

G. Mennen Williams, the man who upset a 36-year tradition by winning re-election, was inaugurated as governor for a second term at Lansing, this week.

"Soapy" is now the sole Democrat office-holder at the state capitol. His function as chairman of the state administrative board will be largely an honor. He will lack the power to make or support a motion.

What can Governor Williams accomplish? That remains to be seen, as the legislature as well as the administrative board is well under control of Republicans.

In several states the governor has announced a 1951 program of retrenchment in state services, as contrasted with Williams' 1950 plea for increased spending. Needs of financing state civilian defense—a tremendous problem by the way—are to get priority of revenues in New York state, for example.

In Michigan the problem is more acute because of the mounting treasury deficit due to diversion of sales tax revenues to local governments. On the basis of the past fiscal year (ending last July 1), the state of Michigan is daily going in the red to the tune of more than $100,000. The year-end deficit was $21,311,282.

The state legislature trimmed expenditures for the current fiscal year (ending next July 1) 10 per cent in an effort for economy.

And so it is no difficult to foresee the A-1 problem of the state legislature: How to finance existing state services in the face of new inflated prices.

Wholesale prices soared to new all-time highs in the wake of the Korean war. The Bureau of Labor statistics composite wholesale price index started the year 1950 at approximately 151 and ended the year at about 173—a gain of 16 per cent!

Leading economists foresee a further price rise in 1951 of about 10 per cent. Then there is the prospect of annual price rises in 1952 and 1953 of 5 per cent, despite all efforts of government controls.

Add these up and you get a perpetual financial headache.

Governor Williams took issue with reporters in Washington he said the report he would name Walter P. Reuther to the senate should Vandenberg resign was as premature as the report that Harry Kelly was an appointee. Reuther says he wouldn't have the job.

Williams is better off than most thought, so far as appointments are concerned. He has eight positions open which he can handle without senatorial approval.

State civil service employees have received their first pay increase since May 1, 1949. Some 21,145 workers split a $7,600,000 per year melon—an average boost of $30 monthly for each.

Too much poor quality butter in Michigan? A Michigan State College survey says yes. F. M. Skiver, chief of the agriculture department bureau of dairy industry, says most complaints were due to old cream—indicating the dairy industry that its best defense against yellow oleo is to improve the quality and flavor of butter.

It doesn't help to wear red in the woods. Of the 18 hunters killed in this year's deer season only one was not wearing the traditional scarlet. He shot himself accidentally.

At least we are keeping our timber. The state is racking up its best forest fire prevention record in history. Only 5,390 acres burned over.

At the same time, nearly 14,000,000 trees were planted by the conservation department last year—largest program in 10 years.

A "continuous" session of the state legislature is being proposed by some Republican leaders (Continued on page eight)

Minor Re-locations

Ralph Dibble, State Highway Department engineer and assistant to the deputy commissioner, stopped in Chelsea Friday afternoon and called on Village President M. W. McClure to tell him that the North Main street bridge construction job is now being advertised and bids are to be opened at Lansing, Jan. 18. The contract will call for completion of the bridge by November, 1951, Dibble said.

B. H. Hale, of the right-of-way division of the highway department, was in Chelsea the past week obtaining easements on property needed for the relocation of the highway at the north-end of Main street. Part of the property was village-owned and approval for its transfer for the road relocation was approved at Tuesday's Village Council meeting.

Some private property is also involved because of the relocation of the highway, and because of the necessary change in the course of the creek channel.

The lead-in to the new bridge will begin at the north edge of the corner property and will angle across the front of the flat property on the west side of Main street. The channel change in the creek will begin on the Lane property east of Main street. The course of the creek will lie south of the present location after the change-over.

Dependence on the progress of the bridge, the North Main street pavement may be completed at approximately the same time as the bridge, officials said.

Thieves Enter
Vogel's Food
Store Again

Vogel's Food Market at M-92 and Sibley road was broken into some time Monday night or early Tuesday morning, according to reports. It is believed the thieves were frightened away before they could gather any loot.

The cash register had been torn loose from the counter and carried into a back room, but a small amount of change left in the till had not been disturbed. A preliminary check by the store owner, Clarence Vogel, seemed to indicate that nothing had been stolen, it was reported.

Sheriff's detectives investigated and sought fingerprints and other possible clues. Entrance was apparently gained by breaking windows on the north side of the building.

This is the third time in a little more than a year that the store has been broken into.

Rev. Grabowski
To Stay as Pastor
at St. Paul's Church

Rev. P. H. Grabowski who, on Dec. 17, had tendered his resignation as pastor of St. Paul's church here and St. John's church at Francisco has reconsidered and is now remaining as pastor of St. Paul's church only. This announcement was made at the annual meeting of the congregation held on New Year's day. The Francisco church, which he has served for more than 20 years has made arrangements to be served by Rev. Henry Kroehler, pastor of St. John's church, Jackson.

