

Let's write to Stalin!
This suggestion is made by Carl M. Saunders, editor of the Jackson Citizen-Patriot, who won the Pulitzer prize for the most outstanding newspaper editorial in 1949. We quote:

● All over America Communists and gullible stooges are circulating "peace petitions."
The petitions are phony because they assume to ask for outlawing the atomic bomb, although it is Russia which has blocked efforts of the United Nations to set up an honest program for control of atomic weapons.

They are phony also because they pretend to have the backing of the United Nations and try to get the secretary, although both the UN and Mr. Lie have condemned the North Korean invasion of South Korea.

● A few people actuated only by a dread of war and an honest desire for peace have signed these petitions. That's where Red propaganda scores.

Why not offset that score? We Americans believe in peace. We didn't want to go into Korea. In fact, we got out on time.

We are fighting today under the flag of the United Nations and under the flag of that worldwide organization.

Why not say so? Why not tell the chief of all the Russians that we're for peace and ask him to cooperate?

● Each of us write a postcard to: "Premier Joseph Stalin, care of the Russian Embassy, Washington, D. C."

On that postcard we could say something like this:

"Dear Mr. Premier:
"Communists in this country say you want peace."
"So do we—really! Fake peace petitions don't fool us. The way to peace is to call your Red friends out of South Korea and quit bullying small non-Communist nations."

"We'll get out of South Korea as soon as your gang does."

● "Also we'll outlaw the atom bomb if you'll permit constant surveillance of all laboratories and factories which might produce the bomb."

"Don't let your agents mislead you. We lambaste President Truman on home affairs, but so far as Korea or any other threat from outside the U.S., we're back of the President all the way."

"Sincerely,"

● Probably you can write a better postcard than that. You can say that you don't want your boy or your neighbor's boy to have to fight, but you want Stalin to know that they will fight if needed and if they do it's really peace they're fighting for.

But anyway, let's write to Joe. Let's get it off our chests.

Write your postcard and send it along, and urge others in this country to do the same. A postcard costs only one cent.

Let's do it! Write a postcard to Joe Stalin!

Grain Harvest
Delayed by Wet WeatherBetter Yield, Quality
Reported Than in Last Previous Years

Because of the rain and humidity last Wednesday and Thursday, the expected rush of wheat to elevators here did not materialize. The rain Monday night also squelched plans of farmers who had intended to harvest their crops early this week.

Prices went up to $2.08 Sunday and Monday from last week's $1.96 for 58-pound bushels of white wheat. Tuesday the price had dropped two cents to $2.06 per bushel.

A few farmers brought wheat in to the Chelsea Milling company Sunday. At the Chelsea Lumber, Grain and Coal company, wheat was coming in at a fairly good rate Tuesday, Jim Daniels said. He believes that the latter part of this week will see a big rush of wheat to market, providing favorable weather prevails.

The wheat brought in so far has been of fairly high quality and is better than much of the wheat raised here the past four or five years. Average weight of bushels brought in Monday, he said, was 57 pounds. On Tuesday, he said, was from two to three pounds better than last year's crop.

Blaess Elevator expected large quantities of grain to be brought in yesterday afternoon if no further rain occurred after Monday.

Chelsea Milling company expects a much better weather than was favorable. Lyle Hanswelder at the Chelsea Milling company, said that wheat brought in Tuesday was slightly tough because farmers had not waited quite long enough for it to dry off a little.

Most wheat brought in to the Blaess Elevator and Chelsea Milling company the first of the week tested in the neighborhood of 68 pounds.

D. Hoffman
Tells Kiwanis
of Jamboree

David Hoffman, Eagle Scout, who attended the International Boy Scout Jamboree at Alton, Ill., last week, told the members of the Chelsea Kiwanis club, a very fine account of the highlights of his trip at Monday's Kiwanis meeting in the Methodist church.

Of thrilling interest to him, he said, were the addresses by President Truman, UN Secretary Trygve Lie, General Eisenhower and the other delegates.

David said he was also thrilled to meet and speak personally to several men from the United States Boy Scout headquarters.

He described the pageant, "Washington's Hard Times," which was given in authentic dress of Revolutionary War days and was very realistically portrayed and also the trip to Philadelphia and Washington to visit historic spots.

He said the boys were all thrilled to be allowed to actually touch the original Liberty bell in Independence Hall in Philadelphia.

David returned to his duties as counselor at the Washtenaw-Livingston Boy Scout camp at Bruin Lake when he returned from the Jamboree. This is the second summer he has acted in that capacity at the camp.

