walks kept him in trouble most of the time. Mason scored then on a base on balls, a passed ball, and an error. In the seventh they pushed across two more runs on a walk, a double, and another Chelsea error.

Mason scored the tying-run in the eighth, Engle singled, leading off, Seely walked, and with two men out, McClanahan relieved Barth. McDowell beat out a bunt to load the bases, Simpson forced Engle at home, but Betcher walked forcing in Seely.

Chelsea went ahead to win in the tenth as Andy Policht walked and McClanahan doubled to drive him home.

Although outplayed, Chelsea came through when it counted, to remain undefeated for the season and hand Mason their first defeat thus far this year.

MAYNARD G. OESTERLE

Will Ordain M. Oesterle Sunday

Maynard G. Oesterle, who graduated from Eden Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri, last Thursday, is to be ordained as a minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church in special services to be held at St. Paul's church here next Sunday morning, June 18.

Rev. Paul H. Grabowski, pastor of St. Paul's church, will perform the rite of ordination and will be assisted by Rev. Theophil W. Menzel, pastor of Bethel church, Freeborn township, and Rev. Earl H. Meyer, pastor of Grace church, Chicago, Illinois. Rev. Menzel was professor of religion at Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Illinois, when Maynard and his wife, the former Jeanne Kraus, were students there. Rev. Meyer, who is to preach the ordination sermon, is pastor of the latter's home church in Chicago, where the couple was married on December 20, 1947.

Sunday afternoon, from three until five o'clock, a reception will be held in Maynard's honor in St. Paul's church hall. Friends and relatives of Maynard and his family as well as all members and friends of St. Paul's church are invited to attend.

Maynard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Oesterle, of Bayport street. He has three brothers, all living—in Chelsea: Donald, of Chandler street, Ralph, on M-92, and Sumner, at home. Born in Chelsea on September 18, 1922, he was baptized and confirmed by Rev. Grabowski who had just become pastor of St. Paul's church here in 1945.

As far as can be ascertained from church records he is the first minister to be ordained in the local church. It is interesting to note that his great-grandfather, Michael Lehman, was one of the sixteen men who were the founders of St. Paul's congregation here in 1865.

Maynard graduated from Chelsea high school in 1941 and was employed at the Central Fibre company in the department which later became part of the Chelsea Products. He worked at the Products for two years before entering Elmhurst College, Elmhurst, Illinois, where he received his B.A. degree in 1947. He also was employed at the Chelsea plant during vacations from college and after he entered Eden Theological Seminary in September, 1947. The summer of 1949 he served as assistant of the Carroll temporary pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed church in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The church Sunday morning will begin at ten o'clock.

New Report Card in Grades Wins Parental Approval

During the past year a new system of report cards was installed in the kindergarten and first three grades at the public school and, to discover the reaction of parents in regard to the new system, a survey was recently conducted. Of the 113 replies received, 105 were marked, and of these, 100 were in favor of the new type cards and only five preferred the old style.

The survey also determined the fact that parents of children who will be in the fourth grade next year wish to have the new system used in that grade. Of 29 replies received from parents of this age group, 19 were in favor of the new system.

Many of the parents expressed the wish for a program to be set up whereby conferences with teachers would be planned for several times during the school year, in addition to the regular Parents' Night. In view of this expressed desire of parents here, there is a possibility that such a program will be planned for next year, according to school officials.

Community Fair Dates Set for Oct. 4-7

An amusement contract has already been signed, according to a Fair Board spokesman.

Mr. Harvey's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Harvey, is in charge of women's and girls' activities of the summer program. She is still in need of volunteer assistants to help with smaller children on the playground. There is also still a need for assistance of volunteer workers in arts and crafts, it was reported.

Mr. Harvey will be in charge of men's and boys' activities. He is well known in Chelsea and boys because of his umpiring at ball games and chaperoning on out-of-town trips of ball teams.

Petitions Out for Ed. Board Candidates

A few petitions are now being circulated to nominate candidates for election to two School Board offices at the July 10 election. The petitions, requiring signatures of 25 qualified electors of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools district, must be filed on or before June 20 with the secretary of the Board of Education, Harold Widmayer.

The election this year is to be conducted in accordance with the 1949 ruling of the legislature. This ruling allows for election by ballot as for other elections, and for polls at the school gymnasium to be open all day. Formerly, School Board members here were elected at the annual school meeting after being nominated from the floor.

Board members whose terms expire this year are Harold Widmayer and Mrs. Florence Mayer. Candidates who desire to file petitions to have their names placed on this year's ballots, may obtain them at the superintendent's office at Chelsea High school.

Report Given on WRC Convention

Mrs. George Hafner and Mrs. Harold Bair returned Friday evening after attending the Department Convention of the Women's Relief Corps held in Bay City last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Hafner was sent from the Chelsea Corps as a delegate while Mrs. Bair was Number Two color bearer for the convention, and, as is the custom of the Department, she was given the beautiful silk flag with staff and standard she had been using.

Mrs. Margaret Sharon of Ecorse was elected Department President for the coming year, and Mrs. Helena Stahl, of Flint as Senior Vice-President. Mrs. Bair was elected as a member of the Executive board, also as a delegate to the National Convention to be held in California some time in September. Last winter she had been appointed a National Aide.

She has represented the local Corps in the Department Convention for several years, first as Field Officer, which by the way, was the first Department office to be given to Chelsea, then as platform aide, color bearer, and color bearer and is rather proud to bring to her Corps its first elective Department office in almost 60 years.

The Chelsea Corps will be 60 years old on December 10 of this year.