Because Rev. Grabowski had stated that his decision to resign was based on his physician's advice to slow down for the sake of his health, the Francisco church accepted his resignation "with extreme regret" thus paving the way for his remaining at St. Paul's.

Rev. Grabowski has been pastor of St. Paul's church since 1922.

Herd Improvement
Group Being Formed

A new Dairy Herd Improvement Association is being organized in Washtenaw county according to H. S. Oiler, County Agricultural Agent. The new tester began work on Dec. 19. Twenty dairy herds have signed up for the work and there is still room for ten more herds.

Dairy Herd Improvement work provides official records on each individual cow, showing the total income and the income above feed for each individual cow in the herd.

Any dairyman who desires to join the new association should contact County Agent Oiler at once.

Mrs. Carl Schwieger's sister, Anna O'Brien, of Painesville, Ky., is staying with the Schwiegers while Mrs. Schwieger is convalescing after the birth of a son, Carl Heinz II, on Dec. 11, 1950.

WRC Gives Flag

The Woman's Relief Corps presented an American flag to the Village Council at its regular meeting in the Municipal building Tuesday evening, Jan. 2. Relief Corps members who were present for the ceremonies were Mrs. Edward Walker, Mrs. Helen Kilmer, Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. Ernest Frazier, Mrs. Nellie Whicker, Mrs. George Doe and Mrs. W. G. Price.

A short program was given on the topic "Who Are We?" which demonstrated what the WRC stands for, and Mrs. Price read a short article entitled "What Is Our Flag?" The dedication prayer was given by Mrs. Kilmer.

Village President M. W. McClure accepted the flag for the Council and the presentation ceremony closed with the Pledge of Allegiance and the song "America."

CHS Quintet
Wins Albion
Tournament

Saturday night turned out to be a big night for the Chelsea High Bulldogs as they defeated Parma in a 45-30 victory in the final round of the Albion Invitational holiday tournament to win the championship.

This was the third season that Jack John-Magiera had directed his talented basketball team into the Albion tournament and this time they really climbed to bring home the much-desired title. They now have their hearts set on sweeping the Huron League.

Dave Crocker, with 16 points, was high man for the winners, with Marty Tobin garnering 11 points and Stan Knickerbocker 10 points.

Starting off the tournament play on Wednesday night, the Bulldogs turned on their dazzling speed to swamp Athens to the tune of 53-38. In this game Dave Crocker netted 22 points for his team's cause, which was the best night of his career, and incidentally set a new individual scoring record for the three-year history of the tournament series.

Thursday night, in the semi-finals, Chelsea met North Adams and emerged victorious 59-40, to earn their right to enter the final play-offs Saturday night. In this game with North Adams Crocker hooped 19 points as he and his mates piled up a 20-4 lead in the first quarter and coasted through to the victory.

In the final play-off Saturday night a scrappy Parma team was pitted against the Bulldogs. Parma had defeated East Jackson 35-24 on Thursday night, after trailing by a four-point deficit until the last minute and a half and finally pulling ahead in the last five seconds.

After an even start with each team scoring nine points in the first quarter and Chelsea stepping to a one-point lead at the half-way mark, the Bulldogs came back to outscore Parma 8-7 in the third quarter and 15-7 in the final stanza to make the final tally read 45-30.

Getting back on the home floor Friday night the Bulldogs met Manchester in two games, with the opener starting at 7 p.m.

Season Despite Missing Title

(Editor's Note: In an attempt to cheer the disappointed grid-ders of the University of California and show them they are not the only unlucky team, we print herewith a summary of the CHS football season.)

By DWIGHT GADD

Chelsea High's 1950 pigskin season was a highly respectable seven won, one lost and one tied record, and the only regrets are that league title failed to materialize again this year.

In their nine games the Bulldogs ran up 182 points as compared to their opponents' 76, as follows:

Chelsea	Opponents
7 Dexter	12
9 Milan	6
26 U. High	14
19 Saline	0
26 Dundee	20
31 Flat Rock	6
31 Lincoln	0
20 Ypsil Roosevelt	12
33 Manchester	6

182 76

In their opener at Dexter, George Heydlauff sparked the Bulldogs, on both offense and defense, to their narrow 7-6 win over the Breadnaughts. Chelsea led in all departments but failed to score until Heydlauff set up a chance with a pass interception. Lehman notched the TD on a sneak and Heydlauff booted the point after, which eventually spelled victory, as Dexter scored late in the game but failed to convert.

The game Milan—just a little too soon. The Bulldogs spotted the Big Reds an early first quarter score and then recovered to completely outplay them for most of the remainder of the game until a muffed scoring chance broke their spirit late in the game. Chelsea had a first down on Milan's one-yard line, but a questionable quarterbacking job by Heydlauff and the Bulldogs lost their chance. Milan added another TD to win by 12-0, but had the Bulldogs scored they were "up" enough to have held it.