Mrs. Wm. Barclay
Buried Here After Death in East

Mrs. William C. Barclay of Cambridge, Mass., who died at a hospital in Malden, Mass., Wednesday of last week, was buried in Oak Grove cemetery here Saturday afternoon following services at the Stevens and Bush Funeral Home in Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Barclay was a daughter of the late Maude Coe Seaman, a former Chelsea resident. Her husband, who survives, was a former U. of M. coach and was made head basketball coach at Harvard university in 1946. The Barclays formerly resided in Ypsilanti, moving to the east four years ago.

Mrs. Barclay was 32 years old at the time of her death. She was born in Ypsilanti October 25, 1917. She was a graduate of Roosevelt High school and of Michigan State Normal college, and received her Master's degree at the University of Michigan. She was married to Mr. Barclay March 1, 1941.

Surviving are her husband and three children, Jean and Patricia, who are eight years old; and a younger son, Robert, her father, Luman Seaman, of Ypsilanti; and two sisters, Mrs. Richard Drew, of Akron, Ohio, and Joyce Seaman of Ypsilanti.

THE WHITE LINE drawn horizontally across the above picture gives an idea of the extent to which the northeast corner walls of the Chelsea High school building have settled. Investigation last year showed that this corner of the building had settled to a depth of 6 1/4 inches, and that the walls here lean outward about two inches to the north and east. The building was constructed about 40 years ago. To be approved by the state fire marshal's office, the building must have the foundations reinforced with underpinnings. In some instances these underpinnings will have to extend to a depth of seven feet below present foundations in order to reach a firm footing level. This will retain the building in its present position and prevent further settling of the walls, experts have advised the Board of Education. Work on the project was begun by C. A. Johnson and Son company of Detroit two weeks ago. The picture shows how only a small portion of the wall is braced and underpinned at one time. The work is to be completed in time for the opening of school in September. When the underpinning is all in place, U. of M. engineers Gerard Kerkhoff and William S. Housel, who examined the building at the request of the Board of Education have stated, they will vouch for the building's safety by filing in the fire marshal's office a letter to that effect. Such a letter is required by the state fire marshal before the building may be used this fall. Cost of the project of reinforcing the walls has been estimated at $12,800.

Kindergarten Pupils Will
Enroll Sept. 6

Mrs. Lucile Kelly, kindergarten teacher at the Chelsea public school, is planning to have all children who will enroll in the kindergarten this fall register at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, Sept. 6. She plans to have parents of the children come with them and remain for the entire morning that first day. In this way, she says, parents will have the opportunity to become acquainted with parents of the other children enrolling and with the children their own child will be in contact with during his time in school, and with their teacher.

The elementary PTA president, Mrs. Donald Fogg, is arranging a tea to be held during the morning and some of the mothers of kindergarten children will assist her in serving.

Regular school attendance will begin for the youngsters Thursday. According to an announcement made last week by Albert Johnson, superintendent of Chelsea's schools, children must be five years old on or before Dec. 1 if they are to enter school this fall. Last year the date was Nov. 1.

Cub Scout Meeting
To Be Held in Park

Pierce Park is to be the scene of a Cub Scout Pack meeting for all Cub Scouts and their parents tomorrow evening (Friday, July 28). Webelos badges will be awarded to four of the boys and a number of other awards will be presented.

Cubmaster Willard Pearson will make the presentation of awards.

The evening's activities will begin at 5 o'clock and will include a picnic supper. Those who attend are to bring their own supper, drinks and table service.

Lecture Series To Be Continued This Year Under Library Board Sponsorship

Members of the Library Board have decided to continue the lecture series here the coming fall and winter, according to a statement issued yesterday. The lecture series is part of the adult education program of the Chelsea Public Library. To determine the extent of interest in the series as it has been carried on here for a number of years, questionnaires were distributed some time ago among a representative cross-section of Chelsea's population. Answers received by the Library Board indicate that the majority of those polled are in favor of the continuation of the project. Only two persons indicated that the series should be discontinued while two others questioned the advisability of its continuance.

The decision to continue the series followed extended discussions on the part of Library Board members at their meetings. One point brought out at these discussions was the question whether it was wise to bring speakers here to appear before such comparatively small audiences as take part in a community size of Chelsea. This question brought the response that speakers who appeared here had stated that they enjoyed speaking before small Emergy T. Grant, of 1205 Sugar Loaf Lake road, who was employed as a bricklayer on the new Eberwhite school construction job in Ann Arbor, died suddenly Friday noon during the lunch hour. Funeral services were held in the Staffan Funeral Home here Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. W. H. Skentelbury officiating. Burial was in Oak Grove cemetery.

Born in Chelsea, Feb. 28, 1881, he was a son of Myron and Rebecca Leach Grant. July 3, 1915, in Detroit, he was married to Minnie Falk, who survives. Also surviving are three brothers, Walter and Myron, of Detroit, and Clarence, of Jackson, and a sister, Mrs. Blanche E. Sears, of Detroit.