Mrs. Bair has attended Department conventions for the past ten years and, each year, has said it will be the last one she intends to go to, but then, she says, there is always so much good material to bring back that she decides to go again the next year. "Just to see a flag presentation as it was done on Thursday by the department patriotic instructor when she presented a beautiful, large flag to Bay City's city manager and another to the Chamber of Commerce, is worth going anywhere to see," Mrs. Bair said.

"To hear Mrs. Lizetta Coady, a past national president and past national patriotic instructor, dedicate those flags," Mrs. Bair continued, "is something long to remember." She concluded by saying "The flag presentation ceremonies, the reports from the various committee chairmen on the work being done for the twins the department adopted a few years ago, the scholars given to girls for nurses' training, the hospital, Red Cross and relief work done all over the state, makes you realize the members are living up to the name 'Women's Relief Corps' given them so many years ago by the Grand Army."

Mrs. Theodore Bahmiller returned Saturday after spending two weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elwin Hulce, at Roscommon. Mr. and Mrs. Hulce and sons accompanied her home and remained for overnight and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis Wahl and the former's mother, Mrs. Carrie Wahl, were in Dearborn Wednesday evening to visit Adolph Mayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kasper, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Edwards and John Edwards returned to Columbiaville with Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell on Wednesday.

ENTERTAINS TEACHERS

Dorothy Beach entertained 18 teachers of the Helmar school in Jackson at a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Beach, on Saturday.

Mrs. Eva Grabill, a former Chelsea resident, left here Sunday after visiting for a week at the home of her brother, Bert White, and family. She is spending some time in Detroit with her daughter before returning to her home at Larchmont, N. Y.

In a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. W. H. Skentalbury in the Congregational church at 8 o'clock Wednesday, June 8, Ellen Jane Geddes became the bride of Paul LeRoy Kalmbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kalmbach. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William R. Geddes. Calla lilies and candelabra adorned the altar during the rites which were attended by 200 guests.

With Mrs. Lawrence Wacker at the organ, Bertram Gable, of Ann Arbor, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception in the church parlors was held immediately after the ceremony and later, at the home of the bride's parents, punch was served by Mrs. Minnie Elmore, of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. Charles Meserve.

At the reception, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Max B. Schoenfeld, of Dallas, Texas, poured. She was assisted by Mrs. Raymond E. Lake, of Detroit. The guest-book was in charge of Ann Lamberton, of Detroit, and Mary Jane Jarvis and Audrey Knickerbocker were in charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Herman Hoyt, great-aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. A white and yellow daisy wreath trimmed the base of the cake and lighted candles and bouquets of yellow roses and snapdragons and yellow and white daisies were placed at either side forming an effective table arrangement.

The rehearsal dinner was given at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening.

For the wedding, the bride and her attendants all wore ballerina-length dresses. The bride's dress was fashioned with a short-sleeved bodice of plain white organdy. The plain organdy skirt was topped with an overskirt of embroidered organdy and the overskirt, very full, was finished with a wide lace-trimmed ruffle at the bottom. She wore long mitts of matching embroidered organdy and her fingertip-length veil of French illusion was held in place with a halo of the embroidered organdy trimmed with orange blossoms. Her flowers were white roses arranged in a colonial-style bouquet.

Rowena Lentz, as maid of honor, wore white organdy over green taffeta, and Kathryn Henry, of Pinkney, wore white organdy over yellow taffeta. Their gowns were finished with sashes and bows matching the taffeta—and they wore matching-colored headbands of braided net. Their mitts were white organdy and they carried shower bouquets of talisman roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy and white print dress, white accessories and a corsage of talisman roses while the bride's mother wore a mauve crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Webberville — Behind the brilliant pitching of Bernard Andrews, the Webberville Independents knocked off the Fowlerville Merchants 5-1. Webberville scored two big runs in the third and added the clincher in the seventh as Ben Stover got a life as the ball went through catcher Mo Miller's leg on a third strike. Ken Eckman was hit by a pitched ball and Sam Glover tripled and came home when the ball bounced through Miller on the relay.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down, "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I are going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!"
Now, I can waltz with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use. Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look on some of the other men I judged I wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise!
Miss Williams and Curly Lawson taught us what to do with our feet, and before it was over, darn if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too!
From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for or against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude—that's even after we make up our minds about it!

MICHIGAN MIRROR

$10,000 a year for a needless job at Lansing. Williams and economy have not been synonymous.

From all present indications the final decision will be made by the State Supreme court — whether the governor has the right to invalidate, in a practical way, the mandate of the court and the state civil service commission.

That is why we characterized the governor's position in the controversy as "grabbing on to a bull by the tail."

By doing this, the governor put himself on the defensive with a new issue, sacred to the cause of good government in Michigan.

He finds himself in a position of attacking the principle of civil service — something which his Democratic sponsor, the late Frank Murphy, would never have done.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGarvey of Dearborn Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schenk of Saline, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schenk of Detroit, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Litteral Sunday afternoon.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Donald Bartelt and children, Susan, Jo Mary and Allan, of Rockford, Illinois, arrived Tuesday to spend ten days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider.

Mrs. Bertilla Forner accompanied Mr. and Mrs. James C. Yocell and daughter of Detroit, on a short vacation trip to Canada and Niagara Falls, returning home Wednesday evening of last week.

BETTER WITH BUTTER!

"USE PLENTY OF BUTTER"

That was the advice given the June bride when she questioned her mother-in-law as to what Jim liked to eat.

Said the understanding mother of the groom: "I hope Jim never hints your cooking isn't like mother used to make but I'm glad he's liked his home and the food I have served."

"I learned early—thank goodness—that butter adds a flavor and zest to food which can be obtained in no other way. Of course, I use plenty of other dairy products, too. They have a flavor all their own, are full of nourishment and easy on the pocketbook."