A week later, versus the University High Cubs at Ann Arbor's Wines Field, Heydlauff put on a personal scoring show and racked up all the points in a 20-14 win for the Bulldogs. Heydlauff scored on a pass for 10 yards from Lehman, and long runs of 44, 64, and 70 yards, and two out of four conversions. It was the best single offensive show of the season.

Saline came to town the following week and Chelsea ripped the inept Hornets 49-0. Heydlauff, Ted Slane, and Don McClear yardage for Chelsea, and Heydlauff made one of three conversions, while the defense, headed by Capt. Schrader and Ken Proctor, completely felled the visitors' attack. Saline had a lot of spirit and scrap or the score might have been higher.

Chelsea traveled to Dundee the next Friday night and ran into a Viking Yacht and ran into Chelsea's press clippings. In a crowd-pleaser, 20-20, the two full-backs, Chelsea's Ted Slane and Dundee's Dale French, matched each other touchdown for touchdown in a game during which Chelsea scored three times only to have Dundee come from behind to tie it up. French accounted for two of the Vikings' scores as he also ran over two of the three extra points, while Slane surrendered this duty to Heydlauff.

Flat-Rock's Rams came here to provide the next opposition, and after spotting them a marker in the first half, the Bulldogs roared from behind in the final two periods to all to offer but under undisputed second half standings. McClear made the tying marker, and insurance was added by Slane, McClear again, and Stan Knickerbocker, while Heydlauff converted after the last two scores.

This game marked the return of Stan Knickerbocker after he had been out since mid-summer with a broken arm. However, the following week Dick Merkel, regular end, received a broken leg in practice, to offset the luck of Stan's return.

The Bulldogs proved rude hosts on the following Friday as they splintered the Raisinlitters from Lincoln 31-0. Chelsea had this one all their own way as Lincoln had nothing at all to offer but spirit and fight. Heydlauff, Bob Bertke, and Slane got in the scoring column with Slane getting three of the markers. Heydlauff, booted one of five attempts to complete the tally.

At Michigan Normal's field the Friday following, the Bulldogs downed Ypsil Roosevelt's Roughriders 20-12 on a cold, blustery gridiron. Slane scored once, and Heydlauff twice plus two of three conversions, in conquering the surprisingly strong Roughriders. This game completed the league schedule. (Continued on page eight)

BEN FRANKLIN TRUISM. 1951 VERSION

Mrs. Wm. Fox
Picked 'Queen
for a Day'

Last Thursday afternoon, friends of Mrs. William Fox of Island Lake, who were invited in on the "Queen for a Day" radio program, were startled into special attention when they heard Chelsea, Michigan mentioned and then were happily surprised to hear the voice of Mrs. Fox and find that she was being honored on the nation-wide program originating in Hollywood, Calif.

Mrs. Fox and her sister, Mrs. Clara Bouvier of Detroit, are on a month's tour in the west and last week were visiting a niece, Mrs. Hazel Brime, of Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. Bouvier will be remembered here as having been employed at the Federal Screw Works in the tower building during World War II.

Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Bouvier also came to attend the famous Rose Bowl football game on New Year's day and will stop at many points of interest along the homeward route before arriving here about Jan. 15.

Mrs. Fox had been notified by telephone that his wife was to appear on the program and was listening in at his home when she was pronounced winner of the honor of being "Queen for a Day."

Audience applause decides the contest.

As winner of the title Mrs. Fox was to be the guest of the radio program's sponsors for a full 24 hours. She was to visit places of interest and, in addition, received a long list of valuable prizes, including four dozen red roses, a diamond ring, clock, waffle iron, a watch for herself and one for her husband, a quantity of nylon hose, a fitted bathing glove for every occasion, a gabardine suit, two dresses, six blouses, three pairs of shoes, cigarettes and many other items. She was told she could also request a special gift and she asked for a radio for her husband, which was promptly presented to her.

Mrs. Fox was interviewed by the program's master of ceremonies. She told him she and her husband had been married 33 years. When she explained that Chelsea was near Ann Arbor, the master of ceremonies mentioned the University of Michigan football team in California at the time Chelsea came from behind to tie it up. French accounted for two of the Vikings' scores as he also ran over two of the three extra points, while Slane surrendered this duty to Heydlauff.

CHS Alumni Hold
Holiday Reunion

Eight schools, colleges and universities were represented at the alumni get-together held at the High School Friday evening, Dec. 22. Representatives of classes of 1946 through 1950 attended the pot-luck dinner, which opened the evening's affair. Also present were Misses Fox, Charles S. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. John Magiera, Albert C. Johnson and Joseph Fischer of the Chelsea High school faculty.

Marlene Heydlauff was elected chairman to arrange for next year's mid-winter reunion.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District has been scheduled for the evening of Jan. 15, at the Pittsfield-Grange hall. The program will include the election of two directors to fill the expiring terms of Dr. L. G. Steiner of Lodi township and William Hayes of York township.

There will be a report of past year's activities by the directors and a motion picture and discussion by some prominent farmer-directors of neighboring soil conservation districts will be featured.

The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m.