An employee of the Henry De Koenig Construction company, he had been a member of Ann Arbor Local 14 of the Bricklayers Union since 1906.

For 18 years following their marriage the Grants made their home in Detroit. They have lived at Sugar Loaf Lake since 1930.

Attending Camp

Local Boy Scouts who are at the Boy Scout camp at Bruin Lake this week are Douglas Kolb and Tommy Eisele. Donald Mahar plans to go next week.

Nine boys returned Saturday after spending a week there. They are Robert Balmer, Jim Keiser, Charles Miller, Robert DeFaut, Hugh Weinberg, John Leith, Larry Lubahn, Eddie Wenk and Jimmie Weir.

Eleven boys from here were at the camp the week of July 10.

Mrs. Carl Swickard of Ann Arbor, formerly of Chelsea, left Wednesday by plane for Fall River, Mass., due to the death of her sister, Mrs. Michael Foy.

George Broesamle
Dies at Alma
Masonic Home

George Frederick Broesamle, a half-brother of John and Walter Kantlehner, of Chelsea, died Wednesday at the Masonic Home in Alma, where he had made his home the past two years.

Born in Chelsea September 24, 1868, he was the son of Fred and Eva Marie Bauer Broesamle, charter members of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church here. His father died when he was a baby and his mother was married in 1870 to Frederick Kantlehner, Chelsea jeweler.

Mr. Broesamle lived in Cincinnati, Ohio, for many years after leaving Chelsea in 1890 and for about 30 years had made his home in Detroit prior to going to the Masonic Home. His wife died some years ago.

Survivors are six half-brothers, Carl E., of Detroit, George T., of Saline, William O., of Lansing, Rudolph L., of Jackson, and John A. and Walter F. Kantlehner, of Chelsea.

Funeral services were held Saturday in the Croesley Funeral Home, Highland Park, and burial took place in Royal Oak.

New Factory
Will Begin
Work Monday

High Voltage Line
Nearly Complete;
Moving Equipment

The Chelsea Manufacturing Corporation is planning to begin production at its Hayes street plant here, on a limited scale, next Monday, according to Louis M. Benkert, president of the newly-organized company.

Operations at the Detroit plant were discontinued at midnight last Sunday and crews of workmen immediately began dismantling the plant. Overhead steel was ripped out, equipment was taken down and fixtures, power ducts and controls were removed. The job of transferring the entire lot to the local plant has been continuing all week.

Ten local men have already been hired. This makes a total of 14 men now engaged in setting up the equipment here. They are working in two shifts, Benkert said, in an effort to be ready for production to begin Monday.

Crews of Consumers Power company workmen are installing the 44,000-volt power line and Benkert said it was approximately 90 per cent completed yesterday.

Benkert called Chelsea's response to the company's request for workers very gratifying, and said he wishes to assure all those who have written for who have filled out applications for employment at the plant that they will be granted personal interviews as soon as possible. At present, he said, moving and placing the equipment is taking the entire efforts of company officials and personnel.

Richard Johns, plant superintendent, is directing work at the building this week. He plans to move here with his family as soon as living quarters are found.

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER
David, a King Who Honored God
 Lesson for July 30—II Samuel 7: 1-6, 17-22
 Memory Selection: II Samuel 7: 22

HOW DAVID came to exchange his shepherd's crook for the scepter of a king is a fascinating story. And he was the greatest of all the kings of Israel, who subdued the petty kingdoms around his domain and brought it to its widest extent—from the mountains of Lebanon to the borders of Egypt and from the Mediterranean sea to the Euphrates river.

When David's dominion was firmly established, he proposed to build a temple unto God, to replace the worn tabernacle. But, through Nathan the prophet, the Lord forbade him to build the temple and he had to be content in gathering materials and in leaving the task to his son, Solomon. But God promised David an everlasting kingdom. The verification of his promise must be found.

That David was not embittered because he was denied the building of the temple is shown by his soliloquy (II Samuel 7:17-22), in which he reflected upon God's goodness to him and gave thanks. Notwithstanding David had grievous failures and sinned terribly with Bathsheba—and had her husband, Uriah, slain in battle, he repented. In the past winter Mrs. Hart has been living in an apartment on Ellsworth road near Ann Arbor. She plans to move into the house here soon after the Whipples leave.

Whipples Moving to Ithaca Next Week

Mr. and Mrs. Veal Whipple, who have made their home here the past eight years, are moving next Tuesday, Aug. 1, to the home at 320 North Jefferson street, in Ithaca, which they recently purchased. Mrs. Whipple was the teacher at Jewett-Stone school the entire eight years they lived here and is to teach in the second grade of the Ithaca public school. The Whipples have sold their home here to Mrs. Dorothy Hart of White Cloud. Mrs. Hart and her late husband, George Hart, resided in Chelsea before moving to White Cloud some years ago. During the past winter Mrs. Hart has been living in an apartment on Ellsworth road near Ann Arbor. She plans to move into the house here soon after the Whipples leave.

MEMBERS OF THE CONGRESS were torn between two desires—the need or duty to stay on the job because of the serious ramifications of the war in Korea—and the desire . . . selfish, perhaps, but nevertheless pressing . . . to get back along the political fences in the home districts for campaigning purposes.

Members of the senate up for reelection this year have watched some of their colleagues take the count like sitting ducks, and there is a bit of hysteria in the air—Pepper in Florida; Graham in North Carolina; Gurney in South Dakota; Thomas in Oklahoma. It appeared that unless the Korean situation worsened considerably, adjournment would come early in August, which would leave them almost three months of campaigning.

This congress has done much better than ever thought possible in the early stages in passage of President Truman's legislative program. While it has turned down some important recommendations and failed to take action on others, it has taken positive action on 47 of the 80 proposals made by the President in his state of the union messages.

This fact is revealed in a box score compiled by Congressional Quarterly, a non-partisan reporting service on the actions of congress. Eleven of the President's proposals have been enacted into law and signed by him, including middle-income housing, national science foundation, addition to commodity credit borrowing power, a new displaced persons act, extension of rent controls and the draft. Seven proposals have failed to survive and in this category is included such measures as federal aid to education, health insurance, $2-billion loan for housing co-ops, appointment of postmasters by the postmaster general and Taft-Hartley repeal.

On 13 proposals, no hearings even were held. These included the Brannan farm plan, expanded unemployment benefits, universal military training, consumer credit controls and Columbia Valley development.

The 70-group air force bill which has been in conference committee since October, 1949, was quickly bounced out of the committee when the Korean situation came to light. The house passed the bill June 29, and it was sent to the White House the same day. Present air force strength is about 48-groups.

Recently a group of 21 Republican house members approved another "declaration of principles" issued in Philadelphia. The new declaration urged Republicans to drop "purely negative opposition" and to provide "enthusiastic leadership toward social goals necessary for health of our society." "The declaration says, 'Too often the appearance has been created that the party is not merely anti-socialist but anti-social.' The group of congressmen was headed by Representative Hugh D. Scott of Pennsylvania, formerly Republican national chairman, ousted in favor of the present chairman, Guy Gabrielsen.

The GOP national committee chose to ignore the new declaration, standing on its own declaration of principles made several months ago.

One of the highlights of the week was a speech by Senator George D. Aiken of Vermont on the floor of the senate severely criticizing Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan because some production and marketing committees in Minnesota received their regular per diem for attending the Brannan meeting in St. Paul April 4. Senator Aiken pressed for an investigation as did Representatives Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and Clarence J. Brown of Ohio. Result was a report by U.S. Comptroller General Lindsay Warren completely exonerating Secretary Brannan from the GOP charges. Said Congressmen Frank Buchanan, chairman of the house lobby investigating committee: "The investigation by the general accounting office which Warren heads, showed the charges were completely unsupported."

On 13 proposals, no hearings even were held. These included the Brannan farm plan, expanded unemployment benefits, universal military training, consumer credit controls and Columbia Valley development.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLDTIMERS

From Mrs. E. E. Volk of Okemos, Neb.: "I remember when I was a kid back in the 1890's, my folks made a unique cereal for us. They ground the 'old maids' left from popped corn, put cream and sugar on them and served them for breakfast."

From S. J. Benton of DeKalb, Tex.: "I remember when just a child, the cold winter nights by the big fireplace, with Father on one side, reading the Bible, Mother on the other, knitting, and us kids in between. At bedtime Mother would pull the little trundle bedstead from under the big bed. She would then tuck us kids away for the night. Some families had one poster beds in the corner of the bedroom, with the other posts attached to the walls."

From Lee-James of Monongah, W. Va.: "I remember when women would shear sheep. I don't know that the fair sex generally ever engaged in this occupation, but when I was a lad, I remember seeing my father tie the legs of our sheep and Aunt Druce Tucker, who lived near us, would shear them."

From Mrs. Byron Thompson of Granger, Wash.: "I remember when I went to a one-room country school, the teacher would appoint two pupils to bring a pail of water from a nearby well and pass it with a dipper so each pupil could have a drink of fresh water. Each pupil usually took a dipper full and poured back into the pail what he did not drink."