Col. P. S. Holmes
Assumes Duties as Kiwanis President

Officers and directors of Chelsea Kiwanis club for 1951 were installed Tuesday evening, Jan. 2, at their first weekly supper meeting of the new year held in the social center of the Methodist church.

Ch. Gov. Ateck Shook of Belleville, Division No. VI, conducted the installation ceremony in which Col. P. S. Holmes took over the duties as president; Charles M. "Chuck" Lancaster, vice president; H. T. "Dinty" Moore as immediate past president; Paul F. "Jerry" Niehaus, secretary, and Robert G. "Bob" Foster, treasurer.

County Shovel
Leveling Slopes on
'Mystery Project'

One of the county roads commission's huge shovel has been diverted from other work in the county to leveling slopes on the Manchester road roadside where John Hanna's men are erecting fence posts around the Sylvan township "mystery project." Leveling the slopes will help maintain the highway as the new eight-foot fence being erected will act as a snow fence on the new level.

Some of the fence posts had already been set on the parts of the property the road commission felt should be leveled off before the road commission learned that the work was being done. Supt. Mr. Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, of the Washtenaw County Road Commission, said Hanna and the (Hanna) construction contractor willingly cooperated with road commission by removing the posts to allow the leveling necessary to eliminate the snow pockets on the road.

Hallenbeck said the big shovel was rushed here from other road projects so the fence contractor could go ahead with the fence construction job.

Village in Darkness
as Transformer Burns
Out Last Wednesday

A burned-out transformer on Chandler street plunged the entire village into darkness for about a half-hour on Wednesday evening last week. The lights went out all over town at about 5:45.

Factories, supplied by separate power lines, were not affected. Service was restored in a little more than an hour in all parts of town except the Chandler street area.

Emergency repairs restored current there later in the evening, but the section for some time Thursday morning while the transformer was replaced.

Police Given New
Answer from Topsy
New Year's Toaster

A new twist to the state of being "in no condition to drive" was given to police officers here late New Year's Eve when a Chelseaite, who had evidently imbibed too freely, wove his way precariously across the street and got into his car.

He was closely followed by a police officer who approached the man with the query: "You're not going to drive that car, are you?"

To which the celebrant replied: "Sure I am—in no condition to walk."

The tottering gent was finally induced to allow someone else to drive him home.

School Seeks
Answer to Overcrowding

People in the community have for some time been invited to inspect the Chelsea public school plant to see at first hand what the school situation is here. Groups have been conducted through the building by school officials who are continually trying to point out that unless a school building program is undertaken soon there is bound to be trouble ahead.

The only alternative solution to the overcrowding at the school, officials have said, is to hold half-day sessions or to hold sessions in situations which probably would prove hazardous for small youngsters, especially.

It is not known at this time, school authorities state, what is to be done next year with the present second graders. This year the second grade is meeting in two rooms but when the group passes to the third grade only one room will be available and it would be impossible to crowd them into the one classroom at the same time. Half-day sessions would be the only possible solution.

The same overcrowding is being encountered in some of the high school grades, notably the seventh and eighth grades. If elementary pupils could be removed from the present school the rooms thus vacated could be used to provide more space for high school pupils, it was pointed out.

According to present indications the fall of 1951 will see 80 pupils enrolled in the kindergarten here. The school bond issue of $255,000 to provide a new elementary school is to be placed before the voters here on Tuesday, Jan. 23. At the same time voters will be asked to approve a tax levy to provide the funds to retire the proposed bond issue.

As planned, the tax levy would amount to 4.5 mills which would be a reduction of 5 mill on present school building and site fund taxes included in the present township taxes.

The election on the proposed bond issue and tax levy will be held in the high school gymnasium from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m., Jan. 23.

Board of Education members have stated that they will try to get all the building space possible for the money available if the project is voted through.

Homer Lehman, 75,
Dies Saturday
After Brief Illness

Homer P. Lehman, 75, died Saturday evening at the Colonial Manor-Convalescent Home following a stroke which he suffered on Tuesday at his farm home at 3363 Sylvan road in Sharon township.

The oldest of six children of Frederick and Alice Peckens Lehman, he was born at his present farm home on Sept. 6, 1875. Mr. Lehman had never married and had been engaged in general farming at this address for his entire lifetime.

A Justice of the Peace of Sharon township for several terms in years past, he had always taken an active part in local affairs and was known for his charitable deeds in helping others. He had attended and contributed to the North Sharon church steadily although not a member.

Mr. Lehman is survived by four brothers, George A., of Royal Oak; Fred A. of Manchester, Elmer C., of Sharon township, and Ira A., of Detroit. Also surviving are an aunt, Mrs. Nettie Chadwick, of Jackson, and an aunt, Mrs. Ella Butler, who with her daughter Anna, has made her home with him for the past 18 years; eight nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the Miller Funeral Home at 2 p.m., Wednesday. Rev. John Bunney of Manchester officiated and was assisted by Rev. H. N. May of the North Sharon Community Bible church. Burial followed in Vermont Cemetery.