Desirable Ratings Exist in Jackson Naval Reserve Unit

Jackson's newest naval reserve division 9-78, finding the enlistment tempo stepped up, expects to be up to full complement within one month. Although many of the enlistees are under 25 years of age, a greater number are World War II veterans who wish to retain their rating earned during combat years.

The unit will continue to report for instruction at the N. West Avenue center on Wednesday evenings and accept enlistments at the same time. After filing the allowance, the division will continue to give new men an opportunity to advance themselves to the rating of their choice by transferring out men who have missed drills to a pool of reservists controlled by the commandant at Great Lakes, Ill.

According to Lieut. C. Wayne Hessemer, commanding officer, the especially desirable ratings include quartermasters, storekeepers, machinist mates, electronic technicians and the usual stenographic rates.

County Infirmary Residents to Enjoy Birthday Party

Tomorrow, Friday, July 28, the last of the monthly birthday parties for the season will be held at the Washtenaw County Infirmary. These parties are arranged for residents at the infirmary by the infirmary auxiliary. After tomorrow's affair there will be no birthday celebration until the fall schedule begins in September.

Hostesses for tomorrow's party will be members of the Webster Home Extension group, headed by Mrs. Grace Nixon, Mrs. Neal Nixon, Mrs. Clarence Bristle and Mrs. Fred Wheeler. All members of the Webster group are being urged to attend. The Webster ladies plan to serve home-made cake and ice cream.

Members of the Ann Arbor Storytellers' League are to be on hand to entertain residents during the afternoon.

One of the speakers during the after-dinner program was Mrs. Augusta White of Ann Arbor, department hospital chairman and past department president. She spoke on hospital work of the Auxiliary and announced that Chelsea and Ann Arbor Auxiliaries were to go to Dearborn hospital Monday, July 31, to assist with the hospital party program.

Mrs. Ruth Logue of Lansing, Sixth District president, spoke on membership and attendance. Games were the evening's entertainment and Mrs. Marian Devine of Ann Arbor was the recipient of the evening's door prize.

(POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT)

I have filed my nominating petitions as a Republican candidate for Congress.

Nobody asked me to.

There was no popular demand.

I have not had my ear to the ground listening for the call.

I have been busy minding my business as a lawyer.

But, when I look around, as plain John Citizen, and find—

Our national debt reaching 256 thousand million dollars, or enough to provide a brand new $6,000 home for every family in the Country;

Nearly 6 million people (or 1 out of every 25 of the population) on the public payroll;

The average citizen now working about 1 week in every month to pay his taxes;

Congress stalling on the Hoover reorganization plan to cut government waste;

A bureaucracy destroying food to create scarcity to make people pay more for it;

Coddling communism in Washington while waging war against it in Korea.

I think, if I were in Congress I would try to do something about these things.

And so I am a candidate for Congress, and if you feel as I do and hope to see some action, your support will be appreciated.

Sincerely,
PHILLIP C. KELLY

Dexter Village Buys Ford Mill Building for Community Use

Dr. A. G. Wall, village president of Dexter, has been notified by the Ford Motor company, that the village's offer of $5,000 for the Ford Mill building has been accepted. Written acceptance is expected in a few days.

The mill building is the large structure north of the Main Street bridge and is located on West Main street. There is a large amount of space in the building which is four floors in height. It is expected that parts of the building will be remodeled as needed. Probably a space will be finished off for the fire engine and village truck and tractors first. ### H. T. Moores Honored Sunday on 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Moores, who were married 25 years ago, July 22, 1925, were honored Sunday at an open house at the new home of Mrs. Moores' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Elden, in Sylvania, Ohio. The Moores were married in Sylvania and lived there until coming to Chelsea. About 50 friends and relatives attended the open house.

Among these was Mrs. Moore's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ann Elden, who is 95 years old; also, Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. A. K. Campbell, of Toledo, and Mr. Moore's brother, G. S. Moore, of Sylvania, who were the attendants at the wedding 25 years ago.

A tiered anniversary cake, decorated in white and silver, centered the lace-covered table from which the refreshments of punch and cake were served.

The Moores have three children, Joanne, Maryellen and Elden, all of whom were present for the occasion.

The honor guests were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Guests for the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Armin Schneider are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Friess of Madison, Wisconsin. Entertained recently at the Schneider home were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Renard and son, Joseph, of Rigby, Idaho.

Club and Social Activities

HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Muriel Roehm of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Faye Schiller entertained at a shower Saturday evening, July 15, for Mrs. Darrell Larson. Fourteen guests were present.