Heads Local Drive
for Seventh Year

Residents of Washtenaw county will be asked to raise $24,500 in the 1951 "March of Dimes" polio fund drive beginning Jan. 15, it was announced here today.

Heading the campaign for the Chelsea area will be Mrs. Walter D. Mohrlock of 606 Taylor street. This is the seventh consecutive year that Mrs. Mohrlock has acted as chairman for the local drive.

Mrs. George N. Hall, of 1502 Brooklyn avenue, Ann Arbor, overall chairman for the county, urged a liberal policy of giving and pointed out that nationwide polio figures for 1950 made the year the second worst polio year on record.

The 1951 drive will differ from previous campaigns in that the Washtenaw county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will mail "dime" cards to county residents. Formerly, wherever possible, cards were distributed by dairy firms through their milkmen.

Mrs. Mohrlock said this week that she was still undecided as to whether she would send out the "dime" cards in the Chelsea area. She plans to follow the same campaign procedure as she has in the past, placing coin boxes in all business places, contacting clubs, organizations, factories and schools, accepting individual donations and placing the "Mile-of-Dimes" board in its usual location in front of the Chelsea State Bank for a Saturday during the campaign.

All county residents who do not receive cards are being asked to make voluntary contributions through their local chairman. The drive will end Jan. 31.

Suit Settled Before
Case Reaches Jury
in Circuit Court

A suit for $25,000 damages against Elder Buehler, growing out of an automobile accident at the North Main street bridge last March 6 in which Mrs. Andy Fritz was injured, was settled Friday for $1,000 in Circuit Court at Ann Arbor, before it went to the jury. It was reported by Chelsea Police Officer Frank Reed.

Observers said the testimony given by Buehler's nephew, 12-year-old Teddy Nixon, helped greatly in bringing about the settlement of the suit. Teddy, in answer to questions put to him, told the court he was a Boy Scout and a member of this year's confirmation class at St. Paul's church here and he understood what it meant to testify under oath. He remained calm and unflinching while testifying before the judge, the 12 jurymen, the lawyers and other witnesses, and also, while being cross-examined, according to reports of the trial.

Teddy was riding with his uncle at the time the accident occurred.

THIS WEEK IN Washington

THE REPORT of President Harry Truman to the people of the nation in his recent radio and television broadcast was not alarmist; it was not dramatic. It was a down-to-earth, factual recital of the danger which besets this nation and the steps the government is taking and proposes to take to meet the aggression of Communism and the twin danger of inflation.

No citizen can stand up and cheer over anything the President said in his matter-of-fact address, but every citizen can breathe a sigh of relief when Charles W. Tobey, Republican of New Hampshire did when he said: "God help the American people if we do not all stick together and support the President of the United States in this critical emergency."

In Washington, however, on the same day the President made his appeal to the American people, some members of congress continued to sow the seeds of confusion and disunity. A Republican resolution called for the ouster of Dean Acheson as secretary of state only a few hours prior to the time the President announced Acheson was flying to London to engage in serious discussions with members of the North Atlantic Pact. Sen. Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin continued his smear and hate campaign in the senate and engaged in a public brawl at a private party with Drew Pearson, newspaper columnist. The Wisconsin senator may have tripped himself because he gave out copies of a speech which contained statements which he did not deliver on the floor of the senate; hence, he is not immune to libel suits on that part of the speech he did not say on the floor.

There was some comment in Washington that Governor Tom Dewey of New York stole the thunder of the President by making a radio address the night before in which he went much farther than did the President. However, the cooler, wiser heads here assert that the President's address was much more comprehensive, was intended to inform the American people just where we stand in the matter of preparing the nation for any eventualities which the masters of the Kremlin in Moscow may decree, and that the President has information which Dewey could not have.

Out of the promises of selective controls over civilian production and consumption, an increase of more than a million men in the army and in increased navy and air force, out of demands for increased production in all fields of manufacture and industry and of eventual price and wage controls, the President came up with a 1951 edition of the old NRA in a fair standard program. All who are here on the ground in Washington know that the control agencies which have been set up and over which the President has named Charles Wilson of General Electric as boss, do not have the manpower to enforce controls now.

But remembering the effectiveness of the early days of World War II, the same theory is now to be applied, and we to the company or corporation which fails to live up to those fair standards pending the imposition of mandatory controls.

Some here say that the President should have been more dramatic. That the country needed something which would hit closer to the people in order to impress upon them the urgency of the situation which faces the country. Others point out that if the defeat and slaughter of American troops in Korea, the known intention of the Russian Soviet to overrun the world with Communist imperialism has not already been brought home to the American people there is nothing which now can be said to stir them.

It is the President's address which the President said, "are as important to us as the air we breathe." If this lame-duck session of the congress did nothing else, it's session would have been worthwhile in the passage of a measure which closes another loop-hole in the anti-trust laws. For several years, attempt has been made to pass this bill which will prevent any corporation from merging or mopping up the material assets of another company if it is a move toward monopoly.