BIRTHDAYS

On Thursday evening, Willard Guest accompanied his son, Buddy, and six young guests to an out-of-town theater party in celebration of Buddy's birthday. The boys were treated to refreshments later. Guests were Buddy's cousin, Bill Berg, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Jimmy Baxter, John Howe, Karl Klemenschnider, Billie Sorensen and George Staffen.

On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Guest and family took their nephew back to Fort Wayne and were entertained at a family birthday dinner at the home of Mr. Guest's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Berg. The dinner honored Mr. Guest and his son, both of whose birthdays occur on the same day, July 23.

LYNDON EXTENSION CLUB

Mrs. Henry Prin was hostess at her home at Cassidy Lake at a picnic for members of the Lyndon Home Extension club Thursday, July 20. Because of the rain the gathering was held in the house where a delicious pot-luck dinner was served at 2 o'clock to 17 members, four guests and four children.

A social hour followed.

OVERNIGHT GUESTS

Mrs. Evelyn Spize and children of Snyderville, N.Y., and her sister at whose home in Lansing they were visiting, were overnight guests Monday of last week at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Miller. Tuesday afternoon before returning to Lansing, they called on Mrs. Louis Eppler and, accompanied by Mrs. Eppler, called on Mrs. Eugene Huber. The Spizes resided in Chelsea several years ago while Mr. Spize was employed at Cassidy Lake.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD
By Mrs. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

THE FAMILY will be starting any day now for a trip in the car and a few of the problems of travel with children will loom in the offing. One of the most persistent of these is "Buy me!" It is natural for an alert child to want everything he sees, so parents have to find a way of making it clear that he can't have them all, and still keep peace in the family.

One father accomplished this by attaching a basket purse to the instrument board of the car. Into this went the money for gas, oil, ferries and toll bridges, plus a reasonable amount for roadside treats. This gave the children an idea of the basic cost of running a car—because the car is yours and you don't have to buy a ticket they are apt to think you travel free. And deciding ahead of time how much was to be spent each day for extra made the children weigh the pleasure of buying a blown up balloon character at a stand, against waiting for a bottle drink at the next filling station.

This budgeting for entertainment also gave a legitimate reason for not stopping at every two-by-four carnival the children spotted. This same father of four would say, "It will cost at least 40 or 60 cents for each of you to have a ride on the merry-go-round—and it looks pretty broken down to me. Why don't we keep going until we reach the next drive-in and all see a movie?"

Another family on a journey that was to require several days found that eating meals out of the picnic basket they used at home for trips to the park made the days go faster, and the food budget go a lot farther. They began each day with a good, hot breakfast at a restaurant—meat and eggs and milk so that everyone started out well-fed.

Then while Father serviced the car, Mother stopped at a local grocery and filled the picnic basket with things they could eat without dishes. Long knives with spread sandwiches for all, and there are plenty of good spreads—mixed cheese, peanut butter, cream cheese and jelly—to give variety. The children love to choose a new kind-of-cookie-for-dessert, fruit is always abundant and fresh milk can be purchased as meal time approaches. Stop by a grassy roadside and get out of the car to eat—this gives the children a chance to stretch their legs and they'll be fresh and contented for the next 50 miles or so.

The chief thing is to keep the children well—and this isn't always easy with changes of water, temperature and different food. Pass up all cakes and pastries that have custard or cream fillings, because sometimes food tastes all right but is still toxic enough to spoilage to cause stomach upsets. Beware of fish and dishes containing egg, milk, poultry, etc. Pick your restaurants for cleanliness rather than cuteness—Ye Olde Mill Food Shoppe may harbor rats, and fancy caps and aprons on waitresses don't guarantee clean hands.

Trinkle Reunion

The first reunion of the Trinkle family was held Sunday at the Cedar Lake cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Trinkle, with approximately 30 present. It is planned to make the affair an annual event. At this first gathering there were two families present from Manchester, three families from the Chelsea area, two from Dexter and one from Jackson.

Following a pot-luck dinner a social time was enjoyed. Swimming also was part of the day's activity.

Jeanne Jones of Fort Myers, Fla., left Monday after spending the past five and one-half weeks here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gaunt. The Gaunts accompanied her to Detroit, where she boarded the train for Lexington, Ky. She joined her family who plan to spend the remainder of the summer there before they all return to Fort Myers in the fall.

THE FINAL PUSH?

It Wasn't So Very Long Ago
Items taken from files of The Standard of years past.

4 Years Ago...
Thursday, July 25, 1946—
Mrs. Daniel Hoey, 83, died at her home in Dexter Wednesday. Her parents were the late Andrew and Mary Conlan Greening. She is survived by three sons, one daughter and ten grandchildren. Fifteen members of the Pythian Sisters of Chelsea visited the Veterans' hospital at Battle Creek last Thursday where they presented a wheelchair to a patient from Ohio.