Growing Through Fellowship with Christ.

Lesson for January 7: John 15: 1-5; Philippians 3: 8-16

Memory Selection: Philippians 3: 13-14

THE WORDS recorded by John were doubtless spoken as Jesus and the disciples reached the doorway of the upper room, when he saw a vine growing about the portal. The vine was a sacred symbol among the Jewish people, and it is quite likely that Jesus pointed to the vine and said to the disciples: "I am the true vine."

Thus did Jesus direct attention to the close relation that should exist between the disciples and himself. Think of the oneness of life throughout the vine. From the roots in the earth, through the trunk, and out through all the branches to the smallest tendrils clinging to the supporting wall or trellis, the life in the vine is one.

Paul wrote the Philippians what was needed to maintain a close relation between Christ and his disciples. The followers of the Lord are to yield themselves to his will that they may indeed share in the fellowship of his sufferings and also in the power of his resurrection. In sacrificial service they may attain unto conquest and eternal happiness.

The apostle did not count himself to have laid hold upon all the victories and glories of the Christian life, but he was sure that he was pressing forward toward the "prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." So let us set before ourselves the highest ideas.

Christmas is here and gone again! Yes, Chelsea school enjoyed its annual Christmas party on Thursday, Dec. 21st. The program consisted of the usual things, Santa Claus, present opening songs and jokes.

Santa Claus was enacted by Principal Charles Cameron.

There were quite a lot of jokes played on teachers and students.
Some were really surprised to discover they had gotten cigarettes, a baby bottle, or something in that line.

Everyone in the school had drawn a name to see for whom he was to buy a gift.

It was a very delightful party
and everyone enjoyed himself.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM
The girls' basketball team opened the season with a game at Chelsea. They were defeated 47-13.
Chelsea made the first basket of the game.

Girls on the starting line-up
were: forwards, Judy Murphy, Dixie Rowe and Jackie Hughes;
guards, Clara Lewis, Ruth Eisen-man, and Jana Louie; and center, Ethlyn Joseph.

Even though the girls lost the game and we wish them good luck in all the rest of the games of the season.

Movies
The Art class saw the movie entitled "The Lone Ranger."
From the Indian legend of how the lone got his gray necklace of white feathers comes this movie.
All characters were heavy carved wooden masks representing birds, animals and people. This lovely story was in color which made the watercolor backgrounds stand out beautifully. The art class enjoyed this study of Indian craft
very much.

The movie entitled "The Cow and I" was shown in color to the Biology class. It told of the milk products such as milk and cheese and ice cream, and how they are processed in a sanitary factory.

"Electro Chemistry" was shown to the Chemistry class. It explained how to use chemicals to make electric energy and how electric energy makes chemicals.

A movie entitled "The Great Lakes" was shown to the eighth grade science class. It showed how the lakes were formed by glaciers and how they have changed many times from the first glacial lakes to the present Great Lakes.

The "Supreme Court" was the title of the movie shown to the American Government class. The outstanding Chief Justices, and some of the associate Justices were shown on the screen. Some of the cases tried in federal court, and the procedure in trying the cases was explained to the class in detail.

Activities . . .

ONE COLD MORNING TRIP

One cold morning the Biology class left for a field trip on the school bus, which took them to Clear Lake, where they got off and started walking. They looked at leaves and bird nests and many other interesting sights. Then the woodworking crew began its work. They got wood and leaves to build the fire after which all a dinner and roasted marshmal-lows. Some of the girls had brought hot chocolate which tasted
very good in the cold.

Biographies . . .

Verta Mary Clark, born Dec.
8, 1938, in Chelsea, has attended Chelsea Agricultural schools ever since she started to school.

A perfect day for Verta would be watching a football game and wishing all her classes were chemistry. She would be thinking about the dance after the game and wishing the orchestra would play
"Star Dust," her favorite song.

After the dance her escort would have to buy her something containing ham as that's her favorite food. While eating the ham she would be glad she wouldn't have to do any dishes because dishes are her pet peeve.

Verta has been in Latin club, chorus and journalism. She has been a cheerleader and is the chairman of the senior stand.
She has been secretary and treasurer of Latin club and is co-editor of journalism.

Verta thinks we need a new school because the old one is too old and too crowded.

Verta has traveled to Pennsylvania, Canada and northern Michigan. Her happiest moment came when she got to go to Michigan State last summer. She plans to go there again after graduation.

What senior girl was born on April 17, 1934, in Chelsea?
Here are some hints. She attended St. Mary's before coming to Chelsea high.

Her favorites include: a chicken dinner as food; basketball as a sport; piano playing as her favorite recreation. Her pet peeve is people who accept credit for something someone else has done.

This busy senior has had time for baby sitting jobs between her various activities. She has taken band and GAA in all four years of high school, and chorus, and basketball in her Sophomore, Junior and Senior years, besides taking part in the operetta in her Sophomore year.

Her happiest moment was when she became a senior.

If she found $1,000 she "would put it down on a car," she said.
This senior would like to go on to school after she graduates.

If you haven't already guessed,
the senior is Maurine Hoffman.

At the Roberts' home on April 22, 1933, a little boy appeared on the scene. He was named James Richard. He has attended Chelsea schools all his life. Jim's favorites include apple pie, football, parties, club class and "The Sound of Music." His pet peeve is high school girls who smoke. His jobs include pin setter, farm work and milk hauler. The activities he has taken part in are track, football, HI-Y and FFA.

To the question "Should Chelsea have a new school?" Jim answers "Yes, because this place is too crowded and falling down."

His plans for after graduation include getting a good-paying job and settling down.

Jerry Lehmann was born in Unadilla, May 22, 1933. Jerry's favorites are chicken for food, football for sport, reading for recreation, physics for class, "Bewitched" for songs, and getting good grades as a hobby. Jerry has worked as a helper on a milk route. He has been in Latin, Journalism, HI-Y, Junior play, baseball, football, basketball, Athletic Board and chorus. He was treasurer of the Latin club his first year.

His happiest moment was when his English II exam was over. His most embarrassing moment was in the Junior class play, Act II
Scene II.

When asked if Chelsea should have a new school he said "Yes,
the old one is a wreck."

When Jerry was asked what he would do if he found $1,000, he said "I would use it for college expenses." Jerry plans to attend college and become a math and science teacher and we are sure everyone is hoping he will someday.

Who said March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb?
Maybe that's why Louise Waits who was born in Grass Lake on March 29, 1934, is as meek as a lamb. She attended Manchester school before coming to Chelsea.

If you were to call on her you would find her eating her favorite food, chicken, and doing her favorite pastime of dancing to the tune of "Mona Lisa." She enjoys bowling and art class. Her pet peeve is "people who call me Queenie since I-I day."

She has participated in chorus for three years and GAA bowling for two years. Her happiest moment will be when she receives her diploma.

She thinks Chelsea should have a new school because they need one. If she suddenly found $1,000
she would go to college.

After graduation she plans to work in a bank and then go to Comptometer school.

Ruth Eisenman was born in Chelsea, March 17, 1933. She attended the Rogers Corners grade

school before coming to Chelsea.
Her favorites are beef steak, basketball, movies, art class, "Let The Best of the World Go By,"
and reading.

Ruth's pet peeve is people who always talk about themselves. She has been a baby sitter, house-worker and waitress.

She has been in GAA, chorus, Junior play, Student Council, and treasurer of the tenth grade, and secretary of the 11th grade.

Her most embarrassing moment was when Mr. Chandler caught her chewing gum on her first day of French. She said that Chelsea needed a new school very much.

When asked what she would do if she found $1,000 she replied,
"spend it."

Ruth is planning to attend college after her graduation. She has traveled to northern Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Notre Dame, and the Soo, Lakes.

Friday afternoon visitors at the Fred Sager home were Mrs.
Leigh Beeman and Mrs. James White, of Waterloo. Friday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Ernst, of Dexter, were guests there;

Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Jondas, of Detroit, spent the day with them; and Tuesday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Scudder, of Saline.

Life to Disabled

NEED A SHOT in the arm today? Consider Miss Charlotte Heidemann, 42, of whom Chicago can be proud. Her story is unrepeatable evidence that you just can't get some people down.

Miss Heidemann lost both parents when she was six. She lived with an aunt until she could find work. She had just begun to support herself, at 17, when she began to feel pains in her feet. They were the first twinges of arthritis.

She went from hospital to hospital. In time her pains were bent almost double. The pain and stiffness spread through all her joints, and she could work no longer. With no funds and no one to help, she went to the Chicago Home for Incurables. At 23, life seemed to stretch out before her an endless desert of suffering and hopelessness.

That was in 1931. Charlotte is still in the Home for Incurables. She is still in constant pain, and spends most of her time in bed or in a wheelchair. But today she is more cheerful than most healthy people. She has a purpose in life and an occupation which makes herself and other people happy.

Twenty years ago she started working with jewelry as occupational therapy, to bring back partial use of her bent and crippled fingers. But Charlotte made an art out of her medical exercise. She learned to forget her pain in the creation of beautiful things. Today she makes exquisite jewelry, including earrings, necklaces, pins and bracelets, and has applied her skill also to constructing extraordinarily lifelike and beautiful artificial flowers. She sells her creations, and has a big demand.

The Chicago chapter of the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation has just appointed her chairman of its Arthritis Brigade in the national campaign to raise $2,000,000 for research and treatment of arthritis, which began November 14.

A sensible looking girl very often is not as sensible as she looks, because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible.

When to Water Lawn

A lawn needs watering when the upper inch or so of the soil reveals any dryness. This dryness can be quickly determined by taking a small sampling plug of earth from the grass root area.