Rev. Barbara McMahon and Richard Riemenschneider of Chelsea were married Saturday, July 20, at the Bethlehem Evangelical and Reformed church in Ann Arbor. They plan to make their home in Chelsea.

Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Grabowski were surprised at a church picnic given in their home Thursday by the entire congregation of St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church at Francisco, to show their appreciation of his 20 years as their pastor. The picnic was at Clear Lake County Park. Rev. Grabowski has been pastor of St. Paul's church since 1922, also St. John's church since 1926.

14 Years Ago...
Thursday, July 23, 1936—
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Biecker and daughter were injured Saturday when their auto collided with another car about five miles south of Muskegon. Their car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Novens, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith, attended the dedication of the War Memorial; also a banquet of the Second Division, Marine Corps, during their week-end visit to Washington, D. C.

Thousands of people from Chelsea and vicinity attended the American Legion carnival which was held on the streets last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Legion and Auxiliary fared well financially and the Legion's share of profit will go toward their building program at Cavanaugh Lake.

by KARL KOENIGER
Somebody is always taking the romance out of life. Last year we got word that the early day Indians couldn't hit the broad side of a barn with their arrows. That's why they had to creep up on animals. Now an Arizona weatherman claims the noble red men don't know any more about the weather than we do... which is rating him pretty low. When an Indian says it'll rain he either repeats a forecast he heard on the radio... or he's making a wild guess. It wasn't bad enough that we took most of the country away from him... now we have to question the Indian's instincts. Ugh!

In N. Y. the author of the book, "How to Commit Murder and Get Away with It" was sentenced to 30 years for robbery. Apparently he studied the wrong subject. There's one subject we know a lot about... and that's appliances. Yep... we're always on the look-out to bring you the very best and latest in TV lines. Remember you can be sure if it's WESTINGHOUSE... and we have a complete line... as well as others. No matter what your appliance needs... you get the best buys here. Drop in to see us. Painted Furniture Painted furniture is no new fad. Throughout history it has been prominent and many of the most unusual and artistic pieces have been in color. There were many examples of beautiful painted pieces at the time when French furniture was at its best, in the most flourishing period of the Renaissance in Italy and even as far back as the days of the pharaohs in Egypt.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Take Your Choice

Sitting around last Friday evening, the talk turned to the best way of getting to sleep when it seems you just can't. "The way I always do," says Sandy Johnson, "is to breathe deep and make believe I weigh a ton."

"Just throw away the pillow—it works every time," says Buzz Ellis. When counting sheep came up, right away was the question: What kind of sheep?

From where I sit, you could argue 'til Doomsday and never get complete agreement on a lot of things. Now, take me, I'm all for having a glass of beer or ale on occasion. Your "sociable beverage" may be a "Coke"—or buttermilk or maybe a cup of hot coffee.

But enjoying our preferences is a right in this country and each of us is entitled to his own. The important thing is to respect that right in the true democratic spirit of understanding! As a matter of fact, what a tiresome old world this would be if we all did have the same likes and dislikes!

Cure for Swine Mange Relatively Inexpensive

It will cost the average farmer only about 15 cents each to treat each brood sow for mange and large roundworms. But the treatments are worth several hundred times that amount in better herd health and faster gains.

Dr. M. E. Mansfield, veterinarian at the University of Illinois, reminds farmers that breeding time is a good time for parasite control. At that time the farmer usually has only a few hogs on hand, so the cost of treatment is less, and there will be less chance of trouble with the litters.

To control mange, he says, spray each sow in the herd with benzene hexachloride just before breeding time. Then the affected sows and boars will be free of mange.

Ascorbic Acid

Ascorbic acid is now being added to apple juice. Not only does it increase the Vitamin C content, but it also enhances the keeping qualities and retains original flavor and color better than usual methods.

Out-Counter-Clockwise

When a man is mowed counter-clockwise the clippings are thrown to the left, into the path of "the next time around." As a result, the clippings are chopped finer and drop out of sight around the grass roots.

ABOVE THE HULLABALOO

By LITTLE HULL
DON'T LET IT HAPPEN HERE

IT ISN'T EASY to become an efficient farmer, or storekeeper or politician. It requires time and common sense and experience. How far more difficult it is to master the intricacies of banking and business and the industries. Men just don't start at the top in these lines; they spend their lives at it.

According to the Socialist concept, an industrial corporation can get too large and tends to destroy the small businesses. And yet their plans contemplate a "corporation" which will manage all corporations and all businesses, and to cap off their concept they believe they can operate this vast "corporation" much more efficiently than can those with a lifelong training.