CARD OF THANKS

The Chelsea Kiwanis club wishes to thank the Child Study Club, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Chelsea Aerie No. 2636, UAW-CIO Amalgamated Local 437 of Chelsea, for their generous and unselfish donations that went for gifts to the needy in Chelsea at Christmas time.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish in this way to express our gratitude and appreciation for the beautiful flowers received and the many expressions of sympathy and acts of kindness extended by our many relatives, friends and neighbors during the illness and stay in the hospital and following the death of our loved one. We especially thank Rev. Vern Panzer for his comforting words and Mrs. Panzer for the organ music.

EASY DOES IT

Artificial flowers may be refreshed in appearance by holding them over steam for a minute, or two. Brushing them weekly will help keep the dust off and thus enable them to retain their fresh colors.

Parchment and metallic lamp shades should be dusted with a soft cloth. Clean with a mixture of one part of turpentine to 10 parts of mineral oil. Use a soft cloth; wipe gently but firmly.

Baskets around the house respond best to a gentle scrubbing with mild and frothy suds and lukewarm water. A gentle spray of water helps remove soap or detergent easily. Dry quickly with an absorbent cloth so the baskets do not become mildewed.

If the bath tub is discolored and will not respond to cleaning with abrasive cleaners, then use a chlorine bleach in the tub. Let it stand for several hours or overnight if stains are stubborn.

Fabrics on upholstery and lamps should be dusted frequently so loose dirt does not become imbedded in the materials. A vacuum cleaner attachment will also help draw out dust.

Plan to wipe the bathroom mirror with soft cloth or paper tissue while there's moisture in the room. This removes dirt easily in a few sweeping strokes.

Sink fixtures of chrome will keep their shiny brightness easily if you polish them once a week, and wipe them daily with a soft, dry cloth.

Anne Lamberton, Frederick Belser Married Saturday

Eleanor Anne Lamberton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lamberton, and Frederick C. Belser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Belser, exchanged their wedding vows at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McLaughlin, 915 South Main street. Rev. Malory Fitzpatrick, Jr., of Mount Hope Congregational church, Detroit, was the officiating clergyman.

The ceremony was performed in front of the fireplace which was banked with greens and with white snapdragons and mums. Tall candelabras at either side were tied with white satin bows and trimmed with holly. A white rug completed the effective setting for the bridal party. Only the immediate families of the couple were present.

For her wedding the former Miss Lamberton chose a gown of ivory embroidered damask. She wore a necklace of pearls which was a gift of the bridegroom, and heirloom pearl earrings. A satin and lace Juliet cap, trimmed with seed pearls and orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a lavender orchid and finished with streamers of satin ribbon in which tiny white rosebuds were knotted.

When the couple left later for a two-week wedding trip to New Orleans, the bride wore the orchid from her bouquet pinned to her plum-colored going-away suit. She wore black velvet accessories with the suit.

Martha Lee Nason, of Casnovia, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of red net having the skirt trimmed with flowers fashioned of ostrich feathers. Her headpiece was a Juliet cap of metallic green and she carried white roses and holly. A pearl necklace and earrings completed her ensemble.

James Kathryn McLaughlin, the bride's cousin, was a junior bridesmaid. Dressed in a green dotted Swiss floor-length gown with a matching Juliet cap, she carried a small bouquet of red roses trimmed with streamers of white ribbon. She also wore a string of pearls, a gift from the bride.

Wilfred Lane assisted the bridegroom as best man. Before the ceremony recordings of Tchaikovsky's "Waltz Serenade," Grieg's "The Last Spring," and Lohengrin's "Prelude" were played by James McLaughlin, the bride's cousin, who also lighted the candles. Another cousin, David McLaughlin, and an aunt, Mrs. C. L. Trafford, of Grand Rapids, presided at the guest book during the reception following the ceremony. Mrs. Grace Thayer of Dearborn, an aunt of the bridegroom, poured and Mrs. H. G. Armstrong of Milwaukee, great-aunt of the bride, served the punch, while Lucile Hackley of Jackson, cut the cake. The cake, in the shape of a cross, was trimmed at each corner with poinsettias and was ornamented with an arrangement of bells and ribbon. Holly encircled the base of the cake. Upon returning from their wedding trip the couple will reside at 98 Cavanaugh Lake.

At Home in Ann Arbor

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels are shown above as they were on their way to the reception following their marriage at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, Dec. 21, in the Congregational church. The couple is now at home at 320 East Washington street, Ann Arbor, after spending a few days in Chicago.

For the wedding the bride wore an afternoon suit dress of sand beige-faille fashioned with a full skirt and a fitted bodice fastened with tiny buttons of matching material. The collar and cuffs featured embroidery of silver thread and brilliants and her hat, of matching material, was trimmed with matching embroidery. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses. When the couple left for a short wedding trip the bride wore a brown fur coat over her suit.

Mrs. Harley A. Prudden of Ann Arbor, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a taffeta dress in a burnt copper shade, and her accessories were brown. She carried a hand corsage of yellow roses.