Now these Socialists know their economic history far better than do we dumb sheep whom they are rapidly penning in. They know that it has been attempted many times through history and always — of necessity — with catastrophic results. But the leaders of this sort of movement are seldom of the type which is sincerely interested in the welfare of their fellowmen. They are as a rule selfish and ambitious characters whose great passion is power over the lives of others. There have been exceptions to this rule—but they are few.

It took the Socialists 50 years of plotting and planning to get control of successful old England. It has taken them four years to wreck it. The English were badly weakened by two world wars and were easy prey for the "planners." This country has suffered but little from these wars and yet we are falling into their trap with amazing speed. What has happened to us Americans that we stand for this usurpation of our freedom?

Surely we can compel our representatives in congress to put a stop to it before it is too late. Or surely we can throw out those who disobey us—come November!

★ WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES ★

"DIG OR DIE"—In Korea, where U. S. jet planes and the modern Soviet-built tanks of the North Koreans have been making headlines, the GI in the field still finds the age-old shovel his most effective means of protection. A front-line American soldier is shown digging a hole that his life may depend upon.

"MY ACHING BACK"—A 180-pound city employee of Trenton, N. J., 22-year-old Jack Walsch, raised 4235 pounds on his back to break the world's weight-lifting record. The previous record was held by a 390-pound French-Canadian who lifted a mere 4140 pounds.

AMMO CARRIERS—A U. S. Army team is shown slogging through rice paddies with machine gun ammunition for embattled front-line forces. To date, many reverses suffered at the hands of the armored North Koreans have been due to a shortage of ammunition, the life blood of artillery and small weapons units.

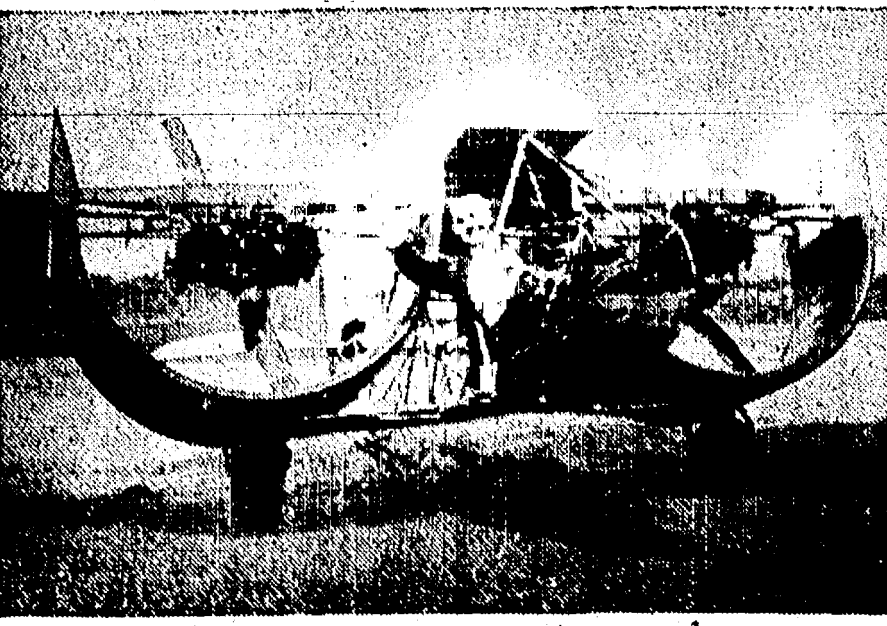

"HELLO JOE? NO? OH!"—William R. Solons, anxious to hear the Soviet side of the Korean story, called the Kremlin from his Los Angeles home and asked for Joe Stalin. When the Kremlin answered, things looked promising for the 33-year-old writer. But it turned out that neither Joe or Andrei Vishinsky would accept Mr. Solon's call. Peggy, the pigeon, was just as disappointed as her master about getting the bird from Moscow.

FIRST CAPTURED RED VEHICLE—Capt. Charles Fisher of Lincoln, Neb., left, and Capt. James Constantine of Knoxville, Tenn., are shown as they examined the first captured North Korean armored equipment. The armored car was seized at a South Korean railroad, where the vehicle had been made ready for shipment to the enemy's front-line forces.

TICKET TAKER—When Marcel Pinol, at left, removed his license from behind the sun visor in his car, 21 unpaid and unheeded traffic tickets showered down upon him. He had been stopped by Chicago policeman John Curtin for crashing a red light and driving without a safety sticker. Curtin blinked twice and then handed Pinol two more tickets.

LOOKS SCREWY, BUT IT FLIES... Willard R. Custer, Hagerstown, Md., waves cheerfully from his plane, the "Custer Channel Wing," which he thinks will revolutionize the aviation industry. It has been test flown.
